QUICK HITS

Penn State softball enters the postseason for the third consecutive year and kicks off the 2024 Big Ten Softball Tournament on Wednesday, May 8, as the Nittany Lions get set to square off against the Maryland Terrapins in opening-round action from Pearl Field on the campus of the University of Iowa. Wednesday's first-round test will air before a national television audience via the Big Ten Network and stream live via the FOX Sports App. The Nittany Lions prepare for their third postseason appearance under the direction of fourth-year head coach Clarisa Crowell, with the Blue & White seeking a postseason victory in three-straight years for the first time since the program accomplished that feat in the Big Ten Tournament from 2015 to 2017. Offensively, Penn State is led by senior middle infielder Kaitlyn Morrison's .349 overall batting average in addition to senior catcher Gaby Garcia's 11 home runs and 41 RBI. Junior utility Maddie Gordon paces the Nittany Lions in multiple statistical categories, highlighted by her team-high-tying 11 dingers alongside Garcia. Both Gordon and Garcia are tied for the eighth-most homers in a single season in PSU program history. Freshman sensation Bridget Nemeth prepares for her first foray into postseason softball this week in Iowa City, with the rookie right-handed pitcher needing just one more winning decision to set the Nittany Lion program record for wins in a year. Nemeth leads the team with a 1.68 overall season ERA paired with a historic 22-5 individual record in the circle.

2024 BIG TEN CONFERENCE
SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT BRACKET

BACK IN THE BIG LEAGUES

- The Nittany Lions prepare for their 17th appearance in the Big Ten Tournament all-time and their third consecutive. PSU owns a 15-20 overall record in the event since the program's first appearance in the 1999 campaign, good enough for a .429 win percentage.
- Penn State booked its best finish at the Big Ten Conference Softball Tournament in 2000, 2002 and 2016, reaching the semifinal round of the event. The 2016 Nittany Lions hosted the the B1G Tournament for the first time in school history and picked up the No. 4 overall seed in the tournament, the team's highest seed since the league adopted a single-elimination format ahead of the 2004 postseason. PSU registered a thrilling 8-7 win over fifth-seeded Nebraska before falling by a 6-1 margin against top-seeded Michigan at Beard Field.
- Under the direction of head coach Clarisa Crowell, the Blue & White boast an even 2-2 postseason record with back-to-back first round victories in the league tournament in 2022 and 2023.

KNOW THY NEIGHBOR

- Penn State enters the 2024 Big Ten Tournament as the league's No. 7 overall seed following a 12-11 finish in the regular season. PSU's league record is tied with Indiana and Ohio State, with the tie broken via the B1G's postseason tiebreaker criteria that measured each program's record against the 12-team tournament field.
- Northwestern earned the No. 1 seed in the tournament after securing its third-straight Big Ten regular season championship last weekend. Michigan booked the second seed while Rutgers earned its first first-round bye since joining the league in 2015. Nebraska rounded out the four teams in the top four that earned first-round byes in the tournament.
- The Nittany Lions maintain a 10-10 overall record against the 2024 tournament field, with the Blue & White booking a series sweep over eighth-seeded Indiana in addition to series wins over 10th-seeded Maryland, 11th-seeded Wisconsin and fourth-seeded Nebraska.

CHAMPAIGN POETRY

- PSU returns to the Big Ten Conference Tournament following a 1-1 performance in 2023 that saw PSU reach the quarterfinals for the second consecutive season. The Nittany Lions scored a historic win over Michigan in the first round of the tournament, defeating the Wolverines in postseason competition for the first time in school history. PSU was previously 0-7 against Michigan at the Big Ten Tournament heading into last year's meeting at Eichelberger Field in Champaign, Illinois.
- Despite the team's quarterfinal exit, the Nittany Lions saw continued success on the league's biggest stage in 2023, winning a tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 2016 and 2017 squads did so.

LAST TIME OUT

- Freshman pitcher Bridget Nemeth etched her name at the top of the Penn State softball leaderboard for wins in a single season on Friday, May 3, booking the 22nd victory of her rookie campaign while leading the Nittany Lions to a 4-1 win over Rutgers in the series opener last weekend in Piscataway. On the back of Nemeth's historic performance, the 2024 Nittany Lions moved into a tie for fourth all-time at PSU for wins in a single season and wins in a conference season with 34 and 12, respectively.
- PSU dropped its Saturday doubleheader to the Scarlet Knights, but senior catcher Gaby Garcia led the way at the plate for the Nittany Lions, batting a combined 4-for-7 across both contests with a pair of extra-base hits. In game two, freshman left fielder Michela Barbanente managed to tie the single-game Nittany Lion home run record, launching homers in consecutive at-bats in the fifth and sixth innings.

MATCHING UP WITH MARYLAND

- Head coach Lauren Karn leads the Maryland Terrapins into the postseason in her first year as a B1G skipper, directing UMD to a 23-29 overall record paired with an 8-15 mark against Big Ten Conference competitors over the course of the 2024 campaign. The Terrapins enter the postseason as the league's No. 10 overall seed fresh off a weekend sweep on the road against the Wisconsin Badgers to ensure their postseason trip. Maryland also boasts an additional series victory in conference competition against fifth-seeded Minnesota, with single-game wins over Penn State, Illinois and Purdue.
- On an individual basis, veteran centerfielder Jaeda McFarland leads the way in the outfield and at the plate with a .362 batting average. Diamond Williams paces the squad with 13 homers while Sydney Lewis owns the team lead in RBI with 41. Veteran power pitcher Courtney Wyche leads the B1G in strikeouts and owns the team lead in earned run average with a 2.84 mark.

STORY OF THE SERIES

- Penn State and Maryland gear up for their 41st all-time meetings this week in Iowa City, with PSU maintaining a 24-16 edge in the series since the first contest between the two squads in 1999.
- One of PSU's closest geographical rivals, the Nittany Lions and Terrapins have faced off in a weekend series every year since Maryland joined the B1G in the 2015 spring campaign, excluding the COVID-maligned 2020 season. In the last nine meetings, PSU and UMD have played relative even, Penn State leading 5-4 following the last three series.
- Penn State and Maryland get set for their second all-time postseason meeting and first meeting in the postseason since PSU took home a 10-6 win in the first round of the 2015 Big Ten Tournament.
- The Nittany Lions came away with the victory in this year's weekend series, dropping the opener before rattling off two straight wins in Happy Valley. Sunday's 12-inning, 1-0 thriller marked the longest game played by the Nittany Lions in 2024.

ON THE RECORD

- Penn State's series-opening win over Rutgers on May 3 saw the Blue & White secure their 34th overall victory this season, culminating in a 34-17 overall record with a 12-11 finish in B1G play. PSU's 34 wins are the fourth-most in a single season in program history, in addition to being the most wins in Happy Valley since the 2008 team published a 34-22 overall record.
- Penn State needs just five more victories to meet the all-time program record for wins in a single season set by the 2006 squad. PSU published a 39-17 overall record and advanced to both the Big Ten and NCAA Tournaments. The 2006 edition of the Blue & White battled their way to the Hempstead Regional Final, defeating Hofstra and LIU before dropping their finale to Arizona State.

THE B1G SHOW

- Entering the 2024 Big Ten Conference Tournament, Penn State ranks prominently in the B1G in multiple statistical categories. PSU stands second in the league in doubles (89) and doubles per game (1.75). The Nittany Lions also rank inside the top five in the conference in fewest hit batters (fifth, 26), stolen bases per game (fifth, 0.94), strikeout-to-walk ratio (third, 2.09), total stolen bases (fifth, 48), triples per game (third, 0.33) and overall winning percentage (fourth, 0.667).
- Individually, Bridget Nemeth ranks first in the Big Ten in three different pitching statistics, including innings pitched with 183.0, strikeout-to-walk ratio with a 4.50 tally and overall victories with 22 while placing second in the league with a 1.68 ERA. Kaitlyn Morrison ranks second in the B1G in doubles (17) and doubles per game (0.35) while Emily Maddock ranks as the second-toughest player to strike out in the Big Ten in 2024 with a 26.8 K rate.

GORDON'S GREATNESS

- Junior utility Maddie Gordon has surged into the spotlight in the 2024 campaign, with the Shenandoah, Virginia, native leading the Blue & White in multiple statistical categories. Gordon paces the Nittany Lions in at-bats (165), runs scored (44), hits (56), home runs (11), total bases (106) and stolen bases (12).
- Gordon ranks fourth in the Big Ten Conference in doubles (15) and fifth in doubles per game (0.29), ranking inside the top 100 nationally in both categories. Gordon currently boasts the fourth-most doubles in a single season in Penn State program history and became the 13th Nittany Lion to hit 10-or-more homers in a campaign earlier this year.

MAD DAWG MADDOCK

- Returning First Team All-Big Ten third baseman Emily Maddock continues her dominance at the plate in 2024, ranking as one of the toughest players to strike out across Division I. Her 26.8 strikeout rate sits as the second-best mark in the conference and 28th-best mark nationally, with Maddock trailing Iowa's Jena Young at 28.4.
- Maddock, a native of Kempton, Pennsylvania, recorded the walk-off single in the bottom of the eighth inning to lead Penn State to its first nationally ranked victory since 2022 in a 3-2 result over the then-No. 16 Arkansas Razorbacks during the Paradise Classic on the opening weekend of the 2024 campaign.

KNOW THE NEMETH

- In a release on Thursday, April 25, freshman pitcher Bridget Nemeth garnered national acclaim as a member of the Top-25 Watch List for the NFCA Division I Freshman of the Year Award.
- One of the most decorated freshman athletes in Penn State history, Nemeth achieved her second National Freshman of the Week accolade of the 2024 season on April 9 following PSU's series win over Nebraska. Nemeth already owns the Penn State single-season record for Big Ten weekly awards with four, surpassing Bailey Parshall's single-season record of two earlier this season.
- With PSU's win against Rutgers on Friday, May 3, Nemeth matched the program record for wins in a single season with her 22nd overall victory, improving to 22-5 in her rookie campaign. The Glendora, California, native is tied with program legends Bailey Parshall and Kelly McCann who reached 22 wins in 2022 and 2001, respectively. Nemeth is also tied for 10th all-time at PSU for appearances in a single season with 36, as well as 11th all-time in strikeouts with 180 punchouts this year.
- Nemeth ranks as one of the most dominant pitchers in the nation and Big Ten Conference, leading the league with a 22-5 individual record while ranking ninth nationally in total victories. PSU's ace currently boasts a 1.68 season ERA, the second-best mark in the Big Ten and 39th-best nationally while simultaneously managing a 4.50 strikeout-to-walk ratio, the best tally in the B1G and 29th-best in Division I.

KAITLYN'S CORNER

- Senior Kaitlyn Morrison is in the midst of her most productive collegiate season to date, ranking prominently on the PSU roster and in the Big Ten Conference in multiple statistical categories.
- Morrison, a native of South Park, Pennsylvania, ranks second in the Big Ten in doubles (17) and 23rd nationally, while ranking fourth in the league and 29th nationally with 0.35 doubles per game.
- She leads the Penn State roster in triples with six this season, booking her most recent three-bagger on April 23 against SFU. Morrison's six triples rank as the third-most in the B1G and 12th-most nationally, while her 0.13 triples per game rank third in the B1G and 17th in Division I.
- Morrison has been an absolute menace for opposing pitchers, with the veteran offensive star already surpassing her single-season career highs in walks and hit by pitches, drawing 19 and six, respectively. Her .439 on-base percentage ranks second on the PSU roster among qualified starters.

GABY GAR(SEE-YA)

- Senior Stephen F. Austin transfer catcher Gaby Garcia has been a power hitting and defensive weapon for the Nittany Lions over the course of her final collegiate season, tied for the team lead in home runs with 11 while pacing the team in RBI (41), putouts (297) and fielding percentage (1.000). The Southlake, Texas, native transferred to PSU after an All-WAC season that featured a league-leading 18 home runs last year while with the Ladyjacks.
- After leaving the yard against Rutgers last weekend, Garcia moved into a tie for the eighth-most home runs in a single season in school history with 11. Garcia and teammate Maddie Gordon both rank 13th in the B1G in total homers this year.

*All Times Eastern

- Senior infielder Emily Maddock returns to PSU for her final season after becoming the first Nittany Lion position player to land First Team All-B1G accolades since 2017. Maddock was an NFCA First Team All-Region choice as well, booking the second-best single-season batting average in Penn State history with a .439 mark.
- Graduate infielder Kaitlyn Morrison returns to the field after her most productive collegiate season in 2023, shattering career highs in practically every statistical category. Morrison booked a .338 average with 145 at-bats, 49 hits, 14 doubles and seven homers.
- Senior outfielder Liana Jones continues her career in the Blue & White in 2024 after a 2023 season which saw her crank six homers and a career-best 16 RBI. Junior outfielder Maddie Gordon rounds out the four PSU starters returning from last season. The Shenandoah, Virginia, native hit the only Nittany Lion grand slam in 2023 in the series finale against Rutgers, powering an 8-3 win in the process.

POWER TO THE PORTAL

- PSU welcomed a trio of transfers last summer, including Pitt transfer outfielder Haylie Brunson, SFA transfer catcher Gaby Garcia and Coastal Carolina transfer pitcher Mady Volpe.
- Brunson spent two years with the Panthers, clocking a .294 average last season with a .871 OPS, establishing herself as the team's starting right fielder.
- Garcia, a native of Southlake, Texas, hit .315 last year while ranking second in the WAC and 14th nationally with 18 home runs. Garcia's reputation as an All-Conference performer is built on 37 career home runs and 34 doubles while booking a .992 fielding percentage.
- Volpe arrives in Happy Valley after a two-year career at Coastal Carolina. The Lansdale, Pennsylvania, native booked a 2.66 ERA last year with an impressive 9-1 individual record.

FRESH FACES

- PSU boasts six new freshmen on the 2024 roster, including pitcher Bridget Nemeth, infielder Brooke Klosowicz, outfielder Michela Barbanente, infielder Jiselle Hernandez, infielder Gianna Poletti and catcher Audree Mendoza. Poletti is not currently eligible to participate following a mid-year transfer from Auburn, but the remaining five Nittany Lions are expected to make an immediate impact on the diamond.
- Penn State hauled in the nation's 24th-ranked recruiting class in the 2025 signee cycle according to Extra Inning Softball, comprised of right-handed pitcher Abigail Britton, catcher Macy Chamberlin and outfielder Natalie Lieto. The Nittany Lion class ranked third in the Big Ten Conference behind Northwestern (#21) and Michigan State (#23).

UP NEXT

- Penn State softball awaits its postseason fate in the 2024 NCAA Division I Softball Championship, with the Nittany Lions seeking their first selection to the field of 64 since the 2011 team hosted the University Park Regional at Nittany Lion Softball Park and Beard Field. PSU's postseason fate, as well as the final tournament bracket will be announced to a worldwide audience on Selection Sunday, May 12, with a 7 p.m. (ET) program tabbed for national broadcast via ESPN2 and the ESPN app.

COACH CROWELL AVAILABILITY

Penn State head coach Clarisa Crowell will be available for weekly media interview sessions over the course of the 2024 season. Weekly media availabilities will be conducted via zoom on Tuesdays at 9 a.m. unless otherwise notified. For interview opportunities outside of Coach Crowell's weekly availability, contact Nick Whitley in the Penn State Strategic Communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Nick Whitley at least 48 hours in advance. Interviews will not be granted on game days prior to first pitch. Player phone numbers will not be released. Following games, requested Penn State student-athletes will be made available for comment.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Press credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media only. Requests for media credentials should be made through Penn State's spring credential portal on the Nittany Lion Softball Media Central webpage. Requests for credentials may also be directed to Nick Whitley no later than noon (ET) the Thursday before a weekend series, or the Monday before a midweek contest. Credentials will be available for pickup at the south entry to the team building on game days.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

MEDIA SEATING

Seating inside the Stine Family Media Center and at the third base line media tables is limited, with space available on a first-come, first-served basis. To request media seating at Nittany Lion Softball Park, contact Nick Whitley in the Penn State Strategic Communications Office.

GAME NOTES

Game notes will be available at least 24 hours prior to each tournament, weekend series or single midweek game. Penn State and opponent game notes will be available online on the Nittany Lion Softball Media Central webpage.

Then-Penn State University Vice President for Athletics Sandy Barbour named Clarisa Crowell as the eighth head coach of the Nittany Lion softball program on August 3, 2020. Crowell enters her fourth season at the helm of the Blue & White in the 2024 campaign.

Crowell returns to Happy Valley following her second consecutive 30-win season with the Nittany Lions, the first instance of back-to-back 30-win campaigns at PSU since the 2005 and 2006 teams accomplished that feat. Penn State published a 31-16 overall record at season's end and mustered an 11-11 record in Big Ten Conference play, ensuring that the Nittany Lions would finish at or above .500 in the league in consecutive seasons, also for the first time since 2005-06.

Under Crowell's direction, the Nittany Lions saw continued success on the Big Ten's biggest stage in 2023, winning a conference tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 2016 and 2017 squads did so. PSU also recorded consecutive postseason appearances for the first time in five seasons, reaching back-to-back Big Ten Tournaments for the first time since the Nittany Lions appeared in five-straight from 2013 to 2017.

As the program's pitching coach, Crowell directed the most effective pitching staff in the Big Ten Conference. The Nittany Lions finished as the conference's leader in overall earned run average, rounding out the year with a 2.18 mark. The Blue & White also recorded the third-best strikeout-to-walk ratio in the league and 15th-best nationally, striking out 3.59 batters for every walk surrendered. Crowell's pitching direction also culminated in multiple program records being shattered by fifth-year left-hander Bailey Parshall, who set PSU records in career strikeouts (783) and shutouts (21).

In the classroom, PSU published a perfect Academic Progress Rate of 1,000 and saw 18 Nittany Lion student-athletes land Academic All-Big Ten honors. Penn State also mustered 12 Easton/NFCA Scholar Athletes, seven Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors and five College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-District accolades, reflecting Crowell's commitment to comprehensive excellence on and off the field.

In recognition of her exemplary record in the classroom and on the diamond, senior first baseman Lexie Black secured two of the highest honors bestowed by the Big Ten Conference in 2023. Black, a native of Omaha, Nebraska, landed the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship in preparation for her continuing education in veterinary medicine at the University of Nebraska. Additionally, Black garnered the Big Ten Medal of Honor, bestowed upon one male and female graduating student-athlete from each B1G member institution.

Penn State finished the 2022 campaign with a 25-win improvement from the previous season, marking the largest single-season turnaround for a team in NCAA Division I. The Nittany Lions also reached the 30-win mark and finished above .500 in Big Ten Conference play for the first time since 2016. Penn State completed the campaign with 32 wins, which at the time marked the most wins for PSU in a season since 2008. As a result of the program's meteoric rise to prominence, Crowell was honored as the 2022 ECAC Coach of the Year.

On the defensive side, the Blue and White registered 12 shutouts on the year, the most by any Nittany Lion squad since the 2008 team accomplished that feat. At the dish, the Nittany Lions' 75 doubles ranked tied for second in program history, while their 43 home runs and 207 RBI ranked third in program history.

Parshall led the way on an individual basis, earning NFCA All-America Third Team honors to go along with NFCA First-Team All-Region and First-Team All-Big Ten accolades. Parshall was selected as the Female Penn State Athlete of the Year for the 2021-22 academic year as a result. Parshall became just the fifth NFCA All-American in program history and the first Penn State pitcher to earn All-American recognition since Ashley Esparza did so in 2005. Parshall was dominant in the circle in 2022, posting a 22-9 individual record with a 1.68 ERA and nine shutouts in 212.1 innings pitched.

In addition to Parshall's nationally-acclaimed statistical season, junior catcher Cassie Lindmark collected NFCA All-Region Third Team and All-Big Ten Second Team laurels. Lindmark provided and immediate offensive pop for the Nittany Lion lineup, hitting .400 in the leadoff spot in addition to building a striking .508 on-base percentage. She became just the sixth Nittany Lion to hit .400 in a season and ranked tied for sixth on the program's single-season batting average leaderboard.

The Nittany Lions maintained consistent success in the classroom, tying a then-program record by placing 16 student-athletes on the Academic All-Big Ten team for the second consecutive year. Six student-athletes were designated as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars. Fourteen student-athletes made the Dean's list during spring semester and the squad compiled a 3.45 GPA, posting the highest cumulative GPA for the program in at least a decade. Under Crowell's leadership, Claire Swedberg was selected as the 2022 Big Ten Postgraduate Award winner, a recipient of the Fulbright grant and was also selected to be the Grand Marshal for the Penn State Health and Human Development Department.

In her first season at the helm in Happy Valley in 2021, Crowell led the Nittany Lions to a win over No. 23 Minnesota, the program's first victory over a ranked opponent since 2017. Penn State also had wins over four other Big Ten programs in a COVID-maligned conference-only calendar during the 2021 spring semester, including three-straight wins and a series victory over Rutgers. The consecutive victories against the Scarlet Knights marked the first time

Penn State won three consecutive Big Ten contests since 2017.

Crowell also mentored Parshall in her ongoing success in the circle, as the then-junior pitcher recorded two double-digit strikeout games and moved into sixth all-time in the Penn State record books with 396 career strikeouts and third all-time with seven career saves. In the classroom, a program-record 16 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in Crowell's first season of leadership, immediately setting the tone for multiple seasons of academic excellence that followed.

Prior to her arrival at Penn State, Crowell spent eight years as head coach at Miami (Ohio). Crowell and the RedHawks made a MAC Tournament appearance every season in which a tournament was held, winning the league tournament title and making an NCAA Regional appearance in 2016.

Crowell coached 12 student-athletes to first team All-MAC honors, 10 to second-team honors, nine All-MAC Freshman Team recipients and six National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Region honorees. RedHawk student-athletes also excelled in the classroom with 40 Easton/NFCA Scholar-Athletes and 32 Academic All-MAC honorees during Crowell's tenure in Oxford.

In the COVID-19 shortened 2020 season, Crowell's RedHawks were selected as the MAC preseason favorites. Junior pitcher Courtney Vierstra ranked fifth nationally and first in the conference in strikeouts with 140 over 18 appearances. Crowell's tutelage of Vierstra saw the junior star finish fifth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings with 12.5 at the season's suspension mark.

In the spring of 2019, Crowell led Miami to a 35-16 overall record and a 16-4 ledger in conference play, as the RedHawks captured their first MAC regular-season title in program history. Miami posted 10-straight wins against MAC opponents, the longest win streak in conference play in the history of the RedHawk program. The team also ranked first in the MAC for pitching and team defense with an overall ERA of 2.55 coupled with a .972 fielding percentage. Crowell was named the 2019 MAC Coach of the Year while seven student-athletes earned All-MAC selections and two more were named NFCA All-Region honorees. Vierstra headlined the list of All-Region recipients after boasting the third-best strikeouts-per-seven innings ratio in the country (10.3).

Crowell's 2017 team excelled offensively, ranking second all-time in Miami history for runs scored (265), runs per game (5.00), RBI (235), doubles (74) and home runs (47). Crowell led Michaela Schlattman to NFCA All-Region recognition, marking the third-straight season a RedHawk player garnered regional accolades. The RedHawks went 29-24 in 2017, highlighted by a dominant 16-2 record at home.

HEAD COACH CLARISA CROWELL

In 2016, Crowell led Miami to a 35-23 overall record and 15-7 record in MAC competition, finishing just half a game short of the MAC regular-season title. The RedHawks made up for that with a perfect 4-0 record in the MAC Tournament to earn the program's fourth conference tournament crown and a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2012. Miami went on to beat No. 23 Notre Dame, 3-2, in the opening game of the Ann Arbor Regional.

The 2016 RedHawks broke six offensive school records, including runs (302), runs per game (5.21), RBI (274), doubles (83), home runs (56) and walks (200). Miami also held a .977 fielding percentage, a school record, and the seventh-best fielding percentage in the nation. Crowell coached senior outfielder Taylor Shuey to become the first softball player in school history to be named MAC Player of the Year after breaking Miami's career RBI record with 114. Senior pitcher Amber Logemann was also named the MAC Tournament MVP after going 4-0 individually with a domineering 0.65 ERA in 32.1 innings pitched.

Crowell's third season in 2015 saw senior outfielder Tiyona Marshall garner NFCA All-Mideast Region First-Team honors after Marshall set school records in hits (86), runs scored (50) and batting average (.446).

Prior to Miami, Crowell spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State where she primarily worked with the pitchers and catchers. In 2010, both of her pitchers earned spots on the All-Big 12 and NFCA All-Midwest Region teams. In 2011, Crowell coached catcher Courtney Totte to an All-Big 12 first-team appearance and recognition as a Third Team All-American. Crowell helped lead the Cowgirls back to national prominence, as Oklahoma State returned to the Women's College World Series for the first time since 1998 in the 2011 campaign. The coaching staff also hauled in NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year accolades at season's end.

Crowell's previous stop at Syracuse as an assistant coach in 2006 saw the Orange land four players as NFCA All-Region designees and five players secure All-Conference honors. All-American and Big East Player of the Year Alexis Switenko led the way, while Tonye McCorkle, the Big East Co-Rookie of the Year, published a dominant season of her own. Crowell began her collegiate coaching career at Ohio University, where she served as an assistant for two years.

Crowell was a decorated student-athlete at Virginia Tech as a four-year letterwinner and a three-time All-Conference performer for the Hokies. In 2013, Crowell was inducted into the Virginia Tech All-Sports Hall of Fame.

Crowell graduated from Virginia Tech in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology. She earned a Master of Science in recreation and sports sciences from Ohio University in 2005.

NITTANY LION SOFTBALL PARK & BEARD FIELD

A facility years in the making, state-of-the-art and second to none – that is what Nittany Lion Softball Park and Beard Field provides to the Penn State athletic community. With numerous donations and the Penn State Board of Trustees' approval, construction of the $10.2 million complex was completed in time for the 2011 season. The facility houses the Nittany Lion softball team and allows the program to compete with the best in the country.

The complex features 1,084 permanent seats with fantastic sight lines, accessible seating, concession stands, permanent bathrooms and merchandise areas for fans. On the softball side of things, the field with irrigation, dugouts, batting cages and tunnels, bullpens, scoreboard and a state-of-the-art lighting system make Nittany Lion Softball Park a collegiate softball gem.

The complex consolidates the team's resources into one area with new training rooms, media center, video room, study space, locker rooms and coaches' offices all housed at the softball park. A new press area behind home plate was constructed, which further enhanced the amenities of the stadium.

Key benefactors of the project allowed Nittany Lion Softball Park to take shape and get off the ground. The playing field was named Beard Field in recognition of a generous donation from Lee and William Beard in October 2009. The Penn State locker room was named the Fran Vanden Locker Room, recognizing a gift from George and Frances Vanden. Another major donation came from the James M. and Margaret V. Stine Foundation to name both the Softball Office Complex and Media Center in honor of the Stine Family. Art and Paige Nagle also contributed to the project and one of the assistant coaches' offices dons their names.

Penn State's first game in its new home was March 26, 2011, a thrilling 8-5 victory over Wisconsin. Plenty of firsts were delivered that afternoon and none more memorable than Lisa Akamine's inside-the-park home run as Penn State overcame a three-run deficit to win the inaugural game. For the season, Penn State boasted an 11-8-1 record on Beard Field in its first campaign. It was the first winning season at home since 2007 for the Nittany Lions, which coincided with PSU's last trip to the NCAA Tournament before 2011.

The stadium paid dividends immediately for the Nittany Lion program as Penn State hosted the 2011 NCAA University Park Regional.

The event marked the first time PSU hosted NCAA Softball in 28 years as Oregon, Fordham and Albany competed with Penn State for the right to go to the NCAA Super Regionals. In the three-day event, nearly 1,900 fans streamed through the turnstiles. Oregon would eventually advance, but not before an exciting 16-inning midnight thriller between Penn State and Fordham. The Nittany Lions prevailed, 5-2, in the second-longest game in PSU history.

As if the NCAA event wasn't exciting enough, Penn State then hosted the PIAA Softball Championships. Four games in one day on a sparkling afternoon in mid-June had nearly 3,000 fans attend. The first game of the day featured local powerhouse Philipsburg-Osceola and Brandywine Heights with a standing room-only crowd of 1,800 spectators. The PIAA is still a committed partner of Penn State Athletics, as Nittany Lion Softball Park and Happy Valley Hospitality earned rave reviews. Penn State's University Park campus has played host to the PIAA Championships in every season since Beard Field opened in 2011.

Nittany Lion Softball Park is located on the corner of Park Avenue and University Drive, facing the Bryce Jordan Center, Mount Nittany and Beaver Stadium to the southeast, providing spectacular views and a gorgeous setting for all who attend softball games.

"Bill and I are both very pleased to be a small part of this very impressive facility. For us, the decision to give to this facility, to this program, was easy because one of our big passions is certainly the students of this university, but in particular the softball program. Our passion to help the softball program is because we've watched this program grow. There are some common links to this group [of donors]: Fran and George [Vanden], the Stine Family, Peter and Ann Nagle, Bill and I all have in common a link in believing that this is a program that deserves the typical Penn State, first-class facility to be successful."

Lee Beard, Lead Benefactor
