Team Notes

- * - San Diego State falls to 3-2 on the season. Its two losses, to Duke and Iowa State, have come against teams that are a combined 10-1 (pending Duke-Gonzaga outcome) this season.
- * - San Diego State struggled offensively today, setting season lows for points (57), field goals (18), field goal percentage (35.3 percent), free throws (14) and free throws attempted (17). Despite that, at the end of the game KenPom still had SDSU rated the adjusted offense as 68th nationally. If the Aztecs ended the season with that ranking it would be the school's highest ranking since 2010-11 NCAA Sweet 16 team finished 28th in the country.
- * - San Diego State's streak of 10 consecutive wins against teams not ranked in the AP Top 25 at game time came to an end. Iowa State is receiving top 25 votes in both major polls.
- * - San Diego State committed a season-low 11 turnovers, with the starting backcourt of Devin Watson and Jeremy Hemsley only accounting for two of those turnovers.
- * - This is the first time in the Brian Dutcher era that SDSU has lost a game after playing the previous day. The Aztecs entered the contest with a 4-0 record dating back to the start of last season.
