

Penn State Scoring Leader: Makenna Marisa (25)

Penn State Rebounding Leader: Anna Camden (8)

Penn State Assist Leader: Makenna Marisa (10)

Team Notes:

- The Lady Lions are 6-1 at home this season.
- After today's 90-72 victory, Penn State continues to lead the series history with Illinois, 40-16.
- Penn State was on the move early with 15 fast break points in the first half.
- For the first time since 11/16/21 (Delaware State, 120-51), the Lady Lions never trailed in the game.
- It was a complete effort by the Lady Lions tallying 9 different scorers in today's matchup.
- Penn State shot 50% from three (11-22) and 51% from the field.
- This was Penn State's sixth different game with 10 or more steals. They totaled 12 today.
- Penn State's defense forced 14 turnovers.

Player Notes:

Makenna Marisa

- Makenna Marisa surpassed a career milestone of 900 points (now at 923).
- Not only did Marisa lead the team in points for the 11th time this season (25 points), but she also led the team in assists for the 14th time (10 assists). This is also Marisa's 9th game with 20+ points and 6th game with 5+ assists.
- Marisa finished the game with a double-double (25 points and 10 assists). This is her second double-double this season, joining her triple-double vs. Delaware State.
- This is the 5th game this season that Marisa shot 100% on free throws (5-5).
- Marisa was four-of-six on threes.

Lady Lions:

- Shay Hagans tallied a season-high 17 points to go with four steals.
- Maddie Burke hit a season-best four three-pointers, going four-of-five from three.
- Anna Camden led the Lady Lions in rebounds for the sixth time this season.