QUICK KICKS

- Ole Miss is coming off of a 1-1 draw against Mississippi State Thursday night in Starkville. With the tie, Ole Miss retained the Magnolia Cup, extending its record streak to six years of trophy possession.
- The Rebels have tied each of their first two SEC matches in 2019 and currently sit fourth in the SEC West table with a pair of points.
- Haleigh Stackpole scored Ole Miss' lone goal of the rivalry matchup. Stackpole has scored in three of the past five games for the Rebels. In 32 career matches, the sophomore has scored eight times and six of those goals have been game-winners.
- Channing Foster has scored in five of Ole Miss' 10 games in 2019, totaling a team-high six goals in all. The junior is tied with four other players for fourth in the SEC in scoring this season. Foster also leads the league and ranks eighth in the nation with 5.00 shots per game.
- Julia Phillips ranks second on the team with four goals. The senior scored just three times in her previous three seasons combined. Madisyn Pezzino and Stackpole are the only other Rebel with at least three scores, all coming in the last seven matches.
- Ashley Orkus ranks third in the SEC with 45 total saves this season. The sophomore keeper's .776 save percentage is good for seventh in the conference.
- Auburn comes to Oxford with a win in each of its first two SEC matches. The Tigers are 3-3-2 in non-conference play.
- The Tigers haven't won in Oxford since 2011, a tight 3-2 loss for Ole Miss. Ole Miss is 7-3-1 all-time when facing Auburn at home.

SCOUTING AUBURN

Auburn is in its 21st season under head coach Karen Hoppa, who took over the Tiger program in 1999. Hoppa, a 27-year coaching veteran, is one of 28 head coaches and just eight female head coaches to amass more than 300 wins in her career, entering Sunday's clash with a 306-200-50 overall record. During Hoppa's tenure Auburn has made 16 NCAA Tournament appearances, winning one SEC regular season and one SEC Tournament title as well.

The Tigers currently sit at 5-3-2 in 2019, riding high after winning each of their first two games in SEC play at Kentucky and against Tennessee in Auburn. Outside of league play Auburn in .500 in non-conference action, tying each of their last two non-con games to Samford and Old Dominion. Of the Tigers' five wins this season, three have come at home, with Auburn posting a 1-1-1 road record and a 1-1-0 mark in neutral site matches.

Auburn is led in scoring by two-time All-American and First Team All-SEC performer Bri Folds, who has recorded five goals and a pair of assists to pace the Tigers with 12 points in 2019. Freshman forward Sydney Richards and junior defender Sarah Houchin have each bagged three goals this season, while sophomore midfielder/forward Hailey Whitaker and senior forward Jessie Gerow have also scored multiple goals. Graduate student keeper Kate Hart, who transferred to Auburn after four seasons at San Diego State, has played every second between the posts for the Tigers, registering a 1.04 GAA with a .738 save percentage and five shutouts.

SERIES HISTORY - AUBURN

Ole Miss holds a narrow 12-11-2 advantage in the all-time series with Auburn following last season's 3-2 Rebel victory on The Plains. After a series of swings for both teams highlighted the early parts of the series, the matchups have been much more back-and-forth as of late, with neither team posting consecutive victories since the Tigers took two straight in 2011 and 2012. Ole Miss has not lost to the Tigers since that meeting in Auburn in 2012, winning three times and drawing twice.

LAST MEETING - AUBURN (9/23/18)

AUBURN, Ala. - Behind a second half clinic from then-senior CeCe Kizer, Ole Miss went onto The Plains and brought a top-10 victory back home to Oxford, defeating No. 9 Auburn 3-2 the AU Soccer Complex.

It was a memorable day for Kizer for more reasons than just her performance, as the Overland Park, Kansas native broke a pair of program records in leading the Rebs to victory. Kizer notched a brace and in doing so set the new program marks for both goals and assists in a career.

The bulk of the action in the first half came in the span of less than two minutes, as Auburn took a 1-0 lead in the 36th-minute on a far post shot by Jessie Gerow and the Rebels answered back in the 38th-minute on Channing Foster's equally well-placed far post attempt.

Tied at the break, Kizer changed that quickly coming out of halftime, making a cutting run from midfield and firing a shot past Tiger keeper Sarah Le Beau not even a minute into the half. It was the 45th goal of her career, breaking Rafaelle Souza's Ole Miss record.

However, the lead didn't last long. Julia Phillips was called for a foul in the box, resulting in a 51st-minute penalty. Bri Folds converted for Auburn, going left to beat Marnie Merritt and bring the score level once again.

Kizer would have the last laugh, though. Having just come off the bench with fresh legs, the senior made quite possibly the greatest run of her career. Receiving the ball behind the midfield stripe, Kizer darted past a myriad of Tiger defenders before slotting past Le Beau, scoring her 13th game-winner in an Ole Miss kit.

MOTT AND HOPPA REUNITED

While every SEC match carries a lot of wait, Ole Miss' matchups with Auburn always hold a special place in the heart of Rebel head coach Matt Mott, who spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach on Karen Hoppa's staff, including six at Auburn. Since coming to Ole Miss in 2010, Mott has enjoyed quite a bit of success against his mentor, posting a 4-2-2 record against the Tigers.

IRON WOMAN

Since beginning her collegiate career a season ago, Haleigh Stackpole has been an absolute fixture in the Rebel lineup. The Fort Bragg, North Carolina native has started all 32 matches over the past two seasons while almost never coming off the pitch despite consistently totaling the highest distance travelled as a box-to-box midfielder. Stackpole ranked second on the team during her freshman campaign with 1850 total minutes, just over 84 per match. This season, Stackpole is joined only by Rebel keeper Ashley Orkus in playing every second of the Rebels' 977 minutes of game time.

PHILLIPS JOINS THE ATTACK

Senior captain Julia Phillips has seen an uptick in her involvement on the offensive side of the pitch in 2019, ranking second on the team with four goals this season. Phillips has found the back of the net three times this season, as many goals as she had scored in her first 45 collegiate contests combined. The Rebel midfielder has been extremely efficient with her offense, needing just 13 shots to record her four goals, putting six attempts on frame.

PAIR OF REBS HEATING UP

Nearing consideration for the term "super sub", junior attacker Madisyn Pezzino has been in excellent form for Ole Miss as of late. The former Florida State Seminole has scored three times in the past seven matches and has registered at least a point in three of the last four. With the recent run, Pezzino has moved into third place on the roster with nine points, registering three goals and a pair of assists.

Meanwhile, a recent run of scoring form has also vaulted Haleigh Stackpole into a tie with Pezzino with three goals for third most on the team. After scoring Ole Miss' lone goal against Mississippi State, Stackpole has now scored in three of the last five matches.

FOSTER ENTERS TOP 10

Not even midway through her junior season, striker Channing Foster is already one of the most prolific scorers in Ole Miss history. The Murray, Kentucky native scored for the third straight game in the 3-0 victory over Long Beach State, giving her six goals for the season and 26 in her career, tying her for 10th most on Ole Miss' all-time career scoring list. At her current pace, Foster will have a shot to topple CeCe Kizer's record of 48 career goals, set just last season.

CORNERS GALORE

If there is one area of the game Ole Miss has particularly excelled at in 2019, it would have to be creating opportunities from the corner flags. The Rebels rank second in the nation with 8.60 corners per game, four times registering double digit corners. The chances have paid off, with the Rebs scoring three times directly from a corner kick service. Ole Miss has also excelled on the defensive side of the field during corner delivering. Rebel opponents have taken 50 total corners this season, with none of those chances resulting in goals.

MAGNOLIA CUP STAYS HOME IN OXFORD

For the sixth-consecutive season, the Magnolia Cup is staying right where it belongs in Oxford. The annual trophy exchanged between Magnolia State rivals Ole Miss and Mississippi State returned north Thursday night following the 1-1 draw between the Rebels and the Bulldogs. Haleigh Stackpole scored what turned out to be Ole Miss' lone goal of the night in the 18th minute before MaKayla Waldner equalized for MSU in the 35th. Both teams had chances to claim the trophy outright but with neither side able to provide a winner, the rivalry trophy returned to the previous holder, Ole Miss.

TIGERS, WOODWORK HOLD REBS TO 1-1 DRAW

Ole Miss opened SEC play with a thrilling 1-1 draw with Missouri. Despite just two goals total scored in the affair, the match featured wild back-and-forth action throughout much of the contest. After both teams just missed opening scoring in the early parts of the first half, Ole Miss broke through right before the halftime break to take the lead, with Molly Martin scoring a 45th minute goal off a Channing Foster feed. Missouri tied the match in the 77th minute and despite a furious effort, Ole Miss was unable to regain the lead in the proceeding 13 minutes. Ole Miss appeared to score a golden goal during overtime but the ball was ruled to have not crossed the line and with replay unavailable during league action, video review was unavailable, forcing the Rebs to settle for a tie. The frame of the goal was almost as big of a foe for the Rebs as the Tigers, with Ole Miss hitting the woodwork seven times in the 110 minutes of game time.

VENGEANCE IS SO SWEET

Ole Miss got some payback with a 3-2 double overtime victory over Minnesota, repaying the Golden Gophers for a golden goal defeat last season in Minneapolis. After falling behind by two goals 31 minutes into the match, the Rebels battled back to tie the affair with just over 10 minutes remaining in regulation. After proceedings were extended into extra time, Gabby Little scored the game winner with just 25 ticks left on the clock. In last season's meeting, Ole Miss jumped ahead to a 1-0 lead before the Gophers tied the game in the second half and ultimately scored a golden goal in the 109th minute.

FOSTER'S BRACE CLINCHES MOTT'S 100TH WIN

Channing Foster scored early and late against Southeast Missouri, leading the charge to Ole Miss' 2-0 victory over Southeast Missouri. It was the 100th win for Ole Miss under head coach Matt Mott in his 10th season at the helm of the Rebel program. The Rebels completely dominated the match, out-shooting the Redhawks 33-2, including 13-1 on shots on goal. Ole Miss also had 14 corner kick opportunities to just one for SEMO. Foster's brace was the fourth multi-goal performance of her career, matching her career high with nine shots on the night. In fact, the junior's three nine-shot matches are the most in a single contest for Ole Miss since Gretchen Harknett's 10 attempts against Northwestern State in 2016.

THEY SCORED HOW MANY?!?

Not many programs are fortunate enough to boast one state high school record holder for career goals scored, let alone two as is the case for Ole Miss with Alley Houghton and Madisyn Pezzino. The Rebel duo were beyond prolific in their high school careers, combining for more than 500 goals. Houghton found the back of the net 250 times at Lafayette High School in Oxford, shattering the Mississippi record, including a record 71 goals as a senior. Pezzino took it even a step further during her days at Grand Island High School in Grand Island, New York, obliterating the career record at 251 scores, including the single season mark of 73 goals.

REBELS PICKED EIGHTH IN PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

Ole Miss was picked to finish eighth in the SEC Preseason Coaches' Poll, as voted on by the league's head coaches. The Rebels were selected No. 7 in the same poll in 2018, eventually going on to tie for third with a 13-8-1 overall record, 6-3-1 in SEC action.

FOSTER CALLED UP TO USWNT U-23'S

This summer, Channing Foster got to live out one of the biggest dreams every young soccer player fantasizes about growing up, donning the Red, White and Blue of Team USA. Foster was called up to the United States Women's National U-23 Team for the Portland Thorns Spring Invitational, her first-ever call up to the national team at any level. Not only did the Rebel junior get to take the field wearing a Team USA kit, she got to score in it. Coming in off the bench, Foster found the back of the net in stoppage time of the USWNT U-23's 2-1 win over the Chicago Red Stars, bagging the game-winner. Ironically, Foster has played for the Red Stars' WPSL team, the Red Star Reserves.

OXFORD'S OWN

Alley and Maddy Houghton grew up playing on the other side of the pitch against Mo O'Connor during their high school days, with the Houghton's teaming up for the Lafayette High School Commodores and O'Connor donning the blue and gold of the Oxford High School Chargers. Now, the trio have joined forces to play for their hometown school at the collegiate level, much to the delight of the local fan base in Oxford. At Lafayette, the Houghton's helped put the 'Dores on the map. Alley became the school's first ever Mississippi Gatorade Player of the Year, breaking the state goals record with 250 in her career. Despite only playing high school soccer until her sophomore season, Maddy played four seasons on the varsity squad, joining Alley in helping LHS capture the state title in 2015. On the other side of town, O'Connor put together one of the more lauded careers in the state's history. The Charger striker was twice named the United Soccer Coaches and Gatorade Player of the Year for Mississippi, racking up 141 goals in five seasons while earning back-to-back state championship rings in 2016 and 2017.

The trio make up half of the six players from the state of Mississippi on the Ole Miss roster, the most in the 25-year history of Rebel soccer. They are joined by sophomore Lonnie Mulligan (Hattiesburg) and freshmen Elle Muirhead (Madison) and Jillian Rhian (Hattiesburg).

EAST MEETS WEST ONCE AGAIN

For the first time since 2014 the Southeastern Conference has been split into two divisions in soccer. Ole Miss is once again a member of the SEC West, joined by Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Mississippi State and Texas A&M. The SEC East is comprised of Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. The Rebels have claimed four SEC West titles, finishing in the top-two 12 times.

TRIO TABBED TO SEC WATCH LIST

Grace Johnson, Channing Foster and Haleigh Stackpole were named to the SEC Preseason Watch List, a list recognizing the "players to watch" as selected by each team's head coach, it is the second-straight appearance on the preseason watch list for Foster, while Johnson and Stackpole each make their first showing.

Johnson has started all 42 matches since she began her Rebel career in 2017, anchoring the Rebel back line while tying for second on the team with four assists a season ago. Foster has been named Second Team All-SEC each of her first two collegiate seasons, netting 20 career goals entering her junior season. Stackpole immediately became a starting XI staple as a freshman a year ago, logging the second most minutes on the team and scoring five times on the way to Freshman All-SEC recognition.

Each season, the Rebels select a mantra to play under during the year, with #2L2R serving as the team hashtag in 2019. The hashtag is shorthand for "to the left and to the right", symbolizing that each player will hold the person to their left and right accountable for their actions.

RUN DOWN

In nine seasons as the leader of Ole Miss soccer, head coach Matt Mott has built the Rebel program into a side consistently competing for a spot at the top of the table in the fiercely competitive SEC but also a force to be reckoned with on the national landscape.

Of the eight total NCAA appearances in the history of Ole Miss soccer, four have come since Mott took the reigns as the second head coach in the program's history in 2010, including three trips to the "Big Dance" the past four seasons.

The 2018 Rebels experienced one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, posting a 13-8-1 overall record and finishing tied for third in the SEC with a 6-3-1 mark in league play. Among the regular season highlights were a pair of top-10 wins over No. 9 Auburn and No. 7 Vanderbilt as well as a 2-0 victory over No. 25 Mississippi State to maintain the Magnolia Cup for a record fifth-straight year. The Rebels earned a bid to the NCAA tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time in program-history, earning a 2-1 win at No. 25 Clemson before bowing out to No. 1 Stanford in the Second Round. In all, Ole Miss earned four wins over ranked opponents.

Following the season, the Rebs received a myriad of postseason honors. Ole Miss had three players named All-SEC in First Teamer CeCe Kizer, Second Team honoree Channing Foster and All-Freshman Team member Haleigh Stackpole. Kizer and Foster also received United Soccer Coaches All-Region laurels, while Kizer was named a USC All-American and the winner of the 2018 Senior CLASS Award.

Under Mott's tutelage, Kizer wrapped up one of the most heralded careers in Rebel soccer. The attacker finished as Ole Miss' all-time leader in career goals and points, breaking both records as part of a two-goal effort to lead the Rebs to a 3-2 come-from-behind victory on the road at No. 9 Auburn. Kizer concluded the regular season as the second player in SEC-history to lead the league in both goals and assists. The native Kansan put a bow on her career as a two-time All-American and a three-time all-region and All-SEC honoree.

2018 also saw the end of four-year starting goalkeeper Marnie Merritt's Ole Miss career, who under Mott became one of the all-time great Rebels to protect the goal. Merritt finished scattered throughout the program record book, ranking second all-time in career saves (277), shutouts (21) and wins (40), while posting the sixth-lowest career goals against average at Ole Miss at 1.31.

The 2017 edition of Mott's Rebel squad was one of the highest scoring teams in the nation, ranking third in the country at 2.70 goals per game. Ole Miss scored 54 goals on the season, the fourth-highest scoring season in program-history. The Rebels finished the season 10-7-3, earning a bid to the NCAA Championships for the third time in five seasons.

The Rebels featured one of the top scoring duos in the country in junior CeCe Kizer and Channing Foster, tying for the second most goals scored in 2017 between two teammates with 28. Kizer completed one of the most decorated seasons in the history of Rebel soccer, earning United Soccer Coaches Third Team All-American honors in addition to First Team All-SEC laurels, while Foster was tabbed to the SEC All-Freshman Team in addition to receiving a Second Team All-SEC nod.

In Mott's seventh year as head coach in 2016, the Rebels finished 9-11 overall and 4-7 in SEC play, qualifying for the SEC Tournament for the 17th time in school history. Ole Miss maintained possession of the Magnolia Cup for the third year in a row, earning a 3-0 shutout over Mississippi State. The team also picked up SEC wins over Kentucky, Alabama and Texas A&M.

The 2016 senior class rounded out their careers having never lost to Alabama, Auburn or Mississippi State, and posted 46 wins within a four-year span. Two of those seniors – Melissa Capocaccia and Gretchen Harknett – earned CoSIDA Academic All-District Team honors, while Harknett was also an All-SEC Second Team selection.

In 2015, the Rebels advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history and achieved their highest-ever national ranking in school history of No. 12 midway through the season. Following the campaign, the Rebels finished No. 16 in the postseason poll, the best finish for the program in school history.

The 2015 campaign saw Ole Miss knock off back-to-back top-10 opponents, which helped surge the team to the best rank ever of No. 12. Following a 1-0 victory in just the second-ever home NCAA Championship match, the Rebels went on to advance past No. 7 Clemson in penalty kicks in the second round of the NCAA Championships, setting up the All-SEC Sweet 16 showdown with No. 21 Texas A&M.

Mott led three All-SEC honorees, including CeCe Kizer, who became Ole Miss' first SEC Freshman of the year since 2005, along with junior Addie Forbus and Jessica Hiskey. The same trio earned NSCAA All-South Region honors. Forbus and Hiskey were also named CoSIDA Academic All-America honorees following the season, while outgoing senior Maddie Friedmann was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection.

Under Mott's guidance, the Rebels tallied nine shutouts, including the two versus No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina. The 14 wins tied for the third-most in school history, while the seven SEC victories tied for the second-most in school history.

After being picked 10th in the SEC Preseason Poll, Mott led the program to a third-place finish in the league. A record 11,087 fans showed up in attendance at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium in 2015, also a record for the program, which ranked top-25 nationally.

Just two years prior, the Rebels posted a 16-win season, marking the most wins in a season and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Ole Miss also hosted its first NCAA Tournament match in school history, defeating Jacksonville State 9-0 in the opening-round game.

Mott was named the NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year for his efforts in guiding Ole Miss to the record-setting season.

On the way to the 16-6-2 record, the Rebels scored a school-record 63 goals and produced a pair of All-SEC and All-Region selections in Mandy McCalla and Rafaelle Souza. Gretchen Harknett also became the first All-Freshman selection since 2010. Souza was also named a first team All-America selection by the NSCAA.

Souza was named the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year for the second straight season and earned Capital One Academic All-America honors.

In his third season at the helm of the program, Mott continued to move the program forward with a return to the SEC Tournament as Ole Miss made its first tournament appearance since 2009 and advanced to the quarterfinals with a shutout victory over LSU in the opening round. The shutout victory was one of eight for the Rebels on the season.

The squad posted an 8-0 start to the season, the best in program history, and included a stretch of four consecutive shutout wins and 483 minutes of shutout soccer to also set a school record for consecutive shutout minutes by the Rebels.

Juniors McCalla and Souza garnered recognition for their efforts on the field as the duo tied for the league lead in goals (13), assists (7) and points (33) on the way to All-SEC accolades. Souza was named a 2013 NCAA Women's Division I All-South Team selection, while McCalla was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and a Third Team All-America selection by CollegeSportsMadness.com.

Souza was also named the SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year and a Capital One Academic All-District Selection.

During his second season at the helm in 2011, several of Mott's players earned both athletic and academic honors. Three players earned All-SEC honors (Meredith Snow, Dylan Jordan and Alix Hildal) while Hildal was also named to the 2011 NCAA Women's Division I All-South Team.

Academically, Jordan was named a Capital One Third Team Academic All-America by CoSIDA, while Jenna Strother was a Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for the Mississippi. As a team, the Rebels earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award for the 2010-11 academic year for a team GPA above 3.0.

In 2011, Mott's team saw improvement from the 2010 season as the team finished the year winning its final three SEC games of the year including a 2-0 win over Mississippi State for the Magnolia Cup. The Rebels, who ended the year 8-10-1 overall (4-7 SEC), scored 11 more goals in 2011 than 2010.

During his first season with the Rebels, Mott led his program to a 7-9-4 overall record and a 3-5-3 mark in SEC play. During the season, Mott's team knocked off No. 25 Auburn on the road, 2-1, and recorded a 0-0 double overtime tie against No. 18 Georgia.

A pair of his players (Alix Hildal and Mandy McCalla) was named to the All-SEC Second Team and SEC All-Freshman Team, respectively, while Dylan Jordan and Taylor Cunningham (CoSIDA ESPN Academic All-District First Team and SEC Community Service Team) earned honors for their accolades off the field. In addition, three players also garnered player of the week honors from the SEC.

The top assistant coach at the Texas from 2006-10, Mott helped the Longhorns to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back Sweet Sixteen berths in 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad rose as high as No. 1 in the national rankings. Working with the goalkeepers and defenders, Mott helped guide UT to a school record for lowest goals against average (0.64 in 2008) and several other defensive records during his tenure.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Mott assisted Karen Hoppa at Auburn from 1999-2005. He was promoted from assistant to assistant head coach to associate head coach during his time on the Plains and helped the Tigers to four straight NCAA Tournaments and four straight SEC West titles from 2001-04. He was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 when Auburn claimed the SEC overall championship. As Auburn's recruiting coordinator, Mott brought in six nationally ranked signing classes and helped develop several players to All-SEC and All-America honors.

The Norwood, N.Y., native served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UCF, for four years under Hoppa prior to his stint at Auburn. While there, the Golden Knights won three Trans Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships and earned an NCAA Tournament berth in 1998.

Before UCF, Mott was the head women's coach at Division III Hilbert College in Hamburg, N.Y., where he became the winningest coach in school history during his tenure from 1991-94. He was also the goalkeepers coach for the men's team at Hilbert during that time.

Mott obtained a bachelor's degree in general studies and a minor in criminal justice from UCF in 2000 and also earned an Associate of Science degree in 1994 from Erie Community College in Buffalo, N.Y. Before college, Mott spent four years in the U.S. Coast Guard where he played and coached with the Coast Guard's select team in Portsmouth, Va.

Mott holds a National "B" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation. In addition to his college coaching positions, he has served as the goalkeepers coach for the USYSA Region III Olympic Development Program team since 2003.

He is married to the former Jennifer Swartz. They have two sons, Dean and Will, and a daughter, Tacie.
