NUMBERS TO KNOW

56	Returning letterwinners on the 2023 Massachusetts roster.
46	Head Coach Don Brown has 46 years of coaching experience dating back to 1977.
25	The UMass roster features 25 players who hail from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
17	Seventeen UMass players will exhaust their college eligibility in 2023 -- last season the Minutemen had four players exhaust their eligibility.
9	Anthony Simpson has the ninth-most receiving yards in the country with 566. With a career-high 140 receiving yards last week against Toledo, he posted his third 100-yard game of the season -- the most by a UMass receiver since Andy Isabella had six in 2018.
7	Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams has the seventh-most rushing yards in the country with 661 yards. He also has six rushing TD's on the season.
4	UMass has four alumni on the coaching staff in 2023: Ben Albert '95 (assistant head coach/special teams coordinator/defensive line), Valdmar Brower '04 (defensive line coach), Alex Miller '07 (associate head coach/offensive line) and Jesse Monteiro '17 (defensive graduate assistant).
2	Greg Desrosiers Jr. ranks second in the country with 428 kickoff return yards on the season.

UMASS FOOTBALL GAME WEEK

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The University of Massachusetts Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the football program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Interview requests should be submitted to primary contact Dan Colleran (dcolleran@umass.edu or 574-339-9810). Please submit interview requests ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be provided to the media.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please submit all game credential requests for contests at McGuirk Alumni Stadium by visiting UMassAthletics.com/credentials. This includes media passes for the press box and sidelines as well as scouting credentials. Media credential requests for UMass road games should be placed through the hosting institution's communications office.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Don Brown. Live reporting on team practices, including discussion on formations, plays and injuries, via social media channels or any other outlet is not allowed at any time. Parties breaking the above media restrictions are subject to credential revocation for the 2023 season.

AUDIO, VIDEO & IMAGERY USAGE BY MEDIA

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at University of Massachusetts Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes. These guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

FACILITY ACCESS FOR MEDIA

The team locker room, sports medicine suite and strength and conditioning center are closed to the media.

UMASS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES AND STORYLINES

SERIES HISTORY

The Minutemen and Nittany Lions have met once previously, with Penn State posting 48-7 victory on Sept. 20, 2014, at Beaver Stadium.

Penn State's Christian Hackenberg threw for 179 yards, while Bill Belton scored a pair of rushing touchdowns as did Zach Zwinak.

Marken Michel led the UMass offense with 104 yards receiving on six catches. Tajae Sharpe scored the Minutemen's lone touchdown on a 77-yard catch-and-run from Blake Frohnapfel to finish with 99-yards receiving. Frohnapfel finished the game with 263 yards after going 17-for-33 through the air. .

PSU CONNECTIONS

Though the teams have only met one time prior, there are several connections between UMass and Penn State.

Current head coaches Don Brown and James Franklin were on the same Maryland staff for the 2009-10 season, with Brown serving as the defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach while Franklin was the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterback coach.

Massachusetts redshirt freshman linebacker Tyler Martin's younger sister, Molly, is a redshirt freshman on the Nittany Lions women's soccer team.

Current UMass Redshirt junior safety Tyler Rudolph is a Penn State transfer, having played with the Nittany Lions from 2019-22 (played in 11 total games). Additional Penn State to UMass transfers include last season's leading receiver, Cam Sullivan-Brown, as well as former tight end Adam Breneman (2013-15 at Penn State, 2016-17 at UMass).

Massachusetts wide receivers coach Matt Zanellato, who is in his first year in that role for the Minutemen, is a former Nittany Lion wideout who graduated in 2016. He played for three different head coaches during his career at Penn State including Joe Paterno (2011), Bill O'Brien (2012 – 2013) and current Penn State head coach James Franklin (2014 – 2015). Zanellato was an All-Big Ten Academic selection and during his senior year he was the recipient of Penn State football's public service award for his work with THON and Lift-For-Life.

LAST TIME OUT

University of Massachusetts football dropped a 41-24 decision to Toledo last Saturday afternoon at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (9,623).

After two closely contested quarters where the Minutemen held the lead going into halftime, the Rockets pulled away in the second half, collecting three touchdowns and a field goal.

Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams continued to dominate the ground game, rushing 20 times for a career-high 157 yards and a touchdown. It marked the most single-game rushing yards for a UMass player since Ellis Merriweather ran for 171 vs. UConn on Oct. 9, 2021.

Anthony Simpson also had a big game through the air, bringing in seven receptions for a career-high 140 yards, marking Simpson's third consecutive game with 100-plus receiving yards.

George Johnson III contributed 60 yards and a touchdown in the receiving game before exiting with an injury.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh, who made his second consecutive start after returning from injury, finished the day 20-of-31 for 272 yards and a career-high two passing touchdowns.

Defensively, Noah Boykin led the squad with seven tackles, five of which were solo. Juan Lua picked up his first career interception in addition to five tackles and two pass breakups.

SIMP CATCHING ON

Junior wide receiver Anthony Simpson scored touchdowns in back-to-back games to open the season and now has 33 catches for 566 receiving yards (80.90 yards/game) this season. His 566 receiving yards ranks ninth in FBS (first among independents). Simpson also has 10 carries for 85 yards and a touchdown this season.

In the season-opening win at New Mexico State, the Arizona transfer had a 10-yard TD run for the game's first score. At Auburn, he took a swing pass 58-yards for his second TD of the season. It marked the first two career touchdowns for the Bloomfield, Connecticut native.

Simpson posted 101 receiving yards at Eastern Michigan (Sept. 16), including a career-long 67-yard connection in the second half. His third touchdown of the season came late in the fourth quarter against New Mexico when he hauled in a 65-yard TD catch from Ahmad Haston to help send the game to overtime (Sept. 23).

Simpson then had seven catches for a career-high 140 yards and a 71-yard touchdown against Toledo. The 71-yard touchdown catch was UMass' first 70-plus yard reception since Ross Comis connected with Andy Isbella on a 75-yard touchdown at Georgia on Nov. 17, 2018. The 140 yards was also UMass' highest single-game total since Isabella finished that game at Georgia with 218 yards.

With that showing against the Rockets, Simpson posted a third 100-yard receiving game of the season, the most since Isabella turned in six such performances in 2018.

KAY'RON RUNNING WILD

Redshirt junior Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams is putting together a breakout season as the lead back for the Minutemen, rushing for 661 yards on 130 carries this season. He has also added 12 catches for 87 receiving yards. His 661 rushing yards ranks seventh in FBS (second among independents), while his 94.0 rushing yards per game ranks 23rd in FBS (second among independents).

Last week against Toledo, Lynch-Adams rushed 20 times for a career-high 157 yards including a 47-yard touchdown to put UMass ahead 7-0 in the first quarter. He has six rushing touchdowns this season (24th in FBS).

Against New Mexico State to open the year (Aug. 26), Lynch-Adams totaled two touchdowns, marking his first career multiple touchdown game. He posted 101 yards on 14 carries at Auburn, including a 28-yard run, for his first career 100-yard game. At Eastern Michigan (Sept. 16), Lynch-Adams carried the ball 26 times for 129 yards.

A 2023 Phil Steele Preseason All-Independent Second Team member, Lynch-Adams joined the Minutemen for the 2021 season after spending two years at Rutgers. Last season, he rushed 84 times for 297 yards and a career-long, 66-yard touchdown.

DESROSIERS DELIVERING RETURNS

Redshirt sophomore running back Greg Desrosiers Jr. totaled 244 all-purpose yards against Arkansas State (Sept. 30), including 75 yards rushing, 27 yards receiving and 142 yards on kickoff returns. Against the Red Wolves, he posted his first career two-touchdown game including a career-long, 60-yard TD run and his second TD catch of the season.

A 2023 Phil Steele Preseason Independent Team First Team Kick Returner selection, Desrosiers Jr. has 18 rushes for 107 yards and a touchdown this season to go along with 12 catches for 148 yards and two touchdowns. He also has 428 yards on kickoff returns for 683 all-purpose yards this season. The 428 kickoff return yards ranks second in the country, trailing only Elijah Badger of Arizona State (470).

Desrosiers Jr., who hails from Lawrence, Massachusetts, joined the UMass program last season after two years at Louisville (appeared in six games for the Cardinals).

WOODEN LEADING THE D

Senior defensive lineman Billy Wooden ranks third on the team with 28 total tackles and second on the team with 15 solo tackles. He has a team-best eight tackles for loss and a team-best 4.5 sacks on the season. His 4.5 total sacks rank tied for 18th in FBS (first among independents).

Wooden also has a pass breakup, two quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries (t-3rd in FBS).

A Towson, Maryland native, Wooden is in his fifth season with the UMass program and has served as a game captain in each of the team's first seven games this season.

PICK SIX

Massachusetts has a pair of pick sixes through the first six games of the season. Isaiah Rutherford grabbed an interception and returned it for a touchdown in the fourth quarter of the season-opening win at New Mexico State (Aug. 26), while Dashaun Jerkins returned an interception for a touchdown against Miami (Sept. 9).

The two interception returns for a touchdown are tied for third in the FBS. All told, the Minutemen have five interceptions this season with Tyler Rudolph (vs. Miami), Michael Oppong (at New Mexico State) and Juan Lua (vs. Toledo in his first career start) also posting interceptions.

2023 OVERVIEW

The 141st season of Massachusetts football kicked off with the road win at New Mexico State on August 26.

Massachusetts was one of 14 teams to play a week zero game and started fall camp on July 28.

UMass began a two-year Football Bowl Subdivision transition in 2011, becoming bowl eligible in 2013.

REVAMPED QB ROOM

The Minutemen added four quarterbacks in the offseason including redshirt senior transfer Carlos Davis from Western Carolina, redshirt junior transfer Taisun Phommachanh from Georgia Tech/Clemson, freshman Ahmad Haston and walk-on freshman Conner Whitson.

Davis Played in seven games for Western Carolina in 2022 while compiling a 149.59 passer rating, throwing for and 16 touchdowns while also finishing as the team's third-leading rusher with 221 yards on the ground.

A Bridgeport, Connecticut native and former four-star recruit, Phommachanh appeared in two games for Georgia Tech last season and in 13 games for Clemson from 2019-21.

Haston joined the Minutemen as an early enrollee in January 2023 after leading Palm Beach Central to a 12-2 record and the school's first regional championship in 2022 as a senior captain (posted 2,150 passing yards and 38 passing touchdowns on the season).

Junior Brady Olson is the lone returning quarterback as the Bellingham, Massachusetts native appeared in nine games in 2022, recording 77 pass completions for 791 yards and two touchdowns

MAHONEY ON NAGURSKI WATCH

Junior cornerback Jordan Mahoney was named to the 2023 Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List as announced by the Football Writers Association of America on Tuesday (Aug. 1).

Mahoney had a knack of making big plays on the defensive side of the ball last season, totaling a team-best three interceptions while adding six pass breakups, three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 42 tackles (28 solo).

The Rock Hill, South Carolina native returned an interception 94 yards for a touchdown against Stony Brook and had a scoop-and-score for two defensive touchdowns on the season. His three fumble recoveries ranked third in the FBS. His brother, Jaylen, is a defensive back on the Vanderbilt football team.

The FWAA selected 94 defensive standouts from 70 schools in all 10 Division I FBS conferences plus Independents to comprise the 2023 watch list.

POSITION SWITCHES

Redshirt senior Gino Campiotti moved from quarterback to tight end following the 2022 campaign.

Last season, he appeared in 10 games, recording 33 pass completions for 257 yards and one touchdown while also rushing for 390 yards and three touchdowns.

Campiotti played tight end during his redshirt freshman season at Northern Arizona in 2020, appearing in nine games and making three starts.

Zamar Wise moved from quarterback and now plays wide receiver for the Minutemen.

Redshirt freshman Magnus Von Saldern moved from the defensive line to tight end for the 2023 season as well.

WELCOME BACK COACH

Head coach Don Brown returned to Massachusetts and is in his second year of his second stint with the football program.

Brown was named head coach on Nov. 22, 2021, by Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford, after spending the previous season with Arizona as the defensive coordinator.

During his first stint as head coach with the Minutemen, Brown led UMass to the winningest five-year stretch in program history from 2004-2008, accumulating a 43-19 record and making two postseason appearances. He spent the previous 13 years guiding defenses at Maryland, Connecticut, Boston College, Michigan and Arizona.

The Spencer, Massachusetts, native has 46 years of coaching experience to his credit, beginning at Hartford High School in 1977. As a head coach, Brown combined for a 95-45 overall record between Plymouth State, Northeastern and Massachusetts. He also totaled four postseason appearance

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

UMass employs three alums in full-time coaching roles in 2023, including assistant head coach/special teams coordinator/defensive lines coach, Ben Albert, defensive line coach, Valdamar Brower and associate head coach/offensive line coach, Alex Miller.

Albert is a 1995 graduate of the University of Massachusetts and was an All-Conference defensive lineman. During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, he served as the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator, where he aided the Minutemen to the 2003 Atlantic 10 Conference championship.

Brower, a 2004 graduate of UMass, was a star defensive lineman for Massachusetts from 1999-2003, playing for then-defensive coordinator Don Brown during the 1999 season.

Miller developed into one of the most celebrated offensive linemen during his playing days at Massachusetts. His four years starting on the line culminated with multiple first team all-America awards following the team's appearance in the 2006 National Championship Game. Miller cemented his legacy as a durable and reliable centerpiece for the Minutemen with starts in all 50 games played during the 2003-06 seasons

Two additional coaching staff members earned a degree from UMass in analyst Jesse Monteiro '17 and Graduate Assistant Garrett Dzuro '23.

DEFENSIVE OUTPUT IN 2022

UMass finished 2022 ranked 55th in total defense (ranked 130th in 2021).

Massachusetts ranked 16th in FBS with an average time of possession of 32:42

The Minutemen also finished 2022 with the 12th-ranked third down conversion percentage defense (43-for-139/.309).

MINUTEMEN IN THE NFL: 2022 RECAP

Offensive lineman Larnel Coleman was selected as a seventh-round pick (231st overall) by the Dolphins in the 2021 NFL draft and made his NFL debut in Miami's week three win over Buffalo (Sept. 25).

Wide receiver Andy Isabella played his fourth season with Arizona after the Cardinals selected him in the second-round (62nd overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. He joined the Ravens organization after being waived by the Cardinals midway through the season and is now at Buffalo's camp.

Offensive lineman Elijah Wilkinson played his sixth NFL season and first with the Atlanta Falcons. An undrafted free agent signee, he played the first four years of his career with Denver before playing the 2021 season for Chicago.

Offensive lineman Jack Driscoll played his third season with Philadelphia. Having played for the Minutemen from 2015-17, Driscoll was a fourth round pick (145th overall) by the Eagles in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Last season, cornerback Isaiah Rodgers played his third season for the Indianapolis Colts. Rodgers was selected by the Colts in the sixth round (211th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft

COMMONWEALTH CONNECTION

Redshirt sophomore Zukudo Igwenagu is the cousin of former Minuteman Emil Igwenagu '12.

Emil was a fullback and tight end for the program from 2008-2011. He served as a team captain in both the 2010 and 2011 seasons, and was named to the CAA All-Conference First Team (2011) and the CAA Academic All-Conference Team (2009). In the postseason following his senior season, Emil competed in both the East-West Shrine Bowl and became the sixth player in program history to play in the Senior Bowl (2012)

The former Minuteman went undrafted in 2012 and was part of the Philadelphia Eagles organization.

HALL OF FAME BALLOTT

Former Massachusetts football running back Rene Ingoglia was named to the 2024 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame (June 5).

Ingoglia became the school and Yankee Conference's all-time leading career rusher with 4,623 yards after he ran for 656 yards during his rookie year, 1,284 yards as a sophomore, 1,505 yards as a junior and 1,178 yards as a senior.

Ingoglia closed out four years of dominance with 10 program records and a pair of the Yankee Conference's top statistical marks. He was the first UMass player in history to average more than 100 rushing yards per game over a career (112.8), posted 21 career 100-plus yard games, three career 200-plus yard performances and outrushed the entire opposing team 18 times in his career.

Following his college career, Ingoglia played parts of three NFL seasons (1996-98) with the Buffalo Bills and the Washington Redskins. He then competed for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1999, where he helped the team to the World Bowl Championship.

Ingoglia, a current ESPN analyst, finished his collegiate career as one of the top running backs in school history and was a two-time All-America selection (1994 and 1995) and a three-time All-Yankee Conference selection.

2023 GAME RECAPS

GAME ONE: SEASON-OPENING ROAD WIN AT NMST

Massachusetts opened the season with a 41-30 win at New Mexico State including putting up an impressive 28 points in the fourth quarter to pull away.

In his UMass debut, redshirt junior quarterback Taisun Phommachanh threw for 192 yards on 10-for-17 passing, while rushing for a team-high 96 yards on 17 carries with a touchdown.

Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams totaled 79 yards on 15 carries and found the end zone twice. Anthony Simpson also contributed a TD and had 27 yards on the ground to go along with three receptions for 65 yards.

Defensively Isaiah Rutherford pulled down a pick six, one of three turnovers recovered by UMass on the day.

Tyler Rudolph led the squad with eight tackles and a sack, while Marcus Bradley had six tackles, including five solo stops. Michael Oppong grabbed an interception and Billy Wooden recovered a fumble to help the Minutemen win the turnover battle, 3-0.

The 28-points UMass scored in the fourth quarter matched the most points the team has posted in one quarter in the program's FBS era. The Minutemen also scored 28 vs. Charlotte in the first quarter on September 22, 2018 and 28 in the first quarter vs. Georgia Southern on October 21, 2017.

The 41 points marked the highest offensive output for UMass since defeating Liberty 62-59 in 3OT on November 3, 2018 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium. Massachusetts improved to 1-0 to start the season for the first time since 2018 when it beat Duquesne 63-15 to open the year on August 25 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (second time UMass has been 1-0 in its FBS era). It was also the first road win for the Minutemen since 2018 at UConn (24 games).

GAME TWO: AT AUBURN

Massachusetts had the tough task of hitting the road to play a SEC foe Auburn and dropped a 59-14 decision in front of the largest crowd in Jordan-Hare Stadium history (88,043).

Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams paced the Minutemen with a career-high 101 yards on the ground, including a 28-yard run.

Redshirt junior quarterback Taisun Phommachanh was 8-for-16 through the air while also running for 34 yards and a touchdown. Anthony Simpson added a touchdown for the second consecutive game.

Redshirt senior Carlos Davis came in the game in the second half, finishing six-for-eight for 106 yards and a touchdown.

On the defensive side of the ball, Jalen Stewart had seven tackles (six solo), while Jordan Mahoney added six solo tackles. Tyler Rudolph had two pass breakups.

GAME THREE: VS. MIAMI (OHIO)

Last Saturday, UMass opened its home schedule, faltering to Miami University (Ohio) 41-28 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium after a near six-hour cumulative severe weather delay.

Due to lightning being within an eight-mile radius kickoff was delayed by two-hours and then the game was stopped with 2:42 left in the first quarter due to an additional lightning strike within eight miles. The game resumed at 9:42 p.m.

with four receptions for 70 yards, including a 50-yard touchdown reception. Desrosiers Jr.'s catch was for a touchdown, his first career receiving TD and third overall.

In his first career FBS start, quarterback Carlos Davis was 22-for-32 in the passing game, throwing for 244 yards and three touchdowns. Davis threw for an impressive 69% completion percentage, while recording a 163.7 quarterback rating. Junior quarterback Brady Olson then made his 2023-24 season debut midway through the fourth quarter.

Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams led UMass offensively on the ground with 57 yards of his own on 16 rushing attempts.

George Johnson III hauled in a team-high seven receptions, accumulating 50 yards and a touchdown. Greg Desrosiers Jr.

followed behind with 40 total yards off of one reception and three rushing attempts, while Mark Pope paced the Minutemen. Deshaun Jerkins tallied his first touchdown and interception as a Minuteman, adding three total tackles and a pass break up.

Defensively, Jerkins pulled down a pick six, one of two turnovers recovered on the game. Gerrell Johnson led UMass in tackles, (8) while Billy Wooden added a forced fumble and fumble recovery.

GAME FOUR: AT EASTERN MICHIGAN

The Minutemen dropped a 19-17 decision to Eastern Michigan last Saturday afternoon at Rynearson Stadium (16,138).

Kay'Ron Lynch-Adams scored with 2:42 left in the fourth quarter to help UMass take a 17-13 lead but the Eagles answered back with a touchdown of their own with 1:20 remaining. After Eastern Michigan missed the extra point, UMass was unable to get within field goal range as the Eagles held on for the win.

Lynch-Adams finished with 129 yards rushing for his second 100-yard game in the last three games.

Quarterback Carlos Davis made his second consecutive start, completing 23-of-41 passes for 340 yards and a touchdown but also had three interceptions. He spread the ball around to eight receivers, with Anthony Simpson totaling 101 yards on four catches.

GAME FIVE: VS. NEW MEXICO

Massachusetts dropped a 34-31 decision to New Mexico in overtime on Sept. 23 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (8,298).

The Massachusetts defense flipped the script after halftime, holding the Lobos scoreless for the entire third and fourth quarters. The Minuteman capitalized on the opportunity erasing a 14-point halftime deficit as freshman Ahmad Haston launched a 65-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Simpson to make it 28-26 with 45 seconds remaining in regulation. Gino Campiotti caught the two-point conversion to then make it a 28-28 game at the end of regulation.

Massachusetts started overtime with the ball, converting a field goal, but was unable to hold off the New Mexico offense as a two-yard rushing touchdown sealed a Lobos victory.

Lynch-Adams led the way on the ground, finishing with 97 yards on 26 attempts for the Minutemen.

Quarterback Carlos Davis made his third consecutive start, completing 11-of-20 passes for 196 yards and a touchdown before exiting the game due to injury. Haston, who entered for the injured Davis, finished the game a perfect 5-for-5 through the air, throwing for 102 yards and a touchdown.

The pair of quarterbacks shared the wealth on offense, as seven different receivers recorded a catch on the day. Simpson had another impressive performance, tallying a career-high five receptions for 104 yards and a touchdown.

In an injury-depleted secondary, Te'Rai Powell finished with a team-high nine tackles (four solo). Billy Wooden had a sack, three tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

GAME SIX: VS. ARKANSAS STATE

Massachusetts dropped a 52-28 decision to Arkansas State last Saturday afternoon at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (9,494).

The Red Wolves were able to get out to a 17-0 lead after the first quarter and Massachusetts was unable to narrow the gap despite scoring 28 points in the final three quarters.

Greg Desrosiers Jr. had a career day, posting a touchdown catch and touchdown. He had 244 all-purpose yards, including 75 on the ground, 27 receiving and 142 on kickoffs.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh made his return to the pocket for the first time since the second game of the season and finished the day 29-of-38 for 269 yards and one touchdown.

On the defensive side of the ball, Deshaun Jerkins had a team-high, nine tackles, five of which were solo tackles.

HEAD COACH DON BROWN

SECOND SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS (SECOND STINT) // NORWICH '77

Highly respected football coach and iconic defensive mind Don Brown returned to the University of Massachusetts football program for his second stint as head coach on November 22, 2021.

Brown, who led the Minutemen to the winningest five-year stretch in program history from 2004 to 2008, is known for his aggressive and blitz-heavy attack on defense and has nearly 46 years of coaching experience to his credit.

In his first season back at UMass, the Spencer, Massachusetts, native began his rebuild by turning the 130th-ranked defense into the 55th-ranked defense in FBS. Following the 2022 season, seven of his players were named to Phil Steele's 2022 Postseason All-Independent Conference Team, including Ellis Merriweather (Second Team RB), Josiah Johnson (Second Team TE), Jalen Mackie (First Team LB), Jordan Mahoney (First Team CB), Marcus Cushnie (Second Team DE), Tyler Rudolph (Second Team S) and Greg Desrosiers Jr. (Second Team KR). Merriweather went on to sign with the New Orleans Saints following the NFL Draft.

Before returning to Massachusetts, Brown spent the previous 13 years guiding defenses at Maryland, Connecticut, Boston College, Michigan and the University of Arizona, where he served as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator during the 2021 season.

While at Michigan, the Wolverines finished among the top-12 units in the nation in total defense from 2016-2019, which included a No. 1 ranking in 2016. Under Brown's watch, the Wolverines led the country in pass defense twice, once in 2016 again in 2017. Michigan made 16 top-25 appearances in total defense, scoring defense, rush defense, and pass defense during the 2016-2019 stretch.

During his time with Michigan, Brown's student-athletes earned 49 All-Big Ten recognitions, with 43-of-44 starters earning all-conference honors as well as 10 players that picked up 14 first team nods.

Prior to his four years in Ann Arbor, Brown spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator at Boston College where he was known for the team's defensive overhaul that brought the squad to two bowl games in three seasons; a matchup with Arizona in the AdvoCare Independence Bowl in 2013 and the Pinstripe Bowl in 2014 against Penn State. The Eagles' ranked No. 92 in total defense the year prior to Brown's arrival and under his leadership earned two top-12 finishes in 2014 and 2015. That 2015 unit led the nation in total defense allowing only 254.3 yards per game. Brown spent one season at the University of Connecticut and the 2009 and 2010 campaigns at the University of Maryland before making his way to Boston College.

Before his tenure as a Power Five defensive coordinator, Brown served as the head coach at Massachusetts (2004-08), Northeastern (2000-03), and Plymouth State (1993-95) where he compiled a career record of 94-45. Brown amassed a combined five conference championships and six playoff appearances during his time at those three institutions. During his first stint at UMass, he led the Minutemen to a 43-19 record in what was the winningest period in program history.

Over the last decade, 29 defensive players who played under Brown have been selected in the NFL Draft. After the total overhaul of the Boston College defense, Brown was tabbed as the American Football Coaches Association, Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015. Brown was a five-time nominee and a finalist in 2016 for the Broyles Award, annually awarded to the nation's top assistant coach.

In 1992, Brown served as the interim head baseball coach at Yale where he led the team to a 26-10 record and an NCAA Tournament bid.

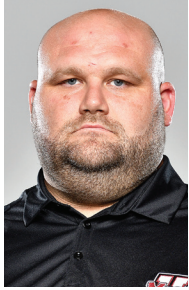

Brown played four years as a running back at Norwich University and lettered for two seasons as a member of the Men's Basketball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from NU in 1977.

Brown and his wife Deborah have four children and 11 grandchildren.

2023 UMASS FOOTBALL ASSISTANT COACHES & STAFF

ALEX MILLER • MASSACHUSETTS '07 • FOURTH SEASON ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

- Miller enters his fourth season after returning to Amherst on Jan. 12, 2021, as the program's offensive line coach and run game coordinator. He was named interim head coach on Nov. 7, 2021 and then was named the Associate Head Coach/Offensive Line under Don Brown. Miller rejoined the program following coaching tenures at New Hampshire (2011-20) and Oregon (2008-10).
- Miller spent 10 years at UNH, including the last nine in charge of the entire offensive line (2012-20), the past five as the team's run game coordinator (2016-20) and three years as co-offensive coordinator (2018-20)
- During his decade in Durham, Miller's offensive line combined for 14 All-CAA awards, including first team accolades
- Prior to joining the Wildcats' staff, Miller spent three years working with the University of Oregon football program as a coaching intern and graduate assistant
- As a competitor on the field, Miller developed into one of the most celebrated offensive linemen during his playing days at Massachusetts. His four years starting on the line culminated with multiple first team all-America awards following the team's appearance in the 2006 National Championship Game.

BEN ALBERT • MASSACHUSETTS '95 • SIXTH SEASON (1996; 2001-03; 2022-PRES.) ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE LINE

- In his first season back with the Minutemen, he helped the defense move from 130th to 55th in FBS and saw Greg Desrosiers Jr. (Second Team KR) named to Phil Steele's 2022 Postseason All-Independent Conference Team.
- Prior to his arrival in Amherst, Albert spent the last six seasons on staff at Duke University, serving as the Co-Defensive Coordinator and defensive line coach

RUNNING BACKS COACH

- Mincey joined the Massachusetts staff to serve as the running backs coach in December of 2021. In his first season back at UMass, Ellis Merriweather (Second Team RB) was named to Phil Steele's 2022 Postseason All-Independent Conference Team and went on to sign with the New Orleans Saints following the NFL Draft
- Mincey previously served as the running backs coach, and special teams coordinator for the University of Albany Great Danes for the last four seasons
- All-CAA Second Team selection Karl Mofor led the charge for Mincey's room in 2021, and paced the conference at 115.0 yards per game on the ground. Overall, the Great Danes rushing attack finished ninth in the conference at 18.2 yards per game with two touchdowns.
- Mincey joined the Great Danes after two seasons at Pace University, where he served as defensive coordinator since 2015

MATT LAYMAN • MARS HILL '15 • FIFTH SEASON

TIGHT ENDS COACH

- Layman was promoted to tight ends coach in February 2023 after completing his fourth season with Massachusetts in 2022, serving as an offensive analyst (tight ends).
- Layman worked with tight end Josiah Johnson, who earned Second Team All-Independent Honors in 2022.
- Prior to his analyst role, Layman was a graduate assistant for the offensive line (2021) and running backs (2020).
- Layman worked with the offensive line in 2021 that paved the way for running back Ellis Merriweather to become the Minutemen's first 1,000-yard rusher in the FBS era. He also spent time working with the tight ends and quarterbacks upon his arrival at Massachusetts in March of 2019.
- Before joining UMass, Layman began his career at Westminster College as a graduate assistant for two seasons, working primarily with quarterbacks.
- While there, he helped coach two quarterbacks in the program that received All-Conference nods and a quarterback that ranked second all-time in school history for total passing yards and touchdowns.
- Layman played at the collegiate level as a quarterback for Robert Morris University (August 2011-December 2012), before transferring to Mars Hill University (January 2013 - December 2015).

2022 UMASS FOOTBALL STAFF

MICHAEL LIVINGSTON • CONNECTICUT '12 • SECOND SEASON DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

- Livingston joined the Massachusetts staff for the 2022 season as the senior defensive analyst, before being promoted to the defensive backs coach in February 2023. He worked with the UMass secondary that ranked ninth in the FBS in passing defense and 12th in FBS in third down defense in 2022
- Before joining UMass, Livingston spent six of the previous seven seasons at Sacred Heart University, where he served as the defensive pass game coordinator/cornerbacks coach. He also coordinated all phases of the Pioneers' special teams units from 2016-19. Since 2015, Livingston coached six all-conference defensive backs & specialists. Under Livingston, the SHU secondary led all FCS Football in Passing Defense while winning back-to-back NEC Championships in 2020 and 2021
- Livingston spent the 2019 season at Howard University as the Bison's secondary coach and special teams coordinator
- Livingston was with Boston College for two seasons (2013-14), coaching cornerbacks, the defensive line and working in recruiting and scouting. Boston College made two bowl appearances during his two seasons, including the 2013 Independence Bowl and the 2014 PinStripe Bowl.
- Livingston began his career as a defensive student assistant at the University of Connecticut, where he assisted the coaching staff in day-to-day operations and provided on-field assistance for the cornerbacks and other defensive team drills. Livingston saw his first bowl appearance with the Huskies at the 2011 Fiesta Bowl
