HUSKERS TRAVEL TO WASHINGTON FOR EDEAN IHLANFELDT INVITE

The Nebraska women's golf team heads to the state of Washington to compete at the Edean Ihlanelfdt Invitational, Oct. 8-9, at the Sahalee Country Club in Sammamish.

The 11-team event hosted by the University of Washington begins Tuesday with tee times at 9:50 a.m. (CT) for 36 holes on the opening day of the two-day event. The final round gets underway Wednesday with tee times at 9:50 a.m. (CT).

Live scoring for the tournament, which features Washington, Brigham Young, Rutgers, Idaho, Cal Poly, Long Beach State, Sacramento State, San Francisco, UC Davis and Seattle alongside the Huskers, will be available at GolfStat.com.

Nebraska is making just its second trip in history to the Edean Ihlanelfdt Invitational, with the first coming in the fall of 2011. Former Husker Madeleine Sheils won the individual title in Nebraska's lone appearance in Sammamish, tying the then-school record with a final-round 67 to claim her first collegiate title. As a team, Nebraska tied for seventh in a 12-team field that was loaded with six Pac-12 schools.

Nebraska aims to continue its improvement from its first two events of the fall. The Huskers own a 297.17 team stroke average through its first two tournaments, which is nearly two strokes better per round than last season's school-record average.

The Husker lineup in Washington will feature seniors Kate Smith and Jessica Haraden at the top of lineup, along with sophomore Megan Whittaker and freshman Leah Herzog in the No. 3 and 4 spots. Junior Hannah Thiele will make her first lineup appearance of the season.

HARADEN SHOTS CAREER BESTS AT CONFERENCE CHALLENGE

Senior Jessica Haraden fired a career-best 71 in the final round to finish with a career-best 220 over three rounds to tie for 29th at the Golfweek Conference Challenge at the Red Sky Golf Club in Wolcott, Colo., Sept. 23-25.

Haraden's final round marked her first round better than par in her collegiate career, while her 54-hole total was 10 strokes better than her previous career best of 230, which came at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic in February of 2018.

Haraden's strong effort as an individual outside the Husker lineup in Colorado helped her earn a lineup appearance at the Edean Ihlanelfdt Invitational. It will be her first lineup appearance for the Huskers since the spring of 2018.

Fellow senior Kate Smith matched Haraden with a 220 of her own, which included an opening-round 70 and a final-round 72.

Sophomore Megan Whittaker continued her solid play by tying for 33rd at 221 (72-74-75), while freshman Leah Herzog tied for 57th. Herzog led the 96-player field after the opening round with a 66 (-6) - the best round ever by a Husker true freshman.

As a team, Nebraska finished 10th in an 18-team field that featured one team from each of 18 NCAA Division I conferences.

NU LINEUP FILLED WITH EXPERIENCE, FEATURES ONE FRESH FACE

The five-player Nebraska lineup for the Edean Ihlanelfdt Invitational features a pair of seniors among four returners to the Husker lineup and one true freshman.

NEBRASKA LINEUP

1. Kate Smith
2. Jessica Haraden
3. Megan Whittaker
4. Leah Herzog
5. Hannah Thiele

Jessica Haraden (Thousand Oaks, Calif.) are joined by junior Hannah Thiele (Wahoo, Neb.) and sophomore Megan Whittaker (Elkhorn, Neb.) Thiele and Whittaker both competed for Nebraska at the 2019 Big Ten Championships.

Whittaker will be making her fifth consecutive lineup appearance for the Big Red dating back to last season, while Thiele earned her first lineup spot this season.

Whittaker showed continual improvement throughout her freshman season and posted a 77.81 stroke average. She also matched Smith for Nebraska's top finish at the Big Ten Championship by tying for 51st, including an opening-round 75.

The four experienced Huskers are being joined by freshman Leah Herzog (Red Wing, Minn.), who earned her third straight lineup appearance to open her career.

Herzog was named Minnesota Ms. Golf in May before leading Red Wing to a Class 2A state team title. She posted a 69.4 scoring average as a high school senior and finished as the Class 2A individual runner-up. She was a four-time all-state selection.

SMITH SHOOTS FOR ANOTHER RECORD-SETTING SEASON

Senior Kate Smith will take aim at her best season yet, as she opens the 2019-20 campaign. A three-year starter in the Husker lineup, Smith has played 93 rounds and owns a Nebraska-record 73.60 career stroke average. She owns a team-best 72.17 average through six rounds, with five or six rounds at or better than par (72).

Last season, Smith's 73.52 stroke average was a school record. In 2016-17, Smith set the Nebraska freshman record with a 73.90 stroke average while earning a spot in the 2017 NCAA Regional field.

She finished 2018-19 No. 223 in the GolfStat player rankings and owns 21 career top-25 individual tournament finishes, including 14 top-10 showings. She has also won three career Big Ten Golfer-of-the-Week awards.

In 2017-18, Smith smashed a school record with her 14-under-par 202 at the 2018 Westbrook Spring Invitational (Feb. 25-26). She added the second-best tournament in school history with her 208 (-8) at the 2019 Westbrook Spring Invitational (Feb. 24-25) to finish as the runner-up.

She has fired 27 rounds better than par in her career, including a school-record 64 (-8) in the second round of the 2018 Westbrook Invite.

HALEY THIELE SWINGING FOR BEST SEASON AS FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR

Haley Thiele competed in all 27 rounds in the Nebraska lineup in 2018-19, after two seasons of battling injuries. Thiele redshirted in 2016-17, and suffered lingering effects of a wrist injury in 2017-18.

During the summer of 2018, Thiele made significant adjustments to her swing and began seeing the fruits of her labor as a junior last season, when she finished with a 76.93 stroke average.

Thiele helped the Huskers to a tournament title at Westbrook with a season-best 68 (-4) in the second round, after shooting an even-par 72 in the opening round. She finished in a tie for 35th with a season-best 218 for the tournament.

Thiele produced one of the best freshman seasons in Nebraska history in 2015-16, notching a then-freshman school-record 75.63 stroke average. She also closed her rookie year as NU's No. 2 finisher at the Big Ten Championships in 39th place.

Thiele tied the Husker freshman record with a five-under-par 67 at the Las Vegas Collegiate Showdown while matching first-team All-American Sarah Sasse's then-overall NU record with a 54-hole score of 209.

Thiele owns a 77.07 stroke average over 91 career rounds for the Huskers.

2019 FRESHMEN LOOKING TO SHINE AS SOPHOMORES FOR BIG RED

Vanessa Bouvet, Kirsten Baete and Megan Whittaker were all impact players for NU in 2018-19.

Bouvet produced Nebraska's No. 2 stroke average on the season and one of the best averages by a freshman in school history (75.79) while competing in 24 rounds for the Huskers.

Bouvet (Bretagne, France) produced possibly the best performance by a Husker freshman in a career-opening event with her two-under-par 214 to tie for third individually in the 75-player field at the Ptarmigan Ram Fall Classic.

Bouvet's second-round 68 tied for the fourth-best round ever by a Nebraska freshman. She closed the fall with a tie for second in the rain-shortened Rainbow Wahine Invitational, Oct. 31.

Another powerful young player, Baete produced one of the best tournaments by a freshman in school history with her 210 (-6) in helping the Huskers win the Westbrook Spring Invitational (Feb. 24-25). Baete (Beatrice, Neb.) notched her first career top-25 finish by tying for fifth in a loaded field. Her second-round 66 was the best round by a freshman in school history.

She added a tie for 29th (229) at the Lady Buckeye Invitational (April 13-14) after tying for 30th with a 229 at the Clover Cup (March 15-17). Her 77.00 stroke average ranked fifth on the team, and she joined Kate Smith and Haley Thiele as the only Huskers to compete in all 27 rounds on the year.

Megan Whittaker came on strong throughout the spring of 2019 and finished with NU's No. 6 stroke average (77.81). She made her first career lineup appearance at the Lady Buckeye Invitational (April 13-14) before matching Nebraska's top finish (T51st) at the Big Ten Championship.

Whittaker has continued to improve her game with a 225 at the Branch Law Firm/Dick McGuire Invitational to open 2019-20, before her career-best 221 to tie for 33rd at the Golfweek Conference Challenge.

AHMED, SMITH FACES OF THE BIG TEN

Noor Ahmed gained national exposure when she was featured by the Golf Channel for her courage while encountering discrimination. Ahmed is the first NCAA Division I golfer to compete while wearing a hijab - the traditional head covering worn in public by Muslim women.

Ahmed and Husker teammate Kate Smith were featured together in the Golf Channel piece, and the good friends were featured among the Faces of the Big Ten created by the Big Ten Network in 2018-19. That feature will continue to air across the network in 2019-20.

Ahmed, who has since been featured by several national and international magazines, finished 2018-19 with Nebraska's No. 3 overall stroke average (76.56), while competing in 25 rounds. She produced the best finish of her career by tying for ninth at the 2019 Lady Puerto Rico Classic.

SMITH, HERZOG CONTINUE MINNESOTA CONNECTION

Kate Smith, a senior from Detroit Lakes, and Leah Herzog, a freshman from Red Wing, continue an outstanding tradition of top golfers from the state of Minnesota playing at Nebraska. Smith, who set Nebraska's single-season stroke average record (73.52) for the third straight year in 2019, also qualified for the 2017 NCAA Central Regional.

Smith entered her final season at Nebraska with a school-record 73.90 career stroke average. No other Husker in history owns a career average better than 75.

Herzog is the latest in a nearly continuous flow of Huskers from the Land of 10,000 Lakes. Cassie Deeg (Hugo, 2013-16), Steffi Neisen (New Prague, 2011-14), Chrissie McArdle (Eden Prairie, 2004-07) and Jackie Beste (2003-06) were all standout golfers for the Big Red.

The 2019-20 season marks the 10th straight year Nebraska has had at least one Minnesota golfer in its lineup. The last time Nebraska had two Minnesota golfers in its lineup was 2015-16 when Deeg and Neisen played out of the top of the Husker lineup.

Smith is the only five-time individual state champion in Minnesota high school history. She capped her career by claiming a share of her record fifth title on June 15, 2016 while leading Detroit Lakes High School to its fourth state team championship in the past five years. She was also the winner of the 2016 Minnesota Ms. Golf Award. Herzog won the 2019 Minnesota Ms. Golf Award at Red Wing High School.

BIG RED FACE SOLID SCHEDULE

The Huskers face a strong schedule in 2019-20, beginning with the Branch Law Firm/Dick McGuire Invitational in Albuquerque, N.M. (Sept. 9-10).

Nebraska continued play at the Golfweek Conference Challenge in Wolcott, Colo., Sept. 23-25, marking the fourth time in seven seasons the Huskers competed at Golfweek.

The Huskers play their lone tournament in October at the Edean Ihlantfeldt Invitational in Sammamish, Wash., Oct. 8-9, before closing the fall in the Battle at the Beach at San Jose Del Cabo, Mexico, Nov. 1-3.

The Big Red open the spring for the third consecutive season at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic in Rio Grande, P.R. (Feb. 9-11), before defending their 2019 tournament title at the Westbrook Spring Invitational in Peoria, Ariz. (Feb. 23-24).

The Huskers return to Arizona for the eighth consecutive year to compete in the Clover Cup in Mesa (March 13-15), before traveling to Maui for the Anuenue Spring Break Classic (March 23-25).

Nebraska closes the regular season with its first-ever appearance at the Bruzzy Challenge in Argyle, Texas, March 30-31, before returning to Maineville, Ohio, to compete at the Big Ten Championships (April 24-26). The Huskers will compete for the conference crown on the Arnold Palmer-designed Tournament Players Club River's Bend Course, which will serve as the host to the conference tournament for the fourth straight season.

NCAA Regional competitions will be hosted by Georgia, North Carolina State, Notre Dame and Washington State (May 11-13) before the NCAA Championships are held at the Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale, Ariz. (May 22-27).

HUSKERS SET PACE IN CLASSROOM

Nebraska leads the nation with 338 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 17 NCAA Top 10 Award winners across all sports. Nebraska women's golf leads the nation with 77 WGCA Scholastic All-Americans since 1989.
