- > In addition to live stats, a link to streaming video via the Mountain West Network will be available on GoAztecs.com.
- > SDSU will be looking to snap a three-match losing streak after suffering 3-0 sweeps at Wyoming, then-No. 15 Colorado State and Fresno State.
- > Despite their recent misfortune, the Aztecs have still posted an 18-16 record since Sept. 29, 2018, after starting last season with a 1-14 ledger.
- > Saturday's clash will be the first of two meetings between SDSU and Falcons this year. The rematch is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 14, inside Aztec Court at Peterson Gym.
- > San Diego State will be seeking its first true road victory of the season (0-7), while Air Force is just 3-7 at home this year. The Aztecs are 4-0 in neutral-site games this season.
- > The Aztecs are 8-1 this year when launching more kills than the opposition and are 5-0 when holding adversaries between a .100 and .200 hitting percentage. The Scarlet and Black is also 6-0 this season when leading 2-1 after three sets.

SERIES RECORD VS. AIR FORCE

- > The Aztecs lead the all-time series, 37-7; however, the Falcons have captured five of the last eight meetings.
- > In addition, SDSU has lost two straight to Air Force, both on the road, including a 3-0 setback (21-25, 20-25, 25-27) in the lone match between the programs last year.
- > Hannah Turnlund led the Scarlet and Black with 12 kills in that encounter at the Academy, while Sam McGrath tied her career-high with 22 digs.
- > The Aztecs committed seven more attack errors than the Falcons (23-16), as the hosts finished with a greater hitting percentage (.209 to .119).
- > Despite the loss, SDSU still maintains a 15-5 advantage in 20 matches played between the two programs at Air Force.
- > Aztec head coach Deitre Collins-Parker collected her 300th career coaching victory against the Falcons at home during the 2017 campaign.

TURNLUND'S TURN

- > Senior Hannah Turnlund is rapidly approaching the 1,000-kill plateau for her career, needing just six put-aways to reach that milestone. Entering Saturday's contest at Air Force, the Aztec outside hitter has amassed 994 kills in a Scarlet and Black uniform.
- > In addition, Turnlund has accumulated 2,773 attacks for her career, needing just 182 more to move into 10th place on the school's all-time list in that statistic. Angelica Jackson (1984-87) currently ranks 10th in that category with 2,955 attempts for her career.
- > Turnlund has posted double-digit kill totals in 11 of 18 matches this season and 52 times in her career.
- > Against Florida Gulf Coast on Aug. 31, Turnlund completed a double-double with a personal-best 24 kills to go with a season-high 16 digs, as the Aztecs dropped a narrow five-set decision.
- > With that performance, the Morgan Hill, California, native secured a spot on the all-tournament team at the Homewood Suites FGCU Fort Myers Classic.
- > Not to be outdone, Turnlund has racked up eight double-doubles over the last two seasons after logging none in her first two years on The Mesa. Among her standout matches was a 23-kill, 21-dig effort vs. Nevada in the next-to-last outing of the 2018 campaign.

> Pugh, meanwhile, will have junior eligibility this fall after spending two years at Wichita State. A native of Brenham, Texas, Pugh averaged 1.46 kills and hit .289 in over 120 career sets for the Shockers. In 2018, she started 22 of 30 matches, averaging 1.53 kills per set (150 overall) while hitting at a .282 clip and totaling 58 blocks.

AZTEC VOLLEYBALL EARNS PUBLIC RECOGNITION AWARD FROM NCAA

> Last spring, the San Diego State volleyball program was publicly recognized by the NCAA for outstanding academic achievements, along with the Aztec women's tennis and cross country teams.

> The recognition came on the heels of the most recent multiyear Academic Progress Rates (APR) in which all three programs were among the top 10 percent of their respective sports nationally.

> With these squads earning NCAA public recognition last season, San Diego State has now received such distinction a total of 18 times in school history, matching its record of three teams set during the 2011-12 academic year.

> The SDSU volleyball program received public recognition for the third straight season and fourth time overall, while the Aztec women's tennis team garnered the accolade for the second year in a row and fifth time in the last six seasons. In addition, the San Diego State cross country squad merited public recognition for the sixth time in school history.

Deitre COLLINS-PARKER

Head Coach - 11th season

Deitre Collins-Parker, a two-time national collegiate player of the year and AVCA Hall of Fame member, was named the head volleyball coach at San Diego State on Jan. 30, 2009. She became just the fourth head coach since the Aztecs began collegiate play in 1976, replacing Mark Warner, who retired at the end of the 2008 season after 13 years at the helm of the women's program.

Following an injury-plagued start to the 2018 campaign, Collins-Parker's squad regrouped, posting a 9-7 record over the final 16 matches of the season, highlighted by its first victory over crosstown foe San Diego since 2012 and its first road win at Boise State since 2013. Individually, Deja Harris garnered all-Mountain West accolades for the fourth year in a row and completed her illustrious Aztec career ranked eighth on the school's all-time charts with a .322 hitting percentage.

In 2017, Collins-Parker directed SDSU to its second consecutive winning season and a fourth-place Mountain West finish. A quartet of Aztecs were named all-MW (Deja Harris, Devyn Pritchard, Baylee Little, Alexis Cage) -- tied for the program's largest number of honorees since the team joined the league in 2000.

During the summer of 2014 she led a Mountain West all-star team on a tour of Europe that concluded with a bronze medal third-place finish at the 2014 European Global Challenge in Pula, Croatia.

In 2012 she led her Aztec squad to a 23-8 mark and a 13-3 ledger in the Mountain West as the Aztecs claimed their first-ever Mountain West title. It was SDSU's best conference record and league finish since the 1996 season and top overall record since 1995. In addition, she produced a pair of All-America honorees (Andrea Hannasch and Johnna Fouch) along with a total of three all-conference selections (Raegan Shelton) and the conference Newcomer of the Year (Michelle Waber).

Collins-Parker arrived at San Diego State after five seasons as the head coach at Cornell, where she led the Big Red to three Ivy League titles and two NCAA tournament appearances. Under her tutelage, the Big Red had seven players named first-team All-Ivy, including two-time Ivy League Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American, Elizabeth Bishop (2007).

Prior to taking over at Cornell in 2004, Collins-Parker spent the previous eight seasons as head coach at UNLV, earning Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1998 after taking a dormant volleyball program and leading the Lady Rebels to a 23-8 record and a WAC tournament semifinal appearance. Before her stint at UNLV, Collins-Parker served as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Northern Arizona and Houston for one year each. She also has plenty of international coaching experience as well. She served as head coach of the 1998 U.S. junior national team, directing her squad to a gold medal in the national qualifier. She served in the same capacity during the summer of 2000 (silver medal) and 2001 (bronze medal).

A former member of the U.S. national team and a three-time AVCA All-American at the University of Hawai'i, Collins-Parker was the starting middle blocker for the 1988 Olympic Team in Seoul, South Korea, and was an alternate for the 1992 team in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and the 1987 Pan-Am Games.

As a collegian, Collins-Parker was a two-time Broderick Award honoree as the national player of the year (1983, 1984) after leading the Rainbow Wahine to consecutive national titles and a 110-5 record in her final three seasons. Collins capped off her career by becoming the first volleyball player to be awarded the Broderick Cup recipient, given to the nation's best collegiate athlete in all sports. She was twice named to the NCAA all-tournament team and still holds the record for solo blocks in one NCAA tournament (15 in 1982). She was one of six players named to the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball 25th Anniversary Team in October 2005. Collins-Parker went on to compete at the national level and played in the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games and was also an alternate for the 1992 games in Barcelona, Spain. She played in over 130 international matches and earned bronze medals at the 1986 Goodwill Games and 1987

Pan-Am Games. She played professionally in the Italian League (1988-89) and the French League (1989-91), capturing the French League Championship twice and the European Cup of Champions in 1990.

Collins-Parker received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award during the 2009 NCAA Convention in Washington, D.C. The award honors former student-athletes who successfully completed collegiate careers in various sports and have excelled in their chosen professions on their 25th anniversary of completing their athletic eligibility. Collins-Parker was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame in the fall of 2008. She currently serves as a member of the AVCA Board of Directors and the chairperson on the AVCA Minority Coaches Committee. She currently has membership with the AVCA, Coaches Accreditation Program, Kaepa Gold Medal Clinics, Black Coaches Association, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. A 1995 graduate of Hawai'i with a bachelor of arts in broadcast communications, Collins-Parker is a member of the USA Volleyball Coaching Accreditation Program and is a CAP level III accredited coach.

Collins-Parker is married to Dale Parker, a former assistant coach with the Cornell women's basketball program for three seasons who served as an assistant at nearby San Diego Christian College during the 2012-13 season.
