AZTEC STORYLINES

REGULAR SEASON FINALE: San Diego State concludes the 2019 regular season this weekend, hosting New Mexico for a three-game series starting Thursday at 6:00 p.m.

All three games will air on the Mountain West Network. Links to watch and follow along with live stats are available on GoAztecs.com.

SENIOR WEEKEND: San Diego State will honor its five seniors, Chad Bible, Justin Goossen-Brown, Harrison Pyatt, Angelo Armenta, and Brad Wegman during a pregame ceremony on Saturday. Over the last four years, SDSU has won a pair of Mountain West Championships and compiled a record of 133-101 (.568).

SERIES HISTORY WITH THE LOBOS: With SDSU leading the all-time series with New Mexico 116-81, SDSU's 116 all-time wins against the Lobos mark as the most wins against any other program.

AZTEC STORYLINES

West to have won 30 or more games six times in the last seven years.

SDSU's run of six 30+ wins over the last seven years marks the first time since 1992-98 that the Aztecs have recorded six 30+ win seasons over a seven-year span.

GAME NO. 300 FOR MARTINEZ: Friday's game marks as head coach Mark Martinez's 300th game at the helm for SDSU. Below is a list of where Martinez ranks among the other four head coaches in SDSU history in regards to win total through their first 300 games at SDSU.

Charlie Smith (1936-64)	183
Mark Martinez (2015-present)	174*
Lyle Olsen (1965-71)	168
Jim Dietz (1972-2002)	166
Tony Gwynn (2002-14)	141

*currently at 298 career games as head coach at SDSU

HOME SWEET HOME: After setting a Tony Gwynn Stadium record with 25 home wins last season, SDSU has continued to play well on its home field in 2019 and enters this weekend having won nine of their last 10 home games. Overall, SDSU is 20-10 at home this season.

The Aztecs have an identical .281 batting average in both home games and away games, but the Aztec pitching staff has recorded a 3.91 ERA and .247 opponent batting average in comparison to a 4.71 ERA and .286 opponent batting average in road games.

Matt Rudick leads the team with a .364 batting average and .468 on-base percentage in home games. In addition, Rudick has reached base in 23 consecutive home games -- the longest streak since Chase Calabuig ended his career last season with a Tony Gwynn Stadium record 54-game on-base streak in home games.

RUDICK MAKING HISTORY: Matt Rudick has reached base in 38 consecutive Mountain West games, marking the longest in-conference on-base streak for the Aztecs since Quintin Berry reached base in 48 consecutive Mountain West games from 2005-06. Berry, who went on to play parts of five seasons in Major League Baseball, reached base in every single one of his Mountain West games played.

Earlier this season, Rudick posted a 21-game hitting streak -- the third longest hitting streak by an Aztec since 2000. Rudick's 21-game hitting streak marks as the sixth longest streak in the nation this season.

Rudick has recorded a hit in 47 of his 52 games this season and has reached base in 50 of 52 games in 2019. Interestingly enough, the Aztecs are just 1-4 in games where Rudick does not record a hit.

TALE OF TWO SEASONS: Over the last 27 games, San Diego State relievers have combined for a 2.52 ERA, .240 opponent batting average, and have struck out 133 batters in 128.1 innings.

Over the first 25 games of the season, the SDSU bullpen owned a 5.17 ERA and .265 opponent batting average.

SCHMITT CLIMBING SDSU'S ALL-TIME SAVES LEADER CHART: With eight saves this season, Casey Schmitt is in a tie for fifth in program history with Mark Williamson with 17 career saves. In his second season as the Aztecs closer, Schmitt owns a career 2.40 ERA over 40 career appearances.

Royce Ring (2000-02) 26
Addison Reed (2008-10) 24
CJ Saylor (2014-17) 24
Michael Cederoth (2011-14) 20
Casey Schmitt (2018-present) 17
Mark Williamson (1981-82) 17

THE INJURY BUG: The Aztecs, who started the season with Logan Boyer, Harrison Pyatt, and Brad Wegman as their three weekend starters have needed to use 11 different starters in the 2019 season due to injuries suffered by all three. SDSU's 11 different starting pitchers used are their most since using 12 in 2012.

CALIFORNIA LOVE: Since 2014, the Aztecs lead all Division I California programs in win total. Also, over that span, SDSU is 107-53 (.669) when playing teams based in California.

Team	Wins
San Diego State	216
Stanford	215
UC Santa Barbara	209
Cal State Fullerton	206
Sacramento State	201

SEEING DOUBLE: SDSU leads the nation with 60 double plays turned this season. Since the start of the 2017 season, SDSU's 186 double plays turned are the most among any team in the nation.

STRANGE BUT TRUE: The Aztecs are going through an uncharacteristic season in terms of fielding, owning a .963 fielding percentage in 2019 -- the program's lowest since a .959 mark in 2012. However, the Aztecs have found ways to win games despite defensive miscues, as the Aztecs are 8-1 this season when recording three or more errors.

ADRIAN MARDUENO IS REALLY GOOD: Including Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week, Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Week, and Mountain West Pitcher of the Week awards received on April 8-9, Marudeno has been the Mountain West's most dominant arm during the 2019 season, leading the conference in ERA (1.46) and opponent batting average (.176).

Mardueno, who led the Aztecs in inherited runners stranded percentage as both a freshman and sophomore, leads the Aztecs once again as a junior, having stranded 78.2 percent (25 of 32) of his inherited base runners this season. Since April 2, Mardueno has stranded 16 of his last 17 inherited runners and each of his last 11.

Mardueno's ERA also stands as seventh best in the country, while his 5.46 hits allowed per nine innings is 12th best in the country. Mardueno is one of just five pitchers in the country to be in the top 12 of both ERA and hits allowed per nine innings, joined by Georgia's Emerson Hancock, UCLA's Ryan Garcia, Navy's Noah Song, and Mississippi State's Ethan Small.

Mardueno, who logged a 4-0 record and 0.82 ERA over 22 innings pitched in the month of April, was named a San Diego Sports Association Star of the Month for his efforts.

STRIKEOUTS GALORE: SDSU has recorded 24 games with 10 or more strikeouts this season, marking the most double-digit strikeout performances for the Aztecs in the Mountain West era (since 2000). SDSU passed the previous MW-era record of 23 set in 2009 in last Saturday's 10-6 win at Fresno State.

The Aztecs are 16-8 in their 24 games when striking out 10 or more batters.

SDSU has recorded 455 strikeouts, averaging 8.9 strikeouts per nine innings this season. Should the Aztecs continue that pace for the remainder of the regular season, SDSU would enter the Mountain West Championships with 482 strikeouts over 55 games.

SDSU has not posted a 500+ strikeout season since 2015, where SDSU logged 510 punchouts over 64 games. The Aztecs have had five previous seasons with 500 or more strikeouts in its 83-year history, including a program record of 581 in 1997.

FIVE, IT'S A MAGIC NUMBER: SDSU is 61-10 in their last 70 games when scoring five or more runs.

REBOUNDING QUICKLY: SDSU is 44-13 in their last 55 games following a loss.

UNDER PRESSURE: SDSU is 29-15 in their last 44 one-run games.

EYEING 2,500: With a 35-win season in 2019, the Aztecs would become the 27th team in the nation to reach the 2,500-win threshold and become just the fourth California program to do so, joining USC, Fresno State, and Stanford.

PRESEASON FAVORITES: Mountain West head coaches named SDSU the preseason favorite in the conference, collecting four first-place votes and 32 overall points. SDSU also placed Casey Schmitt, Logan Boyer, and Julian Escobedo on the all-MW preseason team, leaving SDSU in a tie with Nevada for most selections on the preseason all-conference team. SDSU is preseason favorites for the first time since 2014, when SDSU was co-preseason favorites with New Mexico.

In addition, both D1Baseball.com and Baseball America have also projected SDSU to win the Mountain West.

Mountain West Preseason Poll

Rank	Team (1st-place votes)	Points
1.	San Diego State (4)	32
2.	Nevada (2)	29
3.	Fresno State (1)	28
4.	UNLV	24

IN THE NATIONAL CONVERSATION: The Aztecs are one of 18 teams in the country to have reached a regional five times in the last six seasons, one of 13 teams in the country to have won 39 or more games five times in the last six years, and one of nine teams to have hit .300 or better in each of the last two seasons. SDSU is one of just three west coast programs to have played in five regionals since 2013, joined by only Oregon State and Cal State Fullerton.

Teams that have reached five regionals in the last six years: Arkansas, Cal State Fullerton, Clemson, Dallas Baptist, Florida, Florida State, Indiana, Louisville, LSU, Mississippi State, NC State, Oklahoma State, Ole Miss, Oregon State, Rice, San Diego State, Texas A&M, Vanderbilt

ONLY ONES: The Aztecs are the only team in the country to have won five conference tournament championships in the last six seasons.

* Mountain West Tournament Championship (3)
! NCAA Tournament Appearance (3)

Mark Martinez heads into his fifth season as head coach and 14th at SDSU in 2019 after being named the late Tony Gwynn's successor on August 20, 2014.

During his fourth season as head coach in 2018, Martinez became the fastest head coach in Mountain West history to win three conference championships. In 2017, Martinez logged his 100th win as head coach and became the fastest head coach in program history to reach the century mark.

Martinez led SDSU to a 39-21 performance in 2018, leaving the Aztecs as one of 13 teams in the nation to have won 39 or more games four times in the past five years. Since the start of the 2014 season — Martinez's final year as SDSU's head assistant coach under Gwynn — the Aztecs have recorded 185 wins, the most among all Division I California programs.

San Diego State will enter the 2019 season as the only team in Division I baseball with five conference tournament championships in the last six seasons. SDSU is one of 18 programs in the nation to have played in five NCAA Regionals in the last six years and one of just two programs in California, joined by only Cal State Fullerton. Statistically, the Aztecs are one of just nine teams to have hit .300 or better in each of the last two seasons and will enter 2019 having led the MW in earned run average in back-to-back seasons.

Martinez, who has been a part of 1,030 collegiate baseball wins since starting his coaching career in 1984, enters his fifth season as a head coach with a record of 143-103 (.581). Under his watch, SDSU has reached its highest academic progress rate, highest team grade point average, and highest total of scholar-athletes in its 82-year history. Last April, Martinez received the Center for Community Solutions Champions Award, recognizing his efforts in starting healthy relationships and consent education training with SDSU baseball student-athletes and coaches.

Fifteen Aztecs have been selected by the MLB First-Year Player draft and 10 Aztecs have been named Mountain West scholar athletes (3.5 GPA or better) since 2015. Martinez has also directed 21 student-athletes to all-MW honors over the last four seasons, including back-to-back MW Pitchers of the Year (Brett Seeburger — 2017, Garrett Hill — 2018) and 2017 MW Player of the Year Danny Sheehan.

Martinez entered the start of his head coaching career with 31 years of coaching experience as an assistant coach, split between nine years on Gwynn's Aztec staff (2006–2014), 17 years at New Mexico (1989–2005), and five seasons at his alma mater Mesa State (1984–1988). With Gwynn, Martinez helped SDSU end an 18-year drought from the NCAA postseason with an appearance in 2009.

He has also helped build an academic program that saw the highest APR in the history of the program last season, as well as the most scholar-athletes and highest team GPA in the history of the program.

Martinez has had 42 players drafted in his time at San Diego State, and had seven of those draft picks make the major leagues (Stephen Strasburg, Addison Reed, Justin Masterson, Bruce Billings, Quintin Berry, Lance Zawadzki, and Greg Allen).

In 2017, Martinez guided SDSU to a 42-21 record and a fourth conference title in the past five seasons. Statistically, his offense was among the national leaders in several categories while the defense set a school record for fielding percentage. He also helped produce the Mountain West Tony Gwynn Player of the Year (Danny Sheehan) and the league's Pitcher of the Year (Brett Seeburger). A total of six Aztecs earned all-conference honors while two (Sheehan, Tyler Adkison) were recognized as third-team All-Americans. In his inaugural season at the helm of the Aztec program, Martinez saw his team capture its third consecutive Mountain West Championship and earn a third straight berth in the NCAA Regionals.

The team's final 41-23 record marked the first time the Aztecs finished with back-to-back 40-win campaigns since the 1990 and 1991 seasons. Seven Aztecs earned all-league honors and the team produced a Freshman All-American, three All-West Region selections, three members of the NCAA Regional all-tournament team and five athletes on the conference championship all-tourney team including the MVP for the third year in a row. Four players (Bubba Derby, Steven Pallares, Mark Seyler, Ty France) were taken in the 2015 Major League draft as well. During the 2014 season, Martinez helped lead the Aztecs to their second consecutive conference championship. The overall 42-21 record was the best win percentage in 30 years of the program. The Aztecs also made their second consecutive regional, playing in Lafayette, Louisiana, as the No. 3 seed.

After the season, the 2014 Aztecs saw six players drafted (Michael Cederoth, Greg Allen, Brad Haynal, Tim Zier, Brandon Thomas and Justin Hepner) and saw another sign as an undrafted free agent (Evan Potter). Of the six players that signed after the 2014 season, only one (Cederoth) had been drafted before their time at San Diego State. In addition closer Michael Cederoth was also named a Baseball America First-Team All-American while third baseman Ty France was named a Baseball America Third Team All-American. Martinez was also an integral part of recruiting the 2014 recruiting class, which was ranked as the 19th-best freshman class in the country by Baseball America.

Martinez was hired as an assistant coach on July 28, 2005, arriving at SDSU after 17 years as an assistant at the University of New Mexico. His responsibilities included being in charge of the Aztec infielders and serving as SDSU's third base coach during games. In addition, is involved with the Aztec baseball camps and clinics, a series of seminars offered each winter and summer. During his tenure as a hitting and infield coach at New Mexico, Martinez was a key member in leading the Lobo offense that became one of the most prominent in the nation under his tutelage. New Mexico was ranked among the top 11 teams in the nation in hitting his final four seasons and the Lobos were ranked among the top 10 in batting, slugging, doubles, triples and homers in 2005. He also helped lead the Lobos to the 2000 Mountain West Conference regular-season title. Over his 17 seasons with New Mexico, he coached 47 all-conference selections and four conference players of the year. UNM also produced eight All-Americans, four freshman All-Americans and four Academic All-Americans during that span. In addition, 31 players were drafted in his 17 years at UNM.

Martinez came to New Mexico in 1988 after a five-year stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colo. He was an assistant there from 1984-88. Martinez played shortstop at Mesa State from 1982-84, earning all-conference and all-district honors as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1984. He completed his master's in sports administration from New Mexico in January 1990. In addition to his work with the Lobos, Martinez gained valuable experience in the summers of 1993 and 1994 as head coach of the Mat-su Miners in the Alaska Summer League.

Born Dec. 18, 1961, in Aurora, Colo., Martinez graduated from Longmont (Colo.) High School in 1980. He and wife, Jada Lucey Martinez, formerly UNM's associate athletic director for development, have two children: a daughter, Marissa, and a son, Cade

GAME RECAPS/POSTGAME NOTES

Feb 15, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

San Francisco 000 021 001 - 4 6 2 (0-1)
San Diego State 004 013 00X - 8 8 0 (1-0)

WP-Logan Boyer (1-0) LP: Riley Orriudo (0-1)

HR: Julian Escobedo (1) T-3:34 A-1014

Logan Boyer struck out a career-high 10 while Julian Escobedo drove in a career-high five runs and hit his first home run of the season in a 8-4 win.

- San Diego State has won its third consecutive season opener, good for the team's longest streak since winning each of its season openers from 2007-09.
- SDSU improved to 14-5 in season-opening weekends since the start of the 2013 season.
- SDSU improved to 6-3 all-time against USF and 13-7 (.650) against the West Coast Conference during the Mark Martinez era.
- SDSU improved to 38-4 in its last 42 games when scoring five or more runs
- SDSU's 17 strikeouts mark as the most since SDSU struck out 24 at UNLV on April 19, 2013 (17-inning game). The 17 strikeouts also mark as the most in a nine-inning game since striking out 17 against Air Force on May 8, 2009.

WP-Julian Washburn (1-0) LP: Casey Schmitt (0-1) S: Joey Steele (1)

T-3:19 A-1284

SDSU fell victim to a four-run ninth inning, losing a 8-3 lead the team built after three innings. Casey O'Sullivan shined for the Aztecs out of the bullpen, striking out a career-high seven.

- San Diego State saw its 86-game winning streak when leading after eight innings come to a close after the 9-8 loss in game 1. The Aztecs also had an 18-game winning streak when leading after six innings and a 22-game winning streak when leading after seven.
- Preseason all-American closer Casey Schmitt saw his run of 25.1 consecutive scoreless innings come to a close.

Feb 16, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

San Francisco 020 001 001 - 3 8 2 (1-2)
San Diego State 030 000 30X - 6 10 0 (2-1)

WP-Christian Winston (1-0) LP-Alex Pham (0-1) S: Adrian Mardueno (1)

HR: Jonathan Allen (1) T-3:49 A-1284

A two-RBI single by Julian Escobedo gave SDSU a 5-3 lead in the seventh inning while the bullpen was anchored by Adrian Mardueno and Christian Winston, who recorded each of the last nine outs of the game via strikeout.

- San Diego State recorded 15 or more strikeouts for the third consecutive game, marking the first time in the Mountain West era (since 2000). The Aztecs recorded 47 strikeouts in just 27 innings this weekend, good for a 15.67 strikeouts per nine innings ratio. The 47 strikeouts also stands as the most in a single series during the Mountain West era.
- SDSU recorded 22 runs for the weekend, however, the Aztecs produced 16 two-out RBIs for the series.

Feb 19, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

UC Irvine 000 111 001 - 3 7 0 (2-2)

WP-Casey O'Sullivan (1-0) LP- Alonso Garcia (1-1)

T-3:25 A-427

Brian Leonhardt doubled twice and went 3-for-4 with four RBIs to lead the Aztecs at the plate. Starter Justin Goossen-Brown pitched three hitless innings, while Casey O'Sullivan earned the win, stranding the bases loaded with no outs before finishing his outing with four strikeouts in two innings pitched.

- San Diego State has opened the year at 3-1 for the second consecutive season
- SDSU struck out 12 or more batters for the fourth consecutive game, marking the first time since at least 2000 SDSU has done so
- SDSU improved to 4-2 in its last six home games against UC Irvine.
- SDSU improved to 41-5 in their last 46 games when scoring five or more runs
- SDSU won its fourth consecutive midweek contest dating back to last season
- SDSU scored six or more runs in each of the first four games of the season since doing so in 2008

T-3:12 A-967

Matt Rudick hit a go-ahead single in the bottom of the eighth while Casey Schmitt got out of a bases-loaded, no-out situation in the ninth inning to preserve a 3-2 win over Utah.

- San Diego State won its 103rd all-time game against Utah, good for the third-most win against any other program (New Mexico - 114, Air Force 108)
- SDSU improved to 16-7 in their last 23 one-run games
- San Diego State registered 12 or more strikeouts for the fifth consecutive game.
- Casey Schmitt recorded his 10th career save, putting him in a tie for 14th in program history.

WP-Nathan Wiles (2-0) LP-Harrison Pyatt (0-1) S Jason Ruffcorn

(3) T-3:06 A-1643

Despite a strong start from Harrison Pyatt, the Aztecs fell 1-0 after Oklahoma scored its lone run in the top of the fifth when Milan Walla drove in Brady Harlan on an RBI single. Angelo Armenta reached base four times, going 2-for-2 in addition to drawing a pair of walks. Pyatt was dealt the tough-luck loss after 4.2 innings with just two hits and one run allowed while striking out five.

- San Diego State was shutout for just the third time in the last 68 games
- San Diego State recorded 12 strikeouts for the sixth consecutive game. Before the 2019 season, SDSU had not recorded 12 or more strikeouts in four consecutive games since at least 2000.
- The loss marks as SDSU's first loss when allowing just one run since falling 1-0 against USC on March 7, 2017.

Feb 24, 2019 at San Diego, Calif.

Aaron Eden logged his second consecutive quality start, but the Aztecs fell, 5-1 after Texas Tech used a Dylan Neuse RBI double in the sixth before adding three insurance runs in the seventh.

- SDSU had a span of 146 consecutive games without suffering a three-game losing streak come to a close after Tuesday night's loss.
- SDSU falls to 35-8 in games following a loss over the last three seasons.
- Aaron Eden had a streak of 10 consecutive scoreless innings snapped, but has allowed just one run over his last 14.2 innings pitched. Eden currently boasts a team-best 1.08 ERA with a team-high 16.2 innings pitched after starting recording his second consecutive quality start.
- SDSU drew nine walks, the most in a single game since walking nine times against Fresno State on April 21, 2018.
- SDSU left a season-high 13 runners on base. 13 runners left on base also marks as the 2018 team's season-high, which it did on three occasions last year.

Matt Rudick hit a walk-off single to score Joe Fitzhugh with two outs in the bottom of the 10th as the San Diego State baseball team won its series opener against Seattle, 6-5. SDSU improves to 9-7 on the year, while Seattle falls to 4-13.

The game-winning run transpired after Fitzhugh was able to reach base on an error by Seattle third baseman Austin Lively and later moved up to second on a wild pitch.

SDSU received a trio of impressive relief performances, including Christian Winston (1.1 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 2 K), Adrian Mardueno (2.2 IP, 1 H, 1 R, 2 BB, 7 K), and Casey O'Sullivan (2 IP, 0 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 2 K). Mardueno struck out each of the first three batters he faced before striking out the side in order in the top of the eighth. Mardueno's seven strikeouts set a new career-high for the junior.

The Aztecs held a 3-2 lead heading into the ninth inning, but a Tyler Bosetti RBI and a Daniel Perry RBI single pushed the Wolf Pack ahead, 4-3. The Aztecs immediately responded in the bottom half of the ninth, with Brian Leonhardt singling home Matt Rudick to push the game into extra innings.

After Leonhardt's game-tying single, the Aztecs came mere inches from winning in walk-off fashion, as a ball off the bat of Jaden Fein was headed for the ground in shallow centerfield, but was snagged by shortstop Wyatt Tilley on a full-extension catch to prevent Angelo Armenta from scoring from third base.

The Wolf Pack struck for four hits in the 10th, taking a 6-4 lead after Bosetti recorded his second late-stage RBI of the game to create a two-run cushion.

On the mound Aztec starter Aaron Eden made his third consecutive impressive start for the Aztecs, recording seven strikeouts in five innings while only allowing two runs.

After SDSU's five-run third, Seattle immediately responded with a four-run fourth to reclaim a 7-5 lead. Matt Rudick drove in a run in the top of the fourth on a 4-3 ground out, and in the fifth with two outs, Joe Fitzhugh hit a bases-clearing 3-RBI double down the left field line to give SDSU a 9-7 lead.

The Aztecs scored for the fourth consecutive frame in the sixth, using another 2-RBI single by Leonhardt to plate both Armenta and Rudick. Leonhardt later capped his impressive night with an eighth-inning RBI single to bring the score to its final 12-8.

Michael Paredes earned his first career win, firing 4.1 innings of relief with his lone blemish being a seventh-inning solo home run by Seattle's Austin Lively. Paredes struck out more than half of the batters he faced, finishing with eight punchouts while scattering just two hits without allowing a walk.

All nine players in the San Diego State starting lineup recorded either multiple hits or drove in multiple runs as the Aztecs posted a season-high 19 runs and 20 hits in a 19-3 drubbing of New Mexico.

- SDSU has won back-to-back regular-season series at New Mexico for the first time since 1989-90. Last year's series win at New Mexico was the Aztecs' first since 2004.
- The Aztecs have won seven of their last nine games in Albuquerque (includes 2017 Mountain West Championships).
- 15 runs scored against New Mexico is the team's most against the Lobos since scoring 28 in a 28-10 win over UNM on May 14, 2005, in Albuquerque. SDSU's 16-run margin of victory over UNM is also the largest since that 28-10 win.
- SDSU's 16-run margin of victory is its largest since defeating UC Riverside 19-1 on April 24, 2018. SDSU's 19 runs are also the most in a single game since that win against UCR.
- SDSU improves to 31-1 in its last 32 games when scoring 10 or more runs.
- SDSU set season-highs in runs (19), at-bats (45), hits (20), RBIs (18), and total bases (32).

In a game resumed from a snowy postponement in Colorado Springs on March 2, the San Diego State baseball team finished its game against Air Force with a 4-3 win on Thursday night at Tony Gwynn Stadium.

In Colorado Springs on March 2, SDSU set the tone early in the first with a double to right field by lead-off batter Matt Rudick. Angelo Armenta then hit an RBI single to center field for Rudick to score, putting the Aztecs in the lead 1-0. The Aztecs added another run in the second, with Deron Johnson doubling to bring home Casey Schmitt to make it a 2-0 lead before snow halted the game from being continued.

1,129 miles away and 47 days later, Aaron Eden came into the game with one out and two runners on in the bottom of the second. Eden stranded both of those inherited runners forcing Tommy Gillman to fly out to right field and a 1-3 groundout against Cole Blatford.

Aztecs got their Thursday-night scoring started in the top of the fifth, with Chad Bible and Devyn Lopez scoring on a double by Armenta to make it a 4-0 Aztec advantage. Air Force responded with their first run on an RBI single to shortstop by Nic Ready in the bottom of the fifth.

A go-ahead RBI double by Mike Jarvis and a 2-RBI triple by Matt Rudick highlighted a game-clinching three-run eighth inning in a 6-3 win for SDSU in the nightcap. Air Force, which tied the game at 3-3 in the top of the eighth with a Rob Dau RBI single, was held to just three hits - the lowest hit total posted by the Aztec pitching staff this season.

The duo of starter Michael Paredes and reliever Adrian Mardueno collectively allowed just three hits while striking out 13 over 8.2 innings pitched. Paredes threw 6.1 innings in his first career weekend start, allowing only one hit while surrendering two earned runs with four walks and eight strikeouts.

Paredes allowed a Tommy Gillman solo home run in the top of the first, but settled in and did not allow a hit for his remaining six innings. After recording a frame-opening strikeout in the seventh, Paredes ran into some control issues, walking the next two batters he faced before SDSU made the move to the bullpen.

After starter Harrison Pyatt was replaced due to injury after a pair of batters, Jacob Flores performed impressively in his short-notice appearance, logging a career-high four innings while allowing just two hits with two walks and a career-high five strikeouts.

Trailing 2-0 heading to the bottom of the third, the Aztecs claimed the lead with a 2-RBI double by Casey Schmitt down the left field line, scoring both Angelo Armenta and Mike Jarvis. An inning later, Jarvis posted an RBI double of his own before Jaden Fein made it three consecutive innings with an Aztec run after launching his team-leading fourth home run of the season in the bottom of the fifth to make it a 5-2 lead.

Fein's home run proved to be an important insurance run, as the Falcons clipped the lead to 5-4 with a solo home run in the ninth.

- San Diego State improves to 25-10 in their last 35 games against Air Force and 9-3 in their last 12 home games against the Falcons.

- Matt Rudick extended his in-conference on-base streak to 29 games, which carries over 12 games from the 2018 season.

- Jacob Flores extended his streak of consecutive innings without allowing an earned run to 10.2 after four shutout innings on Saturday.

- SDSU is 8-2 this season and has won three in a row when playing on Saturdays this season.

SDSU opened the scoring with Brian Leonhardt's first career home run in the top of the second, as the freshman took a 3-1 fastball over the wall in right-center field. USD made the lead shortlived, however, scoring a run in the bottom half of the second before taking a 2-1 lead in the third.

SDSU tied the game in the fourth with Angelo Armenta crossing home on a wild pitch after hitting a one-out single earlier in the inning.

The Aztecs took the lead on a Chad Bible infield single that was kicked around by the Torero middle infield. The defensive lapse allowed both Julian Escobedo and Casey Schmitt to score for a 4-2 Aztec lead.

In addition to his second-inning solo home run, Leonhardt also impressed on the mound, allowing just two hits and one run over 3.1 innings of work. Leonhardt recorded three strikeouts on the night and retired 10 of the 12 batters he faced.

- The Aztecs are now 8-1 all-time at Fowler Park and 15-3 in their last 18 when playing against San Diego as the road team. SDSU has outscored USD 51-22 over the nine games at Fowler Park.

- SDSU improves to 11-6 in their last 17 games against the Toreros

- The Aztecs turned three double plays on the night, bringing their nation-leading season total to 50. It is the fifth time this season the Aztecs have recorded a season-high three double plays.

- SDSU improves to 13-4 and have won six in a row in games when hitting at least one home run.

- Adrian Mardueno earned his 13th career win (13-3 career record).

- Casey Schmitt recorded his 15th career save, good for sole possession of sixth in Aztec history.

The San Diego State baseball team used five home runs in an 11-4 win at UNLV at Earl E. Stadium. The five home runs hit by the Aztecs accounted for 10 of SDSU's 11 runs, as Mike Jarvis and Casey Schmitt both hit a pair while Julian Escobedo hit his fifth long ball of the season in the top of the first.

SDSU got a six-run sixth inning started with Schmitt's first home run -- a first-pitch solo shot to left -- before Jaden Fein singled home Chad Bible to make it a 4-1 advantage.

On the very next pitch Jarvis saw, the junior infielder launched his second home run and fourth of the season, pushing SDSU's lead to 9-2 in the eighth inning. Three batters later, Schmitt hit his second home run of the season -- a two-run home run to give SDSU its 10th and 11th runs of the game. Schmitt finished his day with a career-high five hits, going 5-for-5 with three RBIs. Schmitt's five hits are also the most by an Aztec this season.

The Aztecs went 8-for-16 with runners on base and 3-for-6 with runners in scoring position while holding the Rebels to a 6-for-24 success rate with runners on and a 2-for-10 mark with runners in scoring position.

A two-out ninth-inning single by Matt Rudick scored a pair of Aztec runs and cut UNLV's lead to just one, but the San Diego State baseball team fell just short at Earl E. Stadium, falling to the Rebels 5-4.

SDSU had a 2-0 lead after a Joe Fitzhugh second-inning RBI single and a Casey Schmitt third-inning RBI base hit. The Rebels made the lead short lived after a two-run single by Edarian Williams tied the game in the bottom of the third.

UNLV took its first lead of the game in the fifth, as a Bryson Stott solo home run gave the Rebels its first run in a three-run fifth inning.

The San Diego State baseball team fell victim to a pair of run-producing errors in a 5-1 loss at Earl E. Stadium.

Aaron Eden and Adrian Mardueno combined to allow just one earned run, but two errors allowed four unearned runs to score. After Eden surrendered a leadoff home run to Bryson Stott in the top of the first, the freshman settled in nicely, finishing his outing with five strikeouts in 5.1 innings while scattering seven hits.

Mardueno allowed two hits over his 2.2 innings and did not allow an earned run while striking out three. Mardueno and Eden held the Rebels hitless over 13 at-bats with runners in scoring position.

SDSU tied the game at 1-1 in the top of the third, using an Angelo Armenta sacrifice fly to left field to score Mike Jarvis. The errors committed by the Aztecs in the fifth and seventh innings allowed two runs to score on each play and brought the score to its final 5-1.

- SDSU's one run scored today is tied for its lowest total in Las Vegas since being shutout by the Rebels on March 28, 2003 (SDSU has been held to one run in Las Vegas just three times over its last 37 games).

Angelo Armenta's two-out 11th-inning single scored Matt Rudick and Casey Schmitt to give the San Diego State baseball team a 7-6 win over San Jose State on Friday night. The Aztecs faced a 6-5 deficit heading into their half of the 11th inning after the Spartans took the lead on Blake Berry's sacrifice fly.

With two outs and Rudick at first base, Schmitt singled through the right side of the infield to give the Aztecs runners at the corners. Schmitt later stole second base, providing Armenta -- who was down to his final strike -- with a chance at driving in the game-winning run on a base hit. Armenta converted on the opportunity, poking a single through the middle of the field on a 1-2 offering from Spartan closer Fineas Del Bonta Smith.

Schmitt, who scored the game-winning run, also earned the win on the mound, throwing two innings of relief with one run and three hits allowed.

SDSU's top six hitters in the order featuring Rudick, Escobedo, Schmitt, Armenta, Bible, and Fein, combined for nine of SDSU's 11 hits. Escobedo, Schmitt, and Fein led the Aztecs with two hits apiece. Rudick also walked three times and reached base in four of his six plate appearances.

The Aztecs went 7-for-17 with runners in scoring position while limiting the Spartans to just a 3-for-14 clip with run-scoring opportunities

- Tonight's game marks as SDSU's second walk-off win of the season (also Matt Rudick RBI single vs. Seattle on March 15 in 10th inning) and third game this season that has ended in a walk off.

- SDSU improves to 15-2 in their last 17 games against SJSU.

The San Diego State baseball team scored all nine of its runs over a three-inning span to defeat San Jose State, 9-7, at Tony Gwynn Stadium on Saturday night

Facing a 2-0 deficit, Chad Bible's fifth home run of the season set the tone for a five-run, five-hit second inning that gave the Aztecs a 5-2 edge. After Bible homered, Jacob Maekawa and Matt Rudick hit back-to-back RBI singles. Later in the inning, Casey Schmitt drew a bases-loaded walk and Angelo Armenta hit a sacrifice fly to cap the second-inning outburst.

The Spartans immediately responded with four runs of their own in the top of the third, but the Aztecs continued to swing the bats well in the early stages, posting a three-run third inning to take an 8-6 lead. A Spartan error allowed SDSU to tie the game at 6-6 before Schmitt recorded a go-ahead 2-RBI single to center to score both Rudick and Maekawa.

The Spartans threatened in the top of the fourth, loading the bases with a hit by pitch and back-to-back walks. Brian Leonhardt then took over on the mound for SDSU and proceeded to battle back from a 3-0 count to strikeout SJSU's Aaron Pleschner to end the threat.

SDSU increased its nation-leading double play total to 56 with a pair of twin-killings on Saturday night. Both came in crucial parts of the game, as a 5-3 double play featuring an impressive swipe tag by first baseman Jaden Fein got SDSU out of a two-man-on jam. In the next inning, Leonhardt induced a bases-loaded ground ball against Pleschner for a 4-3 double play turned by Maekawa.

- SDSU has won eight of its last nine home games.

- SDSU is 16-2 in their last 18 games against San Jose State

- Despite allowing 10 walks and three hit by pitches, the Aztecs were able to strand 18 Spartan runners on base.

The San Diego State baseball team completed a three-game sweep of San Jose State with a 10-8 at Tony Gwynn Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

After the Spartans scored single runs in the first, third, and fourth, the Aztecs broke out for a seven-run fourth inning featuring a Brian Leonhardt bases-loaded walk, a Jacob Maekawa bases-clearing 3-RBI double, a Julian Escobedo RBI double, and a 2-RBI single by Casey Schmitt.

A pair of SJSU tallies in the fifth cut the Aztec lead to 7-5 but Schmitt continued his red-hot weekend with an RBI double in the sixth to score Matt Rudick. Angelo Armenta and Jaden Fein followed, recording a sacrifice fly and an RBI double, respectively, to stretch the lead to 10-5.

In the ninth, Casey Schmitt took over after Mardueno surrendered back-to-back one-out singles. Schmitt walked the first batter he faced, but worked around it, forcing Jack Colette to pop out to second base before striking out pinch hitter Johnny Mendoza on three pitches to end the game.

Schmitt was credited with his eighth save of the season and his second of the weekend. Aaron Eden provided the Aztecs with a seven-inning start to earn the win and improve to 4-1 on the year.

Schmitt and Ryan Orr went 2-for-5 and 2-for-4, respectively, to lead the Aztec lineup. As a team, SDSU went 5-for-11 with runners in scoring position.

The San Diego State baseball team extended its win streak to four with a 10-5 win over No. NR/25 Brigham Young on Monday night at Tony Gwynn Stadium.

The scoring started early for both sides, as the Aztecs responded to a single unearned Cougar run in the first with a three-run effort in the bottom half of the inning. Matt Rudick and Angelo Armenta both scored on wild pitches and Chad Bible scored Julian Escobedo on a ground out to second base in the first inning.

The Aztecs recorded another three-spot in the third, using Bible's team-leading sixth home run of the season -- a three-run shot to left-center -- extending the lead to 6-2.

Daniel Ritcheson took over on the mound for SDSU in the second and faced some control issues, but settled in nicely after a three-walk second inning. From there, Ritcheson finished his 5.2 innings of work with only one hit and four hits allowed while striking out six to earn his second win of the season.

Angelo Armenta tied his season-high with three hits in a 3-for-5 showing at the plate. Bible finished the day with four RBIs -- tying his career-high -- while Rudick, Escobedo, and Schmitt all recorded two hits and scored two times each.

Aztec pitching held the Cougars to a 2-for-13 clip with runners in scoring position. SDSU's top four hitters of Rudick, Escobedo, Schmitt, and Armenta combined to go 9-for-19 (.474) with eight runs scored, while every starter in the Aztec lineup recorded at least one hit.

SDSU opened the game with back-to-back base hits with a Matt Rudick single and a Julian Escobedo double, but both were left stranded in scoring position to end the top of the first. Fresno State carried that momentum into their half of the first, scoring five runs for an early 5-0 lead.

Fresno State scored another run in the fourth before Zach Ashford hit a two-run home run in the fifth inning to stretch the lead to 8-0.

After Fresno State ace Ryan Jensen held the Aztecs scoreless for the first six innings, a leadoff double by Jaden Fein in the top of the seventh set up SDSU's first run of the night with the freshman later scoring on a Ryan Orr groundout.

Fresno State extended their lead to 10-1 after Nolan Dempsey hit a two-run home run to left-center in the eighth. Facing a nine-run deficit, Mike Jarvis drove in Angelo Armenta on a single to left to give the Aztecs their second run of the night.

Both Rudick and Armenta went 2-for-4 at the plate to account for four of SDSU's seven hits.

The San Diego State baseball team used six multiple hit-performances and a four-inning save with no earned runs allowed by Adrian Mardueno in a 10-6 win over Fresno State on Saturday night.

The Aztecs and Bulldogs went back-and-forth during the game's first three innings, as a 2-0 lead built by the Aztecs in the top of the second was quickly erased with a two-run effort by the Bulldogs in the bottom of the second.

After Mike Jarvis put the Aztecs ahead with an RBI single in the top of the third, Fresno State once again wiped away SDSU's early lead, posting a three-run third inning to take a 5-3 lead.

The Aztecs showed eagerness despite the newly acquired deficit, as Angelo Armenta tied the game at 5-5 in the top of the fourth with his second home run of the season -- a two-run shot over the wall in right field driving home Casey Schmitt.

An inning later, Jacob Maekawa singled to left field and after the ball was mishandled by Bulldog left fielder Austin Chastain, Ryan Orr scored to give SDSU a 6-5 lead and put the Aztecs on top for good. The Aztecs crossed home a trio of important insurance runs in the top of the sixth, including another RBI single by Jarvis and a 2-RBI single by Orr.

After Michael Paredes delivered a five-inning inning start with seven hits, five runs and one walk allowed to earn his third win of the year, SDSU turned to Adrian Mardueno for the game's final four innings. Mardueno, who earned his second save of the year, finished another stellar outing one walk, no earned runs and five strikeouts.

Paredes and Mardueno teamed up for a span of 12 consecutive batters retired -- a streak that was snapped in Fresno State's one-run seventh that featured an unearned Bulldog run crossing the plate.

The Aztecs quickly fell into a hole, with the Bulldogs scoring six runs in the first inning. Seven of the Bulldogs first eight hitters reached base.

Jacob Flores, who relieved starter Aaron Eden in the first, performed well on a short-notice appearance. Flores pitched 4.2 innings, allowing just one run on three hits with four strikeouts and a walk.

The Bulldogs extended their lead to 7-0 in the second inning. SDSU broke through with a pair of runs of their own in the third, with Angelo Armenta driving in Matt Rudick on a fielder's choice to second base before Armenta later scored on a wild pitch to make it 7-2.
