Below is a statistical comparison between SDSU and its opponents over the Aztecs' four-match winning streak.

Statistic	SDSU	Opp.
Kills	234	198
Attack %	.255	.191
Assists	216	187
Digs	235	198
Total Blocks	46.5	29.0

Leaders for SDSU over four-match winning streak:

Assists per set: Delaney Taylor, 9.50
Service aces: Ashlynn Dunbar, 10

With a pair of wins this weekend, SDSU would be in possession of its longest winning streak since 2012, when the team won 12 in a row from Oct. 13 - Nov. 20.

HARRIS NAMED MW DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

Deja Harris earned her first career Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week award on Monday, giving the senior her third career weekly conference award. Harris is the fifth player in league history to own both an Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week award over the course of their career and the first in SDSU history.

Harris logged 23 blocks for the week (good for 1.77 blocks per set) and brought her career block assist total to 424, moving her into third place in the SDSU record book.

SDSU Career Block Assist Leaders

1. Jennifer Miller (1989-92)	480
2. Andrea Hannasch (2009-12)	471
3. Deja Harris (2014 - present)	424

*Harris is also 9th in SDSU history with 276 career block points

Although the award was defense-focused, Harris also served as SDSU's leader on the offensive side the ball, logging a team-best 41 kills with a team-high .375 attack percentage. SDSU posted team-highs in kills in both of SDSU's wins over Boise State and Utah State, recording 14 kills and 19 kills, respectively.

Harris is currently tied for fourth in the country in total blocks with 101. Entering the weekend, the Las Vegas product is second in the conference in hitting percentage (.350), ninth in kills per set (3.10), third in blocks per set (1.29), and fifth in points per set (4.07). Harris is the only player in the conference to be in the top 10 in both kills per set and hitting percentage.

Mountain West Standings

ACE-LYNN DUNBAR: Ashlynn Dunbar is second in the Mountain West and tied for sixth in the country with 37 service aces this season. Even with 12 matches remaining in 2018, Dunbar's total is already higher than any Aztec individual total during the 2017 season (Deja Harris led 2017 team in service aces with 20).

BALANCED DEFENSIVE EFFORT: San Diego State has had four different players (Ashlynn Dunbar, Sam McGrath, Loren Teter, Lauren Lee) record a 20+ dig game this season and five post a single-match team-high in digs (also Hannah Turnlund). SDSU has recorded 1,002 digs this season in comparison to 954 digs by its opponents, and have four players averaging 2.0 digs per set or more, including Sam McGrath (2.65), Ashlynn Dunbar (2.44), Lauren Lee (2.23) and Loren Teter (2.0).

SERIES HISTORY AGAINST NEW MEXICO & UNLV: San Diego State is 4-1 in its last five matches against New Mexico, which enters the weekend first place in the Mountain West. SDSU has won each of its last seven home matches against the Lobos, with the team's last home loss against New Mexico coming on Oct. 31, 2009.

SDSU has won three of its previous four meetings with UNLV and have won five of its last six home meetings against the Rebels.

SUCCESS AT HOME: The Aztecs are 28-18 (.600) in their last 46 matches at Peterson Gym.

PRESEASON POLL: For the second consecutive year, SDSU was selected to finish third in the Mountain West in the league's annual preseason poll. Colorado State and Wyoming were selected to finish first and second in the conference, respectively, while Boise State finished in a tie for third place with the Aztecs.

A NEW LOOK: SDSU's roster of 20 is split evenly between 10 returners (eight letter winners, two redshirts) and 10 newcomers (five transfers, five true freshmen).

SDSU's 10 newcomers is the most its had on a roster since having 11 in 2010. SDSU's roster of 20 is tied for the largest roster since Collins-Parker arrived at SDSU, and SDSU's five transfers is the most for an Aztec recruiting class since Collins-Parker's first season on the Mesa.

Deitre COLLINS-PARKER

Head Coach - 11th season

Deitre Collins-Parker, a two-time national collegiate player of the year and AVCA Hall of Fame member, was named the head volleyball coach at San Diego State on Jan. 30, 2009. She became just the fourth head coach since the Aztecs began collegiate play in 1976. She replaced Mark Warner, who retired at the end of the 2008 campaign after 13 years at the helm of the women's program.

Collins-Parker directed SDSU to its second consecutive winning season and a fourth-place Mountain West finish in 2017. A quad of Aztecs were named All-MW (Deja Harris, Devyn Pritchard, Baylee Little, Alexis Cage) -- tied for the program's largest number of honorees since the team joined the league in 2000.

During the summer of 2014 she led a Mountain West all-star team on a tour of Europe that concluded with a bronze medal third-place finish at the 2014 European Global Challenge in Pula, Croatia.

In 2012 she led her Aztec squad to a 23-8 mark and a 13-3 ledger in the Mountain West as the Aztecs claimed their first-ever Mountain West title. It was SDSU's best conference record and league finish since the 1996 season and top overall record since 1995. In addition, she produced a pair of All-America honorees (Andrea Hannasch and Johnna Fouch) along with a total of three all-conference selections (Raegan Shelton) and the conference Newcomer of the Year (Michelle Waber).

Collins-Parker arrived at San Diego State after five seasons as the head coach at Cornell, where she led the Big Red to three Ivy League titles and two NCAA tournament appearances. Under her tutelage, the Big Red had seven players named first-team All-Ivy, including two-time Ivy League Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American, Elizabeth Bishop (2007).

Prior to taking over at Cornell in 2004, Collins-Parker spent the previous eight seasons as head coach at UNLV, earning Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1998 after taking a dormant volleyball program and leading the Lady Rebels to a 23-8 record and a WAC tournament semifinal appearance. Before her stint at UNLV, Collins-Parker served as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Northern Arizona and Houston for one year each. She also has plenty of international coaching experience as well. She served as head coach of the 1998 U.S. junior national team, directing her squad to a gold medal in the national qualifier. She served in the same capacity during the summer of 2000 (silver medal) and 2001 (bronze medal).

A former member of the U.S. national team and a three-time AVCA All-American at the University of Hawai'i, Collins-Parker was the starting middle blocker for the 1988 Olympic Team in Seoul, South Korea, and was an alternate for the 1992 team in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and the 1987 Pan-Am Games.

As a collegian, Collins-Parker was a two-time Broderick Award honoree as the national player of the year (1983, 1984) after leading the Rainbow Wahine to consecutive national titles and a 110-5 record in her final three seasons. Collins capped off her career by becoming the first volleyball player to be awarded the Broderick Cup recipient, given to the nation's best collegiate athlete in all sports. She was twice named to the NCAA all-tournament team and still holds the record for solo blocks in one NCAA tournament (15 in 1982). She was one of six players named to the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball 25th Anniversary Team in October 2005. Collins-Parker went on to compete at the national level and played in the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games and was also an alternate for the 1992 games in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and 1987 Pan-Am Games. She played professionally in the Italian League (1988-89) and the French League (1989-91), capturing the French League Championship twice and the European Cup of Champions in 1990.

Collins-Parker received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award during the 2009 NCAA Convention in Washington, D.C. The award honors former student-athletes who successfully completed collegiate careers in various sports and have excelled in their chosen professions on their 25th anniversary of completing their athletic eligibility. Collins-Parker was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame in the fall of 2008. She currently serves as a member of the AVCA Board of Directors and the chairperson on the AVCA Minority Coaches Committee. She currently has membership with the AVCA, Coaches Accreditation Program, Kaepa Gold Medal Clinics, Black Coaches Association, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. A 1995 graduate of Hawai'i with a bachelor of arts in broadcast communications, Collins-Parker is a member of the USA Volleyball Coaching Accreditation Program and is a CAP level III accredited coach.
