PRESEASON RECOGNITION

Following an outstanding 2022 season, West Chester has received well-deserved attention in the 2023 preseason polls both on the National and Conference levels. In the United Soccer Coaches Preseason Poll, West Chester was ranked second, trailing only defending National Champion, Western Washington. In the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference poll, West Chester was picked as the unanimous favorite to repeat as Eastern Division Champions once again in 2023.

BALANCED ATTACK

West Chester hwas remarkably balanced last season as 16 different Golden Rams found the back of the net to help West Chester score its league-best 60 goals a season ago. It does bear noting that 42 of these 60 goals came from six players (Hug, Matter, Haughey, Cutter, Raybold, and Kergides), all of whom return in 2023.

LED THE WAY

While the 2022 season ended in defeat, falling in the National Championship game to Western Washington, West Chester led the NCAA in a host of categories at seasons end, including w-l-t percentage (.940), goals-against-average (.396), and save percentage (.920).

VALUABLE PREPARATION

With just one week of preseason camp in the books, West Chester takes the field opposite its second Division I foe of the weekend on Sunday afternoon after playing in its annual scrimmage against the University of Pennsylvania on Friday afternoon.

KEEP THE STREAK

West Chester enters the 2023 season in a three-way tie for first in DII women's soccer history in NCAA Tournament appearance streak, tied with Grand Valley State for the longest active streak while both teams are tied with Franklin Pierce (1992-2010) for the longest DII Tournament appearance streak.

MAJOR AWARDS

West Chester landed seven players on the PSAC All-Conference squad last year, led by a sweep of the Major Awards with Kaitlynn Haughey ('21 Rookie of the Year) being named Player of the Year, Faith Matter earning Rookie of the Year, Hayley McGee Defensive Player of the Year, and Coach Betty Ann Kempf Townsley earning Coach of the Year honors.

ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

West Chester also had four United Soccer All-Americans a season ago in Kaitlynn Haughey, Kiley Kergides, Faith Matter, and Hayley McGee. McGee, who led Division II in goals-against-average and save percentage is the only member of this quartet lost to graduation a year ago.

NEW FACES

West Chester welcomes a new assistant coach in, All-American Scarlett Walsh, to the sidelines this year following the departure of former assistant coach and Penn State alum Maddy Evans. Evans, a 2013 Penn State grad, played professionally from 2013-17 before joining the WCU staff for the 2017 season. Evans departed the Golden Rams at the conclusion of the 2022 season to join the women's soccer staff at the University of Delaware.

PROFESSIONAL TIES

Head coach Betty Ann Kempf Townsley, has NFL connections after her brother Florian, who was UPenn soccer player and played for the Philadelphia Fury of North American Soccer League in the 1978-79 season took his talents to the NFL, serving as a placekicker for the Houston Oliers (1982-84, '87) and the New Orleans Saints '87).

CLOSING IN

When West Chester officially opens its 2023 season on August 31st against Jefferson, head coach Betty Ann Kempf Townsley will be just five games away from her 700th game as a head coach and just 18 away from her 400th career victory. Currently there are only 18 coaches in the NCAA to reach the 400-win plateau.
