SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

Auburn kicked off the 2018 campaign with two big wins, topping in-state rival Samford, 4-0, in Birmingham before returning home to take down No. 18 South Florida, 2-1.

Bri Folds scored the Tigers' first two goals against Samford, followed by goals from Angeline Daly and Jessie Gerow. Overall, the Tigers outshot Samford 17-4 in the match and put nine on frame.

Gerow scored against for Auburn against South Florida, while Jaelyn Gadson netted her first goal of the season. Goalkeeper Sarah Le Beau was also huge for the Orange and Blue against the visiting Bulls, recording eight saves against 20 shots attempted.

LAST TIME OUT

Battling driving rain for most of Friday evening's match, the UAB women's soccer team was unable to unlock a stout South Alabama defense as the Jaguars held off the Blazers for a 1-0 decision at BBVA Compass Field.

Despite being outshot 15-5, the Blazer defense was able to limit the damage in large part to goalkeeper Kelsey Daugherty's heroics between the pipes after she came up with five big saves.

Junior Natalie Presedo finished the night with a career-best two shots in 65 minutes of action, while Brenda Bishop earned her first collegiate start after playing 68 minutes. Freshmen Tay Collum and Izzy Varnado also made their first collegiate appearances for the Green and Gold on Friday night.

SERIES HISTORY

• UAB and Auburn will meet on the pitch for the 11th time since 1996, with Auburn leading the all-time series, 6-4. The two sides last met on Aug. 28, 2015 in Auburn, which the Tigers won 4-0.

• The Blazers are seeking their first win against Auburn since a 3-0 decision during the 1999 season.

• Overall, UAB is 24-30-1 against opponents from the Southeastern Conference.

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

• The Blazers will face five opponents from the state of Alabama during the 2018 non-conference portion of their schedule, including a stretch of three-straight to begin the regular season

• UAB opened its 2018 campaign with a 3-0 victory over Jacksonville State in exhibition play before squaring off with South Alabama (08/17), Auburn (08/24) and Samford (08/26).

• Overall, the Green and Gold boast a 13-9 record against its five opponents from Alabama.

FIRST TIME OUT

• Newcomer Brenda Bishop made her first career start in the Green and Gold against South Alabama, playing 68 minutes in the loss.

• Two other freshman made their collegiate debuts against South Alabama as Tay Collum and Izzy Varnado each got time against the Jags.

CARRYING THE MOMENTUM

• UAB looks to continue right where it left off during the 2017 season when it finished the season 13-4-3, tied for the second-best win total in program history.

• The Blazers are in good shape to match their success from last year as they welcome back nine starters from the 2017 squad and return a total of 21 players. The team also welcomes in five newcomers that will look to make an impact for the team.

SHE SHOOTS, SHE SCORES!

• The team returns two of its top goal scorers from last season in Caroline Kehrer and Megan Hudgens, who each scored seven goals in 2017. The duo combined for 69 shots, 36 points and eight assists last season, while Kehrer slotted home three game-winning goals.

• The pair got off to a good start by scoring in the Blazers' 3-0 exhibition win against Jacksonville State.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

• UAB's defense was one of the best in the league last season, posting a league-best 0.75 goals against average in 2017.

• Audria Wood, Melissa Cameron, Natalie Presedo and Megan Morrow started every game for the Blazers' back line last year and all look to continue that lockdown mentality for the team this season.

• Wood was especially strong for UAB as a freshman in 2017, claiming C-USA Defensive Player of the Week honors once en route to earning C-USA All-Freshman Team honors at the end of the season.

NO FLY ZONE

• Goalkeeper Kelsey Daugherty was a stud between the sticks for UAB last season, earning Goalkeeper of the Week honors four times throughout the season and being named to the Conference USA First Team.

• UAB's shot stopper was tops in Conference USA in goals against average (0.75) and save percentage (.857), while finishing second in the league and 46th in the nation with seven shutouts and saves (90).

• Daugherty was the only Blazer tabbed to the 2018 Conference USA Preseason Team.

C-USA PRESEASON POLL

• UAB was picked to finish in sixth place this season by the league's head coaches. The Blazers closed out the 2017 campaign with a third place finish.
