STORYLINES

Up to Bat

Penn State opens its 13th baseball season at Medlar Field at Lubrano Park Friday at 4 p.m., hosting UMass Lowell in a four-game series. The series continues with a doubleheader starting at noon Saturday and a single game Sunday starting at noon.

Good Start

- Penn State's 10-3 start is its best since starting the 1980 season 11-2.
- Penn State's overall record currently ranks tied for first in the Big Ten with Illinois (10-3).
- Penn State went undefeated in February for the first time in program history.
- Penn State's 10 wins are its most before playing a home game since winning 12 of 18 games before the 2011 home opener.
- In terms of winning percentage, Penn State's .769 start prior to playing a home game presently ranks as the best in the current scheduling era. In 1983, Penn State first started playing games in late February/early March, and enjoyed its best road/neutral start in 2000 (13-5; .722).
- Penn State is 4-0 in games decided by one run this season after going 5-13 in one-run games last season.

Pitching Prowess

- Penn State ranks among the national and Big Ten leaders in pitching with a WHIP of 1.14 (2nd Big Ten, 18th NCAA) and hits allowed per nine innings rate of 6.71 (2nd Big Ten, 19th NCAA).
- Penn State's strikeout-to-walk ratio of 2.66 ranks second in the Big Ten, and its 3.58 walks allowed per nine innings ranks third.
- Penn State's 3.89 ERA ranks fourth in the Big Ten and is a big improvement over last season's 5.90 ERA through the first 13 games.
- Penn State's bullpen has seen four different pitchers earn six saves.
- Penn State held Monmouth scoreless for 21.1 innings to open the season. The eight hits allowed to Monmouth were Penn State's fewest in a three-game span since at least 2004.
- Penn State earned its first Opening Day shutout since 1977 and first back-to-back season-opening shutouts in program history.

Mellott Earning A Lot of Decisions

- Sophomore Mason Mellott has emerged as Penn State's relief ace. He is 3-0 and has two saves, factoring in on five of Penn State's 10 wins.
- Mellott is tied for second on the team in innings pitched with 21.0, trailing Bailey Dees (21.1) by one out.
- Mellott leads the team with a 1.29 ERA that ranks fourth in the Big Ten tied for 70th in the NCAA.

Spring Break Success

- The Nittany Lions took two of three at UCF. The Knights entered the series with two wins over ranked opponents and were one of the first four team's left out of last season's NCAA Tournament.
- Penn State snapped a four-game losing streak against nationally-ranked teams against No. 21 Duke earning its first top-25 win since defeating No. 22 Nebraska, 8-7, May 18, 2017.
- Penn State earned its first win over a nationally-ranked opponent away from home since defeating No. 19 Purdue, 16-6, April 1, 2012.

PROGRAM NOTES

First Varsity Sport

Baseball was Penn State's first varsity sport, playing its first games in 1875.

Five College World Series Appearances

Penn State has made five trips to the College World Series, placing as high as second in 1957. The Nittany Lions reached the CWS in 1952, 1957, 1959, 1963 and 1973. Penn State has reached the NCAA Tournament 19 times.

1996 Big Ten Champions

The 2016 season marked the 20th anniversary of Penn State's first Big Ten Championship.

Nittany Lions in Cuba

Penn State participated in a weeklong, four-game tour of Cuba, Nov. 21-28, 2015. The Nittany Lions went 1-3 in the "Cuba Baseball Friendship Tournament." The Lions played against teams from Cuba's top "professional" league, the National Series, becoming the first United States team to play multiple teams from the league and the first to earn a victory.

The team also participated in lectures about Cuban baseball, Jose Marti and the history of Cuban sports and U.S. relations.

Penn State first played Industriales in Havana's Estadio Latinoamericano, falling 2-1. With the game, Penn State became the first NCAA Division I team to compete against a Cuban National Series team, the first U.S. baseball team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties with Cuba, the second NCAA team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties (Coastal Carolina men's basketball, August 2015) and the fifth NCAA Division I baseball team to compete in post-revolutionary Cuba.

Penn State next played Ciego de Avila, the league's defending champion. Starting pitcher Victor Garcia had pitched for Cuba in the 2009 World Baseball Classic, and the Lions were defeated, 2-0.

Penn State earned the first victory for a United States team at any level over a Cuban National Series team in game three, defeating Mayabeque, 9-3.

Nittany Lions in the Pros

According to Baseball-Almanac.com, 27 Nittany Lions have gone on to play Major League Baseball. A total of 76 have been drafted.

Five Nittany Lions are in Major League organizations. Two 2016 draft picks are entering their fourth pro seasons: Pitcher Jack Anderson is in the Seattle Mariners organization and infielder Jim Haley is in the Tampa Bay Rays organization. A 2017 draft pick, pitcher Sal Biasi, is entering his third season and is with the Milwaukee Brewers organization. Justin Hagenman, who was tabbed by the Los Angeles Dodgers last June, enters his second season, while free agent signee pitcher Taylor Lehman does the same with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Did you know?

O.J. McDuffie is mostly known for his stellar career on the gridiron for Penn State and in the NFL, but he also played baseball in 1990. He stole 20 bases (1-3rd, single season-school history) on 21 attempts (96 percent clip), hit .336 and had a .969 fielding percentage. He was drafted by the California Angels in the 41st round of the 1991 MLB June Amateur Draft.

Medlar Field at Lubrano Park

Situated in the shadow of Beaver Stadium, the facility -- completed in June of 2006 -- is arguably one of the premier collegiate stadiums in the country.

The ballpark's signature is the breathtaking view of legendary Mt. Nittany, a local landmark that is near and dear to the heart of every Penn Stater. With the stadium opening to the east, spectators can peer unencumbered down the Nittany Valley for miles and on a clear day Tussey Mountain Ski Resort can be seen from 10 miles away.

Seating capacity for Medlar Field is 5,406 and 20 luxury suites allow area companies to treat clients and friends to an unmatched baseball experience. A party deck along the right field line provides a good place for friends to gather and the picnic pavilion beyond the left field fence is perfect for birthday parties and group outings.

Much like the rest of the park, the dimensions of the playing field are unique as well. A relatively short 325 feet to the left field pole stretches out to the deepest part of the park, the 410 foot nook in left center field. Straightaway center is 399 feet and the 320 foot right field fence is made more daunting with an 18.55 feet high wall, which commemorates the year Penn State was founded.

A 2,500 square foot press box can accommodate traveling and local media and has private broadcast booths for up to three radio teams. A large video scoreboard towers above the left field wall capable of providing up to the minute stats and video replays.

The stadium is named for 1982 Penn State graduate Anthony Lubrano and former Nittany Lion Head Coach Charles "Chuck" Medlar. Lubrano chose to honor Coach Medlar with a generous financial gift toward the realization of the long-discussed project. Coach Medlar served at the helm of the Penn State program for 19 years and guided the Lions to two College World Series appearances.

Team No. 131

Penn State is playing its 131st baseball season in program history.

SERIES NOTES

All-Time vs. UMass Lowell

First Meeting

Head Coach Ken Harring

Ken Harring enters his 14th season as head coach of the River Hawks. Since joining Division I play in 2014, he has lead the program to four seasons of 20 or more wins. Harring was a four-year player at Division I Le Moyne College where he helped the Dolphins to NCAA Tournament bids in 1986, 1987 and 1989

Scouting UMass Lowell

UMass Lowell is 2-13 to start 2019, playing a grueling schedule featuring series t Arizona, at No. 9 Georgia and at No. 5 North Carolina. The River Hawks two wins have come in its last four games, taking one at George Washington and one at Radford. UMass Lowell finished second in the America East last season and was tabbed to finish third in the conference's preseason coaches poll.

The Smallest Swinging the Biggest Bats

- Gavin Homer is Penn State's shortest player at 5-9 and Kris Kremer is the lightest at 166 pounds, but both lead the team with three home runs each and rank Nos. 1 and 2 on the team in slugging and extra-base hits.
- Kremer is slugging a team-best (.583), which ranks fifth in the Big Ten, and is second on the team with six extra-base hits (2 double, 1 triple, 3 home runs).
- Homer is slugging .578, which ranks seventh in the Big Ten, with a team-high eight extra base hits (team-high 5 doubles and 3 home runs). He is the only player on the team with more extra-base hits (8) than singles (4).

Homer Hitting Homers

- Gavin Homer is tied for the team lead in home runs with three, and all three have had a flair for the dramatic.
- Homer's first homer was a walk-off home run in the bottom of the 11th inning in the series opener against Fairfield (2/24).
- Homer hit a first-inning lead-off home run in Penn State's series finale against No. 21 Duke. It was the first since Nick Riotta hit one against Maryland on April 30, 2016.
- Homer slugged a grand slam in the seventh inning at UCF to break open the game. The slam was the first for Penn State since Ryan Sloniger hit one against NJIT on Mar. 18, 2018. Homer's slam was also the first of back-to-back home runs, as Jordan Bowersox followed it with a shot over the left field wall, as well. The last time Penn State had hit back-to-back home runs was at Pitt on Apr. 5, 2017 (Bowersox and Christian Helse).

Freshmen Shine

- A trio of freshmen led Penn State to a 7-3 victory over Pittsburgh Tuesday.
- A pair of freshmen making their first starts led the offense from the eighth and ninth spots. Batting eighth, designated hitter Ryan reached base four times, walking three times tallying a double for his first career hit and scoring three times.
- Batting ninth, third baseman Justin Williams hit a two-run double in the second inning for his first career hit, and finished the day batting 3-for-5 with four RBIs.
- Ford and Williams were the first freshmen to start for Penn State this season.
- On the mound, freshman LHP Tyler Shingledecker earned his first career win, throwing a career-high four innings in relief and limiting Pitt to one run on four hits and a walk. He also struck out four.

Bowersox Raking

- Jordan Bowersox leads Penn State in batting (.353), runs (12), hits (18), hit by pitches (4) and on-base percentage. He also has the team's longest active hitting streak at six games.
- During his streak, Bowersox is 11-for-28 (.393) with two doubles, a home run and an RBI.

Three-Homer Games

- After going six seasons without hitting three or more home runs in a game, Penn State accomplished the feat twice in a span of five games.
- Kris Kremer single-handedly hit three home runs for Penn State against No. 21 Duke (3/2), and then Mason Nadeau, Gavin Homer and Jordan Bowersox each hit home runs at UCF (3/10).
- Prior to Penn State's spring break trip, the last time it totaled three or more home runs in a game was May 12, 2000 against Illinois. It also totaled four home runs April 1, 2012 at Purdue.

Kremer Has A Day

- OF Kris Kremer was named as one of Collegiate Baseball's National Players of the Week and was a nominee for USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award Performance of the Week after hitting the first three home runs of his career, tying the team record, to lead the Nittany Lions past No. 21 Duke, 8-7, Saturday, Mar. 2.
- Kremer also set career bests going 4-for-4 with six RBIs.
- Kremer was one of 19 honorees by Collegiate Baseball and one of four nominees for the USA Baseball Award. In fan balloting, Kremer finished second for the USA Baseball honor.
- Kremer is the third Nittany Lion to ever hit three home runs in a game, joining Adam Beers (1998) and John Schreiner (1990).
- Kremer's six RBIs were the most by a Nittany Lion in a game since Aaron Novak drove in eight runs at Charleston Southern on March 8, 2015.
- Kremer has a tendency for extra base hits—as a freshman, he had five doubles and one triple to go along with five singles.

Rob
COOPER

Sixth Year
Miami (Fla.), 1994

Head Coach

The 2019 baseball season will be Rob Cooper's sixth as head coach of the Nittany Lion baseball program. Cooper was selected as the 14th head baseball coach in Penn State history on August 9, 2013. Not shy about stating his ultimate goal of returning Penn State to Omaha in June, the Lions have made significant strides under his leadership.

Program highlights under his guidance include four players drafted and five total signed by MLB teams in the last three seasons, ending a three-year drought, and the winningest season since 2012. However, his strong belief in the first part of the term "student-athlete" is perhaps the top reason he has proven to be an excellent fit at Penn State. Even with state-of-the-art facilities, the chance to take on elite competition and a program history that includes five trips to the College World Series, Cooper cites the value of a Penn State degree as one of the top reasons to play baseball at Penn State.

In 2018, Justin Hagenman joined Sal Biasi, Jim Haley and Jack Anderson as recent Nittany Lion draft selections, while fellow pitcher and Cooper's first Penn State signee, Taylor Lehman, signed as a free agent with the Phillies. Hagenman was selected by the Dodgers in the 23rd round with the 704th overall pick, becoming the third Penn State pitcher to be drafted in the past three years, joining Royals' 2017 selection Biasi (11th round) and Mariners' 2016 selection Anderson (23rd round). Before Anderson's selection in 2016, just one Penn State pitcher had been taken in the previous six years (Joe Kurrasch, 2012, 8th round, Giants). Biasi was also the highest Nittany Lion pick overall in five years. A member of Cooper's first full recruiting class, Biasi led Penn State during the 2017 season, earning All-Big Ten second team honors following a career year with 88 strikeouts - the most by a Nittany Lion pitcher since 2009 and tied for the ninth-most in a single season at Penn State.

Hagenman is the 11th player to be drafted during Cooper's career as a head coach and the fourth in his tenure at Penn State. During a successful nine-year stint as the head coach at Wright State, seven of the players were drafted, including eventual Major Leaguer Joe Smith, and 12 more signed professional free agent contracts. Haley played all three seasons at Penn State under Cooper, while Anderson dramatically improved over his final three seasons to become Penn State's all-time leader in appearances and saves.

Penn State baseball's trip to Cuba prior to the 2016 season is perhaps the best example of Cooper's commitment to the first part of the "student-athlete" term. The Nittany Lions attended academic lectures and toured Havana, becoming the first NCAA Division I team to compete against a Cuban National Series team, the first U.S. team at any level to defeat a Cuban National Series team, the first U.S. baseball team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties with Cuba, the second NCAA team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties (Coastal Carolina men's basketball, August 2015) and the fifth NCAA Division I baseball team to compete in post-revolutionary Cuba. The harmony between academics and athletics was on full display, as multiple Penn State professors and a group of journalism students also joined the travel party.

The rare, once-in-a-lifetime experience helped bring a young Penn State team together, and the Lions went on to earn their first winning record (overall and conference) since 2012. The starting lineup included at least three freshmen in all but six games and five to six freshmen in 19 games, and took on nine eventual NCAA Tournament teams, including a three-game series at home against College World Series participant TCU. The Lions' 28 wins were a 10-win improvement over the previous season, and its 12 Big Ten wins doubled the 2015 total. The season ended with a 12-inning, walk-off victory. Haley and Anderson were the first drafted out of Penn State since 2012, and Anderson and senior outfielder Greg Guers became the program's first All-Big Ten picks also since 2012. Hagenman became Penn State's first Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American since 1997.

In his five seasons at Penn State, Cooper's student-athletes have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors 49 times, including Anderson, who in 2016 became the first Nittany Lion in six years to be named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. As a military history buff, Cooper's speeches to the team often include historical references. He even arranged to have the team visit the headquarters of the Navy SEAL Team VI headquarters and speak with a pair of Navy SEALs - one a Penn State alum - during a travel day on the team's 2015 spring break trip.

The Lions started making gains during his second season in Happy Valley in 2015. Penn State totaled 18 wins against a schedule ranking in the bottom third nationally during his inaugural campaign in 2014, but rose to the challenge the following season, matching the previous season's 18 wins despite playing a schedule that ranked in the upper third in difficulty and involved 10 games against Top 25 opponents. The Nittany Lions rallied from a 7-0 deficit against No. 21 Indiana for their first win over a ranked opponent in three seasons and gave eighth-ranked Illinois its biggest scare during its record winning streak, battling for 15 innings. Penn State ultimately won one more conference game than the year before, despite the Big Ten enjoying arguably its most competitive season to date with a league-record five teams earning NCAA Tournament bids.

Shortly after Cooper accepted the PSU head coaching position in 2014, the California native traveled to Taichung, Taiwan to serve as the head coach of USA Baseball's 18U National Team at the IBAF U18 World Cup. Cooper steered Team USA to an 8-1 record in World Cup play, including seven consecutive victories to win the gold medal.

Not long after the triumph in Taiwan, Cooper received one of the highest honors bestowed in the profession, as he was announced as the Rod Dedeaux USA Baseball Coach of the Year. With the honor, Cooper became just the 16th individual in the award's history to receive the accolade, joining the likes of Scott Brosius, Davey Johnson and Tommy Lasorda.

Cooper was also a member of the coaching staff for the 2007 and 2009 USA College National teams. The 2007 team earned a silver medal at the Pan Am Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Fourteen of the 20 players on the 2007 team reached the Major Leagues, including 2013 All-Star Pedro Alvarez. Fourteen of the 22 members of the 2009 team also reached the Major Leagues, including 2015 All-Stars Gerrit Cole and Yasmani Grandall.

Cooper brought an accomplished resume to Penn State that included three NCAA Tournament appearances as a head coach at Wright State and five more at various stops as an assistant coach, including two trips to the College World Series with Miami (Florida). Cooper was twice named the Horizon League Coach of the Year and guided Wright State to three league tournament championships and two regular-season championships after the team suffered six losing seasons in the seven years before his arrival.

Cooper methodically built Wright State into a perennial contender in the Horizon League with seven 30-win seasons, two Horizon League regular-season titles, three Horizon League Tournament crowns and six Horizon League Championship game appearances. In nine seasons starting in 2005, Cooper accumulated a 286-230 record, including a pair of wins over No. 1-ranked opponents Virginia (3/5/10) and Georgia (3/24/09). He was named the Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2011.

Cooper guided 47 players to all-conference accolades and 18 to all-newcomer honors. He also produced five Horizon League Players of the Year, one Pitcher of the Year, three Relief Pitchers of the Year and two Newcomers of the Year.

The 2011 season saw Cooper record his 200th coaching victory and earn the Horizon League Coach of the Year award for the second consecutive year. The Raiders won their second-straight Horizon League regular season title with a 16-7 record, claimed the league tournament crown by winning three-straight games and advanced to the NCAA Regionals in College Station, Texas. In 2010, the Raiders won the Horizon League regular-season title with a mark of 17-6, the first regular-season conference crown for the program since the 1997 squad won the Midwestern Collegiate Conference title. The 2009 Wright State Raiders compiled a 33-30 overall record and returned to the NCAA Tournament following a Horizon League Tournament championship.

At season's end in 2008, Cooper watched as a school and Horizon League-record three players were drafted during the 2008 Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft. In 2007, Wright State enjoyed one of the most prolific offensive seasons in school history as it broke three career records and 11 single-season school records. Ross Oeder, a former assistant coach on Cooper's staff, was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and garnered second-team All-America Honors. The 2006 edition of the Raiders set six school records and posted the most season wins in five years. Cooper's squad defeated nationally-ranked TCU on the road, topped national powerhouse Notre Dame in South Bend and was on the brink of an upset against eventual National Champion Oregon State in the NCAA Corvallis Regional.

Before arriving at Wright State, Cooper served as the hitting coach, recruiting coordinator and bench coach at Oral Roberts University. A perennial power of the Mid-Continent Conference (now Summit League), ORU advanced to the finals of the NCAA Austin Regional in 2004, beating TCU twice before falling to Texas, 7-3 and 7-5. The Golden Eagles finished with an overall mark of 50-11 in 2004 and had five players selected in the Major League Baseball draft, two honored as All-Americans by the ABCA and three named All-Americans by the College Baseball Insiders website.

Cooper began his coaching career at national power Miami, spending two seasons (1994-95) as a student/graduate assistant on the Hurricanes' staff. While at Miami, Cooper helped the Hurricanes to College World Series berths in 1994 and 1995. Cooper spent the 1996 season as an assistant and team academic coordinator at Wake Forest, then moved on to Tulane for the next two seasons, serving as the Green Wave's hitting coach. In 1997, the Green Wave won the Conference USA regular-season crown, and in 1998, they advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Cooper left Tulane following the 1998 season and returned to Sacramento City College, where he starred in the early 1990's before lettering at Miami in 1993.

Along with his college coaching experience, Cooper also was an associate scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 1990-92 and has been selected to four coaching stints with USA Baseball in 2000, 2007, 2009 and 2013.

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Miami in 1994 and a master's in sports sciences/administration from Miami in 1996. He is married to his wife, Maureen, and has two sons, Jake and Tyson.
