FOUR SENIORS TO COMPETE ONE LAST TIME IN AUBURN ARENA

Friday marks the last home meet of the season, and for the four seniors, it will be their last meet inside Auburn Arena as a member of the Auburn Tigers. You can go back and look at the individual accolades and accomplishments that Samantha Cerio, Taylor Krippner, Abby Milliet and A'Miracal Phillips have achieved while on the Plains, but it's what this group has done collectively that stands out. They've turned the Auburn gymnastics program around.

"Come here and try to help us build something, and maybe we can do something special with it," Auburn head coach Jeff Graba told each one of them while he was recruiting them.

This year, the Tigers finished with the best SEC regular-season record in program history. They have a chance to cap off an undefeated home slate with a win against Air Force on Friday. And there are aspirations of making it to the NCAA championships.

"I feel like this senior class has a lot of passion in it," Cerio said. "We've really been pushing. We've improved so much since freshman year with how close we are together, how much we know each other's gymnastics – we know each other inside and out of the gym – and just the way that we communicate with each other I think is so important.

IN THE RANKINGS

With less than two weeks until the SEC championship, Auburn climbed to No. 12 in the latest NQS rankings. The Tigers posted their highest road score of the season last Saturday with a 196.775 against Alabama in this year's Elevate meet.

With the exception of Denver jumping Utah at No. 5, this week's top five remained the same with Oklahoma, UCLA, Florida and LSU. All eight SEC teams are still ranked in the top 20 with Florida (3), LSU (4), Georgia (8) and Kentucky (1-9) in the top 10 followed by Alabama (11), Auburn (12), Missouri (19) and Arkansas (20).

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE: AUBURN ARENA

» The Auburn gymnastics program has enjoyed nine sellouts (7,424) in the last four seasons at Auburn Arena. The Tigers have reached new heights already in 2019 as season ticket holder numbers have risen yet again.

SCOUTING AIR FORCE

Air Force returns 13 letter winners from last year's team, including six USAG All-Americans. Sophomore Tyler Davis was the USAG floor champion and first-team All-American last year while both Anna Salamone and Analise Howard earned All-America status while setting a pair of program records.

This year's squad is 15-6 and coming off a road win over Centenary followed by two second-place finishes at TWU and UC Davis over the past two weeks. Their season-high score came at a quad meet in February when they earned a 194.775.

Salamone was recently named the MPSF Specialist of the Week, and the same week, teammate Cameo Stapleton was named the MPSF Freshman of the Week.

AUBURN/AIR FORCE SERIES HISTORY

Auburn and Air Force have only met twice in history with Auburn winning both meets. In 2014, the Tigers went to Colorado Springs and won, 195.950 – 193.025. The following season, Air Force came to Auburn Arena where the Tigers posted a 196.625 to win the meet.

Auburn head coach Jeff Graba has a connection with Air Force as he and his brother were both recruited out of high school to join their gymnastics program.

AUBURN LINEUP VS. AIR FORCE

One thing that went unnoticed in last week's Elevate meet was that all four exhibition routines scored well for Auburn. It's proof that the Tigers have depth this year, and it also gives head coach Jeff Graba multiple options when it comes to the lineup.

The first of those changes could come on vault where Auburn struggled last week. Junior Katie Becker will once again lead off this week, and then there's a chance that senior A'Miracal Phillips steps into the lineup replace Jada Glenn in the No. 2 spot. Phillips has earned a 9.700 or higher in seven of the eight meets she's competed in, including a 9.825 against Georgia.

Following those two will be your usual suspects with junior Gracie Day, the two all-arounders Derrian Gobourne and Drew Watson, and then senior Taylor Krippner serving as the anchor.

Next up will be bars where senior Abby Milliet could get the week off. In her place will either be Becker or sophomore Kendal Moss, and whomever the coaches choose between those two will lead off for Auburn on the event. Watson, typically first to go, will move back to the No. 2 spot, and then it will be Krippner and Gobourne followed by senior Samantha Cerio with Day as the anchor. As a team, the Tigers are ranked No. 7 nationally on bars with an NQS of 49.355.

Auburn will move to beam next, and the Tigers are coming off a historic beam performance at Elevate where they posted a 49.550 – the second-highest score in program history.

Watson will continue to lead off for this group, and then it's sophomore Allie Riddle, who earned a new career high with a 9.950 last week. Next will be Gobourne and junior Skyler Sheppard, who returned to the lineup last week. Sophomore Meredith Sylvia will move up a spot to fifth in the lineup, and the anchor will either be Milliet or Krippner. Milliet, who leads the team and is ranked No. 24 nationally, has scored a 9.925 and 9.950 the past two weeks on beam.

The final event of the meet will be floor, and the only change to this week's lineup will be the anchor spot where Cerio will take the place of Day. Junior Emma Slappey will lead off for the second straight week, and she'll be followed by Sheppard, Watson, Gobourne and Milliet. Three of Auburn's top four floor scores this season have come at home.

BEST SEC FINISH IN HISTORY

Auburn narrowly missed a share of the regular-season SEC championship this year, but at 5-2 in the conference, the Tigers still clinched sole possession of second place. It's the highest regular-season finish in program history.

The last Auburn team to finish above .500 in the league was the 2016 team (4-3), who also made history that year by advancing to the NCAA Championships.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Auburn's 2019 schedule once again ranks in the Top 10 among the toughest schedules in the nation, coming in at No. 6.

Six of the team's 10 opponents this season are currently ranked in the top 12, and the Tigers won four of those meets, including wins over No. 4 LSU, No. 8 Georgia and No. 9 Kentucky. Their only two SEC losses this season came on the road at No. 3 Florida and at No. 9 Alabama.

KEEP CALM AND DERRIAN

Freshman Derrian Gobourne has been a quick study for Auburn gymnastics. Through the first two months of the season, she's already won the all-around title five different times and earned SEC Freshman of the Week after two of those meets.

Against Alabama two weeks ago, Gobourne matched her career high with a 9.900 on vault and also earned a 9.875 on bars as she won the all-around crown with a 39.275. She's already posted a 9.950 on floor twice this season, and earned a perfect 10 from one of the two judges in the Georgia meet.

Gobourne is currently seventh in the SEC and 18th nationally in the all-around with an NQS score of 39.400. She's also among the top 45 in the country and top five in the region on vault (t-19th), bars (t-45th) and floor (t-35th).

BAR SQUAD

Consistent would be an understatement for Auburn on bars this season. The Tigers have posted a 49.250 or higher on the event in seven of their 10 meets.

Last month against Arkansas, Auburn set a new program record on bars with a 49.600. After three of the first four gymnasts earned a 9.900, senior Abby Milliet kept the momentum rolling with a 9.925. Then it was anchor Gracie Day who stuck her landing to close out the event with a career-high 9.975. It was the highest individual score on any event this season.

Through the first 10 meets, Auburn is currently third in the SEC and seventh nationally on bars. Led by senior Samantha Cerio, who is tied for 31st nationally (9.885), the Tigers have five gymnasts ranked in the top 50 nationally on the event.

BEAM TEAM

Auburn closed last week's Elevate meet on beam and finished with a 49.550 – the highest score of the season and the second-highest score in program history.

Senior Abby Milliet and sophomore Allie Riddle led the way with a pair of 9.950s. It was a career high for both as the duo shared the individual event title. Sophomore Meredith Sylvia followed with a 9.925 – her second 9.925 of the season. In total, five of the six gymnasts to go scored a 9.850 or higher.

SEC HARDWARE

Following Auburn's win over No. 6 Georgia earlier this season, Derrian Gobourne was named the SEC Freshman of the Week for the second time in the month of January.

Gobourne, who received the same honor two weeks before that after sharing the all-around title against LSU, once again won the all-around crown with a 39.375. The Florida native also claimed the individual title on floor with a 9.950 and scored a season-high 9.800 on beam.

After the LSU meet, senior Abby Milliet was named SEC Specialist of the Week. She scored a 9.900 or better on all three of her events (bars, beam and floor).

ALL-AROUND DUO

There have only been a handful of times in the past two decades that Auburn has had two gymnasts competing in the all-around at the same time.

However, this season the Tigers have both Drew Watson and Derrian Gobourne competing all-around, and one of the two has claimed the AA title in nine of the 10 meets this season.

Watson won the all-around title in the last meet with a 39.400 after scoring a 9.825 or higher on all four events. Prior to that, it was Gobourne who took home the title in back-to-back weeks. Gobourne is currently ranked 18th nationally in the all-around, and not far behind her is Watson at No. 26.

ALMOST PERFECT

The last time an Auburn gymnast to score a perfect 10 on an event was in 2004 when Rachael Tarantino did it on beam. Gracie Day nearly accomplished the feat last month against Arkansas when the junior earned a 9.975 on bars.

Teammate Derrian Gobourne also came close earlier this year on floor when one of the two judges gave her a 10. She ended up with a 9.950, her second 9.950 on floor this season.

UP NEXT

Auburn will travel to New Orleans next week for this year's SEC championship. The two sessions will both take place on Saturday, March 23, from the Smoothie King Center.

GYMNAST TO WATCH: A'MIRACAL PHILLIPS

» Senior A'Miracal Phillips will be competing for the last time in Auburn Arena. Phillips has been a mainstay on vault during her time at Auburn, including eight appearances this season. Her season-high (9.825) came back in January against Georgia.

Three-time SEC Coach of the Year Jeff Graba enters his ninth season at the helm of the Auburn gymnastics program in 2019 and has guided the Tigers record heights during his time on The Plains.

For his efforts over the past seven seasons, the Minnesota native was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015 and SEC co-coach of the Year in 2012.

Graba and the 2016 team added to the list of firsts for the program under his guidance. The Tigers snapped the 117-meet losing skid to Alabama in February of that season, defeating the Crimson Tide at home (197.275-197.250). Auburn also defeated Georgia in Athens for the first time in program history, setting a new program-high road score on the way (197.325).

In addition, the Tigers earned the program's first No. 1 NCAA regional seed and captured the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional title with a 196.525.

Auburn enjoyed a breakout season in 2015 as Graba led the Tigers to the NCAA Championship Super Six for the first time in 22 years. That season, Auburn broke or tied 52 program records that season.

Auburn's sixth place finish at the Super Six was the Tigers' second best in history and highest since 1993 with a NCAA nationals record score of 197.075. The Tigers also had a program record Super Six score of 195.625.

Auburn reached the 2015 NCAA Championship for the first time since 2003 and for only the fourth time overall as the Tigers tied a school-best with a runner-up finish at the NCAA Regional with a regional record score of 196.900. Auburn's No. 2 regional seed was the highest in history.

Graba was named Auburn head coach on August 16, 2010. He came to The Plains after spending five years as an assistant coach at Utah. While with the Utes, he was named the 2009 West Region Assistant Coach of the Year while coaching bars, collaborating on floor routines and serving as the recruiting coordinator.
