What you need to know

Penn State Meet

- Michigan and Penn State will meet for the 59th time with the Wolverines leading the all-time series 48-10.
- The last time U-M traveled to State College was in 2016 for the Big Five meet. The Wolverines placed third with a score of 196.875.
- The Wolverines were in State College for its 2014 Big Ten Championship victory (197.550).
- The 2012 season was the last time U-M and Penn State met in State College outside of a Big Five or Big Ten Championship meet. Penn State topped Michigan 196.000-195.900 in that meet.
- Penn State head coach Sarah Shire Brown was a volunteer assistant coach for Michigan in 2016.
- The Nittany Lions are seventh in the Big Ten with a 1-3 conference record and are 3-4 overall.

Last Time Out

- Michigan improved to 4-0 in the Big Ten with a season-high 197.350 against Iowa at home.
- The Wolverines posted season highs on both the uneven bars (49.500) and balance beam (49.475).
- Nine U-M routines matched or set a career high.
- The Wolverines swept the event titles with freshman Abby Brenner claiming her first career win with a 9.850 on vault, senior Olivia Karas and freshman Natalie Wojcik tying for the win on bars with a 9.950, junior Lexi Funk winning beam for the first time in her career with a 9.950, Karas adding a win on floor exercise with a 9.925 and Wojcik taking the all-around crown with a 39.550.
- Freshman Abby Heiskell made her collegiate debut, competing on vault and floor.

Big Ten Conference

- With two meets left in the conference season, there is a two-way tie for first place with Michigan and No. 16 Minnesota at 4-0.
- Ohio State fell one back in the standings after a loss to Maryland last weekend.
- This weekend Minnesota hosts Maryland on Friday at 8:30 p.m. No. 17 Nebraska travels to No. 22 Ohio State.

In the Rankings

- U-M moved up two spots to No. 8 in the latest rankings.
- The Wolverines moved up two spots to No. 8 on bars, three spots to No. 8 on beam and the biggest jump came on floor, going from No. 20 to No. 16.
- Wojcik is ranked No. 4 on balance beam with five wins this season. She is also No. 10 in the all-around and T-12th on bars.
- Senior Emma McLean is No. 7 on vault despite not competing the event the last two weeks. Brenner is also ranked on vault at T-26th.
- Karas is No. 27 on floor and 34th on bars, while ranking No. 20 in the all-around.
- Michigan was ranked No. 9 in the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association preseason poll.
- This marks the eighth straight year the Wolverines were among the top 10 teams in the preseason poll and 20th time in the last 21 seasons there has been a preseason ranking.
- The Wolverines were ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten coaches preseason poll on Dec. 13. Michigan was once again picked as the favorite after winning five straight Big Ten titles.

Captains

Two captains were chosen prior to the start of school with senior Emma McLean and junior Lexi Funk chosen to lead the 2018 team.

Wojcik An NCAA Star

- Freshman Natalie Wojcik became an instant star with her college debut, winning three events and the all-around while setting a record for all-around score in a U-M debut at 39.625.
- She has won at least two individual events five of the six meets this season, tallying 13 total. She has also won the all-around five times with three scores above a 39.500.
- Wojcik has posted a 9.900 on all four events at some point this season and has twice hit the 39.625 mark in the all-around.

Weekly Honors

- Wojcik swept the Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors in January to join Olivia Karas as the only Wolverine to win the award the first four weeks in a season.
- The Gymnast of the Week honor has also went to Wojcik three times in the first six weeks of the season.
- McLean and Funk have both been named Big Ten Event Specialist of the Week on the year.

Maxim Joins Lineup

- Sophomore transfer Anne Maxim made her Michigan debut on the uneven bars at Maryland and stuck her vault for a 9.800 in her first time competing in that lineup for the Wolverines against Iowa last weekend.

Floor Queen

- Karas made her first appearance on floor exercise since suffering a season-ending injury on the event last season when the team traveled to Alabama.
- Karas was added last minute to the lineup and scored a 9.725 in an emotional return.
- After her season debut, she has won floor in each of the last four meets, scoring a 9.925 or better in three consecutive outings.

Freshmen Impact

- Wojcik has been a standout as a freshman but the other three in her class have provided a big lift for Michigan this season.
- Brenner, Heiskell and Maddie Mariani have combined to hit on all 33 of their routines in 2019.
- Heiskell made her debut on two events, Brenner has been a regular on three apparatuses and Mariani has competed on three events.

O'Hara Out for the Season

- Junior Maggie O'Hara suffered a season-ending injury during floor warmups at Maryland as she was set to compete her first floor routine in college.
- O'Hara had hit all six of her routines on bars and beam in the first three meets after only competing one career beam routine in her first two seasons.

Cancun Classic Champions

- The 2019 season started off with the Wolverines claiming their third straight Cancun Classic championship. The team scored a 196.050 to add to its collection of titles from 2013 and 2016.
- The first two competitors for U-M fell off the beam but Michigan rebounded to hit its next 22 routines in the meet and earn the victory.
- The podium was dominated by Wolverines after the meet as they had three of the top four on vault, six of the top seven on bars, four of the top five on beam and the top competitor on floor.
- The team had a bonding trip the day following the meet, renting a catamaran that took them snorkeling and swimming dolphins.
