QUICK KICKS

SENIOR DAY CELEBRATIONS

Georgia will celebrate its ten seniors following Sunday's game. This group is the first recruiting class for head coach Billy Lesesne.

BEST-EVER START TO SEC PLAY

With a 2-0-2 record to start the 2020 season, the Georgia Bulldogs are off to the program's best-ever start in SEC play. It's the longest the Bulldogs have gone without a loss since 2010.

Additionally, it's the best overall start the Bulldogs have had since 2009, when UGA went 7-0-1 in nonconference play.

LAST GAME AGAINST AUBURN

* The teams did not meet in 2019. *

A second half goal lifted the Auburn Tigers over the Georgia Bulldogs with a 1-0 final score at the Auburn Soccer Complex.

The Bulldogs created chances in the first half, but were unable to capitalize in the final third. Freshman goalkeeper Emory Wegener made three saves to keep the scoreboard clean after 45 minutes of play.

Less than a minute into the second half the Tigers shot the ball to the back of the net, but offsides was called resulting in no goal.

The Bulldogs and Tigers remained evenly matched until Auburn scored on a free kick from close to midfield in the 65th minute of the game.

LAST TIME OUT-- at Kentucky

After falling behind in the first half, then-No. 8 Georgia played to a 1-1 tie against the Kentucky Wildcats on a rainy Sunday afternoon at Wendell and Vickie Bell Stadium.

"We were not as clean as we needed to be in the final third," Georgia head coach Billy Lesesne said. "Kentucky was hard to break down and when we had opportunities we didn't capitalize on as we should have. We played hard and there were moments when we were very good in possession. It's difficult to get points on the road in this league. The team's desire to get three points is definitely there. I like the mentality of this group. We have this week to work and prepare to protect our home against Auburn."

Georgia (2-0-2) struggled to find its footing on a wet field in the first half. The team was able to get nine shots off, but none on target. The Bulldogs had four corner kicks in the first 45 minutes, with two promising attempts coming from senior defender Kayla Bruster. Her first went high and the second hit her near post.

After a foul in the box granted the Wildcats (0-3-1) a penalty kick in the 25th minute, Kentucky took the lead with the goal from Jordyn Rhodes.

As momentum shifted in the second half, the Bulldogs were able to turn up the pressure and build on the attack. Georgia evened the score in the 68th minute off a shot from senior Jessie Denney with assists from seniors Mollie Belisle and Ashley Andersen. Georgia continued its relentless offense, adding 12 shots, but could not capitalize on the chances.

The rain really became a factor in overtime as the ball took deflections for both teams, despite many opportunities. Play was very even throughout the extra 20 minutes of the game and neither team was able to put one away, resulting in the tie.

ABBY BOYAN GETS RECOGNITION

Junior midfielder Abby Boyan received conference and national recognition after scoring the lone-goal in Georgia's win over South Carolina to open the season.

Boyan was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week for the second time in her career and earned a spot on the Top Drawer Team of the Week. She is the first Georgia player given a national weekly recognition since goalkeeper Louise Hogrell in 2015.

The Spring Lake, N.J. native played a full 90 minutes and contributed the game-winner for a season-opening victory for the Bulldogs. This marks the first time Georgia has beaten South Carolina since 2014. Additionally, she took three shots, which tied for the most in the game of any player.

She was placed on the Top Drawer Team of the Week again after making the difference in the game against Tennessee. She put Georgia on the board in the 29th minute, advancing on a clearance on the top of the 18-yard-box. It was a quick two-touch hit that landed in the back of the net, resulting in a Dawgs win.

RANKED IN THE UNITED COACHES POLL

Georgia was ranked eighth in the initial United Soccer Coaches national rankings. This is the first time the Bulldogs have been ranked since 2014, when the team reached a No. 20 ranking in late September.

Due to the impact of the pandemic on fall schedules, only teams competing in the fall were considered for the polls. The number of teams appearing in each ranking is also lower due to the lower number of teams competing. The women's poll features a Top 15. There are no regional rankings.

Georgia has remained in the 8th spot until after week four, when the Bulldogs dropped to 12th.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE DAWGS

"The most talented team in top to bottom roster depth that Georgia's had since Billy's been here." - SEC Network's Michael Watts during the broadcast of the South Carolina game.

A SEASONED VET

Junior goalkeeper Emory Wegener has started more games than any other active goalkeeper in the SEC.

FIRST SPORTING EVENT SINCE COVID

Georgia's season opener against South Carolina was the first sporting event in Athens since March 11 due to the on-going COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to that game, the last time a UGA team took the field was the softball team against Furman on March 11 at the Turner Softball Stadium.

CAPTAINS

This season Georgia is led by four senior captains Ashley Andersen, Mollie Belisle, Kayla Bruster, and Katie Higgins.

AVERAGE ATTENDANCE IN 2019

Georgia's average attendance in 2019 was 1,078, which ranked 16th in the nation and third in the SEC behind Texas A&M and South Carolina.

Due to the on-going COVID-19 pandemic and social distancing restrictions, Georgia will not be able to reach nearly that average in 2020 as there is limited capacity at each game.

FIVE BULLDOGS NAMED TO THE SEC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Senior Kayla Bruster, juniors Abby Boyan, Cecily Stoute, and Emory Wegener, along with sophomore Chloe Chapman were named to the SEC Preseason Watch List, joining 55 other SEC players.

Bruster and Stoute are staples of Georgia's backline, contributing to Wegener's success of only 16 goals allowed throughout the 2019 season, which ranks fourth in fewest goals allowed in a season in program history. Wegener has 10 total shutouts as a Bulldog, moving to fifth in program history for career shutouts after only two seasons. She has also started more games than any other active goalkeeper in the SEC.

Boyan and Chapman are familiar faces of Georgia's attack. Chapman was Georgia's leading scorer as a rookie last season and Boyan added two goals and two assists of her own.

A TWO-SPORT ATHLETE

Chloe Chapman is also a member of the Georgia Lady Bulldogs basketball team. She balances both teams by "playing where her feet are".

CHAPMAN NAMED OUTSTANDING COLLEGE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

University of Georgia soccer and women's basketball sophomore Chloe Chapman has been named the Outstanding College Athlete of the Year by the Atlanta Sports Council.

Chapman garnered over 50,000 votes during the seven-day voting period, which took place in July. She is the 11th Georgia Bulldog student-athlete to earn the Outstanding College Athlete of the Year award since the honor's inception back in 2006.

The Mitchellville, Maryland, native led Georgia's soccer team with six goals in 19 matches last season. The two-sport star then took to the basketball court, where she earned a spot in the starting lineup late in the year. She gave Georgia valuable minutes during the final stretch of the 2019-20 campaign, helping the Lady Bulldogs win five of their final eight games.

Each year, the Atlanta Sports Council recognizes the best athletes in the area through its Atlanta Sports Awards.

PLAYER GUESTS ONLY AT THE TURNER SOCCER COMPLEX

Due to COVID-19 and social distancing guidelines, no fans will be permitted to UGA soccer games this fall. Guests will be permitted through a "Player Pass List" only.
