250 Program Wins

The Georgia Bulldogs hit the 250 wins in program history mark with a 5-1 defeat over Charlotte on Sunday, August 26, 2018.

Fancy Footwork and Tickling the Ivories

Delaney Erwin can play the piano and talked about her hidden talent in an interview with georgiadogs.com.

"It has a lot to do with creativity- on the field I like to be creative offensively and I like to make my own stuff on the piano."

A Summer Spent Serving With A Ball At Her Feet

It is no secret that junior Keely Cartrett is beyond passionate about her love for soccer, but even more than that, Cartrett is also well known across campus for her passion for Christ.

While most students away for summer break are seen lounging on the beach or sleeping in until noon, Cartrett was doing something much different. This summer, Cartrett spent three weeks in Barcelona, Spain on a soccer mission trip with an organization called "Athletes in Action".

South Carolina Series History

Although the Gamecocks lead the all-time series with the Bulldogs, a highlight of the 2017 season was playing to a 1-1 draw against then-ranked No. 3 South Carolina in Columbia. The Gamecocks went on to earn the No. 1 seed of the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Final Four.

LAST MEETING » Down 1-0 with 46 seconds remaining in regulation, Georgia freshman Katie Ralys scored the equalizer to send the Bulldogs into overtime against No. 3 South Carolina at Stone Stadium. Georgia (4-11-2, 0-8-1 SEC) and South Carolina (14-1-1, 8-0-1 SEC) played to a 1-1 tie after double overtime in the Bulldogs' final road game of the season.

Georgia's goal was set up by a shot from freshman Mollie Bellisle in the final minute of play. The shot was blocked, giving the Bulldogs a corner kick opportunity. Sophomore Daria Stan sent the corner kick into the box, allowing Ralys to score.

"It was a very exciting game," Georgia head coach Billy Lesesne said. "We got stronger as the game went on. It's a 90-minute game and we got our goal in the last of those minutes. It was an effort that everybody is very proud of. The girls have to be very excited and proud of their effort and so are we. We kept pushing in overtime and had some really good chances there. I'm really pleased with the response after being on the field with one of the better teams in the country, and certainly in our conference. To perform like this, I am super excited and super proud of our team."

Scouting South Carolina

» Despite the impressive record this season, South Carolina is not near the top of the SEC statistically this season.

» South Carolina remains the only team in the SEC to not allow a goal in the first half of any match this season after blanking Auburn this past weekend. The South Carolina defense has only allowed four goals in the field of play.

Auburn Series History

The Bulldogs are 5-3-2 in Auburn and hoping to extend that advantage this weekend.

LAST MEETING » Georgia scored two goals in the first half but it was not enough to defeat the Auburn Tigers as the Bulldogs dropped a 4-2 decision at the Turner Soccer Complex.

Georgia jumped to an early lead over Auburn in the 11th minute of play, with Marion Crowder scoring the Bulldogs' first goal in SEC action. A corner kick from Mariel Gutierrez allowed Maddie Burdick to boot the ball towards the net with Crowder making the final touch for the goal.

Auburn answered with a goal of its own in the 15th minute.

Georgia regained the lead as Bria Washington passed the ball up to Crowder who was able to find the back of the net for her second goal of the game.

Auburn applied pressure in the second half and was able to score the equalizer in the 49th minute.

The Tigers took off from there as they scored the go-ahead goal in the 61st minute and the Bulldogs could not recover.

Georgia was able to hold the Tigers to just six shots in the second half, but could not capitalize on its own five shots taken in the last 45 minutes of play.

Auburn sealed the win with less than six minutes to play, taking a 4-2 victory over Georgia.

Scouting Auburn

- » Auburn fell out of the Top 25 this week after a loss to No. 14 South Carolina.
- » The Tigers matched up in nearly every category against the Gamecocks including shots (12-13), corners (1-2) and saves (3-4), but ultimately came up short on the scoreboard against the two-time defending SEC champs.
- » After getting off to its best start in program history with nine straight wins to start the season, Auburn battled LSU to a scoreless draw on the road before dropping its first match of the season to Ole Miss, 3-2.

Weekend Rewind

Georgia fell to No. 25 Vanderbilt, 5-0, in a Southeastern Conference matchup on Sunday, September 30 at the Vanderbilt Soccer Complex.

Georgia was able to take six shots, but the Vanderbilt goalkeeper Lauren Demarchi was there to keep the UGA offense in check.

During the first half of play, Vanderbilt took a 4-0 lead over the Bulldogs. The Commodores struck first in the 17th minute and extended its lead three minutes later with a goal off a corner kick. A Georgia foul gave Vanderbilt a free kick and the Commodores were able to get another goal 27 minutes into the game. Before the half was over, the Commodores capitalized on another free kick opportunity.

The Bulldogs created four opportunities in the first half. The most promising look came after Daria Stan delivered a great ball in the box, but Ashley Andersen's header was saved by the Vanderbilt goalkeeper.

Vanderbilt's efficiency continued in the second half although Georgia was able to hold the Commodores to only four shots in the final 45 minutes. The Commodores added another goal at the 60 minute mark to defeat the Bulldogs, 5-0.

SEC Players of the Week

After registering eight points on three goals and two assists in the tie with Indiana and win against Charlotte, Reagan Glisson was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week.

After Georgia defeated Arkansas, 3-1, in the SEC opener, Emory Wegener was named SEC Freshman of the Week. The Johns Creek native registered five saves in her first conference game as a Bulldog and was a few minutes shy of a shutout due to a penalty kick opportunity. She has started all nine games for Georgia, leads the SEC with 44 saves and has earned three shutouts.
