News and Notes

LAST ROAD TRIP OF THE YEAR: SDSU heads out on the road for the last time in 2018, traveling to UNLV and New Mexico on Thursday and Saturday, respectively. The Aztecs are 3-4 on the road in conference play this season.

SDSU is looking for its first win over the Rebels in Las Vegas since 2012, while the Aztecs have won two of their last three road contests against the Lobos.

EARLIER THIS YEAR AGAINST THE REBELS AND LOBOS: The Aztecs suffered a four-set defeat to UNLV at home on Oct. 13, despite standout performances by Hannah Turnlund (16 kills, .364 hitting percentage) and Loren Teter (match-high 21 digs). After SDSU recorded a .133 and .000 hitting percentage over the first two sets, SDSU's offense responded with a .517 hitting percentage in their third-set win over UNLV. The loss for SDSU snapped a five-match winning streak, which is tied for the program's longest since 2012.

The final win of that win streak came against New Mexico, where the Aztecs took down the Lobos in four sets on Oct. 11 at Peterson Gym. Victoria O'Sullivan led the Aztecs season-bests in hitting percentage (.400) and kills (15). SDSU is 5-1 in their last six matches against UNM.

TURNLUND HEATING UP: Hannah Turnlund has led the Aztec offense over the last three matches, owning team-highs in kills per set (3.40) and hitting percentage (.325). This year, Turnlund has recorded 17 double-digit kill performances out of a possible 27 matches.

GETTING A GOOD START: Seven of SDSU's eight wins this season have come when winning the first set. SDSU is just 1-13 when losing the first set this season. The Aztecs are 5-2 in conference play when winning the first set.

IN IT TIL THE END: The Aztecs have played nine five-set matches this year, accounting for a third of SDSU's matches this season. The Aztecs have four five-set wins this season and in five-set matches this year, Deja Harris is hitting .398 with 3.38 kills per set and 1.42 blocks per set. After starting the year 1-4 in five-set matches, SDSU has won three of its last four matches that have gone the distance.

NOVEMBER SUCCESS: The Aztecs are 32-19 (.624) in November matches since the 2011 season.

GOOD MONTH OF OCTOBER: After recording a 1-10 record in September, the Aztecs recorded a record of 5-4 in the month of October. Below are some of the major statistical differences between September and October.

Dunbar's 46 aces also mark as the most by Aztec in a single season since Robyn Gregg recorded 61 in 2002. Gregg, who recorded 76 service aces in 2001 (eighth most for a single season in program history), is the only Aztec in the MW era (since 1999) to have more service aces than Dunbar in a season.

DEFENSE WINS GAMES: In all eight of SDSU's wins this year, the Aztecs have recorded more digs than their opponents. In addition, seven of eight wins have come when the Aztecs have had as many or more blocks than their opponents. SDSU's only win this season when having less blocks than their opponents came on Oct. 20 at Nevada, with the Wolf Pack owning a 7-6 advantage in blocks. On the offensive side, all eight of SDSU's wins have come when recording a hitting percentage of .200 or better.

HARRIS CLIMBING UP THE RECORD BOOK:

Deja Harris has led SDSU in blocks in 20 of a possible 27 matches (including all seven of SDSU's eight wins) this season and has led the Aztecs both offensively and defensively during her final collegiate season.

Among active players in Division I, Harris is sixth with 530 career total blocks, 18th in career blocks per set (1.16), 28th in sets played (459) and 43rd in total kills (1,254). Harris' 1,254 career kills are the most among all active players in the Mountain West.

SDSU Career Block Assist Leaders

- Jennifer Miller (1989-92) 480
- Andrea Hannasch (2009-12) 471
- Deja Harris (2014 - present) 461

*Harris is also 8th in SDSU history with a .321 hitting percentage and 7th in SDSU history with 297.5 career block points.

BALANCED DEFENSIVE EFFORT: San Diego State has had four different players (Ashlynn Dunbar, Sam McGrath, Loren Teter, Lauren Lee) record a 20+ dig game this season and five post a single-match team-high in digs (also Hannah Turnlund). SDSU has recorded 1,282 digs this season in comparison to 1,230 digs by its opponents, and have four players averaging 2.0 digs per set or more, including Ashlynn Dunbar (2.43), Loren Teter (2.40), Sam McGrath (2.36) and Lauren Lee (2.13).

Deitre COLLINS-PARKER

Head Coach - 11th season

Deitre Collins-Parker, a two-time national collegiate player of the year and AVCA Hall of Fame member, was named the head volleyball coach at San Diego State on Jan. 30, 2009. She became just the fourth head coach since the Aztecs began collegiate play in 1976. She replaced Mark Warner, who retired at the end of the 2008 campaign after 13 years at the helm of the women's program.

Collins-Parker directed SDSU to its second consecutive winning season and a fourth-place Mountain West finish in 2017. A quad of Aztecs were named All-MW (Deja Harris, Devyn Pritchard, Baylee Little, Alexis Cage) -- tied for the program's largest number of honorees since the team joined the league in 2000.

During the summer of 2014 she led a Mountain West all-star team on a tour of Europe that concluded with a bronze medal third-place finish at the 2014 European Global Challenge in Pula, Croatia.

In 2012 she led her Aztec squad to a 23-8 mark and a 13-3 ledger in the Mountain West as the Aztecs claimed their first-ever Mountain West title. It was SDSU's best conference record and league finish since the 1996 season and top overall record since 1995. In addition, she produced a pair of All-America honorees (Andrea Hannasch and Johnna Fouch) along with a total of three all-conference selections (Raegan Shelton) and the conference Newcomer of the Year (Michelle Waber).

Collins-Parker arrived at San Diego State after five seasons as the head coach at Cornell, where she led the Big Red to three Ivy League titles and two NCAA tournament appearances. Under her tutelage, the Big Red had seven players named first-team All-Ivy, including two-time Ivy League Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American, Elizabeth Bishop (2007).

Prior to taking over at Cornell in 2004, Collins-Parker spent the previous eight seasons as head coach at UNLV, earning Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1998 after taking a dormant volleyball program and leading the Lady Rebels to a 23-8 record and a WAC tournament semifinal appearance. Before her stint at UNLV, Collins-Parker served as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Northern Arizona and Houston for one year each. She also has plenty of international coaching experience as well. She served as head coach of the 1998 U.S. junior national team, directing her squad to a gold medal in the national qualifier. She served in the same capacity during the summer of 2000 (silver medal) and 2001 (bronze medal).

A former member of the U.S. national team and a three-time AVCA All-American at the University of Hawai'i, Collins-Parker was the starting middle blocker for the 1988 Olympic Team in Seoul, South Korea, and was an alternate for the 1992 team in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and the 1987 Pan-Am Games.

As a collegian, Collins-Parker was a two-time Broderick Award honoree as the national player of the year (1983, 1984) after leading the Rainbow Wahine to consecutive national titles and a 110-5 record in her final three seasons. Collins capped off her career by becoming the first volleyball player to be awarded the Broderick Cup recipient, given to the nation's best collegiate athlete in all sports. She was twice named to the NCAA all-tournament team and still holds the record for solo blocks in one NCAA tournament (15 in 1982). She was one of six players named to the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball 25th Anniversary Team in October 2005. Collins-Parker went on to compete at the national level and played in the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games and was also an alternate for the 1992 games in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and 1987 Pan-Am Games. She played professionally in the Italian League (1988-89) and the French League (1989-91), capturing the French League Championship twice and the European Cup of Champions in 1990.

Collins-Parker received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award during the 2009 NCAA Convention in Washington, D.C. The award honors former student-athletes who successfully completed collegiate careers in various sports and have excelled in their chosen professions on their 25th anniversary of completing their athletic eligibility. Collins-Parker was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame in the fall of 2008. She currently serves as a member of the AVCA Board of Directors and the chairperson on the AVCA Minority Coaches Committee. She currently has membership with the AVCA, Coaches Accreditation Program, Kaepa Gold Medal Clinics, Black Coaches Association, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. A 1995 graduate of Hawai'i with a bachelor of arts in broadcast communications, Collins-Parker is a member of the USA Volleyball Coaching Accreditation Program and is a CAP level III accredited coach.
