QUICK HITS

Penn State softball returns to the Sunshine State for the second week in a row, as the Nittany Lions get set for THE Spring Games. PSU takes the field against Kansas, Coastal Carolina, UC Riverside, Southern Illinois and Liberty beginning on Friday, February 16 and concluding on Sunday, February 18 at the Sleepy Hollow Sports Complex.

The Blue & White are off to an unbeaten 5-0 start for just the third time in program history, and the first time PSU has booked back-to-back 5-0 starts all-time. PSU's signature win of the season to date came in a 3-2 eight-inning victory over No. 16 Arkansas, the first ranked victory for the Nittany Lions since beating then-No. 22 Michigan on April 10, 2022.

Freshman pitcher Bridget Nemeth leads PSU with a 1.09 ERA in a team-high 19.1 innings pitched, picking up Big Pitcher of the Week and @NCAASoftball Digital Pitcher of the Week accolades after recording a 4-0 start in the circle paired with a save in Penn State's fifth and final contest against Ohio on Sunday. In the batter's box, senior catcher Gaby Garcia leads the Blue & White with a .500 batting average and six RBI, while senior centerfielder Liana Jones owns a .400 average and leads the squad with three stolen bases.

LINEUP INDICATES PENN STATE'S STARTERS VS. OHIO (PARADISE CLASSIC, BOCA RATON, FLA. 2/11/24)

SCOUTING THE FIELD

- The Kansas Jayhawks enter the second weekend of the season with a 2-3-1 overall record, with wins over St. John's and Central Arkansas at the NFCA Leadoff Classic last week. KU is led by sixth-year head coach Jennifer McFalls and is led on the field by batting average leader Aynslee Linduff (.429) and pitching staff ace Katie Brooks (1.10 ERA).
- Coastal Carolina enters the weekend following a 4-0 start to the campaign at the Kickin' Chicken Classic with wins over Syracuse, George Washington, Bucknell and Campbell. CCU is led by Indy Smith in the box, who owns a .556 average and a pair of homers, as well as pitching ace Nicolette Picone, who has yet to surrender an earned run this year.
- UC Riverside is off to a 2-2 start to the 2024 season under head coach Nikki Palmer, booking wins over Portland State and California Baptist with losses to Oklahoma State and Utah State. UCR is paced by Nadia Witt's .583 average at the dish and Briza Blanco's 1.40 earned run average.
- Head Coach Jen Sewell leads Southern Illinois into the season's second week after booking a 3-2 start in tournament action at Texas State. Freshman Maddia Groff leads the squad, tossing a perfect game in her collegiate debut against Creighton, marking the first seven-inning perfect game in Saluki program history.
- Liberty enters its second weekend of 2024 on a five-game skid, including losses to three teams who currently boast high national rankings in No. 8 Clemson, No. 14 Missouri and No. 17 Oregon. The Flames are led by Rachel Roupe's pair of homers and .688 average, as well as pitcher Elena Escobar's 0.78 ERA in the circle.

STORY OF THE SERIES

- Penn State and Kansas get set for the fourth all-time meeting in a series that dates to 1991, with the Jayhawks boasting a 3-0 lead. PSU's last meeting against KU also came in the state of Florida, with the Jayhawks picking up an 8-0 run-rule win in Boca Raton on Feb. 8, 2015.
- The Nittany Lions gear up for their seventh meeting with Coastal Carolina, trailing the series by a 2-4 tally. CCU booked a win in the most recent meeting on Feb. 23, 2019, with a 3-1 result in Orlando.
- PSU and UC Riverside prepare to meet for the first time in history Saturday.
- Southern Illinois and Penn State will square off for the third time Saturday afternoon, with both squads splitting the previous two meetings in the Sunshine State. SIU picked up a 1-0 win in Tallahassee back in 1998, with PSU logging a 1-0 win in Clearwater in 2010.
- PSU and Liberty meet for the ninth time since 1983 on Sunday morning, with the Nittany Lions boasting a 7-1 lead in the series. PSU booked a 2-1 extra-inning win over the Flames in the most recent meeting in 2008.

FIVE-AND-OH YEAH

- PSU softball returns to work in the Sunshine State following a dominant weekend of performances at FAU's Paradise Classic. The 2024 Nittany Lion softball team etched its name in PSU history at the tournament, closing the book on a 5-0 opening weekend in South Florida. The Blue & White also opened the 2023 campaign with a 5-0 start, marking the first time in program history that Penn State has recorded 5-0 starts in consecutive seasons.
- Last year's 5-0 opening to the season featured Cleveland State, North Florida, Bethune-Cookman, Jacksonville and Memphis. The 2024 Nittany Lions began undefeated with wins over Marshall, FAU, No. 16 Arkansas and a pair of wins over Ohio.
- PSU's only prior unbeaten start through five games before 2023 came in the 1974 campaign.

THIS LITTLE PIGGY

- Led by a dominant 2.0 innings pitched from freshman Bridget Nemeth in which she faced the minimum six batters and earned the win, as well as a walk-off single from senior third baseman Emily Maddock, Penn State defeated the No. 16 Arkansas Razorbacks by a 3-2 margin in eight innings on Saturday, Feb. 10.
- Penn State's result against Arkansas marked the first victory against an opponent inside the USA Today/NFCA Division I Top 25 Coaches Poll since recording a 3-2 victory against then-No. 22 Michigan on April 10, 2022 on the road in Ann Arbor.

KNOW THE NEMETH

- Freshman pitcher Bridget Nemeth picked up the first Big Ten Conference Pitcher of the Week accolade of the 2024 season in addition to recognition as the NCAA Softball Digital Pitcher of the Week, both organizations announced earlier this week.
- The freshman from Glendora, California, booked one of the most impressive debut weekends in Big Ten Conference history last week, earning a victory as Penn State's pitcher of record in four of PSU's five games at FAU's Paradise Classic while recording a save in the fifth. Nemeth appeared in all five contests with a pair of starts, logging an astounding 1.09 ERA in a team-leading 19.1 innings pitched. Across her five appearances, Nemeth surrendered a mere 13 hits and three walks for a WHIP of 0.83, while simultaneously striking out 14 batters.
- Nemeth is most notably tied for the national lead in overall victories through opening weekend and is one of just eight players in the Big Ten to have recorded a save through this early point in the 2024 campaign.

POWER TO THE PORTAL

- PSU welcomed a trio of transfers last summer, including Pitt transfer outfielder Haylie Brunson, SFA transfer catcher Gaby Garcia and Coastal Carolina transfer pitcher Mady Volpe.
- Brunson spent two years with the Panthers, clocking a .294 average last season with a .871 OPS, establishing herself as the team's starting right fielder.
- Garcia, a native of Southlake, Texas, hit .315 last year while ranking second in the WAC and 14th nationally with 18 home runs. Garcia's reputation as an All-Conference performer is built on 37 career home runs and 34 doubles while booking a .992 fielding percentage.
- Volpe arrives in Happy Valley after a two-year career at Coastal Carolina. The Lansdale, Pennsylvania, native booked a 2.66 ERA last year with an impressive 9-1 individual record.

FRESH FACES

- PSU boasts six freshmen on the 2024 roster, including pitcher Bridget Nemeth, infielder Brooke Klosowicz, outfielder Michela Barbanente, infielder Jiselle Hernandez, infielder Gianna Poletti and catcher Audree Mendoza. PSU's incoming freshman class is expected to make an immediate impact during the 2024 season.
- Penn State hauled in the nation's 24th-ranked recruiting class in the 2025 signee cycle according to Extra Inning Softball, comprised of right-handed pitcher Abigail Britton, catcher Macy Chamberlin and outfielder Natalie Lieto. The Nittany Lion class ranked third in the Big Ten Conference behind Northwestern (#21) and Michigan State (#23).

UP NEXT

- Penn State softball returns to action in Lynchburg, Virginia, for the Liberty Softball Classic and will play in five games against Saint Francis, host-Liberty, a doubleheader against Morgan State and a single game against Penn. Action begins Friday, February 23 and concludes on Sunday, February 25 from Kamphuis Field and Liberty Softball Stadium.

COACH CROWELL AVAILABILITY

Penn State head coach Clarisa Crowell will be available for weekly media interview sessions over the course of the 2024 season. Weekly media availabilities will be conducted via zoom on Tuesdays at 9 a.m. unless otherwise notified. For interview opportunities outside of Coach Crowell's weekly availability, contact Nick Whitley in the Penn State Strategic Communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Nick Whitley at least 48 hours in advance. Interviews will not be granted on game days prior to first pitch. Player phone numbers will not be released. Following games, requested Penn State student-athletes will be made available for comment.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Press credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media only. Requests for media credentials should be made through Penn State's spring credential portal on the Nittany Lion Softball Media Central webpage. Requests for credentials may also be directed to Nick Whitley no later than noon (ET) the Thursday before a weekend series, or the Monday before a midweek contest. Credentials will be available for pickup at the south entry to the team building on game days.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

MEDIA SEATING

Seating inside the Stine Family Media Center and at the third base line media tables is limited, with space available on a first-come, first-served basis. To request media seating at Nittany Lion Softball Park, contact Nick Whitley in the Penn State Strategic Communications Office.

GAME NOTES

Game notes will be available at least 24 hours prior to each tournament, weekend series or single midweek game. Penn State and opponent game notes will be available online on the Nittany Lion Softball Media Central webpage.

SIX ALL-BIG ATHLETES

121 CONFERENCE VICTORIES

Then-Penn State University Vice President for Athletics Sandy Barbour named Clarisa Crowell as the eighth head coach of the Nittany Lion softball program on August 3, 2020. Crowell enters her fourth season at the helm of the Blue & White in the 2024 campaign.

Crowell returns to Happy Valley following her second consecutive 30-win season with the Nittany Lions, the first instance of back-to-back 30-win campaigns at PSU since the 2005 and 2006 teams accomplished that feat. Penn State published a 31-16 overall record at season's end and mustered an 11-11 record in Big Ten Conference play, ensuring that the Nittany Lions would finish at or above .500 in the league in consecutive seasons, also for the first time since 2005-06.

Under Crowell's direction, the Nittany Lions saw continued success on the Big Ten's biggest stage in 2023, winning a conference tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 2016 and 2017 squads did so. PSU also recorded consecutive postseason appearances for the first time in five seasons, reaching back-to-back Big Ten Tournaments for the first time since the Nittany Lions appeared in five-straight from 2013 to 2017.

As the program's pitching coach, Crowell directed the most effective pitching staff in the Big Ten Conference. The Nittany Lions finished as the conference's leader in overall earned run average, rounding out the year with a 2.18 mark. The Blue & White also recorded the third-best strikeout-to-walk ratio in the league and 15th-best nationally, striking out 3.59 batters for every walk surrendered. Crowell's pitching direction also culminated in multiple program records being shattered by fifth-year left-hander Bailey Parshall, who set PSU records in career strikeouts (783) and shutouts (21).

In the classroom, PSU published a perfect Academic Progress Rate of 1,000 and saw 18 Nittany Lion student-athletes land Academic All-Big Ten honors. Penn State also mustered 12 Easton/NFCA Scholar Athletes, seven Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors and five College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-District accolades, reflecting Crowell's commitment to comprehensive excellence on and off the field.

In recognition of her exemplary record in the classroom and on the diamond, senior first baseman Lexie Black secured two of the highest honors bestowed by the Big Ten Conference in 2023. Black, a native of Omaha, Nebraska, landed the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship in preparation for her continuing education in veterinary medicine at the University of Nebraska. Additionally, Black garnered the Big Ten Medal of Honor, bestowed upon one male and female graduating student-athlete from each B1G member institution.

Penn State finished the 2022 campaign with a 25-win improvement from the previous season, marking the largest single-season turnaround for a team in NCAA Division I. The Nittany Lions also reached the 30-win mark and finished above .500 in Big Ten Conference play for the first time since 2016. Penn State completed the campaign with 32 wins, which at the time marked the most wins for PSU in a season since 2008. As a result of the program's meteoric rise to prominence, Crowell was honored as the 2022 ECAC Coach of the Year.

On the defensive side, the Blue and White registered 12 shutouts on the year, the most by any Nittany Lion squad since the 2008 team accomplished that feat. At the dish, the Nittany Lions' 75 doubles ranked tied for second in program history, while their 43 home runs and 207 RBI ranked third in program history.

Parshall led the way on an individual basis, earning NFCA All-America Third Team honors to go along with NFCA First-Team All-Region and First-Team All-Big Ten accolades. Parshall was selected as the Female Penn State Athlete of the Year for the 2021-22 academic year as a result. Parshall became just the fifth NFCA All-American in program history and the first Penn State pitcher to earn All-American recognition since Ashley Esparza did so in 2005. Parshall was dominant in the circle in 2022, posting a 22-9 individual record with a 1.68 ERA and nine shutouts in 212.1 innings pitched.

In addition to Parshall's nationally-acclaimed statistical season, junior catcher Cassie Lindmark collected NFCA All-Region Third Team and All-Big Ten Second Team laurels. Lindmark provided and immediate offensive pop for the Nittany Lion lineup, hitting .400 in the leadoff spot in addition to building a striking .508 on-base percentage. She became just the sixth Nittany Lion to hit .400 in a season and ranked tied for sixth on the program's single-season batting average leaderboard.

The Nittany Lions maintained consistent success in the classroom, tying a then-program record by placing 16 student-athletes on the Academic All-Big Ten team for the second consecutive year. Six student-athletes were designated as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars. Fourteen student-athletes made the Dean's list during spring semester and the squad compiled a 3.45 GPA, posting the highest cumulative GPA for the program in at least a decade. Under Crowell's leadership, Claire Swedberg was selected as the 2022 Big Ten Postgraduate Award winner, a recipient of the Fulbright grant and was also selected to be the Grand Marshal for the Penn State Health and Human Development Department.

In her first season at the helm in Happy Valley in 2021, Crowell led the Nittany Lions to a win over No. 23 Minnesota, the program's first victory over a ranked opponent since 2017. Penn State also had wins over four other Big Ten programs in a COVID-maligned conference-only calendar during the 2021 spring semester, including three-straight wins and a series victory over Rutgers. The consecutive victories against the Scarlet Knights marked the first time

Penn State won three consecutive Big Ten contests since 2017.

Crowell also mentored Parshall in her ongoing success in the circle, as the then-junior pitcher recorded two double-digit strikeout games and moved into sixth all-time in the Penn State record books with 396 career strikeouts and third all-time with seven career saves. In the classroom, a program-record 16 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in Crowell's first season of leadership, immediately setting the tone for multiple seasons of academic excellence that followed.

Prior to her arrival at Penn State, Crowell spent eight years as head coach at Miami (Ohio). Crowell and the RedHawks made a MAC Tournament appearance every season in which a tournament was held, winning the league tournament title and making an NCAA Regional appearance in 2016.

Crowell coached 12 student-athletes to first team All-MAC honors, 10 to second-team honors, nine All-MAC Freshman Team recipients and six National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Region honorees. RedHawk student-athletes also excelled in the classroom with 40 Easton/NFCA Scholar-Athletes and 32 Academic All-MAC honorees during Crowell's tenure in Oxford.

In the COVID-19 shortened 2020 season, Crowell's RedHawks were selected as the MAC preseason favorites. Junior pitcher Courtney Vierstra ranked fifth nationally and first in the conference in strikeouts with 140 over 18 appearances. Crowell's tutelage of Vierstra saw the junior star finish fifth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings with 12.5 at the season's suspension mark.

In the spring of 2019, Crowell led Miami to a 35-16 overall record and a 16-4 ledger in conference play, as the RedHawks captured their first MAC regular-season title in program history. Miami posted 10-straight wins against MAC opponents, the longest win streak in conference play in the history of the RedHawk program. The team also ranked first in the MAC for pitching and team defense with an overall ERA of 2.55 coupled with a .972 fielding percentage. Crowell was named the 2019 MAC Coach of the Year while seven student-athletes earned All-MAC selections and two more were named NFCA All-Region honorees. Vierstra headlined the list of All-Region recipients after boasting the third-best strikeouts-per-seven innings ratio in the country (10.3).

Crowell's 2017 team excelled offensively, ranking second all-time in Miami history for runs scored (265), runs per game (5.00), RBI (235), doubles (74) and home runs (47). Crowell led Michaela Schlattman to NFCA All-Region recognition, marking the third-straight season a RedHawk player garnered regional accolades. The RedHawks went 29-24 in 2017, highlighted by a dominant 16-2 record at home.

HEAD COACH CLARISA CROWELL

In 2016, Crowell led Miami to a 35-23 overall record and 15-7 record in MAC competition, finishing just half a game short of the MAC regular-season title. The RedHawks made up for that with a perfect 4-0 record in the MAC Tournament to earn the program's fourth conference tournament crown and a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2012. Miami went on to beat No. 23 Notre Dame, 3-2, in the opening game of the Ann Arbor Regional.

The 2016 RedHawks broke six offensive school records, including runs (302), runs per game (5.21), RBI (274), doubles (83), home runs (56) and walks (200). Miami also held a .977 fielding percentage, a school record, and the seventh-best fielding percentage in the nation. Crowell coached senior outfielder Taylor Shuey to become the first softball player in school history to be named MAC Player of the Year after breaking Miami's career RBI record with 114. Senior pitcher Amber Logemann was also named the MAC Tournament MVP after going 4-0 individually with a domineering 0.65 ERA in 32.1 innings pitched.

Crowell's third season in 2015 saw senior outfielder Tiyona Marshall garner NFCA All-Mideast Region First-Team honors after Marshall set school records in hits (86), runs scored (50) and batting average (.446).

Prior to Miami, Crowell spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State where she primarily worked with the pitchers and catchers. In 2010, both of her pitchers earned spots on the All-Big 12 and NFCA All-Midwest Region teams. In 2011, Crowell coached catcher Courtney Totte to an All-Big 12 first-team appearance and recognition as a Third Team All-American. Crowell helped lead the Cowgirls back to national prominence, as Oklahoma State returned to the Women's College World Series for the first time since 1998 in the 2011 campaign. The coaching staff also hauled in NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year accolades at season's end.

Crowell's previous stop at Syracuse as an assistant coach in 2006 saw the Orange land four players as NFCA All-Region designees and five players secure All-Conference honors. All-American and Big East Player of the Year Alexis Switenko led the way, while Tonye McCorkle, the Big East Co-Rookie of the Year, published a dominant season of her own. Crowell began her collegiate coaching career at Ohio University, where she served as an assistant for two years.

Crowell was a decorated student-athlete at Virginia Tech as a four-year letterwinner and a three-time All-Conference performer for the Hokies. In 2013, Crowell was inducted into the Virginia Tech All-Sports Hall of Fame.

Crowell graduated from Virginia Tech in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology. She earned a Master of Science in recreation and sports sciences from Ohio University in 2005.

NITTANY LION SOFTBALL PARK & BEARD FIELD

A facility years in the making, state-of-the-art and second to none – that is what Nittany Lion Softball Park and Beard Field provides to the Penn State athletic community. With numerous donations and the Penn State Board of Trustees' approval, construction of the $10.2 million complex was completed in time for the 2011 season. The facility houses the Nittany Lion softball team and allows the program to compete with the best in the country.

The complex features 1,084 permanent seats with fantastic sight lines, accessible seating, concession stands, permanent bathrooms and merchandise areas for fans. On the softball side of things, the field with irrigation, dugouts, batting cages and tunnels, bullpens, scoreboard and a state-of-the-art lighting system make Nittany Lion Softball Park a collegiate softball gem.

The complex consolidates the team's resources into one area with new training rooms, media center, video room, study space, locker rooms and coaches' offices all housed at the softball park. A new press area behind home plate was constructed, which further enhanced the amenities of the stadium.

Key benefactors of the project allowed Nittany Lion Softball Park to take shape and get off the ground. The playing field was named Beard Field in recognition of a generous donation from Lee and William Beard in October 2009. The Penn State locker room was named the Fran Vanden Locker Room, recognizing a gift from George and Frances Vanden. Another major donation came from the James M. and Margaret V. Stine Foundation to name both the Softball Office Complex and Media Center in honor of the Stine Family. Art and Paige Nagle also contributed to the project and one of the assistant coaches' offices dons their names.

Penn State's first game in its new home was March 26, 2011, a thrilling 8-5 victory over Wisconsin. Plenty of firsts were delivered that afternoon and none more memorable than Lisa Akamine's inside-the-park home run as Penn State overcame a three-run deficit to win the inaugural game. For the season, Penn State boasted an 11-8-1 record on Beard Field in its first campaign. It was the first winning season at home since 2007 for the Nittany Lions, which coincided with PSU's last trip to the NCAA Tournament before 2011.

The stadium paid dividends immediately for the Nittany Lion program as Penn State hosted the 2011 NCAA University Park Regional.

The event marked the first time PSU hosted NCAA Softball in 28 years as Oregon, Fordham and Albany competed with Penn State for the right to go to the NCAA Super Regionals. In the three-day event, nearly 1,900 fans streamed through the turnstiles. Oregon would eventually advance, but not before an exciting 16-inning midnight thriller between Penn State and Fordham. The Nittany Lions prevailed, 5-2, in the second-longest game in PSU history.

As if the NCAA event wasn't exciting enough, Penn State then hosted the PIAA Softball Championships. Four games in one day on a sparkling afternoon in mid-June had nearly 3,000 fans attend. The first game of the day featured local powerhouse Philipsburg-Osceola and Brandywine Heights with a standing room-only crowd of 1,800 spectators. The PIAA is still a committed partner of Penn State Athletics, as Nittany Lion Softball Park and Happy Valley Hospitality earned rave reviews. Penn State's University Park campus has played host to the PIAA Championships in every season since Beard Field opened in 2011.

Nittany Lion Softball Park is located on the corner of Park Avenue and University Drive, facing the Bryce Jordan Center, Mount Nittany and Beaver Stadium to the southeast, providing spectacular views and a gorgeous setting for all who attend softball games.

"Bill and I are both very pleased to be a small part of this very impressive facility. For us, the decision to give to this facility, to this program, was easy because one of our big passions is certainly the students of this university, but in particular the softball program. Our passion to help the softball program is because we've watched this program grow. There are some common links to this group [of donors]: Fran and George [Vanden], the Stine Family, Peter and Ann Nagle, Bill and I all have in common a link in believing that this is a program that deserves the typical Penn State, first-class facility to be successful."
