Meet Week Preview - June 6-8 NCAA Outdoor Championships Eugene, Ore. (University of Oregon)

Live Results | Broadcast Info

SAN DIEGO — San Diego State is headed to the pacific northwest for the NCAA Outdoor Championships at Hayward Field in Eugene, Ore. this weekend. Six Aztecs will make the trip as they compete in four total events at the national meet Thursday through Saturday.

Jenna Fee Feyerabend passed over the preliminaries with an automatic qualifying mark of 5,750 points in the heptathlon this season. That total ranks 13th in the country heading into the championships. The back-to-back Mountain West champion is in her second consecutive NCAA Championship meet, finishing 11th at last year's meet.

Shaquena Foote is set for her first championship meet, racing in the 400m dash. She ran a personal best 51.35 in the first round of the event which ranks third fastest in program history qualifying her for the quarterfinals. Fresh off a leg in the 4x100m, she posted a 51.85 to claim the final qualifying spot to Eugene. Her quarterfinal time has her 24th in the 24-person field, but her PR ranks among the top 14.

Xiamara Young made it a two-for-two showing, qualifying for both the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships in her first season on The Mesa. She celebrated her birthday with a personal best jump of 13.51m (44-4) in her final attempt at the prelims to qualify for the outdoor championship meet. The jump is fourth best in SDSU history and has her ranked 11th in the championships.

The Aztec 4x100m relay team had an incredible performance at the West Preliminaries, crossing the line in 43.45 seconds. It is the second fastest time in program history and also ranks 11th for the championship meet. San Diego State is the only non-power five program to send their 4x1 team to at least five of the last eight NCAA Championship meets, qualifying in six of those eight years.

Every event of the NCAA Championships will be streamed on the ESPN family of networks with the track events broadcasted on ESPN2. The links for every stream can be found HERE while live results can be found HERE.

NCAA Championship Entries

Jenna Fee Feyerabend (Heptathlon), Shaquena Foote (400m), Xiamara Young (triple jump), 4x100m relay (Waller, Young, Pierre, Mbye)

Aztec Tidbits

- Head coach Shelia Burrell is in her 15th year leading the Aztec track and field program. This is her 14th outdoor season with 2020 being cancelled due to COVID. In that time, she has led the team to six Mountain West Outdoor Championships and won six MW Coach of the Year awards.
- The Aztecs totaled 152 points (130 on the final day) to finish second at the conference championship meet. It is the eighth consecutive season they have finished in the top two and 10th time in the last 11 seasons.
- Individually, 12 Aztecs earned all-Mountain West honors for their performances at the meet with the team totaling 15 medals across the three days of competition.
- The roster consists of 22 returning student-athletes and 17 newcomers. Of the newcomers, nine are freshman with the other eight transferring to The Mesa.
- In the record books, the Aztecs have added or bested 25 different marks in the record book this outdoor season. In total, current athletes own 34 marks.
- SDSU currently has six individual marks that lead the Mountain West this season. Jessica Kain leads the conference in both the 800m and 1,500m while Hannah Waller leads in the 100m, Shaquena Foote leads in the 400m, Jordan Leveque leads in pole vault and Jenna Fee Feyerabend leads in heptathlon. The Aztecs also have the fastest 4x100m relay time of the season.
- Jenna Fee Feyerabend quite possibly became the first Aztec to qualify for the NCAA Championships this season. In the elite invitational heptathlon at the Mt. SAC Relays, she recorded a PR and three season bests on her way to 5,750 points. The total currently ranks seventh in the West Region and 10th overall in the NCAA.
- Hannah Waller is in her second year in the Scarlet and Black but first outdoor season, missing the 2023 campaign due to injury. She is carrying over the success she had in indoor into outdoor etching four marks into the record books. She owns the third fastest 100m time, the second best long jump mark, and ran as part of the fourth and tenth fastest 4x100m relay times.
- Jessica Kain has had a terrific start to her final season on The Mesa leading the Mountain West in both the 800m and 1500m through the first month of the outdoor season. She battled the rain at the Aztec Invitational to win the 800m race with a time of 2:07.52, the ninth fastest time in program history. The following weekend at the Stanford Invitational, she ran in the fastest section of the 1500m posting a time of 4:15.99 to break the SDSU senior class record set back in 1982. She quickly followed that up with a 4:14.07 in the 1500m to best her own senior class record and number two ranking on the all-time list.
- The Aztecs as a whole have enjoyed a successful season in the 1500m run. Along with Kain's win at the Aztec Invitational, Alex Lomeli ran a 4:23.83, Samantha Wood ran a 4:29.20, and Isabella Fauria ran a 4:30.29. Those three times rank fifth, eighth and 11th fastest in SDSU history.
- The 4x100m relay has been another strength for SDSU. The team of Jada Pierre, Aji Mbye, Hannah Waller and Jada Moore have had three races thus far taking second place at the Aztec Invitational, dominating the Arnie Robinson Invitational, and winning the Triton Invitational. Their season best time of 44.31 at the Arnie Robinson meet ranks the ninth fastest in program history and set a meet and stadium record at San Diego Mesa. Last weekend at the Mt. SAC Relays, Shaquena Foote joined the team with Waller, Moore and Mbye en route to a 43.79 which leads the conference and ranks fourth in SDSU history.
- Jordan Leveque became the 21st Aztec to clear 3.82m in her collegiate debut during indoor season and began her outdoor career in a similar fashion. In the first outdoor meet of her career, she cleared 4.07m (13-04.25) to finish tied for fourth at the Aztec Invitational. She ranks tied for 13th in program history and she is just the 20th different SDSU pole vaulter to clear 3.97m.
- Vanessa Cabello entered the Bryan Clay Invitational with the fifth fastest 5,000m time and the sophomore class record in the event. On Friday night, she improved that number five ranking with a 16:38.76 to finish 13th overall in the event.
- Maddie Heller is running in her first outdoor season as an Aztec and put her name into the outdoor record book at the Bryan Clay Invitational. Crossing the finish in 36:46.06, she now ranks tenth all-time in SDSU history and currently ranks ninth in the conference performance list.
- NCAA Indoor All-American, Xiamara Young, competed in her first outdoor triple jump as an Aztec this past weekend. Competing in the elite invitational portion of the meet, she jumped 12.68m (41-7.25) finishing eighth in the event and moving into eighth all-time on San Diego State's all-time top ten.
