KICKERS

- Ole Miss is coming off of its first SEC loss of the season, a 2-0 defeat to No. 19 Tennessee on Thursday.
- Marnie Merritt made a season-high eight saves in the loss to the Volunteers on Thursday, two shy of the career-high 10 she made last season at Texas A&M.
- The Rebels went 1-1 last week to move to 7-3 on the season, defeating Alabama 1-0 on the road in Tuscaloosa to start SEC play.
- The victory over Alabama was the first win for Ole Miss in its SEC opener since 2013.
- The clean sheet against the Crimson Tide marks the first time since 2003 that the Rebels have opened conference action with a shutout.
- The NCAA released its initial RPI report this week, with Ole Miss slotted at No. 80.
- Rebel head coach Matt Mott will be making a return to The Plains on Sunday, having served on the coaching staff at Auburn from 1999-2005.
- Sunday's matchup will provide a quality opportunity for the Rebels to move up in the RPI rankings, with Auburn slotted at No. 11 nationally.
- The all-time series between Ole Miss and Auburn is deadlocked at 11-11-2, with the Rebels going undefeated against the Tigers since 2013.
- Auburn will provide a stiff test for the Ole Miss defense, with the Tigers leading the nation in goals, assists and points.
- The Rebel attack will have its hands full Sunday as well, with Auburn leading the SEC with a 0.293 goals against average.
- CeCe Kizer is one goal away from breaking Ole Miss' all-time record for goals in a career. The senior is currently tied with Rebel great Rafaelle Souza with 44.
- Kizer continues to lead the SEC with 22 points and nine goals, while ranking tied for seventh with four assists. The senior ranks third in the nation in both goals and points.
- 11 different Rebels have scored in 2018, while 11 players have recorded at least one assist on the season.

BY HOME STATE

SCOUTING AUBURN

Having their perfect record broken with a 0-0 draw on Thursday against LSU, the Tigers boast a 9-0-1 record coming into Sunday's match, the lone unbeaten mark in the SEC. Auburn is the league's leading scoring offense, averaging 3.20 goals per game, third most in the nation. The Tigers have gotten their scoring from many different areas, with 12 different players having scored, including seven with multiple goals. The Tigers have also been extremely stingy on defense, ranking fifth in the nation and first in the SEC with a 0.293 goals against average.

The Auburn offense is spearheaded by junior forward Bri Folds, who ranks 16th nationally with seven goals, while also dishing out six assists on the season. Folds' 20 points are the sixth most in Division I, sitting two behind Ole Miss' CeCe Kizer for the SEC lead. Junior forward Treva Aycocock has also been a force for AU, bagging five goals and five assists for 15 total points. Junior Jessie Gerow and redshirt-freshman Angeline Daly are next in line for the Tigers with 10 points on four goals and two assists apiece.

The Tigers have implemented three goalkeepers to produce their stellar defensive record, though senior Sarah Le Beau has done the bulk of the heavy lifting with all 10 starts and 844:31 between the posts. Le Beau has surrendered just three goals on the season for a 0.32 goals against average, making 35 saves and posting a .921 save percentage. Redshirt freshman Morgan Ramby and junior Sophie Milich have both seen spot duty, with both not having yet allowed a goal.

SERIES HISTORY - AUBURN

After last season's draw in Oxford, the all-time series between Ole Miss and Auburn remains deadlocked at 11-11-2, with Ole Miss remaining unbeaten against the Tigers since 2014 with a pair of wins and a pair of draws. The Rebels are 4-6-2 all-time at Auburn, though they have fared far better recently. In the last six meetings out on The Plains, Ole Miss is 3-1-2 as the road team.

LAST MEETING - AUBURN (10/19/17)

Ole Miss took the lead over Auburn twice but each time the Tigers were able to answer back as the two teams settled for a draw at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium.

The Rebels jumped out in front early, with CeCe Kizer scoring from the top of the 18-yard box off a feed from Gabby Little to take the lead in the eighth minute. The advantage, however, didn't last long as Courtney Schell evened the score for Auburn in the 15th-minute.

It was once again Little and Kizer that combined to give the Rebels a second half lead in the 53rd minute. After Little was dragged down in the box for a penalty, Kizer converted from the spot to regain the lead for Ole Miss at 2-1.

The lead lasted nearly 20 minutes until Auburn again equalized in the 72nd-minute, scoring on a set play from the top corner of the 18-yard box on a curling shot from Ellie Leek.

A few minutes later the Rebels were dealt a tough blow as Ella Frischknecht was shown a questionable red card, forcing Ole Miss to play defensively down a player for the final 36 minutes. The Rebels were able to hold on in the end, earning an important point.

RECORD WATCH: CECE KIZER

With her 15th-minute goal in the 2-1 win against FAU in Fayetteville, senior CeCe Kizer tied the Ole Miss all-time record for goals in a career. The Overland Park, Kansas native has found the back of the net 44 times in a Rebel kit, laying claim to two of the top-10 greatest goal-scoring seasons in program history, netting 14 as a freshman and 16 a season ago. The prolific scorer is also just three points from breaking the career-record in that category, having racked up 106 points in her career.

RECORD WATCH: MARNIE MERRITT

Having been stationed between the posts for just about every second of Ole Miss' schedule over the past four seasons, fifth-year senior Marnie Merritt is closing in on a pair of career records at Ole Miss. Merritt has registered 21 clean sheets in her Rebel career, two shy of breaking the school record for shutouts in a career. The Huntersville, North Carolina product is also zeroing in on the all-time record for wins in a career, needing just five more to surpass Kelly McCormick for the Ole Miss record.

MOTT RETURNS TO THE PLAINS

Rebel head coach Matt Mott will have a certain level of comfort when stepping inside of the Auburn Soccer Complex on Sunday, having spent six seasons on the coaching staff for the Tigers from 1999-2005, first as an assistant, then assistant head coach and ultimately associate head coach. Helping Auburn to four-straight SEC West titles and NCAA Tournament appearances from 2001-04, Mott was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 as the Tigers won the SEC Championship. Prior to arriving on The Plains, Mott also served as assistant coach under Tiger head coach Karen Hoppa for four seasons at his alma mater, UCF.

ROOM TO MAKE UP IN THE RPI

The NCAA recently released the initial RPI report for the 2018 season, with Ole Miss coming in at No. 80. However, the Rebels will have plenty of opportunity to improve their standing, with three of Ole Miss' remaining opponents ranked inside the top-11, including the top two teams in Texas A&M and Mississippi State. The Rebels have already picked up one win over a top-30 team, defeating No. 27 Alabama last Thursday.

NO SLOWING HER DOWN

Since stepping on campus in Oxford four years ago, CeCe Kizer has established herself as one of the great goal scorers not only in the SEC but across the nation. Despite a three-match scoreless streak that could only be considered a slump for someone as prolific as Kizer, the native Kansan continues to hold her place near the top of the scoring charts in 2018. With nine goals and 22 points through 10 matches, Kizer ranks third in the nation in both categories, two goals and three points behind the national lead.

REBS OPEN SEC PLAY WITH A DUB

For the first time in five years, Ole Miss kicked off SEC play with a victory, defeating Alabama 1-0 in Tuscaloosa behind Molly Martin's 45th-minute headed goal. The Rebels had to survive a furious push from Alabama in the second half, as the Crimson Tide launched 13 shots at the Ole Miss goal, though only three were on frame. Marnie Merritt and the Ole Miss defense came up big to preserve the narrow lead, with Merritt making all three saves when called upon and the defense selling out to make four blocks in the contest. The win was the first time since 2003 that the Rebels posted a shutout in the conference opener.

KIZER'S BIG OPENING WEEK

Coming into her final season as a Rebel, senior attacker CeCe Kizer came out of the gates on fire, scoring four times in the first two matches. Kizer also issued an assist in the Rebels' opening goal of the campaign. Finishing the week as the NCAA's leader in goals and points, the senior was recognized for her efforts, bringing in a haul of weekly awards. Not only was Kizer selected as the SEC Offensive Player of the Week, she also earned a spot on the TopDrawerSoccer Team of the Week. To top it all off, the United Soccer Coaches named Kizer the National Player of the Week, the first time a Rebel has ever received the laurel.

HOT STARTS BECOMING COMMONPLACE IN OXFORD

Much like a year ago, when Ole Miss scored 16 goals in the opening week of the season, the Rebels put on a scoring display to kickoff the 2018 campaign against Louisiana and WKU. After clobbering the Ragin' Cajuns 6-0, Ole Miss took down WKU 4-0 two nights later. The 10 goals was the second-highest mark in the NCAA, two behind Mercer.

The Defense was also staunch for Ole Miss, rendering the opposing offenses for Louisiana and WKU nearly non-existent. Not only did the Rebs collect a pair of clean sheets on the weekend, Ole Miss didn't even allow a single shot on goal.

KIZER TABBED TO MAC HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST

After ranking third in the NCAA in goals and points per game in 2017, senior attacker CeCe Kizer established herself as one of college soccer's most dangerous offensive players. The Overland Park, Kansas native received recognition for her accomplishments when she was selected to the MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List, awarded annually to the most outstanding player in the nation. Ole Miss has never had a player win the prestigious Hermann Trophy, though Rebel great Rafaelle Souza was named a semifinalist in 2013.

NEW MASCOT, WHO DIS?

Ole Miss' new on-field mascot, Tony, was unveiled Aug. 11 at the annual Meet the Rebels event and will roam the sideline at Ole Miss events during the 2018 season. Ole Miss' Landshark mascot is named in honor of the first Rebel to throw "Fins Up," former football player Tony Fein.

Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford, was a two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College. He was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart. Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the Landshark.

At Ole Miss, Landshark is a term that was first adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit and later extended to the rest of the team and all Rebel athletic squads. As part of that identity, players celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. In October 2017, the university announced the Landshark as the official mascot of the Ole Miss Rebels.

KIZER SELECTED TO TDS BEST XI FIRST TEAM

As further recognition as one of the top players in the country, CeCe Kizer was named to the TopDrawerSoccer Preseason Best XI First Team, consisting of a squad made up of the top talent across Division I women's soccer. Kizer is one of three forwards on the team, being joined by Florida State's Deyna Castellanos and Stanford's Catarina Macario. Following her junior season in 2017, Kizer was named to the TDS Best XI Second Team.

SENIOR ATTACKER MOVES INTO TOP-10 IN PLAYER RANKINGS

Having received a myriad of preseason honors prior to the start of the 2018 season, it's no surprise that CeCe Kizer began the 2018 season inside the top-10 of TopDrawerSoccer's player rankings. After being ranked No. 17 in the final rankings in 2017, the senior moved up to No. 9 to start the season. The native Kansan is the second-highest ranked player in the SEC, just a few spots behind Tennessee's Katie Cousins at No. 7.

FOUR REBELS MAKE SEC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Four Rebels were selected to the SEC Preseason Watch List, recognizing the "players to watch" in the league for the 2018 campaign. CeCe Kizer and Marnie Merritt made the list for the third-consecutive year, while Channing Foster and Mary Kate Smith made their debut on the watch list.

REBELS PICKED SEVENTH IN PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

After finishing the 2017 season in ninth-place in the SEC standings, Ole Miss has been picked to rise a couple of positions in 2018, being selected seventh in the SEC Preseason Coaches' Poll. Florida was tabbed as the favorite to win the title, followed by Texas A&M, Tennessee and South Carolina.

OLE MISS ON NATIONAL TV

The Southeastern Conference released the 2018 television schedule for the 2018 soccer season on Wednesday, with Ole Miss scheduled to be featured twice on the SEC Network. Both nationally broadcasted contests will come during conference action, with the first matchup televised to the masses set for the October 11 trip to Baton Rouge to battle the Tigers of LSU. Just 10 days later, the SEC Network Crew will make the trip to Oxford for the battle for the Magnolia Cup against bitter rival Mississippi State, slated for October 21 at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium. Ole Miss has retained the cup since 2013, drawing level with the Bulldogs in last season's matchup after three-consecutive Rebel victories.

All non-nationally televised home matches for Ole Miss will be available online through WatchESPN and the ESPN app as part of the SEC Network + digital streaming platform. Richard Cross (play-by-play) and Ian Banner (analyst) will be back in the broadcast booth to handle the calls.

In eight seasons as the leader of Ole Miss soccer, Matt Mott has placed the program not only on a level of consistency with the Southeastern Conference, but also a respectable recognition across the country.

Prior to Mott's arrival as the second coach in program history ahead of the 2010 season, the Rebels had advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times. Since, Mott has carried the team into the NCAA Championships three times.

The 2017 edition of Mott's Rebel squad was one of the highest scoring teams in the nation, ranking third in the country at 2.70 goals per game. Ole Miss scored 54 goals on the season, the fourth-highest scoring season in program-history. The Rebels finished the season 10-7-3, earning a bid to the NCAA Championships for the third time in five seasons.

The Rebels featured one of the top scoring duos in the country in junior CeCe Kizer and Channing Foster, tying for the second most goals scored in 2017 between two teammates with 28. Kizer completed one of the most decorated seasons in the history of Rebel soccer, earning United Soccer Coaches Third Team All-American honors in addition to First Team All-SEC laurels, while Foster was tabbed to the SEC All-Freshman Team in addition to receiving a Second Team All-SEC nod.

In Mott's seventh year as head coach in 2016, the Rebels finished 9-11 overall and 4-7 in SEC play, qualifying for the SEC Tournament for the 17th time in school history. Ole Miss maintained possession of the Magnolia Cup for the third year in a row, earning a 3-0 shutout over Mississippi State. The team also picked up SEC wins over Kentucky, Alabama and Texas A&M.

The 2016 senior class rounded out their careers having never lost to Alabama, Auburn or Mississippi State, and posted 46 wins within a four-year span. Two of those seniors – Melissa Capocaccia and Gretchen Harknett – earned CoSIDA Academic All-District Team honors, while Harknett was also an All-SEC Second Team selection.

In 2015, the Rebels advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history and achieved their highest-ever national ranking in school history of No. 12 midway through the season. Following the campaign, the Rebels finished No. 16 in the postseason poll, the best finish for the program in school history.

The 2015 campaign saw Ole Miss knock off back-to-back top-10 opponents, which helped surge the team to the best rank ever of No. 12. Following a 1-0 victory in just the second-ever home NCAA Championship match, the Rebels went on to advance past No. 7 Clemson in penalty kicks in the second round of the NCAA Championships, setting up the All-SEC Sweet 16 showdown with No. 21 Texas A&M.

Mott led three All-SEC honorees, including CeCe Kizer, who became Ole Miss' first SEC Freshman of the year since 2005, along with junior Addie Forbus and Jessica Hiskey. The same trio earned NSCAA All-South Region honors. Forbus and Hiskey were also named CoSIDA Academic All-America honorees following the season, while outgoing senior Maddie Friedmann was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection.

Under Mott's guidance, the Rebels tallied nine shutouts, including the two versus No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina. The 14 wins tied for the third-most in school history, while the seven SEC victories tied for the second-most in school history.

After being picked 10th in the SEC Preseason Poll, Mott led the program to a third-place finish in the league. A record 11,087 fans showed up in attendance at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium in 2015, also a record for the program, which ranked top-25 nationally.

Just two years prior, the Rebels posted a 16-win season, marking the most wins in a season and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Ole Miss also hosted its first NCAA Tournament match in school history, defeating Jackson State 9-0 in the opening-round game.

Mott was named the NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year for his efforts in guiding Ole Miss to the record-setting season.

On the way to the 16-6-2 record, the Rebels scored a school-record 63 goals and produced a pair of All-SEC and All-Region selections in Mandy McCalla and Rafaela Souza. Gretchen Harknett also became the first All-Freshman selection since 2010. Souza was also named a first team All-America selection by the NSCAA.

Souza was named the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year for the second straight season and earned Capital One Academic All-America honors.

In his third season at the helm of the program, Mott continued to move the program forward with a return to the SEC Tournament as Ole Miss made its first tournament appearance since 2009 and advanced to the quarterfinals with a shutout victory over LSU in the opening round. The shutout victory was one of eight for the Rebels on the season.

The squad posted an 8-0 start to the season, the best in program history, and included a stretch of four consecutive shutout wins and 483 minutes of shutout soccer to also set a school record for consecutive shutout minutes by the Rebels.

Juniors McCalla and Souza garnered recognition for their efforts on the field as the duo tied for the league lead in goals (13), assists (7) and points (33) on the way to All-SEC accolades. Souza was named a 2013 NCAA Women's Division I All-South Team selection, while McCalla was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and a Third Team All-America selection by CollegeSportsMadness.com.

Souza was also named the SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year and a Capital One Academic All-District Selection.

During his second season at the helm in 2011, several of Mott's players earned both athletic and academic honors. Three players earned All-SEC honors (Meredith Snow, Dylan Jordan and Alix Hildal) while Hildal was also named to the 2011 NCAA Women's Division I All-South Team.

Academically, Jordan was named a Capital One Third Team Academic All-America by CoSIDA, while Jenna Strother was a Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for the Mississippi. As a team, the Rebels earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award for the 2010-11 academic year for a team GPA above 3.0.

In 2011, Mott's team saw improvement from the 2010 season as the team finished the year winning its final three SEC games of the year including a 2-0 win over Mississippi State for the Magnolia Cup. The Rebels, who ended the year 8-10-1 overall (4-7 SEC), scored 11 more goals in 2011 than 2010.

During his first season with the Rebels, Mott led his program to a 7-9-4 overall record and a 3-5-3 mark in SEC play. During the season, Mott's team knocked off No. 25 Auburn on the road, 2-1, and recorded a 0-0 double overtime tie against No. 18 Georgia.

A pair of his players (Alix Hildal and Mandy McCalla) was named to the All-SEC Second Team and SEC All-Freshman Team, respectively, while Dylan Jordan and Taylor Cunningham (CoSIDA ESPN Academic All-District First Team and SEC Community Service Team) earned honors for their accolades off the field. In addition, three players also garnered player of the week honors from the SEC.

The top assistant coach at the Texas from 2006-10, Mott helped the Longhorns to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back Sweet Sixteen berths in 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad rose as high as No. 1 in the national rankings. Working with the goalkeepers and defenders, Mott helped guide UT to a school record for fewest goals against average (0.64 in 2008) and several other defensive records during his tenure.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Mott assisted Karen Hoppa at Auburn from 1999-2005. He was promoted from assistant to assistant head coach to associate head coach during his time on the Plains and helped the Tigers to four straight NCAA Tournaments and four straight SEC West titles from 2001-04. He was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 when Auburn claimed the SEC overall championship. As Auburn's recruiting coordinator, Mott brought in six nationally ranked signing classes and helped develop several players to All-SEC and All-America honors.

The Norwood, N.Y., native served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UCF, for four years under Hoppa prior to his stint at Auburn. While there, the Golden Knights won three Trans Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships and earned a NCAA Tournament berth in 1998.

Before UCF, Mott was the head women's coach at Division III Hilbert College in Hamburg, N.Y., where he became the winningest coach in school history during his tenure from 1991-94. He was also the goalkeepers coach for the men's team at Hilbert during that time.

Mott obtained a bachelor's degree in general studies and a minor in criminal justice from UCF in 2000 and also earned an Associate of Science degree in 1994 from Erie Community College in Buffalo, N.Y. Before college, Mott spent four years in the U.S. Coast Guard where he played and coached with the Coast Guard's select team in Portsmouth, Va.

Mott holds a National "B" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation. In addition to his college coaching positions, he has served as the goalkeepers coach for the USYSA Region III Olympic Development Program team since 2003.

He is married to the former Jennifer Swartz. They have two sons, Dean and Will, and a daughter, Tacie.
