ORTIZ, ETLING EARN BIG HONORS

Junior transfer Joe Ortiz, a defender from Albuquerque, New Mexico, was named the Big Ten Men's Soccer Offensive Player of the Week Sept. 10 after a productive weekend at the Dayton Classic. He scored the game winner in overtime vs. Dayton Sept. 6 in a 1-0 Ohio State win and then assisted on the Buckeyes' first goal Sept. 8 in a 3-2 win over Eastern Illinois. Devyn Etling made it back-to-back POW awards last Tuesday for the Buckeyes after he scored and assisted on another goal in Ohio State's 2-1 win at Bowling Green. Etling then went out and scored twice in Ohio State's 2-0 win at South Florida.

BUCKEYES IN THE BIG TEN

As Ohio State enters conference play, a couple Buckeyes are among the Big Ten leaders in a number of statistical categories. Senior Jack Holland leads the league in assists per game with 0.5 and total assists (3). Devyn Etling leads in game-winning goals (2), goals per game (0.83) and points per game (1.83) and total points (11). A LOOK AT THE 2019 SCHEDULE

Three College Cup opponents, all from the Big Ten Conference are just a few of the seven total teams on Ohio State's 2019 schedule that played in the NCAA Tournament last year. Defending national champion Maryland, Michigan State and Indiana all played in the College Cup a season ago. The Buckeyes travel to Michigan State (Oct. 19), host the Terrapins (Oct. 25) and travel to Indiana (Oct. 29).

Maisonneuve on the 2019 Schedule

"Our 2019 schedule is loaded with talented teams," Maisonneuve said. "We start playing against a very tough west coast opponent in CSUN and then battle a UIC team that has a strong tradition of NCAA Tournament appearances. The Big Ten Conference is always one of the best in the country. We had three teams make the College Cup last year and the league will be even tougher this year. We have eight homes games at the

A NEW ERA OF OSU MEN'S SOCCER

Head coach Brian Maisonneuve is in his second year as head coach of the Buckeyes. Maisonneuve came from Indiana University where he was associate head coach for the Hoosiers. As one of the top assistants in the country, Maisonneuve guided Indiana to the 2012 NCAA National Title, a NCAA runner-up finish in 2017, the 2010 Big Ten Regular-Season Title as well as the 2013 Big Ten Tournament Championship. Maisonneuve, a native of Warren, Mich., was one of the top players in Indiana soccer history, winning the Hermann Trophy in 1994. He spent nine seasons with the Columbus Crew from 1996-2004 and was a member of the United States' 1998 World Cup team. Maisonneuve is assisted by associate head coach Sergio Gonzalez, assistant coach Matt Foldesy and director of operations Chad Barson.

BRIAN MAISONNEUVE HEAD COACH

2ND SEASON, INDIANA '95

Brian Maisonneuve, a former member of the U.S. National Team and Columbus Crew, was named head men's soccer coach at The Ohio State University April 23, 2018.

"We are fortunate to add Brian Maisonneuve to our outstanding lineup of head coaches," Gene Smith, Ohio State Senior Vice President and Wolfe Foundation Endowed Director of Athletics said. "He has competed at a high level and coached in one of the most successful collegiate programs nationally. We look forward to the opportunities our student-athletes will have under Brian's direction."

Maisonneuve was one of the top assistants in all of college soccer at Indiana for the decade prior to him taking over at Ohio State. Wherever Maisonneuve has coached, success has followed. He helped guide the Hoosiers to the 2012 NCAA National Championship, a NCAA runner-up finish in 2017, the 2010 Big Ten Regular Season Title as well as the 2013 Big Ten Tournament Championship.

"First of all I want to thank Gene Smith, Shaun Richard and the entire committee for giving me this incredible opportunity to lead The Ohio State University men's soccer program," Maisonneuve said the day he was hired in Columbus. "My family and I are so excited to get back to Columbus and join the Buckeye family."

In all, Maisonneuve helped lead Indiana to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including two College Cups and four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances. An All-American during his playing days for the Hoosiers (1991-94), Maisonneuve was part of Todd Yeagley's staff for nine years, coaching nine All-Americans as well as 22 players who went on to play professional soccer, including 14 in MLS.

"I also want to thank Todd Yeagley, Fred Glass and the entire IU Athletics Department for my years in Bloomington," Maisonneuve said. "IU is a very special place to me. I am so thankful and appreciative for my time in Bloomington as a player and a coach. There will always be a special place in my heart for the entire Hoosier Nation."

"I am excited to get to work and continue to grow the Ohio State program into one of the elite soccer programs in the country. John [Bluem] did a great job over the last 21 years and I am so honored for this opportunity. This is an incredible athletics department with tremendous resources."

Maisonneuve, who replaces John Bluem (retired in March of 2018), was named the NSCAA Assistant Coach of the Year for the Great Lakes Region in 2012 and 2015. In 2016, Maisonneuve was named one of the Top 12 assistants in the nation for the third-consecutive year and fifth time in his career. From 2010-17, the Hoosiers had 21 players named first team All-Big Ten and 50 student-athletes earn Big Ten honors. IU players also earned nine conference player of the year accolades in that time. The Hoosiers excelled in the classroom, compiling 102 Academic All-Big Ten honors.

"Our search committee conducted a very thorough national search and during that process, Brian Maisonneuve's name continued to come up," Shaun Richard, associate AD, sport administration, said. "His experience as a player at the highest level, working with a national championship program as a coach and his high character and core values as a person made him the perfect fit for our program. I'm excited to work with Brian moving forward to execute his vision for Ohio State men's soccer."

Prior to his return to Bloomington, Maisonneuve was on staff at the University of Louisville from 2008-09. During his two seasons, the Cardinals were 24-11-4 overall and 13-7-1 in Big East play with two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Maisonneuve spent four years as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-17 National Team in Florida. He also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 National Team in 2007 during the CONCACAF qualification process and coached the U-20s in the 2007 FIFA World Cup in Canada.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Maisonneuve had a decorated playing career. He spent nine seasons with the Columbus Crew from 1996-2004 and was a member of the United States' 1998 World Cup team, appearing in all three matches. He also was a member of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team, leading the squad with a pair of goals in the tournament.

Maisonneuve, a native of Warren, Mich., is one of the top players in Indiana soccer history. Playing alongside Todd Yeagley, under legendary coach Jerry Yeagley, he earned All-America honors as a junior and senior and was named the Hermann Trophy winner in 1994. A two-time Big Ten Player of the Year, Maisonneuve finished his career with 44 goals and 22 assists and led Indiana to a pair of NCAA College Cup appearances and back-to-back Big Ten regular season titles. During his four years at Indiana the Hoosiers were 73-15-7. He also was a four-time All-Big Ten selection and three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. Maisonneuve earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana.

"The City of Columbus has always been like a second home for Diania and me. We can't wait to get back and get started."

Maisonneuve and his wife Diania have two children, Jacob and Emma.
