NO. 12 AUBURN READY FOR SHOWDOWN AT NO. 2 FLORIDA

There's no denying the importance of Friday's meet. No. 12 Auburn and No. 2 Florida are the only teams still unbeaten in the SEC, and the winner will be in the driver's seat to win the conference as we get closer and closer to the postseason.

But that's not where the focus lies for Auburn. The Tigers simply want to improve from the week before and earn a high score to help better position themselves for the postseason.

"The mindset for this one is just another step in the process," Auburn head coach Jeff Graba said. "I feel really good about where the team is right now. We didn't score like we wanted to against Kentucky, but I really feel like the girls competed like we wanted them to compete. They were tougher on themselves. They fought for the little things. I do believe we left some stuff out on the table, but we're going to need to fight from now on."

"Each meet gets a little bit more important and probably a little bit higher up on the ladder. As we get closer to postseason, we want to be better and better and better. All the little things count now. I like what we're doing, but we definitely have to clean up."

IN THE RANKINGS

With Florida on deck, the Auburn gymnastics team checked in at No. 12 in this week's ranking after earning a 196.125 last Friday night to beat Kentucky. The Tigers are still undefeated (5-0, 4-0) on the season.

Oklahoma and Florida are still No. 1 and No. 2 in the rankings this week after the Sooners knocked off the Gators in Norman last weekend. The rest of the top five is also the same with UCLA (No. 3), Utah (No. 4) and LSU (No. 5). The SEC features four teams in the top 10 with Florida (No. 2), LSU (No. 5), Georgia (No. 6) and Alabama (No. 8), and then it's Auburn (No. 12), Missouri (No. 13), Kentucky (No. 17) and Arkansas (No. 22). All eight teams scored a 196.000 or higher in their last meet.

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE: AUBURN ARENA

» The Auburn gymnastics program has enjoyed eight sellouts (7,424) in the last four seasons at Auburn Arena. The Tigers have reached new heights already in 2019 as season ticket holder numbers have risen yet again.

SCOUTING FLORIDA

Though Florida is coming off a loss at Oklahoma last weekend, the Gators posted a season-high 198.025 and are still No. 2 in the nation behind the Sooners. They have earned a 197.300 or higher in all four meets this season (3-1).

Coming into the season, Florida returned four gymnasts with 11 All-America honors earned at last year's NCAA Championships – Alyssa Baumann, Alicia Boren, Rachel Gowey and Amelia Hundley. In total, the Gators have 18 routines back from a team that placed third in the NCAA Super Six last year.

Baumann (floor), Boren (floor), Gowey (beam) and Hundley (bars) all currently rank among the top five in the SEC on various events this season, and junior Megan Skaggs, who also competed in last year's Super Six, is second in the second in the conference on bars (9.931).

However, the team's top performer so far this year has been freshman Trinity Thomas, a member of the current U.S. Senior National Team. Thomas picked up her third SEC Freshman of the Week honor this week after scoring a 39.625 in the all-around against Oklahoma. She currently leads the SEC on bars, beam and floor and is second on all-around with average of 39.613.

Thomas is one of six freshmen on the roster, and the majority of the group is making an impact this season. In last week's meet, Savannah Schoenherr led the team with a 9.900 on vault while Nya Reed earned a 9.925 on floor.

AUBURN/FLORIDA SERIES HISTORY

Florida holds a 70-10 advantage in the series all time. The last time Auburn beat Florida was at home in 2004 when the Tigers posted a 197.000. They also set a new career high on floor with a 49.600 in that same meet.

AUBURN LINEUP VS. FLORIDA

Auburn has been tinkering with lineups each week, but Friday's meet at Florida might be the first time all season that the Tigers let it all hang out. The intention, per head coach Jeff Graba, is to throw what they think is one of their best lineups.

That lineup will begin on bars where Auburn is currently ranked seventh nationally and third in the SEC. The Tigers posted a 49.350 last weekend at Kentucky despite not having senior Abby Milliet in the lineup.

First up will be sophomore Drew Watson, and then it's senior Taylor Krippner and freshman Derrian Gobourne, who both scored a 9.875 last week. In the fourth spot is senior Samantha Cerio, who won the individual title last week against Kentucky with a career-high 9.925. Milliet will slide back into the lineup after Cerio, and last but not least is anchor Gracie Day.

All six gymnasts in the lineup, along with alternate Katie Becker, are currently ranked top 20 in the region on bars.

Auburn will move to vault next. The Tigers have moved into the top 10 on the event after earning a 49.250 (vs. Georgia) and 49.225 (at Kentucky) in the past two meets.

Senior A'Miracal Phillips will lead off for the first time this season, and then Krippner will move back into the lineup at No. 2 after taking last week off. The senior earned a 9.875 on her only vault this season against Georgia. The rest of the lineup will remain the same as last week with Day, Gobourne and Watson followed by the team's anchor, sophomore Jada Glenn.

The third rotation of the night is floor, and despite a 48.825 last week, Auburn has steadily improved on the event throughout the season. The Tigers earned a season-best 49.300 two weeks ago against Georgia.

Junior Emma Slappey, who led off in that Georgia meet, will return to the No. 1 spot ahead of junior Skyler Sheppard, Watson Gobourne. Watson posted a season-high 9.875 in the last meet, and Gobourne has scored a 9.950 two different times this season. Milliet will return in the fifth slot, and Day, the team's anchor, will compete on floor for the first time since the first meet of the season on Jan. 4.

The Tigers will close on beam where they will welcome the return of Milliet, the team's top-ranked gymnast on the event. The senior is tied for 39th nationally with an average of 9.838 on beam this season.

Milliet will compete fifth. The lineup before her will feature Watson, Sheppard, Gobourne and Krippner in that order. Then after Milliet, it will be anchor Meredith Sylvia, who secured the victory at Kentucky last week with a 9.850 on beam. The sophomore, who won the individual title against the Wildcats, is tied for 49th nationally on beam. She earned a career-high 9.925 to open the season against Iowa on Jan. 4

GYMNAST TO WATCH: DERRIAN GOBOURNE

>> Freshman Derrian Gobourne, a two-time SEC Freshman of the Week this season, will return to her home state for Friday's meet at Florida. The Sarasota product won 11 Level 10 all-around titles in the three years before she arrived at Auburn.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Auburn's 2019 schedule once again ranks in the Top 10 among the toughest schedules in the nation, coming in at No. 6.

The Tigers have already knocked off three Top 10 teams, including two in the top six, and they still have road meets at No. 2 Florida and No. 8 Alabama remaining along with a home meet against No. 22 Arkansas (Feb. 15).

KEEP CALM AND DERRIAN

Freshman Derrian Gobourne has been a quick study for Auburn gymnastics. Through the first month of the season, she's already won the all-around title three different times and earned SEC Freshman of the Week after two of those meets.

Against Georgia, Gobourne scored a 9.800 or higher on all four events, and her floor routine, a 9.950, earned a perfect 10 from one of the two judges. She also added a 9.800 on beam, which was a new career high, and finished with a 39.375 to edge out Georgia's Sidney Snead for the all-around crown.

Gobourne is currently tied for 6th in the SEC and tied for 18th nationally in the all-around with an average of 39.325 through three meets. She's also among the top 30 in the country on both vault (t-30th) and floor (27th).

BAR SQUAD

Bars has been Auburn's strongest routine this season, and it was no different in its last meet at Kentucky as the Tigers posted a 49.325 – their second-highest score of the year on the event. Senior Samantha Cerio led the way with a 9.925.

Auburn is currently ranked seventh nationally and third in the SEC with an average of 49.260 through the first five meets. Led by Cerio, who is tied for 30th nationally (9.865), the Tigers have seven gymnasts ranked in the top 20 in the region on bars.

Earlier in the season against LSU, Auburn got on a roll on bars and posted a 49.500 – the second-highest score on the event in program history.

The rotation started with sophomore Drew Watson, who stuck the landing and scored a 9.900. Cerio and senior Taylor Krippner also earned a 9.900 while fellow senior Abby Milliet won the individual event title with a 9.925.

SEC HARDWARE

Following Auburn's win over No. 6 Georgia two weeks ago, Derrian Gobourne was named the SEC Freshman of the Week for the second time this season.

Gobourne, who received the same honor two weeks prior after sharing the all-around title against LSU, once again won the all-around crown with a 39.375. The Florida native also claimed the individual title on floor with a 9.950 and scored a season-high 9.800 on beam.

After the LSU meet, senior Abby Milliet was named SEC Specialist of the Week. She scored a 9.900 or better on all three of her events (bars, beam and floor).

ALL-AROUND DUO

There have only been a handful of times in the past two decades that Auburn has had two gymnasts competing in the all-around at the same time.

However, this season the Tigers have both Drew Watson and Derrian Gobourne competing all-around, and one of the two has claimed the AA title in all five meets this season.

The duo shared the title last week against Kentucky as both finished with a 39.350. Gobourne is currently tied for 17th nationally with an average of 39.325 in the last four meets, and Watson is No. 39 in the country with an AA average of 39.165 through the five meets this season.

VAULT-STARS

Auburn continues to climb on vault where it's third in the region and No. 10 nationally with an average score of 49.105.

The Tigers posted a 49.225 against Kentucky on Friday thanks to sophomore Drew Watson, who won the individual event title and matched her career high with a 9.925. Watson is currently tied for 17th nationally on vault with a 9.865.

UP NEXT

After back-to-back road trips, Auburn will return home next week to face No. 22 Arkansas on Friday, Feb. 15. The meet, tabbed "Are you shorter than Coach Graba night?," is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. CT inside Auburn Arena.

GYMNAST TO WATCH: ABBY MILLIET

» Senior Abby Milliet is back in the lineup this week after missing the last meet at Kentucky. Milliet, who is currently top 40 nationally on bars (9.856) and beam (9.838), injured her knee during warmups at Florida two years ago and missed the rest of the season.

Forest Lake, Minn.
Education:
Minnesota, 1992

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Flips Gym Head Coach (1988-1995)

- White Bear Lake, Minn.

 Hamline University Assistant Coach (1992-1998)

- St. Paul, Minn.

 Midwest Gym Head Coach (1995-2003)

- Little Canada, Minn.

 Utah State Assistant Coach (2004-2005)

- Logan, Utah

 Utah Assistant Coach (2006-2010)

- Salt Lake City, Utah

 Auburn Head Coach (2010-)

- Auburn, Ala.

Three-time SEC Coach of the Year Jeff Graba enters his ninth season at the helm of the Auburn gymnastics program in 2019 and has guided the Tigers record heights during his time on The Plains.

For his efforts over the past seven seasons, the Minnesota native was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015 and SEC co-coach of the Year in 2012.

Graba and the 2016 team added to the list of firsts for the program under his guidance. The Tigers snapped the 117-meet losing skid to Alabama in February of that season, defeating the Crimson Tide at home (197.275-197.250). Auburn also defeated Georgia in Athens for the first time in program history, setting a new program-high road score on the way (197.325).

In addition, the Tigers earned the program's first No. 1 NCAA regional seed and captured the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional title with a 196.525.

Auburn enjoyed a breakout season in 2015 as Graba led the Tigers to the NCAA Championship Super Six for the first time in 22 years. That season, Auburn broke or tied 52 program records that season.

Auburn's sixth place finish at the Super Six was the Tigers' second best in history and highest since 1993 with a NCAA nationals record score of 197.075. The Tigers also had a program record Super Six score of 195.625.

Auburn reached the 2015 NCAA Championship for the first time since 2003 and for only the fourth time overall as the Tigers tied a school-best with a runner-up finish at the NCAA Regional with a regional record score of 196.900. Auburn's No. 2 regional seed was the highest in history.

Graba was named Auburn head coach on August 16, 2010. He came to The Plains after spending five years as an assistant coach at Utah. While with the Utes, he was named the 2009 West Region Assistant Coach of the Year while coaching bars, collaborating on floor routines and serving as the recruiting coordinator.
