STORYLINES (through games of Mon., Feb. 22)

- No. 22/25 San Diego State, owners of a Mountain West Conference record 12 Mountain West Conference championships, including a record seven regular-season titles, opens a pivotal two-game homestand with first place Boise State on Thursday night at Viejas Arena.
- The Aztecs, who were 3-3 and tied for fifth place in the conference on Jan. 7, are now in second place in the league, a half-game behind the Broncos.
- San Diego State has made a run for a 13th Mountain West title by winning eight consecutive games (by an average margin of 26.4 points, winning each game by at least 14 points and not trailing at any point of the second half during that stretch).
- On Tuesday, the Mountain West formally awarded San Diego State a pair of forfeit victories over New Mexico. Those games do not count in SDSU's overall or formal conference record, but will count for seeding and conference championship implications.
- The result is that San Diego State controls its destiny in its quest for a conference title. If the Aztecs win the next three games, it will win its eighth Mountain West regular season title (MW regular season championships: 2006, 2011, 2012*, 2014, 2015*, 2016 and 2020 / * - indicates shared title).*
- The Aztecs and Broncos will meet for the 23rd time, with San Diego State owning a 15-7 series lead. The Aztecs have won the last four encounters played between the teams, including three games last season by a combined 48 points.
- San Diego State owns a 7-2 series advantage in games played in San Diego. The Aztecs are also 8-1 when facing the Broncos as an AP Top 25 team and Brian Dutcher is 5-2 against Boise. This marks the fourth straight time the Aztecs have faced Boise while ranked in the AP Poll.
- Win streaks on the line Thursday: 8-game overall win streak (9th longest active streak nationally), 8-game Mountain West win streak (tied for the fourth longest league win streak in school history; third league win streak of at least six games in Brian Dutcher's fourth season as head coach), 7-game win streak at Viejas Arena and a 4-game win streak against Boise.
- San Diego State moved from No. 25 to No. 22 in the Associated Press Top-25 Poll this week and returned to the coaches poll at No. 25. Since the start of the 2010-11 campaign, the Aztecs have made 85 appearances in the poll, including four weeks this season. That ranks 19th nationally and is the highest total among California and Mountain West teams.
- The Aztecs metrics continue their upward trend following the eight dominating victories. San Diego State rankings in the metrics after Monday's games: 24th in the NET, 12th in Torvik, 18th in KPI, 20th in BPI, 20th in KenPom and 24th in Sagarin. San Diego State is one of only 15 teams in the nation to rank among the top 25 in the six major metrics - NET, BPI, KenPom, KPI, Sagarin and Torvik. The 15 schools listed alphabetically are: Alabama, Baylor, Florida State, Gonzaga, Houston, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Ohio State, San Diego State, Texas, USC, Villanova, Virginia, West Virginia.

MW SENDING AZTECS TO SIN CITY FOR A SINGLE GAME; NM GAMES OFFICIALLY FORFEITS

The Mountain West Conference announced a revised schedule for the remainder of the 2020-21 men's basketball season on Tuesday afternoon. The announcement dealt specifically with games which will be played the week of March 1, to make up for some conference games missed during the regular season.

The impact of the announcement on San Diego State is that the team will travel to Las Vegas and play a single game on Wednesday, March 3 against UNLV. The game is scheduled for 6 p.m. PT and will be broadcast on CBS Sports Network.

The Aztecs series with New Mexico, initially scheduled for Feb. 3 and 5, has been declared a "forfeit" by the Conference. SDSU will be awarded two wins and the Lobos two losses for final regular-season standings and Conference tournament seeding purposes only. This will not change an institution's official overall won-lost record, according to the NCAA.

AZTECS UP TO NO. 22 IN AP; BACK IN THE COACHES POLL AT NO. 25

Running its record to 17-4 after a pair of victories at Fresno State last week, San Diego State men's basketball jumped up three spots to No. 22 in the AP Poll and made its return to the Coaches Poll, coming in at No. 25. The Aztecs garnered 222 points from AP voters, 96 from the coaches and are the only Mountain West team ranked in either of this week's poll.

Monday's appearance in the AP poll, on Feb. 22, marks the fourth week this season that San Diego State has been ranked and is ranked in back-to-back weeks for the second time in the 2020-21 campaign (also on Dec. 7 & 14, 2020).

No. 6	Feb. 22, 2011
No. 24	Feb. 22, 2012
No. 6	Feb. 22, 2014
No. 4	Feb. 22, 2020
No. 22	Feb. 22, 2021

San Diego State appears in the poll for the 85th time since the start of the 2010-11 season, easily outdistancing all other California schools in weeks being ranked in that time frame. UCLA has appeared in the poll for 47 weeks, Saint Mary's 39 weeks, USC 15, and California 11, since the start of the 2010-11 season.

The Aztecs are ranked in the Coaches Poll for the third time this season. After debuting at No. 20 on Dec. 14, 2020, they next appeared at No. 23 on Dec. 28, 2020.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

San Diego State has advanced to the NCAA tournament seven of the last 10 seasons in which a national champion has been crowned, and has an NIT national semifinalist appearance as well during that span. One reason for the success is that Viejas Arena is a very tough place for opponents. Since the start of the 2009-10 campaign, and entering this season, San Diego State has the 11th-highest winning percentage in the country, amassing a 169-22 home record, winning 88.5 percent of its home games during that span.

With the 2020-21 season underway here are a few of the categories to keep an eye on.

- In its last 195 home games, San Diego State has compiled a 171-24 mark, including a 80-10 record against non-conference competition at Viejas Arena.

- Since the start of the 2012-13 campaign, the Aztecs are 124-19 at home, including a 55-9 record in non-conference home contests during that stretch (44-7 against non-top 25 non-conference foes).
- The Aztecs are 51-10 in their last 61 non-conference home games.

MORE HOME COOKING
- San Diego State is 32-4 in its last 36 home games dating back to Jan. 1, 2019.
- The Aztecs are 29-3 in its 32 Mountain West Conference home games since Jan. 24, 2018.
- SDSU is 16-6 in conference home openers since joining the Mountain West prior ot the 1999-2000 season.
- San Diego State ended the 2019-20 season 14-1 at home, with an average scoring margin of +16.0. Of the 15 home games, 12 were decided by at least nine points. In SDSU's first five home games this season, its margin of victory has been 20.3 points.
- Last season's 13-game home court win streak, snapped on Feb. 22, 2020, was tied for the eighth-longest in school history and longest since the school-record 29-game win streak from Nov. 20, 2013 and ended Feb. 28, 2015.
- San Diego State has never had an undefeated home season as a Division I program. The last time the Aztecs made it through the home portion of the schedule unscathed was 1966-67. That season, San Diego State went 16-0 at home en route to a 24-5 record. In the Division I era, SDSU has ended the home portion of its schedule with a single loss on seven occasions (1977-78, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2012-13, 2013-14, 2014-15 and 2019-20).

DESTINY IS IN THE AZTECS HANDS
The Mountain West's announced on Tuesday that the Aztecs two-games series against New Mexico, which was initially labeled "canceled", after the Lobos bowed out at the last minute not due to COVID-19, are now listed as forfeits. That along with the rescheduling of a previously postponed game against UNLV, which will take place on March 3, will have major implications on MW Tournament seeding for SDSU. Here's how...
- If San Diego State sweeps its two-game series with Boise State and then goes to UNLV and defeats the Runnin' Rebels, SDSU will be the outright 2020-21 Mountain West Regular Season Champions.
- The title would extend San Diego State's Mountain West-record number of regular-season titles to eight.
- The title would extend San Diego State's Mountain West-record number of overall titles (regular-season & tournament) to 13.

JORDAN...THREE...GOOD
Senior guard Jordan Schakel is producing from beyond the three-point line at an elite level in 2020-21.
- Schakel's 45.7 percent success rate from the bonus distance (63-of-138) ranks No. 5 in the nation & leads the Mountain West.
- Schakel ranks second among the top-5 in both makes (63) and attempts (138).
- Schakel is hitting an average of 3.00 threes per game through 21 games, which ranks No. 19 nationally & leads the Mountain West.
- Through 21 games last year he had 44 treys (2.09/g) and for the season totaled 71 threes in 32 games (2.21/g).
- Schakel has made 63 three pointers which ranks No. 24 in the country & leads the Mountain West.
- If he remains at his current pace (3.00/g), he'll eclipse his total output of threes from last year (71) in eight fewer games (24-to-32).

EIGHT-GAME STREAK THE LONGEST OF THE YEAR
With its 75-57 win at Fresno State, the Aztecs ran their current win streak to eight games.
- The streak is the 10th longest in school history & the third of at least eight games in head coach Brian Dutcher's four seasons.
- The streak is T-4th longest conference win streak in SDSU history (Dutcher was the HC for the longest streak, 13 in 2019-20).
- Is among the longest current streaks in the country.

IT STARTS WITH DEFENSE
The Aztecs are known for defense. Entering the Boise State series...
- San Diego State ranks sixth in the nation in scoring defense (59.8 ppg) & leads the Mountain West.

MATT MITCHELL PLACES HIS NAME AMONG THE GREAT AZTECS
Senior forward Matt Mitchell has one of the most well rounded games in Aztec history and on Jan. 30, versus Wyoming, he cemented his place in the record book. With his first two rebounds, the Riverside, Calif. native, became just the third player in program history to reach the career marks of 1,000 points (1,357 currently), 500 rebounds (520 currently), 200 assists (209 currently) and 100 steals (118 currently). He joined Trey Kell (2015-18) and Winston Shepard (2013-16) on the list.

If you remove steals from the equation, which became an official stat in the 1985-86 season, look at the 574 letterwinner in program history and then dig deeper into the 35 players who have scored at least 1,000 point in their careers, the accomplishment is even more impressive.
- Only 14 players have scored 1,000 points and grabbed 500 rebounds (including Mitchell, Kell & Shepard).

In that time he experienced 476 victories, 10 Mountain West titles and helped the Aztecs to 13 postseason tournaments, including eight NCAA appearances and a pair of Sweet 16 berths (2011, 2014).

LAST TIME VS. BOISE STATE
San Diego State 81, Fresno State 68
March 6, 2020 | Thomas & Mack Center | Las Vegas, Nev. | Attn: 9,630
2020 Mountain West Championship Semifinal

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State has made a habit of getting knocked around early the last few weeks. It also has made a habit of absorbing the early blows, landing some solid counter-punches and ultimately scoring the knockout.

The No. 5 Aztecs followed that same script once again Friday night in the Mountain West Tournament semifinals against Boise State, overcoming a 16-point first-half deficit and cruising to an 81-68 victory.

Malachi Flynn, the Mountain West's Player of the Year, had 22 points, five rebounds and five assists, and KJ Feagin added 21 points and six rebounds for San Diego State (30-1). The Aztecs will face the Utah State-Wyoming winner in the championship game.

The Aztecs are in the title game for the third consecutive year, the sixth time in the last seven seasons and the 10th time in the last 12. More importantly, they took another step closer to locking down a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

"It's a different feeling than last year, even though it's still the championship game," coach Brian Dutcher said. "Last year, we weren't going to the NCAA Tournament unless we won (the conference title). This year, we know we're going to the NCAA Tournament. So, yeah, we want to win (Saturday) in the worst way, but we're focused on two weeks from now when the NCAA Tournament starts."

San Diego State, which trailed at halftime in each of its previous four games, actually jumped out to a quick 9-2 lead after sinking its first three 3-point shots. But the tide quickly turned from there, as Boise State (20-12) scored 26 of the next 31 points, which was part of 35-12 run that gave the Broncos a 37-21 lead with five minutes remaining in the half.

That's when San Diego State woke up — on both ends of the court. The Aztecs closed the half on a 19-3 tear that tied it at 40, with guard Jordan Schakel's 3-pointer in the waning seconds capping the run. San Diego State made six of its final seven shots in the first half and held the Broncos without a field goal over the final five minutes.

The Aztecs stayed hot in the second half, scoring 20 of the first 28 points to open a 60-48 advantage. Over the game's final 25 minutes, San Diego State outscored Boise 64-31 en route to its third double-digit victory over the Broncos in less than two months.

"Beating a team three times in a season is hard," said Feagin, who hit 8 of 15 shots, going 5 for 11 from 3-point range. "We got off to a great start, but basketball is a game of runs and teams are going to hit shots. And we're not perfect. We made some mistakes that they capitalized on. But we're resilient and we're a talented team, and we know we're going to get everybody's best shot at this point. So they came out pumped and ready for the game, but we had a better punch at the end."

The Aztecs made 15 3-pointers, shot 49.1 percent from the field and held Boise State to just 23.3% shooting in the second half (7 of 30) after the Broncos shot 57.7% (15 of 26) in the opening 20 minutes.

Alex Hobbs led Boise State with 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting. RJ Williams and Derrick Alston each had 12 points, although Alston missed all seven of his field-goal attempts in the second half.

San Diego State prevailed despite getting outrebounded 35-30, including 14-9 on the offensive glass.

"(Boise State) rocked us on our heels in the first half," Dutcher said. "We got off to a good start, made some shots and then they went on an incredible run on us. It just shows what kind of team I have with great resolve. They didn't panic; they just fought their way back into it and tied it at halftime. I've got good players, and they make me look like a good coach many a night."

DIALED IN FROM LONG DISTANCE
Both teams were sensational from 3-point range in the first half, combining to go 15-for-29, with San Diego State making 10 of 20. The Aztecs were particularly streaky, as they started 4-for-5 from beyond the arc, missed their next six attempts, then drained six of their next nine. San Diego State remained hot from 3-point land following halftime, connecting on three of their first four shots. Conversely, Boise State misfired on 14 of its 18 3-pointers in the second half.

KINGS OF THE MOUNTAIN
With the victory, San Diego State improved to 34-14 all time in the Mountain West Tournament, including 12-4 in semifinal games. The Aztecs own the all-time Mountain West tournament records for victories (34), winning percentage (.694) and championships (five). They've also advanced to the title game all five times they have been a No. 1 seed

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN' FOR SDSU...CALIFORNIA NIGHTMARE FOR IN-STATE OPPONENTS
- San Diego State opened the 2020-21 season hosting three Division I in-state foes in UCLA, UC Irvine, and Pepperdine, and on Dec. 22 played Saint Mary's in a neutral site game, defeated each, and with its 75-57 victory at Fresno State on Saturday, Feb. 20, has played a total of eight regular-season games against California Division I schools, and is 8-0 against its California competition.
- Since the start of the Coach Dutcher era (1999-2000), the Aztecs are 115-33 (.777) against 24 of the other 25 current Division I schools in California (SDSU has not played Cal Baptist), and have a winning record against all but three of those 24 opponents.
- In the last 84 home games against the those same 24 opponents, and also starting in 1999-2000, San Diego State is 74-11 (.870).
- In program history against the 24 schools, the Aztecs are 449-323 (.582), and SDSU has a winning record against 19 of those 24 programs.

ROAD (AND NEUTRAL) WARRIORS
With one more regular season road game in conference play, here are some road and neutral site facts about San Diego State:
- San Diego State had the nation's longest road winning streak (13 games, dating back to the 2018-19 season) halted at Utah State (1/14), the same program that ended SDSU's longest road/neutral streak (16) in the nation in its final game of the 2019-20 campaign.
- Since the start of the 2010-11 season, San Diego State's 77-45 (.631) record in road games is the ninth best in the nation.

SCHAKEL NAMED MW PLAYER OF THE WEEK...AGAIN

For averaging 23.5 points, 3.5 rebounds, 2.0 steals and 1.0 assist in wins over San Jose State last week, Jordan Schakel has been named the Mountain West Player of the Week. The announcement was made from the Mountain West's offices in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The senior guard shot 13-of-27 from the field (48.1 percent), including 10-of-20 from three-point range (50.0 percent) and was 11-of-11 from the line to lead all scorers in wins of 85-54 and 77-55 last Monday and Wednesday, respectively.

In Monday's game against the Spartans, the Torrance, Calif., native was 5-of-10 from the field, including 4-of-7 from beyond the arc and was a perfect 9-of-9 from the line. He led all scorers with 23 points, grabbed three rebounds and led the squad with three steals.

In the second game he scored a game-high 24 points on 8-of-17 field goals, 6-of-13 three pointers and 2-of-2 from the line. He grabbed four boards, dished out two assists and had a steal. With his sixth and final three-pointer of the game, he became just the fifth player in program history to make at least 200 three pointers.

Schakel accounted for 29 percent of the team's offensive output for the two-game series (47-of-162 points). He made 10 of the team's 16 threes (62.5 percent) and 13 of its 55 field goals (23.6 percent) against San Jose State.

Schakel is the only player in the Mountain West to be named its Player of the Week (POW) twice this season. Along with Matt Mitchell, who was the first POW of the season, San Diego State is the only school to earn the honor three times this year.

SCHAKEL NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK

San Diego State's Jordan Schakel has been named the Mountain West Conference's Player of the Week for the week ending on Dec. 13.

Schakel scored 25 points, grabbed six rebounds and had two steals in the Aztecs' lone game of the week, an 80-68 victory over No. 23/23 Arizona State at Desert Financial Arena in Tempe, Ariz. With the victory San Diego State improves its record to 5-0 this year and 35-2 since the start of the 2019-20 season.

The Torrance, Calif., native was 9-of-15 from the floor (.600), including 5-of-9 from beyond the three-point line (.556) and knocked down both his free throw attempts.

His 25 points were a game and career-high for the 6-6 guard, and his five threes equaled his career best.

Schakel drew an offensive foul on preseason All-American guard Remy Martin in then games second possession, and then started his offensive barrage.

In just over two minutes, from 18:08-to-15:57 in the first half, he grabbed an offensive rebound and turned it into his first three pointer and then did it again 30 seconds later for his second trey. He had a steal and knocked down a pair of free throws to stake the Aztecs to an early 12-2 lead. Arizona State battled back to take a 32-31 lead, but with 1:22 to go before halftime, Schakel grabbed a defensive board, went coast-to-coast, and scored on a layup to put the Aztecs back in front, a lead which it took into the intermission.

Coming out of the locker room, the teams played a back and forth game for the first five minutes of the second half. At the 15 minute mark, the Sun Devils led 43-42, but then Schakel erupted.

In the next 3:40 he knocked down three treys and a jumper in the paint to help turn a one-point deficit into a 12-point lead, 57-45 with 11:20 to go. From the there, Arizona State was never able to cut the Aztecs lead to single digits. Schakel scored two more buckets down the stretch, including the team final two points, in the 12 point victory.

This is the first Mountain West weekly award of Schakel's career and the second for an Aztec, in the three weeks of the season.

MITCHELL NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior forward Matt Mitchell was named the Mountain West Conference's Player of the Week for the week ending on Nov. 29. In sweeping both games last week, 73-58 over No. 22 UCLA and 77-58 versus UC Irvine, Mitchell averaged 13.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 steals to help improve the Aztecs record to 2-0 this year and 32-2 in its last 34 games.

Against UCLA, he was one of the team leaders with 15 points. He knocked down three triples, and added two rebounds, two assists and two steals. It was the 44th time in his career he made multiple three pointers in a game, and the 15th time since the start of last season (33 games at the time). The game was the 100th of Mitchell's Aztec career, and he became the 33rd player in program history to reach the milestone.

Versus UC Irvine, the Riverside, Calif., native, finished with 11 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals. He scored six points in the first half, as the Aztecs pried open a nine-point advantage at halftime en route to a 77-58 victory.

For the week, Mitchell shot .391 from the floor (9-of-23), .364 from distance (4-of-11) and knocked down 4-of-5 from the line. After two games, he leads the Aztecs in scoring, steals (4), is second in assists (4) and fourth in rebounds (6).

This is the first Mountain West weekly award of the season, the first for an Aztec this season, and the first of Mitchell's career.

REWIND, THE 2019-20 SEASON

- San Diego State is coming off a magical season that saw the Aztecs win their first 26 games of the season en route to a 30-2 record, a Mountain West Conference regular season title (record 12th league crown) and a climb to No. 4 in the Associated Press poll for five weeks before ending the campaign at No. 6. SDSU was the only team in the nation not to lose a road game in 2019-20, finishing the year 11-0 away from Viejas Arena.
- The USA Today National Coach of the Year last year, Brian Dutcher begins his fourth season at the helm of the San Diego State men's basketball program. He has an overall record of 85-30 in three-plus seasons and has led SDSU to the conference championship game in each of his three seasons. In 2018, he was the only first-year coach to lead his team to the NCAA tournament and in 96 previous seasons of Aztec basketball, no head coach had won more games and/or won a conference title in his first year until Dutcher accomplished the feat. In addition, Dutcher is the first Aztecs' men's basketball coach to win 20+ games in each of his first three seasons.
- Dutcher welcomes back three returning starters in seniors forward Matt Mitchell (12.2 pts., 4.8 rebs., 1.7 asst. in 2019-20) and guard Jordan Schakel (10.0 pts., 3.4 rebs, 43.6 percent three-point shooting) and junior forward Nathan Mensah (6.9 pts., 6.8 rebs., 1.6 blks.). Mitchell and Schakel played in all 32 games (Mitchell started the final 19 and Schakel started 31) with Mensah appearing 13 times, all starts, before injury prematurely ended his season.
- The Aztecs are picked to finish in first place in the preseason poll of the Mountain West media. SDSU has finished either first or second in the Mountain West preseason poll in each of the last seven years. It is also the 12th time in the last 16 seasons San Diego State has been picked first or second in the poll. All 12 times, additionally, have occurred in the last 16 years.

BRIAN DUTCHER

Head Coach
Fourth Season • 22nd Season Overall at SDSU • Minnesota, 1982

Brian Dutcher enters his fourth season as San Diego State head coach after three years in which he led the Aztecs to three Mountain West title games, its conference-record 11th and 12th Mountain West crowns and back to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2015. He is the only coach in the 99-year history of San Diego State men's basketball to win at least 20 games in each of his first three seasons at the helm of the program, and over the summer signed a contract extension which will keep him on The Mesa through the 2025-26 season.

In 2019-20 his squad ripped off a program-record 26 straight wins to open the season and peaked, for eight weeks, at a No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches top-25 polls, before finishing the regular season at No. 6. The Aztecs went 30-2 on the year, including 17-1 in Mountain West play and Dutcher earned USA Today National Coach of the Year, Mountain West Coach of the Year (in both the coaches and media polls), National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Division I District 17 Coach of the Year and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District IX Coach of the Year. In addition, he was one of five finalists for the 2020 Werner Ladder Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year Award.

In program history, his team's 30 wins in 2019-20 are the third most in a season and its two defeats are the fewest. SDSU's 17 wins in conference play are the most in program history, and its one loss is the fewest in the Aztecs' Division I era and equals the fewest since 1926-27, when it moved from junior college competition to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). San Diego State opened the 2019-20 league slate with a 15-game winning streak which set a new Mountain West record.

Led by junior guard and consensus All-American Malachi Flynn, the team won the Continental Tires Las Vegas Invitational with a blow out victory over Creighton and a 16-point comeback win against Iowa in the championship game. A month later, the Aztecs handed Utah a 28-point drubbing in the Basketball Hall of Fame Classic three days after the Utes defeated then No. 6 Kentucky.

In addition to Flynn, forwards Matt Mitchell and Yanni Wetzell and guard KJ Feagin, were recognized by the MW in its postseason awards as well as numerous national outlets.

With the expected return for the postseason of forward Nathan Mensah, who had been sidelined for the final 19 games of the year, San Diego State was poised for a deep run in the NCAA Tournament. The Aztecs were projected to be either a No. 1 or No. 2 seed and some felt were a Final Four team, but the coronavirus pandemic put an end to the postseason and fans were left to wonder what could have been.

In 2017-18, his inaugural season as Aztecs head coach, Dutcher was the only Division I head coach to guide his team to the NCAA Tournament after going 22-10 in the regular season, including winning the 2018 Mountain West Tournament championship.

Dutcher, who took the helm of the program following Steve Fisher's retirement announcement on April 11, 2017, was on The Mesa for all 18 of Fisher's seasons. He held the title of associate head coach/head coach in waiting for the six years prior to his ascension to the top job and is the 15th head coach in the program's history.

Over the course of his 21 years at San Diego State, Dutcher has helped the Aztecs reach the postseason 14 times, including nine trips to the NCAA tournament, win a conference-best 12 Mountain West titles and record 15 seasons of at least 20 victories.

Since 2008-09, Dutcher and SDSU twice advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 (2011, 2014) and NIT semifinal round (2009, 2016), won at least 25 games eight times and captured nine MW championships (six regular season, three tournament).

Dutcher arrived at San Diego State shortly after Fisher was hired on March 26, 1999. In his first year in "America's Finest City," the Aztecs won only five games, but improved upon their win total from the season before. After that, San Diego State posted a 14-14 record in 2000-01, before winning the 2002 MW Championship, earning an NCAA tournament bid, and finishing with a 21-12 record. The 2002-03 campaign saw SDSU receive an NIT invitation, which culminated in the program's first Division I postseason victory.

After helping attract the program's first McDonald's All-American to the 2002-03 squad, Dutcher assisted in securing the signatures of future starters and all-league performers Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter. The duo started their first two seasons on The Mesa, leading to the 2005-06 campaign that produced the school's first MW regular-season and tournament title sweep.

The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA tournament and ultimately won a then-school-record 24 games. That appearance led to a string of 10 consecutive postseason berths.

From the 2006-07 campaign through 2008-09, San Diego State registered 20 or more wins and went to three straight NITs. In 2009, the Aztecs advanced to the NIT semifinals and broke the previous school record with 26 victories. That run to the 2009 NIT semifinals was a springboard to the most successful run in SDSU basketball history. Led by future NBA first-round draft pick and two-time NBA champion Kawhi Leonard, the 2009-10 Aztecs won the MW Championship, advanced to the NCAA tournament and fell four points shy of moving on to the second round before finishing with a 25-9 record.

The NCAA experience from the 2009-10 squad proved fruitful in 2010-11, when it returned all five starters, including Leonard, and freshman Jamaal Franklin, who would turn out to be a future MW Player of the Year and NBA draft selection. With Dutcher on staff, SDSU won its first 20 games of the year, shared the MW regular-season title, and captured the MW tournament crown. The Aztecs moved on to the NCAA tournament as a No. 2 seed and won the program's first Division I NCAA tournament game. San Diego State, which was ranked as high as No. 4 and received first-place votes at one point in the season, advanced to the Sweet 16 and fell to the eventual national champion, finishing with a school-record 34 wins, a mark that still stands today. The Aztecs' also found themselves in the final top-25 polls, ranking sixth in the AP and 11th in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Five months after SDSU's record-setting 2010-11 campaign, the University elevated Dutcher to associate head coach/head coach in waiting.

In his first season with his new title, Dutcher and the Aztecs advanced to the 2012 NCAA tournament as an at-large team and recorded 26 wins. The next season, San Diego State was again an at-large selection to the NCAA tournament, moved on to the round of 32 for the second time in three years and finished with 23 victories.

Another NCAA Sweet 16 run was in the cards in Dutcher's third season as the head coach in waiting. The Aztecs opened the campaign by winning 21 of their first 22 games, including 20 in a row at one point, and were led by seniors Xavier Thames, who would become an NBA draft pick, and Josh Davis. SDSU won the program's second outright Mountain West regular-season title and later swept through two games in Spokane, Washington, to secure its second Sweet 16 appearance in four seasons. San Diego State compiled 31 wins and finished the season ranked 13th in the AP and 12th in the Coaches after rising to as high as fifth nationally in both polls.

The 2014-15 campaign saw the Aztecs spend their fifth straight season in the top 25. In the process of winning 27 games, San Diego State grabbed its second straight MW regular-season crown and earned an at-large invitation to the NCAA tournament where they defeated St. John's in the round of 64. One season later, the Aztecs found themselves in the NIT after winning the MW by three games with a 16-2 record. Nevertheless, San Diego State won three games and qualified for the NIT national semifinals, eventually logging 28 victories.

SDSU completed the 2016-17 slate with a 19-14 record despite experiencing a rash of injuries. The 2016 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic champions entered 2017-18 as one of 12 teams to have won at least 19 games in 12 consecutive seasons, which was a sign of things to come in Dutcher's first year.

Dutcher's first roster as head coach featured a pair of seniors that had won multiple Mountain West titles and owned NCAA tournament experience in Trey Kell and Malik Pope.

Prior to coming to SDSU, Dutcher spent 10 seasons on Steve Fisher's bench at Michigan, where the program reached the postseason each year and participated in the NCAA Tournament eight times, including three trips to the Final Four and the championship game including a national championship in 1989.

GAME 1
San Diego State 73
No. 22/21 UCLA 58

Nov. 25, 2020 | San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena | Att: 0

SAN DIEGO — Mick Cronin might not be so eager to bring UCLA back to San Diego State anytime soon after his short-handed Bruins were given a rude welcome by the deep, disruptive Aztecs coached by old friend Brian Dutcher.

Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel scored 15 points apiece and SDSU used a suffocating defense and 3-point shots to humble 22nd-ranked UCLA 73-58 on Wednesday night in the season opener for both teams.

Mitchell and Schakel hit 3s early in the second half to open a 40-28 lead and the Aztecs dominated the rest of the way at empty Viejas Arena. Aguek Arop and Terrell Gomez scored 10 points each for San Diego State, which was 30-2 last season and expecting its highest seed ever in the NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic.

UCLA, which played on SDSU's home court for the first time since December 1991, was without key players Jalen Hill and transfer Johnny Juzang. Chris Smith, the Bruins' only senior, committed his fourth foul midway through the second half and came out — and then fouled out with 4:47 to go. He scored 10 points, none after halftime.

Jaime Jacquez Jr. had 17 points for UCLA, and Cody Riley added 14 points and 12 rebounds.

The game was part of a multi-team event that also includes Pepperdine and UC Irvine. UCLA and SDSU had been scheduled to play in a bubble in Orlando, but it fell apart. Longtime pals Dutcher and Cronin quickly put together this event.

Mitchell and Schakel each hit three 3-pointers, and the Aztecs, picked to repeat as Mountain West Conference regular-season champions, went 9 of 23 from behind the arc.

The Bruins, who went 19-12 last year and were picked to win the Pac-12 this season, played well for the first eight minutes before SDSU's defense began to take its toll.

Mitchell hit a jumper to start an 8-0 run midway through the first half that gave the Aztecs a 23-19 lead. Joshua Tomiac made a jumper and fellow senior transfer Gomez hit two free throws before Nathan Mensah sank a baseline jumper.

UCLA ended a six-minute drought when Smith made a one-handed jumper.

Jacquez made a layup to pull the Bruins to 30-28 and was fouled, but missed the free throw. Arop hit a layup and two free throws in the final minute for a 34-28 halftime lead.

QUOTABLE

"I just think we have great depth," Dutcher said. "We used a lot of guys, 10 guys, and we don't drop off much. This might be as deep a team as we've ever had. UCLA was short-handed. They were missing two players, potentially two starters, so I just think we wore them down. We picked them up full court the entire game and I think we just wore them down to the point where maybe they were on tired legs by the end of the game."

GAME 2
San Diego State 77
UC Irvine 58

Nov. 27, 2020 | San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — Keshad Johnson came off the bench to tally 14 points to carry San Diego State to a 77-58 win over UC Irvine on Friday.

Johnson scored 13 of his career-high 14 points in the second half on three 3-ptrs, also a career-best, a pair of free throws and a thunderous dunk. In addition to his point output the native of Oakland, Calif., had four rebounds and a steal.

After defeating No. 22/21 UCLA 73-58 two nights earlier, the Aztecs took a little time to get going against the Anteaters.

UC Irvine led by as many as three points four times in the first 17 minutes and San Diego State didn't get more than a one-point advantage until a Trey Pulliam three with 2:55 to play in the half. The hoop sparked a 9-0 run and sent the teams to the intermission with SDSU up 34-25.

Matt Mitchell scored seven of his 11 points in the game, in the first 20 minutes for San Diego State (2-0). Pulliam also finished the half with seven points. Aguek Arop added seven rebounds.

Returning to the floor after the break, the Aztecs pushed the lead to double digits in the first two minutes of the second half and never looked back. Within seven minute the lead was up to 25 and the game was completed with SDSU ahead by 19 points.

The third stingiest defense last season, allowing just 59.5 points per game, has picked up right where it left off giving up 58 points in each of its first two game.

Jordan Schakel scored only 3 points despite coming into the contest as the Aztecs' second leading scorer at 15.0 points per game. He shot 20% from behind the arc (1 of 5).

Brad Greene had 11 points and three assists for the Anteaters (0-2). Dawson Baker added 10 points. Collin Welp had 10 points.

GAME 3
San Diego State 83
St. Katherine 41

Dec. 2, 2020 | San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — San Diego State's recorded its third straight victory to open the 2020-21 season on Wednesday night defeating the University of St. Katherine Firebirds, 83-41, at Steve Fisher Court at Viejas Arena.

SDSU had four players in double-digits, led by Jordan Schakel, who posted game-highs of 16 points and four steals, while Terrell Gomez followed closely with 13 points, including 3-for-5 clip from beyond the arc. Gomez has 300 three-pointers for his career, which ranks second in the nation among active players.

Freshman Keith Dinwiddie Jr. finished with a career-high 12 points on four threes of his own and Matt Mitchell reached double figures for the 59th time in a Scarlet and Black uniform with 10 points.

SDSU outscored the undersized Firebirds by 16 points in the paint (26-10) as well as 11 points on the fast-break (15-4) to help key the victory. In addition, the Aztecs tallied 26 points off 17 Firebirds turnovers and maintained a 40-35 edge in rebounds, including a 36-27 edge on the defensive glass. The Aztecs bench finished with 29 points, marking the third time in as many games this season the bench has scored more than 20 points in a game.

Individually, Nathan Mensah led all players with seven rebounds, while Joshua Tomaic added six boards in the win.

Both SDSU and USK got off to a sluggish start, shooting a combined 13.3 percent from the floor (2-15) during the first four minutes and change, with each side making just one field goal.

After a pair of Mitchell free throws, the Firebirds (1-0) hit consecutive threes and forged their biggest lead of the game at 8-4. Shortly thereafter, Dinwiddie answered with the first of his four buckets, while Keshad Johnson followed with a dunk to put San Diego State on top 9-8.

The Firebirds moved back in front 11-9, at the 12:51 mark of the half, on a three pointer and less than a minute later, Johnson converted an old-fashioned three-point play, sparking the Aztecs' 39-2 outburst

Katherine was held to just five more points in the half, and the Aztecs held a 48-16 advantage at intermission.

SDSU continued to pad its lead in the second half, fashioning its biggest advantage of the evening at 79-30 after a three-pointer by Mitchell with 6:42 remaining.

TEMPE, Ariz. - San Diego State was so worried about Arizona State's fast break, it sent three players back on defense after every miss, leaving its two big men to work the offensive glass.

Two against five turned out to be pretty good odds for the hard-working Aztecs.

Jordan Schakel scored 25 points, Nathan Mensah had 17 points and 15 rebounds, and No. 24 San Diego State dominated inside to beat No. 23 Arizona State 80-68 Thursday night.

"We sent the center and the power forward to the offensive glass and those guys did a great job on their own," Aztecs coach Brian Dutcher said. "It was a real key to the game."

The Sun Devils (3-2) got volume-scoring guard Alonzo Verge Jr. back after he missed two games during to COVID-19 contact tracing but were without forward Marcus Bagley due to a lower left leg injury suffered Saturday against Cal.

San Diego State (5-0) already had a size advantage inside, and Bagley's absence turned it into an even bigger strength.

The Aztecs outscored Arizona State 36-9 in the paint and had 17 second-chance points on 11 offensive rebounds against the smaller Sun Devils. San Diego State pulled away with an 18-2 run in the second half to stretch the nation's longest road winning streak to 13 straight games.

"It was probably our closest to a complete game," said Schakel, who shot 5 of 9 from 3. "We still have a long way to go, but it was nice to put that kind of game together this early in the season."

The Sun Devils were pushed to the perimeter most of the night by the bigger Aztecs and, despite a couple of nice runs, didn't make enough outside shots. Arizona State shot 34% and missed 11 straight shots during a key stretch in the second half.

"Do we really care about how hard we've got to play? Do we know how hard we've got to play to beat a team like that?" Arizona State coach Bobby Hurley said. "There were a lot of examples of that tonight."

San Diego State took advantage, scoring 12 points off six offensive rebounds midway through the first half. The 6-10 Mensah had his way inside with 10 points and 10 rebounds in the first half to give the Aztecs a 35-33 lead.

Arizona State missed 11 of its first 15 shots before finding a better offensive rhythm and cleaned up the defensive glass better to rally from an early 12-point deficit.

The Sun Devils struggled against San Diego State's defensive pressure early in the second half and began turning the ball over, leading to a series of transition baskets during a 13-0 Aztecs run.

Arizona State had a stretch of eight minutes without a field goal as San Diego State extended the lead to 59-45.

GAME 6
Brigham Young 72
San Diego State 62

Dec. 18, 2020 | San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena | Att.:

SAN DIEGO – In a normal visit to San Diego State, the BYU Cougars would have to face a trash-talking student section and a sellout crowd of 12,414 at Viejas Arena.

Not this time. Because of COVID-19, Viejas Arena was empty Friday, which allowed the Cougars to focus strictly on the No. 18 Aztecs.

Alex Barcello scored 22 points and Brandon Averette hit a huge 3-pointer with 51 seconds left for BYU, which blew a 17-point lead before beating San Diego State 72-62 despite Matt Mitchell's career-high 35 points.

Playing in the empty arena, without the taunts of The Show, made a huge difference for the Cougars, who are still reviled even though the teams haven't been in the same conference for a decade.

BYU used its size advantage and effective offense to take a 35-20 halftime lead before hanging on in the second half.

Mitchell was remarkable in scoring 26 points in the second half. He spurred a 14-0 run with three 3-pointers and then had a steal and dunk that tied it 61.

But BYU (7-2) regained control and handed San Diego State (5-1) its first loss. The Aztecs won their first 26 games last season and were the nation's last undefeated team en route to a 30-2 record.

After Matt Haarms made a baseline jumper for a 63-61 BYU lead, Mitchell made one of two free throws. Averette then hit a 3 from straight on to put BYU up 66-62 with 51 seconds left.

"We've been doing this so long that can't you just picture that 3?" Pope said. "We beat them without The Show in here, and I don't know if we'd beat them with the Show in here. It's just different. But can't you just hear the gym? Like they're coming back, people are tearing their clothes off and going crazy and on fire. And then Brandon Averette bangs that 3 and the place goes deathly silent.

"That's how it felt when he shot it. In my mind, going live, that's how it felt for him to step up and make that big shot. There were so many huge plays but that's the fun one to talk about."

Barcello made four free throws in the last 35 seconds, sandwiched around a missed 3 by Mitchell, and Connor Harding made two free throws for the Cougars, who had a 40-26 rebounding edge.

Haarms and Averette scored 10 points apiece.

Mitchell said BYU's defense "was fanned out a little bit and gave me space to work, gave me room to get to the basket, get to my spots. Some of my teammates couldn't make shots and I felt like there was a lid on the rim so I got a little more aggressive and shots started falling."

Jordan Schakel had only three points on 1-of-9 shooting after scoring a career-high 25 points in an 80-68 win at Arizona State on Dec. 10.

BYU's biggest lead was 35-18 late in the first half before Mitchell made two free throws to make it 35-20 at halftime. SDSU shot just 25 percent and had eight turnovers in the first 20 minutes. Schakel had no points and missed his only two shots.

BIG PICTURE

San Diego State: Wins its third consecutive Mountain West Conference game and sets up an early season showdown at Utah State (9-3 overall' 6-0 Mountain West) on Thursday and Saturday.

Nevada: Played two very good games at Viejas Arena this week but came a way with a pair of narrow losses (65-60 on Thursday and 69-67 on Saturday). The Wolf Pack has now lost nine consecutive games at San Diego State dating back to Nov. 14, 1998.

THEY SAID IT

"I just know I had four seconds on the clock. Coach is always talking to us about how many dribbles you can have in the amount of time you have (left), so I had four seconds and four dribbles. I just tried to get it down and get it up on the rim. I knew if I missed, Nate (Mensah) or Matt (Mitchell) would come to try and clean it up, so I just tried to get a shot off." - SDSU senior guard Trey Pulliam.

"To be honest with you, I was trying to take a timeout. Basketball is a game of momentum and sometimes, you can draw something up and it's not as good as what you got (in the moment). I do not mind taking it out and just going up the floor. We have done that for years, dating back to DJ Gay and the Colorado State game [Feb. 2, 2011]. (With) the current state of the game, (it is about) just trusting in your players. I had no problem, they got it out. I just wanted to make sure we attacked to the basket. and Trey did. He attacked hard to the basket and he made a really a clutch game-winning shot to get us a victory tonight." - SDSU head coach Brian Dutcher.

Utah State 57
San Diego State 45

Jan. 14, 2021 | Logan, Utah
Dee Glen Smith Spectrum | Att.: 1,585

LOGAN, Utah - San Diego State suffered its worst shooting night of the 2020-21 season, hitting just 17-of-51 shots (31.5 percent), and watched its Division I leading 13-game road winning streak come to an end in a 57-45 loss at Utah State on Thursday evening.

Junior forward Nathan Mensah was one of the bright spots going 6-of-9 from the floor and totaling 13 points to lead the Aztecs. It was the fourth consecutive game in double figures and sixth of the season for the Accra, Ghana native. He also added nine rebounds, three steals, two blocks and an assist.

The only other player in double figures for San Diego State was senior forward Matt Mitchell, who finished with 10 points, two assist and two rebounds. Mitchell has reached double-digit scoring in each of the teams 12 games.

The Aztecs (9-3, 3-2 Mountain West) were limited to 20 points in the first half, the third game this year they have reached that total in the first 20 minutes. On the previous two occasions they came out in the second half and totaled 45 against Pepperdine, in a 65-60 win, and had 42 points against BYU, but lost 62-72. Against Utah State (10-3, 7-3 MW) they outscored the Aggies in the second half, totaling 25 points, couldn't overcome its tough shooting night.

San Diego State had a 5-2 lead on the three pointer from senior guard Trey Pulliam two minutes into the game and was up 7-4 after a Mensah bucket with 16:59 to play in the half, but 11 turnovers in the first 20 minutes combined with the Aggies shooting 14-of-29 (48.3 percent) gave Utah State to a 33-20 halftime advantage.

In the second half, San Diego State cut the lead to five points on two occasions, but could get no closer in the 12-point loss. Both teams set season lows for scoring in the second half. Utah State totaled 24 points in the second half, the lowest of the season for the hosts, while the 25 points in the second half for San Diego State marked the fewest of the season for the road team.

For Utah State, Neemias Queta tallied 14 points and 16 rebounds to lead the Aggies to their ninth consecutive victory. Brock Miller led all scorers with 16 points.

The teams have little time to prepare for game two of this series. The tip off is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. PT on Saturday and will be broadcast on CBS.

Dee Glen Smith Spectrum | Att.: 1,638

LOGAN, Utah - The San Diego State men's basketball team took a 10-point lead into the second half at Utah State on Saturday afternoon, but saw Aggies go to the free throw line 20 times in the second half, knocked down 17 attempts, and were able to erase the Aztecs lead and earn a 64-59 win in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

It was the second consecutive loss for SDSU, which had not suffered back-to-back defeats in its last 48 games dating back to March 6 & 9, 2019. Before being snapped the streak was tied for the third longest in Division I.

Senior Terrell Gomez led SDSU with 16 points and freshman Lamont Butler finished with a season-high 13 points. Add senior guard Jordan Schakel's 11 points to the 29 from Gomez and Butler, and the threesome totaled 67.7 percent of the team scoring (40-of-59 points).

GAME 19
San Diego State 77
San Jose State 55

Feb. 10, 2021 | San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO - Jordan Schakel scored a game-high 24 points and San Diego State used an 18-3 run in the second half to ease away from San Jose State to roll to a 77-55 victory on Wednesday night in a Mountain West Conference game.

Terrell Gomez had 13 points and Lamont Butler added 11 for San Diego State (15-4, 9-3 Mountain West Conference), which earned its sixth consecutive victory by at least 22 points. Matt Mitchell, returning after missing the first game of the series, had seven points, a team-leading seven rebounds, and three assists.

Schakel scored the first bucket of the game, a three pointer, and after a steal and being fouled, he knocked down a pair of free throws to stake the Aztecs to an early 7-2 lead. However, the early success of the offense did not lead to an early blowout.

San Jose State tied the game at 7-7 with 15:50 to go and again at 14-14 and 17-17 with slightly more than nine minutes left in the half. Down the stretch, the Aztecs were able to pry open the lead to nine points, 33-24 before taking a 33-27 advantage into the intermission.

"(San Jose State) played very well in the first half," San Diego State men's head basketball coach Brian Dutcher said. "They jumped it up and kept us off balance. We could not find a rhythm offensively because they were mixing man (defense), calling a 1-3-1 zone, but really dropping into a 2-3 zone and just (kept doing things) to try to get us out of rhythm."

In the second half, the SDSU offense came alive. The team shot 42.5 percent (17-of-40), including hitting seven three-pointers, and out scored the Spartans 44-28 to earn the 77-55 victory, its sixth in a row and the longest winning streak this season for the Aztecs.

San Diego State owned the offensive glass 14-to-3, and used that advantage to outscore SJSU 17-0 in second change points. In addition the Aztecs dominated points in the paint 34-to-8.

Trey Smith scored a career-high 22 points and had eight rebounds for the Spartans (5-13, 3-11). Sebastian Mendoza added 14 points and seven rebounds. Ralph Agee had seven rebounds. Jalen Dalcourt, the Spartans' second leading scorer coming into the contest at 12 points per game, had only three points. He hit 14% from behind the arc (1 of 7).

GAME 20
San Diego State 67
Fresno State 53

Feb. 18, 2021 | Fresno, Calif.
Save Mart Center | Att.: 0

FRESNO, Calif. - Nothing was falling early for No. 25 San Diego State against Fresno State, including a layup that Trey Pulliam whiffed on in the opening minute.

"That first layup was like, 'Holy smokes, it's going to be one of those nights?' " Aztecs coach Brian Dutcher said.

Not to worry. Matt Mitchell scored 19 points and Pulliam matched his career high with 18 for San Diego State, which used a 19-0 run to take control in the first half and beat Fresno State 67-53 Thursday night for its seventh straight win.

Jordan Schakel had 13 for the Aztecs (16-4, 10-3 Mountain West), who recovered from a ragged start and an 11-0 deficit by clamping down on defense and forcing Fresno State to go cold for eight minutes.

"That's the beauty of our team," Dutcher added. "We don't need one guy to put up his numbers every night for us to win. ... We have a lot of pieces on this team. It was Trey's night tonight and I hope it is again next game. But if it's not, I know we have enough offensive pieces to make it successful."

Said Pulliam: ""If I have an open shot, I take it. My confidence was there so I just took it. I had it going, so that's really what it was."

The 14-point margin was the narrowest in the win streak by SDSU. Four of the Aztecs' previous six wins had been by at least 30 points.

Orlando Robinson had 17 points and 13 rebounds and Isaiah Hill 11 points for Fresno State (9-8, 6-8).

San Diego State missed its first six shots and allowed Fresno State to take an 11-0 lead, including getting two 3-pointers from Hill and one from Robinson.

The Bulldogs then went cold for eight minutes and SDSU took off on a 19-0 run. The Aztecs took the lead for good at 13-11 on Mitchell's steal and layup 10:22 into the game. They ran the lead to 19-11 on Terrell Gomez's jumper before Fresno State finally broke its drought with a jumper by Christian Gray with 7:34 to go.

SDSU closed on a 32-9 spurt to lead 32-20 at halftime.

"They picked up the pressure and we didn't respond on the offensive end," said Fresno State coach Justin Hutson, a former assistant at SDSU. "When they picked up the pressure on us on the defensive end, up 11-nothing — like good teams do — we didn't respond and play with a purpose. We didn't cut hard, we didn't drive hard and more importantly we didn't make the extra pass."

Pulliam scored 12 points in the second half, including two 3-pointers in the first few minutes.

BIG PICTURE

SDSU: The Aztecs were back in The Associated Press Top 25 for the first time in two months. It took them a few minutes to look like a ranked team, and then keyed their comeback with clampdown defense.

GAME 21
San Diego State 75
Fresno State 57

Feb. 20, 2021 | Fresno, Calif.
Save Mart Center | Att.: 0

FRESNO, Calif. - San Diego State has gone on a tear since losing consecutive games at Utah State in mid-January.

The Aztecs knew they had to in order to save their season.

Jordan Schakel scored 14 points — 12 on 3-pointers in the first half — and No. 25 San Diego State beat Fresno State 75-57 Saturday night for its eighth straight victory.

Matt Mitchell and Terrell Gomez had 13 points apiece for the Aztecs (17-4, 11-3 Mountain West), whose tight defense frustrated the Bulldogs most of the night.

"I think everyone on this team, especially the more veteran guys, we knew every game after Utah State was a must win, and it still is," Schakel said. "Two games left in the regular season, and after that it's lose or you go home. That's really a must win. We knew we had to go on a run like that."

The Aztecs, who are the defending regular-season MWC champions, host first-place Boise State in a big two-game series Thursday and Saturday. The Aztecs are still waiting to find out if a series against UNLV that was postponed earlier this season will be played in the week before the conference tournament.

The Aztecs are tied for second with Colorado State and are even with Boise State in the loss column. The Aztecs were 3-3 and tied for fifth place on Jan. 19.

"I told them before the game, we're wired the right way," Dutcher said. "We're wired hard. It's not easy winning on the road but we're wired because of the way we practice and the way we prepare, that we're ready for these moments."

Schakel was 5 for 5 from the field, including 4 for 4 on 3-pointers. Gomez was 3 for 3 from behind the arc. SDSU was 8 for 12 on 3-pointers and shot 61% overall from the floor.

Deon Stroud scored 17 and Orlando Robinson 16 for Fresno State (9-9, 7-9).

San Diego State opened with a 9-0 run and notched another dominating win in its streak. Its average margin of victory in the eight games is 26.4 points.

The Aztecs' defense was particularly impressive in the second half. Schakel had a steal and layup for a 52-34 lead and Mitchell later had a steal and layup for a 57-36 lead.

Keshad Johnson had two impressive slam dunks in the second half.

"I thought our fight was still there," Bulldogs coach Justin Hutson said. "Now, it's not always consistent. I thought we generated better shots. They just didn't go in. But our transition defense was horrendous. I think that usually comes from young guys missing shots. Got to be a little bit more mature and get back to the top."
