#7 MARYLAND at #21 Penn State Sunday, February 21 | 1:00 PM | BTN Plus

QUICK HITS

• The No. 7 Maryland women's lacrosse team will open up its 2021 season as the Terps travel to Happy Valley to face No. 21 Penn State.

• Maryland brings back 10 of 12 starters from its 2020 team, including Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-Americans and Team Captains redshirt senior Lizzie Colson, fifth-year Brindi Griffin and senior Grace Griffin.

• A two-time IWLCA Third Team All-American, Lizzie Colson returns to the fold for Maryland in 2021 after missing the shortened 2020 season due to an ACL injury which occurred at Team USA tryouts in the summer of 2019. The No. 14 ranked player in all of lacrosse by Inside Lacrosse, Colson leads a Maryland defense with her 100 career groundballs, 244 career draw controls and 57 career caused turnovers. Colson's 244 draw controls are fourth all-time in program history and are only 10 away from third all-time.

• Attacker Brindi Griffin elected to return for a fifth year to lead the Maryland attack in 2021. Griffin has 97 goals, 54 assists and 151 points in her career thus far and was crucial in Maryland's 2019 National Championship run, scoring nine goals in the Final Four.

• The Terps will play a Big Ten only schedule in 2021, playing each of the six conference opponents twice over the course of the season. Since Maryland joined the Big Ten in 2015, the Terps have never lost a conference regular season game, currently standing at 28-0 all-time with five Big Ten Regular Season Championships. Including the postseason, the Terps are 38-2 against Big Ten competition since 2015.

• Also leading the Terps in 2021 will be seniors Grace Griffin, Hannah Warther and Catie May. Griffin is a Preseason All-American and was second on the team with 16 groundballs last season. Warther was second on the team last year with 16 points (14 goals), while also picking up 12 groundballs, while May had eight goals and five assists in six games last year.

• The Terrapin sophomore class will make a big impact in 2021. Shaylan Ahearn will take the draw for the Terps; Hannah Leubecker, Libby May and Kate Sites will play a key role on the attack, Emily Sterling will be in between the pipes and Brianna Lamoureux will contribute on defense.

2020 RECAP

Maryland was 3-3 last year before the season got canceled on March 12 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Terps were heating up when the season ended, winning two in a row over Navy and Hofstra. Maryland played the nation's third hardest schedule, with four of the Terps six games coming against teams in the top-20 and three against teams in the top-10 (#1 North Carolina, #3 Syracuse, #5 Florida).

LAST TIME OUT VS. PENN STATE

Maryland and Penn State last met in the semifinals of the 2019 Big Ten Tournament on May 3, with the Terps defeating the Nittany Lions 15-8. Grace Griffin (three goals, one assist), Catie May (two goals, two assists) and Brindi Griffin (one goal, three assists) each had four points, with May's marking a career-high. Lizzie Colson also had a goal in the contest, only the second of her career.

CATHY REESE

15TH SEASON AT MARYLAND/17TH OVERALL MARYLAND '98

One of the most decorated coaches at the collegiate level, former Maryland standout and four-time IWLCAs National Coach of the Year Cathy Reese has had unprecedented success, standing as the all-time winningest coach in Maryland women's lacrosse history, leading the Terps to five National Championships, 11 Final Fours and 20 Conference Championships in 13 years as head coach.

In total as a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach for the Terrapins, Reese has earned 12 NCAA Championships. Reese stands seventh all-time among women's lacrosse head coaches with 301 wins and was the fastest ever to 200, 250 and 300 wins.

Reese is a member of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame, Maryland Athletics Hall of Fame and was named the Inside Lacrosse Coach of the Decade for 2010-19, where she saw her program be named the Inside Lacrosse Program of the Decade (men's or women's) after going 215-14 with five national championships, 16 conference championships and 10 trips to the final four.

2019 was a banner year for Reese and the Terps as Maryland won the program's 15th national title, posting a 22-1 record. Reese became Maryland's all-time winningest coach with a win at #7 Virginia in April and led Maryland to an undefeated regular season and fifth consecutive Big Ten Regular Season Championship. Megan Taylor became the first ever goalie in lacrosse and sixth different Terp to win the Tewaaraton Award, while Reese was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year for the fourth straight season. Reese also bosted the Big Ten Midfielder of the Year Jen Giles, the Big Ten Defender of the Year Julia Braig and Big Ten Goaltender of the Year Megan Taylor. Reese capped the season with IWLCAs Regional and National Coach of the Year honors.

Reese led Maryland to their 10th straight final four in the 2018 season, posting a 20-2 record. The Terps won their fourth consecutive Big Ten regular season title and third consecutive Big Ten tournament title. Going undefeated in College Park for the fifth straight season, Reese and the Terps defeated 15 top-25 opponents. Six Terps earned IWLCAs All-American honors, the most for the program since 2014, while Reese was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

The Terps competed perfection in 2017 as the team went 23-0 and won the program's 14th national title. Maryland won both the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles. Five Terps were honored as All-Americans while Maryland featured the IWLCAs National Midfielder, Defender and Goalie of the Year in Zoe Stukenberg, Nadine Hadnagy and Megan Taylor. Zoe Stukenberg went on to win the Tewaaraton Award, Maryland's sixth-straight honoree.

Maryland had a near-perfect season in 2016 as the Terps posted a 22-1 record with the only blemish coming in the national championship game. Maryland won the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles. Five Terps earned All-American honors while six players were named All-Big Ten. Taylor Cummings finished her playing career as the most decorated player in lacrosse, three-peating as the Tewaaraton and Honda Award winner and as the IWLCAs National Midfielder of the Year. Alice Mercer garnered IWLCAs National Defender of the Year honors.

The Terps gamed their second-straight NCAA Championship in 2015 under Reese. Maryland posted a 21-1 overall record and earned the first-ever Big Ten Regular Season Championship with a 5-0 conference record. Reese was named the IWLCAs National Coach of the Year for the third time while Taylor Cummings and Megan Doudy repeated as the IWLCAs National Midfielder and Defender of the Year, respectively. Five Terps were named IWLCAs All-Americans while eight players earned All-Big Ten honors. Cummings repeated as the Tewaaraton Award and Honda Award winner while posting her best season to date under Reese.

Reese led the Terps to their second NCAA title in five years in 2014. Maryland garnered a 23-1 record on their way to a sixth consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title in the team's last season in the conference. Reese was named ACC Coach of the Year for a league-high seventh time. The Terps boasted six IWLCAs All-Americans, including IWLCAs National Midfielder of the Year Taylor Cummings and IWLCAs National Defender of the Year Megan Doudy. Cummings went on to become the first sophomore to earn the women's Tewaaraton Award. Reese capped the season with IWLCAs Regional and National Coach of the Year honors.

The Terps were near perfect in 2013, going 22-1 with its lone loss coming in heartbreaking fashion in overtime against North Carolina in the national title game. Maryland won its unprecedented fifth straight ACC title and senior Katie Schwarzmann won the Tewaaraton Award for the second straight year. The Terps boasted the IWLCAs Midfielder and Attacker of the Year in Schwarzmann and Alex Aust. Taylor Cummings was named ACC Rookie of the Year.

Maryland captured its conference-record fourth consecutive ACC title in 2012 and landed in the final four for the fourth straight season. Reese mentored her second Tewaaraton winner - Katie Schwarzmann - and landed four student-athletes on the IWLCAs All-America list.

Reese's Terps won their third-straight conference championship in 2011 while landing in the final four of the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship for the third consecutive season. Maryland concluded the season with a 21-2 record, falling short in the title game to Northwestern. The Terps put together another stellar season, boasting two Tewaaraton finalists, an ACC Player of the Year and four IWLCAs First Team All-Americans.

With the Terps falling just once in regular season play, Maryland wrapped up the 2010 campaign on a 10-game winning streak, which concluded in elation with a gallant comeback against five-time defending national champion Northwestern in the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship. Reese coached Maryland's first Tewaaraton Award winner since Jen Adams as Caitlyn McFadden was tabbed the top player in all of women's lacrosse. Four other Terpaps landed All-America status as well and Reese garnered IWLCAs National Coach of the Year honors along with being named the top coach in the conference for the second straight season.

Reese had Maryland on the verge of perfection in 2009, leading the Terps to a 21-1 record, an NCAA Final Four trip and ACC Tournament and Regular Season championships. She boasted three Tewaaraton nominees, five All-Americans, five All-ACC honorees, the ACC Player and Rookie of the Year and the IWLCAs Midfielder of the Year.

Reese returned to her alma mater in 2007 as the head coach and guided the Terps to a 16-4 record, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference at 4-1, earning the conference's Coach of the Year award. Reese continued to move Maryland in a positive direction in 2008, steering the Terps to an 18-3 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title. Once again, Reese boasted some of the top talent in the nation as senior Dana Dobbie was tabbed ACC Player of the Year in addition to being named a finalist for the Tewaarton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player.
