THE MATCHUP

App State concludes non-conference play on Tuesday with a road contest at Auburn...Tip is set for 3 p.m. EST on SEC Network and the Appalachian Sports Network from Learfield IMG College.

THE SERIES

This will be the second meeting all-time between the two schools...Auburn won the lone meeting in the 1976-77 season 84-61.

SCOUTING THE MOUNTAINEERS

App State improved to 6-2 on the season with an 77-41 win over Columbia International on Friday...Adrian Delph paced the Mountaineers with a game-high 14 points, while Donovan Gregory added a near double-double with 13 points and nine rebounds...Kendall Lewis also reached double figures with 10 points...The 6-2 mark is the best start for the Mountaineers since the 1989-90 season, when App State also started 6-2...Friday's win marked the fifth opponent that App State has held under 60 points this season...The Mountaineers are giving up just 55.4 points per game, which leads the Sun Belt and sits sixth nationally.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Auburn improved to 5-2 on the season with a 77-41 win over Troy on Saturday..In the win, the Tigers shot 75 percent from the field in the first half and jumped out to a 21-3 lead...Allen Flanigan had a team-high 14 points, while Jaylin Williams added 11 points and six rebounds...JT Thor added 10 points in the win...Justin Powell leads the team in scoring (14.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.1 rpg), with Flanigan sitting second in scoring at 13.9 points...Williams is also averaging double figures at 10.1 points and has a team leading 10 blocks on the season.

UP NEXT

App State opens Sun Belt play with a two-game series against Troy on Jan. 1 and Jan. 2 in Boone...Tip is set for 6 p.m. EST on Jan. 1 and 4 p.m. EST on Jan. 2 on ESPN+ and the Appalachian Sports Network from Learfield IMG College.

STRONG START

• App State stands at 6-2 to begin the season, marking the best start for the program since the 1989-90 season, when the Mountaineers also began the season 6-2. App State began the 1988-89 season with a 10-1 mark.

NON-CONFERENCE WINNING RECORD IN BACK-TO-BACK SEASONS

• With a victory over Greensboro College on Dec. 17, App State clinched its second straight non-conference winning record (6-2 in 2020-21; 6-5 in 2019-20). The last time App State posted back-to-back seasons with non-conference winning records was in 1998-99 (6-4) and 1999-00 (6-4).

CARRY THE MOMENTUM

• App State posted one of its strongest seasons in nearly a decade in 2019-20. The Mountaineers will look to continue the momentum into this season. Last season:

- The Mountaineers' 18 wins were most since the 2009-10 season, when they won 23 games

- App State's 11 conference wins were the most for the program since joining the Sun Belt in 2014-15. It's also the most wins in conference since 2009-10, when App State won 13 games in the SoCon.

- The Black and Gold posted 10 home wins, which were the most for the program since 2012-13

- The Mountaineers posted their first non-conference winning record (6-5) and first conference road winning record (6-4) since 2009-10.

- The Mountaineers held 13 opponents under 60 points, which was the most since 1979-80.

HARRILL COMMIT $1 MILLION TOWARD APP STATE BASKETBALL PRACTICE FACILITY

• App State Athletics has announced that Missy Harrill and sons Jay and Brad have made a $1 million commitment in support of men's basketball and the naming of the Mark E. Harrill Basketball Practice Facility.
• The Quinn Center project includes renovating court space for the App State men's and women's basketball teams and volleyball team to share, which will allow all three programs to maximize their practice times that they currently split at the Holmes Convocation Center. The enhanced facility will continue to be shared with University Recreation and other university entities.

APP STATE ANNOUNCES ACTIONS COMMITTED TO CHANGE

• Head coach Dustin Kerns, the Mountaineers staff and players announced their commitment to action for change:
- Investing Resources Into a Charitable Organization - The program will donate supplies, times and funds to H.O.P.E. (Help Our People Eat).
- Continuing to Educate - The team will visit black historical sites on road trips.
- Promotion of Black Owned Businesses - The team will have a meal from a black owned business on every road trip.

HEAD COACH DUSTIN KERNS

Dustin Kerns was named the 22nd head coach in App State men's basketball history on March 28, 2019.

In his first season at the helm of the Mountaineers, Kerns led App State to its best season in a decade. The Black and Gold posted its most wins (18) since 2009-10 and most Sun Belt wins (11) ever. App State went 6-5 in non-conference play, marking the first time App State finished with a non-conference winning record since 2007-08. The Mountaineers also won 10 contests in the Holmes Center, which was the most for the program since the 2012-13 season. App State posted its second highest finish ever in the Sun Belt that culminated with a come from behind 70-65 win over Coastal Carolina in the Sun Belt Tournament. Kern's 18 victories in his first season at App State were the most by a first year head coach for the Mountaineers since 1942. In addition, the Black and Gold posted a +7 win turnaround, which ranked as the third highest in the nation.

On the court, App State established itself as one of the top defensive teams in the Sun Belt and nation. The Mountaineers held opponents to just 67.3 points, which ranked second in the conference. In addition, App State held 13 opponents to under 60 points, which marked the most for the program since the 1979-80 season. Individually, Justin Forrest was named First Team All-Sun Belt, marking the first First Team All-Sun Belt honor for the program since joining the league in 2014-15. Forrest was also tabbed as Sun Belt Player of the Week twice.

A native of Kingsport, Tenn., Kerns came to the High Country from Presbyterian, where he served as head coach for two seasons. He inherited a Presbyterian program that had yet to achieve a winning record in 12 seasons at the Division I level and was coming off a five-win campaign in 2016-17. He immediately led the Blue Hose to a six-win improvement in his first year before breaking through in 2018-19.

Kerns guided the Blue Hose to their first winning record (20-16) and first postseason appearance (CIT) as a Division I program in just his second year on the job. PC's 12-3 record at home and 9-7 mark in Big South Conference play are also its best since joining the Division I ranks. Kerns' team advanced to the quarterfinals of the CIT after garnering road wins at Seattle and Robert Morris. For his efforts, Kerns was named as a finalist for both the Hugh Durham Award (top mid-major coach) and the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year.

Highly regarded for both his recruiting acumen and player development, Kerns and his staff mentored 2018-19 Big South Freshman of the Year Adam Flagler, who led the Blue Hose with 15.9 points per game and a school-record 108 3-pointers made. In Flagler and forward Cory Hightower, PC boasted two of the league's five all-freshman honorees. Point guard Davon Bell led the league in assists (6.5/game) and made the All-Big South second team.

Presbyterian established itself as one of the premier 3-point shooting teams in the country in 2018-19. The Blue Hose's 394 total trifectas currently rank second-most in the nation behind NCAA Sweet 16 contender Auburn. Kerns' team didn't just shoot the ball prolifically, but also efficiently. The team's 3-point field-goal percentage ranks among the top 25 nationally, and PC's assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.58 is fifth-best in the country. For his efforts this past season, Kerns has been named a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year and for the Hugh Durham Mid-Major National Coach of the Year. The winners of each award will be announced next weekend at the Final Four.

A 2002 graduate of Clemson, Kerns climbed the coaching ranks on staffs with Buzz Peterson at Tennessee, Mike Young at Wofford and Kerry Keating at Santa Clara.

From 2013-17, he served as associate head coach at Wofford, helping the Terriers claim back-to-back Southern Conference Tournament titles and NCAA appearances in 2014 and 2015. He was instrumental in the development of guard Fletcher Magee, who this year broke the record for most 3-pointers in NCAA Division I history. Kerns received national recognition as one of college basketball's top assistant coaches and recruiters, earning the No. 4 Low-Major Recruiter ranking from CoachStat.net and the No. 20 Mid-Major Assistant Coach ranking.

Kerns was an assistant coach at Santa Clara for five seasons from 2008-13, where he helped the Broncos claim the third-most wins in the West Coast Conference behind Gonzaga and Saint Mary's during that span. He helped Santa Clara win 26 games in 2012-13 and capture the College Basketball Insider (CBI) title, as well as a 24-win season and a CIT title in 2010-11. He had previous stints as director of operations at Santa Clara (2007-08), assistant coach at Wofford (2004-07), graduate assistant at Tennessee (2003-04) and director of basketball operations at Tennessee Tech (2002-03).

During his coaching career, Kerns has seen 37 players play professionally.

Kerns graduated from Clemson in 2002 with a degree in secondary education. As an undergraduate, he worked as a student assistant for the men's basketball program and was selected to coach at the prestigious Michael Jordan Flight School for three summers from 2001-03.

Kerns played basketball at Kingsport's Dobyns-Bennett High School, a national powerhouse at the prep level and alma mater of former App State and current NFL offensive lineman Daniel Kilgore.

Kerns is married to the former Brittany Wright, and the couple has a daughter, Emory, and a son, Riggs.
