NOTES & NEWS

TRIPLE DOUBLE: Arella Guirantes became just the third player in Rutgers history to record a triple-double with 17 points, 10 rebounds and a career-high 11 assists in the win over Manhattan on Dec. 23. It was the first since Khadijah Rushdan in 2011 and just the sixth triple-double performance in the Rutgers record books - Hall of Famer Tasha Pointer recorded four. It was the fifth triple-double across the country this season, and the third in the Big Ten. Guirantes earned a second consecutive and fourth career Big Ten Player of the Week honor following the triple-double.

WATCH OUT: Redshirt senior guard Arella Guirantes, the returning Big Ten scoring champion, was selected the Big Ten Coaches Preseason Co-Player of the Year and was unanimously voted to the Preseason All-Big Ten Team by the coaches and media. She is on four national watch lists: the Wooden Award for Most Outstanding Player, the Naismith Trophy and Wade Trophy for National Player of the Year, and the Meyers Award for the top shooting guard.

RANKS: 11th in national scoring (24.6ppg), Top 5 in Big Ten in scoring, assists, blocks & steals

SHINE ON: True freshman Diamond Johnson, the No. 6 overall recruit in the nation according to ESPN, is one of 20 named to the Nancy Lieberman watch list for the country's top point guard. The Neumann Goretti product earned Rutgers' first ever Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor on Dec. 21 with 16.7 points and 4.7 rebounds per game during a 2-1 week. Johnson has scored in double-figures in all six of her games, including 21, 23 and 18 in the most recent three games.

THOU SHALL STEAL: Rutgers leads the country with 16.1 steals per game and is fourth in the nation in turnover margin at 9.4 through seven games. RU's 22 steals at Wisconsin were its most in a game since 23 against FDU in 2017 and the most in a conference game since 22 against Penn State in 2015.

THAT'S OFFENSIVE: Rutgers has scored 80 or more points in five consecutive games for the first time in the C. Vivian Stringer era "On the Banks" - the first time since the 1990-91 season. The Scarlet Knights rank eighth in the nation in scoring margin through seven games at +28.6, scoring 85.7 points per game (15th in the nation).

F.A.M.I.L.Y.: RU has had at least four players score in double-figures in six consecutive games. In a complete team victory over Hampton on Dec. 18 (94-45), all 10 players who checked into the game scored at least one basket. RU passed out 25 assists, its most in a game in three years.

WELCOME TO THE B1G: Rutgers is one of the youngest teams in the nation with eight newcomers and 71 percent of the roster starting the season with two years experience or less in Division I. RU is one of just 32 teams across the nation with 10 or more players on the roster with two years experience or less.

IN THE POLLS: Rutgers began the season receiving votes in both national polls: 1 point in the AP media poll and 7 points in the coaches poll. RU is up to 6 points this week in the AP and 7 points in the coaches poll.

GETTING OFFENSIVE

Rutgers is producing its highest scoring average during C. Vivian Stringer's 26-year tenure "On the Banks." The five next highest scoring averages are all from NCAA Tournament teams, including the Elite Eight squad from 1999 and the Sweet 16 group from 1998.

WINNING AS A TEAM

Rutgers put together five consecutive games with four or more players scoring in double-figures from Dec. 11-23.

In Rutgers' five victories, four players (Arella Guirantes, Diamond Johnson, Zipporah Broughton and Tekia Mack) are averaging double-digit points, while seven different players average 6.0 points or more.

RU handed out 25 assists in the win against Hampton, the most in a game since 25 vs. FDU on Dec. 20, 2017.

All 10 players entering the Hampton victory scored at least one bucket.

FREE RECORDS

Arella Guirantes set a Rutgers record with 171 made free throws last season, surpassing the 155 by RU Hall of Famer Sue Wicks during her National Player of the Year season in 1987-88.

In the Big Ten Tournament, Guirantes set a single-game tournament record with 15 free throws made, topping the old mark of 14 by Ohio State's Jessica Davenport against Indiana on March 2, 2007.

Guirantes' 15-of-16 free throw mark in that game (94.8%) ranks 10th all-time in the Big Ten Tournament record book for free throw percentage in a game, and is the best free throw performance since 2016 at the championship tournament. This came eight days after she set a Rutgers record with 14 makes without a miss on Feb. 27 in a win over Wisconsin at the RAC. The 15 made free throws tie a Rutgers overall record for a single game (most since Monique Oliver's 15 in 2010, also tying Regina Howard from 1987).

ANOTHER B1G MILESTONE FOR STRINGER

Head coach C. Vivian Stringer became the first Big Ten women's basketball coach to record 200 wins in conference play in the Scarlet Knights' 45-41 win over Northwestern on Dec. 28.

She currently owns a 224-97 record in regular season Big Ten contests, which includes 169 victories while at Iowa from 1983-95 and 55 at Rutgers.

Stringer is the seventh overall basketball coach in Big Ten history to reach the milestone joining:

- Bob Knight, Indiana (1972-2000)
- Tom Izzo, Michigan State (1995-present)
- Gene Keady, Purdue (1981-2005)
- Ward Lambert, Purdue (1917; 1919-45)
- Lou Henson, Illinois (1976-96)
- C. Vivian Stringer, Iowa (1983-95)/ Rutgers (2014-present)
- Branch McCracken, Indiana (1939-43; 1947-65)

STRINGER MILESTONE NUMBERS TO REMEMBER

Rutgers head coach Stringer has compiled a 1046-423 career record in her 50 seasons of coaching and joined the elite 1,000 career victory club on November 13, 2018 in the Scarlet Knight victory over Central Connecticut State.

Stringer is the sixth NCAA women's basketball coach and fifth NCAA Division I women's basketball coach to reach the milestone victory. In 2013, Stringer became just the seventh coach - men's or women's - to reach the 900-win mark.

With a 60-54 win over Minnesota on Feb. 28, 2019, Stringer was credited with her 36th 20-win seasons to tie former Tennessee head coach Pat Summitt for women's basketball coaches with the most 20-win seasons.

A 63-48 victory over Wisconsin on Feb. 27, 2020 clinched Stringer's 37th 20-win season, breaking the tie with Pat Summitt and setting the new NCAA record.

The Naismith and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Coach is the third winningest active coach in women's basketball and one of three current active coaches among all divisions with more than 1,000 career victories. She is fifth all-time in career wins among women's basketball coaches.

C. VIVIAN STRINGER

Head Coach • 26th Season at Rutgers, 50th Season Overall

One of the most recognizable names in all of college basketball, C. Vivian Stringer – mother, teacher, coach - has built an illustrious legacy highlighted by countless unforgettable moments through a tireless work ethic and desire for excellence. A pioneer, visionary and leader during her four decades of success on the hardwood, Stringer once again made history as she eclipsed the monumental 1,000 career victory milestone during the 2018-19 campaign, further adding to her legacy as one of the most influential faces in basketball. In 2019-20, she surpassed the late, great Pat Summitt and became the NCAA record holder with 37 seasons of 20 or more victories.

With 49 seasons on the sidelines, Stringer has been the primary architect in transforming three programs into national title contenders ever since her appearance in the first-ever NCAA National Championship game. She has guided teams to 27 of the 38 NCAA Tournaments, including 10 straight from 2003 to 2012 and not including the presumed inclusion in the cancelled 2020 tournament.

The first coach in men's or women's basketball history to take three different schools to the Final Four (Cheyney in 1982, Iowa in 1993 and Rutgers, in 2000 and again in 2007), Stringer has been a pioneer, visionary and leader during her four decades of success on the hardwood.

Stringer has compiled an overall record of 1041-421, which ranks fifth all-time among NCAA women's basketball coaching victories, and was the fifth coach in NCAA Division I women's basketball history to surpass the 1,000 career win milestone.

While at Rutgers for the last 25 seasons, Stringer has registered 521-286 mark having led the Scarlet Knights to 17 NCAA Tournaments, including two Final Four appearances, as well as the WNIT Championship title in 2014.

Stringer was enshrined into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in arguably the best class ever in 2009. She joined fellow basketball greats Michael Jordan, David Robinson, John Stockton and Jerry Sloan to receive basketball's ultimate honor. She became just the 11th women's coach to earn the prestigious prize.

A 2001 inductee into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, Stringer made her sixth appearance on a USA Basketball coaching staff in 2004, serving as an assistant coach for the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic Team. Named one of the "101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports" by Sports Illustrated in 2003, Stringer continues to be one of the most recognized coaches in the game.

A coal miner's daughter, Stringer learned a valuable lesson from her parents growing up in the small tight-knit community of Edenborn in western Pennsylvania: "Work hard and don't look for excuses, and you can achieve anything."

That lesson has stuck with the legendary college basketball coach and has been one of the primary messages she has passed on to the hundreds of players who have stood before her. It's been her perseverance and strength in the eyes of adversity that has meant the most to the people around her. Stringer prides herself on not only teaching her players the game of basketball but more importantly providing them life lessons that stand the test of time.

Stringer has overcome many challenges in her life; the loss of her beloved father at the tender age of 19; in 1982, her only daughter being stricken with spinal meningitis just prior to her Cheyney team's appearance in the very first Final Four; the sudden death of her beloved husband, Bill, to a heart attack on Thanksgiving Day 1992 and a bout with breast cancer which she kept a secret from nearly everyone in her life. Through it all, Stringer has handled life with dignity and grace rising above the tragedies to make a difference in the lives of hundreds of young women.

Stringer was at a loss for words before she was to give her Naismith enshrinement speech on Sept. 11. After all, her career extended over four decades of work and involved countless players and coaches who touched her life. Overcome with emotion and fighting back tears, Stringer delivered one of the most eloquent speeches, sharing with the crowd and a national audience on ESPN how her desire to coach was fueled early in her life.

In a moment where she was being heralded for her lifetime of accomplishments, Stringer saw it as an opportunity to say thank you to people who had given her as much as she had given them. "I celebrate, you my players. It is because of your hard work, passion, execution of the game plans and commitment to one another that I am here tonight," Stringer said during the ceremony.

In addition to Naismith, Stringer is also a member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Enshrined on June 9, 2001, in Knoxville, Tenn., the honor truly showed Stringer's mark on the game in regards to equality, innovation and growth.

Stringer has been named the National Coach of the Year three times (Wade Trophy -- 1982, Converse -- 1988 and Naismith -- 1993) by her peers. She also was named the 1993 Coach of the Year by Sports Illustrated, USA Today, Converse, the Los Angeles Times and the Black Coaches Association.

In addition, she was tabbed the 2000 Female Coach of the Year by the Rainbow/PUSH Organization, a group founded by Rev. Jesse Jackson; the District V Coach of the Year in 1985, 1988 and 1993; the District I Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2006; the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 1991 and 1993; the

GAME 8: RUTGERS @ NEBRASKA /// SUNDAY, JANUARY 3, 2021

BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2005; and a six-time Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Coach of the Year (1998-00, 2005-06 and 2008).

One of her most personally-gratifying accolades was receiving the 1993 Carol Eckman Award, which acknowledges the coach demonstrating spirit, courage, integrity, commitment, leadership and service to the game of women's basketball.

A finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award seven times, Stringer was humbled when the U.S. Sports Academy decided to name its annual women's coaching award in her honor. The C. Vivian Stringer Medallion Award of Sport for Women's Coaching was handed out for the first time in July of 2002.

Stringer has also been inducted into numerous Halls of Fame, including the New Jersey Hall of Fame and the Sport in Society Hall of Fame in 2005, and in 2006 she entered the University of Iowa Athletics Hall of Fame. Also in 2006, Stringer was inducted into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame at the Women's Sports Foundation's Annual Salute to Women.

One of her most memorable events and honors in Stringer's life took place in September 2008 in Beaverton, Ore., when Nike named its second child development center after Stringer. The 35,000 square foot facility, houses 26 classrooms which provide care, learning and development for nearly 300 children between the ages of six months and five years old.

Additionally, in 2013, the Black Coaches Association named its annual Coach of the Year honor after Stringer.

Along with her well documented collegiate experience, Stringer has also successfully tested herself in the international arena. An assistant coach for the gold-medal 2004 U.S. Olympic Team, her first USA Basketball experience came as an assistant for the bronze-medal 1980 USA Jones Cup Team.

Stringer has had extensive head-coaching experience in the national program, leading the 1982 U.S. Olympic Festival East Team to a bronze medal and the 1984 U.S. World University Games Team (Kobe, Japan) to a silver.

Stringer also guided the 1989 U.S. World Championship Qualifying Team (Sao Paulo, Brazil) to a gold and a qualification for the following year's FIBA World Championship, as well as a bronze medal showing for the 1991 Pan American Games Team (Havana, Cuba).

A noted administrator, Stringer was one of the key players in the development of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. Stringer serves on the Board of Directors of the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund, created in the fall of 2007. The Foundation, in partnership with the V Foundation for Cancer Research, is an initiative to fight breast cancer. She also serves on the U.S. Department of State's Council to Empower Women and Girls Through Sports.

A native of Edenborn, Pa., and a member of the Alumni Hall of Fame at her alma mater, Slippery Rock University, Stringer and the late William D. Stringer have three children -- David, Janine and Justin.

Stringer became a first-time grandmother in June 2009 with the addition of granddaughter, Dayton, and welcomed her first grandson, Ryker, in the summer of 2013.
