Jimmy Garrity enters his fourth season as Women's Basketball head coach in 2019-20. Garrity was named head coach of the program on April 25, 2016. Garrity came to Wofford after spending the previous three years as head coach at Anderson University.

Garrity's third season with the Terriers was one for the record books. The team finished 16-15, their first winning season since 2001-02 and their fifth best season in program history. They recorded a 12-1 record at home and a 7-7 conference record, which ties their best conference winning percentage in program history. The Terriers defeated rival Furman on Senior Day by a score of 84-75 and beat ETSU in the quarterfinals of the SoCon tournament 75-66. R-Jr. Chloe Wanink was voted onto the All-SoCon First Team, Da'Ja Green was named to the Second Team, Cairo Booker was named to the All-Defensive Team, and Niyah Lutz was named to the All-Freshman Team.

Coach Garrity led the Terriers to a 10-20 record in 2017-18. After losing star guard Chloe Wanink to a season-ending knee injury seven games into the season, Garrity led a group of young players through the transition from high school to college ball. Despite a record of just 10-20 and 3-11 in the conference, the Terriers played numerous close games and picked up just the program's eighth win all time against Furman in a dominant 79-48 over the Paladins. Freshman guard Da'Ja Green was named Second-Team All Conference and joined her teammate and fellow freshman Jamari McDavid on the All-Freshman team.

In Garrity's first season at the helm he led the Terriers to a 13-17 record overall and helped Wofford win six games away from Spartanburg, a vast improvement from the 2015-16 season when the Terriers won just one game on the road. Chloe Wanink was named to the Second-Team All SoCon under the direction of Coach Garrity as she averaged 16 points and 5.8 rebounds.

From 2013-15, Anderson reached the NCAA Division II Tournament twice as an at-large selection and in 2015 advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. At Anderson, Garrity coached two South Atlantic Conference Players of the Year. Prior to Anderson, Garrity coached at Clemson and UNC Wilmington.

"We are excited to introduce Jimmy Garrity as head coach of our women's basketball team," said Richard Johnson, Director of Athletics. "During our search, it became clear that he had all of the characteristics that we were looking for in a leader for this program. I thank the search committee for their hard work and look forward to working with Coach Garrity."

"It is hard for me to put into words how humbled and excited I am to be named the head women's basketball coach at Wofford," said Jimmy Garrity. "I want to thank Dr. Nayef Samhat and Richard Johnson for their confidence in me for the incredible opportunity that lies ahead in leading this program. It is a great fit for both my family and myself and I am excited to be here. This is a special place and I have been overwhelmed by the family atmosphere not only in the athletic department, but in the campus community."

In 2015-16, the Trojans were 23-7 overall, including a 79-55 win over Clemson to open the year. They were the South Atlantic Conference regular season champions with an 18-4 record and were nationally ranked in the top 25. The squad was an at-large selection to the NCAA Tournament. As the #5 seed, they advanced to the second round after a win over #4 seed Clayton State. Senior forward Jennifer Monroe was named the SAC Player of the Year and first team All-Southeast Region. Junior guard Heather Jankowy earned SAC second team honors.

Stringing together one of the program's best seasons in 2014-15, Garrity was tabbed South Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year. Garrity led the Trojans to a 27-5 overall record and a berth into the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Prior to the postseason run, Garrity became the first coach in conference history to win 20 league games, finishing the season with a 20-2 SAC record and a regular-season championship. Garrity also saw point guard Sierra Simpson earn SAC Player of the Year and SAC first team honors.

In his first season at Anderson in 2013-14, Garrity led the Trojans to a 16-14 overall record and an 11-11 mark in SAC play. Anderson placed three players on all-conference teams, including Simpson's All-SAC second team honor and Alexis Dillard's all-freshman team spot.

Garrity spent the 2012-13 season at Clemson University as the women's basketball assistant coach. With the Tigers, Garrity was in charge of scouting, practice planning, game scheduling, coordinating of the guards, community service and alumni relations. Garrity also monitored the academic success of the student-athletes.

Before spending a season at Clemson, Garrity spent a decade in various capacities with the UNC Wilmington basketball program. He was hired as the Director of Basketball Operations in 2002 for both the men's and women's basketball teams. Once the position split into two different roles, Garrity took over just the women's side while also becoming an assistant coach in 2007. Continuing his tenure with UNCW, Garrity was promoted to the associate head coach role in 2011 and coached his team to the second round of the WNIT.

Garrity graduated from Elon in 1989 with a degree in business administration and marketing and later earned a Master's in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. in 1990.

Garrity is married to Jenny Garrity, who served as UNCW's women's tennis coach for 13 seasons. The couple have two daughters Kacey and Carly, and a son Corey.
