HUSKERS READY FOR TUESDAY MATINEE WITH MINNESOTA

- The Nebraska women's basketball team hopes to keep building momentum as the Huskers play host to Minnesota on Tuesday afternoon in Lincoln. Tip-off between the Big Red (7-4, 5-3 Big Ten) and Golden Gophers (2-7, 1-6 Big Ten) at Pinnacle Bank Arena is set for 3 p.m. (CT).
- The Big Ten Network will provide a live telecast with Larry Punteney and Brenda VanLengen on the call. Live radio will also be available through the Husker Sports Network with Matt Coatney and Jeff Griesch calling the action across the network stations, the Huskers App and on Huskers.com.
- Nebraska is coming off back-to-back wins over AP Top 25 foes, following an impressive 63-55 victory over previously unbeaten and then-No. 15 Ohio State on Saturday at Pinnacle Bank Arena. It followed a 68-64 road win at then-No. 23 Michigan State on Jan. 10.
- Nebraska's Kate Cain produced the most dominant performance of her Husker career against the Buckeyes to earn Big Ten Player-of-the-Week honors (Jan. 18). The 6-5 center from Middletown, N.Y., matched her career high with 22 points to go with 12 rebounds and nine blocks. Cain just missed her second career triple-double, and her nine blocks tied the second-best total in NU history, trailing only her 11 blocks as a freshman in a triple-double effort against Florida Atlantic.
- Cain, a three-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate and a two-time Big Ten All-Defensive pick, ranks No. 2 nationally in career blocks (314) among active Division I players and No. 6 in Big Ten history as Nebraska's school record holder. Her 3.1 blocks per game rank third this season in the NCAA and lead the Big Ten.
- Sam Haiby added her second consecutive double-double with 11 points and a career-high 10 assists against the Buckeyes to go along with eight rebounds. The 5-9 guard from Moorhead, Minn., contributed a double-double with 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in the win at No. 23 Michigan State and leads Nebraska in scoring (16.2 ppg), assists (4.4 apg) and steals (1.3 spg) on the season, while ranking second on the squad in rebounding (7.8 rpg).
- Over the last three games - all against AP Top 25 opponents - Haiby is averaging 16.3 points, 9.7 rebounds and 5.7 assists.
- Nebraska's win over No. 15 Ohio State came despite the absence of sophomore Isabelle Bourne. The 6-2 forward from Canberra, Australia led the Huskers with a game-high 18 points to go along with seven rebounds in the win at No. 23 Michigan State and is averaging 14.0 points and 7.3 rebounds. She missed the Ohio State game after suffering an ankle injury at Michigan State.
- Nebraska's team defensive efforts have been outstanding in recent weeks. The Huskers are 4-1 over the last five contests - all against NET top-36 opponents that entered the game averaging better

Third Season at Minnesota (39-33)

Third Season Overall (39-33)

HUSKER NUGGETS

- Sam Haiby's 33-point effort against Illinois (Dec. 10) marked Nebraska's first 30-point game since Jan. 24, 2016 (Jessica Shepard, 35 at Michigan).
- Haiby's game-winning buzzer-beater in a 65-63 win over No. 15 Northwestern was the ESPN SportsCenter Play of the Day on New Year's Eve.
- Kate Cain has produced the top three individual block totals in NU history the past three seasons (101, 2019-20; 100, 2017-18; 79, 2018-19). She owns a Big Ten-best 34 blocks in 2020-21.
- Nebraska leads the Big Ten with 65 blocks (5.91 bpg) in 2020-21. NU led the Big Ten in blocked shots (6.3 bpg) in 2019-20, while shattering the school record with 188 blocks on the season.
- The Huskers have produced the top three blocked shot totals in school history in each of the last three seasons (188, 2019-20; 163, 2017-18; 156, 2018-19).
- NU's bench outscored opponent reserves in 25 of 30 games in 2019-20. The Husker bench had outscored opposing benches 55 times in 62 games, including double-digit edges 39 times, before entering the Illinois game (Dec. 10) with just eight available players.
- Nebraska had just seven players available at Indiana and Purdue and the Husker bench was outscored 62-9, including 32-0 at Purdue (Dec. 23).
- The bench got a bounce-back game by outscoring No. 15 Northwestern 16-0 (Dec. 31). A two-player Husker bench also outscored No. 15 Ohio State's bench 14-3 (Jan. 16).
- In 2019-20, NU's bench outscored opposing benches 781-479 (26.0-16.0 ppg) an average of 10 points per game. Over the previous two seasons, Nebraska's bench outscored opponent reserves by an average of 28-16 per game.
- Nebraska has hit 10 or more threes 20 times in the last three-plus seasons (102 games), including five times in the last 31 contests. Through the first 20 seasons with the three-point shot in women's basketball (1988-2007), Nebraska hit 10 threes in a game just six times (312 games).

than 80 points per game. None of the opponents (Northwestern, Rutgers, Michigan, Ohio State, Michigan State) scored 65 points against Nebraska and the group averaged just 59.2 points.

- The Huskers held each of the five foes to their lowest point totals of the year. The Big Red limited Ohio State to just 55 points - 35 points below its season average of 90 entering the contest.

- Junior Bella Cravens has been a force as a starter in Big Ten play. The 6-3 forward from Laie, Hawaii, ranks second in the Big Ten in conference play-only with 9.8 rebounds per game to go with 7.3 points per game. She had a career-high-tying 16 rebounds in the win over Illinois. She added 14 huge boards in the win over No. 15 Ohio State. She grabbed 13 boards in the win over Rutgers and had nine points, nine rebounds and three blocks in the win at No. 23 Michigan State.

- Ashley Scoggin has stepped into a major role in her first year as a Husker. The 22-year-old redshirt sophomore has started all 11 games and is averaging 7.5 points while leading NU with 16 made three-pointers (.390). She posted career highs of 16 points against Purdue and Idaho State.

- True Freshmen Whitney Brown and Ruby Porter came up big for the Huskers against No. 15 Ohio State. Porter made her first career start in place of Isabelle Bourne and hit a key three-pointer while adding a career-high five rebounds. Brown, a walk-on from Grand Island, erupted for a career-high 14 points on 4-of-8 three-point shooting in a career-high 28 minutes.

SCOUTING THE MINNESOTA GOLDEN GOPHERS

- Head coach Lindsay Whalen's Minnesota team has struggled early in 2020-21. The Golden Gophers are 2-7 overall with a 72-68 win over Eastern Illinois in their season opener on Dec. 2, before getting an 88-83 overtime win over Wisconsin on Jan. 3.

- Minnesota was handcuffed by an extremely limited roster at the start of fall practice and again at the start of the season due to complications caused by COVID-19 protocols. However, the Gophers have had 13 players see action this season, including four who have played in all nine games.

- Jasmine Powell is the only Gopher to start all nine games. The 5-6 sophomore from Detroit leads Minnesota with 17.3 points, 6.0 assists and 1.7 steals this season while ranking second on the squad with 5.2 rebounds. She also leads Minnesota in field goals made, three-pointers made (24) and free throws made (32), but is also averaging nearly five turnovers per contest. Powell was a member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and an honorable-mention All-Big Ten choice last season.

- Kadi Sissoko has joined Powell in the starting five for eight games, while averaging 12.4 points and a team-best 6.6 rebounds. The redshirt sophomore from Paris, France, who transferred from Syracuse, is tied with Klarke Sconiers, who has also made eight starts, for the team lead with six blocks on the season. Sconiers, a 6-2 center from Queens, N.Y., is averaging 6.0 points and 5.1 rebounds while leading the team in field goal percentage (.529).

- Minnesota's most experienced player is redshirt senior Gadiva Hubbard, who is averaging 10.1 points and 3.1 rebounds while ranking second on the team in assists and steals. Hubbard, who was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick in 2020, owns 1,163 career points.

- Sophomore Sara Scalia has been in and out of the Gopher lineup early in the season. She missed Minnesota's first two contests before starting the next four games. The Big Ten All-Freshman and honorable-mention all-conference choice came off the bench to score a season-high 18 points and play 35 minutes in a loss at Iowa before missing the loss to Penn State (Jan. 10). She played a season-high 36 minutes and scored 14 points in last Sunday's loss to Maryland.

- Laura Bagwell Katalinich, a 6-0 graduate transfer from Cornell, has averaged 7.0 points and made a start for the Gophers. She was a first-team All-Ivy League selection as a junior in 2018-19.

- Alexia Smith, Grace Cumming, Erin Hedman and former Husker Kayla Mershon have all started at least one game for the Gophers. Mershon is averaging 4.4 points and 4.0 rebounds over five games.

- Minnesota has recently been bolstered by the addition of early enrollee Katie Borowicz. The mid-year graduate of Roseau High School in Minnesota, was the No. 98 player and No. 19 point guard in the 2021 class according to ESPN. As a junior, she averaged 31.3 points, 6.8 rebounds, 6.0 assists and 6.2 steals and scored more than 2,000 points in her five-year high school career. She has come off the bench in each of Minnesota's last two games.

- As a team, Minnesota is averaging 67.9 points but surrendering 81.9 points per game. The Gophers carry a minus-1.2 rebound margin and a minus-2.3 turnover margin, while shooting just 37.9 percent from the field and 29.5 percent from three-point range. Opponents are shooting 47.3 percent, including 39.5 percent against the Gophers. The opposition also has hit 79 percent of its free throws.

NEBRASKA VS. MINNESOTA SERIES HISTORY

- Nebraska leads the all-time series with Minnesota 14-10, including back-to-back wins over top-25 Gopher teams in their last two visits to Lincoln. However, the Huskers dropped a 67-61 decision at Minnesota (Jan. 30, 2020) in the last meeting between the schools, snapping a three-game Husker winning streak in the series.

- Kate Cain led Nebraska with 19 points, 15 rebounds and six blocks in last season's win in Lincoln.

- Nebraska owns a 9-5 edge as Big Ten foes.

- Nebraska is 11-3 all-time against Minnesota in Lincoln. The Huskers are 2-7 against Minnesota in Minneapolis and 1-0 against the Gophers in the Big Ten Tournament (March 7, 2014).

- Although women's basketball was not a full varsity sport at Nebraska until 1975-76, a women's team from Nebraska suffered its first defeat at Minnesota in 1904 after going unbeaten between 1897 and 1903. Two weeks after the first meeting with Minnesota, Nebraska beat the same team in Lincoln.

- Minnesota's Laura Coenen scored 42 points for the Gophers in a 90-79 win over the Huskers on Nov. 30, 1984. That effort is tied for the most points by any opponent in a game against the Huskers.

CAIN NAMED LISA LESLIE AWARD CANDIDATE

• Kate Cain was named to the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List for the third consecutive year, when the candidates for the national center-of-the-year honor were announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association on Friday, Nov. 13.

• Cain, a 6-5 center from Middletown, N.Y., and a Nebraska graduate student, has started 102 consecutive games as a Husker. She was the Big Ten Player of the Week (Jan. 18) after nearly producing a triple-double with 22 points, 12 rebounds and nine blocks in a win over No. 15 Ohio State.

• As a junior, Cain earned her second appearance on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team by notching a school-record 101 blocked shots while ranking third in the NCAA in blocks per game. She added 9.3 points and 7.2 rebounds while shooting 53.9 percent from the field and 68.3 percent from the free throw line on her way to earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades.

• Cain led the Big Ten in both blocks (3.6 bpg) and defensive rebounds (6.7 drpg) in conference play, while moving into the Big Ten's all-time top-10 list.

• Nebraska's career blocked shot record holder with 314, Cain owns 14 career double-doubles, including two in 2020-21.

• Cain claimed her first spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team as a freshman in 2017-18 when she posted a then-school record with 100 blocks while averaging 9.9 points and 7.0 rebounds to help the Huskers to the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

• She also was a member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team after being named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week on four occasions. Along the way, she produced the first points-rebounds-blocks triple-double in Husker history with 22 points, 14 rebounds and 11 blocked shots in a win over Florida Atlantic (Dec. 19, 2017).

• Cain, who earned mention on the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List prior to the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons, was recently projected as a middle second-round pick in the 2021 WNBA Draft.

• A CoSIDA Academic All-America candidate, Cain is a two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and Academic All-Big Ten choice who earned her bachelor's degree as a management major in May of 2020, just three years into her Nebraska career.

• The only other December home opener in school history came with an 86-79 win over Arizona State at the Devaney Center on Dec. 1, 1992.

• Nebraska owns a history of season-opening success on the Huskers' home court. NU improved to 44-3 in home season openers with the 90-61 victory over Oral Roberts on Dec. 4, 2020.

• NU is 7-1 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in season openers, including a win over Alabama A&M last year. The lone loss came on Nov. 7, 2018, with an 83-77 loss to Drake. In the first regular-season game in the history of Pinnacle Bank Arena, Nebraska powered its way to a 77-49 win over UCLA on Nov. 8, 2013.

HUSKERS WORKING TO HANDLE CURVEBALLS

• In the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, Nebraska Coach Amy Williams has put part of the focus this season on helping the Huskers expect the unexpected. An avid baseball fan whose basketball family is also a baseball/softball family, Williams likes to refer to the ability to handle the curveball.

• Nebraska's curveballs early in the season have been far more extensive than just dealing with complications to the season caused by the coronavirus.

• Senior guard Taylor Kissinger chose to end her playing career after undergoing hip surgery midway through last season. Kissinger made her announcement Sept. 15.

• Texas Tech transfer Nailah Dillard began experiencing pain in her hip in late summer and was limited during the fall. The sophomore underwent season-ending surgery on Dec. 15, and she will be out for the 2020-21 season.

• Sophomore guard Trinity Brady (Indianapolis) suffered a lower leg injury in the final minute of the win over Idaho State (Dec. 6). Brady did not play against Illinois or Creighton and is listed as day-to-day. Kissinger, Dillard and Brady all played the wing position for Nebraska.

• The curveballs kept coming with a lower leg injury to Ruby Porter in the first half at Creighton (Dec. 14) that knocked her out of the game, forcing the Huskers to finish with just seven players, including four posts and three guards, including preferred walk-on Whitney Brown. Porter also missed Nebraska's losses at No. 15 Indiana (Dec. 20) and at Purdue (Dec. 23).

• Most recently, Nebraska overcame the absence of its second-leading scorer (14.0 ppg) and rebounder (7.3 rpg) Isabelle Bourne to defeat No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16). NU's win over the previously unbeaten Buckeyes came with just seven active players, including walk-on Whitney Brown, who scored a career-high 14 points in Bourne's absence.

• Prior to the recent stretch of injuries, the Huskers had to battle illnesses and injuries that kept multiple players off the practice court in preseason practice.

• All of those challenges mixed together prevented Nebraska from having 10 players fully participating in practice from Oct. 14 to Nov. 29. The first time the Huskers had 10 players on the court together in a full practice setting came on Monday, Nov. 30, just four days ahead of their season opener with Oral Roberts (Dec. 4).

• MiCole Cayton continues to gain strength in her leg and has impressed in practice drills but has not been cleared for full-court practice with contact.

HAIBY CONTINUING GROWTH IN BACKCOURT

• Nebraska's top returning player in scoring (10.0 ppg), assists (3.3 apg) and steals (1.5 spg), Sam Haiby returns for her third season in the program and second year as a starter in 2020-21.

• The junior from Moorhead, Minn., leads the Huskers in scoring (16.2 ppg), assists (4.4 apg) and steals (1.3 spg) while ranking second in rebounding (7.8 rpg) through 11 games this season.

• Haiby was named the College Sports Madness Big Ten Player of the Week (Jan. 4) after leading Nebraska to a pair of wins over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31) and Rutgers (Jan. 3). She averaged 17.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and 5.0 assists in the low-scoring, one-possession wins.

• Her game-winning put-back at the buzzer gave the Huskers a 65-63 win over No. 15 Northwestern and was ESPN SportsCenter's Top Play (Dec. 31), capping a 19-point, eight-rebound, five-assist effort against the previously unbeaten and defending Big Ten champion Wildcats.

• She closed the week with 16 points, five rebounds and five assists in the win over Rutgers, including six straight points to cap a 9-0 Husker run that turned a 44-40 fourth-quarter deficit into a 49-44 lead. Haiby was also instrumental in a Big Red defensive effort that held the Scarlet Knights 36 points below their season scoring average in NU's 53-50 win.

- Her efforts earned her a second spot this season on the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll (Jan. 4) and the fourth of her career.

- Haiby earned a third spot this season on the Weekly Honor Roll (Jan. 11) after recording her first career double-double with 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in a road win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10). She also had 27 points and nine boards in a 64-62 loss at No. 15 Michigan to average 19.0 points, 10.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists for the week.

- She notched her second straight double-double and first points-assists double of her career with 11 points and a career-high 10 assists in the win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16).

- Haiby produced the best performance of her career with a career-high 33 points to go along with nine rebounds, four assists, two steals and a blocked shot in Nebraska's 78-72 Big Ten-opening win over Illinois (Dec. 10). Haiby scored double figures in each of the final three quarters against the Fighting Illini. She had 21 points in the second half and went 11-for-11 at the free throw after halftime on her way to a career-best night at the line (14-16).

- Haiby was named to the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll for the first time this season (Dec. 14), following her effort against Illinois.

- Haiby added a game-high 18 points to go along with eight rebounds at Creighton (Dec. 14).

- She contributed 16 points at Purdue.

- She opened the year with 14 points, eight boards and seven assists in a win over ORU (Dec. 4).

- She followed with six points and 11 rebounds in a win over Idaho State (Dec. 6).

- Haiby had a 2019-20 season-high 28 points on 11-of-19 shooting to power Nebraska to a 90-85 OT win at Missouri (Nov. 10, 2019). She tied a career high with three threes against the Tigers, including the game-tying triple with three seconds left to send the game to OT tied at 76. She scored NU's first eight points and added 18 points after halftime, including two free throws with 13.3 seconds left to seal the win.

- Haiby earned a spot on the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll (Nov. 11, 2019) for averaging 18.0 points in Nebraska's first two games in 2019-20.

- She added her second 20-point game of the year and third of her career with 20 points and a career-high four steals in a win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 14, 2019). She earned her second Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll selection (Dec. 16).

- Haiby has produced double-figure points 40 times as a Husker (9, 2020-21), including five 20-point games. She had 16 double-figure efforts in 2019-20 and 15 as a freshman in 2018-19.

- Haiby finished her freshman season as Nebraska's second-leading scorer with 10.0 points per game while coming off the bench in all 30 contests in 2018-19.

- Haiby scored 20 points at Washington State as a freshman with all 20 coming after halftime.

- She was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week (Feb. 4, 2019) after scoring 17 points against Indiana (Feb. 3, 2019), which followed 13 points in a road win at Purdue (Jan. 31, 2019).

- One of three captains on the 2020-21 Huskers, Isabelle Bourne joins Kate Cain and Sam Haiby as leaders for Nebraska in 2020-21.

- Bourne is off to a strong start to her second season, averaging 14.0 points and 7.3 rebounds. She produced back-to-back double-doubles with 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in a win over Rutgers (Jan. 3) after getting 11 points and a then-career-high 10 boards in a win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31). They were the first two double-doubles of Bourne's career.

BIG RED SIGN TOP 25 RECRUITING CLASS FOR 2021

- Nebraska women's basketball coach Amy Williams received National Letters of Intent from five talented players on Wednesday, Nov. 11, as the Huskers earned a No. 21 national ranking for its incoming class of 2021 from ESPN.

- Nebraska's impressive group includes two players ranked among the top 100 in the ESPN individual rankings, led by the versatile Kendall Coley (No. 49) and Nebraska high school standout Allison Weidner (No. 80) at the national level. Lincoln native Alexis Markowski, who will contend with Weidner for Nebraska's state high school player-of-the-year award in 2021, Illinois prep star Kendall Moriarity and Tatiana Popa fortify a strong five-player class.

- Four members of the Husker class have been ranked among the top 100 in the country by at least one ranking service, and all five have been mentioned among the top 275.

- "This 2021 recruiting class is a special group that has already been building great bonds with each other," Williams said. "We know that they are a group that can make an incredible impact on our program and the goals we have to become Big Ten Champions."

KENDALL COLEY, 6-2, F/G, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. (ST. LOUIS PARK)

- Kendall Coley comes to Nebraska as the top-ranked player among a top 25 recruiting class for the Huskers and Coach Amy Williams. Coley, a 6-2 wing from Minneapolis, Minn., was ranked as one of the top 50 players in the nation by All-Star Girls Report (36), Prospects Nation (39) and ESPN Hoopgurlz (49) in 2021, while adding a No. 52 ranking from Blue Star.

- Coley, who committed to Nebraska in April of 2020, averaged 15.5 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists as a junior at St. Louis Park High School.

- "Kendall is one of the most exciting players in the 2021 class," Williams said. "She is very versatile and can play every position on the court. She is long, athletic and skilled, which is a devastating combination. She is a special talent, and we believe she can make a great impact in the Big Ten Conference."

ALEXIS MARKOWSKI, 6-3, C/F, LINCOLN, NEB. (LINCOLN PIUS X)

• Alexis Markowski joins Allison Weidner as the top high school players in the state of Nebraska in 2021. Markowski, who was a first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State center while leading Lincoln Pius X to the 2020 Class A state title, set school single-season records for points (560) and rebounds (315) before being named the honorary captain of the Class A All-State team. The 6-3 Markowski also tied the Class A tournament scoring record with 80 points over three games, matching Nebraska Athletics Hall of Famer Maurice Ivy's record.

• Markowski was ranked No. 76 in the 2021 class by World Exposure, which also slots international players among its rankings.

• "We are so excited that Alexis is staying home," Williams said. "She had an incredible junior season capped off by a state championship and is poised for a great senior year. All summer she played against some of the best post players in the country and continued to shine. She is a winner who just keeps working to expand her game, and her skills align perfectly with our needs."

KENDALL MORIARITY, 6-1, G, WHEATON, ILL. (BENET ACADEMY)

• The first commit to Nebraska's top-25 recruiting class, Kendall Moriarity announced her decision in November of 2019. Moriarity was ranked among the top 100 players in the country by Prospects Nation (74), All-Star Girls Report (100) and Prep Girls Hoops (100) entering her senior season at Benet Academy in Lisle, Ill. She was also ranked as high as the No. 12 guard prospect in the country by Prospects Nation.

• The 6-1 Moriarity hit 43.1 percent of her three-pointers while also leading Benet Academy in steals and deflections as a junior 2019-20. She led her high school team to a No. 1 ranking in Illinois and a No. 23 team rank nationally at one point as a junior. In 2019, Moriarity was invited to the USA 16U National Team trials, advancing to the top 68.

• "Kendall was our first commit in the 2021 class, and she fits perfectly into all aspects of our program," Williams said. "She is a long, tough, gritty player with great versatility. She is a talented scorer, but her willingness to do all the dirty work on the court is what separates her. She is a great teammate and will lay it on the line for her team to win."

TATIANA POPA, 6-5, C/F, PARKERSBURG, W. VA. (BREWSTER ACADEMY)

• Tatiana Popa comes to Nebraska as a four-star recruit before entering her senior season at Brewster Academy. She closed her junior year at Parkersburg High School in West Virginia. She previously played at IMG Academy and Montverde Academy (2018-19) in Florida. She also competed at Quince Orchard High School in Maryland as a freshman in 2017-18. The 6-5 center/forward was ranked as the No. 263 overall player in the nation by All-Star Girls Report.

• Popa's father, Constantin, was a second-round NBA Draft choice of the Los Angeles Clippers in 1995 after playing basketball collegiately at the University of Miami. He is a member of the Miami Sports Hall of Fame, and played professionally overseas in Israel.

• "Our program is thrilled to be adding this hard-working, talented young lady to our Husker family," Williams said. "She knows how to use her length to her advantage on defense and has expanded her versatility on offense. She is working hard to add strength to her frame and understands the benefits that Husker Power will provide her in that area. The sky is the limit for her growth, and we can't wait to watch it happen here at Nebraska."

ALLISON WEIDNER, 5-10, G, HUMPHREY, NEB. (HUMPHREY ST. FRANCIS)

• Allison Weidner joins Alexis Markowski as two of the top basketball players the state of Nebraska has produced in recent years. Weidner was ranked as the No. 80 player on the ESPN Hoopgurlz Top 100. She was also a first-team Super-State selection and earned first-team Class D2 all-state honors in both basketball and volleyball for the Humphrey St. Francis Flyers as a junior in 2019-20. A member of the Class D2 All-Decade Team, Weidner is also a five-time gold medalist at the Nebraska state track and field meet.

• One of the top multi-sport athletes the state has produced, Weidner led the Cornhusker State in both assists and steals as a sophomore in 2018-19. As a junior, she averaged 25.2 points, 6.1 rebounds, 6.5 assists and a whopping 7.3 steals per game to power St. Francis to a Class D2 state runner-up finish.

• "We cannot wait to add Allison to our Husker program," Williams said. "She is a crafty point guard who can score at all three levels and is very good in the open court. She has great court vision and makes those around her better. She is a Nebraska native who possesses the values and character we look for in a Husker."

NEBRASKA'S HISTORY OF HOME SUCCESS

The Big Red went 16-2 at home in 2013-14, suffering their only Big Ten loss to Purdue, 77-75, on Jan. 19, 2014. NU's 16 home wins in 2013-14 tied the school record for single-season home victories.

• The Huskers played the first regular-season game in arena history against USA Today No. 25 UCLA (Nov. 8, 2013) and rolled to a 77-49 win over the Bruins. NU's first win over an AP Top 25 team came with a 76-56 win over No. 24 Michigan State on Feb. 8, 2014. The Huskers added their first-ever win over an AP Top 10 team at the arena with a 94-74 victory over No. 8 Penn State on Feb. 24, 2014.

- NU won its first-ever Big Ten home game at Pinnacle Bank Arena with a 66-65 thriller over Northwestern Jan. 2, 2014, before an 88-85 win over Minnesota on Jan. 16, 2014, marked the first overtime game.

- NU suffered its first loss at the arena to Washington State (76-72) on Nov. 30, 2013.

- The Huskers are 44-3 all-time in home season openers, following a 90-51 win over Oral Roberts on Dec. 4, 2020. Nebraska had its streak of 12 consecutive season-opening wins snapped with an 83-77 loss to Missouri Valley Conference champion Drake on Nov. 7, 2018.

- The Huskers are 476-164 (.744) all-time at home. The Huskers have gone 212-68 (.757) over the last 18 seasons (including 2020-21), posting double-figure home victory totals 15 times.

- Nebraska played in the Devaney Center from 1976-77 through 2012-13, and added one appearance at Devaney against Utah on Nov. 23, 2014. The Huskers own a 389-130 record at the Devaney Center, including 146-88 (.624) mark in conference play.

KISSINGER ENDS PLAYING CAREER WITH INJURY

- Nebraska guard Taylor Kissinger announced the end of her collegiate playing career on Tuesday, Sept. 15. The 6-1 shooter from Minden, Neb., redshirted because of a hip injury as a junior in 2019-20. Kissinger underwent season-ending surgery on Jan. 3, 2020, after appearing in five games with the Big Red during the fall of 2019.

- Kissinger appeared in 60 games with 31 starts over two-plus seasons with the Huskers. She averaged 10.0 points and 4.1 rebounds while appearing in 25 games with seven starts as a true freshman in 2017-18. She helped the Huskers produce the biggest turnaround in the nation and advance to the 2018 NCAA Tournament, despite missing six games in midseason with a knee injury. She also suffered an upper body sprain late in 2017-18 that limited her contributions at the end of the season.

- She produced her most consistent season as a sophomore, playing in all 30 games with 24 starts in 2018-19, while averaging 8.9 points and 3.2 rebounds. She tied the Nebraska single-season record by hitting 45.6 percent (62-136) of her three-point attempts and connected on 88.2 percent (30-34) of her free throws.

- Kissinger missed four games in the concussion protocol early last season, but returned to tie a career high with six threes and a team-high 19 points in a win over Duke (Dec. 4) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. A hip injury kept her out the rest of the season after a game with Oral Roberts (Dec. 14).

- Kissinger finished her career with 559 points, 214 rebounds, 78 assists and 36 steals. Her career .404 (122-302) three-point percentage is the best mark in Nebraska women's basketball history.

NEBRASKA POSTS 16TH STRAIGHT PERFECT GSR

In the eyes of the NCAA's Division I Graduation Success Rate (GSR), the Husker women's basketball program has been perfect for 16 consecutive years. Nebraska is the only program among the 14 Big Ten Conference schools to accomplish the perfect score for 16 straight seasons.

The NCAA announced the release of its annual Graduation Success Rate report Nov. 17, 2020, and Nebraska was a national leader in women's basketball for the 16th straight season, dating back to the initial public tracking of the GSR since 2004-05.

The Nebraska women's basketball program joins the Husker women's tennis and volleyball programs as Husker teams that have produced perfect 100 percent rates each of the last 16 years.

Nebraska was one of just 28 teams in the 64-team field of the 2018 NCAA Tournament to also boast a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate.

Overall, the Nebraska Athletic Department produced a record-high GSR for the eighth consecutive year, reaching 94 percent. Nebraska's GSR ranked No. 2 among the 14 Big Ten Conference programs. A total of 13 Husker programs recorded perfect 100 percent GSR scores, including men's and women's basketball, volleyball, softball, soccer, men's and women's gymnastics, swimming and diving, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and rifle.

Game Highlights: Sam Haiby's put-back of her own missed layup attempt as time expired lifted Nebraska to a 65-63 upset of No. 15 Northwestern on New Year's Eve at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Haiby's buzzer-beater banked high off the glass and found the net after she flung it skyward with her back to the basket. The shot was ESPN Sport Center's Top Play and gave Nebraska its first win over a top-15 team since beating No. 9 Duke, 60-54, in Lincoln on Dec. 3, 2014. Haiby finished with 19 points, eight rebounds and five assists, while Isabelle Bourne added her first career double-double with 11 points and 10 boards. Nebraska overcame a minus-17 turnover margin with a plus-12 rebound margin and outscored the defending Big Ten champion Wildcats 18-12 in second-chance points. Although the Huskers only had eight players available, Nebraska's three freshmen reserves combined to outscore the Northwestern bench 16-0. Annika Stewart led Nebraska's bench with seven second-half points, while Whitney Brown hit back-to-back threes in a 32-second span midway through the second quarter to turn a 34-28 deficit into a tie game. Nebraska's defense frustrated the Cats throughout the game and held Northwestern without a field goal for the first 9:51 of the second half. Kate Cain had nine defensive rebounds and blocked four shots to become just the sixth player in Big Ten history to record 300 career blocks.

The Rutgers star entered the contest averaging nearly 25 points per game but managed just eight points on 3-of-24 shooting against the Big Red. Ashley Scoggin added 11 points, all in the second half, including a trio of huge three-pointers. Scoggin also sealed the win by sinking a pair of free throws with 12.3 seconds left. Nebraska closed defensive possessions by winning the rebound battle with Rutgers, 46-34. Bella Cravens led the Huskers on the glass with 13 rebounds, while Kate Cain added seven boards and a pair of blocked shots. Nebraska took a 24-23 lead to halftime, then built a nine-point lead midway through the third quarter after three straight three-pointers from Scoggin and Whitney Brown. But Rutgers rallied to take a 40-39 lead to the fourth quarter and built the margin to 44-40, before Scoggin nailed a three and Haiby scored six straight points to fuel a decisive 9-0 Husker run midway through the fourth quarter.

Sam Haiby led Nebraska with 27 points and nine rebounds in an outstanding all-around effort. Kate Cain added 12 points and six boards, while Bella Cravens pitched in 10 points and six rebounds. With the Huskers trailing 60-49 in the fourth, Isabelle Bourne ignited a 9-0 run with a three-pointer and a short jumper. Michigan got a put-back from Naz Hillmon with 38 seconds left to extend the lead, before Haiby's layup cut the gap to 62-60 with 15 seconds left. Nebraska had to commit five quick fouls to send Akiemrah Johnson to the line with nine seconds left. She made both free throws, but Cain kept NU alive with a layup with 2.7 seconds left. Whitney Brown then deflected the Michigan inbounds pass in the front court. Bella Cravens grabbed the loose ball and heaved a half-court shot that would have counted, but it did not draw iron. Hillmon produced one of the best individual efforts by an opponent in Husker history with 35 points and 22 rebounds, including 13 offensive boards. Michigan tied an opponent record with 30 offensive rebounds in the game.
