HUSKERS HEAD TO ATLANTA FOR BIG TEN/ACC CHALLENGE

The Nebraska softball team (3-2) will travel to Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 14-16 for the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. Hosted by Georgia Tech, the site will feature two ACC schools in Georgia Tech and Boston College and two Big Ten teams in Nebraska and Iowa. Every team will play two games against each school in the opposite conference.

The Huskers will begin the weekend on Friday when they play Georgia Tech at 3 p.m. CT. On Saturday, NU faces Boston College (9 a.m. CT) and Georgia Tech (11:30 a.m.). The Big Red finishes the weekend on Sunday against Boston College. First pitch for the game is set for 9 a.m. CT.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENTS

Georgia Tech comes into the weekend with a 1-3 record.

In the opening weekend, the Jackets hosted the Buzz Classic. Georgia Tech lost their first three games of the season to UAB and Washington (twice) before beating Ohio in its final game of the weekend.

Despite dropping its first three games, Georgia Tech scored six runs against No. 1/2 Washington in its first game against the Huskies, before losing by just one run (2-1) in the second game against Washington.

Bailee Zeitler leads Georgia Tech with a .462 batting average. An all-ACC freshman pick in 2019, Zeitler had six hits, three runs, one double and one RBI in the opening weekend. Zeitler has started all four games for the Jackets in 2020.

In the circle, Georgia Tech returns five from last season and didn't lose any of its pitching staff.

Morgan Bruce saw most of the action last weekend, pitching 14.0 of the team's 28.0 total innings. She has a record of 1-1 and an ERA of 5.50. She also has a team-high seven strikeouts.

Boston College enters the Big Ten/ACC Challenge with a record of 2-3.

The Eagles won their season opener against Long Island University and then won the final game of the weekend against Georgetown. BC lost to Florida Gulf Coast, Connecticut and Delaware over the weekend.

At the plate, Ellie Mataya was impressive over the first weekend. Mataya started all five games and went 7-for-17 (.412) with one run and one double. However, as a team Boston College is hitting just .171 and is averaging less than two runs a game.

In the circle, Susannah Anderson has carried most of the weight so far this season. She has pitched 21.1 of the team's 34.2 innings and has a team-low ERA of 0.66. She went 2-1 over the weekend and paced up 25 strikeouts in three appearances.

Against Georgetown, Anderson threw a no-hitter in 7.0 innings. She finished with a career-high 10 strikeouts and no walks. She had just two hit batters.

SEASON NOTEBOOK

HUSKERS ADD OREGON STATE TRANSFER

During the offseason, Nebraska added junior infielder Cam Ybarra to its roster. Ybarra spent two seasons at Oregon State before coming to Nebraska.

As a sophomore in 2019, Ybarra appeared in 35 games, which included 31 starts. The Mission Viejo, Calif., native spent most of the season as the designated player. Hitting in the three spot, Ybarra averaged .326 in Pac-12 play, which ranked second on the team. Overall, Ybarra recorded 23 hits and 10 RBIs, while leading the team with nine doubles. In her first season with the Beavers, Ybarra started all 53 games at second base and was named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman and All-Defensive teams. She hit .226 overall and .259 in conference-only games. Ybarra registered 35 hits, scored 14 runs, had five doubles, three homers and 14 RBIs in 2018.

REVELLE REACHES CAREER MILESTONE

On Feb. 8, Nebraska smashed UTEP 16-3 in a five-inning run-rule win. With the win, the Huskers gave Head Coach Rhonda Revelle her 1,000th win overall as a head coach. This includes her eight wins with Nebraska Wesleyan in 1987. Revelle became the 14th active D1 coach to claim 1,000 career victories.

NEBRASKA NICE

The 2020 Husker roster includes nine native Nebraskans, which ties for the most in Rhonda Revelle's 28 seasons as Nebraska's head coach. The Huskers had nine Nebraskans on the 2019 roster as well. Previously, Nebraska had never had more than eight Nebraskans on its roster under Revelle.

The group consists of juniors Olivia Ferrell, Rylie Unzicker and Sarah Yocom, sophomores Payton Huscroft, Carson Fischer, Peyton Glatter, Karlee Seevers and Courtney Wallace and freshman Brooke Andrews.

SUPPORT STAFF UPDATE

Nebraska's Volunteer Coach, former All-American and professional player Taylor Edwards will not be seen in the dugout this spring as she was named to Team USA and will represent the United States in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics this summer. Edwards spent last season as NU's volunteer coach and was with the team up until January before leaving to train with Team USA.

Former Howard pitcher Mackenzi Steele begins her first season as a graduate manager. Steele played under former Husker Tori Tyson at Howard.

YOUNG PITCHING STAFF IN 2020

Nebraska's core pitching staff consists of junior Olivia Ferrell and sophomores Lindsey Walljasper and Courtney Wallace.

Ferrell enters the season as Nebraska's most experienced pitcher with 168.2 innings pitched over the last two years. She leads the group with 49 career appearances.

In 2018, Ferrell became the first Husker freshman pitcher to start a season opener against a ranked opponent when she kicked off the season against No. 19 BYU. She'll help lead a pitching staff as the only upperclassmen this season.

With only one upperclassmen pitcher, Wallace and Walljasper are expected to carry a large load this season. While they are young, the duo saw a lot of action and impacted the team right away as freshman in 2019. Walljasper made a team-high 31 appearances and racked up 91 strikeouts. Wallace appeared 29 times which ranked second on the team and recorded 63 strikeouts.

Sophomore Karlee Seevers also adds depth to the pitching staff in 2020.

IT'S IN THE CLUB

Several Huskers have been teammates long before arriving in Lincoln, playing together in high school and on the same club team. California natives Tristen Edwards, Cam Ybarra and Keana "KP" Pola played for the Corona Angels. In Nebraska, Rylie Unzicker, Payton Huscroft, Olivia Ferrell, Carson Fischer, Peyton Glatter, Courtney Wallace and Brooke Andrews all played for Nebraska Gold.

SENIOR TRISTEN EDWARDS WILL LEAD HUSKER OFFENSE IN 2020

Senior outfielder Tristen Edwards returns for her senior season in 2020 after an explosive junior campaign. Edwards earned back-to-back first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2018 and 2019. She also was an NFCA All-Region pick in 2019.

Nebraska's best hitter in 2019, Edwards led the team with a .376 batting average, a .758 slugging percentage, 42 runs, 56 hits, 12 doubles, 15 homers, 50 RBIs and 33 walks.

EDWARDS GAINES NATIONAL ATTENTION

Edwards was one of 50 players nationally named to the preseason USA Softball Player-of-the-Year Watch List. She became the first Husker on the watch list since former All-American MJ Knighten.

WALLACE, WALLJASPER RETURN AFTER BIG FRESHMEN SEASONS IN 2019

Sophomore pitchers/utility players Courtney Wallace and Lindsey Walljasper had impressive freshman seasons in 2019 both offensively and defensively and look to build upon that momentum in 2020.

Wallace played in 47 games last season and hit .227. She tied a Nebraska single-game record with two triples in two separate games. She became the first Husker to record multiple triples in multiple games. The Omaha, Neb., native finished the season with four triples which tied for second in school history among freshman and tied for 10th in school history across all classes.

Lindsey Walljasper started in the circle in the 2019 season opener, becoming just the third freshman to start a season opener since 1995. She saw the most action in 2019, pitching 106.1 innings and recorded a team-high 91 strikeouts.

At the plate, Walljasper hit .255 which ranked second among freshman and fourth overall among regular hitters.

NEBRASKA NOTES

BIG TEN/ACC CHALLENGE HISTORY

The fifth annual event will feature 10 schools from each conference, with each program playing four games each at five campus sites.

In addition, two schools from each conference will compete in the second annual ESPN St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational in Clearwater, Fla.

Minnesota, which advanced to the 2019 NCAA Women's College World Series, will be joined by 2019 NCAA regional champion Northwestern in representing the Big Ten at this year's ESPN St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational, while Florida State and Virginia Tech will take part on behalf of the ACC. The head-to-head results between Big Ten and ACC schools at that event will count towards the final Big Ten/ACC Softball Challenge standings.

Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Nebraska, Ohio State, Rutgers and Wisconsin will be the Big Ten softball programs competing in the Big Ten/ACC Softball Challenge. Five ACC schools will serve as the host sites for this year's Challenge — Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, North Carolina and NC State — with the other ACC participants being Boston College, Louisville, Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse. Sites are as followed:

- Chapel Hill, N.C. - Louisville, Michigan, North Carolina, Wisconsin
- Raleigh, N.C. - Illinois, NC State, Notre Dame, Ohio State
- Durham, N.C. - Duke, Indiana, Rutgers, Syracuse
- Atlanta, Ga. - Boston College, Georgia Tech, Iowa, Nebraska
- Clemson, S.C. - Clemson, Maryland, Michigan State, Pitt
- Clearwater, Fla. (ESPN St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational) -
- Florida State, Minnesota, Northwestern, Virginia Tech

The Big Ten and ACC have each won twice during the first four years of the Challenge. The Big Ten came away victorious in both 2016 and 2019, earning last year's crown by a 23-13 count. Illinois, Indiana, Nebraska and Wisconsin all went 4-0 to lead the Big Ten effort in the 2019 Challenge.

HUSKER HISTORY AT THE CHALLENGE

Last season in Raleigh, N.C., Nebraska swept the challenge, beating NC State and Pitt twice.

Tristen Edwards led the team going 7-for-12 (.583) with eight runs, three walks and 14 RBIs. She had one double and five homers over the four-game stretch to finish with a slugging percentage of 1.917.

In the final game against Pitt, Edwards had two home runs, including one grand slam. In that game, Edwards went 4-for-4 with four hits, four runs and eight RBIs - all career bests. The eight RBIs tied a Nebraska single-game record (seven innings or less), while her four hits tied for fourth and her four runs tied for second.

The following week, Edwards was named the Louisville Slugger/NFCA National Player of the Week, College Sports Madness National Field Player of the Week and the Big Ten Player of the Week.

Lindsey Walljasper also had an impressive outing last weekend at the Challenge. She pitched 6.0 innings and finished with an ERA of 0.00, giving up just five hits and two unearned runs. She also added nine strikeouts. At the plate, Walljasper hit 3-for-9 with four runs, one double, two homers and eight RBIs. Walljasper was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week after her performance.

NEW FACES MAKING IMMEDIATE IMPACT

Several new additions to the roster have already made an immediate impact on the team through the first five games.

Oregon State transfer Cam Ybarra has started every game at second base for the Huskers. In the opening weekend, Ybarra went 7-for-18 (.389) with two runs and a team-high three doubles. Ybarra has had a hit in all five games so far this season.

Freshmen Brooke Andrews and Keana "KP" Pola have both played in four games, with Pola making three starts and Andrews making two. At the plate, Andrews hit 3-for-5 with two RBIs over the weekend.

HUSKERS COMING OFF BIG OFFENSIVE WEEKEND AT TROY COX CLASSIC

Last weekend at the Troy Cox Classic, Nebraska scored 44 runs through five games, averaging more than eight runs a game. Last season the Huskers averaged less than five runs a game. Currently, Nebraska leads the Big Ten in batting average (.370), home runs per game (2.40), on base percentage (.466) and scoring (8.80). Individually, Tristen Edwards and Peyton Glatter are the conference leaders in home runs. Edwards has four, while Glatter has three. Edwards also leads the Big Ten with a 1.313 slugging percentage, while Glatter ranks fourth (.895).

EDWARDS OFF TO A HOT START

Tristen Edwards was spectacular in Nebraska's opening weekend at the Troy Cox Classic in Las Cruces, N.M last weekend and was named the Big Ten Player of the Week for her efforts. Edwards started all five games and led the team at the plate going 7-for-16 (.438) with nine runs and five RBIs. She drew five walks to finish with an on-base percentage of .550 and slugged 1.313 with two doubles and four homers.

The four home runs brings her career total to 35 which is tied for sixth in school history. Additionally, her six extra-base hits on the weekend brings her career total to 70 which ranks eighth in school history.
