It was Penn State's highest finish in the polls since 2005. 2023 HALL OF FAME BALLOT

- Penn State lettermen Ki-Jana Carter, D.J. Dozier and Paul Posluszny have been selected as a part of the national ballot for the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame's Class of 2023. A total of 80 players and nine coaches from FBS are on the 2023 ballot.
- The trio of standouts have an opportunity to join 20 former Nittany Lion players and five Penn State coaches who have been inducted into the Hall.
- Also on the Hall of Fame ballot is former Nittany Lion student-athlete Glenn Killinger, who is among the candidates for the divisional coach Class of 2023. Killinger was inducted into the Hall of Fame as a player in 1966.
- Carter, a running back for the Nittany Lions, was a first-team All-American during the 1994 campaign. Carter staked a claim to being one of the most decorated Penn State running backs of all-time with a junior season in which he was fourth nationally in rushing (139.9), second in scoring (10.8 ppg) and fifth in all-purpose yardage (158.4). The Westerville, Ohio native led the Big Ten in all three categories. His 7.8 yards per carry was easily the best among the nation's Top 25 rushers. His 1994 statistics included 1,539 yards rushing, the then-No. 2 season total in Penn State history, and 23 touchdowns. Carter was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and a finalist for the Maxwell Award. He was named co-MVP of the Rose Bowl with 156 rushing yards on 21 carries, including an 83-yard touchdown run on the Nittany Lions' first offensive play. When the Cincinnati Bengals selected Carter as the first overall player picked in the 1995 NFL Draft, he became the first Nittany Lion to be chosen No. 1.
- Dozier, a tailback for the Nittany Lions, matriculated to Happy Valley from Virginia Beach, Va. He earned first team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation in 1986. Dozier is the only Nittany Lion to lead the team in rushing four consecutive seasons, doing so from 1983-86. He ranks No. 5 on the school career rushing yardage list with 3,227 yards, scoring 25 touchdowns and averaging 5.2 yards per attempt. Dozier gained 1,002 yards as a freshman and tallied 811 yards and 10 touchdowns as a senior and one of the instrumental players on the Nittany Lions' 12-0 squad. Dozier was the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the Game after rushing for 99 yards and scoring the game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter against Miami in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl to secure Penn State's second national championship.
- Posluszny, an outside linebacker for the Nittany Lions, was a first-team All-American in 2005 and 2006. Posluszny became just the second two-time winner of the Chuck Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, in 2006. In 2005, he also won the Butkus Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker and was a finalist for the 2006 honor. The 13th Nittany Lion to be named a two-time first-team All-American, Posluszny also was a two-time finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award. The Nittany Lions' first two-time team captain since 1968-69, he became Penn State's career tackle leader with 372. A starter in the last 37 games of his career, Posluszny became the first Nittany Lion to lead the team in tackles three times and to post three 100-tackle seasons, recording 116 in 2006. Posluszny also was a two-time first-team ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American and was selected the 2006 Academic All-American of the Year among Division I football players.
- From Harrisburg, Killinger was a Walter Camp All-American at quarterback for the Nittany Lions in 1921. He coached at Dickinson (1922), Rensselaer (1927-32), Moravian (1933) and West Chester (1934-41, 45-59). Killinger is the winningest coach in West Chester history and is a member of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He died in 1988.
- Penn State has 26 players and coaches who are members of the College Football Hall of Fame. Six coaches and 20 players have earned their way into the hall of fame.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The Penn State Football team defeated Ohio, 46-10, in its 2022 home opener at Beaver Stadium.

Freshman Nicholas Singleton had a breakout-performance with 10 carries for 179 yards, including 70 and 44-yard touchdowns and a 48-yard run. Singleton's first career touchdown was Penn State's longest run since Journey Brown's 85-yard run versus Pitt in 2019. His 179 yards are a school record for a Beaver Stadium debut.

Singleton became the first Nittany Lion with multiple 40+ yard touchdown runs in a game since Larry Johnson at Indiana on Nov. 16, 2002 (touchdown runs of 41, 43 and 69 yards). He is the first Nittany Lion with three 40+ yard runs in a game since Johnson's performance against Indiana (runs of 41, 41, 43 and 69).

Penn State produced 572 total yards, with 234 on the ground and 338 in the air. Sean Clifford was 19-for-27 passing for 213 yards and a touchdown along with a 1-yard touchdown run. Seventeen Nittany Lions registered at least one catch, led by Parker Washington with four for 60 yards.

The Nittany Lions limited the Bobcats to just 264 yards, 16 first downs and just two plays over 20 yards. Tyler Elson had a team-high six tackles and Dominic DeLuca collected a team-high five solo tackles.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Nittany Lions got on the board first as a 12-play, 77-yard drive finished with a 1-yard touchdown rush by Clifford. The redshirt senior completed all six passes attempted on the drive, tallying 62 yards. The drive included a 38-yard reception by Washington and a 15-yard grab by Tyler Warren. Clifford had a 15-yard run to setup his touchdown rush. Penn State led 7-0 with 6:45 remaining in the first quarter.

Penn State needed just one play to score on its next drive as Singleton ran 70 yards for his first career touchdown, which doubled the Nittany Lions' lead with 2:28 left in the opening quarter.

Unable to score on a third-straight possession, Penn State responded with a safety on Ohio's first play of its drive. Pinned at the 1-yard line after a 45-yard punt by Barney Amor, the Bobcats botched a handoff in the endzone and were able to jump on the ball before a Nittany Lion defender could.

Penn State added a field goal with 5:14 remaining in the second quarter on Jake Pinegar's 25-yard kick.

Ohio got on the board in its final possession of the first half. The Bobcats turned in an eight-play, 75-yard drive capitalized by a one-yard rushing touchdown by Sieh Bangura.

Starting at its own 22-yard line with 1:29 left in the first half, Penn State effectively ran its two-minute offense for a 7-yard touchdown throw from Clifford to Mitchell Tinsley with 15 seconds left. Clifford made eight completions for all 78 yards gained on the drive, including a 34-yard catch by Washington that preceded Tinsley's touchdown.

The Nittany Lions recorded the first score of the second half with a 32-yard pass from Drew Allar to Omari Evans for both of their first collegiate touchdowns with 9:25 left in the third quarter. Starting from their 30-yard line, the five-play drive took only two minutes and eight seconds, which was aided by a 7-yard catch by Washington and 15-yard roughing the passer penalty added to it.

Singleton's second touchdown, of 44 yards, made it 40-7 with 4:33 left in the third quarter. All three plays in the 52-yard drive were Singleton rushes.

Penn State's final touchdown was Allar's second touchdown, a 28-yard pass to Khalil Dinkins for his first career touchdown, a minute and 16 seconds into the fourth quarter. The Nittany Lions orchestrated a 55-yard drive on nine plays, and the freshman quarterback accounted for all but one yard with four rushes for 17 yards and three completions for 37 yards.

Ohio notched a 21-yard field goal to complete a 15-play, 76-yard drive with 6:50 left in the game.

GAME RECAP

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — The No. 10/10 Penn State football team dropped its first contest of the 2022 campaign by a score of 41-17 to No. 5/4 Michigan in Michigan Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Nittany Lions' defense held the Michigan offense to field goals on three of its four trips inside the red zone in the first half. It also recorded one of two Penn State touchdowns on the day, when Curtis Jacobs picked off a tipped pass and took it all the way to the end zone for a score. However, the Wolverine rushing attack gained significant momentum in the second half, with two 60-plus-yard touchdown runs by Donovan Edwards and Blake Corum, respectively, inflating the Michigan lead.

Penn State did its best to keep pace with the Wolverines, however only one offensive touchdown and one field goal on 268 yards of offense proved not enough.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Nittany Lions were led by Ji'Airyir Brown's nine total tackles, all of which came in the first half. His performance was highlighted by an impressive one-arm tackle-for-loss inside the five-yard line to keep Michigan out of the end zone in the first half. Coziah Izzard pitched in with Penn State's only sack of the day, as the Wolverine rushing attack diverted attention away from the quarterback.

Offensively, a few big plays resulted in scoring drives for the Nittany Lions, including a 62-yard run from Sean Clifford and a 48-yard reception for Harrison Wallace III, but Penn State struggled to push the ball downfield for the majority of the game.

HOW IT HAPPENED

On the first possession of the game, Michigan took the ball deep into Penn State territory before the Nittany Lion defense stymied the drive and forced the Wolverines to a 29-yard field goal.

After a Penn State three-and-out, the Wolverines took over at their own 17 and strung together a 13-play, 77-yard drive that the Nittany Lions stopped in the red zone once again to force another field goal that put Michigan up 6-0 with 1:25 left in the first quarter.

In the Wolverines' first drive of the second quarter, Corum punched in a 1-yard touchdown to put his team up 13-0.

The Nittany Lions broke through with 6:11 left in the second quarter as Kaytron Allen burst through the line for a touchdown run on a fourth-and-goal play from inside the 1yard line. The drive was highlighted by a 62-yard scamper by Clifford.

With 4:27 left in the second quarter and the Wolverines driving down the field, Chop Robinson tipped a pass at the line of scrimmage that was picked off by Curtis Jacobs and returned 47 yards to the house for a Penn State score. The pick-six was Jacobs' first as a Nittany Lion and gave Penn State a 14-13 advantage, its first of the game.

Penn State's red zone defense kept the Wolverines out of the end zone for the third time in the game, as Michigan settled for a 23-yard field goal. The Nittany Lions entered the break down, 16-14.

Clifford came out firing in the second half and led a nine-play scoring drive that was highlighted by a 16-yard dot to Mitchell Tinsley and a 48-yard pass to Harrison Wallace III. Jake Pinegar converted a 27-yard field goal with 13:15 left in the third quarter to give the Nittany Lions a 17-16 lead.

The Wolverines answered right back, as Donovan Edwards exploded for a 67-yard rushing touchdown. Michigan converted its two-point conversion attempt as well, resulting in a 24-17 lead.

After a Sean Clifford pass fell incomplete on fourth down, Blake Corum sped through the middle for a 61-yard score to extend the Wolverines' lead to 31-17 with 7:20 remaining in the third quarter.

Michigan tacked on three more points on a 37-yard field goal with 11:00 to go in the fourth and added another touchdown with 5:03 to play on Donovan Edwards' second touchdown run of the day to go ahead, 41-17.

Wide receiver Parker Washington recorded seven catches for 70 yards and a touchdown, and tight end Theo Johnson collected 75 yards and a touchdown on five catches.

The Nittany Lion defense stifled the Golden Gophers in the first half, forcing Minnesota to an 0-for-6 start on third downs and 2-for-13 overall on the game. The Gophers entered the game leading FBS in third down conversion percentage (66.2%). The Penn State White Out crowd made its mark on the game, as the Golden Gophers were called for five false start penalties before the break.

Curtis Jacobs recorded a career-high 14 tackles (7 solo), including two for a loss. Ji'Airy Brown had an interception and seven tackles.

Both sides of the ball excelled after halftime, as Penn State outscored Minnesota, 28-7, in the last two quarters. The Nittany Lions racked up touchdowns on each of their first four drives of the half and finished the game with 479 yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Golden Gophers got on the board first with a field goal on a drive started by a 37-yard interception return to the Nittany Lions' 14-yard line. Penn State's defense, helped by another false start penalty, pushed Minnesota back 3 yards, forcing the 35-yard field goal.

Jake Pinegar knocked a 41-yard field goal through the uprights to tie the game up just over a minute into the second quarter.

A 22-yard catch-and-run by Singleton set up a 38-yard touchdown pass from Clifford to Tyler Warren with 9:05 left in the second quarter to give the Lions a 10-3 lead.

Penn State scored on its third consecutive drive, once again on a touchdown grab by a tight end. Johnson hauled in the 18-yard pass from Clifford to put the Nittany Lions up 17-3 with 4:01 to play in the first half. The score was keyed by a 30-yard catch by Mitchell Tinsley that put the Nittany Lions just outside the red zone.

Minnesota scored its first touchdown of the contest on a 3-yard run by Mohammed Ibrahim to cut the Penn State lead to 17-10 heading into halftime.

Washington hauled in a huge 35-yard touchdown ball with 11:59 left in the third quarter to cap a four-play 64-yard scoring drive to put the Nittany Lions up 24-10.

Penn State's defense capitalized on the momentum and intercepted Minnesota on the ensuing drive. Brown picked off Athan Kaliakmanis at the Penn State 10 and returned the ball 35 yards to set the offense up with a short field. The Nittany Lions offense capitalized on the turnover and excellent field position, as scoring another touchdown via a 16-yard scamper by Singleton for a 31-10 lead.

Mitchell Tinsley became the fourth Nittany Lion to haul in a touchdown catch in the game with his 20-yard score late in the third quarter.

The Gophers manufactured their second touchdown, a 4-yard Brevyn Spann-Ford catch, with 8:03 left.

Following another Penn State interception, Ohio State scored on a 4-yard touchdown run by Miyan Williams to put the Buckeyes up 10-0 with 2:48 to go in the first quarter.

Penn State got on the board early in the second quarter on a 58-yard catch-and-run from Sean Clifford to Parker Washington with 11:13 left in the half to cut the Buckeye lead to 10-7. The Nittany Lions converted a 4th-and-1 play inside their own 10-yard line and Kaytron Allen followed with another fourth-down conversion, this time for a touchdown, to increase the Penn State lead to 21-16 with 9:26 left in the fourth quarter.

A 41-yard touchdown run by TreVeyon Henderson put Ohio State in front again, 23-21, with 8:51 to play in the game. A 24-yard pass from C.J. Stroud to Cade Stover added another touchdown for the Buckeyes, bringing the score to 30-21 with 8:17 to play.

Despite a 27-yard run from Allen on first down, Ohio State's defense held the Nittany Lions to a 44-yard field goal from Jake Pinegar to cut the score to 30-24 with 5:49 remaining.

Another set of back-to-back touchdowns for Ohio State in the final three minutes of the game gave them a 20-point lead. After a 7-yard rushing touchdown for the Buckeye offense, Sean Clifford's first down pass was intercepted by Ohio State's defense and returned for a touchdown. Ohio State's lead increased to 44-24 with 2:42 left in the game.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — The No. 15/16 Penn State football team defeated the Indiana Hoosiers, 45-14, Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium.

The game featured a complementary effort on both sides of the ball with the offense racking up 483 total yards and the defense registering 16 tackles for loss. Freshman running back Kaytron Allen highlighted the offense's performance with 158 scrimmage yards and three rushing touchdowns.

Of the defense's 16 TFLs, six of them were sacks, while the unit also pulled in three interceptions in a dominant performance. Twelve different players picked up at least a 0.5 tackle for loss in the contest. The 16 TFLs ties the program record for TFLs since it became an NCAA statistics in 2000. The Lions also had 16 TFLs against Kent State in 2018.

With their rushing scores, freshmen running backs Allen and Nicholas Singleton have both accumulated eight rushing touchdowns on the season to tie Noah Cain for the freshman season program record.

Sean Clifford completed 15-of-23 passes for 229 yards and one interception. Drew Allar pitched in 75 passing yards and two scores, going 9-for-12. Ten different receivers caught passes from the two signal callers, led by Mitchell Tinsley with five catches for 63 yards.

Kobe King paced the defense with eight total tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss. Kalen King and Dani Dennis-Sutton both recorded their first career interceptions in the contest.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Nittany Lions scored first on a 1-yard touchdown carry by Singleton with 6:50 remaining in the first quarter. The score was set up by a 27-yard catch by Tinsley to put Nittany Lions inside the 5-yard line. Indiana tied the game on the next possession, constructing an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive, capped off by an 11-yard touchdown reception by A.J. Barner.

Penn State was intercepted on its own 31-yard line on the next drive, but the Nittany Lion defense stood tall and pushed the Hoosiers back 13 yards to force a punt.

Allen broke the tie with an 11-yard touchdown run with 9:25 left in the second quarter. Allen also hauled in a 27-yard pass that led to his own score. Penn State's drive was kickstarted by a 19-yard punt return by Parker Washington that set up the offense inside Indiana territory.

The Nittany Lions opened up a two-score lead on another Allen rushing touchdown. This time, it was a 6-yard score with 5:04 left in the first half. With less than a minute left in the second quarter, Jake Pinegar connected on a career-long 50-yard field goal to put the Nittany Lions up 24-7.

Kalen King recorded his first career interception with 11:15 left in the third quarter. The pick came as the Hoosiers were trying for a long strike into the red zone, and it gave Penn State the ball at their own 4-yard line. The Nittany Lions promptly marched 96 yards down the field on seven plays to score and take a 31-7 advantage. The touchdown was Allen's third rushing score of the day, and his eighth this season.

Penn State scored once again off an interception late in the third quarter as Drew Allar hit Harrison Wallace III. The score was Wallace's first of his career. This time it was Dani Dennis-Sutton that recorded the pick that led to the Nittany Lion touchdown.

On the ensuing possession, Daequan Hardy recorded the Nittany Lions' third interception of the game and returned the ball 18 yards to the Indiana 4-yard line. Allar then found Theo Johnson in the end zone to put Penn State up 45-7.

Indiana rounded out the scoring for the game with a 1-yard score by Jaylin Lucas with 6:16 left in the fourth quarter.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — The No. 14/15/14 Penn State football team shutout Maryland, 30-0, Saturday at Beaver Stadium in front of a crowd of 108,796.

Sean Clifford had a record-breaking afternoon as he took over the top spot on Penn State's career passing yardage list, passing Trace McSorley for the top spot. Clifford then became the seventh player in Big Ten history to surpass 10,000 career passing yards. He finished the day with 10,023 career yards.

Nicholas Singleton broke a tie with his teammate Kaytron Allen for Penn State's freshman season record for rushing touchdown runs, recording his ninth and 10th scores this year. Jake Pinegar also made moves in the Penn State record books, moving up to second in career scoring (323) and fourth in field goals made (48), while Brenton Strange took over third place in Penn State history in touchdown receptions by a tight end (11).

The Penn State defense shut out the Terrapins in the first half, yielding just 27 total yards. The Nittany Lions posted seven tackles for loss, including five sacks in the opening half. Maryland gained just 134 yards of total offense, which is the fourth lowest total allowed by a Penn State defense in Big Ten games.

Penn State's defensive unit was led by Abdul Carter with seven tackles (3 solo). Carter stuffed the stat sheet against the Terps, recording a sack, two quarterback hurries, a pass breakup and a forced fumble. Chop Robinson picked up two sacks of his own, as the Nittany Lion defense finished with seven on the day. Penn State had six or more sacks in back-to-back games (6, at Indiana; 7, Maryland) for the first time since 2007 when it had two consecutive games with six or more sacks (7, Florida International, 9/1; 6, Notre Dame, 9/8).

Offensively, Penn State featured its freshman running back duo as Singleton posted 122 yards and two scores on 11 carries in the game. Allen's day included 16 carries for 73 yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Maryland began the game with the ball, but the Nittany Lions' defense pushed them back six yards and forced a three-and-out on the opening possession. Zane Durant picked up his first career sack on third down to force the Maryland punt.

Penn State started its first drive on the Maryland 47-yard line and constructed a 9-play drive that resulted in a 3-yard touchdown reception for Brenton Strange. On the first drive, Clifford hit Strange for a 16-yard strike to Brenton Strange on a third-and-8 and surpassed Trace McSorley for first place on Penn State's career passing yards list.

The Nittany Lions increased their lead to 14-0 on a 45-yard touchdown run by Singleton on fourth-and-1. Penn State extended its lead to 21-0 on another explosive touchdown run on fourth-and-1 by Singleton. This time, a 27-yard scamper for the score concluded a seven-play, 72-yard drive.

Maryland's most productive drive of the half, a nine-play 43-yard effort, was stifled by the Nittany Lion defense when it forced an incomplete pass on fourth down. The Nittany Lions tacked on three more points with 1:34 remaining in the half when Jake Pinegar tied his career high with a 50-yard field goal.

Pinegar knocked a 46-yard field goal through as time expired to put the Nittany Lions up 27-0 at halftime.

The first score of the second half came from Pinegar once again, as he drilled a 21-yard field goal with 8:15 remaining in the third quarter to put the Nittany Lions up 30-0.
