RYAN WOCHOMURKA

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON

Ryan Wochomurka (WAH-kuh-MUR-kah) is in his first year as the Auburn head swimming and diving coach. A 21-time All-American at Auburn from 2002-05 and member of three national championship teams with the Tigers, Wochomurka spent the previous six seasons as head coach at the University of Houston where he led the Cougars to five straight women's American Athletic Conference Championships.

Under the direction of Wochomurka, not only did the Houston women win five straight conference championships, but the program earned numerous All-Conference honors, broke countless program records in the pool and performed well academically with several student-athletes named to the CSCAA Scholar All-American Team. Wochomurka was the AAC Women's Swimming Coach of the Year every year from 2017 to 2021.

In 2020-21, Wochomurka and his staff enjoyed one of the most successful seasons in Houston S&D history. The Cougars would sit atop The American at the conclusion of the season, capturing their fifth consecutive league title and scoring the most points by a women's team in championship history. Under the tutelage of Wochomurka and his staff, Mykenzie Leehy and Ioanna Sacha were named Co-AAC Swimmers of the year, Laura Garcia-Marin earned Freshman of the year honors, and Wochomurka earned his fifth consecutive AAC Women's Coach of the Year award.

The success did not stop there for the Cougars as Houston sent three women to the NCAA Championships, including a diver for the first time since 2015. The Cougars solidified themselves as a powerhouse at the NCAA Women's Championships, scoring the program's most points at the meet since 2011 and earning the highest finish of any non-major conference team in attendance.

The 2019-20 season ended early because of the COVID-19 pandemic, but Houston left no doubt that it was the team to beat in The American, capturing 17 individual championships in its home pool and accumulating the second-most points by a women's team in AAC Championships history. The Cougars swept the relays for the second straight year and added a sweep of the diving events to its resume.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Houston, Wochomurka spent eight seasons on staff at the University of Louisville. Ahead of the 2014-15 season, he was promoted to associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for the men's team. During his time there, Louisville won two men's championships and three women's championships in the Big East Conference and swept the American Athletic Conference titles in 2014.

An accomplished swimmer in his own right, Wochomurka was a 21-time All-American during his collegiate career at Auburn University and was part of three NCAA national championship teams. Individually, Wochomurka won NCAA titles in both the 200- and 400-yard freestyle relays and captured eight Southeastern Conference championships.

In addition to his success at Auburn, Wochomurka represented the United States at the 2003 FINA World Championships, where he was a silver medalist in the 4x100 free relay. He was also a 2004 Olympic Trials finalist and a two-time FINA World Cup Silver Medalist.

Wochomurka and his wife, Leigh, have a son, Hayes, and a daughter, Hallie.
