VERSUS PENN STATE

- Rutgers and Penn State will meet for the ninth time in a Big Ten contest, 14th time in New Jersey and for the 33rd meeting overall. RU has played PSU more in its history than any other Big Ten opponent.

- The series began 103 years ago on Nov. 9, 1918, with a 26-3 Rutgers victory at Penn State. The programs played annually from 1982 until 1995.

- Rutgers last won in the series in 1988 over the 15th-ranked Nittany Lions at Beaver Stadium, 21-16. Mike Botti ran for a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter and the defense clinched the game with a goal-line stand to seal the victory.

- The 2014 game marked the first Big Ten game for Rutgers and was played before a stadium-record 53,774 fans in Piscataway.

- Penn State won last season's meeting at Beaver Stadium, 28-0. Both traded punts on the first 12 possessions of the game before the Nittany Lions scored with 4:37 left in the second quarter.

- Rutgers has 13 players on its roster from the state of Pennsylvania: RB Samuel Brown V (Philadelphia), PK Antonio Chadha (Bryn Mawr), LB Anthony Johnson (Philadelphia), DB Kareem Lewis (Philadelphia), OL Tyler Needham (Newton), LB Ryan Russo (Harrisburg), QB Evan Simon (Mount Joy), DL Cam'Ron Stewart (Shillington), OL Emir Stinette (Philadelphia), LB Andrew Vince (Schwenksville), DB Timmy Ward (Canton), RB Aaron Young (Coatesville) and DB Avery Young (Coatesville). In addition, OL Brad Harris Jr. attended high school at St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia.

- Head coach Greg Schiano worked on the Penn State staff for six seasons as a graduate assistant (1990) and secondary coach (1991-95).

- Rutgers game highs versus Penn State:

Rushing Yards: Mike Botti, 112 (1988)

Passing Yards: Eric Hochberg, 367 (1983)

Receiving Yards: Andrew Baker, 210 (1983)

RANKED OPPONENT

- Rutgers is set to face its third ranked opponent of the season. Since 1977, the Scarlet Knights have played at least one team appearing in the AP poll every season except 2012.

- Saturday's game marks the 28th contest for Rutgers against a ranked Big Ten opponent since the beginning of the 2014 season.

- The Scarlet Knights own nine victories over AP-ranked opponents, including four under head coach Greg Schiano.

THE RUTGERS BOARDWALK

- Football game day adds an exciting new element with the opening of The Rutgers Boardwalk this season. Head over to Scarlet Knight Way before each home game to enjoy several of your favorite food trucks in New Jersey, experience free rides, win prizes and take in the live entertainment. Rutgers fans will have the opportunity to enjoy their favorite elements of Jersey boardwalks right here in Piscataway.
- Kids can visit the balloon artist, photo booth, get an airbrush tattoo and play various games. The cannon crew, the Scarlet Knight and his horse "Excalibur," plus Sir Henry, will be among those in attendance on the boardwalk. In addition, the Miller Lite Beer Garden for fans aged 21+ will take place over at Athlete's Glen across from SHI Stadium. All game day giveaways, including the buttons and posters, will be handed out along The Rutgers Boardwalk.
- The excitement builds towards the parade and pep rally three hours before the game, including the Marching Scarlet Knights, spirit squads and other special groups and guests. This all leads into team arrival and the Scarlet Walk.

LAST TIME OUT

- Rutgers battled Michigan State on the road, falling short, 27-21. The Scarlet Knights out-gained the Spartans, 460-453.
- The offense set season highs versus FBS competition with 79 plays run, 460 yards of total offense, 25 first downs, 224 rushing yards and eight third-down conversions.
- QB Gavin Wimsatt had his first game with multiple touchdown passes, finding RB Aaron Young (18 yards) and WR Shameen Jones (31 yards) in the end zone, and also set career highs with 20 completions and 236 passing yards. The passing game saw seven plays of at least 15 yards (three on third down, one on fourth down). TE Johnny Langan had a personal-best 73 receiving yards on five catches, while WR Aron Cruickshank hauled in six receptions among seven players making a catch.

- RB Kyle Monangai sparked the run game with career highs in carries (24) and rushing yards (162). The yards on the ground set a program record for a Big Ten game, recording five runs of at least 10 yards.
- DB Avery Young and LB Tyreem Powell (career high) led the defense with nine tackles apiece. Young became the 13th player in program history to surpass 300 career tackles.

VERSUS MICHIGAN

- Rutgers took a 17-14 lead into halftime, but No. 4 Michigan countered with four touchdowns in the third quarter on the way to a 52-17 win at SHI Stadium.
- DB Max Melton blocked his third punt of the season in the first quarter, which was scooped up by DB Timmy Ward and returned seven yards for a touchdown. It was the third non-offensive score of the season and 59th overall under head coach Greg Schiano.
- PK Jude McAtamney hit a 32-yard field goal to make it 14-10 before the Scarlet Knights put together an eight-play touchdown drive capped by a three-yard pass from QB Gavin Wimsatt to WR Sean Ryan.
- DB Avery Young posted a game-high 11 tackles, while LB Jamier Wright-Collins set a career high with 10 stops. DL Ifeanyi Maijeh recorded a sack and the defense combined for eight pass breakups.

INDIANA WIN

- After falling behind 14-0 early, Rutgers rallied to score 24 unanswered points to beat Indiana at SHI Stadium, 24-17. It marked the second-best scoring run for the Scarlet Knights in a Big Ten game after the 28 consecutive to finish the 2015 win at Indiana.
- The defense allowed 91 yards on the first Indiana drive, but permitted just 181 on the last 12 drives with only three points against. The Scarlet Knights limited the Hoosiers to 2-for-12 on third down.
- Rutgers held the ball for 38:53, its highest time of possession in a Big Ten game since entering the league. That included holding the ball for 13:45 in the third quarter compared to 1:15 by Indiana. The Hoosiers entered the day averaging 79 offensive plays per game and ran just 61 in the game.
- RB Samuel Brown V rushed for 101 yards on 28 carries to set career highs. It was the most rushing attempts by a Scarlet Knight in a Big Ten game since entering the league, most by a Rutgers true freshman since Marcus Jones had 30 on Nov. 3, 2001, at West Virginia and most overall since Paul James' 29 at Washington State on Aug. 28, 2014. The previous Rutgers true freshman to run for 100 or more yards in a game was Isiah Pacheco versus No. 4 Michigan on Nov. 10, 2018. Brown scored his third touchdown of the season to put Rutgers ahead in the third quarter.
- DB Christian Braswell recorded his team-leading third interception on four passes defended. He returned the pick 12 yards for a touchdown.

- Rutgers won for the fourth time since 2020 when trailing at halftime in a Big Ten game. It was the sixth such occurrence overall.
- Rutgers improved to 11-5 under head coach Greg Schiano directly off an open week.
- Rutgers played a Homecoming game for the 88th time, improving to 54-33-1.

WIN AT TEMPLE

- Rutgers picked up a second comeback road win of the season in defeating Temple, 16-14. It was the Scarlet Knights' sixth-straight win over the Owls.
- Temple scored first with a touchdown drive, but Rutgers responded with a 45-yard field goal by PK Jude McAtamney and a 43-yard pick-six by DB Shaquan Loyal, his first career interception. McAtamney added two field goals in the second half and the defense made a late fourth-down stop to hold the lead. TE Johnny Langan rushed for 38 yards to help burn the final 2:25 of clock and seal the victory. DL Aaron Lewis recorded a career-high 11 tackles with two for loss and a forced fumble.
- Rutgers completed its non-conference schedule undefeated for the second-straight season is now 46-20 in non-conference games overall under Schiano.
- Rutgers won a game without scoring an offensive touchdown for the first time since defeating Michigan State, 19-14, on Sept. 4, 2004.
- Schiano earned his 79th victory leading the Scarlet Knights to surpass Frank Burns (78) for the most wins in program history. As head coach from 1973 to 1983, Burns posted an undefeated season in 1976 (11-0) and was named the Walter Camp Foundation Coach of the Year. In 1993, Burns was inducted into the Rutgers Hall of Distinguished Alumni. He is also a member of the Rutgers Athletic Hall of Fame and the New Jersey Athletic Hall of Fame.

WAGNER WIN

- Rutgers scored touchdowns on its first four drives in the first and second halves on the way to beating Wagner, 66-7, in the home opener at SHI Stadium. The Scarlet Knights are now 106-67-1 all-time when playing a team for the first time, with victories the last four occasions (2019 Liberty, 2018 Texas State, 2017 Purdue).

- The 66 points scored were the most for the Scarlet Knights in a game under head coach Greg Schiano and the most for the team since posting 68 on Sept. 4, 1993, against Colgate at Giants Stadium. It was the seventh time under Schiano totaling 50 or more points and third time topping 60.

- Rutgers picked up 328 rushing yards and 257 passing yards to top 250 in both categories in the same game for the first time since the 2008 International Bowl versus Ball State (303 passing, 292 rushing).

- Rutgers held Wagner to 19 rushing yards, the 12th time under Schiano the Scarlet Knights held an opponent to 30 rushing yards or less, all victories. It was the second-straight week achieving the feat.

- Rutgers had three different players throw a touchdown pass (QB Gavin Wimsatt, QB Evan Simon, TE Johnny Langan) in the same game for the first time since Sept. 20, 1997, versus Boston College (Mike McMahon, Brendan Edmonds, Bill Powell).

- Rutgers did not punt in a game for the first time since Aug. 30, 2007, against Buffalo.

- Rutgers picked up 33 first downs, the most in a game under Schiano.

- Eight different players combined to score nine touchdowns. The last time RU scored nine offensive touchdowns in a game was Dec. 4, 2008, versus Louisville. WR Chris Long (receiving), RB Samuel Brown V (two rushing) and WR Rashad Rochelle (rushing) all scored their first career touchdowns. WR Aron Cruickshank (receiving), RB Kyle Monangai (rushing) and RB Al-Shadee Salaam (rushing) all scored for the second-straight week. TE Johnny Langan picked up his first career receiving score and threw a touchdown.

- DB Robert Longerbeam notched his second interception in as many weeks, while DB Max Melton recorded his fourth career pick.

- PK Jude McAtamney recorded a touchdown on 10-of-11 kickoffs. It was the most touchbacks for the team in a game this century.

- Eighty-four Scarlet Knights appeared in the game.

WIN AT BOSTON COLLEGE

- Rutgers rallied in the second half to overcome a nine-point deficit and defeat Boston College, 22-21, on the road. It was the Scarlet Knights' first visit to Alumni Stadium since 2004, seventh win over the Eagles and first since 1991.

- Rutgers used a 12-play, 96-yard touchdown drive to take the lead with 2:43 remaining. RB Al-Shadee Salaam picked up his first career score on a 22-yard run. All 96 yards on the march were recorded on the ground, with Salaam collecting 49 on three carries, RB Kyle Monangai contributing 32 on seven attempts and TE Johnny Langan adding a 15-yard run. The drive included three third-down conversions.

- It marked the 14th fourth-quarter comeback win under head coach Greg Schiano, with the most recent previously being 2021 at Illinois. It was also the second time in the last three seasons overcoming a nine-point deficit in the second half (2020 at Purdue).

- Rutgers held Boston College to 29 rushing yards (-8 in the second half), the least amount permitted since Norfolk State had -3 in 2015 and least in a road game since holding Washington State to six in 2014.

- Both DB Christian Braswell and DB Robert Longerbeam recorded interceptions, while DL Wesley Bailey recovered a fumble to help the team score 12 points off turnovers. Bailey (1.5), Longerbeam (1.0), LB Tyreem Powell (1.0) and DB Christian Izien (0.5) combined for four sacks.

- The offense rushed for 212 yards, led by 64 from Monangai. WR Aron Cruickshank and Monangai joined Salaam with rushing scores. The Scarlet Knights saw Langan, QB Gavin Wimsatt, QB Evan Simon and WR Joshua Youngblood all take snaps behind center, as nine different players recorded a reception.

- Rutgers improved to 10-4 in season openers under Schiano, including wins in each of the last five, and 80-64-9 all-time.

- Rutgers was the only team in the Big Ten to open the season with a non-conference road game.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- Returner (77), Newcomer (51)
- Freshman (38), Sophomore (52), Junior (12), Senior (26)
- QB (6), RB (8), WR (12), TE (7), OL (25), DL (22), LB (15), DB (23), LS (3), PK (5), P (2)
- New Jersey (68), New York (13), Pennsylvania (13), Florida (9), Canada (3), Maryland (3), Australia (2), Massachusetts (2), Ohio (2), Virginia (2), Colorado (1), Connecticut (1), Delaware (1), Illinois (1), Indiana (1), Ireland (1), Kentucky (1), Nebraska (1), Washington, D.C. (1), West Virginia (1), Wisconsin (1).
- The roster includes 41 players who saw action in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, including eight starters on both offense and defense. In addition, 26 return who made their Rutgers debut in 2021, while 20 come back after making their collegiate debut last season.
- 70 percent (91/130) of the roster entered the season with at least three seasons of collegiate eligibility remaining.
- Rutgers has nine players on the roster in their sixth season playing college football: DB Rani Abdulaziz, DB Christian Braswell, RB Parker Day, OL J.D. DiRenzo, TE Connor Hebbeler, WR Shameen Jones, DL Ifeanyi Maijeh, DB Keenan Reid and QB Noah Vedral.
- P Adam Korsak leads the active roster with 55 games played for Rutgers, all consecutive since 2018. DB Avery Young is second with 54 games played.

2022 CAPTAINS

- Following a team vote, DL Mayan Ahanotu, WR Shameen Jones, P Adam Korsak, TE Johnny Langan, QB Noah Vedral and DB Avery Young were selected as the 2022 Rutgers football captains. Korsak becomes the second three-time captain in program history in joining Darius Hamilton, while Vedral is a captain for the second-straight year.

RECRUITING SUCCESS

- Rutgers signed its highest-rated recruiting class in the Big Ten era in 2022 (sixth in the league by ESPN, eighth by 247Sports). ESPN rated the class No. 26 nationally, the highest mark for the Scarlet Knights since 2012. RU signed 42 student-athletes, with 21 from New Jersey. Twelve states were represented overall. The class includes the top recruit from New Jersey (OL Jacob Allen), New York (LB Moses Walker) and Kentucky (QB Gavin Wimsatt). Thirteen signees for the offensive line marked the highest for any position group.

STAFF UPDATE

- Nunzio Campanile was named interim offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Oct. 9. Serving as tight ends coach since 2020, the Fair Lawn, New Jersey, native worked as the interim head coach and offensive coordinator for the final eight games of the 2019 season.
- On offense, Augie Hoffmann (offensive line) and Andrew Aurich (running backs) switched position groups, while Damiere Shaw was elevated from director of player development to wide receivers coach during the offseason. Shaw has previous coaching experience with the Carolina Panthers, Fordham, Baylor and Temple. Joe Susan took over as interim tight ends coach during the bye week.
- Joe Harasymiak took over as defensive coordinator in January after spending parts of the last four seasons at Minnesota. A native of Waldwick, New Jersey, he has experience as a head coach at Maine. Marquise Watson (defensive line, last at Ole Miss and a New Jersey native), Corey Hetherman (linebackers, 2021 AFCA FCS Assistant Coach of the Year at James Madison), Mark Orphey (cornerbacks, last at Alabama) and Drew Lascari (safeties, fifth year at Rutgers and previously a head coach at Cardinal Mooney High School in Florida) make up the rest of the new-look defensive staff.
- Shaw and Watson were both recognized on the 2022 247Sports 30Under30 list. The list identifies 30 rising stars in the coaching and personnel space under the age of 30.

RUTGERS FAMILY

- The staff features nine members who played at Rutgers for head coach Greg Schiano: Chas Dodd (strength and conditioning), Will Gilkison (associate athletic director/football), Kaleb Johnson (strength and conditioning), Ramel Meekins (academic advisor), Damaso Muñoz (special teams assistant), Charlie Noonan (defensive assistant), Dennis Thomas (offensive assistant), Scott Vallone (offensive assistant), Jamaal Westerman (strength and conditioning).

REM PATCH

- The Scarlet Knights are wearing an REM patch on their uniforms in remembrance of former Rutgers Athletic Director Robert "Bob" Mulcahy, who passed away in February.
- The 10th athletic director in Rutgers history, Mulcahy became the third to be inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017 following an 11-year career leading the Scarlet Knights.
- Mulcahy, who served as Director of Athletics from 1998 to 2009, was a visionary in New Jersey athletics and was instrumental in building Rutgers University football toward national prominence. Coming off a winless season the year before his arrival, Mulcahy worked steadfastly to improve conditions for the football program. His hire of head coach Greg Schiano led to resurgence in the program which snapped a nearly 30-year postseason drought to advance to the Insight Bowl in 2005.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Rutgers posted its highest GPA ever as a program during the spring 2020 semester.
- Rutgers had eight student-athletes earn Big Ten Distinguished Scholar status last season for maintaining at least a 3.7 GPA. Two return to the 2022 roster: OL CJ Hanson and QB Noah Vedral.
- Rutgers saw 57 student-athletes earn a spot on the Fall 2021 Academic All-Big Ten list, its most since joining the conference. A cumulative GPA of 3.0 for at least 12 months in required to earn a spot and list and 29 return: DL Mayan Ahanotu, TE Matt Alaimo, QB Austin Albericci, LB Dami Awoyinfa, OL Ireland Brown, DB Amir Byrd, RB Parker Day, DL Stanley Dennis II, WR Christian Dremel, PK Guy Fava, OL Bryan Felter, OL CJ Hanson, DB Christian Izien, DL Rene Konga, TE Victor Konopka, P Adam Korsak, TE Johnny Langan, OL Beau Lanzidelle, DB Robert Longbeam, DB Joe Lusardi, DB Elijuwan Mack, RB Kyle Monangai, DL Caleb Patterson, OL Hollin Pierce, LB Tyreem Powell, DB Keenan Reid, OL Reggie Sutton, QB Noah Vedral and RB Aaron Young.
- Rutgers has 17 graduate students on its roster: DB Rani Abdulaziz, DB Kessawn Abraham, DB Christian Braswell, RB Parker Day, OL J.D. DiRenzo, OL Curtis Dunlap Jr., TE Connor Hebbeler, WR Shameen Jones, P Adam Korsak, DL Ifeanyi Maijeh, OL David Nwaogwugwu, LS Ed Rogowski, WR Sean Ryan, OL Reggie Sutton, OL Willie Tyler III, QB Noah Vedral and DB Avery Young.

2023 SCHEDULE

- Rutgers will open with three-straight home games as part of the 2023 schedule released Oct. 26. The Scarlet Knights are set to host seven contests overall at SHI Stadium.
 - Sept. 2 vs. Northwestern*
 - Sept. 9 vs. Temple
 - Sept. 16 vs. Virginia Tech
 - Sept. 23 at Michigan*
 - Sept. 30 vs. Wagner
 - Oct. 7 at Wisconsin*
 - Oct. 14 vs. Michigan State*
 - Oct. 21 at Indiana*
 - Nov. 4 vs. Ohio State*
 - Nov. 11 at Iowa*
 - Nov. 18 at Penn State*
 - Nov. 25 vs. Maryland*
- * - Big Ten

2021 REVIEW

- The Scarlet Knights continued to make progress in 2021 with the team's first 3-0 start since 2012. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game.
- Rutgers won at least five games for the first time since 2014.
- The defense finished second in the conference in third-down conversions against, while the offense reached 300 total yards in nine games. Led by All-American P Adam Korsak, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punting average (45.25). Rutgers went 5-0 when committing no turnovers, with seven from the 2021 roster earning invitations to postseason all-star games.

- With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. TE Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers' MVP for the game after contributing in numerous ways, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation's sixth-oldest bowl game.

CHOP4CHANGE

- Chop4Change started in 2020 to spread a message of unity and equality amidst the national social justice discussion, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in the 2020 election. The program also involves giving back to the community through various forms, including donating 1,000 new winter coats, distributing 400 $200 ShopRite gift cards for Easter dinner, dispensing 150 headsets for children to learn at home during the pandemic and delivering school supplies to elementary schools previously attended by players. Overall, the program has raised over $250,000.

THE BIRTHPLACE

- Rutgers University and its neighbor, Princeton, played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.
- The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination, and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.
- At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 combatants and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. Most of the assemblage sat on a low wooden fence and watched the athletes doff hats, coats and vests and use suspenders as belts. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarfs which they converted into turbans.

OFFENSE

- Nunzio Campanile was named interim offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Oct. 9. Serving as tight ends coach since 2020, the Fair Lawn, New Jersey, native worked as the interim head coach and offensive coordinator for the final eight games of the 2019 season.
- Rutgers set season highs versus FBS competition at Michigan State with 79 plays run, 460 yards of total offense, 25 first downs, 224 rushing yards and eight third-down conversions, not surrendering a turnover.

- Rutgers did not commit a turnover versus Indiana and held the ball for 38:53, its highest time of possession in a Big Ten game since joining the league.
- Rutgers scored nine offensive touchdowns in the win over Wagner, the most in a game since also totaling nine versus Louisville in 2008. The 66 points overall were the most since 1993 versus Colgate at Giants Stadium.
- The unit has had 15 different players carry the ball, 14 catch a pass, five throw a pass and 10 score a touchdown through nine games.
- Two from the offense were selected in the 2022 NFL Draft: WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs). Melton climbed to sixth in the school record books with 164 receptions and 10th with 2,011 receiving yards. Pacheco earned honorable mention All-Big Ten and left seventh in program history with 2,442 career rushing yards and 11th with 3,039 all-purpose yards.

Quarterbacks

Evan Simon

- Leads the team with 71 completions for 740 passing yards and four touchdowns.
- Recorded 10 completions with a touchdown pass at Ohio State.
- Became the fourth Rutgers quarterback to pass for at least 300 yards in a Big Ten game (Gary Nova, Chris Laviano, Noah Vedral) with 300 on 28-of-49 passing versus Iowa. The 49 attempts ranked seventh in a game in program history. Completed passes to 10 different receivers, including an 18-yard touchdown strike to WR Aron Cruickshank.
- Made first career start at Temple.
- Threw first two career touchdown passes (40 and 10 yards) versus Wagner.
- Opened the season with eight completions at Boston College with a long of 21.
- 2021: Played in six games. Went 16-for-28 passing (57.1 percent) for 145 yards.
- Totaled seven completions, 14 attempts and 86 passing yards versus Maryland. Led two touchdown drives in the third quarter.
- Completed 154 passes for 2,625 yards and 25 touchdowns as a senior at Manheim Central High School. Also ran for 930 yards and 15 rushing touchdowns and collected Class 4-6A Mr. PA Football award for the 2019 season.

Noah Vedral

- Started 23 games for Rutgers and has 39 games of collegiate experience.
- Played the entire game versus Indiana and completed 12 passes for 113 yards, no turnovers and no sacks against.
- Rushed for a 21-yard touchdown and passed for 133 yards on six completions versus Nebraska.
- Made season debut rushing four times at Ohio State after missing first four games due to injury.

Recovered on-side kick	Christian Izien vs. Indiana, 10/31/2020

HEAD COACH GREG SCHIANO (14TH SEASON)

Greg Schiano, who has guided Rutgers football to a program-record five bowl championships, is in his third season back as the head football coach “On the Banks.” The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native is in his second stint with the Scarlet Knights after taking the program to new heights from 2001-11.

Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to seven bowl appearances, coached 90 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation so far during his time leading Rutgers football. That hallmark of standout academic performance proved to be the difference maker in sending Rutgers to its 11th bowl berth at the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 18 Rutgers All-America selections. In 2022, Schiano earned his 79th win at Temple to pass Frank Burns for the most victories in program history.

The Scarlet Knights continued to make progress in 2021 with the first 3-0 start since 2012, improving to 43-20 in non-conference games under Schiano. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program’s largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game.

The defense finished second in the conference in third-down conversions against, while the offense saw both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isaiah Pacheco (Chiefs) selected in the NFL Draft. Led by All-American Adam Korsak, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25). Rutgers went 5-0 when committing no turnovers, with seven from the 2021 roster earning invitations to postseason all-star games.

With just nine days’ notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year’s Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers’ MVP for the game after contributing in numerous ways, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation’s sixth-oldest bowl game.

On the recruiting front, Schiano and his staff have continued to build the roster starting with the top players in New Jersey, as well as in the State of Rutgers and the Big Ten footprint. Rutgers signed the top recruit from New Jersey, New York and Kentucky in the 2022 class in December. Twelve different states were represented overall with the class being ranked the highest for the Scarlet Knights in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports. In addition, the program has successfully used the transfer portal to identify talent and cultural fits to immediately impact the program.

The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. Playing a Big Ten-only schedule, the Scarlet Knights were one of just two teams in the conference to play all nine of its scheduled games. RU, despite missing spring and summer camp, matched the program high with three Big Ten victories, all away from Piscataway to equal the number of league road wins the previous six seasons combined.

With a commitment to player and cultural development, the Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. That included four on the top-three teams, with WR Aron Cruickshank, the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and honorable mention All-America pick by Phil Steele, and LB Olakunle Fatukasi both earning first-team honors.

Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, with eight games of at least 20 points after reaching the mark only five times in the prior four years. The 13.4 more points per game than 2019 marked the fourth-best improvement nationally following the regular season, while the scoring differential in Big Ten play was the best for the team by a margin of 8.6. The defense had at least one takeaway in 8-of-9 games with 19 overall, the most since 2012, and led the league with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.

Off the field, the Scarlet Knights launched #Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality amidst the national social justice discussion, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in the 2020 election. The initiative also involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

The program also achieved academic success with 103 student-athletes recognized on the Fall Academic All-Big Ten list the past two years, resetting the program record twice. The team posted its highest GPA ever as a program during the spring 2020 semester.

After making one prior trip to a bowl game in Rutgers football history, Schiano has led the team to seven bowls. That includes five victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in Rutgers history. In addition, RU was ranked in 20 weeks during Schiano’s first tenure after appearing in the AP Poll only nine times prior.

Schiano first took over on Dec. 1, 2000. “This program will be built on a rock foundation,” he said. “It will take longer than building it on stilts, but when it’s built, it will be built forever. This is where I started; this is where I was striving to get back to. I’m thrilled to be here. It’s time.”

Building up the Scarlet Knights with three rejuvenating recruiting classes to start, Schiano put together an upset win over Syracuse to close 2003 before knocking off Michigan State to start 2004 in front of the largest crowd in Rutgers Stadium history at the time (42,612). The team broke through in 2005 with a 7-5 record, the first winning season since 1992, and a trip to the Insight Bowl for RU’s first bowl appearance since 1978.

Moving to the memorable 2006 campaign, Rutgers went 11-2, earned the program’s first national top-10 ranking (peaking at No. 7) and won a bowl championship with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl. “Pandemonium in Piscataway” was achieved with a 28-25 upset of No. 3 Louisville in front of a raucous home crowd and national television audience. It was the first triumph for the program over a top-25 opponent since 1988. Schiano collected the Eddie Robinson, Walter Camp, Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year, as well as the Big East Coach of the Year following the season. The final national ranking of No. 12 still stands as the high-water mark in program history.

The momentum continued in 2007 with eight more wins, which included a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season was capped by running past Ball State, 52-30, in the International Bowl and set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841). RU also became the first and only team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teel), a 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt & Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. The 2008 campaign started 1-5, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off a six-game winning streak to become bowl eligible again and went on to beat NC State, 29-23, in the PapaJohns.com Bowl to finish with seven-straight in the win column. Then in 2009, RU beat a top-25 opponent for the fourth consecutive year with a 31-0 shutout of USF and took down UCF, 45-24, in the St. Petersburg Bowl to finish off a 9-4 season.

In 2011, Rutgers had its third nine-win season under Schiano, tying Burns for the most in program history. The Scarlet Knights defeated Iowa State, 27-13, in the Pinstripe Bowl for the fifth-straight bowl win.

2. Frank Burns: 78
3. Harvey Harman: 74
4. John Bateman: 73

GAME 11: RUTGERS VS. PENN STATE

Schiano has coached the leading rusher, passer and receiver by yards in Rutgers football history, sending all to the NFL. RB Ray Rice finished with 4,926 rushing yards, 1,812 more than second place, with 49 touchdowns. He holds the top two spots on the RU single-game rushing leaderboard with a high of 280 in the 2008 International Bowl. QB Mike Teel was a three-year starter and is the only signal caller in school history to lead the Scarlet Knights to three bowl victories. Throwing for 9,398 yards overall, he still owns single-game school records for passing yards (447) and touchdowns (7) in Rutgers' 63-14 victory over Louisville in 2008. WR Kenny Britt was a primary target for Teel, recording 3,403 receiving yards. He once had five consecutive games with over 100 yards and totaled 14 such outings, both school standards.

Schiano has also turned special teams into a game-changing force for the Scarlet Knights. RU has blocked 62 kicks to rank among the nation's leaders, while scoring 55 defensive/special teams touchdowns, including three in 2020. PK Jeremy Ito shattered the school record with 80 career field goals and earned All-America status, with P Adam Korsak also achieving national accolades in helping RU set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25) in 2021.

While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, the Rutgers football team is also committed fully to succeeding in the classroom. In 2010, Rutgers ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate. The team followed that up with the nation's No. 2 ranking in 2011. The program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR during each of Schiano's last five seasons of his first term.

Nate Jones became the program's first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection (2002-03) and was a member of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar Class of 2003, one of just eight FBS players honored. In addition, Brandon Renkert earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2007, while Brian Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021 after 46 honorees in 2020, including 11 earning distinguished status (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA in team history during the spring 2020 semester.

Known as a tireless recruiter with the ability to spot talent and develop players, Schiano has mentored 90 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in WR Kenny Britt (2009), OL Anthony Davis (2010) and DB Devin McCourty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, has won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl. Both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isaiah Pacheco (Chiefs) became the most recent draft picks in 2022.

Eleven Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered the 2021 season active on NFL rosters (Michael Burton, Andrew DePaola, Michael Dwumfour, Duron Harmon, Clark Harris, Tyler Kroft, Devin McCourty, Jason McCourty, Logan Ryan, Mohamed Sanu and Brendon White).

Schiano accepted the head coach position for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Jan. 2012 and spent two seasons at the helm of the NFL franchise.

Schiano returned to the sidelines as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator, also coaching safeties, at Ohio State in 2016. He coached 10 players who were NFL Draft picks, five of whom were first-round selections during his three seasons. There were three first-round picks from the secondary in the 2017 NFL Draft: Malik Hooker (Colts), Gareon Conley (Raiders) and Marshon Lattimore (Saints). Hooker, a unanimous All-America pick in 2016, was first nationally with three "pick-sixes" and third with seven interceptions that season.

The Buckeyes went 36-5 in Schiano's three years as defensive coordinator and 24-3 against Big Ten opponents. That led to two Big Ten titles, plus wins in the 2017 Cotton Bowl and 2019 Rose Bowl. In addition, OSU was No. 6 nationally in total defense under Schiano in 2016 when advancing to the College Football Playoff semifinals.

The Buckeyes were one of just three programs to rank in the top 10 in total defense in both 2016 and 2017. Schiano was the No. 2 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports and CBSSports.com for the 2018 signing class.

Schiano served as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 1999 and 2000 before becoming the Rutgers head coach. The Hurricanes posted a 20-5 record during that time, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl win in 2000. That defense finished fifth nationally in scoring defense (15.5) after ranking 12th in the category the year before (17.2). Following the 2000 season, LB Dan Morgan, who was the 11th overall pick in the NFL Draft, became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus Award (top linebacker), Nagurski Award (college defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (top defensive player) in the same year, in addition to being a consensus first-team All-America selection and the Big East Defensive Player of the Year. S Ed Reed was also a consensus first-team All-America honoree in 2000 and would later earn a spot in both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to his assignment in Miami, Schiano spent three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1996-98). The 1997 team placed first in the NFC in third-down defense (31.7 percent), while the 1996 squad climbed from 27th in the NFL to 11th in fewest yards allowed.

Schiano was the defensive backfield coach at Penn State from 1991-95 after working as a graduate assistant in 1990. The Nittany Lions picked up 58 wins throughout those years and made six bowl appearances. The 1994 PSU team went 12-0 (8-0 Big Ten) and finished No. 2 in the national rankings after beating Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Schiano previously was a graduate assistant at Rutgers in 1989, beginning his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Ramapo High School, the year before.

Schiano was a three-year letterwinner at linebacker for Bucknell (1985-87). He was named to the Sporting News All-America Preseason Team in 1987. He served as a team captain his senior year after leading the team with 114 tackles as a junior to earn All-Patriot League honors.

Football Loses at Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS – Rutgers football (4-4, 1-4) fell to Minnesota (5-3, 2-3) in a Big Ten road contest on Saturday at Huntington Bank Stadium.

On offense, QB Gavin Wimsatt earned his second start of the season, while WR Sean Ryan added four catches for 46 yards. DB Desmond Igbinosun (14), LB Deion Jennings (13) and DB Avery Young (13) posted career highs in tackles, with DL Aaron Lewis (10) also reaching double digits.

Wimsatt led the RU offense into Minnesota territory on the first drive of the game with first-down passes to Ryan and TE Johnny Langan. The drive ended with P Adam Korsak pinning the Golden Gophers inside the 1-yard line. Korsak later added a 77-yard punt, a stadium record and the Aussie's third career attempt of over 70 yards.

Football Drops Tight Contest to Nebraska

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football (3-3, 0-3) dropped a tough 14-13 decision to Nebraska (3-3, 2-1) on Friday night at a sold-out SHI Stadium. The Scarlet Knights shutout the Cornhuskers in the first half and forced two turnovers in the primetime matchup, but a fourth-quarter touchdown by NU was the difference in the game.

RU's defense registered two interceptions from DBs Christian Braswell and Max Melton, with Melton also adding a blocked punt on special teams. LB Deion Jennings led the team with a career-high 11 tackles.

On offense, QB Noah Vedral produced a 21-yard rushing touchdown and PK Jude McAtamney hit two field goals.

Football Defeats Temple to Start Season 3-0

PHILADELPHIA – Rutgers football (3-0) defeated Temple (1-2), 16-14, on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. The victory pushed the Scarlet Knights to 3-0 for the second consecutive season, as head coach Greg Schiano picked up his 79th career win, passing the legendary Frank Burns for the most head coaching victories in program history.

PK Jude McAtamney kicked a career-high three field goals and DB Shaquan Loyal had a 43-yard interception return for a touchdown to account for the Scarlet Knights' scoring.

On the defensive side, DL Aaron Lewis had a dominant game, picking up a career-high 11 tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a forced fumble. DB Max Melton had a strong day as well with 1.5 tackles-for-loss and two pass breakups. The defense held the Owls to 49 rushing yards, 3-for-15 on third down and made three stops on fourth down.

Football Defeats Wagner in Home Opener, 66-7

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football (2-0) shined in its 2022 home opener with a 66-7 victory over Wagner (0-2) on Saturday in front of 47,621 fans at SHI Stadium. Eight different Scarlet Knights scored touchdowns in the win, while RU's defense allowed just 145 yards in the first-ever meeting between the two schools.

QB Evan Simon (two), QB Gavin Wimsatt and TE Johnny Langan all threw touchdown passes – the first time Rutgers had three different players throw for scores since September 20, 1997, against Boston College. The Scarlet Knights scored touchdowns on each of their first four offensive drives and totaled 585 yards in the victory.

On the defensive side, DB Robert Longerbeam and DB Max Melton registered interceptions to help the Scarlet Knights to a 2-1 turnover advantage. The unit held the Seahawks to 19 rushing yards.

Football Rallies for 22-21 Win at Boston College

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – Rutgers football (1-0) opened the 2022 season on a high note with a come-from-behind 22-21 victory over Boston College (0-1) at Alumni Stadium.

Despite playing from behind most of the game, the Scarlet Knights went on a 12-play, 96-yard touchdown drive late in the fourth quarter to take the lead for good against the Eagles. RU ran the ball 11 times on the drive, capped by a 22-yard touchdown run by RB Al-Shadee Salaam, his first career rushing score.

The Rutgers offense out-rushed the Eagles, picking up 212 yards on 42 carries, led by 64 yards and a touchdown from RB Kyle Monangai, 53 yards and a touchdown from Salaam and 40 yards on the ground from QB Gavin Wimsatt.

The defense picked up four sacks and eight tackles-for-loss, had a pair of interceptions from DB Christian Braswell and DB Robert Longerbeam, as well as a fumble recovery by DL Wesley Bailey. The unit allowed only 29 rushing yards.
