News and Notes

BACK IN THE WIN COLUMN: San Diego State snapped a 13-match losing streak with a five-set (25-20, 20-25, 23-25, 25-21, 15-13) over Wyoming on Saturday night. SDSU set new season-bests in digs (78) and assists (66) in a match that featured 35 tied scores and 14 total lead changes. With their first conference win of the season, SDSU also improved to 8-2 in its last 10 home matches against Wyoming.

SERIES HISTORY AGAINST USD, BSU, & USU: San Diego State meets with San Diego for the 30th consecutive year on Tuesday as the Aztecs wrap up their non-conference schedule.

The all-time series between Boise State and SDSU is currently tied at 7-7. The Aztecs and Broncos split the series last season, with the home team winning each match.

SDSU is 6-2 in its last eight meetings with Utah State. Both of those losses came in Logan, and the Aztecs and Aggies have split each of the past two season series. SDSU is 14-5 all-time against Utah State.

ASHLYNN DUNBAR, PRETTY GOOD: Ashlynn Dunbar became the first Aztec in the Mountain West era (SDSU joined the MW in 1999) to log a 20-kill, 20-dig performance, recording career-highs in both 23 kills and 22 digs in Saturday's win against Wyoming. Dunbar also set match-bests in hitting percentage (.383) and service aces (5). Dunbar also recorded a double double in a four-set loss against Colorado State, giving the junior from Seabrook, Texas her sixth and seventh double doubles of the season.

Currently, Dunbar is tied for first in the MW and eighth in the country with 32 service aces, eighth in the conference in points per set (3.92), and 10th in the MW in kills per set (3.15).

DEJA HARRIS BLOCK PARTY: Deja Harris is currently climbing her way up the SDSU record book in blocks, as her 404 career block assists currently ranks fourth in program history. In terms of block points, Harris is 3.5 block points away from entering the program's top 10, as the senior currently ranks 11th with 263. Harris stands third in the MW and 24th in the nation with 78 total blocks. Harris has led SDSU in blocks in 13 of 16 matches this season.

Among all active NCAA players, Harris is ninth in with 465 career total blocks. A 2018 preseason All-MW selection and three-time all-conference honoree, Harris is looking to become the first four-time all-MW selection in SDSU history.

The Las Vegas native currently ranks sixth in the Mountain West with 1.20 blocks per set and fifth in the MW with a .345 hitting percentage. Harris is one of three players in the MW to be in the top six in both categories.

Harris is also seventh in SDSU history with a .326 career hitting percentage. Harris is one of six players in Aztec history to have 260+ block points and a career hitting percentage of .315 or better.

With Harris ranking sixth in the MW with 4.02 points per set, Harris and teammate Ashlynn Dunbar (3.92 points per set) have SDSU as the only team in the Mountain West with multiple student-athletes in the conference's top eight points per set leaders.

BALANCED DEFENSIVE EFFORT: San Diego State has had five different players (Sam McGrath, Lauren Lee, Loren Teter, Ashlynn Dunbar, Hannah Turnlund) post a team-high for digs in a match this season. SDSU has recorded 845 digs this season in comparison to 822 digs by its opponents, and are led by McGrath (2.74 digs per set), Dunbar (2.58), and Lee (2.48).

SUCCESS AT HOME: The Aztecs are 27-18 (.600) in their last 45 matches at Peterson Gym.

TOUGH ROAD SO FAR: As of Tuesday, SDSU's 13 opponents during the 2018 season own a collective 141-97 (.592) record. Of those 15 previous opponents, 13 currently have records of .500 or better.

RELYING ON THE RETURNERS: Despite SDSU's roster being divided evenly between 10 returners and 10 newcomers, 83.1 percent of SDSU's kill total (684 of 823) has come from returning players. Defensively, 86.4 percent of SDSU's dig total (730 of 845) has come from returning players.

PRESEASON POLL: For the second consecutive year, SDSU was selected to finish third in the Mountain West in the league's annual preseason poll. Colorado State and Wyoming were selected to finish first and second in the conference, respectively, while Boise State finished in a tie for third place with the Aztecs.

A NEW LOOK: SDSU's roster of 20 is split evenly between 10 returners (eight letter winners, two redshirts) and 10 newcomers (five transfers, five true freshmen).

SDSU's 10 newcomers is the most its had on a roster since having 11 in 2010. SDSU's roster of 20 is tied for the largest roster since Collins-Parker arrived at SDSU, and SDSU's five transfers is the most for an Aztec recruiting class since Collins-Parker's first season on the Mesa.

Deitre COLLINS-PARKER

Head Coach - 11th season

Deitre Collins-Parker, a two-time national collegiate player of the year and AVCA Hall of Fame member, was named the head volleyball coach at San Diego State on Jan. 30, 2009. She became just the fourth head coach since the Aztecs began collegiate play in 1976. She replaced Mark Warner, who retired at the end of the 2008 campaign after 13 years at the helm of the women's program.

Collins-Parker directed SDSU to its second consecutive winning season and a fourth-place Mountain West finish in 2017. A quad of Aztecs were named All-MW (Deja Harris, Devyn Pritchard, Baylee Little, Alexis Cage) -- tied for the program's largest number of honorees since the team joined the league in 2000.

During the summer of 2014 she led a Mountain West all-star team on a tour of Europe that concluded with a bronze medal third-place finish at the 2014 European Global Challenge in Pula, Croatia.

In 2012 she led her Aztec squad to a 23-8 mark and a 13-3 ledger in the Mountain West as the Aztecs claimed their first-ever Mountain West title. It was SDSU's best conference record and league finish since the 1996 season and top overall record since 1995. In addition, she produced a pair of All-America honorees (Andrea Hannasch and Johnna Fouch) along with a total of three all-conference selections (Raegen Shelton) and the conference Newcomer of the Year (Michelle Waber).

Collins-Parker arrived at San Diego State after five seasons as the head coach at Cornell, where she led the Big Red to three Ivy League titles and two NCAA tournament appearances. Under her tutelage, the Big Red had seven players named first-team All-Ivy, including two-time Ivy League Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American, Elizabeth Bishop (2007).

Prior to taking over at Cornell in 2004, Collins-Parker spent the previous eight seasons as head coach at UNLV, earning Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1998 after taking a dormant volleyball program and leading the Lady Rebels to a 23-8 record and a WAC tournament semifinal appearance. Before her stint at UNLV, Collins-Parker served as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Northern Arizona and Houston for one year each. She also has plenty of international coaching experience as well. She served as head coach of the 1998 U.S. junior national team, directing her squad to a gold medal in the national qualifier. She served in the same capacity during the summer of 2000 (silver medal) and 2001 (bronze medal).

A former member of the U.S. national team and a three-time AVCA All-American at the University of Hawai'i, Collins-Parker was the starting middle blocker for the 1988 Olympic Team in Seoul, South Korea, and was an alternate for the 1992 team in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and the 1987 Pan-Am Games.

As a collegian, Collins-Parker was a two-time Broderick Award honoree as the national player of the year (1983, 1984) after leading the Rainbow Wahine to consecutive national titles and a 110-5 record in her final three seasons. Collins capped off her career by becoming the first volleyball player to be awarded the Broderick Cup recipient, given to the nation's best collegiate athlete in all sports. She was twice named to the NCAA all-tournament team and still holds the record for solo blocks in one NCAA tournament (15 in 1982). She was one of six players named to the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball 25th Anniversary Team in October 2005. Collins-Parker went on to compete at the national level and

She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and 1987 Pan-Am Games. She played professionally in the Italian League (1988-89) and the French League (1989-91), capturing the French League Championship twice and the European Cup of Champions in 1990.

Collins-Parker received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award during the 2009 NCAA Convention in Washington, D.C. The award honors former student-athletes who successfully completed collegiate careers in various sports and have excelled in their chosen professions on their 25th anniversary of completing their athletic eligibility. Collins-Parker was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame in the fall of 2008. She currently serves as a member of the AVCA Board of Directors and the chairperson on the AVCA Minority Coaches Committee. She currently has membership with the AVCA, Coaches Accreditation Program, Kaepa Gold Medal Clinics, Black Coaches Association, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. A 1995 graduate of Hawai'i with a bachelor of arts in broadcast communications, Collins-Parker is a member of the USA Volleyball Coaching Accreditation Program and is a CAP level III accredited coach.
