2019 FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

NEBRASKA (5-6, 3-5) vs. #19 IOWA (8-3, 5-3)

FRIDAY, NOV. 29, 2019 • 1:30 P.M. CT • LINCOLN, NEB.
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CAPACITY: 85,458 • SURFACE: FIELDTURF

Nebraska completes its 2019 regular season on Friday afternoon with its traditional Thanksgiving Friday matchup with Big Ten West rival Iowa. Game time from Memorial Stadium is set for 1:30 p.m. CT with television coverage provided by BTN. The game can be heard on the Husker Sports Network from Learfield-IMG.

Nebraska will enter the game with a 5-6 record, following a 54-7 victory over Maryland on Saturday in College Park. The 47-point margin of victory was Nebraska's largest against a Big Ten opponent in its nine seasons in the conference. The Husker offense continued to find a late-season stride, rolling up more than 500 yards, including more than 200 yards both rushing and passing for the third time in four games.

Nebraska needs a victory in the Heroes Game matchup in order to become bowl eligible for the first time since the 2016 season. The Huskers will also be looking for their first win over Iowa since a victory in Iowa City in 2014.

Iowa will come to Lincoln with an 8-3 overall record and a 5-3 record in Big Ten Conference play. The Hawkeyes are ranked 19th in the Associated Press Poll and No. 20 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Iowa has won its past two games heading into the regular-season finale, including a 19-10 victory over Illinois on Saturday in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes boast one of the nation's top defenses, allowing just 306.1 yards and 12.2 points per game. Iowa has not allowed an opponent to score more than 24 points and has limited five teams to 10 points or fewer.

SERIES HISTORY: NEBRASKA VS. IOWA

Nebraska and Iowa will meet for the ninth straight year in the regular-season finale on Friday at Memorial Stadium.

- Before Nebraska joined the Big Ten in 2011, the teams met 41 times as non-conference opponents, including 14 games between 1930 and 1946. Nebraska and Iowa also met four straight years from 1979 to 1982, and the final matchups as non-conference opponents were in 1999 and 2000.
- This year's meeting will mark the ninth straight year that Nebraska and Iowa will meet on the day after Thanksgiving. After a two-year break from the Black Friday matchup between the schools in 2020 and 2021, Nebraska and Iowa are scheduled to resume their post-Thanksgiving matchup in 2022.
- Nebraska had an eight-game win streak in the series and a pair of five-game win streaks. Iowa's current four-game win streak is its longest in the series.

NEBRASKA-IOWA TO COMPETE FOR HEROES TROPHY

Nebraska and Iowa will battle for the Heroes Trophy when they hit the field at Memorial Stadium on Friday. The Heroes Game is the annual trophy game between Nebraska and Iowa.

While both teams aim to win the trophy on the field, both Nebraska and Iowa wished to make their annual meeting about more than just winning a football game. With that in mind, the schools partnered together to not only create a trophy, but to use a national stage to honor a citizen hero from each state. In addition to the trophy that will be claimed by the winner of the game, both an Iowa and Nebraska native will be honored for extraordinary acts. Those individuals will be announced later this week.

NEBRASKA CONTINUES THANKSGIVING FRIDAY TRADITION

Nebraska will continue its long-standing tradition of playing on the day after Thanksgiving. This Friday's game with Iowa will mark the 30th consecutive season the Huskers have played on Thanksgiving Friday.

NU met Oklahoma in the final six seasons of the Big Eight Conference (1990 to 1995), then played Colorado in all 15 of the Huskers' Big 12 Conference years (1996 to 2010), before taking on Iowa each of the past nine seasons.

Nebraska will close the 2020 and 2021 seasons against Minnesota on Black Friday, before Iowa returns as the opponent for the regular season finale beginning in 2022.

- Nebraska owns a 19-10 record since 1990 in games on the day after Thanksgiving, including a 5-1 record against Oklahoma, an 11-4 mark against Colorado and a 3-5 mark against Iowa.
- Nebraska is 10-5 at home in Black Friday games since 1990, including 1-3 against the Hawkeyes.
- In addition to the past eight years, Nebraska and Iowa also closed the regular season against each other nine times from 1892 to 1916.

HUSKERS TO HONOR SENIORS ON FRIDAY

Nebraska will hold its Senior Day festivities before Friday's game, honoring 22 players who will appear in Memorial Stadium for the final time against Iowa.

The group includes 14 fifth-year seniors, including seven players who will likely leave Nebraska as four-year letterwinners.

- The 2019 senior class has players from 12 states, including seven native Nebraskans.
- The 22-man senior class has accumulated a total of 219 starts in their collegiate careers. The group has six players with at least 15 starts at Nebraska including defensive lineman Carlos Davis (35), cornerback Lamar Jackson (35), linebacker Mohamed Barry (25), long snapper Chase Urbach (21), linebacker Alex Davis (20) and punter Isaac Armstrong (18).
- Seniors on the Nebraska offense have made a total of just 13 career starts at Nebraska.
- Linebacker Mohamed Barry will finish his career in the top 15 on the Nebraska career tackles chart.
- Cornerback Lamar Jackson will end his career in the top 10 in school history in pass breakups.
- Twin brothers, Carlos and Khalil Davis, are the seventh set of brothers in NU history to each record at least 100 career tackles.
- Fifteen of Nebraska's 22 seniors are playing the 2019 season as graduate students, with another five players set to graduate in December.

NOTING GAME 11

- Nebraska's 54-7 victory marked its largest margin over victory in a conference game since joining the Big Ten Conference in 2011, bettering a 37-point win at Purdue in 2011. It was the largest margin of victory in a league game for Nebraska since a 59-0 win over Baylor in 2000.
- Nebraska has out-scored Maryland 55-0 in the first half of its two meetings as Big Ten opponents. The Huskers' 34-0 halftime edge tied for the largest halftime lead in a conference game since joining the Big Ten.
- Nebraska's 54 points tied its highest scoring output in a Big Ten game, matching last year's 54-point outburst against Illinois. Nebraska has topped 50 points in Big Ten play three times, all under Scott Frost.
- Nebraska gained better than 200 yards both rushing and passing for the third time in four games.
- The Nebraska defense allowed a season-low seven points and a season-low 206 total yards. The Huskers six sacks were also their most in 2019, and the four takeaways were the most since having five in the opener.
- Junior receiver JD Spielman had seven catches for 104 yards and two touchdowns. He moved into a tie for second in both single-season (4) and career (8) 100-yard receiving games.
- Place-kicker Matt Waldoch attempted the first kicks of his Nebraska career, connecting on all six PATs and 3-of-3 field goals, with all three from 29 yards.
- Senior defensive lineman Khalil Davis recorded 2.5 sacks to push his season total to eight sacks, the most by a Husker since the 2015 season.

HUSKER OFFENSE HITS LATE-SEASON STRIDE

The Nebraska offense has been at its best in the past four games, averaging 478.3 yards per game, including 231.5 rushing yards per game and 246.8 passing yards per contest.

Nebraska is coming off a 531-yard effort at Maryland, its second-best output of the 2019 season. The offense also produced a season-high 54 points against the Terps, tying Nebraska's most points in a Big Ten Conference game (since 2011).

- Nebraska rushed for 305 yards against Maryland, while passing for 226 yards. It marked the fifth time this season, and third time in four games the Huskers have topped 200 yards both rushing and passing.
- The previous week against Wisconsin, Nebraska totaled 493 yards of offense against a Badger defense that was allowing 231.4 yards per game entering the contest. The Huskers rushed for 273 yards, which was 189 yards more than the Badgers' average allowed prior to the game.
- Nebraska produced 12 plays of 20 yards or more against Wisconsin. The Badgers had allowed 25 plays of 20 yards or more in their first nine games. Nebraska topped 200 yards both rushing and passing against Wisconsin, the fourth time this season the Huskers reached that milestone.
- Nebraska began its recent offensive surge on Oct. 26 against Indiana. The Huskers tallied 514 total yards, including 294 passing yards and 220 on the ground.
- In the past four games, Nebraska has crossed midfield on 40 of 49 drives.

2019 HUSKER OFFENSE SHOWS VERSATILITY

The 2019 Nebraska offense has shown the versatility to both strike quickly and drive the length of the field. Nebraska has 20 scoring drives that have covered 75 yards or more.

- Against Colorado, Nebraska had two touchdown drives of 95 yards or longer (95 and 96). That marked the first time the Huskers have had two 95-yard scoring drives in the same game since the 2000 Fiesta Bowl against Tennessee (97- and 99-yard touchdown drives).
- Nebraska had two long scoring plays at Colorado with touchdown passes of 65 (Martinez-Spielman) and 75 yards (Martinez-Washington). That marked the first time the Huskers had multiple 65-yard pass plays in the same game since 2006 against Kansas.

- Nebraska flashed its quick-strike ability and explosiveness against Northern Illinois. Nebraska produced nine plays of 20 yards or more against the Huskies, including eight before halftime. The eight first-half chunk plays matched Nebraska's combined total in its first two games.
- The Huskers had a season-high 14 plays of 20 yards or more against Illinois. In the process, Nebraska topped 300 yards in both rushing and passing to mark just the second time in school history the Huskers have reached that milestone.
- Nebraska's 674 yards of total offense at Illinois was its most against a conference opponent since posting 710 yards against Kansas State in 2007.

BALANCE A KEY FOR HUSKER OFFENSIVE SUCCESS

Nebraska has had five games this season when it has totaled 200 yards both rushing and passing, including three of the past four games. Nebraska has accomplished the offensive double against Northern Illinois, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Maryland. While Nebraska has five 200-200 games this season, the other six Big Ten West teams have combined for just five such games, including two by Iowa.

A balanced attack has been a staple of Scott Frost's Nebraska offenses, as the Huskers have produced 11 games with 200 yards rushing and 200 yards passing since 2018, seven more than any other Big Ten West team.

OFFENSE RANKS AMONG NATION'S TOP BIG-PLAY UNITS

Nebraska's offense has numerous big-play weapons that have helped the Huskers stress opposing defenses. Highlighted by 14 plays of 20 yards or more at Illinois and 12 20-plus plays against Wisconsin, Nebraska ranks as one of the Big Ten and national leaders in producing chunk plays.

- Nebraska has 71 scrimmage plays of 20-plus yards to rank second in the Big Ten and 11th nationally.
- The Huskers lead the Big Ten and rank 10th nationally in plays of 40+ yards (19).
- On the ground, Nebraska ranks among the top three in the Big Ten in rushes of 30+ (10), 40+ (9), 50+ (3) and 60+ (2) yards.

FROST OFFENSES TRADITIONALLY IMPRESSIVE ON OPENING DRIVES

One common theme of a Scott Frost-led offense has been a fast start, and that has held true for Frost's tenure in Lincoln. Nebraska has scored points in four of 11 games on its opening drive in 2019.

Nebraska scored touchdowns on its opening drive against both South Alabama and Colorado to open the season. The Huskers opened with a field goal on the game's first drive against Northern Illinois, and added a touchdown on the game's opening drive against Indiana. The opening-drive success has continued a theme throughout Frost's head coaching tenure.

- Nebraska scored on its first possession seven times in 12 games in 2018, including six of the final seven games. All seven of NU's opening scoring drives resulted in touchdowns. In Frost's two seasons, Nebraska has scored on its opening possession 11 times in 22 games (10 TD, 1 FG).
- Over the last three seasons - 2018-19 at Nebraska and 2017 at UCF - Frost's offenses have scored a touchdown on their opening possession 19 times in 36 games (53 percent). The average length of the touchdown drive in that span is 74 yards.
- In three-plus years as a head coach, Frost's offenses have scored on their opening drive 24 times in 49 games, with 22 touchdowns and two field goals. In 89 games over seven seasons as a play-caller, Frost's offenses have scored on their first possession of the game 45 times, putting points on the board in more than half of their opening possessions.
- NU received the opening kickoff nine times in 2018 and scored touchdowns on six of those drives while punting only once. The Huskers had a game-opening touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead in five straight games during the Big Ten Conference season.
- The Huskers scored on nearly 60 percent of their opening possessions in 2018, even with a pair of drive-ending turnovers in opponent territory. Nebraska's average touchdown drive covered more than 74 yards, including one 80-yard touchdown march and five 75-yard scoring drives.
- Frost's Opening Drive Scoring Percentage: 51% (45 of 89 drives)
- Frost's Opening Drive Touchdown Percentage: 44% (39 of 89 drives)

SPIELMAN CONTINUES TO CLIMB HUSKER CHARTS

Junior wide receiver JD Spielman has made Husker history as the only player in program history to have a 200-yard receiving game. Spielman enters the regular-season finale with 167 career catches for 2,512 yards, ranking third at Nebraska in both receptions and receiving yardage.

- Spielman reached 2,000 and 1,000 career receiving yards faster than any other Husker. He hit 2,000 yards at Illinois on Sept. 21, breaking the 2,000-yard barrier in 25 games. He reached 1,000 career yards in only 15 games, eclipsing Heisman winner Johnny Rodgers (16 games).
- Spielman needs 23 catches and 233 yards to become NU's all-time leader in both categories. In his 32-game career, Spielman averages 5.2 receptions and 78.5 receiving yards per game.
- With seven catches for 104 yards and two touchdowns at Maryland, Spielman increased his season totals to 46 catches for 864 yards and four touchdowns. His 864 receiving yards rank seventh on the NU single-season list. The junior now owns the No. 7, 9 and 10 single-season receiving totals in school history. Spielman is the only player in school history with three 800-yard receiving seasons. Stanley Morgan Jr. and Johnny Rodgers are the only other players to have a pair of 800-yard receiving seasons.
- Spielman needs four receptions on Friday to top the 50-catch mark for the third straight season. Spielman is one of only four players with a pair of 50-catch seasons at Nebraska, joining Johnny Rodgers, Kenny Bell and Stanley Morgan Jr. No Husker has ever had three 50-catch seasons.
- Spielman has four 100-yard receiving games this season and eight career 100-yard receiving games. Both of those totals rank second on the respective Nebraska charts.
- Spielman opened the 2019 season with a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown against South Alabama, marking his second career punt return score. He had a 77-yard punt return touchdown last season against Bethune-Cookman. He also had a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in his first career touch against Arkansas State in the 2017 season opener. Spielman is one of only eight players in program history to return both a punt and kickoff for a touchdown.
- Spielman had a 65-yard TD reception at Colorado, his sixth career touchdown of at least 65 yards. The 65-yard catch at Colorado was one of seven Spielman receptions of at least 40 yards in 2019. His seven catches of 40-plus yards ranks 10th nationally.
- Spielman had seven catches for 160 yards at Illinois, his third-highest receiving total at Nebraska.
- Spielman is averaging 18.8 yards per reception, a mark that ranks third in the Big Ten. His yards per catch average ranks fifth in NU history among players with 40 or more catches in a season.
- Spielman owns the only two 200-yard receiving games in Husker history (200 yards vs. Ohio State in 2017 and 209 yards at Wisconsin in 2018).
- Spielman is the only wide receiver in school history to have two career games with double-digit receptions (11 vs. Ohio State in 2017 and 10 vs. Purdue in 2018). Running back Marlon Lucky is the only other Husker to have two career games with double-digit catches.

SPIELMAN RANKS AMONG NATION'S TOP WIDE RECEIVERS

JD Spielman was a freshman All-American in 2017 and has been one of the nation's top receivers over the past three seasons. .

- Spielman averages 78.5 receiving yards per game in 32 career games to rank third nationally among all active FBS players with a minimum of 2,000 career receiving yards. Among Power Five teams, Spielman is one of only three active players to average 70 receiving yards per game along with Oklahoma's CeeDee Lamb and Oklahoma State's Tylan Wallace.
- Spielman has 2,512 career receiving yards, tied for second nationally among non-seniors.
- Spielman is also one of the top wideouts in the Big Ten Conference. His career totals of 167 receptions and 2,512 receiving yards rank third and second, respectively, in those categories among all 2019 Big Ten receivers and are the highest totals among non-seniors.
- In Big Ten play, Spielman has posted 1,979 career receiving yards. He owns more receiving yards in conference play than any other active Big Ten player, an impressive accomplishment considering Spielman has only played in 23 career Big Ten games (86.0 yards per game).

SPIELMAN SHINES AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

JD Spielman has been at his best in his Nebraska career against the top competition. Nebraska has faced eight ranked opponents in Spielman's career, including four top-10 foes. Spielman has caught 47 passes for 728 yards and four touchdowns in those games, giving him an average of 5.9 receptions for 91.0 yards against ranked opponents. Iowa enters Friday's game ranked nationally in both polls.

- Spielman caught 23 passes for 375 yards and one touchdown in three games against ranked opponents as a redshirt freshman in 2017, averaging 7.7 receptions and 125.0 yards per game.
- In 2018, Spielman had 19 catches for 275 yards in three games against ranked opponents, averaging 6.3 receptions per game and 91.7 receiving yards per game in those three contests. He had nine catches for a school-record 209 yards at No. 16 Wisconsin.
- Spielman has posted the only two 200-yard receiving games in Nebraska history, and both came against ranked opponents (No. 9 Ohio State in 2017 and No. 16 Wisconsin in 2018).

MARTINEZ BRINGS DUAL THREAT TO NEBRASKA OFFENSE

Adrian Martinez is again showing in 2019 that he is one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks. Martinez is averaging 276.4 yards of total offense, including 211.8 passing yards per game and 64.7 rushing yards per contest. Martinez leads the Big Ten and ranks 28th nationally in total offense.

- Martinez is the only Big Ten player and one of seven FBS quarterbacks to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game. Martinez and Louisiana-Monroe's Caleb Evans are the only two quarterbacks in the FBS ranks to average 200 passing and 50 rushing yards the past two years.
- If Martinez can maintain his pace and average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game this season, he would join Heisman Trophy winners Johnny Manziel and Marcus Mariota as the only players in FBS history to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game as both a freshman and sophomore.

FBS Quarterbacks To Average 200 Passing YPG & 50 Rushing YPG as Freshman and Sophomore

- Marcus Mariota, Oregon
- Johnny Manziel, Texas A&M
- Adrian Martinez, Nebraska***

**enters Friday's game averaging 211.8 passing yards per game and 64.7 rushing yards per game*

- Martinez produced a career-high 446 yards of total offense at Illinois, the third-highest total offense game in school history. He passed for 328 yards, while rushing for 118 yards to post just the second 300-100 game in Nebraska history.
- The 400-yard total offense game was the fourth of Martinez's career, more than any other Husker.
- Martinez posted three straight games with more than 300 yards of total offense in games 2-4, including 356 at Colorado, 301 vs. Northern Illinois and the 445-yard effort at Illinois.
- He had 305 yards of offense at Purdue and had 309 yards of total offense against Wisconsin for his fifth 300-yard game of the season. Martinez has 12 career games of 300 yards or more in total offense, the second-most in NU history, and one shy of a school record.
- With 288 yards of total offense at Maryland, Martinez moved up two spots to fifth on the NU career total offense list with 5,734 yards. He is 43 yards behind Zac Taylor for fourth place on the list.
- Martinez owns the fifth-best season total offense mark with 3,246 yards in 2018, and his 2,488 yards this season leaves him 204 yards from posting another top 10 single-season yardage total.
- He has also become one of only 11 quarterbacks in school history with more than 1,000 career rushing yards. After posting back-to-back rushing efforts of 89 and 94 yards against Wisconsin and Maryland, Martinez has 1,211 career rushing yards, tied for the ninth best total among quarterbacks in NU history.

MARTINEZ AT HIS BEST AGAINST BIG TEN WEST

Adrian Martinez has put up big numbers in 10 career games against Big Ten West foes.

- Martinez owns the Nebraska record with four career games with 400 yards of total offense. Each of those games has come against a Big Ten West Division opponent, as Martinez has recorded 400 yards of total offense in four of his 10 career games against West Division teams.
- Martinez has posted four of the top 16 total offense games in Nebraska history, with each of those marks coming against a Big Ten West opponent. Martinez had 446 yards at Illinois on Sept. 21 for the No. 3 total offense mark in school history, 441 yards last year at Wisconsin (5th), 409 yards in 2018 against Purdue (12th) and 401 yards against Minnesota in 2018 (16th).
- Martinez averages 335.6 yards of total offense in 10 career games against Big Ten West teams. He is completing 65.2 percent of his passes (219-of-336) with 17 touchdowns against seven interceptions, while averaging 272.4 passing yards per game. Martinez has rushed for 632 yards and six touchdowns against the Big Ten West, averaging 63.2 rushing yards per game.
- Twenty-three of Martinez's 39 career total touchdowns have come against West Division opponents (59 percent), including 20 of 25 touchdown passes (80 percent).
- Last season at Iowa, Martinez completed 26-of-38 passes for 260 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed 17 times for 76 yards and a touchdown, for 336 yards of total offense.

MARTINEZ DRIVES HUSKER OFFENSE

Quarterback Adrian Martinez earned freshman All-America honors in 2018 as he helped NU rank 25th nationally in total offense. Martinez made 11 starts, more than all other true freshmen quarterbacks in NU history combined. He completed nearly 65 percent of his passes for 2,617 yards and 17 touchdowns and rushed for 629 yards and eight scores.

- Martinez ranked 12th nationally and first among freshmen with an average of 295.1 yards of total offense per game in 2018, a school record. In addition to the school record, it smashed the Huskers' previous freshman record of 199.7 yards per game set by Taylor Martinez in 2010.
- Martinez's average of 295.1 yards of total offense per game marked the 10th-best total offense average by a freshman in FBS history, including the fifth-highest mark by a true freshman and the highest mark ever by a true freshman quarterback for a Power Five team.
- Martinez became the sixth freshman in NCAA history to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game. He was just the second true freshman to hit those marks in FBS history and the first true freshman at a Power Five school to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards.
- Martinez averaged 237.9 passing yards per game and 57.2 rushing yards per game in 2018, one of four FBS quarterbacks to average 225 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game in 2018.
- Martinez set Nebraska freshman records in completions (224), completion percentage (64.6), passing yards (2,617), passing touchdowns (17), total offensive yards (3,246) and total touchdowns (25). His 629 rushing yards were the most ever by a Husker true freshman quarterback and the most by any Nebraska true freshman since 2002.
- Martinez posted an 86.2 completion percentage against Minnesota last October, setting a Nebraska record for the highest completion percentage with a minimum of 20 attempts.

OFFENSE FINDS SUCCESS BEHIND THREE QUARTERBACKS

Martinez has been one of the Big Ten's best signal callers the past two seasons. However, when he was sidelined for two games at mid-season the Husker offense continued to move the ball. Sophomore Noah Vedral and true freshman Luke McCaffrey each showed their ability and poise against Indiana. The duo helped Nebraska to 514 yards of total offense.

- Vedral completed 14-of-16 passes for a career-high 201 yards against the Hoosiers despite missing much of the game with an injury. He also rushed for 26 yards and two touchdowns and caught a pass in the first quarter.
- McCaffrey was playing in just his second career game. He responded by rushing 12 times for 76 yards and completing 5-of-6 passes for 71 yards and a touchdown.
- Behind Vedral and McCaffrey, Nebraska completed 20-of-23 passes against Indiana, setting a school record for single-game completion percentage at 86.9 percent.
- McCaffrey had another standout game at Maryland. He caught a 12-yard pass while lining up at receiver. He also rushed 10 times for 83 yards after relieving Martinez at quarterback. He completed 3-of-5 passes for 32 yards in the game, including one while lined up at receiver.

ROBINSON MAKING BIG IMPACT IN FRESHMAN SEASON

Freshman receiver Wan'Dale Robinson provides Nebraska with an explosive receiving, rushing and return threat in 2019. Robinson was honored for his all-purpose efforts last week when he was named one of four finalists for the Paul Hornung Award. Robinson is the only underclassmen on the list and is joined among the finalists by two juniors and a senior.

Robinson is hopeful of returning to action this week against Iowa after missing the past two games because of injury.

A true freshman from Frankfort, Ky., Robinson keyed Big Ten wins against Illinois and Northwestern, earning Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors in both games. Robinson rushed 19 times for 89 yards in a 42-38 win at Illinois, while also catching eight passes for 79 yards and two touchdowns.

In a win over Northwestern, Robinson totaled 186 all-purpose yards, including seven catches for a career-high 123 yards, the most receiving yards ever by a Husker true freshman. He had a career-long 42-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, a career-long 49-yard catch in the third quarter and a key 32-yard catch on Nebraska's game-winning drive.

Robinson totaled 154 all-purpose yards in a near-miss against Indiana.

- Robinson ranks second nationally among all freshmen and leads all Power Five Conference freshmen in all-purpose yards per game (112.8 ypg). His all-purpose yardage average is fifth in the Big Ten among all players.
- Robinson's 453 receiving yards and 40 receptions are the most ever by a Nebraska true freshman.
- Robinson has 453 receiving yards and 326 rushing yards in 2019. He is the first Nebraska player to with 400 receiving yards and 300 rushing yards in the same season since Marlon Lucky in 2007.
- Robinson has 1,015 all-purpose yards in 2019. He is the fourth true freshman at Nebraska to total 1,000 all-purpose yards joining Ahman Green (1,259 in 1995), Ameer Abdullah (1,031 in 2011) and De'Mornay Pierson-El (1,074 in 2014).

MILLS GAINING MOMENTUM LATE IN 2019 SEASON

Junior running back Dedrick Mills had the finest day of his Nebraska career against Wisconsin. Mills rushed 17 times for a career-high 188 yards and a touchdown. He had 13 carries and 112 yards before halftime. Despite being ill at Maryland, Mills backed that up with 12 carries for 65 yards and a touchdown, all before halftime.

- Against Wisconsin, Mills topped his previous Nebraska high of 116 yards against Northern Illinois. His previous collegiate career high was 169 yards against Kentucky in 2016, while Mills was playing at Georgia Tech.
- Mills' 188 yards marked the most rushing yards against the Badgers this season, and he was just the second player to top the century mark. Only Ohio State's JK Dobbins (163 yards) had also topped 100 yards against a Badger defense that was allowing just 84 rushing yards per game before last week's game.
- Mills had 11 rushes of more than 10 yards against the Badgers and averaged 11.1 yards on his 17 carries in the game.
- Mills has 10 rushing touchdowns this season. He is only the second Husker with double-figure rushing touchdowns since 2014, following Devine Ozigbo's 12 rushing scores in 2018.

PROTECTING THE FOOTBALL KEY FOR HUSKER OFFENSE

Nebraska enters the Iowa game at zero in turnover margin on the 2019 season. The Huskers have 19 takeaways, while also committing 19 turnovers.

- Nebraska did not commit a turnover in back-to-back games against Northwestern and Minnesota. That marked the first time Nebraska had back-to-back games without a turnover since having no turnovers against both Minnesota and Penn State late in the 2017 season.
- Nebraska has committed five combined turnovers in the past four games.
- Nebraska is 6-2 under Scott Frost when winning the turnover margin.

BLACKSHIRT DEFENSE LOOKS FOR DISRUPTIVE FINISH TO 2019

The Nebraska defense had a focus of causing more turnovers and big impact plays in 2019. Nebraska has shown that ability in stretches this season, particularly in home wins over South Alabama and Northern Illinois, and in last week's win at Maryland. The Huskers had four takeaways against the Terrapins, their highest total since the season opener.

- Nebraska has 19 takeaways to rank in a tie for fourth in the Big Ten in that category.
- Nebraska had five takeaways against South Alabama, including four in the second half. The five takeaways matched the most in two seasons under Scott Frost (Illinois, 2018) and was only the fourth time since 2010 that a Nebraska defense recorded five or more takeaways.
- Nebraska scored a pair of defensive touchdowns against the Jaguars—a 38-yard interception return by Eric Lee Jr. in the third quarter and a fumble recovery in the end zone by Alex Davis in the fourth quarter to cap the scoring. The two defensive touchdowns marked the first time Nebraska scored a pair of defensive touchdowns since having two interception returns for touchdowns against Southern Miss in 2013.

- NU's effort against South Alabama marked the 16th time in school history the Huskers have scored on offense, defense and special teams in the same game. It was the first time since 2012 NU had accomplished that feat, and the first instance against an FBS opponent since 2009 at Colorado.
- Nebraska has added 14 takeaways since the opener, including a critical interception by Lamar Jackson against Northwestern with 1:00 remaining to set up a game-winning field goal.
- Nebraska has averaged 2.0 takeaways in its past 15 games. Prior to that, Nebraska averaged 1.0 takeaway in its 30 previous games spanning three seasons.

He has led Nebraska in tackles in 16 of 23 games since the start of the 2018 season.
- Barry has 239 career tackles. He moved into the top 20 on Nebraska's career tackles list against Wisconsin and is 18 tackles from the top 10 on the Nebraska career tackles list.
- Barry is looking to become the sixth Husker to have back-to-back 100-tackle seasons, joining David (2010-11), his position coach Barrett Ruud (2003-04), Lee Kunz (1977-78), Clete Pillen (1975-76) and Jerry Murtaugh (1969-70).
- Barry led Nebraska with 112 tackles in 2018, the most by a Husker since Lavonte David made 133 stops in 2011. Barry was second in the Big Ten and 38th nationally with an average of 9.3 tackles per game, and he was the Big Ten's leading returner in that category.
- Barry was a third-team All-Big Ten selection by the conference media in 2018 and was an honorable-mention selection by the coaches. He was on the 2019 preseason watch lists for the Butkus Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy, and is one of 20 quarterfinalist for the Lott Trophy.

HOME OF THE HUSKERS

Memorial Stadium's history dates back more than 90 years. In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University.

The stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American Wars; the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; the 422 in Vietnam; and those in Iraq.

Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the Homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas.

The field at Memorial Stadium was named Tom Osborne Field - after the Huskers' legendary Hall-of-Fame coach - in 1998, one year after Osborne's retirement following 25 years and 255 victories as head coach.

The facility will be convenient and beneficial for all 600-plus Husker student-athletes, and help Nebraska provide the most comprehensive student-athlete experience in the country.
- Groundbreaking is expected to occur in the spring/summer of 2020 with completion of the new complex scheduled for the summer of 2022. The $155 million project will link the new facility with Memorial Stadium and will also improve the fan experience at Memorial Stadium. Construction will include new vertical transportation for fans entering and exiting the North Stadium.
- The facility will provide the football program with a new locker room, strength and conditioning center, athletic medicine facility, equipment room, meeting rooms, coaches' offices and an additional outdoor practice facility. Plans for the building also include the training table and academic support facilities for student-athletes across all 24 Nebraska sports.
- The last major facility construction for the Nebraska football program was completed in 2006 with the opening of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex. Since that time, every Big Ten school has opened new football facilities or are in the planning stages of constructing a new facility.
- The current football facilities were built to accommodate a roster of approximately 125 players. Nebraska's 2019 roster has more than 150 student-athletes creating a need for an expanded locker room, weight room, athletic medicine and meeting spaces. Nebraska owns the largest roster in the Power Five ranks this season and trails only the service academies among FBS schools.

HEAD COACH SCOTT FROST

HISTORIC TURNAROUND AT UCF

At UCF, Frost produced the greatest two-year turnaround in college football history, inheriting an 0-12 team and leading the Knights to a 13-0 record just two years later.

- In his first season in 2016, Frost made history as the only first-time head coach in FBS history to make a bowl game with a team that was winless the previous season.
- UCF tied for the national lead with a six-win improvement from the 2015 to 2016 season. The Knights then ranked third nationally after improving by seven wins from the 2016 to 2017 season.
- The Knights' seven-win improvement from 2016 to 2017 ranked 11th in NCAA history and marked just the second time ever a bowl team improved by more than six wins the next season.
- UCF was the American Athletic Conference and Peach Bowl champions and was the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- Frost called UCF's plays, orchestrating the greatest two-year offensive turnaround in NCAA history. The Knights went from last to fifth in total offense, improving their output by more than 260 yards per game. UCF also went from third-to-last to first in scoring offense, improving by nearly 35 points per game.

13-0 AS A PLAYER & COACH

In his second year as a head coach, Scott Frost guided UCF to a 13-0 record in 2017, when the Knights were the nation's only undefeated team.

- Frost became the fourth coach in FBS history to post a 13-0 record or better in either his first or second season as a head coach. Among that quartet, Frost is the only coach who inherited a team that won fewer than five games, as UCF went 0-12 the year before Frost's arrival.
- Frost is one of only seven active FBS head coaches who has posted a 13-0 season or better, joining Jimbo Fisher, Gary Patterson, Chris Petersen, Nick Saban, Dabo Swinney and Kyle Whittingham.
- Frost also led Nebraska to a 13-0 record and a national title as the Huskers' starting quarterback in 1997. Frost was the first person in NCAA history to be part of a 13-0 season as both a player and a head coach.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Frost was the consensus choice as the 2017 national coach of the year, earning the honor from at least eight different organizations.

- Frost won the 2017 Paul "Bear" Bryant Award as the national coach of the year. He joined Chris Petersen (2006 & 2009, Boise State) as the only coaches in the 32-year history of the award to win the honor while coaching a team outside of a Power Five Conference.
- Frost was also the AP Coach of the Year, becoming the sixth coach to win the award in his first or second season as a head coach.

FROST A TOP OFFENSIVE COACH

For each of the last 10 years, Scott Frost has either been an offensive assistant, offensive coordinator or head coach who calls the offensive plays. During that time, he has consistently proven to be one of the nation's finest offensive coaches.

- In 10 seasons coaching offense, Frost has worked with eight units that finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring, including seven that ranked in the top five.
- Frost has also been a part of seven teams that ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense the past 10 seasons.

FROST A PROVEN WINNER

Frost is a proven winner. In his 12-year full-time coaching career, Frost's teams have combined for a 131-39 record.

- Frost has averaged more than 10 wins per season and has been a part of seven 12-win teams.
- He has won seven conference titles in 12 years.
- Frost has coached in two national title games and his teams have finished with a top-10 ranking eight times in the past 12 years.
- In two seasons as UCF's head coach, the Knights were the nation's most improved team in 2016 and were the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- As a Husker quarterback, Frost was a two-time national champion who helped NU to a 36-2 record, including a 24-2 mark as a starter.
- Frost is one of four active head coaches who won a national title as a player and is the only coach who won multiple national titles.

NEBRASKA ASSISTANT COACHES

TROY WALTERS
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
WIDE RECEIVERS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 11th Career Season
- 5th Year as an Offensive Coord.

Walters has coordinated a top-25 offense each of the past two seasons. He led NU to the nation's seventh-best offensive improvement in 2018, one year after Walters coordinated the greatest offensive turnaround in NCAA history at UCF. As a player, Walters is the Pac-12's all-time leading receiver, 1999 Biletnikoff Award winner and eight-year NFL wideout, Walters has produced seven 1,000-yard receivers in his nine years coaching wide receivers.

- 4th Year as an Defensive Coord.

Nebraska improved in nearly every statistical category in Chinander's first season. A former NFL assistant, Chinander earned a nomination for the Broyles Award at UCF in 2016, when his defense was the primary reason the Knights qualified for a bowl game one year after a winless campaign. The defense then preserved UCF's perfect season in 2017 with a pair of game-clinching interceptions in the conference championship game and the Peach Bowl.

GREG AUSTIN
OFFENSIVE LINE

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 10th Career Season
- 2 Years of NFL Experience

A former All-Big 12 Husker lineman, Austin has coached the offensive line at the Power Five (Oregon, Nebraska) and NFL (Philadelphia) levels. In 2018, NU boasted the No. 2 most-improved rushing attack in the country and had two All-Big Ten picks.

JOVAN DEWITT
OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 21st Career Season
- 9 Years as a Defensive Coord.

Dewitt helped each of NU's outside linebackers post career highs in tackles in 2018. At UCF, Dewitt coached NFL Draft pick and conference defensive player of the year Shaquem Griffin, who had only nine career tackles before Dewitt's arrival.

SEAN BECKTON
TIGHT ENDS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 24th Career Season
- 21 Years of Collegiate Experience

Beckton is a veteran and versatile coach, having developed NFL draft picks at three different positions - cornerback, wide receiver and tight end. Under Beckton, every Husker tight end set career highs in receptions and receiving yards in 2018.

TRAVIS FISHER
DEFENSIVE BACKS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 7th Career Season

Fisher is a rising star following a nine-year NFL career. He helped Mike Hughes become a 2018 first-round draft pick after his only year at UCF. Dicaprio Bootle posted the second-most pass breakups in NU history in 2018, while NU had its most breakups as a team since 2012.

RYAN HELD
RUNNING BACKS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 20th Career Season
- 13 Years as a Head Coach

Held won two national titles as a Husker and two as a coach (Nebraska & Tennessee). He has coached a back ranked in the top 15 in yards per carry each of the last two seasons, after Devine Ozigbo ranked seventh nationally with 7.0 yards per carry in 2018.

BARRETT RUUD
INSIDE LINEBACKERS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 5th Career Season

In 2018, Ruud helped Mo Barry post the most tackles by a Husker since 2012. One of the nation's top young coaches, Ruud is NU's all-time leading tackler, and he posted four straight 100-tackle seasons for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as part of his eight-year NFL career.

MARIO VERDUZCO
QUARTERBACKS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 43rd Career Season
- 33 Years of Collegiate Experience

Verduzco was a nominee for the Broyles Award in 2018 after Adrian Martinez was the second true freshman in NCAA history to average 200 yards passing and 50 yards rushing. In 2017, UCF's McKenzie Milton ranked second nationally in pass efficiency.

TONY TUIOTI
DEFENSIVE LINE

- 1st Season at Nebraska
- 17th Career Season
- 2 Years of NFL Experience

The lone new addition to Nebraska's full-time staff, Tuioti boasts NFL experience and has coached at two of the six winningest programs in NCAA history (Nebraska and Michigan). Last season at Cal, he helped the Bears rank 15th nationally in total defense.

2019 NEBRASKA SEASON NOTEBOOK

SCHEDULE NOTES

- Nebraska faces seven teams that made a bowl game in 2018, including three defending conference division champions. The Huskers played both 2018 Big Ten division champs close on the road last fall, suffering a three-point overtime loss at West Division champion Northwestern and a five-point loss at East Division champion Ohio State. NU also faced Northern Illinois, the 2018 MAC East Division champion.
- Nebraska plays five teams that appeared in the Associated Press top-25 poll at least once last season: Colorado (as high as No.19), Ohio State (as high as No. 2), Northwestern (as high as No. 20), Wisconsin (as high as No. 4) and Iowa (as high as No. 18).
- Nebraska faced Maryland and Coach Michael Locksley on Nov. 23. That was the fourth team Nebraska has faced with a first-year coach in 2019: Colorado (Mel Tucker); Northern Illinois (Thomas Hammock); Ohio State (Ryan Day).
- After playing 12 consecutive weeks during the 2018 season, Nebraska had a pair of byes (Oct. 19 and Nov. 9) in 2019. The previous time Nebraska had two byes in the same season was in 2014.

COACHING STAFF NOTES

- Scott Frost is in his fourth season as a head coach in 2019. Frost is one of four former Husker players to return to the Nebraska sideline as head coach, and he is one of 19 FBS head coaches leading their coach alma maters in 2019.
- Nebraska's staff also includes former Huskers Greg Austin (2003-06), Ryan Held (1993-96) and Barrett Ruud (2001-04).
- Frost is one of only four FBS head coaches who won a national title as a player. Both Frost (1995 & 1997) and Ryan Held (1994 & 1995) were two-time national champions at Nebraska.
- Frost and nine of his 10 assistant coaches are in their fourth consecutive season working together, including two seasons at UCF.
- The lone new addition to the staff is defensive line coach Tony Tuioti, who came to Nebraska after spending the past two seasons at Cal.
- Frost was the consensus choice as the 2017 national coach of the year, while offensive coordinator Troy Walters was a finalist for the 2017 Broyles Award. Defensive coordinator Erik Chinander was a nominee for the 2016 Broyles Award and quarterbacks coach Mario Verduzco was a Broyles Award nominee in 2018.
- Walters, the all-time leading receiver in Pac-12 history, was the 1999 Biletnikoff Award winner as the nation's top receiver. He is the only Biletnikoff Award winner currently coaching in college football.

ROSTER NOTES

- Nebraska's roster features 152 players. NU is believed to have the largest roster of any non-service academy in the country.
- The roster features players from 29 states, including 69 homegrown Huskers.
- Behind Nebraska, the most common states are: Georgia (8), Colorado (7), Florida (7), Texas (6), Arizona (5), California (5), Iowa (5), Missouri (5).
- The roster features 58 newcomers, including 46 true freshmen and 11 transfers including five FBS transfers, four from Power Five programs.
- More than two-thirds of the Husker roster is underclassmen, as 104 of the 152 players are either freshmen or sophomores (68 percent).
- Nebraska has 76 freshmen on its roster, more than the sophomore, junior and senior classes combined. Fifty-one percent of NU's roster is freshmen, the fifth-highest total of any FBS team behind Oklahoma State, UCLA, Virginia Tech and Coastal Carolina, respectively.
- NU's 76 freshmen are the most of any non-service academy team and are six more than the next closest team (Oklahoma State, 72).
- Of the 152 players on the roster, 103 have joined the program since Scott Frost was hired as head coach in December of 2017 (66 percent).
- Nebraska has five sets of brothers on its 2019 roster (Brant & Brig Banks; Damion & Darrion Daniels; Carlos & Khalil Davis; Matt & Will Farniok; and Connor & Corbin Ruth). The five sets of brothers ties Clemson for the most brothers on any FBS roster.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska and Iowa have met 49 times, dating back to 1891. The Huskers lead the series 29-17-3. In 2011, the border rivalry intensified when the two programs began the Heroes Game tradition, with the first meeting as Big Ten opponents. While the Huskers own the overall series edge, the Hawkeyes have gotten the better of the Huskers lately. Iowa has won the last four games in the series, including a 31-28 win in Iowa City last season. Nebraska overcame a 28-13 fourth-quarter deficit to tie it at 28, but Iowa hit a 41-yard field goal as time expired.

With a win today, the Hawkeyes would win five straight games in the series, extending their longest win streak of the series. The Huskers are looking to pick up their first win over the Hawkeyes since 2014, when NU rallied from 17 points down in the second half, tying the largest road comeback in school history. The Huskers won 37-34 in overtime.

IOWA FOOTBALL

Iowa has fielded a football team since 1889 and has an all-time record of 658-560-39. The Hawkeyes have a bowl record of 16-15-1. Most recently, UI beat No. 18 Mississippi State, 27-22, in the Outback Bowl following the 2018 season. Iowa claims five national titles, most recently in 1960. The Hawkeyes have won 11 Big Ten titles, most recently in 2004. UI also won the Big Ten West Division in 2015. Iowa has produced 27 consensus All-Americans and 223 first-team All-Big Ten Selections.

Lincoln (Aug. 31) - No. 24 Nebraska forced five South Alabama turnovers, and the Cornhuskers scored three non-offensive touchdowns in the second half to post a 35-21 victory.

Leading 14-7 at halftime, the Husker defense and special teams accounted for all three second-half scores, marking the first time since 2005 that NU had scored at least three non-offensive touchdowns in a game.

On the first drive of the second half, Eric Lee Jr. intercepted a Cephus Johnson pass and returned it 38 yards for a score to push the margin to 14. The interception was the first of the Lee's career and the first defensive touchdown by the Blackshirts since 2017. After a three-and-out, JD Spielman fielded a punt, made a pair of Jaguar defenders miss and went 76 yards for his second career punt return touchdown to make it 28-7 less than four minutes into the second half.

South Alabama pulled to with 28-21 and had the ball to start the fourth quarter, but another defensive play gave NU some breathing room. Cam Taylor-Britt sacked Johnson, who coughed up the ball. Alex Davis recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown to make it 35-21.

In the game, Nebraska managed just 276 total yards, including just 66 in the second half. South Alabama produced 314 total yards on 79 plays, including 222 yards on 47 plays after halftime.

The Huskers looked sharp early on, going 81 yards on nine plays, as Jack Stoll's 42-yard reception to the USA 5-yard line set up Dedrick Mills' first TD three plays later. Stoll finished with three catches for 66 yards, as Adrian Martinez completed 13-of-22 passes for 178 yards in the win.

The teams traded touchdowns, as Johnson led the Jaguars 41 yards in nine plays, scoring from three yards out midway through the first quarter. The Huskers regained a 14-7 advantage midway through the second quarter as Mills scored from one yard out.

Senior linebacker Mohamed Barry led the Blackshirts with 12 tackles, while Taylor-Britt added five tackles, including two tackles for 16 yards lost. He also hauled in his first career interception and returned it 48 yards in the second half. Lee pitched in four tackles and the first two interceptions of his career while adding a breakup. As a team, NU produced 10 tackles for 49 yards lost, including four sacks for 32 yards.

Boulder, Colo. (Sept. 7) - Colorado scored 31 second-half points to overcome a 17-0 deficit, while James Stefanou's 34-yard field goal on the first possession of overtime gave the Buffaloes a 34-31 win over Nebraska.

Nebraska had a chance to tie in the extra session, but NU could not muster a first down before punter Isaac Armstrong's 48-yard field goal fell short.

NU controlled the first half, building a 17-point lead while out-gaining Colorado 266-84, but could not sustain the momentum.

Colorado broke into the scoring column late in the third quarter with an 11-yard touchdown run from Jaren Mangham to make it 17-7. After an Armstrong punt pinned CU at its 4-yard line, Steven Montez connected with K.D. Nixon on a 96-yard flea-flicker touchdown to pull the Buffs within 17-14.

Nebraska quickly answered, as Adrian Martinez connected with Maurice Washington on a 75-yard touchdown pass to make it 24-14.

Colorado kept coming, producing an answer of its own with a five-play, 75-yard drive that was capped by Mangham's second touchdown run - this time from seven yards out to make it 24-21. CU then came up with a big defensive play, forcing a Martinez fumble, but the Blackshirts held CU out of the end zone before Stefanou's 20-yard field goal tied the score at 24 with 8:30 left.

Martinez and the Husker offense then found an answer of their own, covering 75 yards in eight plays and 2:55, capped by Martinez's six-yard touchdown run to move back in front at 31-24 with 5:49 left.

Colorado had one final chance, going 75 yards for the driving touchdown as Montez found Tony Brown for a 26-yard scoring strike to tie the game with 46 seconds left.

Early on, Nebraska was in control, as NU went 96 yards on the first drive to take a 7-0 lead after Martinez found Spielman for a 65-yard touchdown. Spielman finished with five catches for 112 yards. Nebraska went on another long march midway through the second quarter, going 95 yards in 13 plays capped by a Martinez five-yard TD run.

The Blackshirts forced a turnover on Lamar Jackson's interception on CU's next series which Nebraska turned into a 26-yard Armstrong field goal to make it 17-0.

Lincoln (Sept. 14) - Adrian Martinez accounted for more than 300 yards of total offense and had a hand in three touchdowns, while Dedrick Mills rushed for 116 yards, as Nebraska rolled to a 44-8 win over Northern Illinois.

Martinez completed 16-of-27 passes for 257 yards and two touchdowns, and added 44 more and a score on the ground, as NU racked up 525 yards of total offense. Mills posted his first 100-yard day as a Husker, as NU tallied 238 yards on the ground.

Northern Illinois managed 350 total yards, but just 74 on the ground, as the Blackshirts surrendered just a pair of field goals on the night.

In an action-packed first half that featured big plays and blocked kicks, Nebraska powered its way to a 30-5 halftime lead.

After a 36-yard field goal by Isaac Armstrong on the first drive, NU made it 10-0 later in the first quarter, capitalizing on a Huskies' special team miscue. NIU fumbled a punt, and Austin Allen recovered at the 21-yard line. On the next play, Maurice Washington scored on a 21-yard reception. Washington's second score, a 60-yard run, made it 16-0 with 12:20 left in the half.

After NIU cut the deficit to 16-3, the Huskies failed on a kick attempt gave NU great field position. The Huskers capitalized, going 50 yards in four plays, capped by Mills' 24-yard touchdown run. The Huskers tacked on a final score in the waning seconds of the half, going 87 yards in five plays as Martinez found Kanawai Noa in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown.

The Huskies open the second half by going 66 yards before John Richardson's 27-yard field trimmed the lead to 30-8, but the Blackshirts would pitch a shutout the rest of the game. NU extended the lead in the third quarter on Martinez's 10-yard run before capitalizing on Braxton Clark's first career interception to set up the final score, a three-yard scamper by backup quarterback Noah Vedral with 4:04 remaining.

Mohamed Barry led the Blackshirts with 10 tackles. Carlos Davis notched six tackles, including 1.5 sacks, while adding a pair of breakups with deflections at the line of scrimmage. Isaiah Stalbird starred for the Husker special teams, finishing the game with three tackles, including two for loss, a forced fumble and a blocked punt.

Champaign, Ill. (Sept. 21) - Nebraska trailed by 14 points on three occasions, including late in the third quarter, but the Huskers overcame a season-high four turnovers to snap an eight-game road losing streak with a 42-38 win at Illinois.

The Huskers, who became the fifth Division I program with 900 wins, amassed 673 yards, including 346 on the ground and 327 in the air, going over 300 rushing and passing yards for the second time in school history.

Adrian Martinez erupted for a career-high 445 yards of total offense, leading Nebraska's rushing attack with 118 yards on 18 carries, while throwing for 327 yards and three scores. Freshman Wan'Dale Robinson tallied 186 all-purpose yards, including 89 on the ground and 79 in the air while scoring three times. Dedrick Mills rushed for 45 yards and scored twice in the Huskers' comeback. JD Spielman hauled in seven passes for a season-high 159 yards.

Martinez's 300-yard passing, 100-yard rushing performance was just the second in Nebraska history and first since 2010.

The Huskers, whose four turnovers led to 21 Illini points, trailed 35-21 with 5:40 left in the third quarter before taking control. NU went 75 yards in nine plays capped by Mills' 14-yard score to make it 35-27. After a 3-and-out by the Blackshirts, NU needed just six plays to cover 64 yards before Mills' second score and a two-point conversion by Martinez tied the score.

Illinois, which managed only 299 yards of offense, regained the lead at 38-35 on a 47-yard field goal by James McCourt, but the Huskers would respond. Nebraska used the legs of Martinez, Robinson and Mills to go 75 yards in 11 plays, as Robinson's third score of the night - a one-yard run - gave Nebraska its first lead at 42-38 with 8:00 left.

NU's defense forced another 3-and-out and NU had a chance to extend the lead, but missed a field goal with 2:03 remaining. Illinois had one more chance, but NU forced four incompletions, as Illinois quarterbacks went 9-of-24 through the air. The Huskers ran out the clock, picking up their first road win under Scott Frost.

Lincoln (Sept. 28) - No. 5/6 Ohio State produced a complete game in all phases to post a 48-7 win over Nebraska. The Buckeyes rolled for 580 total yards, including 368 on the ground, while holding the Huskers to 231 total yards.

The Buckeyes controlled the game from the outset, forcing a turnover on Nebraska's opening possession with a diving interception from Jeff Okudah. OSU went 50 yards in five plays, as Justin Fields scored from 15 yards out. On their next possession, the Buckeyes made it 14-0 as Fields found K.J. Hill for a two-yard touchdown pass to cap a 10-play drive.

Late in the first quarter, Nebraska put together a sustained drive before Okudah picked off his second pass of the day. The Buckeyes turned the fortunate bounce into points, pushing the ball 90 yards in 13 plays over the next 7:04 before NU forced a field goal.

Two plays into Nebraska's next drive, Martinez was intercepted again at midfield - this time by OSU senior free safety Jordan Fuller. Three plays later, the Buckeyes were in the end zone again on running back Master Teague's eight-yard touchdown run to give OSU a 24-0 lead with 8:26 left in the half.

The flurry of turnovers left the Huskers on the ropes, and the Buckeyes went for the knockout, forcing a quick three-and-out, then scoring on another three-play drive that covered 55 yards. Teague's second touchdown run, this time from one yard out, put Ohio State up 31-0 with 5:42 left in the half. Fields capped the first half with an 18-yard TD pass to Austin Mack to give the Buckeyes a 38-0 halftime lead.

The Buckeyes amassed 378 yards on 45 plays, including 230 rushing yards on 29 carries while the Huskers managed just 76 yards in the first half.

Ohio State put the game firmly out of reach with 10 more points to open the second half, before Mills ended the Buckeyes' shutout hopes with a nine-yard touchdown run to cap a five-play, 75-yard drive late in the third quarter. Martinez sparked that drive with a career-long 56-yard run.

For the game, Martinez led Nebraska in rushing with 81 yards on 15 carries, while completing 8-of-17 passes for 47 yards. Mills added 67 rushing yards, while Wan'Dale Robinson contributed 27 rushing yards.

J.K. Dobbins finished with 177 yards on 24 totes, while Teague ended the day with 77 rushing yards. Fields was efficient, completing 15-of-21 passes for 212 yards and three passing touchdowns while adding 72 rushing yards and another score on 12 carries.

Lincoln (Oct. 5) - Lane McCallum's 24-yard field goal as time expired gave Nebraska a 13-10 win over Northwestern on Homecoming. McCallum waited through three icing timeouts from Northwestern Head Coach Pat Fitzgerald before his kick split the uprights and set off an on-field celebration. McCallum's kick was just the second walk-off winning kick by Nebraska in the history of Memorial Stadium and the first since 2000.

The game-winning drive was also engineered by a reserve quarterback, as Noah Vedral led the Huskers to victory in the fourth quarter after taking over for an injured Adrian Martinez. Vedral's final drive covered 42 yards in six plays and was set up by Lamar Jackson's interception and return with a minute remaining.

The biggest offensive play of the final drive came on a 32-yard strike from Vedral to Wan'Dale Robinson to get the ball to the Northwestern 16-yard line. Robinson carried the offensive load for the Huskers, hauling in seven receptions for a career-high 123 yards. He also led the Huskers with seven carries for 44 yards, including a highlight-reel 42-yard touchdown burst in the first quarter.

On a sunny but windy day inside Memorial Stadium, Nebraska took a 7-0 lead on Robinson's run to cap an eight-play, 70-yard drive. The Blackshirts pitched a shutout for the rest of the first quarter, and Nebraska's offense capitalized while going against the wind in the second quarter. The Huskers used a 35-yard McCallum field goal with 8:24 left in the half to push their lead to 10-0. McCallum's field goal put the finishing touches on a 10-play, 61-yard drive that consumed 5:10.

On the ensuing kickoff, Northwestern's Riley Lees uncorked a 50-yard return to put the Wildcats at the Husker 45. The Blackshirts stiffened and held the Cats to just 23 yards on nine plays before Charlie Kuhbänder snuck a 40-yard field goal inside the left upright to cut Nebraska's lead to 10-3 with 5:15 left in the half.

In the third quarter, Northwestern went 58 yards on six plays capped by quarterback Aidan Smith's two-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 10 with 11:20 left. Smith finished his day as the game's leading rusher with 64 yards on 16 carries. Smith also completed 19-of-32 passes for 136 yards, but the Huskers made the Wildcats pay for his interception - the only turnover of the game - with one minute left.

Jackson finished with four tackles to go along with his interception, while linebackers Mohamed Barry and Collin Miller each led the Huskers with eight stops on the day. Marquel Dismuke and JoJo Domann both pitched in seven stops, while defensive tackle Darrin Daniels played a strong game inside with six stops, including a TFL.

Minneapolis, Minn. (Oct. 12) - The Nebraska football team struggled to get anything going in Minneapolis, as Minnesota improved to 6-0 with a 34-7 win over the Huskers on Saturday night at TCF Bank Stadium.

Nebraska slipped to 4-3 on the season and 2-2 in the Big Ten with the setback. The Huskers put together a 14-play, 80-yard drive early in the fourth quarter to get on the board after Minnesota built a 34-0 lead at the end of three quarters.

The Huskers went to the locker room trailing 14-0 at halftime in Noah Vedral's first career start, as he completed 14-of-23 passes for 135 yards, while also rushing for a team-high 49 yards in replacing Adrian Martinez.

The Golden Gophers put the game out of reach with a trio of third-quarter touchdowns. After pounding the ball on the ground for 220 rushing yards in the first half, the Gophers opened the second-half with a play-action pass from Tanner Morgan to Tyler Johnson for a 45-yard completion to the NU 18. Four plays later, the Gophers were in the end zone on the second of three Mohamed Ibrahim touchdown runs to go up 21-0 just 2:19 into the second half. Morgan completed 8-of-13 passes for 128 yards with one touchdown, while Johnson hauled in five receptions for 109 to lead the Gophers.

Later in the quarter, Minnesota took advantage of a short field to go 45 yards on nine plays in 5:16 capped by a Rodney Smith one-yard touchdown run to go up 28-0 with 3:16 left in the third. But the Gophers were not done yet. After forcing a quick three-and-out by the Husker offense, Minnesota started at the NU 46, and Morgan completed his second 45-yard pass to Johnson of the quarter on the first play of the Gophers' two-play scoring drive, which was capped by Ibrahim's final touchdown from one-yard out with 1:41 left in the period.

Minnesota finished with 450 yards of total offense, including 322 rushing yards on 49 carries. Smith led the Gophers with 139 yards on 18 carries, while Shannon Brooks added 99 yards on 13 totes. Ibrahim finished with 84 yards on 15 attempts. Nebraska managed 299 yards of total offense, including 151 rushing yards.

The Huskers, who played turnover-free football for the second straight game, were led defensively by senior linebacker Mohamed Barry's 11 tackles, who became the 12th Husker in history with 10 or more games with double-figure tackles in his career. Collin Miller and Marquel Dismuke both added career highs with 10 stops apiece.

Lincoln (Oct. 26) - Reserve quarterbacks Noah Vedral and Luke McCaffrey helped NU pile up 514 yards of total offense, but a pair of turnovers were costly, as Nebraska fell to Indiana, 38-31. Vedral started the game and helped the Huskers jump to a 14-3 lead midway through the first quarter and took a 14-9 edge to the second. In roughly two quarters, Vedral completed 14-of-16 passes for 201 yards and added seven carries for 21 yards and two touchdown runs. McCaffrey completed 5-of-6 passes for 71 yards and a touchdown, while adding 12 carries for 76 yards.

Wan'Dale Robinson also had a big day for the Big Red with 22 carries for 83 yards and a touchdown, while adding a team-high six receptions for 71 yards. JD Spielman pitched in five receptions for 97 yards.

Indiana quarterback Peyton Ramsey completed 27-of-40 passes for 351 yards and two touchdowns, while Whop Philyor hauled in 14 passes for 178 yards.

Leading 14-9, NU was in position to extend its lead on its first drive of the second quarter before Vedral fumbled at the Indiana 19. The ball was scooped up by Allen Stallings IV, who returned it to the NU 8 yard line. Indiana scored on the next play, as Ramsey found Ty Fryfogle to give the Hoosiers a 16-14 lead.

Nebraska regained the lead in the final minute of the first half, going 74 yards in six plays capped by McCaffrey's 24-yard touchdown strike to Kanawai Noa with 39 seconds left in the half to stake the Huskers to a 21-16 lead.

Indiana took a 24-21 lead midway through the third quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by David Ellis that was followed by a two-point conversion pass from Ramsey to Peyton Hendershot with 7:30 left.

Nebraska tied the score on Barret Pickering's 30-yard field goal with 2:53 left in the third quarter. Indiana came right back, as Ramsey's two-yard touchdown pass to Matt Bjorson as time expired at the quarter gave the Hoosiers a 31-24 lead.

Nebraska's second turnover of the day, a fumble by Noa on its next possession, snuffed out a Husker drive and gave Indiana the ball near midfield. The Hoosiers marched 57 yards in seven plays, as a nine-yard run by Stevie Scott III pushed the lead to 38-24.

Nebraska came right back on its next drive, as two personal fouls on Indiana gave NU excellent field position. Five plays later, Robinson coasted into the end zone from four yards out on a short scoring run to pull the Huskers back within 38-31 with 10:21 left.

Nebraska had one final chance, getting to the Indiana 34, but could not sustain the drive, and Indiana ran out the clock for the victory.

West Lafayette, Ind. (Nov. 2) - Adrian Martinez led two Nebraska on two touchdown drives in the fourth quarter, but Purdue scored the go-ahead touchdown with 1:08 remaining to defeat Nebraska 31-27.

Nebraska had two fourth-quarter leads, only to have Purdue respond with scoring drives to regain the lead. Aidan O'Connell directed the final series after Jack Plummer, who was 25-of-34 passing for 242 yards, left the game with an injury. On 3rd-and-5 from the Nebraska 9-yard line, Purdue ran a reverse that resulted in David Bell's touchdown run with 1:08 left. Nebraska had one final chance, taking possession at its 20-yard line with 1:01 remaining, but didn't gain a first down.

Martinez was 22-of-39 passing for 247 yards and ran 12 times for 58 yards and two touchdowns, both in the fourth quarter.

Trailing 17-13 late in the third quarter, Nebraska drove 75 yards in 11 plays to take a 20-17 lead. Purdue responded by converting three third downs on a 13-play touchdown drive, before King Doerue's seven-yard run gave Purdue a 24-20 advantage.

Martinez led Nebraska down the field, as a 42-yard pass to JD Spielman set up Martinez's 4-yard run to take a 27-24 lead, but O'Connell guided the Boilermakers down the field for the final score.

Nebraska, which blocked two punts and picked off two passes, had ample opportunities to take control of the game, jumping to a 10-0 first quarter lead. NU, which finished 11 drives in Purdue territory, took a 7-0 lead on the second series of the game, as Dedrick Mills scored from 1-yard out after Martinez found Kanawai Noa for a 34-yard gain on 4th-and-6.

On Purdue's third series of the game, Damion Daniels intercepted a screen pass and returned it 18 yards to the Purdue 2-yard line, but the Huskers had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Pickering for a 10-0 lead.

Eli Sullivan deflected a Purdue punt that traveled only 20 yards, giving Nebraska excellent field position again at the Purdue 46-yard line. But the drive ended with Cory Trice intercepting Martinez at the Purdue 3-yard line. Nebraska got the ball back on Lamar Jackson's interception, his third of the season and fifth of his career, but were forced to punt.

Purdue, which managed 34 total yards on its first five drives, came to life. The Boilermakers put together touchdown drives of 89 and 96 yards on their final two drives of the half and took a 14-10 lead into the locker room.

Lincoln (Nov. 16) - Dedrick Mills rushed for a career-high 188 yards, but No. 15 Wisconsin held on for a 37-21 victory over the Huskers at Memorial Stadium.

Mills averaged 11.1 yards per tote against one of the nation's top run defenses, including a 12-yard TD in the first quarter. In all, the Huskers totaled 493 yards, including 220 yards on 13-of-23 passing from Adrian Martinez.

The visiting Badgers managed 482 total yards, including 204 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries from Jonathan Taylor. His total helped Wisconsin roll up 320 yards on the ground. Jack Coan went 13-for-21 through the air for 162 yards with one touchdown.

Although Wisconsin won by two scores, Nebraska finished with more total yards, but missed three golden opportunities to score in the second half. Nebraska had 1st-and-10 at the UW 24 early in the third quarter, but took sack and NU eventually missed a 41-yard field goal. The Huskers had two fourth-quarter drives stopped in the Badger red zone, but came away empty handed, including one at the goal line with 2:11 left.

Nebraska took advantage of a Taylor fumble to take a 7-0 lead on Mills' TD run, but Aron Cruikshank returned the ensuing kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown to tie the game 7-7.

Wisconsin took a 10-7 lead before NU answered with a five-play, 73-yard drive capped by Martinez's two-yard touchdown run with 9:32 left in the half to give the Huskers a 14-10 lead.

The Badgers would take over, taking advantage of a costly Husker turnover to put up 24 straight points. Coan's 55-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Taylor to put the Badgers back in front at 17-14 before Jack Sanborn's interception on the next play from scrimmage set the Badgers up at the 21-yard line. UW needed just three plays before Jonathan Taylor pounded his way in from one yard out to take a 24-14 lead.

Larsh added a 24-yard field goal for the Badgers with 11 seconds left in the half before stretching the margin to 34-14 on Jonathan Taylor's 11-yard touchdown run with 4:50 left in the third quarter.

But the Huskers continued to fight, flying 75 yards in four plays, culminating with Martinez's 23-yard touchdown strike to JD Spielman to pull within 34-21.

College Park, Md. (Nov. 23) - JD Spielman caught seven passes for 104 yards and two touchdowns, sophomore quarterback Adrian Martinez compiled 288 yards of total offense and a smothering, opportunistic Blackshirt defense led Nebraska to a dominating 54-7 victory over Maryland.

Nebraska won for the first time since Oct. 5, producing its largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game, while Maryland remained winless since the same date with its sixth consecutive loss.

The 54 points were the most the Huskers have ever scored in a Big Ten road game, and tied for their most in any Big Ten game. In playing at Maryland for the first time in school history, Nebraska collected its first November road victory since 2015, when it won at Rutgers.

Spielman, with his fourth 100-yard receiving game this season, increased his season total to 864 receiving yards, making him the first player in Nebraska history with three 800-yard receiving seasons. He also moved into third place on the school charts in career receptions (167, tied with Jordan Westerkamp) and receiving yards (2,512).

The Huskers committed only one penalty and gained 31 first downs.

Martinez, 16-of-25 passing for 194 yards and two touchdowns, also ran for 94 yards, as Nebraska finished with 531 total yards, including 305 rushing.

The Nebraska defense, meanwhile, forced and recovered four fumbles, including one on special teams, and held Maryland scoreless until running back Javon Leake's 58-yard touchdown run with 3:13 remaining in the game. Prior to that, the Terrapins had run only two plays in Nebraska territory, none beyond the 48-yard line.

Nebraska collected a season-high six sacks and held Maryland to 206 total yards, the fewest the Huskers have allowed in a game this season, and narrowly missed its first shutout in 10 years.
