NO. 18 AUBURN TRAVELS TO NO. 10 ALABAMA FOR RIVALRY MEET

The No. 18 Auburn gymnastics team continues its road swing and heads to rival and No. 10 Alabama for a Friday night meet, Jan. 22. The Tigers and the Crimson Tide will face off at 7:30 p.m. CT on SEC Network in Coleman Coliseum.

"We're always excited for this meet whether it is at home or on the road," head coach Jeff Graba said. "There is nothing like going up against your rival and this year won't be any different. Despite the smaller crowd, the pressure is still going to be high and the team knows what is at stake when you go against Alabama."

"We're still a very young team that is trying to get more and more experience," Graba added. "We put a lot of trust into all our athletes and especially in the freshmen and sophomores this year that are leading us off on events. Friday is going to bring the pressure so we need to make sure we're all dialed in, ready to go and managing ourselves in order to finish with a great score."

IN THE RANKINGS

Auburn enters the week at No. 18 per RoadtoNationals.com. The weekly rankings are based on the season average score.

"I'm not paying attention to the rankings just yet with this young squad and the adversity we've faced early," Graba said. "The annual dual meet against Alabama is always a huge thing for our team and the fact that Alabama is in the top 10 simply makes it even more dynamic."

This week's rankings has Florida (No. 1) and Oklahoma (No. 2) still on top as the Gators have an average of 197.375, while Oklahoma stands at 197.238. Michigan, Minnesota and LSU round out the Top 5.

The rest of the Southeastern Conference ranks in the Top 20. Arkansas is at No. 8 with Alabama at No. 10. Georgia and Kentucky as in spots 11 and 12, while Missouri is ranked 20th.

Junior Derrian Gobourne is tied for 16th in the all-around with a 39.250 average. She is also tied for 23rd on vault at 9.850. Sophomore Cassie Stevens is tied for 18th in the all-around at 39.225.

LAST TIME OUT: AT KENTUCKY

The Tigers hit the road for the first time in 2021 last week and scored a 194.550 at Kentucky in a loss.

Auburn relied heavily on underclassmen as 15 of 24 routines came from freshmen and sophomores. Competing in the all-around for the first time in her career was freshman Olivia Hollingsworth, while classmate Gabby McLaughlin and sophomores Piper Smith and Adeline Sabados competed in three of four events.

Junior Derrian Gobourne put together a 39.075 in the all-around to finish third in the category. Junior Sabrina Cheney and Sabados each reached career highs on floor, scoring a 9.75 and a 9.775, respectively.

GOBOURNE SHINES VS. FLORIDA

Junior Derrian Gobourne competed in the all-around for the first time vs. Florida (Jan. 8) since the first meet of 2020. The Sarasota, Fla., put together a 39.425 to finish second in the category at the end of the night. That score was just .050 off her career high and ranks tied for third in the country.

"Derrian has improved on all four events and it's so nice to have her back in the all-around," head coach Jeff Graba said. "She's a steady and solid performer in our lineup."

Gobourne finished the night with four solid scores, starting with a 9.925 on floor. She won the bars title with a 9.9 and finished with a 9.875 on vault and 9.725 on beam.

"She's not even close to what she could do this year so that's a good sign of things to come," Graba said. "She continues to rise to the occasion and is a phenomenal competitor."

GYMNAST TO WATCH: DERRIAN GOBOURNE

>> Junior Derrian Gobourne continues to lead the youthful Tiger squad this season. Competing in the all-around twice already, the Sarasota, Fla., product is among the Top 50 nationally in the all-around (t-16th), vault (t-23rd), bars (t-37th) and floor (t-39th).

YOUTHFUL TIGERS

With the departure of a solid group of seniors at the end of last year, the Tigers are looking to lean heavily on its youth to fill the gaps.

Leading the charge is a dynamic group of sophomores - Aria Brusch, Morgan Leigh Oldham, Elise Panzner, Adeline Sabados, Piper Smith, Cassie Stevens and Anna Sumner.

Stevens and Brusch were primary competitors throughout 2020 with Stevens competing in the all-around and Brusch going in three of four events. Sabados competed on bars in every meet as a freshman, while the rest of the crew provided much-needed depth.

This season, Sabados has really stepped up and has provided scores on three of four events in the first two meets of 2021. Competing on vault, bars and floor, Sabados kicked off her vault career with a 9.85 vs. Florida. She recently set a career high on floor at Kentucky, scoring a 9.775.

Auburn's freshman class features a group of athletes expected to make big strides in 2021. The group of Brooke Butler, Olivia Hollingsworth, Gabby McLaughlin, Payton Smith and Tara Walsh.

Hollingsworth made her first start in the all-around vs. Kentucky, while McLaughlin competed in three of four events. Payton Smith competed on vault for the first time in her career.

"Olivia wasn't training at full speed in December so we wanted to get her out there against Florida and get her warmed up," head coach Jeff Graba said. "At the last minute, we moved lineups around because she was warming up really well. She's rising to the occasion and improving really quickly. We needed her to step up and she's continuing to do that."

"Gabby excelled on beam for us and putting a freshman fifth on beam is an act of faith, especially in the first meet," Graba said. "She's proving that she's a gamer."

UP NEXT

Auburn returns to the Plains for another Southeastern Conference contest next week. The Tigers host No. 5 LSU, Jan. 29, at 4 p.m. CT in Auburn Arena. The meet will be televised live on ESPN2.

Head coach Jeff Graba has put the Auburn gymnastics program on the map throughout his 10 years on the Plains. Now entering his 11th season at the helm in 2021, Graba and the Tigers are looking to build on their accomplishments to reach bigger feats in the sport.

The Minnesota native was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015 and SEC co-coach of the Year in 2012.

Most recently, Graba and his staff guided a pair of Tigers to All-America honors in 2020. Drew Watson picked up first team recognition for her performances on vault and finished with an NQS of 9.92 in the event to finish in a tie for seventh nationally. Her selection marked the first All-America honor for a Tiger in the category since 2016.

Derrian Gobourne was placed on the second team for her efforts on bars in 2020. Her All-America honor in the event is the first for any Tiger on bars at the conclusion of the regular season. Gobourne finished tied for 14th nationally with a 9.905.

The 2020 squad enjoyed a wealth of accomplishments throughout the season, including a win over Alabama in Auburn Arena.

Auburn's performances in 2019 was one for the books as the squad reached the sport's first-ever Sweet Sixteen. Auburn reached the second round of the NCAA Regional Championship with a 197.075 in Baton Rouge, marking the highest NCAA Regional score in program history.

The program saw its first national champion in 2019 when Gobourne came in a tie for first at that 2019 National Championship on vault. She scored a career-best 9.95, picking up All-America honors along the way. In addition, Gobourne earned All-SEC and Freshman All-SEC recognition.

In nine seasons, Graba has led his student-athletes to 15 All-America honors (both NACGC/W and NCAA) and 19 All-SEC recognitions. Leading the way was Caitlin Atkinson who amassed nine All-America nods and named SEC Gymnast of the Year in 2016.

With the help of continuous progress, Graba and the Tigers have enjoyed growth when it comes to home attendance each season. Each season, the team's attendance average has climbed higher and higher and after averaging just 3,583 fans in his first season, Auburn finished the 2020 season with a new program record average of 6,364 fans. In addition, the Tigers have enjoyed 10 sellouts of Auburn Arena (7,424).
