2020 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Michigan led the Big Ten in five categories during the 2020 season: tackles for loss allowed (4.5 avg.), turnovers lost (6), interceptions thrown (4), fumbles lost (2) and punt return defense (2.4 yards per return). The program also finished second in kickoff returns (23.64 avg.) and sacks allowed (1.3 avg.).
- 17 Wolverines made the first starting assignment of their careers during the 2020 season.
- Four players scored their first collegiate points.
- Eight players recorded their first TFL, Sack, PBU or combination of the three.
- 16 of 22 major defensive contributors set career highs
- 12 true freshman made their collegiate debuts and nine other players saw their first career action during the year.
- U-M had two players earn All-Big Ten second team accolades in 2020 - Kwity Paye and Giles Jackson - and seven additional players receive honorable mention honors.
- The Wolverines scored 23 touchdowns during their six-game schedule, reaching the end zone 12 times rushing and nine passing, while adding a defensive touchdown on a fumble return by Donovan Jeter and a kickoff return TD by Jackson. U-M also added three field goals.
- Jackson led the conference and ranked 16th nationally in kick returns (27.2 avg.); 13 returns for 354 yards and a 95-yard kickoff return touchdown at Rutgers.
- Carlo Kemp became the 15th player in school history to be selected captain twice in his career. A four-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, Kemp led the defensive line with 21 tackles, 3.0 TFLs and 2.0 sacks in 2020.
- Paye was named one of 10 finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; earned Academic All-Big Ten accolades for the third time and second-team all-conference honors from the media after posting 16 tackles, four TFLs and two sacks in four games of action.
- Linebacker Adam Shibley was named to the AFCA Good Works Team for his charitable work in the community. Shibley started the non-profit The Uniform Funding Foundation (TUFF), a non-profit organization that work to decrease participation costs for youth sports teams and athletes who come from low income areas or households by providing customized uniforms, gear, and equipment.
- Shibley was also a semifinalist for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year award.
- 16 of the top 22 tacklers set career highs in stops this season.
- Daxton Hill led the secondary and was second on the team with 46 tackles this season, including four pass breakups and a game-sealing interception at Rutgers.
- Offensive lineman Andrew Stueber was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation Connecticut Player of the Year. Stueber earned All-Big Ten honorable mention after starting all six games this season; the first two at right guard and the final four at right tackle.
- A school record 50 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2020, exceeding the previous high mark of 48 players in 2017.

IN THE COMMUNITY

More than 60 student-athletes are active participants in the Ann Arbor community, serving the program and charitable organizations.

Additional service opportunities for players throughout the year include:

- A tradition for more than 25 years, football players and student-athletes in other sports across Michigan Athletics visit patients at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital on Thursday nights throughout the year
- The football team makes annual visits to the Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor, allowing the players a chance to give back to our military and thank them for their service to our country.
- Student-athletes participate in reading programs throughout the Ann Arbor School system and attend and speak at ACT (Athletes for Community Transformation) at Bryant Community Center
- Football players engage with special needs students from across the area at Victors Day, an event put together by the T. Wall Foundation
- The coaches and student-athletes work with the KIDSPORT Program to teach youngsters from around the Washtenaw County area about football, complete with youth run drills and demonstrations
- Pen Pal Program
- Holiday Giving Drive

Community Service Overseas

During its foreign trips, the Michigan football team participated in multiple community service activities

- In Rome, the team engaged in several service-based activities, including an afternoon with refugees at Borghese Gardens. Coach Harbaugh, his family and five players visited the SOS Children's Village, which provides stable homes to orphaned or abandoned children. The contingent provided Michigan apparel, played games and visited with the youth and their surrogate mothers, who dedicate their lives to providing a stable environment for these children.
- The team also interacted with representatives from the Federazione Italiana de American Football (FIDAF), an Italian football team, which included refugee players on its roster. The team met two individuals, Kana Jallow and Saikou Sanneh, and watched a documentary about their journey, struggles and the hard work it took to overcome these difficulties, and how the lessons learned in football apply to their every day life.
- In Paris, the Wolverines spent a morning providing a free instructional clinic to French, German, Hungarian and Italian youth and coaches to help spread the game of football across the globe. After the clinic concluded, a group of players broke off and played two soccer games against refugees from Somalia, Afghanistan, Sudan, Bangladesh, Guinea and Chad.
- Michigan Football partnered with Salomon Kabongo-Kooper and his initiative, Feed the City, where players and staff put together food and boxed meals for Paris' homeless. A group of Michigan players went to the northern part of the city to spend time interacting with refugees while another group spent time preparing food, packaging clothing and delivering the items to the homeless. The players at the refugee camp played soccer, ran races and taught the young people the game of American football.
- In South Africa, the Wolverines united under the banner of sports with youth and college players from the Cape Town area as well as professional players from the Springbok, the country's national rugby team. Michigan players learned the skills necessary to play rugby while teaching the game of football to the youth in attendance. The older rugby players ran a scrimmage to show the Wolverines how a full-field game is played and then put the student-athlete through two instructional sessions featuring rugby drills. The clinic ended with UTC choir singing the national anthems for the United States and South Africa. Captain Ben Bredeson participated in a jersey swap with the organizing rugby clubs and offered a few words of thanks for the opportunity to learn the fame of rugby.

The football program is in its 94th season in the "Big House" in 2020, with a 443-133-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capacity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 41 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 299 consecutive games; the current streak was paused when health officials and government agencies limited fans at sporting events during the 2020 football season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 --- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927, 51,963,654 fans have watched the Wolverines play at Michigan Stadium. Stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 299 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000; current streak was paused when health officials and government agencies limited fans at sporting events during the 2020 football season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
University of Michigan (1986, B.A., Communications)
57-23 Record at Michigan; 39-17 Big Ten Record

Jim Harbaugh has led the University of Michigan football program to three 10-win seasons in his six years in Ann Arbor, becoming one of just four Big Ten coaches to accomplish the feat in the history of the conference.

The J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach, Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in Michigan football history on Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth Michigan football player selected to lead college football's winningest program.

In three of his five seasons as the Michigan head coach, Harbaugh has guided the Wolverines to 10-wins. U-M has appeared in a bowl game in all five seasons, including two New Year's Six Bowls with the 2017 Orange Bowl and 2018 Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl, and three other bowls played on New Year's Day (2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl; 2018 Outback Bowl; 2020 Vrbo Citrus Bowl).

Eight Wolverines have secured 12 All-America honors under Harbaugh, including consensus honorees Devin Bush, Jake Butt, Maurice Hurst, Jourdan Lewis and Jabrill Peppers.

Additionally, Butt won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end in 2016 while Peppers received the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Paul Hornung Award and was a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race that same season. Several other athletes have been national award finalists under Harbaugh, including Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award) and Bush (Butkus Award).

At least 20 players from each team Harbaugh has coached at Michigan have earned All-Big Ten recognition, including 24 players with first-team honors (four in 2015, six in 2016, three in 2017, eight in 2018, and three in 2019). In the classroom, Wolverines have totaled 174 academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure, including a program-record 48 in 2017.

Harbaugh's teams at Michigan have each finished the season ranked in the national polls, including a No. 10 season-ending ranking in 2016, when the Wolverines came within inches of claiming their first Big Ten East Division Title and a spot in the conference championship game in 2016. U-M has finished the season as a top-15 team three times in Harbaugh's tenure.

Under Harbaugh, Michigan has produced two of the five most-productive offensive seasons in school history. U-M has had a top-12 national defense in all five seasons and a top-three unit on three occasions.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after a four-year run in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the NFC title in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record, including 5-3 in the postseason.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and the NFC Championship Game in 2011, his first season, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history.

At the collegiate level, Harbaugh spent three years at the University of San Diego (2004-06) and four years at Stanford (2007-10). He turned around a Cardinal program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory in 2010. In his debut as a head coach, Harbaugh led San Diego to a 29-6 record in three seasons.

He spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the Oakland Raiders' quarterbacks coach, assisting the team to Super Bowl XXXVII.

Harbaugh began preparing for a coaching career during his professional playing days, spending eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001).

As an NFL quarterback, Harbaugh played for five organizations in his 15-year career (1987-2001). He threw for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games and made 140 career starts. He was the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. In 2005, he was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor.

As a Wolverine, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished runner-up the following year. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years.

In 1986, Harbaugh won the "Chicago Tribune" Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, was a first-team All-American and finished third in Heisman Trophy voting.

The first Michigan quarterback to throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin), Harbaugh also eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against Michigan State and Ohio State. During his college career, he completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns; all four statistical categories still list among the top 12 in school history.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three adult children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.
