AZTEC STORYLINES

BUSY STRETCH AHEAD: San Diego State begins a five-game-in-five-day stretch this Friday, visiting New Mexico (11-9) for a three-game series before hosting Arizona (13-7) and Cal Baptist (14-7) on Monday and Tuesday, respectively.

All three games in Albuquerque will be streamed on the Mountain West Network, while XTRA 1360 will broadcast Monday and Tuesday's games with Jon Schaeffer and Judson Richards on the call.

OVER THE LAST EIGHT: San Diego State has won six of its last eight games, with one of the two losses being a 6-5 extra-inning loss against Nevada on March 10.

Below is a statistical comparison between SDSU's first 11 games (5-6) and SDSU's last eight games (6-2):

Stat	First 11	Last 8
Batting average	.284	.295
ERA	4.78	3.82
Slugging percentage	.369	.437
Batting average w/RISP	.254	.326

SERIES HISTORY WITH THE LOBOS: With SDSU leading the all-time series with New Mexico 114-80, SDSU's 114 all-time wins against the Lobos mark as the most win against any other program.

SDSU went 3-3 against New Mexico last season, with the road team winning each series. SDSU's road series win was the first time the Aztecs have won a three-game series at New Mexico since 2004.

SERIES HISTORY WITH THE WILDCATS: SDSU and Arizona split a home-and-home last season, with the home team winning each game. SDSU defeated the Wildcats 3-2 on Feb. 23, 2018 in its Tony Gwynn Legacy opener with Jacob Maekawa scoring the walk-off run on a wild pitch in the 10th inning. The win for SDSU snapped an eight-game losing streak in its series against the Wildcats.

SDSU is 5-1 in its last six games against Pac-12 members.

AZTEC STORYLINES

SERIES HISTORY WITH THE LANCERS: Cal Baptist, which is reclassifying from NCAA Division II, plays the Aztecs for the first time since 1992. SDSU has won two of the three all-time meetings with the Lancers, with the home team having won all three games in the all-time series.

SCHMITT NAMED MW POTW: Casey Schmitt collected his first career Mountain West Player of the Week award on Monday after going 10-for-18 (.556) with four extra-base hits (2B, 2 3B, HR) and earning the win in SDSU's 11-5 win over Seattle, throwing five innings with four hits and two runs allowed while striking out six.

Having won Mountain West Pitcher of the Week on April 16, 2018, Schmitt is the only player in conference history to have won both a Player of the Week and Pitcher of the Week award.

Schmitt is the first Aztec freshman or sophomore to win MW Player of the Week since Alan Trejo did on March 14, 2016 as a sophomore.

WHERE WE RANK IN THE MW: With a .289 team batting average and a 4.37 team ERA, SDSU is the only team in the Mountain West to have an ERA below 4.50 and a batting average above .270.

Angelo Armenta boasts a .511 on base percentage, good for second-best in the Mountain West and 49th best nationally. Matt Rudick is third in the conference with 26 hits, while Brian Leonhardt is also third in the conference with 19 RBIs. Rudick is also fourth in the conference with eight doubles.

On the mound, Adrian Mardueno leads the conference with a 0.87 WHIP and 4.35 hits allowed per nine innings, while standing third in the league with a 1.31 ERA.

The Aztec pitching staff leads the Mountain West in strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.22) and strikeouts per nine innings (10.4) while the lineup owns a league-best .399 on-base percentage, good for 34th nationally.

MAKING THE MOST OF IT: Due to injuries on the pitching staff, SDSU has had to use seven different starters during the 2019 season. Those seven starters feature three pitchers who had never started a college game before this season, including true freshman Aaron Eden and Casey Schmitt and Adrian Mardueno, who had been used strictly as relievers prior to the start of this season.

Despite the variety of starting pitchers used, SDSU starters collectively own a 3.43 ERA, a .242 opponent batting average, and have struck out 79 batters in 78.2 innings.

STRIKEOUTS GALORE: SDSU matched its 2018 total of 13 double-digit strikeout games, needing just 18 games this season. The Aztecs are currently 17th in the country averaging 10.6 strikeouts per nine innings. Despite being just 19 games into the season, SDSU's 13 games with 10 or more strikeouts is tied for the most since the Aztec pitching staff recorded 20 10+ strikeout games in 2015.

RECAP OF THE SEATTLE SERIES: SDSU posted its first three-game sweep of the season this past weekend, defeating Seattle 6-5 (10), 12-8 and 11-5 at Tony Gwynn Stadium.

As a team, the Aztecs hit .346 against the Redhawks while outscoring Seattle 26-13 over the three games. Casey Schmitt (7-for-14) and Brian Leonhardt (5-for-10) both hit .500 for the series, while Matt Rudick and Leonhardt were tied for the team lead in RBIs with seven each.

SDSU has recorded seven three-game sweeps since the last time it has suffered a three-game sweep (April 2016 vs. Nevada).

After hitting a walk-off 10th inning RBI single on Friday night, Rudick set a new career-high with five RBIs in the 11-5 win on Sunday.

CALIFORNIA LOVE: Since 2014, the Aztecs lead all Division I California programs in win total. Also, over that span, SDSU is 98-47 (.682) when playing in-state counterparts.

Team	Wins
San Diego State	196
Cal State Fullerton	192
Stanford	191
Sacramento State	183
UC Santa Barbara	182

EYEING 2,500: With a 35-win season in 2019, the Aztecs would become the 27th team in the nation to reach the 2,500-win threshold and become just the fourth California program to do so, joining USC, Fresno State, and Stanford.

PRESEASON FAVORITES: Mountain West head coaches named SDSU the preseason favorite in the conference, collecting four first-place votes and 32 overall points. SDSU also placed Casey Schmitt, Logan Boyer, and Julian Escobedo on the all-MW preseason team, leaving SDSU in a tie with Nevada for most selections on the preseason all-conference team. SDSU is preseason favorites for the first time since 2014, when SDSU was co-preseason favorites with New Mexico.

In addition, both D1Baseball.com and Baseball America have also projected SDSU to win the Mountain West.

CLASS OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST: In addition to winning their fifth conference crown in the last six years, SDSU led the conference in nearly every team pitching category last season including earned run average (4.03), opposing batting average (.253), strikeouts (467), wins (39), saves (19), hits allowed per nine innings (8.67), fewest runs allowed (291), fewest earned runs allowed (240), fewest extra-base hits allowed (125), fewest triples allowed (9), and fewest home runs allowed (26).

SUCCESS AT TONY GWYNN STADIUM: The Aztecs set a Tony Gwynn Stadium record (since 1997) with 25 home wins last season, besting the previous mark of 24 set in 1997, 2002, and 2014. Since the start of the 2012 season, the Aztecs are 139-90 (.607) when playing at home.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN CASEY SCHMITT:

After a record-setting freshman season, sophomore RHP/IF Casey Schmitt was recognized as a preseason all-American by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (Second Team) and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper (Third Team). After setting SDSU's single-season ERA record (minimum 30 IP) at 0.28, Schmitt was the first Aztec to become a Baseball America First Team Freshman All-American since Stephen Strasburg did so in 2007.

Schmitt entered 2019 having thrown 25.1 scoreless innings and was the only player in the nation last season to have an ERA under 1.00 (minimum 15 IP) and drive in 30 or more runs at the plate. In the Mountain West Championships, Schmitt became the first freshman in the league to win Most Valuable Player since SDSU's Ty France did so in 2013.

THE NEW GUYS: SDSU has 14 newcomers for the 2019 season, split between 10 true freshmen, two graduate transfers, and two junior college transfers. Three freshmen in Brian Leonhardt (No. 9 LHP), Jaden Fein (No. 9 OF) and Noah Kaagan (No. 11 OF) rank inside the top 11 at their respective positions among class of 2018 California high school players. Leonhardt, although ranked as a pitcher, has opened the year as SDSU's starting first baseman.

SDSU also added a pair of graduate transfers from USC in Angelo Armenta and Brad Wegman. Armenta has started the year as SDSU's shortstop, while Wegman began the year as SDSU's Sunday starter. Armenta recorded a career .239 average in 86 games for the Trojans, while Wegman logged a 5-6 record and 3.93 ERA over four years in Los Angeles. Wegman last season did not allow a run over 10 innings pitched before his season was cut limited due to injury.

Mike Jarvis, a transfer from Saddleback College, has joined the starting lineup after recording a career .297/.405/.399 slash line over two years in junior college. Jarvis also provides the Aztec lineup with some speed, having stolen 20 bases on 30 chances in his junior college career. Jacob Cruce also comes from the junior college ranks and led San Joaquin Delta College to a CCCAA state championship and 43-9 record after leading the team with 11 home runs.

REPLACING WHAT'S GONE: The Aztecs lost four position player starters -- all drafted by MLB teams -- and two pitchers who ranked near the top of the Mountain West. Chase Calabuig, SDSU's all-time games played leader and leading hitter last season, was drafted in the 27th round by Oakland, while Jordan Verdon, the team's leader in home runs, extra-base hits, and RBIs a year ago, was picked by Detroit in the 23rd round. Starting shortstop David Hensley and starting catcher Dean Nevarez were picked up by Houston (26th round) and Seattle (19th round), respectively. 2018 Mountain West Co-Pitcher of the Year Garrett Hill was drafted by Detroit in the 26th round.

SDSU also lost the Mountain West's all-time pitching appearances leader, Jacob Erickson, who ended his career with 120 appearances. Erickson recorded a 2.37 ERA against Mountain West opponents -- good for the second-best mark among all qualified pitchers in the conference. Erickson, an all-MW second team honoree, also led the conference in strikeout-to-walk ratio.

2019 SCHEDULE: The 2019 schedule features four teams that were ranked in preseason national polls, including No. 3/8 Texas Tech who visits Tony Gwynn Stadium on March 5-6. The Aztecs visit defending national champion No. 8/10 Oregon State on April 2-3. SDSU has a weekend series at No. 25/NR Cal State Fullerton from April 12-13 and have a home-and-home with No. NR/25 UC Irvine, with the Anteaters visiting America's Finest City on Feb. 19 before SDSU makes the trip north on April 16.

The Aztecs play each of their first eight games and 16 of their first 18 games at home. After April, where the Aztecs have just four home games for the entire month, SDSU closes its regular season schedule with seven of its last 10 games at home. SDSU's weekend series at Cal State Fullerton is its only non-conference weekend on the road.

SDSU's 2019 schedule features 34 home games and 22 road games.

IN THE NATIONAL CONVERSATION: The Aztecs are one of 18 teams in the country to have reached a regional five times in the last six seasons, one of 13 teams in the country to have won 39 or more games five times in the last six years, and one of nine teams to have hit .300 or better in each of the last two seasons. SDSU is one of just three west coast programs to have played in five regionals since 2013, joined by only Oregon State and Cal State Fullerton.

Teams that have reached five regionals in the last six years: Arkansas, Cal State Fullerton, Clemson, Dallas Baptist, Florida, Florida State, Indiana, Louisville, LSU, Mississippi State, NC State, Oklahoma State, Ole Miss, Oregon State, Rice, San Diego State, Texas A&M, Vanderbilt

ONLY ONES: The Aztecs are the only team in the country to have won five conference tournament championships in the last six seasons.

GOOD IN ALL ASPECTS: The Aztecs were one of five teams in the country last season to have a batting average above .300, an ERA below 4.05, and a fielding percentage above .973 last season, joined by only Oregon State, New Mexico State, Ole Miss, and Minnesota.

HOMEGROWN: 11 players on the SDSU roster are from San Diego county. Last season, San Diego natives accounted for 411 of SDSU's 632 hits (65 percent) while San Diego native pitchers combined for a 1.67 earned run average over 64.1 innings pitched.

* Mountain West Tournament Championship (3)
! NCAA Tournament Appearance (3)

Mark Martinez heads into his fifth season as head coach and 14th at SDSU in 2019 after being named the late Tony Gwynn's successor on August 20, 2014.

During his fourth season as head coach in 2018, Martinez became the fastest head coach in Mountain West history to win three conference championships. In 2017, Martinez logged his 100th win as head coach and became the fastest head coach in program history to reach the century mark.

Martinez led SDSU to a 39-21 performance in 2018, leaving the Aztecs as one of 13 teams in the nation to have won 39 or more games four times in the past five years. Since the start of the 2014 season — Martinez's final year as SDSU's head assistant coach under Gwynn — the Aztecs have recorded 185 wins, the most among all Division I California programs.

San Diego State will enter the 2019 season as the only team in Division I baseball with five conference tournament championships in the last six seasons. SDSU is one of 18 programs in the nation to have played in five NCAA Regionals in the last six years and one of just two programs in California, joined by only Cal State Fullerton. Statistically, the Aztecs are one of just nine teams to have hit .300 or better in each of the last two seasons and will enter 2019 having led the MW in earned run average in back-to-back seasons.

Martinez, who has been a part of 1,030 collegiate baseball wins since starting his coaching career in 1984, enters his fifth season as a head coach with a record of 143-103 (.581). Under his watch, SDSU has reached its highest academic progress rate, highest team grade point average, and highest total of scholar-athletes in its 82-year history. Last April, Martinez received the Center for Community Solutions Champions Award, recognizing his efforts in starting healthy relationships and consent education training with SDSU baseball student-athletes and coaches.

Fifteen Aztecs have been selected by the MLB First-Year Player draft and 10 Aztecs have been named Mountain West scholar athletes (3.5 GPA or better) since 2015. Martinez has also directed 21 student-athletes to all-MW honors over the last four seasons, including back-to-back MW Pitchers of the Year (Brett Seeburger — 2017, Garrett Hill — 2018) and 2017 MW Player of the Year Danny Sheehan.

Martinez entered the start of his head coaching career with 31 years of coaching experience as an assistant coach, split between nine years on Gwynn's Aztec staff (2006–2014), 17 years at New Mexico (1989–2005), and five seasons at his alma mater Mesa State (1984–1988). With Gwynn, Martinez helped SDSU end an 18-year drought from the NCAA postseason with an appearance in 2009.

He has also helped build an academic program that saw the highest APR in the history of the program last season, as well as the most scholar-athletes and highest team GPA in the history of the program.

Martinez has had 42 players drafted in his time at San Diego State, and had seven of those draft picks make the major leagues (Stephen Strasburg, Addison Reed, Justin Masterson, Bruce Billings, Quintin Berry, Lance Zawadzki, and Greg Allen).

In 2017, Martinez guided SDSU to a 42-21 record and a fourth conference title in the past five seasons. Statistically, his offense was among the national leaders in several categories while the defense set a school record for fielding percentage. He also helped produce the Mountain West Tony Gwynn Player of the Year (Danny Sheehan) and the league's Pitcher of the Year (Brett Seeburger). A total of six Aztecs earned all-conference honors while two (Sheehan, Tyler Adkison) were recognized as third-team All-Americans. In his inaugural season at the helm of the Aztec program, Martinez saw his team capture its third consecutive Mountain West Championship and earn a third straight berth in the NCAA Regionals.

The team's final 41-23 record marked the first time the Aztecs finished with back-to-back 40-win campaigns since the 1990 and 1991 seasons. Seven Aztecs earned all-league honors and the team produced a Freshman All-American, three All-West Region selections, three members of the NCAA Regional all-tournament team and five athletes on the conference championship all-tourney team including the MVP for the third year in a row. Four players (Bubba Derby, Steven Pallares, Mark Seyler, Ty France) were taken in the 2015 Major League draft as well. During the 2014 season, Martinez helped lead the Aztecs to their second consecutive conference championship. The overall 42-21 record was the best win percentage in 30 years of the program. The Aztecs also made their second consecutive regional, playing in Lafayette, Louisiana, as the No. 3 seed.

After the season, the 2014 Aztecs saw six players drafted (Michael Cederoth, Greg Allen, Brad Haynal, Tim Zier, Brandon Thomas and Justin Hepner) and saw another sign as an undrafted free agent (Evan Potter). Of the six players that signed after the 2014 season, only one (Cederoth) had been drafted before their time at San Diego State. In addition closer Michael Cederoth was also named a Baseball America First-Team All-American while third baseman Ty France was named a Baseball America Third Team All-American. Martinez was also an integral part of recruiting the 2014 recruiting class, which was ranked as the 19th-best freshman class in the country by Baseball America.

Martinez was hired as an assistant coach on July 28, 2005, arriving at SDSU after 17 years as an assistant at the University of New Mexico. His responsibilities included being in charge of the Aztec infielders and serving as SDSU's third base coach during games. In addition, is involved with the Aztec baseball camps and clinics, a series of seminars offered each winter and summer. During his tenure as a hitting and infield coach at New Mexico, Martinez was a key member in leading the Lobo offense that became one of the most prominent in the nation under his tutelage. New Mexico was ranked among the top 11 teams in the nation in hitting his final four seasons and the Lobos were ranked among the top 10 in batting, slugging, doubles, triples and homers in 2005. He also helped lead the Lobos to the 2000 Mountain West Conference regular-season title. Over his 17 seasons with New Mexico, he coached 47 all-conference selections and four conference players of the year. UNM also produced eight All-Americans, four freshman All-Americans and four Academic All-Americans during that span. In addition, 31 players were drafted in his 17 years at UNM.

Martinez came to New Mexico in 1988 after a five-year stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colo. He was an assistant there from 1984-88. Martinez played shortstop at Mesa State from 1982-84, earning all-conference and all-district honors as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1984. He completed his master's in sports administration from New Mexico in January 1990. In addition to his work with the Lobos, Martinez gained valuable experience in the summers of 1993 and 1994 as head coach of the Mat-su Miners in the Alaska Summer League.

Born Dec. 18, 1961, in Aurora, Colo., Martinez graduated from Longmont (Colo.) High School in 1980. He and wife, Jada Lucey Martinez, formerly UNM's associate athletic director for development, have two children: a daughter, Marissa, and a son, Cade

GAME RECAPS/POSTGAME NOTES

Feb 15, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

San Francisco 000 021 001 - 4 6 2 (0-1)
San Diego State 004 013 00X - 8 8 0 (1-0)

WP-Logan Boyer (1-0) LP: Riley Orndio (0-1)
HR: Julian Escobedo (1) T-3:34 A-1014

Logan Boyer struck out a career-high 10 while Julian Escobedo drove in a career-high five runs and hit his first home run of the season in a 8-4 win.

- San Diego State has won its third consecutive season opener, good for the team's longest streak since winning each of its season openers from 2007-09.
- SDSU improved to 14-5 in season-opening weekends since the start of the 2013 season.
- SDSU improved to 6-3 all-time against USF and 13-7 (.650) against the West Coast Conference during the Mark Martinez era.
- SDSU improved to 38-4 in its last 42 games when scoring five or more runs
- SDSU's 17 strikeouts mark as the most since SDSU struck out 24 at UNLV on April 19, 2013 (17-inning game). The 17 strikeouts also mark as the most in a nine-inning game since striking out 17 against Air Force on May 8, 2009.

Feb 16, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

San Francisco 300 020 004 - 9 9 1 (1-1)
San Diego State 413 000 000 - 8 14 0 (1-1)

WP-Julian Washburn (1-0) LP: Casey Schmitt (0-1) S: Joey Steele (1)
T-3:19 A-1284

SDSU fell victim to a four-run ninth inning, losing a 8-3 lead the team built after three innings. Casey O'Sullivan shined for the Aztecs out of the bullpen, striking out a career-high seven.

- San Diego State saw its 86-game winning streak when leading after eight innings come to a close after the 9-8 loss in game 1. The Aztecs also had an 18-game winning streak when leading after six innings and a 22-game winning streak when leading after seven.
- Preseason all-American closer Casey Schmitt saw his run of 25.1 consecutive scoreless innings come to a close.

Feb 16, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

San Francisco 020 001 001 - 3 8 2 (1-2)
San Diego State 030 000 30X - 6 10 0 (2-1)

WP-Christian Winston (1-0) LP-Alex Pham (0-1) S: Adrian Mardueno (1)
HR: Jonathan Allen (1) T-3:49 A-1284

A two-RBI single by Julian Escobedo gave SDSU a 5-3 lead in the seventh inning while the bullpen was anchored by Adrian Mardueno and Christian Winston, who recorded each of the last nine outs of the game via strikeout.

- San Diego State recorded 15 or more strikeouts for the third consecutive game, marking the first time in the Mountain West era (since 2000). The Aztecs recorded 47 strikeouts in just 27 innings this weekend, good for a 15.67 strikeouts per nine innings ratio. The 47 strikeouts also stands as the most in a single series during the Mountain West era.
- SDSU recorded 22 runs for the weekend, however, the Aztecs produced 16 two-out RBIs for the series.

Feb 19, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

UC Irvine 000 111 001 - 3 7 0 (2-2)
San Diego State 300 050 10X - 9 10 1 (3-1)

WP-Casey O'Sullivan (1-0) LP- Alonso Garcia (1-1)
T-3:25 A-427

Brian Leonhardt doubled twice and went 3-for-4 with four RBIs to lead the Aztecs at the plate. Starter Justin Goossen-Brown pitched three hitless innings, while Casey O'Sullivan earned the win, stranding the bases loaded with no outs before finishing his outing with four strikeouts in two innings pitched.

- San Diego State has opened the year at 3-1 for the second consecutive season
- SDSU struck out 12 or more batters for the fourth consecutive game, marking the first time since at least 2000 SDSU has done so
- SDSU improved to 4-2 in its last six home games against UC Irvine.

Despite a strong start from Harrison Pyatt, the Aztecs fell 1-0 after Oklahoma scored its lone run in the top of the fifth when Milan Walla drove in Brady Harlan on an RBI single. Angelo Armenta reached base four times, going 2-for-2 in addition to drawing a pair of walks. Pyatt was dealt the tough-luck loss after 4.2 innings with just two hits and one run allowed while striking out five.

- San Diego State was shutout for just the third time in the last 68 games
- San Diego State recorded 12 strikeouts for the sixth consecutive game. Before the 2019 season, SDSU had not recorded 12 or more strikeouts in four consecutive games since at least 2000.
- The loss marks as SDSU's first loss when allowing just one run since falling 1-0 against USC on March 7, 2017.

The Aztecs held a 3-2 lead heading into the ninth inning, but a Tyler Bosetti RBI and a Daniel Perry RBI single pushed the Wolf Pack ahead, 4-3. The Aztecs immediately responded in the bottom half of the ninth, with Brian Leonhardt singling home Matt Rudick to push the game into extra innings.

After Leonhardt's game-tying single, the Aztecs came mere inches from winning in walk-off fashion, as a ball off the bat of Jaden Fein was headed for the ground in shallow centerfield, but was snagged by shortstop Wyatt Tilley on a full-extension catch to prevent Angelo Armenta from scoring from third base.

The Wolf Pack struck for four hits in the 10th, taking a 6-4 lead after Bosetti recorded his second late-stage RBI of the game to create a two-run cushion.

On the mound Aztec starter Aaron Eden made his third consecutive impressive start for the Aztecs, recording seven strikeouts in five innings while only allowing two runs.

With the Aztecs facing a 5-3 deficit, the Aztecs capitalized on some Redhawk miscues in the bottom of the seventh with Rudick and Angelo Armenta both getting hit by a pitch and Jacob Maekawa and Julian Escobedo both drawing walks. Armenta's hit by pitch with the bases loaded forced Maekawa to score, and Brian Leonhardt later scored Rudick on a sacrifice fly to left to tie the game at 5-5.

The game-winning run transpired after Fitzhugh was able to reach base on an error by Seattle third baseman Austin Lively and later moved up to second on a wild pitch. After Jacob Maekawa grounded out for the second out, Rudick poked a single through the middle of the infield on a 1-1 count to score Fitzhugh from second base.

Jaden Fein hit his first career home run in the top of the fifth, erasing what was a 1-0 lead for LMU after sending a 1-1 offering from Nate Madole over the left-centerfield wall.

Trailing 3-1 in the top of the seventh, Chad Bible and Brian Leonhardt were hit by pitches in consecutive at-bats to give the Aztecs a late-inning threat. After Joe Fitzhugh recorded a two-out infield single to load the bases, Lions right-hander CJ Fernandezees was able to force pinch-hitter Deron Johnson to ground out to second base to end the potential run-scoring opportunity.

With his performance today, Adrian Mardueno has an ERA of 1.31 on the season -- the best among qualified Aztec pitchers (1 IP per game played)
