Opening Tips

• Illinois heads back East for the second part of its two-game road trip, facing No. 9 Penn State on Tuesday (5:30 p.m. CT). It is an All-Access broadcast on FS1, featuring both head coaches mic'd up and bringing viewers into team huddles and the locker rooms.

• Following seven consecutive wins, the Illini are now looking to snap a four-game losing streak.

• Illinois also is looking to end a six-game skid against Penn State. Illinois' last victory over the Nittany Lions was Jan. 31, 2015 in Champaign. The Illini's last win at the Jordan Center, meanwhile, came on Feb. 9, 2014.

• Illinois has dropped 18 straight against Top 25 opponents in true road games. Illinois beat No. 13 Maryland last season at Madison Square Garden, but the Illini's last victory on a ranked team's home court was a 66-63 win at No. 24 Iowa on March 8, 2014, on a Jon Ekey three with :00.5 left.

• Illinois' last road win over a Top-10 team was an 85-73 victory at No. 10 Gonzaga on Dec. 8, 2012. The Illini's last conference road win against a Top-10 team, meanwhile, was a 71-67 OT victory at No. 9 Purdue on Dec. 30, 2008.

• Illinois concludes five-straight Quad 1 games on Tuesday, a stretch dating back to Feb. 2 at Iowa.

- Four of Illinois' remaining six regular season games are either Quad 1 (3) or Quad 2 (1).
 - Illinois has won three Big Ten road games, tied with Michigan State and Wisconsin for third-most in the league behind Penn State and Maryland (4 apiece).
 - Illinois is second in the Big Ten in scoring defense during league play, allowing 63.6 ppg.
 - The Illini rank fourth in field goal percentage defense (.407) and third in 3-point percentage defense (.314) in conference games.
 - The Illini head to Penn State looking for their sixth Quad 1 win of the season. Three of Illinois' five Quad 1 victories have come on the road: at Michigan (26), at Wisconsin (31) and at Purdue (33), with the home wins against Michigan (26) and Rutgers (30).
 - The Illini also have two Quad 2 wins – both at home – with the victory against Purdue (33) just missing Quad 1 status (top 30).
 - Illinois was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for five straight weeks from Jan. 13-Feb. 10. It marked Illinois' longest streak since appearing in eight straight AP polls from Nov. 26, 2012-Jan. 14, 2013.
 - Illinois (+8.0) trails just Penn State and West Virginia for the largest turnaround so far this season among schools from the six major conferences.
 - Illinois has surpassed last year's win total by four games and last season's BIG win total by one game.
 - Illinois is averaging just 10.2 turnovers over the last 13 games, tallying single digits seven times.
 - Illinois ranks fourth in the NCAA in rebound margin (+8.7), trailing Houston, UC Irvine and Gonzaga.
 - Illinois has outrebounded its opponent in 18 of 25 games, and 10 times by double digits.
 - Illinois ranks sixth nationally in offensive rebound rate (36.3%) and is averaging 12.2 second-chance ppg.
 - The Illini are 15-1 this season, and 35-3 in the Underwood era, when shooting better than the opponent.
 - Illinois has made 39 more free throws than its opponents have attempted on the season, and are currently outscoring foes by an average of 5.6 points per game at the foul line.
 - Illinois is No. 17 in the nation in defensive free throw rate at 23.1% (FTA/FGA), a complete contrast from last season when the Illini defense ranked 338th out of 353 teams in that same category (42.4%).
- Player Items
- Sophomore Ayo Dosunmu leads the team and is sixth in the Big Ten in scoring at 15.8 ppg. He has reached double digits in 20 of the 24 games he's played in, with five 20-point performances.
 - Dosunmu has scored in double figures in 14 of his last 15 games, including a career-long active streak of nine straight contests.
 - Dosunmu is averaging 17.0 points (153), 4.7 rebounds (42) and 4.2 assists (38) over his last nine games.

Last Time Out: Illini Latest Victim at The RAC

Playing for the first time this season without leading scorer and playmaker Ayo Dosunmu, the Illini battled for the first 26 minutes before running out of steam, dropping a 72-57 decision at Rutgers as the Scarlet Knights remained undefeated (17-0) on their homecourt.

There were two changes in the starting lineup, with Andres Feliz moving from his usual 6th-man role in place of Dosunmu, and Alan Griffin earning his first start of the season, and second of his career.

The Illini went on a 10-1 run early in the game to take a 14-10 lead, and later cut a five-point deficit to just two at the half. The second half started off much the same way as the first half was played, with the teams exchanging baskets.

A 3-pointer by Andres Feliz pulled the Illini within 43-42 with 14 minutes left. But Rutgers then went on the

• Penn State 83, Illinois 76 // Feb. 23, 2019 at Champaign

Penn State played the role of spoiler during the 30th anniversary reunion of the 1989 Flyin' Illini, claiming an 83-66 victory in front of a sellout crowd at State Farm Center.

The Nittany Lions broke ahead midway through the first half, going on a 10-1 run to take a 34-22 lead. The Illini trailed by seven at halftime and found itself back down double digits early after the break.

PSU took its largest lead of the game at 61-46 with 9:53 remaining. The Illini then ran off 10 unanswered over the next two minutes to pull within five. The Orange and Blue had a number of chances from there to make it a one-possession game, but came away empty, and the Lions made their free throws down the stretch.

Illinois shot just 39.4 percent on the afternoon. Both teams made 26 field goals, with the Illini tallying one more 3-pointer, but PSU outscored the hosts by eight points at the free throw line, converting 26-of-32 (81.3 percent) while the Illini managed just 18-of-28 (64.3 percent).

Ayo Dosunmu led the Illini in scoring for the third straight game, tallying 18 points.

Andres Feliz had a strong game with 17 points on 7-of-11 shooting, marking his highest scoring Big Ten game of the season.

Giorgi Bezhaniashvili recorded his first career double-double with 16 points and a season-high tying 10 rebounds, including five offensive.

• Penn State 72, Illinois 56 // March 10, 2019 at University Park

The Illini played a strong first half but could not keep pace after intermission, falling at Penn State 72-56 to close out the regular season.

Illinois controlled the opening 20 minutes, playing a zone defense that slowed down the Nittany Lions and held them to just 34.5 percent shooting. The Illini led by as many as seven points at 22-15 before taking a 32-31 advantage into the locker room.

PSU quickly took the lead after the break, putting the Illini in catch-up mode. Illinois trailed 47-41 when the Lions scored seven unanswered to open up a 13-point lead with 10:30 remaining, and the Illini could draw no closer than nine the rest of the way.

Illinois managed just 24 points in the second half on 20.8 percent shooting (5-24).

Illinois struggled with turnovers, committing 18 which PSU converted into 18 points.

Freshmen Ayo Dosunmu and Giorgi Bezhaniashvili led the way for the Illini, scoring 16 points apiece. Dosunmu grabbed a team-high eight rebounds, and Andres Feliz added nine points and six boards.

first sizable run for either team, scoring 11 unanswered to extend its lead to 54-42.

Illinois cut that deficit nearly in half, drawing to 54-47. The Knights answered with another run, this time 9-2 to push it back to 63-49 at the 3:00 mark. That made it a 20-7 advantage for Rutgers in an 11-minute stretch which decided the game.

Illinois had trouble shooting against Rutgers once again, finishing 31.1% from the field (19-61) and 28.6% from 3-point land (8-28) while equaling its season high with 28 attempts from long distance. Rutgers, meanwhile, made 49.1% on the afternoon (27-55) and 46.7% from three (7-15). Illinois had only 11 turnovers, but the hosts took advantage, converting those into 19 points.

Griffin led the team in scoring for the third time this season, finishing with 14 points. Kofi Cockburn recorded his 10th double-double of the season with 10 and 10, and Andres Feliz reached double digits for the sixth straight game with 10 points.

SFC Sellouts

Momentum on the court is carrying over to the Illini fan base. Illinois has played in front of sellout crowds in each of the last three home games against Minnesota, Maryland and Michigan State. Two additional games have sold out: March 1 vs. Indiana and March 8 vs. Iowa (Senior Night). The Illini-Hoosiers matchup will be Stripe State Farm Center, with odd-numbered sections and Illinois students asked to wear orange, and even-numbered sections requested to wear blue.

Tickets are still available for the remaining home game, Feb. 24 vs. Nebraska, and can be purchased online at fightingillini.com or by phone at 1-866-ILLINI-1.

Dosunmu Named to Naismith Trophy Midseason Team

Illini sophomore guard Ayo Dosunmu is one of 30 midseason candidates for the Citizen Naismith Trophy Men's Player of the Year, as announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

Dosunmu is one of seven Big Ten players on the list, and one of 13 underclassmen. Ten semifinalists will be announced on March 5, and the finalists will be revealed on March 17. The winner of the 2020 Citizen Naismith Trophy for Men's Player of the Year will be announced on April 5 at the Naismith Awards Brunch in Atlanta.

Dosunmu Season Highlights

- Jay Bilas Co-National Player of the Week (Jan. 27)
- Leads team and ranks sixth in Big Ten in scoring (15.8 ppg)
- Averaging 17.0 points over his last nine games
- Has scored at least nine points in all but one game
- 20 double-figure outings with five 20-point performances
- Fifth in Big Ten in field goal shooting – and top-ranked guard – at 47%
- Leads team in assists, ranking 10th in Big Ten (3.3 apg)
- 17 points and career-high tying nine rebounds vs. Michigan State (Feb. 11)
- Career-high 27 points and hit game-winning jumper with :00.5 left at Michigan (Jan. 25)
- First career double-double with 18 points and career-high 11 assists in win at Purdue (Jan. 21)

Marked Improvement

Illinois equaled its win total from all of last season (12) on Jan. 11, and needed just nine conference games to match its win total from last year's campaign. The Illini are one of the most improved teams in the country this season, tied for 18th nationally through Feb. 16 with a +8.0 improvement. That is tied for third with Baylor among teams from the six major conferences, trailing only Penn State and West Virginia:

1. Western Carolina	+12.5	T11. Colorado State	+8.5
2. UNC Asheville	+11.0	T11. Lafayette	+8.5
3. Stephen F. Austin	+10.5	T11. New Hampshire	+8.5

We're Going Streaking

Illinois' recent seven-game conference winning streak from Jan. 5-30 was its longest in 15 years, since setting a school record with 25 consecutive Big Ten victories spanning the 2004 (10) and 2005 (15) seasons (Jan. 31, 2004-March 3, 2005).

During that seven-game win streak, Illinois' defense allowed an average of just 57.7 points, 36.9% shooting, 28% 3-point shooting, and 4.7 made threes per game.

And as part of that winning streak the Illini won three in a row on the road, its longest since also winning three straight conference road games from Feb. 7-26, 2017. Illinois' three road wins ended lengthy streaks in each of those cities. On Jan. 8, the Fighting Illini earned a win at Wisconsin for the first time in 10 seasons. On Jan. 21, the Orange and Blue notched a victory at Purdue for the first time in 11 seasons. And on Jan. 21, the Illini won at Michigan for the first time in 10 seasons.

Illinois is only the second team in the last 27 years to win at Wisconsin, at Purdue, and at Michigan in the Difference is the D

During Illinois' seven-game win streak from Jan. 5-30, the Illini defense held opponents to an average of 57.7 points on less than 37% shooting, including just 28% from 3-point range. Five of the opponents were held to 62 points or fewer, with no team exceeding 71.

Those defensive numbers have slipped in the last two weeks, as Illinois has given up an average of 72.3 points on 48.6% shooting and 41.5% from three, leading to an 0-4 mark.

Taking Care of The Rock

Illinois struggled with turnovers throughout the early portion of the schedule. In fact, the Illini entered Christmas ranked 304th in the NCAA in turnovers, averaging 15.6 turnovers per game.

The Illini have turned things around dramatically since the holiday break, however, averaging just 10.2 turnovers over the last 13 games (132), posting single-digit turnover numbers in seven of those contests.

Point guard Trent Frazier has played the last 402 minutes with only nine turnovers. Meanwhile, guard Andres Feliz has had only eight turnovers in 323 minutes, and Da'Monte Williams has just five turnovers in 255 minutes during this 13-game stretch.

Closing Time

- At Wisconsin – Hit a runner with 1:25 left that gave Illini a 1-point lead, then made a stepback 3-pointer with 46 seconds left to put the Illini up by four ... Directly involved in Illinois' final 14 points of the game, assisting on three consecutive 3-pointers before scoring Illinois' last five.

- Rutgers – Broke 46-all tie by scoring Illinois' last eight points in the final two minutes ... Made two free throws with 1:34 left to put the Illini up two, then a layup with 50 seconds left to push the lead to four ... Grabbed defensive rebound on ensuing possession and made two more free throws with :37 left to extend lead to six ... Sealed win with two final free throws with 18 seconds remaining.

- Northwestern – After Wildcats pulled within three, drained a crossover jumper with shot clock expiring to put the Illini up by five with 18 seconds remaining ... Made two free throws with six seconds left to put the Illini up four and clinch the victory.

• At Purdue – After the Boilermakers cut the deficit to single digits with under five minutes to play, swished back-to-back pullup jumpers at 4:18 and 3:41, thwarting any attempt of a Purdue comeback.

• At Michigan – Scored career-high 27 points, making a career-best 11 field goals ... Made bucket with 2:41 left to tie game at 60 ... Went 1-on-1 on game's final play with the score tied, hitting a crossover pull-up jumper from just beyond the free throw line over the outstretched arm of Zavier Simpson for the winner with :00.5 left.

Cockburn Latest Impact Freshman of Underwood Era

Kofi Cockburn has been garnering Illini headlines as the team's second-leading scorer and top rebounder. But getting heavy production from a freshman is nothing new for Illinois under Coach Brad Underwood. Since true freshmen became eligible in 1972-73, four of the program's seven highest ranking freshman scorers have been during Underwood's three-year tenure in Champaign:

Big League

The Big Ten has established itself as the best conference in the country this season, and it is shaping up to be as strong as any league has been from top-to-bottom in recent years. The Big Ten is ranked the No. 1 conference by kenpom, with an astounding 12 of 14 teams ranking in the top 50 through Feb. 16. Game 24 Recap: 20-Point Comeback Ends in Heartbreak

Illinois staged one of the greatest comebacks in school history before falling in the closing seconds to Michigan State, 70-69, at State Farm Center.

The first half belonged to the Spartans, who scored the game's first eight points and led by as many as 19 before taking a 37-20 lead into the locker room.

After a sluggish first 20 minutes on offense, the Illini came out clicking following intermission, making seven of their first 11 shots. But MSU was still scoring on the other end, taking its largest lead of the night at 43-23 and still holding a 17-point lead with 12 minutes remaining.

That's when Illinois came surging back. The Illini reeled off 10 unanswered to cut the deficit to seven. The hosts then scored 12 of the next 16, taking their first lead of the night at 61-60 on an Ayo Dosunmu layup with 5:27 to go. That capped a 22-4 run over six minutes that brought the fans roaring to 111 decibels.

The lead would change hands seven times over the final five minutes, with each team answering the other. Kofi Cockburn made the biggest free throws of his young career, draining a pair with 19.1 seconds left to put the Illini ahead 69-68.

Cassius Winston drove the lane on MSU's final possession, missing a runner that only drew backboard. It was cleaned up by Xavier Tillman, who dunked it home with six seconds left to put the Spartans up by one.

Illinois had one last chance, but after racing up court, Dosunmu slipped while attempting to make a move and lost control of the ball, crashing to the floor as the clock expired.

Dosunmu led the Illini with 17 points and a career-high nine rebounds. Andres Feliz scored 15, and Cockburn added 11 points and eight boards.

Game 23 Recap: Illini Fall at Home to No. 9 Maryland

Illinois dropped its first conference home game of the season, falling 75-66 to No. 9 Maryland in the first-ever Friday night Big Ten game held at State Farm Center.

The Illini fed off the energy of the sold out crowd right out of the gate, going on a 13-0 run to build a 17-7 lead just five minutes in. Illinois made five of its first seven 3-point shots and built its lead to as many as 14 points on two occasions, the latter at 31-17 with nine minutes left in the half.

But Maryland then surged to the break, outscoring the Illini 23-11 the rest of the way to head into intermission trailing by just two (42-40).

After the Illini opened the second half with a pair of free throws, the Terrapins went on a 13-0 run of their own to take a 53-44 lead. Illinois could not buy a basket, missing 17 of its first 18 attempts during the first nearly 11 minutes of the second half.

But the Orange and Blue kept guarding to stay within striking distance. An Ayo Dosunmu layup followed by consecutive Alan Griffin 3-pointers pulled the Illini within 56-55 with eight minutes to go.

A critical Illini turnover in the backcourt after a defensive rebound led to a Darryl Morsell open trey to put the Terps up four, and after a Kofi Cockburn free throw, Eric Ayala hit another three to give Maryland a six-point lead. The Illini could get no closer than five over the last five minutes as the Terps closed out the win to snap the UI's seven-game home win streak.

The Illini struggled around the basket and on free throws, two uncharacteristic areas. Illinois managed just 35.9 percent on 2-pointers (14-39) and 58.3% at the foul line (14-24). Illinois grabbed 14 offensive rebounds and held a 17-to-4 advantage in second-chance points. But Maryland negated that by pushing in transition off its defensive boards, leading to a 21-to-3 edge in fast-break points.

Game 22 Notes: Streak Snapped in Iowa City

- Illinois' seven-game winning streak came to an end Feb. 2 at No. 18 Iowa, as the Illini allowed an opponent to shoot 50% for the first time in 14 games.

- There were 14 lead changes on the afternoon, marking the most in an Illinois game this season.

- Illinois made eight 3-pointers, its highest total in a road game this season.

- Andres Feliz led the Illini in scoring for the second straight game, scoring 17 points on 6-of-11 shooting to go along with four rebounds and two steals.

- Feliz made two of the biggest shots of the afternoon. He crashed the offensive glass and ripped the ball away from two Iowa bigs before going back up in traffic to score the putback and put the Illini up 59-55 with 5:28 remaining. He later drained a 3-pointer with the shotclock winding down to give Illinois its last lead of the game at 62-61 with 4:03 left.

- Feliz led the bench effort that saw the Illini reserves outscore Iowa's, 29-0.

- Trent Frazier reached double figures for the fifth straight game, finishing with 12 points while draining a trio of 3-pointers and adding a game-high three steals.

- Ayo Dosunmu was 5-of-8 from the field en route to 11 points.

Game 21 Notes: Illini Streak Hits Seven in Win over Gophers

- Illinois won its seventh-straight Big Ten game, its longest streak since setting a school record with 25 consecutive conference wins spanning the 2004 and 2005 seasons (Jan. 31, 2004-March 3, 2005).

- Illinois has now opened league play with five home wins for the first time since 2009 – when it won its first six – and improved to 12-1 this season at State Farm Center, its best home start since 2014-15 (also 12-1).

- Illinois held Minnesota to its season lows in points (51), made threes (3), and 3-point percentage (15.8%),

- Illinois outrebounded the Gophers, 45-36. The Illini have outrebounded its opponent in 15 of 21 games, and 10 times by double digits, to account for its ranking of second nationally in rebound margin (+9.7).

- Illinois closed the game on a 7-0 run in the final 1:30 despite missing its last five shots over the final 4:42.

- Illinois' final nine points came from the foul line, while the Illini went 9-for-10 at the line in the final 2:40.

- Illinois's defense was fueled down the stretch by a steal (1:13) and block (0:39) by Da'Monte Williams.

- Illinois and Minnesota both started slow on offense, holding an 11-11 tie after 12 minutes, before Illinois went on a 6-0 run on two Trent Frazier 3-pointers at the 7:57 and 7:12 marks of the first half.

- Senior Andres Feliz led Illinois with 17 points on 6-of-11 shooting, tied for his second-most points in a Big Ten game in his career. He also had eight rebounds, his second-most ever against a Big Ten foe. It marked Feliz' third time scoring in double figures in the last four games.

- Kofi Cockburn had 13 points and 10 boards, extending his Illinois freshman record with his ninth double-double.

- Ayo Dosunmu scored in double figures for the sixth straight game with 13 points, while Trent Frazier made it four-straight in double digits with 10 points.

- Kipper Nichols grabbed a season-high 6 rebounds, Da'Monte Williams had his top rebounding effort in the last 12 games with 7, and Giorgi Bezhaniashvili had his best day on the glass in 10 games with 6.

- Illinois played in front of its first sellout crowd since the Penn State game last year (Feb. 23, 2019).

Cockburn Collects Seventh Big Ten Freshman of the Week Award

Kofi Cockburn was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week on Jan. 27, earning the honor after averaging 13.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and 1.5 blocked shots in a pair of road wins.

Cockburn had a huge game at Purdue, recording a double-double with game highs of 22 points, 15 rebounds and three blocks. It marked his fifth 20-point game of the season and highest scoring total in league play. It was his eighth double-double, meanwhile, extending his Illinois freshman record and ranking fourth among NCAA freshmen this season. Cockburn added five points and three boards at Michigan.

This was the seventh Big Ten Freshman of the Week accolade for Cockburn, just 12 weeks into the 2019-20 season. He expands his school record for the most honors by

More Honors

After posting back-to-back road wins at Purdue and at Michigan, Illinois was named the March Madness National Team of the Week by Andy Katz and the Bilustrator National Team of the Week by Jay Bilas.

Illini sophomore Ayo Dosunmu was also recognized, garnering National Co-Player of the Week accolades from Bilas and Big Ten Player of the Week from College Sports Madness. Dosunmu averaged 22.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 6.5 assists in the two road wins. He scored a career-high 27 points at Michigan and hit the game-winning jumper with :00.5 seconds left, and recorded his first career double-double at Purdue with 18 points and 11 assists.

Game 20 Notes: Dosunmu's Dagger Downs Wolverines

- Illinois won its sixth-straight Big Ten game, its longest streak since setting a school record with 25 consecutive conference wins spanning the 2004 and 2005 seasons (Jan. 31, 2004-March 3, 2005).
- Illinois snapped a five-game losing streak in Ann Arbor spanning 10 years. Illinois' last victory at Crisler Center was a 51-44 victory on Feb. 23, 2010.
- This marks Illinois' first home-and-home sweep of Michigan since the 2002-03 season.
- Illinois notched its seventh Big Ten victory just nine games into conference play, matching last year's win total.
- Illinois won at Wisconsin, at Purdue, and at Michigan for the second time in the last 60 years. Illinois' 2004-05 Big Ten championship and national runner-up team also won at Wisconsin, Purdue, and Michigan.
- Illinois became just the second team in the last 27 years to win at Wisconsin, at Purdue, and at Michigan in the same season, joining the 2004-05 Fighting Illini.
- Ayo Dosunmu scored a career-high 27 points with seven rebounds. He made a career-high 11 field goals on 18 attempts and equaled his season high with two 3-pointers.
- Dosunmu made the game-winning basket with 0.5 seconds remaining.
- Andres Feliz had 15 points with seven boards, tied for his third-most points in a Big Ten game in his career and his most points since scoring 19 vs. Hampton on Nov. 23.

Game 19 Notes: Illini Rout Purdue in West Lafayette

- Illinois' 79 points equaled its highest output against a high-major opponent this season, while its 1.29 points per possession marked its highest offensive efficiency of the Underwood era.
- Illinois ended a seven-game losing streak at Purdue, winning at Mackey Arena for the first time since a 71-67 overtime victory in the opener of the 2009 Big Ten campaign (Dec. 30, 2008).
- Illinois snapped Purdue's 15-game Big Ten home winning streak, and the No. 21 Illini also ended the Boilers' six-game home winning streak against ranked teams.
- Illinois' 17-point victory at Mackey is the seventh-largest by an opponent since the arena opened in 1967.
- This marks Illinois' first home-and-home sweep of Purdue since the 2008-09 season.
- Illinois shot 55.1% (27-47) against the Boilers, its best accuracy in a road game since making 66.7% in an 87-77 win at Iowa on Dec. 29, 2010.
- Illinois shot 75% in the second half (15-20), the fifth-best shooting percentage in a half against Purdue in the last 50 years. Illinois opened the half by making 11 of its first 12 shots.
- Illinois outrebounded Purdue, 37-19. The Boilers finished the game with single-digit defensive rebounds (9), including just two in the second half.
- Kofi Cockburn had game highs of 22 points and 15 rebounds to tally his eighth double-double of the season, extending his Illinois freshman record. His eight double-doubles are third in the nation among freshmen, behind Memphis' Precious Achiuwa (10) and Washington's Isaiah Stewart (9).
- Cockburn tallied his fifth 20-point game of the season, and first in Big Ten play.
- Ayo Dosunmu registered his first career double-double with 18 points and a career-high 11 assists.
- Illinois had two players record double-doubles in regulation in a Big Ten game for the first time since a 71-62 win over Michigan State win on Jan. 18, 2011, when Demetri McCamey (15 points, 11 assists) and Mike Davis (11 points, 11 rebounds) both had double-doubles.
- Dosunmu's 11 assists are the most by an Illini in nine years, since McCamey's 11 dimes vs. Michigan State on Jan. 18, 2011.
- Trent Frazier had a season-high 21 points and tied his season high with five 3-pointers. It marked Frazier's first 20-point game of the season, and 11th of his career.
- Frazier played 199:47 minutes straight without a turnover from Dec. 21 until Jan. 21. He did not commit a turnover in six consecutive games before a turnover in the first half at Purdue.

Brad Underwood is in his third season at Illinois as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach following his hiring as the 18th head coach in program history in March 2017. Underwood has won more than 67 percent of his games through his first six years as a Division I head coach, recording four 20-win seasons while making four NCAA Tournament appearances.

Illinois was one of the most inexperienced teams in the country last season, with Underwood meshing seven newcomers into his 11-player rotation. Despite that youth, and facing the No. 3-ranked regular season schedule by kenpom, the Illini doubled their win total against conference foes in 2019, winning eight games against Big Ten competitors.

The Illini recorded nine wins against teams rated in the top-80 (kenpom), with four victories coming against eventual NCAA Tournament teams. The improvement was highlighted by marquee wins over two top-15 ranked teams. Illinois defeated No. 13 Maryland at Madison Square Garden and knocked off No. 9-ranked and eventual Big Ten champion and Final Four participant Michigan State at home, leading to a court rush celebration by Orange Krush students at the buzzer.

Illinois had 58 percent of its scoring come from newcomers, which was the highest percentage of any team in the Big Ten. For the first time in school history, a true-freshman led Illinois in scoring on the season as rookie Ayo Dosunmu averaged 13.8 points. And in conference play, Illinois had true-freshmen as its top two leading scorers for the first time ever in Dosunmu (14.8 ppg) and Giorgi Bezhanishvili (13.5 ppg).

Year one saw Underwood lay the foundation for the Illini program. Playing at the second-fastest tempo in the Big Ten, Illinois topped 80 points in 12 games and averaged 75.8 points on the season. That marked the UI's highest scoring average in 13 years, since the 2005 national runner-up season. The offense was aggressive in all phases, recording the team's best offensive rebounding rate (.340) in the last 10 years while also posting the squad's highest free throw rate (.331) since 2008 and making the most free throws (478) since 2002.

Defensively, Illinois ranked fourth nationally in turnover rate, forcing turnovers on 23.2 percent of opponent possessions. The UI defense created its most turnovers (543) in the last 18 years while collecting its most steals (240) since 2005.

Fans have come out to State Farm Center in big numbers to watch the style of play of Underwood's teams at both ends of the floor. Illinois' improvement in average home attendance from 2017 to 2018 ranked 13th nationally. The average increase of 1,231 fans, meanwhile, marked the largest jump for the program in nearly 40 years (1979). Illinois' attendance average increased by an additional 321 fans last season, with the average State Farm Center crowd of 12,935 ranking 23rd nationally while marking the highest mark for the program in the last four years.

Underwood and his staff have also made waves on the recruiting trail during their time in Champaign, signing Ayo Dosunmu, the program's highest-rated guard recruit since 2002, landing a national top-20 class in 2019, and inking Kofi Cockburn, the program's highest-rated center recruit since 2010.

Underwood came to Illinois from Oklahoma State, where he led OSU to a 20-win season and NCAA Tournament appearance. The Cowboys had one of the most exciting and prolific offenses in the country, ranking eighth in the NCAA in scoring (85.7 points per game) and leading the nation in adjusted offensive efficiency (kenpom). The Cowboys ranked eighth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (.402) and fourth in the country in offensive rebounding percentage (.383).

Oklahoma State finished fifth in the Big 12 with a 9-9 conference record in a season where the Big 12 was rated as the top conference in the nation. That was a dramatic improvement for the Cowboys, who went 3-15 in league play the year prior. Oklahoma State came on strong during the second half of the season, winning 10 of 11 games from Jan. 21-Feb. 25, 2017, which included a pair of five-game winning streaks.

Following that successful turnaround at OSU, he accepted the Illinois job owning a four-year total of 109 wins, third-most ever by a NCAA Div. I head coach.

Underwood arrived in Stillwater following a dominant run at Stephen F. Austin where he led the Lumberjacks to Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in each of his three seasons. Underwood compiled an 89-14 record at SFA, tied with Brad Stevens (Butler, 2008-10) for the most wins by a head coach in his first three seasons at an NCAA school.

He led SFA to a 28-6 overall record and NCAA Round of 32 appearance in 2016. The Lumberjacks rolled past No. 3 West Virginia in the first round, 70-56, before narrowly missing a trip to the Sweet 16 with a 76-75 defeat to No. 6 Notre Dame in the second round.

That Stephen F. Austin squad was efficient on both sides of the ball, ranking 57th nationally on offense and 38th on defense. The Lumberjacks averaged 80.2 points accompanied by high-pressure defense that forced the highest turnover rate in the country (.259).

Underwood's second SFA team went 29-5 in 2015, also advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The Lumberjacks ranked seventh in the nation in field goal percentage (.487) and led the NCAA in assists (18.7 apg).

His debut season in Nacogdoches in 2014 included a 29-game winning streak and culminated in a 32-3 record and NCAA Round of 32 appearance after a victory over No. 5 seed VCU in the opening round. Underwood earned the Joe B. Hall award, given to the nation's top first-year coach.

Prior to taking over at Stephen F. Austin, Underwood served the 2013 season as associate head coach at South Carolina under Frank Martin. He went to Columbia with Martin after serving on his bench for five seasons as an assistant at Kansas State, with his final season elevated to associate head coach. Underwood spent his first year at K-State in the role of director of operations for then-head coach Bob Huggins.

Underwood had two head coaching stints in the junior college ranks, compiling a 70-24 record in three seasons at Daytona Beach (2004-06) and a 57-63 mark in four years at Dodge City (1990-93). In between those opportunities, Underwood was entrenched in the state of Illinois for 10 seasons, as an assistant coach for Jim Kerwin at Western Illinois from 1994-2003.

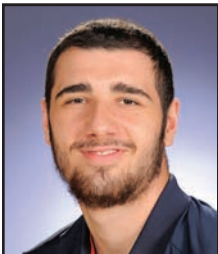

Underwood is a December 1986 graduate of Kansas State. He played in Manhattan for the legendary Jack Hartman, K-State's all-time winningest coach. Former Illinois head coach Lon Kruger also played and coached for Hartman at Kansas State.

Underwood began his college career at Hardin-Simmons, where he later worked as a graduate assistant. Hardin-Simmons was the first college job for Lou Henson, the Fighting Illini's all-time winningest coach, and whose name permanently adorns the court at State Farm Center.

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler is a member of the Fighting Illini basketball team and Katie also is a U of I student.

Game 1 Recap - Illini 78, Nicholls 70 (OT)

The Illini survived a late-game run by the visitors to defeat Nicholls in overtime in the season opener.

Illinois dominated the boards throughout the night and looked in control for the first 35 minutes. Illinois led 30-19 at the half, opened up its biggest lead of the game at 20 with 15 minutes remaining, and led 64-50 with 5:11 to go.

But that's when Nicholls caught fire, reeling off 16 unanswered points, the last giving the Colonels their first lead of the game at 66-64.

Trent Frazier was then fouled with :29 remaining and he drained both free throws to tie it at 66. On the final possession of regulation, the Illini defense forced a traveling violation to send it to OT.

Illinois returned to form in the extra stanza, making all three field goal attempts and 6-of-7 from the free throw line while tightening back up on defense to secure the win.

Andres Feliz led the way for the Orange and Blue, notching his second career double-double with a team-best 23 points and career-high 11 rebounds.

Kofi Cockburn scored 10 points and had 11 rebounds in his debut, recording the first double-double by an Illini freshman in a season opener in 37 years.

And Ayo Dosunmu had his eighth career 20-point game, finishing with 21 points and seven boards.

Game 2 - Illini 83, Grand Canyon 71

The Illini persevered in front of one of the loudest homecourt environments in college basketball, dominating inside to earn a 12-point road win at Grand Canyon.

After the lead changed hands in the opening minutes, the Illini led for the remainder of the contest, answering each run the hosts made. Illinois pounded the ball inside and attacked the basket, which put the Lopes in early foul trouble that plagued them throughout the night.

Freshman Kofi Cockburn had his second double-double, scoring 23 points on 8-12 shooting and 7-13 at the line with 14 boards.

Cockburn's work on the glass led the team effort that resulted in a commanding 52-to-26 edge in rebounds. Illinois grabbed 20 of its own misses, resulting in 15 second-chance points.

Senior Andres Feliz had another stellar game, scoring 21 points and making a number of plays in crunch time to close out the win.

The Illini also got an offensive boost from sophomore Alan Griffin, who drained a trio of 3-pointers en route to a career-high tying 11 points.

Game 3 Recap - #21 Arizona 90, Illini 69

An even game for 28 minutes turned in favor of the hosts midway through the second half, as No. 21 Arizona broke open a 1-point game with a pivotal 15-0 run to pull away from the Illini.

Illinois was strong out of the gate, making seven of its first eight shots and leading by as many as seven points in the first half. The Wildcats offense also was clicking, as the lead exchanged hands five times to go along with four ties.

Arizona led by one point at the half and extended its lead to eight before the Illini pulled within 53-52 at the 12-minute mark.

But the Orange and Blue went scoreless over the next four minutes and committed four turnovers while the Wildcats reeled off 15 unanswered, making it 68-52 with less than eight minutes remaining.

Illinois struggled with turnovers throughout the night, totaling a season-high 22 that Arizona turned in to 20 points. And while the Illini offense cooled off after intermission, Arizona continued to roll, scoring 51 second-half points.

The starting guard trio of Ayo Dosunmu, Trent Frazier and Andres Feliz all scored in double figures, combining for 42 of Illinoi's 69 points (61%).

Dosunmu led the Illini with 15 points, Frazier had 14, and Feliz recorded his third career double-double, and second of the season, finishing with 13 points and game-high 10 rebounds.

Game 4 Recap - Illini 66, Hawaii 53

Illinois was strong defensively and used a late-game surge to pull away from Hawaii, 66-53, in its first home game in nearly two weeks.

It was a rough first half as both teams struggled from the field and the Illini offense was also limited by 10 turnovers. The teams went into the locker room tied at 26.

The Illini turnover tally reached 13 by the 17:35 mark of the second half, but from there the hosts settled in and played the next nearly 15 minutes without a turnover.

That ball security allowed the offense to heat up. Leading 52-47 with seven minutes remaining, the Illini went on a 14-2 run over the next four-plus minutes to open up its largest lead of the night at 66-49 and seal the win.

Illinois' defense allowed only 53 points on 37.5 percent shooting. Hawaii entered the game shooting 40 percent from 3-point range but made just 3-of-22 threes (13.6%). The Rainbows also attempted just three free throws for the game, marking the UI's lowest opponent free throw rate (4.5) in more than 10 years, since Wisconsin in the 2008 Big Ten Tournament championship (3.9).

The Illini outrebounded the Rainbows 44-26. Illinois grabbed 11 offensive boards and capitalized with a 12-4 advantage in second-chance points.

Kofi Cockburn led the Illini, recording his third double-double in four games with 15 points and a career-high tying 14 rebounds.

Trent Frazier had another efficient game, scoring 13 points on just five field goal attempts.

Giorgi Bezhnishvili, meanwhile, just missed a double-double, tallying 10 points and a season-best nine boards.

Game 9 Recap - #3 Maryland 59, Illini 58

Illinois suffered a heartbreaker in College Park, leading nearly the entire way in pursuit for its first road win over a top-3 team in 30 years before falling on a free throw with 2.1 seconds remaining.

Maryland made a 3-pointer on its second possession of the game to take a 3-2 lead, but that would be the last time the Terps held the lead until the final seconds as the Illini controlled the majority of the contest.

Illinois held Maryland without a basket for nearly five minutes, going on a 10-0 spurt to open up an 18-5 lead. Illinois closed the half ahead by 14 after shooting 47.1 percent for its 39 points while holding the hosts to just 25 points on 30.3 percent overall and 21.4 percent from behind the arc.

Game 11 Recap – Illini 69, Old Dominion 55

Illinois returned to non-conference action but kept up the strong defense it showcased against two Big Ten opponents, posting a solid 69-55 win over Old Dominion at State Farm Center.

The Illini led the entire way, scoring on its first four possessions to open up a quick 10-2 lead and never looking back.

Illinois led 40-25 at the half and the lead grew to as many as 29 points with six minutes remaining before being outscoring 17-2 down the stretch.

The Illini forced 19 turnovers, turning those into 23 points and accounting for much of the UI's 26-to-2 advantage in fast break points.

Alan Griffin provided instant offense off the bench, leading the team in scoring for the first time in his career with 15 points on 6-of-7 shooting, including 3-of-4 from three.

Ayo Dosunmu had 14 points, Kofi Cockburn tallied 11 points and game-high nine boards, and Trent Frazier added nine points with a season-high four steals.

Game 12 Recap – Missouri 63, Illini 56

Illinois' offense was cold and the Orange and Blue were beaten on the boards, falling to Missouri in the annual Braggins' Rights game in St. Louis.

The Illini started off strong in the low-possession game, leading 19-13 with eight minutes left in the first half. Close to another defensive stand, Mizzou's Xavier Pinson threw in a 28-footer with the shot clock expiring igniting a Tigers run that turned the tide.

Missouri scored 19 of the game's next 24 points to take control as part of a greater 26-9 run when the Illini were held to just two baskets.

The Illini pulled to within 39-33 on a Trent Frazier 3-pointer, but Mizzou had another answer, scoring eight unanswered to open up a 14-point lead with 11 minutes remaining.

Illinois chipped away at the deficit but could get no closer than five down the stretch.

The Illini set season lows for points, field goals and shooting percentage on the afternoon. While offensive boards were nearly even, the Tigers capitalized on their extra opportunities with a 16-to-6 advantage in second-chance points, fueled by five put-back buckets in the second half alone.

Ayo Dosunmu led the Illini in scoring for the fourth time on the season, netting a game-high 21 points. Kofi Cockburn added 13 points and Alan Griffin played strong off the bench once again, finishing with eight points and game-high six rebounds in 18 minutes.

Game 13 Recap – Illini 95, North Carolina A&T 64

Illinois led nearly wire to wire, rolling to a 31-point win over North Carolina A&T to close out nonconference play.

Leading 27-21, Illinois broke the game open late in the first half with a 9-0 run, highlighted by back-to-back Trent Frazier 3-pointers.

The Illini took a 50-34 lead into intermission and controlled the second half as well, grabbing a 22-point lead at the 16-minute mark before extending its advantage to as many as 34 at 86-52 with 6:19 remaining.

Illinois' defense forced 18 turnovers for the game and turned those into 28 points. The Illini, meanwhile, equaled its season low with just nine turnovers of its own.

Illinois was efficient on offense, shooting 53% and tallying 22 assists on its 36 baskets as four different players recorded at least four assists on the afternoon.

And after a five-game stretch struggling from 3-point range, the Illini broke out with 42.3% shooting from behind the arc and tied its season high with 11 made triples.

Kofi Cockburn was dominant once again, registering a career-high 26 points on 11-of-16 shooting with nine rebounds and two blocks.

Ayo Dosunmu added 19 points and seven boards, and Alan Griffin came within one of his career high, scoring 18 points on 7-of-8 from the field with a career-best four treys.

Game 14 Recap – #14 Michigan State 76, Illinois 56

Illinois went ice cold in East Lansing, opening the new year with a loss to 14th-ranked Michigan State.

The Spartans were strong out of the gate, scoring 11 of the game's first 13 points. Illinois spent the rest of the night playing catch up, and began tightening its defense to cut the deficit to five points late in the first half.

Illinois was still within six at 41-35 when MSU went on the game-deciding flurry, exploding with a 15-3 run over just 3:17 to take a commanding 56-38 lead with 12:55 remaining.

The Illini would draw no closer as the visitors could not get going on offense. Illinois shot just 29.3% for the game, finishing 3-of-28 on threes and 19-of-47 on twos.

Illinois had just eight turnovers and finished ahead in every specialty stat, but it was not enough to offset the tough shooting night.

Ayo Dosunmu led the Illini in scoring, tallying 18 points along with eight rebounds.

Game 17 Recap – Illini 54, Rutgers 51

Defense and rebounding carried the day for both teams, with points at a premium. The entire contest was played within a two-possession margin, featuring eight ties and 11 lead changes.

After Rutgers matched its biggest lead of the game early in the second half, the Illini rattled off six unanswered points to tie it at 28. The last 10 minutes alone saw the lead exchange hands seven times, with players on both teams stepping up to make big plays.

Andres Feliz' fourth basket of the second half tied it at 46, and after a Rutgers turnover, Ayo Dosunmu drove to the basket and was fouled, making two free throws to put the Illini up two with 1:34 left.

Another Rutgers turnover gave the ball back to the Illini, and Dosunmu was aggressive once again, driving in for a layup with the shot clock winding down to make it 50-46 with 50 seconds remaining. After a Rutgers miss, it was Dosunmu skying for the defensive rebound and he was fouled, going to the line to drain two more free throws to give the Illini its largest lead of the game at 52-46.

Dosunmu added two more free throws to seal the win, accounting for Illinois' final eight points on the afternoon as the Orange and Blue secured their third-straight victory.

Dosunmu had a game-high 18 points to go with seven rebounds. Kofi Cockburn also scored in double figures with 11, but it was his dominance on the glass that stole the show, as he tied his career-high with 17 rebounds, equaling his record for most boards ever by an Illini freshman. Cockburn finished with his seventh double-double of the season, setting another UI freshman record.

Game 18 Recap – #24 Illini 75, Northwestern 71

Illinois extended its winning streak to four in a row, defeating Northwestern at State Farm Center in front of a season-high crowd of 14,131.

The Orange and Blue had been winning with defense, but this time rode its offense to victory. The Illini shot 50 percent on the day and scored 1.22 points-per-possession, its best number recorded against a high-major opponent this season.

And the Illini needed every one of those points, as Northwestern proved difficult to put away in a game that featured 11 lead changes and six ties.

Illinois led 60-58 at the under-8 media timeout then scored seven unanswered on a dunk by Kofi Cockburn, a layup by Ayo Dosunmu and a 3-pointer by Giorgi Bezhanishvili. That pivotal run put the Illini ahead by nine with five minutes remaining.

Game 21 Recap – #19 Illini 59, Minnesota 51

Illinois made it seven in a row, winning a defensive battle against Minnesota at State Farm Center.

Trent Frazier broke an 11-all tie with back-to-back 3-pointers to put the Illini up by six, and the UI led by four at the break.

Illinois made its biggest run of the game early in the second half, outscoring the Gophers 13-2 over a four-minutes stretch to take its biggest lead of the night at 41-28.

The Illini still led by 10 later before Minnesota went on an 11-2 run to pull within one at 52-51 with 1:49 remaining.

Illinois got the ball inside on its next two possessions and drew fouls, making three of four free throws to extend its lead to four.

Da'Monte Williams made two big plays at the other end of the floor, meanwhile, coming in on the help side to steal the ball from Daniel Otoru and blocking a 3-point attempt by Alihan Demir.

Andres Feliz led the Illini with 17 points and eight rebounds, making 6-of-11 from the field and all five free throw attempts.

Kofi Cockburn recorded his ninth double-double with 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds, while Ayo Dosunmu also scored 13.

Game 22 Recap – #18 Iowa 72, #19 Illini 65

Illinois put itself in contention for another road win, but the Hawkeyes controlled the last five minutes to claim victory and snap the Illini seven-game win streak.

Illinois broke a 15-all tie by scoring eight unanswered to open up its largest lead of the afternoon. The hosts quickly responded with an 8-0 run of its own, and from that point on nearly the entire remainder of the game was played within a two-possession margin.

There were 14 lead changes — most in an Illinois game this season — and eight ties. The Illini rattled off five straight on a deep 3-pointer by Trent Frazier followed by an offensive rebound basket by Andres Feliz to take a 59-55 lead with 5:28 remaining, forcing an Iowa timeout.

The hosts responded with the next six points before Feliz ended the run with a 3-pointer to put the Orange and Blue back up, 62-61 at the 4-minute mark.

Crunch time belonged to the home team, as the Hawkeyes rolled off nine unanswered, with the pivotal points coming on 3-pointers by Connor McCaffery and Luka Garza with the shotclock expiring. Illinois managed just one basket in the last four minutes.

Illinois' defense allowed 50 percent shooting for the first time in 14 games.

Andres Feliz led the Illini in scoring for the second straight game, finishing with 17 points on 6-of-11 from the field. Trent Frazier added 12 points and hit a trio of 3-pointers, while Ayo Dosunmu also scored in double figures with 11.

Game 23 Recap - #9 Maryland 75, #20 Illinois 66

Illinois dropped its first conference home game of the season, falling 75-66 to No. 9 Maryland in the first-ever Friday night Big Ten game held at State Farm Center.

The Illini fed off the energy of the sold out crowd right out of the gate, going on a 13-0 run to build a 17-7 lead just five minutes in. Illinois made five of its first seven 3-point shots and built its lead to as many as 14 points on two occasions, the latter at 31-17 with nine minutes left in the half.

But Maryland then surged to the break, outscoring the Illini 23-11 the rest of the way to head into intermission trailing by just two (42-40).

After the Illini opened the second half with a pair of free throws, the Terrapins went on a 13-0 run of their own to take a 53-44 lead. Illinois could not buy a basket, missing 17 of its first 18 attempts during the first nearly 11 minutes of the second half.

But the Orange and Blue kept guarding to stay within striking distance. An Ayo Dosunmu layup followed by consecutive Alan Griffin 3-pointers pulled the Illini within 56-55 with eight minutes to go.

A critical Illini turnover in the backcourt after a defensive rebound led to a Darryl Morsell open trey to put the Terps up four, and after a Kofi Cockburn free throw, Eric Ayala hit another three to give Maryland a six-point lead. The Illini could get no closer than five over the last five minutes as the Terps closed out the win to snap the UI's seven-game home win streak.

The Illini struggled around the basket and on free throws, two uncharacteristic areas. Illinois managed just 35.9 percent on 2-pointers (14-39) and 58.3% at the foul line (14-24). Illinois grabbed 14 offensive rebounds and held a 17-to-4 advantage in second-chance points. But Maryland negated that by pushing in transition off its defensive boards, leading to a 21-to-3 edge in fast-break points.

Game 23 Recap - Michigan State 70, #22 Illinois 69

Illinois staged one of the greatest comebacks in school history before suffering heartbreak in the closing seconds, falling to Michigan State 70-69 at State Farm Center.

The first half belonged to the Spartans, who scored the game's first eight points and led by as many as 19 before taking a 37-20 lead into the locker room.

After a sluggish first 20 minutes on offense, the Illini came out clicking following intermission, making seven of their first 11 shots. But MSU was still scoring on the other end, taking its largest lead of the night at 43-23 and still holding a 17-point lead with 12 minutes remaining.

That's when Illinois took over, surging back behind strong defense and an electric crowd pushing the team along. The Illini scored off 10 unanswered to cut the deficit to seven. The Orange and Blue then scored 12 of the next 16, taking their first lead of the game at 61-60 on an Ayo Dosunmu layup with 5:27 to go. That capped a 22-4 run over six minutes that brought the State Farm Center to its feet.

The lead would change hands seven times over the final five minutes, with each team answering the other. Kofi Cockburn made the biggest free throws of his young career, draining a pair with 19.1 seconds left to put the Illini ahead 69-68.

Cassius Winston drove the lane on MSU's final possession, missing a runner that only drew backboard. It was cleaned up by Xavier Tillman, who ran down the lane and dunked it with six seconds left to put the Spartans up by one.

Illinois had one last chance, but after racing up court, Dosunmu slipped while attempting to make a move and lost control of the ball, crashing to the floor as the clock expired.

Dosunmu led the Illini with 17 points and a career-high nine rebounds. Andres Feliz scored 15, and Cockburn added 11 points and eight boards.

Game 25 Recap – Rutgers 72, #22 Illinois 57

Playing for the first time this season without leading scorer and playmaker Ayo Dosunmu, the Illini battled for the first 26 minutes before running out of steam, falling at Rutgers as the Scarlet Knights remained undefeated (17-0) on their homecourt.

There were two changes in the starting lineup, with Andres Feliz moving from his usual 6th-man role in place of Dosunmu, and Alan Griffin earning his first start of the season, and second of his career.

The Illini went on a 10-1 run early in the game to take a 14-10 lead, and later cut a five-point deficit to just two at the half. The second half started off much the same way as the first half was played, with the teams exchanging baskets.

A 3-pointer by Andres Feliz pulled the Illini within 43-42 with 14 minutes left. But Rutgers then went on the first sizable run for either team, scoring 11 unanswered to extend its lead to 54-42.

Illinois cut that deficit nearly in half, drawing to 54-47. The Knights answered with another run, this time 9-2 to push it back to 63-49 at the 3:00 mark. That made it a 20-7 advantage for Rutgers in an 11-minute stretch which decided the game.

Illinois had trouble shooting against Rutgers once again, finishing 31.1% from the field (19-61) and 28.6% from 3-point land (8-28) while equaling its season high with 28 attempts from long distance. Rutgers, meanwhile, made 49.1% on the afternoon (27-55) and 46.7% from three (7-15). Illinois had only 11 turnovers, but the hosts took advantage, converting those into 19 points.

Griffin led the team in scoring for the third time this season, finishing with 14 points. Kofi Cockburn recorded his 10th double-double of the season with 10 and 10, and Andres Feliz reached double digits for the sixth straight game with 10 points.
