NO. 22 TIGERS WELCOME NO. 2 LSU TO AUBURN ARENA

The No. 22 Auburn gymnastics team returns to Auburn Arena Friday, Feb. 5, for another Southeastern Conference match up. The Tigers host No. 2 LSU at 6 p.m. CT and the meet will be televised live on SEC Network.

The two Tiger teams were scheduled to compete last Friday, but the meet was postponed because of COVID protocols and contact tracing within the LSU program.

"If we were going to have a meet postponed, last week's meet was the one to have," head coach Jeff Graba said. "We did a lot of resting and wanted to be smart with how we approached the unplanned bye week.

"We're still facing the No. 2 team in the country that will be ready to go," Graba added. "This is a moment to stay focused on us and our mindset is to see how good we can be. I believe we're a tremendously good team even if we are really young. So Friday's focus is going to be really honing in our on mindset going forward. Our physical abilities are in a good place so it'll be an opportunity to focus on the mental side of the sport."

IN THE RANKINGS

Auburn remains at No. 22 this week per RoadtoNationals.com. The weekly rankings are based on the average score.

"We got a bye last week a little earlier than we were expecting, but we definitely took advantage of it," Jeff Graba said. "We rested up and did some intrasquads to try and get better for this week. We're still looking forward to facing off with LSU at home this Friday."

The nation's top squads start with Florida still in the No. 1 spot and LSU holding on to No. 2. Utah is just .008 behind LSU at No. 3 and Arkansas jumped up to the fourth spot. Oklahoma moved down two spots and rank fifth.

The rest of the Southeastern Conference ranks in the Top 30 this week as more teams across the country have started their seasons. Alabama moved up to sixth nationally with Georgia and Kentucky at Nos. 13 and 14, respectively. Missouri stands at No. 27.

Head coach Jeff Graba has put the Auburn gymnastics program on the map throughout his 10 years on the Plains. Now entering his 11th season at the helm in 2021, Graba and the Tigers are looking to build on their accomplishments to reach bigger feats in the sport.

The Minnesota native was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015 and SEC co-coach of the Year in 2012.

Most recently, Graba and his staff guided a pair of Tigers to All-America honors in 2020. Drew Watson picked up first team recognition for her performances on vault and finished with an NQS of 9.92 in the event to finish in a tie for seventh nationally. Her selection marked the first All-America honor for a Tiger in the category since 2016.

Derrian Gobourne was placed on the second team for her efforts on bars in 2020. Her All-America honor in the event is the first for any Tiger on bars at the conclusion of the regular season. Gobourne finished tied for 14th nationally with a 9.905.

The 2020 squad enjoyed a wealth of accomplishments throughout the season, including a win over Alabama in Auburn Arena.

Auburn's performances in 2019 was one for the books as the squad reached the sport's first-ever Sweet Sixteen. Auburn reached the second round of the NCAA Regional Championship with a 197.075 in Baton Rouge, marking the highest NCAA Regional score in program history.

The program saw its first national champion in 2019 when Gobourne came in a tie for first at that 2019 National Championship on vault. She scored a career-best 9.95, picking up All-America honors along the way. In addition, Gobourne earned All-SEC and Freshman All-SEC recognition.

In nine seasons, Graba has led his student-athletes to 15 All-America honors (both NACGC/W and NCAA) and 19 All-SEC recognitions. Leading the way was Caitlin Atkinson who amassed nine All-America nods and named SEC Gymnast of the Year in 2016.

With the help of continuous progress, Graba and the Tigers have enjoyed growth when it comes to home attendance each season. Each season, the team's attendance average has climbed higher and higher and after averaging just 3,583 fans in his first season, Auburn finished the 2020 season with a new program record average of 6,364 fans. In addition, the Tigers have enjoyed 10 sellouts of Auburn Arena (7,424).
