HEAD COACH MARK MARTINEZ

> Mark Martinez is in his eighth season as head coach of the Aztecs and 17th overall as a member of the San Diego State staff after succeeding the late Tony Gwynn on August 20, 2014. He is just the fifth head coach in SDSU history since baseball was elevated to major sport status in 1936.

> During his tenure as the Aztecs' head coach, Martinez has compiled a 222-174 record (.561), highlighted by three Mountain West tournament championships in 2015, 2017 and 2018.

> Since 2015, SDSU has garnered 30 all-Mountain West accolades under Martinez's tutelage, including back-to-back MW Pitchers of the Year Brett Seeburger (2017) and Garrett Hill (2018), as well as 2017 MW Player of the Year Danny Sheehan.

> Additionally, Martinez has mentored three freshman All-Americans in Chase Calabuig (2015), Casey Schmitt (2018) and Jaden Fein (2019), with the latter also receiving Mountain West Co-Freshman of the Year distinction last year.

> In 2017, Martinez recorded his 100th victory for the Scarlet and Black, becoming the fastest head coach in program history to reach the century mark in wins.

> Not to be outdone, Martinez also became the fastest head coach in Mountain West history to win three conference championships when the Aztecs captured the title in 2018.

> Martinez was hired as an assistant coach for the Aztecs in July of 2005 and served for nine years under head coach Tony Gwynn. During that time, he was promoted to the position of associate head coach.

> Since his arrival on The Mesa as an assistant coach, Martinez has witnessed 49 SDSU players get drafted into the professional ranks, with 10 of those selections making the major leagues (Stephen Strasburg, Addison Reed, Justin Masterson, Bruce Billings, Quintin Berry, Lance Zawadzki, Greg Allen, Ty France, Seby Zavala and Alan Trejo).

> Prior to his arrival at San Diego State, Martinez was an assistant coach at New Mexico for 17 seasons from 1989-2005. During his time as a hitting and infield coach, he helped develop the Lobos into one of the most prominent offensive teams in the country, with UNM ranking among the top 11 nationally in hitting over his final four seasons.

> Martinez served as an assistant at his alma mater, Mesa State College (now Colorado Mesa University) in Grand Junction, Colorado, from 1984-88. He played shortstop at the school from 1982-84, earning all-conference and all-district honors as a senior.

> Martinez graduated from Mesa State College (now Colorado Mesa) with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1984 and completed his master's in sports administration at New Mexico in 1990.

> During the offseason, Martinez signed a three-year contract extension that will keep him at San Diego State through the 2026 season.

AZTEC WEEKEND ROTATION

> For the second straight week, San Diego State will implement the starting rotation of Troy Melton, TJ Fondtain and Chris Canada.

> Melton (1-2, 1.57 ERA) is slated to take the mound for Friday's series opener against the Lobos. The Aztec right-hander posted a career-high 10 strikeouts vs. San José State on April 8, but was tagged with the hard-luck loss after giving up two runs on four hits and a pair of walks in 5.0 innings of work. In his previous start, Melton picked up his first victory of the year at Nevada on April 1, after yielding just one unearned run on four hits and one walk in a season-long seven innings. The SDSU junior collected six strikeouts for the second straight outing and limited Wolf Pack to a combined .160 batting average (4-25), as the Scarlet and Black rolled to a 13-1 conquest. Melton has faced New Mexico on six occasions during his career, recording a 4.05 ERA with 18 strikeouts against 13 hits and just two walks in 13 1/3 innings but has yet to earn a decision. Last season, the Anaheim, California, native finished among the Mountain West leaders in several categories, including strikeouts (2nd, 83), innings pitched (4th, 73.1), opposing batting average (8th, .291), wins (T-10th, 4), ERA (11th, 6.14) and fewest walks allowed (T-15th, 30). He also issued one walk or less in eight starts. For his efforts, Melton was named to the preseason all-MW team prior to the 2022 campaign.

> TJ Fondtain (1-4, 3.89 ERA) is scheduled to make is his fifth consecutive start and eighth of the year after posting a career-high eight strikeouts in just 4 2/3 innings vs. San José State on April 9. The SDSU left-hander has recorded five or more strikeouts on three other occasions, including a start against Fresno State when he fanned six Bulldogs in 5.0 innings. Fondtain returned to the rotation at San José State on March 20 and went 6.0 innings to tie his season-long stint but did not figure in the decision after surrendering five runs on six hits and one walk to go with a trio of strikeouts. Despite a bullpen appearance vs. UNLV on March 11, he still ranks eighth in the MW this week with 37.0 innings pitched. In addition, the Clovis, California, native finds himself among the conference leaders in opposing batting average (3rd, .223), fewest hits allowed (4th, 31), ERA (6th, 3.89) and strikeouts (9th, 33). Fondtain garnered Mountain West Pitcher of the Week accolades after collecting his first career victory in the Aztecs' 7-1 triumph over Hawai'i in the Tony Gwynn Legacy on Feb. 25. Against the Rainbow Warriors, he tallied a then career-high seven strikeouts, allowing just one unearned run on a scant three hits and no walks in 6.0 innings. Against New Mexico at home last season, Fondtain delivered the walk-off single as a pinch hitter that scored Cole Carrigg and former Aztec star Jaden Fein, as the Scarlet and Black overcame a 9-4 deficit with six runs in the bottom of the ninth for a dramatic 10-9 victory.

> Meanwhile, Chris Canada (1-0, 2.75 ERA) is projected to make his third career start after collecting his first collegiate victory in the Aztecs' 5-1 triumph over Long Beach State at home on April 5. The SDSU left-hander posted a personal-best seven strikeouts in 5.0 scoreless innings against the Dirtbags, scattering three and a pair of walks. In his last start on April 9 vs. San José State, Canada completed a season-long stint of 6 1/3 innings, yielding two runs on three hits and a trio of walks but did not figure in the decision. A 2021 alumnus of Orange Lutheran High School, Canada earned all-CIF Division I honors as a senior after helping the Lancers reach the semifinals of both the CIF Southern Section playoffs and the CIF regional championships. During his final prep campaign, he posted an 8-0 record with a 1.39 ERA with 85 strikeouts in 72.0 innings while collecting two saves and limiting the opposition to a .159 batting average, In addition, Canada garnered all-Trinity League accolades and competed in the Orange County All-Star Game.

SERIES RECORD VS. NEW MEXICO

> San Diego State leads the all-time series against the Lobos, 123-84.

> New Mexico is one of four schools the Aztecs have recorded 100 victories against. The other three are Air Force (116), Fresno State (106) and Utah (104).

> The Aztecs boast a 73-38 record against the Lobos in San Diego, a 40-42 mark in Albuquerque and a 10-4 ledger on a neutral field.

> During Mark Martinez's eight-year tenure as head coach on The Mesa, SDSU sports a 20-16 record vs. the Lobos, including a 9-9 mark at home, an 8-7 ledger on the road and a 3-0 record at a neutral park.

> The Aztecs won five of six games from New Mexico in 2021, sweeping the Lobos at Tony Gwynn Stadium before claiming two of three meetings in the final series of the season in Albuquerque.

> In its last visit to the Duke City, the Scarlet and Black suffered a 17-7 run-rule defeat in the opener before posting consecutive comeback wins, 6-5 and 11-10, to close out the season.

> Earlier that year, San Diego State recorded its seventh straight series victory to open the 2021 campaign with a three-game sweep of New Mexico, the last time the teams met at Tony Gwynn Stadium.

> The Aztecs posted a pair of dramatic walk-off victories in a series-opening doubleheader, over-coming a 9-4 deficit with a six-run rally in the bottom of the ninth to claim a thrilling 10-9 decision before recording a 5-4 triumph in 10 innings in the nightcap. SDSU put a huge exclamation point on the weekend the following day with a huge 15-0 run-rule victory in seven innings.

> As a result, the Aztecs posted their first three-game sweep of the Lobos since April 5-7, 2007 in San Diego.

> Not be outdone, SDSU's doubleheader sweep on the first day of the series gave Coach Martinez 200 career victories as a head coach.

NEW MEXICO AT A GLANCE
> Picked to finish sixth in the Mountain West preseason coaches poll, the Lobos currently occupy the fifth position in the conference standings with a 6-9 record and a 14-18 mark overall.
> New Mexico dropped two of three games at Fresno State last weekend, sandwiching a 4-3 victory between an 11-1 defeat in the opener and a 6-2 setback in the finale.
> In all, the Lobos have compiled a 6-5 record at home, an 8-9 mark on the road and an 0-4 ledger at neutral-sites.
> Outfielders Lenny Junior Ashby and Jeffery David are the only two players to have started all 32 games for New Mexico so far this season.
> Ashby tops all Lobo regulars with a .339 batting average and finds himself among the conference leaders in home runs (T-5th, 8), total bases (T-7th, 79),slugging percentage (8th, .622) and hits (T-11th, 43).
> Additionally, David (.313) is tied atop the MW this week and is tied for the seventh position with 11 doubles, trailing teammate Kyle Landers, who shares the fourth spots with 13 two-baggers of his own.
> Collectively, New Mexico leads the league with 17 triples, which ranks third nationally, and is tied for second in the MW with 75 doubles, which is tied for 12th in the country entering the weekend.
> However, the Lobos occupy the fifth spot in the conference with a .277 team batting average and 307 hits while ranking just sixth in on-base percentage (.362), RBIs (171) and runs scored (185).
> On the mound, New Mexico has also had its share of struggles, ranking last in the MW with a 7.89 ERA for all games and a .341 opposing team batting average while tying for the fewest strikeouts as a staff with 218 Ks.
> For Thursday's opener against the Aztecs, Riley Egloff is projected to make his ninth consecutive start after posting a 4-3 record with a 6.59 ERA and 43 strikeouts in 42 1/3 innings. In his last outing vs. Fresno State on April 8, the Lobo right-hander matched his career high with nine strikeouts but was rocked for seven runs on 12 hits in 6.0 innings, as the Bulldogs rolled to an 11-1 victory. Egloff faced the Aztecs on two occasions during the 2021 campaign, yielding 11 runs on 14 hits and one walk in a combined 7.0 innings. He was the losing pitcher in SDSU's 11-10 triumph over UNM on the final day of the regular season. Entering the weekend, Egloff ranks fourth in the MW in fewest walks allowed (11) while ranking fifth in strikeouts and innings pitched.
> A transfer from Seminole State JC in Oklahoma, right-hander Brett Russell (1-4, 5.25 ERA), who is slated to start on Friday for the Lobos, did not figure in the decision in his last appearance at Fresno State on April 9, when he allowed three runs on five hits and three walks in 4.0 innings, as New Mexico held on for a 4-3 victory. On March 26, Russell picked up his first Division I win at Air Force after tossing 5 2/3 scoreless innings during which he scattered three hits and four walks.
> For Saturday's series finale, the Lobos figure to start left-hander Matt Haley, who has compiled a 1-1 record with a 6.75 ERA and 21 strikeouts in 30 2/3 innings thus far. In his previous start at Fresno State on April 10, the UNM sophomore absorbed the loss after yielding five runs (four earned) on four hits and two walks in 5.0 innings, as the Bulldogs posted a 6-2 triumph. Haley made three short relief appearances against the Aztecs during the 2021 campaign, pitching 1 1/3 scoreless innings during which he combined for four strikeouts against one walk and zero hits.
> Tod Brown is his first season at the helm of the New Mexico program after spending 14 years as head coach at North Dakota State, where he finished his tenure as the second-winningest coach in school history. A native of Tucson, Arizona, Brown led NDSU to its first Division I postseason victory last season with a 6-1 triumph over Nevada in the NCAA Regionals after winning second Summit League tournament championship. Prior to his stint with the Bison, Brown served as the pitching coach at Bowling Green from 2000-08 after working in a similar capacity the previous two seasons at Sabino High School in Tucson. Brown pitched collegiately at Arizona from 1989-94, helping the Wildcats to the Pac-10 championship in 1992. In 1993, he set a school record with 35 appearances, posting six wins and eight saves, as Arizona fell one game short of the College World Series.

THE LAST TIME OUT: AZTECS FALL AT USD
> In the first of two crosstown meetings this season, San Diego State committed a series of costly mistakes in an 8-3 loss to San Diego on Tuesday at Fowler Park and Cunningham Field on the USD campus.
> Despite maintaining a 7-5 advantage in hits, the Aztecs (7-25) were plagued by three wild pitches, two passed balls and a crucial fielding error, as the Toreros (20-11) scored seven of their eight runs with two outs.
> USD grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first inning when Chase Meidroth scored on Jack Costello's RBI double, while RJ Teijeiro raced home on a passed ball. Earlier, Meidroth roped a double to left, while Teijeiro drew a walk as both runners advanced on a wild pitch.
> SDSU plated all of its runs in the top of the third on three hits to vault in front, 3-2. After leading off with a single, Irvin Weems motored around the bases on a double by Charlie Rhee, who subsequently took third on Tino Bethancourt's sacrifice bunt.
> With the infield drawn in, Caden Miller promptly hit a tapper to the second base side, but Bethancourt avoided the tag on the throw home. Miller moved to second on groundout shortly thereafter and eventually crossed the plate on Poncho Ruiz's single up the middle.
> The score remained unchanged until the fifth when the Toreros' Ariel Armas trotted home on Angelo Peraza's sacrifice fly to right, knotting the game at 3-3. Previously, Armas walked and advanced to second on a wild pitch before taking third on a sacrifice bunt.
> The Aztecs' third pitcher of the night Hunter Hargett struck out two batters, sandwiched around a walk to Teijeiro, after entering in the bottom of the sixth. However, the inning started to unravel for the Scarlet and Black after Arias singled deep in the hole at short, as both runners advanced on a passed ball. Moments later, Dustin Allen was issued a walk, abruptly ending Hargett's appearance.
> However, SDSU did not fare any better after Ryan Faulks took the mound, as pinch hitter Camden Vasquez drew a bases loaded walk to bring home Teijeiro. Still, Faulks and the Aztecs were primed to get out of the jam with minimal damage, but Meidroth's grounder to short was misplayed, which kept the inning alive and allowed both Armas and Allen to score. Shortly thereafter, Vasquez raced home on another wild pitch, giving USD a commanding 7-3 lead.

> The Toreros closed out the scoring in the eighth when Allen walked, took third on Vasquez's single and crossed the plate on Meidroth's sacrifice fly.
> Jack Hyde (3-1), USD's second pitcher of the night, picked up the victory after pitching two scoreless innings, yielding two hits and a walk against three strikeouts in relief of starter Ryan Kysar, who gave up all three SDSU runs on three hits and two walks in five innings of work.
> Conversely, Hargett (0-1) took the loss for the Aztecs, who used six pitchers in the game. Sophomore transfer Julian Jackson made his first appearance on the hill this season, pitching a scoreless seventh with one walk and one strikeout. Meanwhile, Omar Serrano received his first career start and lasted three innings, yielding two runs (one earned) on two hits and two walks while posting four strikeouts.
> Weems and Brian Leonhardt finished with two hits apiece to lead the Aztec offense.

> Irvin Weems, a true freshman from Las Vegas, has started 16 of 22 games in the outfield (13 CF, 3 RF) and leads all SDSU rookies with a .293 batting average, including a .500 clip (6-12) over his last three outings during which he posted four stolen bases and three runs scored to go with a trio of RBIs.
> In the second game of the MW series at San José State that was completed on March 20, Weems went 3-for-5 with three RBIs and two runs scored, highlighted by his first collegiate homer, a two-run shot in the eighth. In the series finale against the Spartans, the Las Vegas native added two more hits and swiped his first career base.
> Fellow classmate Tyler Glowacki (.264), an alumnus of nearby Santana High School, has started 25 games in the outfield (20 RF, 5 LF) and leads all SDSU rookies with 23 hits and nine RBIs while sharing the second spot on the squad with five doubles.
> Glowacki (March 7) and infielder Alex Rodriguez (Feb. 21) have netted Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors this season.

Giannola has two triples this season, which is tied for seventh in the Mountain West.
> Tino Bethancourt, another redshirt freshman, has logged 24 starts (14 3B, 10 1B) and has hit safely in 11 of his last 14 games. The El Dorado Hills, California, native shares the second spot on the team with 18 walks, which is tied for ninth in the conference.
> Outfielder Shaun Montoya, a redshirt freshman who transferred from UC Irvine, has started 16 games this season, including the last 10 contests for the Aztecs, and ranks second on the team during that stretch with a .286 batting average and a .390 on-base percentage to go with three stolen bases.

STRIKEOUTS GALORE
> San Diego State has recorded double-digit strikeouts in 16 of 32 games this year, including a season-high 21 vs. Hawai'i in 15 innings on Feb. 28.
> Troy Melton fanned a career-best10 hitters in last Friday's start against San José State, marking the highest total by an Aztec pitcher this season and the most since Logan Boyer also struck out 10 batters vs. San Francisco on Feb. 15, 2018.
> Following Melton are Jonny Guzman ad Kelena Sauer, both of whom posted career-high strikeouts with nine Ks apiece. Guzman fanned nine hitters in his first collegiate start at UC Irvine on Feb. 22, while Sauer accomplished the feat against UNLV on March 12.
> In addition, four other Aztec hurlers have compiled career-best totals with over five strikeouts this season: TJ Fondtain (8 vs. San José State, April 9), Jacob Flores (7 vs. Utah, Feb. 27), Jadon Bercovich (7 vs. Hawaii, Feb.28) and Chris Canada (7 vs. Long Beach State, April 5).

> Last season, the Scarlet and Black registered 10 or more strikeouts in 18 games, notching a 15-3 record in those contests.
> The Aztecs posted double-digit strikeouts in their last six home games of the 2021 campaign, including a combined 33 Ks in their three-game sweep over San José State, May 8-9, 2021.
> Previously, in SDSU's sweep of Dixie State, April 24-25, 2021, Trailblazer hitters were punched out 42 times during the series, including 15 in the doubleheader opener, which marked a season-high for the SDSU staff.
> During the shortened 2020 season, the SDSU pitching staff completed seven games with 10 strikeouts: vs. Virginia Tech, Cal State Fullerton, Iowa, Nebraska, at UC Irvine and twice against Oregon State. Not surprisingly, the Scarlet and Black went 6-1 in those contests.

IN MEMORIAM: JIM DIETZ (1938-2022)

> Former San Diego State baseball head coach Jim Dietz passed away Sunday, March 27 at the age of 83.

> Dietz, who retired at the end of the 2002 campaign, completed an illustrious 31-year career at SDSU as one of the all-time winningest coaches in NCAA history.

> His final mark of 1,231-750-18 (.620) ranked seventh nationally among active Division I coaches at the time he finished his final season with the Aztecs.

> During his legendary career at San Diego State, the Aztecs won numerous conference, divisional and regular-season titles, earning Dietz various league and regional coach-of-the year honors.

> In 1979, Dietz guided the Scarlet and Black to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, a feat he accomplished seven additional times in 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1990 and 1991.

> "Our San Diego State baseball family mourns the loss of Hall-of-Fame Coach Jim Dietz," said current Aztec head coach Mark Martinez. "His impact during his 31 years as the head coach at SDSU was felt not only within the San Diego community, but also nationally as an ambassador for our great game. The standard he set for excellence in the classroom and on the diamond resonates within our program today. We continue to strive to meet the foundational expectations of Coach Dietz's legacy."

> Individually, Dietz's SDSU players garnered 28 All-America accolades, 42 all-district/all-region honors and 85 all-conference certificates. Among the many notable players Dietz coached were Tony Gwynn, Bud Black, Mark Grace, Dave Smith, Bobby Meacham and Travis Lee.

> Born in Eugene, Oregon, Dietz played at Southern Oregon College, where he was three-time all-conference infielder and an NAIA All-American as a senior in 1959. Following graduation, he spent three years in the Detroit Tigers organization, reaching the Double-A level before leaving the pro ranks as a player.

> Dietz began his baseball coaching career in 1963 at Lowell (Ore.) High School, where he remained for two seasons before moving to Pleasant Hill (Ore.) High School for three years from 1965-68. While at Pleasant Hill, he coached the varsity baseball team, winning three straight league titles to go with a state championship in 1968.

> Later in 1968, Dietz became the freshman and junior varsity baseball coach at the University of Oregon, where he also guided the freshman men's basketball squad, before his appointment as head coach at San Diego State in 1972.

> During the 1970s, Dietz became one of the most successful summer coaches in history, spending seven seasons with the Fairbanks Goldpanners of the Alaska League. He compiled a 348-151 record in Fairbanks, taking all seven of his teams to the National Baseball Congress national finals and winning four summer championships. For his efforts, he was named NBC Coach of the Decade. Among the players he coached with the Goldpanners were future Major League stars Dave Winfield, Mark McGwire and Steve Swisher.

> Dietz was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2002 and was enshrined into the Aztec Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019. He is also a member of the Southern Oregon University Hall of Fame.

> Other honors Dietz merited include the Super Star Award from Collegiate Baseball magazine, the Citizen of the Year Award from the City Club of San Diego and the Breitbard Award for his baseball contributions to the San Diego community.

> Dietz earned a bachelor's degree in social studies from Southern Oregon College and received a master's degree in counseling from the University of Oregon.

> After winning two of three games in the Tony Gwynn Legacy, San Diego State faced Hawai'i in a 15-inning contest on Monday that lasted six hours and 14 minutes, with the Rainbow Warriors prevailing by an 8-5 count.

> The Aztecs'15-inning affair was their longest game since April 19, 2013, when the Scarlet and Black dropped a 9-8 decision at UNLV in 17 innings.

> Both teams squandered numerous scoring chances, combining for 32 runners left on base, including 17 for SDSU and 15 for the visitors.

> San Diego State's Tyler Glowacki collected Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors, the league office announced on March 7.

> In four starts from Feb. 28-March 6, Glowacki led the Aztecs with a .375 batting average (6-16), six hits and a .500 on-base percentage. >Against Hawai'i on Feb. 28, the SDSU outfielder set career highs with three hits and two runs scored, though the Scarlet and Black dropped an 8-5 decision in 15 innings. In that game, he singled and scored the tying run in the bottom of the eighth that sent the contest into extra innings.

> An alumnus of nearby Santana High School, Glowacki closed out the week with a 2-for-4 effort in the series finale vs. Arizona State on March 6, driving in the go-ahead run with a sharp single to center field in the sixth inning to help the Aztecs secure a 4-3 victory and snap a four-game losing streak.

> In addition, Glowacki made three putouts without an error on the week for a clean 1.000 fielding percentage.

> With his award, Glowacki received his first conference weekly certificate and SDSU's third of the season after Alex Rodriguez garnered Freshman of the Week accolades on Feb. 21 and TJ Fondtain merited Pitcher of the Week distinction on Feb. 28.

FONDTAIN TABBED MW PITCHER OF THE WEEK ON FEB. 28

> San Diego State sophomore TJ Fondtain was named Mountain West Pitcher of the Week by the league office on Feb. 28.

> In just his second career start on the mound, Fondtain earned his first collegiate victory after helping SDSU post a 7-1 triumph over Hawai'i at the Tony Gwynn Legacy on Feb. 25.

> Against the Rainbow Warriors, the Aztec left-hander recorded a career-high seven strikeouts, yielding just one unearned run on a scant three hits and no walks in 6.0 innings.

> A native of Clovis, California, Fondtain retired the first 13 Hawai'i hitters, notching five of his strikeouts in that span. He also helped his cause by picking off a runner at second base in the top of the fifth inning.

> In addition, Fondtain displayed great control in his start vs. the Warriors, reaching ball three in the pitching count just once against 21 batters faced.

RODRIGUEZ NETS MW FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS ON FEB. 21

> San Diego State's Alex Rodriguez was named Mountain West Baseball Freshman of the Week for his performance at the season-opening MLB4 Tournament, held Feb. 18-20 in Scottsdale, Arizona.

> Rodriguez started all three games at second base for the Aztecs at the prestigious event, leading the team with a .500 batting average and a .600 on-base percentage while tying for the top spot with four hits.

> A native of Rancho Cucamonga, California, Rodriguez went 3-for-4 with an RBI in his collegiate debut against No. 17 TCU in the opener on Friday, posting singles in his first two career at-bats. He also drove in his first collegiate run after reaching on a fielder's choice in the bottom of the sixth, giving SDSU a 3-2 lead that held up until the bottom of the ninth.

> Against Houston on Feb. 19, Rodriguez was hit by a pitch and scored during the Aztecs' pivotal three-run outburst in the fifth inning, as the Scarlet and Black held on for its first win of the year in a 4-3 victory.

> Rodriguez then wrapped up the tournament with a 1-for-3 effort at the plate vs. California on Feb. 20.

> As a second baseman, Rodriguez did not commit an error in five chances for the weekend, finishing with a clean 1.000 fielding percentage.

NEWCOMERS READY TO STEP IN

> San Diego State has added 15 newcomers for 2022, including 10 true freshmen, three Division I transfers and two junior college players.

> Among the Aztecs to start this weekend is infielder Alex Rodriguez, who utilized his redshirt season at USC in 2021 after graduating from Damien High School in La Verne, California, where he was a prep teammate of SDSU outfielder Shaun Montoya. Rodriguez was listed as the No. 20 shortstop in California for the class of 2020 by Perfect Game and was an all-Baseline League selection in 2018 and 2019.

> SDSU also expects a big splash from freshman outfielder Irvin Weems, who was ranked as the No. 4 outfielder and seventh-best player overall in Nevada for the class of 2021, according to Perfect Game. A graduate of Durango High School in Las Vegas, Weems earned first-team all-Southern Nevada honors by the Las Vegas Review-Journal as a senior after batting .561 (23-41) with four homers, nine doubles and 27 RBIs in just 15 games, according to MaxPreps. He also scored 20 runs and stole 13 bases in 16 attempts while posting a 1.121 slugging percentage and a .636 on-base percentage.

> Another freshman who has impressed in camp is outfielder Tyler Glowacki, a local product who brings a winning pedigree to The Mesa from nearby Santana High School, which captured the Grossmont Valley League championship in 2021 and advanced to the third round of CIF San Diego Section Open Division playoffs. Glowacki capped the year with an appearance in the CIF San Diego Section All-Star game at Petco Park. He earned a No. 21 ranking among outfielders in California for the class of 2021.

> Although he has been with the program for two years, Tino Bethancourt will see his first collegiate action for the Scarlet and Black this year in the infield. Bethancourt sat out as a redshirt in 2021 after graduating from Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, California, where his senior season was limited to three games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. According to MaxPreps, he played 78 games during his prep career, batting .285 with three homers, 16 doubles, 37 RBIs and 50 runs scored while posting 12 stolen bases and a .427 on-base percentage.

> Likewise, right-handed pitcher Jadon Bercovich is another player who utilized his redshirt season in 2021 but looks ready to step into a relief role during the upcoming 2022 campaign. A graduate of Damonte Ranch High School in Reno, Nevada, Bercovich twice garnered all-conference accolades and was ranked as the No. 2 right-handed pitcher in that state for the class of 2020 by Perfect Game. He once set a school record with 13 strikeouts in a single game and also played for the Athletics squad at the prestigious Area Code games.

> Robert Brodell will be looking to secure a spot in the bullpen as well after playing two seasons at Imperial Valley College, where he struck out 59 batters in 53.1 innings on the mound. He ranked 23rd in the state as a freshman in 2019 with 10.31 strikeouts per nine innings. Brodell starred at Brawley Union High School, where he was a first-team all-conference selection and two-time MVP. The right-handed hurler contributed to a team that won three straight Imperial Valley League championships to go with a CIF San Diego Section Division III title as junior in 2017.

> Omar Serrano is another rookie pitcher who brings impressive credentials with him to The Mesa after a stellar prep career at Downey High School, where he earned all-CIF Southern Section Division IV honors as a senior after recording a 1.50 ERA in 12 appearances with 85 strikeouts in 70.0 innings, according to MaxPreps. Serrano tossed three shutouts in five of his victories that season, including a perfect game vs. Westlake in the first round of the CIF playoffs.

> UC Irvine transfer Shaun Montoya and utility player Johnny Giannola are two redshirt freshmen who will be vying for playing time as well this season after sitting out the 2021 season.

MARTINEZ SIGNS CONTRACT EXTENSION

> During the offseason, San Diego State head coach Mark Martinez signed a three-year contract extension that will keep him in the Aztec dugout through the 2026 season.

"Mark has been a tremendous asset to our baseball program, and I look forward to him continuing the success our teams have found on the field and in the classroom," said SDSU director of athletics John David Wicker. "Mark does a great job developing the overall student-athlete, and the young men in our program have certainly benefited, as has our entire Aztec community."

> Entering his eighth season as head coach at SDSU, Martinez has compiled a 215-150 record (.589), highlighted by three Mountain West tournament championships and a trio of NCAA regional appearances in 2015, 2017, 2018.

"I am very excited for the opportunity to maintain the tradition of excellence that has been established here at San Diego State," Martinez said. "I am extremely grateful for the support of our administration, alumni and Aztec community. Our program takes tremendous pride in competing for championships and developing young men into outstanding students, athletes and leaders."

NEW FACES ON THE COACHING STAFF

> San Diego State head coach Mark Martinez filled two vacancies with a pair of prominent hires over the summer, as Shaun Cole accepted the pitching coach position, while Sergio Brown assumed the role of assistant coach/recruiting coordinator.

> Cole arrives on The Mesa after a two-year stint at Eastern Kentucky University, where he served as the Colonels' associate head coach/pitching coach in 2019-20.

> During his tenure, Cole developed and guided one of EKU's most successful pitching staffs while enrolling three of the highest ranked recruiting classes in program history.

> In Cole's first season in 2019, EKU set team records for strikeouts (510) and lowest opposing batting average (.258) while logging the most victories (32) since 2004 and lowest team ERA (4.79) since 2008.

> Prior to his stint in the Bluegrass State, Cole served as coordinator for player development with the San Diego Padres, where he was involved in all aspects of baseball operations, scouting and player development.

> Among his countless duties with the Padres, Cole assisted in player development for the team's minor league system, which was ranked No. 1 in MLB in 2018, including the Padres Dominican Republic Academy.

> In 2016, Cole was also the pitching coach for the Tri-City Dust Devils, the Padres' short-season Class A affiliate based in Pasco, Washington, where he developed the organization's top pitching prospects.

> In 2017, Cole served as the coordinator for San Diego's spring training facility in Arizona. In that role, he oversaw the daily operations of mini-camp, extended spring training, as well as two rookie ball teams during the Arizona Fall League. He also managed the AZL Padres that season.

> From June 2014 to Sept. 2015, Cole served as the director of the 18U National Team for USA Baseball. Among his responsibilities was managing the Tournament of Stars presented by MLB and the 17U National Team Identification Series — both primary selection vehicles for the 18U National Team.

> Prior to his hire at USA Baseball, Cole spent six seasons at Arizona from 2009-14, serving one year as the Wildcats' director of baseball operations before he was elevated to pitching coach. During Cole's tenure, Arizona made four NCAA regional appearances, highlighted by a College World Series title in 2012, the same season he was named National Pitching Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball newspaper.

> Brown, meanwhile, who has a long association with perennial national power Cal State Fullerton both as a player and coach, arrived at SDSU after serving as the Titans' associate head coach/recruiting coordinator in 2020 and 2021.

> Brown brings a plethora of postseason experience with him to "America's Finest City", having participated in eight NCAA Regionals, six NCAA Super Regionals and four College World Series as a coach and player. In addition, Brown is one of only two coaches in the history of college baseball to go to the College World Series with three different programs — Cal State Fullerton, UC Irvine and Arizona.

> Throughout his career, Brown has recruited and/or coached 35 players with Major League Baseball experience.

> Prior to his most recent stint at Fullerton, Brown spent four years at Arizona from 2016-19, helping the Wildcats to consecutive NCAA Tournament berths in his first two seasons, highlighted by a runner-up finish at the 2016 College World Series.

> During his tenure in Tucson, five position players garnered multiple All-America honors by an array of national publications, while two student-athletes were named Freshmen All-Americans.

> Brown was an infielder on Cal State Fullerton's 1995 national championship team after transferring from Cal Poly Pomona, where he competed from 1991-93. While at CPP, he was a member of Bronco squads that captured the CCAA co-championship in 1991 and earned a spot in the 1993 NCAA Division II West Regionals.

MOUNTAIN WEST TOURNAMENT RETURNS TO SAN DIEGO

> After a one-year hiatus, the Mountain West Championship returns this season and will be conducted at Tony Gwynn Stadium, May 26-28. The top four teams in the MW regular-season standings will qualify for the double elimination tournament, with the winner receiving an automatic berth into NCAA regional competition. NCAA Regionals will be held June 3-5.
