Aztec Team Notes

- Anna Toohey (Jr., F, Winston-Salem, N.C.) was named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending on March 28. In a pair of home victories, 2-1 over Fresno State and 3-0 over San Jose State, Toohey produced seven shots, put all on frame, scored two goals, the game winner in each contest, and added an assist. It is her first MW Player of the Week honor and the first for an Aztecs this season.
- San Diego State continues to reign at the top of the West Division table with its 6-1-0 record after wins last week on the Sports Deck against Fresno State and San Jose State by scores of 2-1 and 3-0, respectively.
- San Diego State's 6-1-0 start is its best since a 7-0-0 run to open the 2012 season (also: the Aztecs started the 1996 & 1998 seasons 6-1-0). The 2012 team finished the season 21-2-1 and reached the Sweet 16 in the NCAA tournament.
- With three games left in the regular season, four of the six teams in the West Division are still in the running to participate in the conference's championship match. The Aztecs control their own destiny and with two wins will wrap up the division's top spot. With one win, SDSU eliminates Fresno State. A San Diego State win at UNLV will eliminate the Rebels and a win at Boise State eliminates the Broncos.
- If the two teams who finish at the tip of each division have the same record, there are three tie breaking scenarios to determine which will host the Mountain West championship game:
 1. Comparison of goal differentials within divisional matches.
 2. Comparison of goals scored within divisional matches.
 3. Comparison of the win-loss records against other divisional opponents in descending order beginning at the top of the standings.
- In the now 33 seasons of Aztec women's soccer, San Diego State has started a season with at least six wins in its first seven games five times. In 1996, 1998, 1999 and now 2021 the program has opened the campaign 6-1 and in 2012 the Aztecs got off to a 7-0 start. In all the previous years the team has at least six wins in its first seven games, except in 1996, SDSU earned all or part of its conference championship and advanced to the NCAA tournament.
- Since the 2021 Spring schedule consists of only Mountain West contests, the Aztecs 6-1-0 record is an impressive start to league play. In the now 22 years of the Mountain West, San Diego State has opened conference play with at least six wins in its first seven games four times, including in 2012, when the side was 7-0-0 to start league play. The three years in which SDSU has had six wins in its first seven MW games are 2013, 2015 and now 2021.

- After a week in which it outscored its opponents 5-1, San Diego State is now No. 9 in the nation in points per game (7.71), No. 10 in scoring offense (2.71 goals per game), and No. 11 in shots per game (17.43). - SDSU leads the Mountain West in total goals (19) and total points (54) which rank No. 54 & No. 55 in the nation, respectively.
- San Diego State's 19 goals through its first seven games are the most since the 1999 team scored 18 times in its first seven outings. The most goals in an Aztec team's first seven games came in the program's inaugural season of 1989 when that team totaled 22 goals in its first seven games and the 1996 iteration of the Aztecs scored 21 goals in its first seven contests.

General Notes

- In its game at San Jose State (3/12), the Aztecs totaled 6 goals. They were the most tallies in a game by an SDSU team since the team put up 5 goals in a 5-4 victory at Air Force on Oct. 19, 2019. The five-goal margin of victory (6-1) is the largest since a 5-0 victory over Air Force on Oct. 22, 2018.
- San Diego State's 6 goal total at San Jose State equals the highest in a road contest in program history (since the 1989 season). It matches the 6 goals scored at Fresno State in a 6-0 win on Sept. 2, 1996 and a 6-0 win at Wyoming on Oct. 10, 1999. The 6 goals are tied for the third most in a game (regardless of location) for a San Diego State team. The most goals in a game came in a 10-0 win at La Verne (9/25/98) in the third contest in program history.
- In a one-time only scenario, the 2020 season will be contested in the Spring 2021 semester and will consist of Mountain West Conference games only. The 10-match conference-only schedule, in a divisional double round-robin format, will take place over a six-week period (March 5-April 11). Matches will be played on Friday and Sunday. A single match will take place on Sat., April 17, at a campus site between the two division winners to determine the Conference automatic qualifier to the NCAA tournament.

- The Aztecs are in the West Division with Boise State, Fresno State, Nevada, San Jose State and UNLV. The Mountain Division includes Air Force, Colorado College, Colorado State, New Mexico, Utah State and Wyoming. There will be no regular season inter-divisional games.
- Head Coach Mike Friesen is in the midst of his 14th campaign leading the Mountain West's most dominant women's soccer program. Friesen has guided his squad to ten Mountain West championships (five tournament and five regular season), and five NCAA Tournament appearances. In 13+ seasons of conference play, Friesen has an 86-23-15 record. His 86 victories are the most by any current Mountain West head coach.
- Friesen's 156 victories (156-92-33) since the start of the 2007 season, the year he took control of the program, are the most by any coach in the Mountain West. Colorado College's Geoff Bennett ranks second on the list with 140 victories in the last 13+ seasons.
- San Diego State has picked to finish with a share of the conference crown in the MW coaches' preseason poll. This marks the tenth time in 11 seasons the Aztecs have been picked to finish in either first or second place. The only time SDSU was lower than second place in the preseason poll in the last 11 campaigns was last season, a year in which it was predicted to finish fourth. That team went 10-9-1, shared the Mountain West regular-season title at 8-3-0, and reached the championship game of the league tournament.
- Having won five of the last eight regular-season titles, SDSU found itself as the favorite in the eyes of the conference's head coaches for the seventh time in the last eight years.
- The Aztecs have won nine of the last 15 MW trophies (regular season and tournament), all of which have come under the direction of head coach Mike Friesen. In total, the 14th-year head coach has guided San Diego State to ten conference crowns.

Inside The Matchup With UNLV

This will be the 28th meeting between the Aztecs and Rebels with San Diego State holding a 17-9-2 advantage in the series, which started in 1998 and includes the Aztecs' 1-0 victory on March 20 on the Sports Deck... In games played at UNLV, the Aztecs are 6-5-1, but in the last six meetings in Las Vegas, the series has gone 4-1-1 to the Aztecs... In its six wins at UNLV, the Aztecs have outscored the Rebels 15-4 and in its five losses have been outscored 8-1, with seven of the 12 games played in Las Vegas ending up as one goal affairs and SDSU holding a 4-3 record in those contests... Aztecs head coach Mike Friesen is 10-4-2 against UNLV, including 4-2-1 on the road against the Rebels.

Notebook

The Rebels (4-2-1) enter the week in third place in the West Division and need to defeat San Diego State in order to keep its hopes of winning the division and possibly earning the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA tournament... After falling to the Aztecs 1-0 on March 20, UNLV has defeated its last two opponents (SJSU 3-0 & Fresno State 2-1 2OT)... The key to controlling UNLV's offense has been to mark Naliah Harping, who has a team leading five goals, four of which were scored in one weekend, including a hat trick at San Jose State (3/14)... Harping leads the side with five of its 11 total goals... Jaden Terrana has a team-best two assists... In goal Emberly Sevilla has played all 667:32 minutes for the Rebels... She has let in just five goals (0.67 GAA) and made 18 saves (.783 save percentage) and has a 4-2-1 record... UNLV is coached by Jenny Ruiz-Williams is in her first season leading her alma mater and has a 4-2-1 career record.
