AUBURN-MISSISSIPPI STATE SERIES

Auburn leads the all-time series 40-24 and have taken six of the last 10 matches against the Bulldogs. Mississippi State has the edge of late winning the last two meetings with a home-away sweep in 2019.

The Tigers are searching for their first road win in the >> series since 2015. Auburn holds a 15-14 advantage in matches in Starkville.

REICH BECOMES THE REICH-ER

Turning in her best performance in league action to date in Auburn's two-match series at Georgia, opposite hitter Liz Reich was selected as Southeastern Conference Offensive Player of the Week

The recognition is the first for Reich this season. Her recognition marks the first time in program history Auburn has had multiple student-athletes named SEC Offensive Player of the Week as junior Rebekah Rath has won the award twice earlier this season. Auburn has now won the award a program-record three times in 2021.

The Colorado Springs, Colo., native totaled 11 kills >> on 27 attempts in the series opener at Athens. Committing just three errors in the match, Reich recorded a .296 hitting percentage. She added six blocks to tie her season high.

In the series finale, Reich powered the offense with 12 kills on 22 attempts, attacking at a blistering .409 clip. She set a season high for kills in a conference match with her performance. Defensively, she recorded one dig and a pair of blocks.

Reich led the Tiger offense with 23 total kills over >> the two-match series, while attacking at a .347 clip. The graduate student averaged 3.83 kills per set and 4.50 points per set to pace the Tigers.

OH SHIPES! IT'S A BLOCK PARTY

As the season progresses, Auburn's play at the net continues to improve as highlighted by a record-breaking performance against Alabama. As a team, the Tigers totaled 18.0 team blocks in Auburn's 3-2 victory against the Crimson Tide on Oct. 2. The mark tied the program's record for blocks in a match. The Tigers also totaled 18.0 team blocks against South Florida on Sept. 13, 2014.

Auburn enters the season finale ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference with a 2.44 blocks per set average. The mark is currently the seventh highest team average recorded in a single-season. Play at the net combined with Auburn's digging performance has helped the Tigers hold opponents to a minuscule .170 hitting percentage, the lowest in the SEC.

five-set match against the Tide to help Auburn to its first SEC home victory since 2018. The mark set the program's single-match record for blocks in the rally scoring era. The previous record of 11.0 was set on Nov. 23, 2017 by Breanna Barksdale at Florida.

Her record-setting performance continue against LSU (10/29) as Shipes chipped in three blocks to bring her season total to 120, breaking the program's single-season record for the rally-scoring era. The previous mark of 119 was set by Camila Jersonsky in 2012. She added a second record to her resume against South Carolina (11/10) as she surpassed Jersonsky in block assists.

Shipes continues to lead Auburn with her impressive play at the net since moving to middle blocker. Shipes leads the SEC in both total blocks (137) and blocks per set (1.41), while ranking 13th and fifth respectively, in both categories nationally. With three single-season records to her credit, Shipes has her sights on one more blocking record to run the table.

THE CROUCH EFFECT

After COVID-19 derailed the process last season, Brent Crouch's overhaul of the program took into effect since the season opener and has continued into the early portion of Southeastern Conference play.

The Tigers opened the season with 17 consecutive >> set victories before dropping its first set of the season. Auburn tied the program record for most sweeps to begin a season with five. The record was first set by the 1974 squad.

Auburn's 6-0 start is the best for the Tigers since the >> 2012 team began the season 8-0. Auburn has recorded 10 victories through its first 14 matches of the season. It is the most wins by the Tigers since the 2018 team closed the year with 12.

Sweeping Alabama to earn the program's first >> SEC victories of the season, the Tigers have now won back-to-back SEC games for the first time since knocking off Georgia and Mississippi State in November of 2018. Auburn has now won three straight matches against Alabama. It is the longest win streak against the Crimson Tide since the Tigers won six straight from 2009 to 2012.

Auburn opened its two-match series against Missouri with a sweep, picking up the program's first victory in the series since 1996. It also mark the first time in program history that Auburn had defeated Missouri since Missouri joined the SEC.

The Tiger's continue their impressive run by edging >> out Texas A&M, 3-2, to snap a nine-match losing skid to the Aggies. The match was Auburn's first victory over in the Aggies in College Station in program history.

Auburn has racked up the most conference victories in a season since 2018 while the team's 13 overall victories are the most since 2017. The Tigers have also seen dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the court.

DEFENSE

- Auburn's digs per set average of 15.92 currently ranks seventh in single-season history and is the highest team average since 2017.
- The Tigers have totaled 405 block assists this season, the sixth most in a single season and the most by any squad since 2000.
- Auburn currently holds the seventh high team blocks per set average for a single season at 2.44.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

Behind a career performance at the Auburn Invitational, Bella Rosenthall was selected as the SEC's Defensive Player of the Week for the second consecutive week. She is the first Tiger in program history to win the award in back-to-back weeks. She is also the first Tiger to win the award multiple times in a season since Camila Jersonsky in 2012.

Rosenthall has paced the Tigers this season, >> recording at least 10 digs in 24 of Auburn's 27 matches to being the season. She has chipped in at least 20 digs in 10 matches for the Tigers while totaling at least 30 digs three time.

She set a then career high with 31 digs. She is the >> first Tiger to record at least 30 digs in a match since Payton White versus Butler on Aug. 31, 2019.

Behind her match-leading 30 digs in the series >> opener at Arkansas (10/9), she became just the 15th Tiger in program history to record 1,000 career digs. Rosenthall is the first Tiger to hit the mark since Brenna McIlroy in 2018.

>> Rosenthall would shattered that mark with a 33-dig performance in the series finale against Missouri (10/17), a career high for the senior. The mark is the sixth most ever recorded by a Tiger in a single match.

She currently leads the SEC with a 4.81 digs/set >> average and in total digs with 481. She is on pace to turn in one of the best dig performances in school history as she already in the top six in both total digs and digs per set.

Brent Crouch enters his second season as the head coach of the Aubum volleyball team after guiding the program through the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic during his first season on The Plains.

Crouch made his Auburn coaching debut against No. 4 Florida on Oct. 21, 2020, to open the shortened fall volleyball schedule. Crouch led the Tigers on the court for eight total matches

The fall season was highlighted by Auburn setting the program record for blocks in a four-set match as the Tigers recorded 17 at South Carolina on Oct. 29, 2020. The previous mark of 14 was set on Nov. 9, 2014 against Tennessee. The total tied for the second-most blocks in a match in Auburn program history as was the most by the Tigers since 2009.

Due to injuries and opt-out, the Tigers were unable to compete in the spring portion of the amended 2020-21 schedule.

Crouch previously served as the head coach at the University of Southern California. In two seasons at USC, Crouch led the program to consecutive NCAA second round appearances, including a second-place finish in the Pac-12, and a No. 21 ranking in the season's final AVCA poll in his first season on campus in 2018. This past season, the Trojans were 18-14, while outside hitter Khalia Lanier became the fifth player in Pac-12 history to record 2,000 kills and 1,000 digs in career.

Under Crouch in 2018, the Trojans finished 22-11 overall with a 13-7 record in Pac-12 matches. USC played one of the toughest schedules in the nation and faced 18 ranked opponents in the regular season and were awarded the No. 11 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament. Setter Raquel Lázaro was named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and outside hitter Brooke Botkin was chosen for second-team AVCA All-America honors. Lázaro and Lanier were each tabbed for All-America honorable mention

Under Crouch's tutelage, outside hitter Emilia Weske was tabbed to the Pac-12's All-Freshman Team while middle blocker Jasmine Gross added All-Pac 12 honors.

Prior to arriving at Tray, Crouch was the 2016 West Coast Conference Coach of the Year. He inherited a winless Portland program and within two seasons guided the Pilots to their winningest season in 25 years. Crouch first took over at Portland in 2014 after the Pilots went 0-27 the previous season. After going 7-23 in his debut season, he guided the Pilots to a 16-15 mark in 2015 (its most victories since 1991) and then improved upon that in 2016 with a 17-13 mark. His 2017 team, which was hampered by injuries, was 15-15, with five losses coming in five-set matches. His overall four-year record at Portland was 55-66

The 48 victories in his final three years was Portland's best three-season total since 1984-86. The Pilots' 10-8 third place WCC finish in 2016 was its most league wins since 1985 and highest conference finish since 1989. He led Portland to the program's first-ever victories over 150 10, Top 15, and Top 25 opponents. Crouch caached three All-WCC first team players and a WCC All-Freshman team pick, along with three WCC All-Academic first teamers. He also helped establish beach volleyball as a varsity sport at Portland in 2016.

Crouch arrived at Portland after four seasons (2010-13) at Saint Mary's College, where he was an assistant with the indoor program and head coach of the beach team.

During his time at SMC, the Gaels' indoor team went 73-40 overall, finished in the top three in the WCC standings each season by winning 73.4 percent of its league matches (47-17) and earned a berth into the NCAA Toyrnament in 2012, advancing to the second round. Besides being involved in the team's offense and defense, recruiting, scouting, practice planning, statistical and video analysis and scheduling, he provided academic support, as he mentored several WCC All-Academic honorees and helped the team to the athletic department's highest grade point average, an NCAA Public Recognition Award, and an AVCA academic award

Crouch also coached the inaugural Saint Mary's beach team in 2013, guiding the Gaels to an 8-2 record, the best mark among all Northern California teams, as well as a No. 9 national ranking and a bid to the AVCA national championship for the program's top pairs team.

FEEL THE RATH

» Behind one of the program's best offensive performances in almost two decades, junior outside hitter Rebekah Rath was selected as Southeastern Conference Co-Offensive Player of the Week, sharing the honor with LSU's Kylie Deberg.

>> The recognition was the second for Rath this season. Rath is the first Tiger in program history to be named SEC Offensive Player of the Week twice in the same season. The SEC began distributing the award in 2004.

>> In an epic performance in game one against Arkansas (10/9), Rath was virtually unstoppable on offense with 29 total kills. Rath attacked on a .240 hit percentage, committing just 11 errors in her 75 swings.

» Rath's 29 kills were the second most recorded by a Tiger during the rally-scoring era. Her 29 kills were the most totaled in a single match by a Tiger since Ashlee Johns' single-match record of 30, which was totaled in a five-set contest at Arkansas on Oct. 8, 2004.

>> Rath currently leads the SEC in attacks per set (13.36), kills per set (4.26), points (494.0), points per set (4.94), total attacks (1,336) and ranks second in the league in total kills (426)

>> The junior as recorded at least 10 kills in 23 of Auburn's 27 matches. In Auburn's five-set thriller versus Santa Clara, Rath led the team with 24 kills to become the first Tiger to record at least 20 kills in a match since Tatum Shipes in 2018. Rath also chipped in 24 kills in Auburn's five-set contest at Alabama State on Sept. 26 before shattering the mark at Arkansas.

» Rath's was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 7. The Altamonte Springs, Fla., native is the first Auburn Tiger to be named SEC Offensive Player of the Week since Brenna McIlroy won the award on Oct. 30, 2017.

>> Her efforts have also won her all-tournament team honors at both the War Eagle Invitational and the Auburn Invitational.

» Rath's 4.26 kills per set average is currently the highest by a Tiger in single-season history (rally scoring era). She added a second single-season record in the series finale at Texas A&M (11/5), breaking the record for attacks. In the series opener against No. 8 Kentucky (11/20), Rath made history yet again as she set the rally-scoring era record for total kills in a season.
