AZTEC VOLLEYBALL TRAVELS TO UTAH STATE, BOISE STATE THIS WEEK

- > San Diego State wraps up its season-long road swing this week when it faces Utah State and Boise State in a pair of Mountain West encounters.
- > The Aztecs will lock horns with the Aggies in Logan, Utah, on Thursday, Oct. 6, beginning at 7 p.m. MT (6 p.m. PT) before traveling to the Gem State for a clash with the Broncos on Saturday, Oct. 8, starting at noon MT (11 a.m. PT).
- > Live stats and streaming video via the Mountain West Network will be available for this week's matches, and links to both platforms can be found on GoAztecs.com.
- > SDSU had its two-match winning streak snapped in a four-set defeat at UNLV on Oct. 1. Earlier last week, the Aztecs posted their first road sweep at Fresno State with a 3-0 blanking of the Bulldogs on Sept. 27.
- > With the split, San Diego State (4-11, 2-2 MW) enters the week in tie for fifth in the Mountain West standings, along with Utah State and Wyoming.
- > Aztec middle blocker Julia Haynie has hit .520 over the last two matches with 15 kills in 25 attempts with just two errors. With her performance the SDSU senior has moved into fifth place in the conference with a .352 clip for the season.
- > In addition, freshman libero McKenna Douglas has served up six aces in her last two outings and now ranks sixth in the MW with 0.37 aces per set.

SERIES RECORD VS. UTAH STATE

- > Despite dropping a pair matches to the Aggies last season, the Aztecs still lead the all-time series 18-9.
- > Overall, SDSU owns a 12-2 record against Utah State in San Diego, a 4-4 mark in Logan and a 2-3 ledger vs. the Aggies on a neutral floor.
- > The two teams last met on Oct. 28, 2021, when the Aztecs suffered a five-set heartbreaker at home (21-25, 25-18, 25-16, 21-25, 15-17).
- > Among SDSU returners, Heipua Tautua'a recorded a double-double in that match with 10 kills and 15 digs, while Julia Haynie hit .571 on nine put-aways in 14 swings with just one error.
- > Despite maintaining a 65-42 advantage in kills and posting 12 team blocks, USU countered with 16 stops of its own while benefiting from 31 attack errors and 14 wayward serves by the Aztecs.
- > SDSU was last victorious in Logan on Nov. 21, 2019, when it emerged with a four-set triumph (25-18, 29-27, 17-25, 25-20). The Aztecs did not travel to the Beehive State during the 2021 spring campaign that was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- > The Aggies will head to San Diego for the rematch between the two teams on Saturday, Nov. 5.

SERIES RECORD VS. BOISE STATE

- > The Broncos own a slim 11-10 advantage against the Aztecs in a series that dates back to 2005.
- > However, the Aztecs have defeated Boise State on the road in consecutive seasons for the first time ever after recording a 3-0 sweep (25-23, 25-20, 25-18) nearly a year ago to the date on Oct. 14, 2021.
- > In that contest, Heipua Tautua'a led SDSU's returning class with 11 kills, while Jordyn Goldsmith floored nine shots of her own and hit .467 for the night. In addition, setter Noa Miller dished out 22 assists.
- > The Broncos entered that match ranked fifth nationally with 188 total blocks, but SDSU was not intimidated, as the Scarlet and Black posted a .400 hitting percentage, marking its highest efficiency since a .410 performance in a home sweep of San Diego on Oct. 2, 2018.
- > Not to be outdone, the Aztecs maintained the statistical advantage in kills (55-32) and digs (34-23) to help spark their win.
- > SDSU will play host to Boise State for the rematch on Thursday, Nov. 3.

ON THE HORIZON

- > Following this week's matches, San Diego State will return to "America's Finest City" for a pair of encounters with Wyoming and Colorado State.
- > The Aztecs will square off against the Cowgirls on Thursday, Oct. 13 at 7 p.m. PT, before engaging the Rams on Saturday, Oct. 15 at 1 p.m.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

> Picked to finish second in the Mountain West preseason coaches poll, Utah State (10-5, 2-2 MW) split two matches on the road last week, sweeping Nevada (25-19, 25-21, 25-12) before dropping a four-set decision at San José State (25-23, 15-25, 22-25, 16-25). With the results, the Aggies find themselves in a tie for fifth place in the conference standings with the Aztecs and Wyoming. USU is 4-1 at home this season and a combined 6-4 in road/neutral matches. Offensively, USU is led by junior outside hitter Tatum Snell, who ranks 10th in the MW with 3.06 kills per set, while senior outside hitter Shelby Capllonch (2.48) and senior opposite Kylee Stokes (2.11) are averaging more than two put-aways per frame. In addition, middle blocker Kennedy Boyd finds herself among the conference leaders, ranking third in blocks (1.18) and sixth in hitting percentage (.336). Along the back row, Jordi Holdaway occupies the fifth spot in the MW with 3.64 digs per set, while setter Leah Wilton-LaBoy ranks ninth in assists (5.44/set). Capllonch and Holdaway have played at two other conference schools during their collegiate careers. Capllonch transferred from UNLV, while Holdaway competed at Boise State for two seasons before sitting out the 2021 fall campaign. As a team, the Aggies find themselves among the top half of the MW in several categories, including service aces (2nd, 1.82/set), assists (3rd, 12.33), kills (4th, 12.96/set) and blocks (4th, 2.22/set). On the national level, USU's 1.82 service aces per set ranks 42nd. The Aggies are under the guidance of third-year head coach Rob Neilson, who arrived on the Logan campus after serving as the lead assistant coach for the U.S. men's national team from 2017-19. Prior to his stint with Team USA, Neilson spent 10 years on the Brigham Young men's volleyball coaching staff, including the final two as the program's associate head coach in 2014-15. In 2011, he served as the Cougars' interim head coach, leading the squad to a 20-8 record and a No. 2 national ranking. Neilson played collegiately at BYU from 2003-06, starting at setter during the 2005 and 2006 campaigns. He was a member of the Cougars' 2004 national championship team and tallied 2,790 assists in his career, which ranks fifth in the BYU record book during the rally scoring era.

> Likewise, Boise State (11-4, 3-1 MW) split its two road matches last week, falling to San José State in four sets (25-16, 10-25, 21-25, 19-25) on Sept. 29, before rebounding with a 3-1 triumph at Nevada two days later (25-23, 25-23, 21-25, 13-25). Prior to the 2022 campaign, the Broncos and SJSU were both slotted third in the Mountain West preseason coaches poll. Boise State is 7-0 on its home floor this year and a combined 4-4 in road/neutral matches. Before locking horns with the Aztecs, the Broncos will entertain Fresno State on Thursday night. Individually, sophomore opposite hitter Paige Bartsch ranks 30th in the country with a conference-leading 4.14 kills per set, while senior outside hitter Lauren Ohlinger is slotted sixth in the MW with 3.45 put-aways per frame. Not to be outdone, junior middle blocker Chey Dey is perched atop the league and ranks 29th nationally with 1.35 blocks per set, while fellow classmate and middle Annie Kaminski occupies the third position in the MW with a .389 hitting percentage, which is also good for 30th in the country. In addition, senior libero Allison Casillas finds herself among the conference

SDSU IN MW RANKINGS

- > Entering the weekend, Julia Haynie ranks fifth in the conference with a .352 hitting percentage; McKenna Douglas ranks sixth in in services aces (0.37/set), while Elly Schraeder is slotted eighth in blocks (1.02/set).
- > Noa Miller's six service aces against UC San Diego on Aug. 27 is tied for the second-highest total in the Mountain West this season and marks the most by an SDSU player since Ashlynn Dunbar served up six of her own vs. Colorado State on Sept. 27, 2018. Dunbar also finished with seven service aces against CSU Bakersfield in the 2018 season opener.
- > Kayla Rivera's .647 hitting percentage (12-1-17) vs. Pepperdine on Sept. 3 is tied for the third-best efficiency in the conference this season.
- > Douglas' 26 digs vs. Nevada on Sept. 24 mark the fifth-best total in a four-set match this season in the league.
- > Elly Schraeder's nine overall blocks vs. Army West Point is tied for the fifth-best figure in the MW this year and represents the most by an SDSU competitor since Lexie Hamrick's 11 rejections against UTEP on Sept. 15, 2018.
- > Madison Corf's 22 kills vs. Nevada marks the fourth-highest total in a four-set match this season and is tied for the ninth-best figure in the conference overall.
- > Ellie Geoghegan's 16 digs at Pepperdine is tied for the fourth-best total in a four-set match this year.
- > Collectively, the Aztecs' 71 kills against Nevada is tied for the second-highest figure in the league this season.
- > In addition, SDSU's 14 team blocks vs. Army is tied for the sixth-best total in the conference.
- > The Aztecs posted the Mountain West's eighth-best hitting percentage this year with a .349 clip (42-13-83) in their 3-0 victory at Fresno State.
- > SDSU's 48 kills at Pepperdine is tied for the third-highest figure in a three-set match in the MW this year.

WEEKLY WRAP

- > San Diego State opened its longest road trip of the regular season last week, splitting matches at Fresno State and UNLV.
- > The Aztecs registered a 3-0 triumph (25-18, 25-21, 25-21) over the Bulldogs on Sept. 27, marking their first sweep in Fresno since 1996, before falling in four sets to the Rebels (15-25, 19-25, 27-25, 22-25) four days later on Oct. 1.
- > At Fresno State, the Scarlet and Black recorded its highest hitting percentage of the 2022 campaign (.349), maintaining a 42-38 advantage in kills to go with a season-best 10 service aces to help spark its victory.
- > Individually, the Aztecs received 12 kills from Mikela Labno, while Kayla Rivera added nine put-aways of her own to go with a pair of block assists.
- > In addition, Julie Haynie posted a career-high .636 hitting percentage after launching seven non-returnables on 11 attempts without an error, while McKenna Douglas served up a career-high five aces.
- > Elly Schraeder also displayed a .444 efficiency, flooring six shots in nine swings with just two miscues, while Douglas and Ellie Geoghegan finished with five digs apiece, as SDSU owned a 27-22 edge in that statistical category.
- > Despite logging just 12 kills in the third set, the Aztecs never trailed in that final frame, benefiting from seven Bulldog attack errors while serving up four aces. Clinging to a slim 13-12 lead, SDSU crafted a key 7-2 run to give itself some much-needed breathing room at 20-14. Haynie provided the offensive spark with a pair of kills, while Douglas and Sarena Gonzalez each contributed an ace in that span.
- > Fresno State threw one last scare into the visitors thanks to a 7-3 outburst that narrowed the gap to 23-21. However, a Labno kill and a Bulldog attack error gave the Aztecs their final two points to ice the victory.
- > When SDSU traveled to Las Vegas last Saturday it marked its first excursion outside the Golden State this season.
- > The Aztecs trailed in several statistical categories but nearly extended the match to a fifth set until UNLV erased a 20-17 deficit in the fourth frame with an 8-2 closing run to squelch the Scarlet and Black's comeback hopes and escape with the victory.
- > Individually, SDSU was led by Madison Corf's 15 kills, while Kayla Rivera (.467) and Julia Haynie (.429) powered down eight shots apiece. In addition, Rivera (1 solo) and Elly Schraeder (2 solos) finished with four blocks each, while Sarena Gonzalez (15 assists) and Noa Miller (14 assists) split the setting chores.
- > Collectively, the Rebels out-hit the Aztecs .331 to .222, maintaining the upper hand in kills (56-42) and team blocks (13.0 to 9.0), while overcoming 15 service errors to help key the win.
- > Similarly, SDSU was plagued by its own serving woes, as 10 miscues offset any momentum generated by six aces. Still, the Aztecs were in prime position to send the match to a fifth set.
- > San Diego State found itself trailing by as many as six points in the third stanza, including an 11-5 spread following a combined UNLV block. The Aztecs methodically clawed their way back into contention, forging an 18-11 run to vault in front 23-22. Haynie keyed the blitz with three kills and a service ace, while Rivera added two put-aways of her own during that stretch and joined forces with Schraeder on a block.
- > The Rebels turned the tables and reached match point on two occasions, once at 24-23 following a kill by Gabrielle Arrette-Ramos and again at 25-24 after an Aztec service error. However, Corf kept SDSU alive almost single-handedly with two kills along with a solo block, as the visitors prevailed 27-25.
- > Inspired by its good fortune, SDSU maintained the upper hand throughout much of the fourth set, building a series of three-point leads, including a 20-17 bulge after another Corf kill. However, UNLV regrouped in time to fashion an 8-2 closing run and secure the match.

SCHEDULE NAVIGATION

age, compared to a .318 clip for the opposition. In addition, the Aztecs were victimized by 22 service aces and experienced a deficiency in team blocks (42.0 to 11.5).

> The Aztecs had their moments against then-No. 9 Baylor in the tournament opener on Sept. 2, but were unable to sustain the momentum after a third-set rally, ultimately falling by a 3-1 count (18-25, 17-25, 29-27, 14-25).

> Individually, SDSU was paced by Heipua Tautua'a, who recorded her second straight double-double and sixth of her career after posting 13 kills and 16 digs, while Madison Corf launched 11 put-aways of her own. The Aztecs' offensive fortunes also received a boost from Kayla Rivera (7 kills) and Mikela Labno (6 kills), while Elly Schraeder anchored the middle with five blocks, including a pair of solo stops.

> Elsewhere, Sarena Gonzalez (25 assists) and Noa Miller (15 assists, 8 digs) shared the setting responsibilities, while Kat Cooper contributed five kills and two block assists at the net.

> Trailing 0-2 in sets, SDSU entertained hopes of a comeback in the third stanza, as the teams combined for 13 ties and a pair of lead changes. The Aztecs enjoyed their most productive set of the match, blasting 16 kills, including four apiece by Corf and Tautua'a. In addition, the Scarlet and Black limited the Bears to their lowest hitting percentage of the day (.121).

> Nevertheless, San Diego State still found itself on the verge of defeat after Baylor took a 24-21 lead following a block by Lauren Harrison and Mallory Talbert. Unfazed, the Aztecs maintained their composure, fighting off five additional match points with an 8-3 closing spurt, clinching the set with three straight points to overcome a 27-26 deficit. Kills by Cooper and Labno, followed by Corf's service ace, afforded SDSU some new life. Unfortunately, the Aztecs' new-found enthusiasm was soon dashed early in the fourth frame, as the Bears grabbed a 9-4 lead and were never threatened.

> SDSU closed out its second tournament of the season the next day (Sept. 3) on a sour note, falling to host Pepperdine in three sets (18-25, 20-25, 32-34) before suffering a 3-1 defeat at the hands of UC Santa Barbara (18-25, 18-25, 25-22, 16-25).

> Against the Waves, the Aztecs were led by Kayla Rivera, who finished with a .647 efficiency on a match-high 12 kills in 17 swings with just one error, while Heipua Tautua'a racked up 11 non-returnables to go with a career-best four service aces. Mikela Labno also hit well on the afternoon, finishing with a .316 clip (7-1-19), while Ellie Geoghegan scooped up a match-high 16 digs.

> However, SDSU was outthit for the match .371 to .259, as Pepperdine benefited from 15 unforced Aztec attack errors. Although the Scarlet and Black maintained a 42-36 advantage in digs and each side served up six aces, the Waves also finished with more team blocks (9.0 to 4.5) to help fuel their win.

> The third set was the most entertaining, as the teams combined for 11 ties and four lead changes. Still, the Aztecs seemed poised to extend the match to a fourth frame after building a 20-15 lead thanks to a Rivera kill. Pepperdine tightened the score at 23-21 moments later following a kill, a combined block and a Meg

Brown ace.

> Labno responded with a kill of her own, which extended the SDSU lead to 24-21. Incredibly, the Waves fought off nine set points down the stretch, including a 32-31 deficit after another Labno put-away. Pepperdine finally closed off the match on a service ace following a kill and an Aztec attack error.

> In the nightcap against the Gauchos, San Diego State was stymied in the middle, as UCSB maintained a decisive advantage in team blocks (13.0 to 2.0) while serving up 12 aces compared to the Aztecs' two. In addition, the Gauchos owned the statistical edge in kills (50-45) and hitting percentage (.310 to .161), capitalizing on 13 SDSU unforced attack errors to help power their victory.

> The Aztecs were paced by Julia Haynie (.474) and Kayla Rivera (.368), who blasted 10 kills apiece, while Reagan Merk tied her career high with seven put-aways. In addition, Ellie Geoghegan anchored the SDSU back row with 17 digs.

> A native of Ventura, Rivera led the Aztecs with 29 kills overall and hit .333, including a career-best .647 against host Pepperdine on Sept. 3, when she launched 12 non-returnables on 17 attempts with just one error.

> She also contributed double-digit kills later that day vs. UC Santa Barbara when she tied for team-high honors with 10 put-aways to go with a .368 efficiency.

SDSU INVITATIONAL REWIND

> After dropping a hard-fought three-set decision to California (20-25, 23-25, 23-25) in their season opener on Aug. 26, the Aztecs rebounded with a pair of 3-1 victories the following day vs. Army West Point (25-22, 22-25, 25-16, 19-25) and UC San Diego (25-22, 25-20, 26-28, 25-20).

> Against Army West Point, the SDSU attack was powered by the combo of Heipua Tautua'a (13 kills) and Mikela Labno (12 kills), while setter Noa Miller recorded her first double-double of the season with 21 assists and 12 digs.

> However, it was the Aztec defense that proved to be the difference against the Black Knights, finishing with a 14.0 to 10.0 advantage in team blocks, to go with a 54-49 spread in digs.

> In addition to a career-high nine blocks, Elly Schraeder (.375) displayed her dual-threat capabilities with eight kills against only two errors, while Kayla Rivera finished with seven block assists to set her own personal best.

> The teams combined for 13 ties and three lead changes in the opening set. However, the match witnessed just two more deadlocks in the second stanza, as the Scarlet and Black led throughout the third and fourth frames.

- > In the nightcap vs. UC San Diego, the Aztecs (2-1) owned a decisive 67-42 advantage in kills and served up seven aces to help fuel their win, overcoming a 14.0 to 9.0 deficiency in team blocks.
- > In addition, SDSU outhit the Tritons .270 to .183 and maintained a sizable 51-42 in digs while benefiting from 20 opponent attack errors.
- > Individually, four players posted double-digit kills for the Aztecs, including freshman Madison Corf (.303), who blasted a match-high 14 put-aways, while Tautua'a logged her first double-double of the year with 14 non-returnables to go with 10 digs.
- > Elsewhere, SDSU also received a career-high tying 13 kills from Labno, while Rivera sparked the offense as well with 10 put-aways, followed by Kat Cooper, who hit .600 for the night (7-1-10) and contributed five total blocks, including a solo stop.
- > Not to be outdone, Miller (28 assists) posted a career-high six service aces, sharing the setting duties with Sarena Gonzalez, who dished out 30 helpers of her own. Meanwhile, McKenna Douglas led all players with 19 digs to anchor the Aztec back row.
- > In the opener against Cal, the teams combined for 36 ties and 20 lead changes, as seven of eight SDSU newcomers saw action in the see-saw affair.
- > Despite maintaining a narrow 38-37 edge in kills and a 7-4 spread in service aces, however, the Aztecs were plagued by 25 attack errors, posting a .121 hitting percentage on the night.
- > Conversely, the Golden Bears owned a decisive advantage in team blocks (12.0 to 5.0) and totaled just eight errant attacks, finishing with a .358 efficiency to help key their victory.
- > Offensively, SDSU was led by the trio of Tautua'a, Labno and Madison Corf, who blasted seven kills each, while Kat Cooper (.357) and Kayla Rivera (3 block assists) launched six non-returnables apiece.

- > Despite missing the final seven matches of the 2021 campaign, Miller averaged a team-leading 6.01 assists per set, which ranked seventh in the Mountain West.
- > Haynie also brought previous Division I experience with her to "America's Finest City" after spending her first two seasons at Portland State. The 6-1 middle blocker led the Aztecs with 61 total blocks, including a team-high eight solo stops across 88 sets. She also ranked fifth on the team with 103 kills (1.17/set), finishing with a .222 hitting percentage.

- > A 6-3 setter, Feuerborn appeared in 27 of 30 matches last year, starting six of the Aztecs' final eight contests. As a sophomore, she averaged 3.11 assists (230 overall) while registering 38 kills and 24 block assists. In addition, Feuerborn eclipsed the 20-assist plateau on three occasions, including a season-high 23 helpers at home vs. Boise State.
- > Merk saw action in 18 matches during her freshman campaign on The Mesa, earning two starts. The 5-11 outside hitter posted 29 kills, 40 digs, five service aces and three blocks in 42 sets last year. - > A 6-3 middle blocker, Mukaj was off to a tremendous start in 2021 before suffering a season-ending ACL injury vs. San Diego. A standout international player from Italy, Mukaj hit .333 with 16 kills on 36 attempts against four errors across 27 sets while finishing with 22 total blocks, 16 dig and seven aces. She posted a .636 hitting percentage on seven kills in 11 attempts without an error against Sam Houston in the finale of the Bearkat Invitational, adding five digs and four block assists.

NEW KIDS IN TOWN

- > The prospects for the San Diego State volleyball program continue to brighten after head coach Brent Hilliard reshaped the Aztec roster with a solid newcomer class for the 2022 campaign.
- > SDSU's early signing class last November featured three prep stars in outside hitters Madison Corf (Kansas City, Mo.) and Cara Braun (Tempe, Ariz.), along with middle blocker Kat Cooper (Springdale, Ark.).
- > Over the winter, the Aztecs added a pair of Division I transfers in middle blocker Elly Schraeder (San Diego) and opposite hitter Kayla Rivera (Georgia) before inking three more high school standouts during the spring in defensive specialists McKenna Douglas (Phoenix, Ariz.) and Ellie Geoghegan (Manhattan Beach, Calif.), along with setter Sarena Gonzalez (Temecula, Calif.).
- > As a senior at Liberty High School in suburban Kansas City, Missouri, Corf garnered second-team All-America accolades from the American Volleyball Coaches Association after earning a spot on the AVCA All-Region VI team. Last season, she established single-season career highs in kills (390, 4.1/set), digs (353, 3.7/set), blocks (50) and aces (33), helping the Blue Jays to a 26-5 overall record and a second-place district finish.

A four-time all-conference selection, Cooper

Brent HILLIARD

Head Coach - Third Season at San Diego State

San Diego State Director of Athletics John David Wicker ushered in a new era for the Aztec volleyball team with the hiring of Brent Hilliard as the fifth head coach in program history on Jan. 31, 2020.

In his second season at SDSU, Hilliard and the Aztecs were faced with another demanding schedule, squaring off against 10 teams that qualified for postseason play.

However, San Diego State had its moments of glory in the fall of 2021, posting a 3-0 sweep at eventual Mountain West tournament champion Boise State before recording a five-set thriller on the road at UNLV, which ultimately captured the NIVC crown.

Individually, Hilliard oversaw the continued rise to prominence of Victoria O'Sullivan, who received all-Mountain West recognition for the second straight season after ranking second in the conference with 3.71 kills per set, as the SDSU outside hitter concluded her illustrious career with 1,026 kills overall.

Hilliard's charges enjoyed another successful year scholastically, with nine Aztecs landing on the Mountain West all-academic team, including Ashley Vanderpan, Kennedy Feuerborn and Serena Hodson, who took home the department's prestigious Malik Award, presented to SDSU student-athletes who attain a 4.0 GPA.

In his first season with the Scarlet and Black, Hilliard endured a challenging season fraught with COVID-19 protocols, an abbreviated schedule that was postponed until spring, along with injuries to key players.

However, Hilliard and the Aztecs persevered through the 2021 spring campaign, posting a 6-9 record, highlighted by thrilling victories over Boise State on the road and Colorado State at home in the season finale, respectively. Against the Broncos, SDSU defeated a Boise State team that entered the contest with four consecutive 3-0 sweeps. Two weeks later, the Aztecs snapped an 11-match to the Rams dating back to 2014 and logged their first win over CSU in San Diego since 2012.

Under Hilliard's guidance, O'Sullivan garnered all-Mountain West accolades for the first time in her career, as the SDSU junior led the squad with 3.25 kills per set, which ranked seventh in the conference. In addition, seniors Lauren Lee and Erin Gillcrest received MW Defensive Player of the Week recognition following the team's aforementioned wins over Boise State and Colorado State, respectively.

Hilliard's Aztecs also excelled in the classroom, with 12 student-athlete earning a spot on the Mountain West all-academic team, including Lauren Lee, who also merited first-team all-District 8 academic honors from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

A 2018 inductee to the Southern California Indoor Volleyball Hall of Fame, Hilliard arrived at SDSU with a wealth of experience after achieving 19 years of unparalleled success as an assistant coach at the University of San Diego, where he served as the Toreros' associate head coach since 2007.

During his fruitful tenure, the Toreros qualified for the NCAA Tournament in all but one of his 19 seasons, advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2004, 2006, 2013 and 2018. In addition, Hilliard helped guide the Toreros to nine West Coast Conference championships while his players earned six All-America awards, 12 All-America honorable mentions, 44 all-WCC accolades and 15 freshman all-conference certificates.

Hilliard twice assumed the reins of the USD program on an interim basis while head coach Jennifer Petrie was absent on maternity leave. In 2006, Hilliard was honored as WCC Coach of the Year after guiding the Toreros to a conference championship and a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season, he coached five all-conference honorees, including WCC Player of the Year Kristen Carlson, as USD finished 14th in the final USA Today/Coaches Poll.

The Toreros also flourished under Hilliard's guidance in 2011, racing to a 13-0 start en route a program-best 28-5 record, highlighted by a spot in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Throughout his stint, USD was consistently ranked among the nation's top 25, climbing to as high as No. 2 during the 2013 campaign and rising to No. 5 in 2016.

"I would like to thank John David Wicker, Jenny Bramer, Dr. Adela de la Torre and the rest of the SDSU search committee for making me feel so welcome during the interview process," Hilliard said upon his hiring. "To be the head coach of such a remarkable women's volleyball program in my family's hometown is truly a once in a lifetime opportunity."

"We are fully committed to work tirelessly to elevate this program back to an elite status on the college volleyball landscape, one that the student body, faculty, community, alumni and, of course, all future Aztecs will take great pride in."

Hilliard played collegiately at Long Beach State, earning All-America honors in each of his four years from 1990-93, including first-team recognition over his final three seasons. A right-side hitter for the 49ers, Hilliard was named the NCAA Men's Volleyball Player of the Year as a junior in 1992 after leading LBSU to a 31-1 record.

In 1991, Hilliard and the 49ers captured the NCAA Championship with a 3-1 victory over USC in the finals, avenging a loss to the Trojans in the title match the year before. He finished his career as the NCAA all-time leader with 3,034 kills.

Additionally, Hilliard was selected to play for Team USA in the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain, where he helped the Americans capture the bronze medal. The following year, he won a silver medal at the 1993 Pan American Games in Argentina and also owns a bronze medal from the 1991 World Cup.

After receiving his undergraduate degree in 1993 from Long Beach State in political science, Hilliard continued his volleyball career as a professional in Europe from 1995-98, playing two seasons in Belgium and another in the Netherlands. In 1996, Hilliard and the Masiek Volleyball Club captured the Belgian national championship and competed in the European Champions League.

In addition to his collegiate experience, which included a stint as head coach at nearby Cuyamaca College in 1999 and 2000, Hilliard has also coached for the past 12 years at Wave Volleyball Club in Del Mar, the premier volleyball club in San Diego County.

"Our priority at SDSU will be to engage, attract and secure exceptional student-athletes that strive for both academic and athletic excellence in their everyday lives," Hilliard added. "From day one, we will set expectations high and build from there. I am incredibly excited to get started and I look forward to the bright future ahead."
