The Racers have already faced one SEC team this season when they pushed Alabama (Nov. 26) before falling 78-72. Sophomore sensation Ja Morant scored 38 points, just part of an outstanding season to date, which included one of 15 NCAA D-I triple-double games when he had 29 points, 13 rebounds and 12 assists against Missouri State (Nov. 24). Going into the game at Auburn, Morant is first in NCAA D-I with 9.6 assists per game. He leads the Ohio Valley Conference and is 18th in the nation with 22.8 points per game.

The Racers are defending at a high level in Coach Matt McMahon's fourth season as they lead the nation in 3-point field goal defense. Through nine games, opponents are only hitting 22 percent against the Racers (33-of-153). The best anyone has been able to do against the Racers was six made threes by Prairie View (Dec. 1) and by Evansville on Tuesday.

After the Christmas break, the Racers return to action at home against Bethel (TN) on Dec. 29. MSU opens OVC play at home with Morehead State (Jan. 3) and Southeast Missouri (Jan. 5).

Racer Observations

- Tevin Brown has hit at least one 3-point basket in his first nine games at MSU. The Murray State record for consecutive games with a made three is 40 by Isaiah Canaan from 2012-13.
- Ja Morant had the fourth-highest assist game in MSU history at home against Jackson State (Dec. 15) with 14. The MSU record of 16 by Chad Towsend was accomplished against Eastern Illinois (2-20-1997).
- Tevin Brown's six 3-pointers at SIU tied the season high for the Racers after Ja Morant did it against Missouri State (Nov. 24).
- MSU's 11 3-pointers at SIU was their season high, one better than opening night against Wright State (Nov. 10) when they made 10.
- MSU has only given up a season-high six 3-point baskets coming in the PVAM and UE games. The last time a team hit 10 or more against the Racers was last season when Belmont hit 14 on Jan. 18, 2018. Auburn hit 12 against the Racers in their meeting a year ago.
- The Racers trailed Evansville at both the five-minute and two-minute marks but managed to win. The last time the Racers came back to win from trailing at the five-minute mark was at home (11-11-16) in a 73-70 win over Illinois State after trailing by two. The last time MSU was down at the two-minute mark was at Southeast Missouri (2-14-15) when they rallied from a three-point deficit to force overtime where they eventually won 94-92.
- For the second time this season, the Racers had a pair of players reach 20 points in scoring in the SIU game when Morant had 23 and Tevin Brown 20. Since 2016, the Racers have 10 such games.
- An amazing side fact to the Racers' 28-point win at SIU, they were whistled for 20 fouls, while SIU only had five. The Racers still won easily (80-52) even though they only went to the free throw line seven times (and hit all of them) and SIU made 17.
- Morant and Buchanan have made 99 combined starts in the last two seasons.
- Mike Davis was called on to make his first MSU start at MTSU (Dec. 8) and the first game without injured senior forward, Anthony Smith.
- In nine games this season, the Racers have enjoyed having the lead for an average of 31 minutes per game.

- Racers Running With Growing Home Winning Streak

The Racers pushed their home in streak to 15 (Dec. 18) in a win over Evansville. The current run started shortly after the Racers lost at home last December against Auburn. It's the best home win streak since MSU won 18-straight from November of 2014 to December of 2015 under Coach Steve Prohm and Matt McMahon. The Racers are 40-10 in the four seasons of home games in the Coach Matt McMahon era. MSU still has a while to get close to the all-time record of 47. The Racers had the longest streak in the nation when it ended in 2000. It closed out old Racer Arena starting in 1996 under Coach Mark Gottfried and opened what was then called the Regional Special Events Center (now CFSB Center) before it was halted by SEMO in 2000 when Tevester Anderson was coach. In their 21st season of basketball at the CFSB Center, the Racers are 247-44 (.848) all-time in the arena and 101-17 (.854) against non-conference opponents. the Racers are an amazing 92-17 (.842) on their home floor in the last eight seasons.

• Perfect 1H At SIU?

The first half for the Racers might go down as the best first half in program history. The Racers hit the Salukis (7-4) with a 15-4 run to build a 19-9 lead at the 10:15 mark. Included in MSU's initial salvo was a pair of Morant 3-pointers. Tevin Brown got hot and hit three-straight 3-pointers and the Racers led 35-14 on a 12-0 run. When the horn sounded for halftime, the Racers had a 31-point lead over SIU at 49-18. In the first 20 minutes, the Racers were 19-of-33 from the field for 67 percent and 8-of-13 from the 3-point line for 61 percent. Defensively, it is hard to imagine the Racers could defend any better in holding SIU to 19 percent (5-of-26) and 1-of-7 from the 3-point line for 14 percent. The Racers had 12 assists on 19 field goals and had a 22-16 rebounding edge. They forced SIU into four more turnovers than field goals.

• The Morant Factor

Ja Morant is in rare air these days only 41 games into his Racer career. His averages for far feature 14.1 points per game, 6.6 rebounds and 7.0 assists. Although less than half the sample size a player will get over the course of four seasons, it's not crazy to compare him to some of the greats to wear the MSU uniform. Morant compares well with these Racer greats in great splits of points, rebounds and assists per game and specifally, those that averaged more than four rebounds per game.

• The Ball Hawk - Shaq Buchanan

With five steals in the first five minutes at Middle Tennessee (Dec. 1), Shaq Buchanan looked like he was going to get the MSU school record for steals in the first half. He ended with seven, his new career-high ahead of the four he had at Alabama (Nov. 26). The Murray State record for single-game steals still stands at eight. Kevin Thomas did it in 2008 at Missouri and the other happened in 1983 by Brian Stewart in against Eastern Illinois.

• Racers Adjust To Loss Of Senior Smith

The Racers played their first game without senior foward Anthony Smith who suffered an ankle injury (Dec. 4) and will miss the remainder of the season. The Racers' top rebounder, Smith was was in the top-10 in

In the MTSU game (Dec. 8), Smith's fellow front court mates, Brion Sanchious, Mike Davis and KJ Williams all set their season high for minutes played. Smith is a likely candidate for a medical redshirt that would enable him to return next season in 2019-20 for his senior season.

• Morant Named OVC Player Of The Week - Back-To-Back Weeks

Murray State's Ja Morant was named the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Week for men's basketball in the week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2 and was honored in back-to-back weeks. In the last 15 seasons, there have only been four other instances of a MSU player doing this. Cuthbert Victor won three-straight weeks of awards in 2003. Isaiah Canaan had back-to-back weeks in 2012 and Cameron Payne did it in 2015. Morant began the week with a career-high 38 points against Alabama (Nov. 26) and nine rebounds and five assists. He was 16-of-29 from the field, both career bests. His game of 16 made field goals is the second highest game of the season in NCAA D-I behind only Gonzaga's Josh McSwiggan who had a game of 17 made shots. Morant scored 25 points with nine rebounds and five assists against Prairie View on Saturday. For the week, he averaged 31.5 points per game on 22-of-41 shooting (.537) and 18-of-22 (.818) from the free throw line.

• Triple-Double Fever

Ja Morant made history (Nov. 24) when he recorded his second triple-double as a Racer in only his 35th career game at Murray State. His line was: 29 points, 13 rebounds and 12 assists. His first came last Dec. 28, 2017 against Eastern Illinois when he had 11 points, 10 rebounds and 14 assists. Murray State's only other triple-double (in records that date back to 1984) came in 2009 when Isacc Miles had 13 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists against UT Martin (Feb. 23, 2009).

• Morant Named To Olsen & Henson Watch Lists

Ja Morant has been named to the watch lists for two of CollegeInsider.com's biggest awards. The Lute Olsen Award goes to the national player of the year in NCAA D-I. Murray State's Cameron Payne won the award in 2015. The Lou Henson Award goes to the national mid-major player of the year.

• Racers Sign Three For 2019-20

Murray State coach Matt McMahon announced the signing of three student-athletes that will join the Racers as freshmen in the 2019-20 season.

Chico Carter – 6-3 – Guard - Cardinal Newman HS – Columbia, S.C.

Chico Carter, out of Cardinal Newman High School, led the Cardinals in scoring as a junior in 2017-18 with 21.8 points per game, to go with 5.2 rebounds per game and 4.7 assists per game. Carter scored more than 20 points in 19 games and had two games of 30 point scoring for Coach Phillip Deter. Carter and his teammates will be looking for a third-straight trip to the South Carolina State Tournament in class 3A this season.

Demond Robinson – 6-8 – Forward - Lee HS - Montgomery, Ala.

Out of Lee High School, Demond Robinson was named All State in Alabama class 7A, the largest classification in the state as a junior in the 2017-18 season. He scored 15 points per game for the Generals and grabbed eight rebounds per game. He also led his team in steals and blocked shots. Robinson will likely surpass the 1,000 point mark this season and also become the school's all-time leader in blocked shots and rebounds. In a program that has been ranked among the best in the state in all three of his seasons as a varsity player, Robinson can finish as part of the winningest class in program history.

Matthew Smith – 6-6 – Forward - Independence HS - Charlotte, N.C.

Matthew Smith was part of a North Carolina State class 4A championship in the state's highest classification as a junior in 2017-18 when the Patriots were 31-1. He averaged 12 points per game and nine rebounds per game.

PRESEASON NOTES

• MSU goes into the 2018-19 season trying to replace the big production they got from graduated seniors Jonathan Stark (OVC Player of the Year) 21.4ppg and Terrell Miller (All-OVC First Team) 15.1ppg. Their combined 1,168 points represented 46 percent of the team's scoring. Replacing that won't be easy, but the Racers believe they have the pieces necessary to once again battle for the top spot in the OVC.

MM - CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Poll
AP - Associated Press Poll
USA - USA Today Coaches' Poll
NNET - NCAA NET Ratings
KP - KenPom.com Rating

• The Racers return three starters including sophomore point guard Ja Morant (Dalzell, S.C.) who was named All-OVC First Team and All-OVC Newcomer Team as a freshman. Morant started every one of the Racers' 32 games and was 15th nationally with 6.2 assists per game. Among NCAA D-I freshman, only Oklahoma's Trea Young was better with 8.7. Morant enters his sophomore season as the fifth returning scorer in the OVC at 12.7ppg, the eighth returning rebounder at 6.5rpg and the first returning assister at 6.3apg.

• Shaq Buchanan and Brion Sanchious are seniors and give the Racers a total of three returning starters along with Morant. Sanchious (Pompano Beach, Fla.), is the glue that holds the Racers together on both ends of the floor and doesn't score a lot, but he did make 61 percent of his 70 shots from 2017-18. Buchanan (Madison, Miss.) became a starter in the third game of the season and became a player that can do just about everything a team needs to win. He led the team with 50 steals (4th in the OVC) and tossed in 9.1ppg and grabbed 3.9rpg. Senior Anthony Smith (Suitland, Md.) appeared in all 32 games off the bench for the Racers and his experience and high energy will be even more important to the team this season.

• Racer Newcomers DaQuan Smith (Holly Springs, Miss.) and KJ Williams (Cleveland, Miss.) were both honored to represent their home state at the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Series (March 16) in which the top high school players from the Yellowhammer State and the Magnolia State play an exhibition game. Representing Mississippi, Smith and Williams helped their team as Mississippi broke the 1994 record for most points with a 127-90 win. Smith and Williams were both named to the Clarion Ledger's Dandy Dozen. Each year, Mississippi's largest newspaper selects their top high school players in the preseason and the postseason and this Racer freshman duo was picked for both.

• Guard Tevin Brown (Fairhope, Ala.) finally gets to get on the floor with the Racers after a foot injury caused him to miss the entire 2017-18 season. Brown, a 2017 Alabama 6A All-State selection, starts his freshman season a year later and is part of a rookie class that is highly touted including the aforementioned Mississippi duo of DaQuan Smith and KJ Williams. Guard Jalen Johnson (Hopkinsville, Ky.) finishes out this great class after a Kentucky All-State career at Hopkinsville.

• Racer sophomores Devin Gilmore (Picayune, Miss.) and Brion Whitley (Sarasota, Fla.) are ready to gain more responsibility in the 2018-19 season.

• The Racers have also signed up a versatile trio of players from the JUCO ranks. Darnell Cowart (Chicago, Ill.), Mike Davis (East Brewton, Ala.) and Jaiveon Eaves (Madisonville, Ky.) will have a chance to make a big impact on the season. Cowart appeared in 31 games at Cowley County CC in Kansas and averaged 15.9 points per game and hauled in 7.7 rebounds. He had nine games of 20-point scoring. Davis was an all-league player at Coastal Alabama North CC where he scored 16.2ppg and grabbed 8.1rpg and Eaves was named the NJCAA Region-24 Player of the Year at John A Logan JC by scoring 16.1ppg.

• The Racers are coming off an impressive 2017-18 season that saw them win the Ohio Valley Conference regular season title and OVC Tournament title and appear in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2012. Head Coach Matt McMahon leads the Racers into his fifth season after he became the eighth-straight Racer coach to reach the NCAA Tournament.

• MSU (26-6, 16-2 OVC) won their final 12 games to win the OVC regular season championship. After losing at Belmont (Jan. 18) 79-72, the Racers ran the table. As the No. 1 seed at the OVC Tournament in Evansville, the Racers defeated Jacksonville State and Belmont to reach their 16th NCAA Tournament. MSU was a No. 12 seed and lost to No. 5 seed West Virginia in San Diego by an 85-68 score.

• The 2018-19 season is the 21st for the Racers in the CFSB Center. Formerly known as the Regional Special Events Center, the arena opened in the fall of 1998. Just like they did for 48 years at Racer Arena, MSU has enjoyed a home winning percentage at "The Bank". Last season they were 14-2 at home and carry a winning streak of nine in a row into the 2018-19 season. MSU didn't lose an OVC game at home last season and their last loss was to Auburn (Dec. 19). Coming into the 2018-19 season, MSU is 245-44 (.847) overall and 146-27 (. 843) in OVC games. Their non-conference mark is 99-17 (.853).

• The Racers have led the OVC in scoring average in the last two seasons. In 2016-17, they scored 80.0 points per game, while Morehead State was at 79.0. Then last season in 2017-18 MSU led the OVC at 78.6, just ahead of Belmont at 77.6. Having Jonathan Stark on the floor certainly made that happen as he led the league in scoring in both seasons.

With satisfaction of winning the Ohio Valley Conference regular season and tournament title in the record books, the Racers and head coach Matt McMahon have basked in the glory of taking the Racers to it's 16th NCAA Tournament. As McMahon enters his fourth season at Murray State, the 2018-19 season finds the Racers developing talent and trying to replace the best player in the OVC and perhaps the second best player.

Named the Racers' 16th head coach on June 9, 2015. McMahon was the third youngest rookie among NCAA D-I coaches.

He had previously taken the associate head coach position at Louisiana Tech, before coming back to Murray State two weeks later when Steve Prohm was suddenly given the opportunity to coach at Iowa State. McMahon was a key component on Prohm's staff as an assistant and was part of 104 victories over four seasons (2011-15), including a pair of Ohio Valley Conference championships, a CollegeInsider Tournament Championship and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament quarterfinals.

The Racers' 2017-18 season was another historic campaign that saw MSU win 26 games and take their 25th OVC regular season title at 16-2. The Racers won the OVC Tournament (held at the Ford Center in Evansville for the first time) with wins over Jacksonville State and Belmont which sent the Racers to the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time. Playing in the NCAAs for the first time since 2012, the Racers were a No. 12 seed and sent out west to San Diego where they battled No. 5 West Virginia. With OVC Player of the Year Jonathan Stark and All-OVC pick Terrell Miller leading the way, the Racers had the nation's longest winning streak (13) before falling to WVU. MSU had a final NCAA RPI of No. 48 and KenPom.com had MSU as the No. 62 team in the nation. Coach McMahon was named the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC) District 19 Coach of the Year and he was also a finalist for the CollegeInsider.com Coach Skip Prosser Award and Coach Hugh Durham Award.

McMahon's expertise in college basketball is far reaching. Known in the field as an excellent recruiter, he also is among the best in the nation in the area of player development and game planning. In 2012, McMahon was named to the list of best assistant coaches by FoxSports.com and CollegeInsider.com.

In his seven seasons at MSU, McMahon has coached an impressive group of All-Ohio Valley Conference performers including Isaiah Canaan, Donte Poole, Ivan Aska, Ed Daniel, Jarvis Williams, Cameron Payne, Jeffery Moss, Jonathan Stark, Terrell Miller and Ja Morant. At Appalachian State, McMahon coached Southern Conference MVP Donald Sims as well as All-Conference picks Jeremy Clayton and D.J. Thompson. At UNCW, McMahon recruited Adam Smith, a Parade Second Team All-America selection.

McMahon, a native of Oak Ridge, Tenn., graduated from Appalachian State in 2000 with a degree in marketing. His wife Mary is a former standout for the Furman women's basketball team. The couple has two daughters, Maris (8) and Mabry (5), and a son, Mason (61
