HUSKERS TO BATTLE BADGERS THURSDAY IN LINCOLN

• The Nebraska women's basketball team shoots for a Big Ten home win on Thursday night, when the Huskers clash with Wisconsin. Tip-off between the Big Red (8-5, 6-4 Big Ten) and the Badgers (3-10, 0-10 Big Ten) is set for 7 p.m. (CT) at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

• Live video will be provided to subscribers of Big Ten Network Plus with the Husker Sports Network call of Matt Coatney and Jeff Griesch describing the action on both the video and across the radio network stations, the Huskers App and on Huskers.com.

• Nebraska takes aim at its second Big Ten win of the week and seventh conference win of the year after fighting its way to a 57-53 victory at Illinois Monday night. Husker junior guard Sam Haiby continued her strong push for All-Big Ten honors by scoring 12 of her game-high 22 points in the fourth quarter. Haiby's heroics included a steal in the closing seconds with the Huskers clinging to a 55-53 lead. She sank two free throws with 5.7 seconds left to give NU its second straight road win.

• Haiby, a 5-9 guard from Moorhead, Minn., leads Nebraska in scoring (17.3 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg), assists (4.2 apg) and steals (1.2 spg). She earned her fourth appearance on the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll (Jan. 25) and has put up back-to-back double-doubles in her last two games at Pinnacle Bank Arena, including 25 points and 12 rebounds against Minnesota (Jan. 19).

• Ruby Porter, a 5-10 freshman from Adelaide, Australia, added a career-high 11 points and tied a career best with three three-pointers at Illinois. She made her third straight start in place of injured sophomore Isabelle Bourne (Canberra, Australia). Bourne was Nebraska's second-leading scorer (14.0 ppg) and rebounder (7.3 ppg) until suffering an ankle injury in the closing seconds of Nebraska's win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10).

• Freshman Annika Stewart pumped in 12 points at Illinois including a career-high three threes. The 6-3 forward from Minneapolis, Minn., hit back-to-back threes in a one-minute span midway through the fourth quarter to shoot Nebraska to the lead for good against the Illini.

• Kate Cain joined the list for another national award on Jan. 26 when she was included among 15 players on the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year Watch List. Cain, a 6-5 center from Middletown, N.Y., leads the Big Ten with 3.1 blocks per game. She ranks sixth in Big Ten history with a Nebraska record 320 career blocks, including a Big Ten-best and school-record 101 blocks last season. A three-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate, Cain nearly produced a triple-double with 22 points, 12 rebounds and nine blocks in NU's upset of No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16). A two-time Big Ten All-Defensive pick (2018, 2020), Cain ranks No. 2 among active NCAA Division I players in career blocks.

Fifth Season at Wisconsin (48-90)

Ninth Season Overall (140-128)

HUSKER NUGGETS

- Sam Haiby's 33-point effort against Illinois (Dec. 10) marked Nebraska's first 30-point game since Jan. 24, 2016 (Jessica Shepard, 35 at Michigan).
- Haiby's game-winning buzzer-beater in a 65-63 win over No. 15 Northwestern was the ESPN SportsCenter Play of the Day on New Year's Eve.
- Kate Cain has produced the top three individual block totals in NU history the past three seasons (101, 2019-20; 100, 2017-18; 79, 2018-19). She owns a Big Ten-best 40 blocks in 2020-21.
- Nebraska leads the Big Ten with 78 blocks (6.0 bpg) in 2020-21. NU led the Big Ten in blocked shots (6.3 bpg) in 2019-20, while shattering the school record with 188 blocks on the season.
- The Huskers have produced the top three blocked shot totals in school history in each of the last three seasons (188, 2019-20; 163, 2017-18; 156, 2018-19).
- NU's bench outscored opponent reserves in 25 of 30 games in 2019-20. The Husker bench had outscored opposing benches 55 times in 62 games, including double-digit edges 39 times, before entering the Illinois game (Dec. 10) with just eight available players.
- Nebraska had just seven players available at Indiana and Purdue and the Husker bench was outscored 62-9, including 32-0 at Purdue (Dec. 23).
- The bench got a bounce-back game by outscoring No. 15 Northwestern 16-0 (Dec. 31). A two-player Husker bench also outscored No. 15 Ohio State's bench 14-3 (Jan. 16).
- In 2019-20, NU's bench outscored opposing benches 781-479 (26.0-16.0 ppg) an average of 10 points per game. Over the previous two seasons, Nebraska's bench outscored opponent reserves by an average of 28-16 per game.
- Nebraska has hit 10 or more threes 20 times in the last three-plus seasons (104 games), including five times in the last 33 contests. Through the first 20 seasons with the three-point shot in women's basketball (1988-2007), Nebraska hit 10 threes in a game just six times (312 games).

SCOUTING THE WISCONSIN BADGERS

• Head coach Jonathan Tsipis brings his fifth Wisconsin team into Thursday's game after a 94-62 loss to Michigan State on Sunday. It followed a 56-55 last-second loss at Purdue last Thursday. The Badgers slipped to 3-10 overall and 0-10 in the Big Ten.

• Last season, Wisconsin finished with a 12-19 overall record that included a 3-15 Big Ten mark. The Badgers have not had a winning season in women's basketball since 2010-11 (18-15).

• Junior Imani Lewis provides a strong presence inside for the Badgers. The 6-1 forward is averaging 13.1 points and a team-leading 8.1 rebounds per game. Lewis was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten choice as a sophomore. Last season, Lewis notched a double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds in a 65-50 loss in Lincoln, before getting 21 points and six boards in a 72-71 loss in Madison.

• Sydney Hilliard, who made an immediate impact as a freshman, has taken over the role as Wisconsin's leading scorer. The 5-11 guard is averaging 17.0 points, 5.7 rebounds and a team-leading 4.8 assists. Hilliard is shooting better than 50 percent from the field, including 45.5 percent (5-11) from three-point range.

• Fellow sophomore Julie Pospisilova has joined the starting lineup this season and is averaging 9.2 points and 3.5 rebounds. The 6-0 guard leads the Badgers from long range, knocking down 24-of-54 three-point attempts (.444). She also ranks second on the squad with 3.4 assists per game while leading Wisconsin in both blocks (17) and steals (20).

• A third sophomore, Sara Stapleton, provides size inside. The 6-3 forward/center is averaging 6.4 points and 3.7 rebounds. Stapleton has started all 13 contests but is averaging just 17.8 minutes per game while leading Wisconsin with 38 personal fouls.

• Senior Estella Moschkau, a Stanford transfer, rounds out a starting five that has been consistent for all 13 games for Wisconsin. Moschkau is averaging 6.2 points and 3.2 rebounds, but is shooting just 30.5 percent from the field and 23.2 percent (13-56) from three-point range. However, she has hit 94.4 percent (17-18) of her free throws.

• Redshirt junior Alex Luehring (3.4 ppg) offers experience off the bench, while sophomore Tara Stauffacher (2.9 ppg) is also a proven performer. True freshmen Halle Douglass (3.1 ppg), Kate Thompson (3.0 ppg) and Brooke Schramek (2.8 ppg) also have been regular contributors this season.

• As a team, Wisconsin is averaging 65.2 points per game while shooting 41.5 percent from the field, including 32.2 percent from three-point range. The Badgers have been solid at the free throw line (.728). Wisconsin carries a minus-2.9 rebounding margin and a minus-5.5 team turnover margin, which ranks last in the Big Ten. Those disparities have allowed the opposition to attempt 120 more field goals, including 102 more three-pointers than the Badgers.

• On defense, the Badgers have struggled to hold teams in check consistently, allowing 76.5 points per game. Opponents have hit 34 more three-pointers and 19 more free throws than the Badgers.

NEBRASKA VS. WISCONSIN SERIES HISTORY

• Nebraska leads the all-time series with Wisconsin, 11-7, including a season sweep of the Badgers in 2019-20. The Huskers rolled to a 65-50 win at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Jan. 9) before escaping from Madison with a 72-71 win (Jan. 25) in 2020.

• In 2018-19, the Badgers defeated Nebraska, 70-69, on a Kelly Karlis buzzer-beating three-pointer in the corner in Madison (Jan. 27, 2019).

• The Huskers are 11-2 against the Badgers as Big Ten Conference opponents, including 6-0 in Lincoln and 4-0 at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Nebraska is 5-2 against Wisconsin at the Kohl Center. Nebraska's first three wins at the Kohl Center were by a combined nine points, including a 71-70 OT win on Feb. 5, 2014, a 55-53 win on Feb. 28, 2013, and a 75-69 win on Jan. 12, 2012 - the first meeting between the schools as Big Ten foes.

• Wisconsin won the first five meetings between the two schools as non-conference opponents, including a pair of overtime victories at the Devaney Center in Lincoln and three wins in Madison. All five of the non-conference meetings between the schools were decided by 10 or fewer points.

• 13 of 18 meetings in the series have been decided by 10 or fewer points, including three overtime games.

CAIN CANDIDATE FOR NAISMITH DEFENSIVE HONOR

• Nebraska center Kate Cain was one of just 15 women's basketball players across the country to be named to the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year Watch List when it was announced on Tuesday, Jan. 26 by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

• Cain, a 6-5 center from Middletown, N.Y., is a three-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate who is a two-time Big Ten All-Defensive selection. Nebraska's school record holder with 320 blocked shots, Cain's massive block total ranks No. 6 in Big Ten history. She also ranks No. 2 nationally in career blocks among active NCAA Division I players.

• Cain joins Big Ten guards Veronica Burton (Northwestern) and Arella Guirantes (Rutgers) on the 15-player watch list. Cain and Burton were on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team in 2020.

HUSKERS SET VALENTINE'S DATE WITH TERPS ON FS1

• The Nebraska women's basketball team's game with Maryland at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Sunday, Feb. 14 will tip at 4 p.m. (CT) with live national television coverage by FS1.

• The Valentine's Day showdown between Nebraska (8-5, 6-4 Big Ten) and the No. 7 Terrapins (11-2, 7-1 Big Ten) will mark the Huskers' ninth televised game of the season, including their first of the year on FS1.

• NU has made seven Big Ten Network appearances, including its 57-53 win at Illinois Monday.

CAIN NAMED LISA LESLIE AWARD CANDIDATE

- Kate Cain was named to the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List for the third consecutive year, when the candidates for the national center-of-the-year honor were announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the Women’s Basketball Coaches Association on Friday, Nov. 13.
- Cain, a 6-5 center from Middletown, N.Y., and a Nebraska graduate student, has started 104 consecutive games as a Husker. She was the Big Ten Player of the Week (Jan. 18) after nearly producing a triple-double with 22 points, 12 rebounds and nine blocks in a win over No. 15 Ohio State.
- As a junior, Cain earned her second appearance on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team by notching a school-record 101 blocked shots while ranking third in the NCAA in blocks per game. She added 9.3 points and 7.2 rebounds while shooting 53.9 percent from the field and 68.3 percent from the free throw line on her way to earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades.
- Cain led the Big Ten in both blocks (3.6 bpg) and defensive rebounds (6.7 drpg) in conference play, while moving into the Big Ten’s all-time top-10 list.
- Nebraska’s career blocked shot record holder with 320, Cain owns 14 career double-doubles, including two in 2020-21.
- Cain claimed her first spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team as a freshman in 2017-18 when she posted a then-school record with 100 blocks while averaging 9.9 points and 7.0 rebounds to help the Huskers to the 2018 NCAA Tournament.
- She also a member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team after being named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week four times. Along the way, she recorded the first points-rebounds-blocks triple-double in NU history with 22 points, 14 rebounds and 11 blocks in a win over Florida Atlantic (Dec. 19, 2017).
- Cain, who earned mention on the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List prior to the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons, has been projected as a middle second-round pick in the 2021 WNBA Draft.
- A CoSIDA Academic All-America candidate, Cain is a two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and Academic All-Big Ten choice who earned her bachelor’s degree as a management major in May of 2020, just three years into her Nebraska career.

Chuck Love, Assistant Tandem Mays, Head Coach
Amy Williams, Assistant Tom Goehle.HAIBY HUNTING ALL-BIG TEN HONORS FOR HUSKERS

• Sam Haiby is contending for All-Big Ten honors as Nebraska's leader in scoring (17.3 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg), assists (4.2 apg) and steals (1.2 spg) through 13 games.

• She owns four 20-point scoring performances this season, including a career-high 33 points in a Big Ten-opening win over Illinois (Dec. 10). She added 22 points in a win over the Illini (Jan. 25) and put up 25 points in her last appearance at Pinnacle Bank Arena against Minnesota (Jan. 19).

• Haiby also notched the first three double-doubles of her career in consecutive games against No. 23 Michigan State (11 points, 12 rebounds, Jan. 10), No. 15 Ohio State (11 points, 10 assists, Jan. 16) and Minnesota (25 points, 12 rebounds).

• Haiby has made (74) and attempted (95) more free throws through 13 games this season than through 30 games as a starter last year (62-81). She also has more offensive rebounds (30) than she had all last year (28).

• Haiby has earned four spots on the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll (Dec. 14, Jan. 4, Jan. 11, Jan. 25) and was the College Sports Madness Big Ten Player of the Week (Jan. 4) after leading Nebraska to a pair of wins over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31) and Rutgers (Jan. 3). She averaged 17.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and 5.0 assists in those two low-scoring, one-possession wins for the Huskers.

• Her game-winning put-back at the buzzer gave the Huskers a 65-63 win over No. 15 Northwestern and was ESPN SportsCenter's Top Play (Dec. 31), capping a 19-point, eight-rebound, five-assist effort against the previously unbeaten and defending Big Ten champion Wildcats.

• She added 16 points, five rebounds and five assists in the win over Rutgers, including six straight points to cap a 9-0 Husker run that turned a 44-40 fourth-quarter deficit into a 49-44 lead. Haiby was also instrumental in a Big Red defensive effort that held the Scarlet Knights 36 points below their season scoring average in NU's 53-50 win.

• In a 64-62 road loss at then-No. 15 Michigan (Jan. 7), Haiby had 27 points and nine rebounds, as Nebraska came within a missed half-court shot at the buzzer against the unbeaten Wolverines.

• Haiby also had a game-high 18 points to go along with eight rebounds at Creighton (Dec. 14).

• She contributed 16 points at Purdue and opened the year with 14 points, eight boards and seven assists in a win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 4).

• Haiby had a 2019-20 season-high 28 points on 11-of-19 shooting to power Nebraska to a 90-85 OT win at Missouri (Nov. 10, 2019). She tied a career high with three threes against the Tigers, including the game-tying triple with three seconds left to send the game to OT tied at 76. She scored NU's first eight points and added 18 points after halftime, including two free throws with 13.3 seconds left to seal the win.

• Haiby earned a spot on the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll (Nov. 11, 2019) after averaging 18.0 points in Nebraska's first two games in 2019-20.

• She added her second 20-point game of the year and third of her career with 20 points and a career-high four steals in a win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 14, 2019). She earned her second Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll selection (Dec. 16).

• Haiby has produced double-figure points 42 times as a Husker (11, 2020-21), including seven 20-point games. She had 16 double-figure efforts in 2019-20 and 15 as a freshman in 2018-19.

• Haiby finished her freshman season as Nebraska's second-leading scorer with 10.0 points per game while coming off the bench in all 30 contests in 2018-19.

• Haiby scored 20 points at Washington State as a freshman with all 20 coming after halftime.

• She was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week (Feb. 4, 2019) after scoring 17 points against Indiana (Feb. 3, 2019), which followed 13 points in a road win at Purdue (Jan. 31, 2019).

(#4) Sam Haiby, 5-9, Guard*BOURNE BACK TO ADD LEADERSHIP ON FRONT LINE

• One of three captains on the 2020-21 Huskers, Isabelle Bourne joins Kate Cain and Sam Haiby as leaders for Nebraska in 2020-21.

• Bourne got off to a strong start to her second season, averaging 14.0 points and 7.3 rebounds through 10 games before missing the past three contests with an ankle injury. She produced back-to-back double-doubles with 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in a win over Rutgers (Jan. 3) after getting 11 points and a then-career-high 10 boards in a win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31). They were the first two double-doubles of Bourne's career.

• She posted career highs of 22 points and four assists at Purdue (Dec. 23).

• Bourne opened Big Ten play with a then-career-high 21 points to go along with eight boards in a win over Illinois (Dec. 10).

• She added a game-high 18 points to go along with seven rebounds and three assists in Nebraska's road win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10). However, she injured an ankle in the closing seconds the kept her out of Nebraska's win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16).

• Bourne added 16 points and six boards at No. 15 Indiana (Dec. 20) and through seven Big Ten games ranks second on the team in scoring (15.4 ppg) and rebounding (7.6 rpg) in league play-only.

• The 6-2 sophomore forward from Canberra, Australia, made her first career start in the season-opening win over Oral Roberts and produced 14 points and a career-high nine rebounds.

- She added nine points - all in the second half - to help lead the Huskers past Idaho State (Dec. 6) in a head-to-head match-up with her older sister, Callie, a junior for the Bengals.

- Bourne had nine points, eight rebounds, two assists and two blocks at Creighton (Dec. 14).

- As a true freshman in 2019-20, Bourne averaged 5.9 points and 4.4 rebounds per game. She scored in double figures four times off the bench as a freshman.

- Bourne capped her first season at Nebraska with a then-career-high 16 points and five blocks to go along with six rebounds, an assist and a steal in 29 minutes off the bench in the Big Ten Tournament against Michigan (March 5, 2020).

- Her 29 blocks on the season ranked as the sixth-best total by a freshman in Husker history.

- Bourne had 13 points, three blocks and two steals against Ohio State (Feb. 2, 2020).

- She added 11 points and a freshman season-high eight rebounds in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 9, 2020), before adding 11 points and in a win over Penn State (Feb. 13, 2020).

- Bourne's older sister, Callie, averaged 12.0 points and 6.6 rebounds as a 5-9 guard at Idaho State in 2019-20, after averaging 4.1 points and 3.6 rebounds while starting 20 games for the Bengals in 2018-19. Their older sister Emma, plays in the Canberra Capitals Academy.

- Isabelle Bourne was a major factor in Australia's silver medal at the FIBA U19 World Cup, averaging 8.4 points, 5.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists in 23.1 minutes per game over seven contests for the Gems.

- Australia went 5-2 at the World Cup with both losses to the USA U19 team, including an overtime setback in the gold medal game.

- One of the most talented young players in Australia, Bourne joined the Huskers in August of 2019 after helping the Gems to a silver medal at 2019 FIBA Under-19 World Cup in Bangkok, Thailand, July 20-28.

- The Australian U19 National Team entered the tournament ranked No. 7 in the world, but came up just short of the gold medal, falling 74-70 in overtime to the United States.

- Bourne averaged 8.4 points, 5.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists in 23.1 minutes for the Gems.

- In 2017, Bourne led Australia's U17 team to gold at the Oceania Championship in Guam by averaging 19 points, 9.8 rebounds and 2.6 assists to claim a spot on the all-tournament team.

- She was also the MVP of the 2017 FIBA Under-18 Asia Cup 3-on-3 tournament in Mongolia, leading her team to another gold medal. Bourne was also named to the Gems squad for the 2018 FIBA Under-18 Asian Championships.

- Bourne trained at the Australian Institute of Sport and Basketball Australia's Centre of Excellence. She was a developmental player in the University of Canberra Capitals program.

(#34) Isabelle Bourne, 6-2, Forward

TRANSFERS PLAYING SOLID ROLES AS STARTERS

- Junior Bella Cravens has been a force as a starter in Big Ten play. The 6-3 forward from Laie, Hawaii, ranks third in the Big Ten in conference play-only with 9.1 rebounds per game to go with 6.8 points per game. She had a career-high-tying 16 rebounds in the win over Illinois (Dec. 10). She added 14 huge boards in the win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16). She grabbed 13 boards in the win over Rutgers (Jan. 3) and had nine points, nine rebounds and three blocks in the win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10).

- Cravens spent her first two seasons at Eastern Washington. She led the Big Sky Conference in rebounding (8.5 rpg) last year and was an honorable-mention All-Big Sky selection.

- Ashley Scoggin has stepped into a major role in her first year as a Husker. The 22-year-old redshirt sophomore has started all 13 games, averaging 7.5 points while leading NU with 20 made threes (.340). She posted career highs of 16 points against Minnesota, Purdue and Idaho State.

- The junior college transfer from Salt Lake City CC spent her first year on the court missed four straight seasons because of knee injuries, beginning with her senior year of high school in 2015-16. Last year, she earned NJCAA All-Region 18 honors after leading the Bruins to the Region 18 title.

TRUE FRESHMEN LAYING SOLID FOUNDATION

- True freshman Ruby Porter (Adelaide, Australia) has started the past three games in place of Isabelle Bourne. Porter has averaged 7.0 points and 4.3 rebounds as a starter, after her career-high 11-point effort in the win at Illinois (Jan. 25). Porter also scored nine big points on a trio of three-pointers in Nebraska's road win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10).

- Annika Stewart has been the most productive Husker freshman so far this season, averaging 5.5 points and 3.4 rebounds after her 12-point performance in the win at Illinois (Jan. 25). The 6-3 forward from Minneapolis, Minn., buried three three-pointers, including back-to-back threes in a one-minute span in the fourth quarter to give Nebraska the lead for good. Stewart owns four double-figure scoring efforts, including a career-high 15 points in nine minutes in the win over Idaho State (Dec. 6).

- Whitney Brown has proven herself as a fearless competitor through 13 games. The 5-8 walk-on from Grand Island, Neb., erupted for a career-high 14 points on 4-of-8 three-point shooting in a career-high 28 minutes as the game's second-leading scorer in the win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16). Brown is averaging 3.6 points per game and carries Nebraska's best assist-to-turnover ratio (13-to-6), while ranking second on the team with 11 steals.

CAYTON ENJOYS SPECIAL RETURN TO COURT AT ILLINOIS

- After 26 months away from competition, MiCole Cayton made her Husker debut memorable in Nebraska's 57-53 road win at Illinois (Jan. 25).
- Cayton, who was cleared for her first full-court, full-contact practice at Nebraska on Jan. 22, played 19 minutes off the bench for the Big Red and made a crucial play in crunch time to help give the Huskers a victory.
- With less than 15 seconds left and Nebraska clinging to a 54-53 lead, Cayton stole the ball at halfcourt from Illini starting guard J-Naya Ephraim after she received an inbounds pass. Ephraim fouled Cayton to prevent a layup, and Cayton made 1-of-2 free throws to give Nebraska a 55-53 lead with 10.7 seconds left.
- It was Cayton's first steal as a Husker but she also drew a pair of offensive fouls on the Illini in the game and finished 3-of-4 at the free throw line.
- The game marked Cayton's first appearance in a college basketball game since playing for California against San Diego on Nov. 24, 2018.

COLEY JOINS HUSKERS AS EARLY ENROLLEE

- Since playing its second consecutive game (Ohio State, Minnesota) and its fourth this season (Indiana, Purdue) with just seven active players (six scholarship and walk-on Whitney Brown), the Nebraska roster got a boost with the addition of freshman early enrollee Kendall Coley. The 6-2 wing was cleared for full participation on Jan. 21 and practiced for the first time Jan. 22.
- Coley graduated from St. Louis Park High School in Minneapolis on Jan. 14. She was ranked as one of the top 50 recruits in the nation by All-Star Girls Report (36), Prospects Nation (39) and ESPN HoopGurlz (49).
- Coley committed to Nebraska in April of 2020 after averaging 15.5 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists as a junior at St. Louis Park High School.
- Kendall's older sister, Chase, was a four-year letterwinner at Iowa (2015-18) and started all 32 games for the Hawkeyes as a senior in 2017-18.

HUSKERS WORKING TO HANDLE CURVEBALLS

- In the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, Nebraska Coach Amy Williams has put part of the focus this season on helping the Huskers expect the unexpected. An avid baseball fan whose basketball family is also a baseball/softball family, Williams likes to refer to the ability to handle the curveball.
- Nebraska's curveballs early in the season have been far more extensive than just dealing with complications to the season caused by the coronavirus.
- Senior guard Taylor Kissinger chose to end her playing career after undergoing hip surgery midway through last season. Kissinger made her announcement Sept. 15.
- Texas Tech transfer Nailah Dillard began experiencing pain in her hip in late summer and was limited during the fall. The sophomore underwent season-ending surgery on Dec. 15, and she will be out for the 2020-21 season.
- Sophomore guard Trinity Brady (Indianapolis) suffered a lower leg injury in the final minute of the win over Idaho State (Dec. 6). Brady has missed seven weeks of practice and play with the injury. Kissinger, Dillard and Brady are all wings for Nebraska.
- The curveballs kept coming with a lower leg injury to Ruby Porter in the first half at Creighton (Dec. 14) that knocked her out of the game, forcing the Huskers to finish with just seven players, including four posts and three guards, including preferred walk-on Whitney Brown. Porter also missed Nebraska's losses at No. 15 Indiana (Dec. 20) and at Purdue (Dec. 23).
- Most recently, Nebraska overcame the absence of its second-leading scorer (14.0 ppg) and rebounder (7.3 rpg) Isabelle Bourne to defeat No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16) and get a road win at Illinois (Jan. 25), but Bourne also missed Nebraska's loss to Minnesota (Jan. 19). NU had just seven active (six scholarship) players for the games against Ohio State and Minnesota.
- Prior to the recent stretch of injuries, the Huskers had to battle illnesses and injuries that kept multiple players off the practice court in preseason practice.
- All of those challenges mixed together prevented Nebraska from having 10 players fully participating in practice from Oct. 14 to Nov. 29. The first time the Huskers had 10 players on the court together in a full practice setting came on Monday, Nov. 30, just four days ahead of their season opener with Oral Roberts (Dec. 4).

NEBRASKA SCHEDULE NOTES

- Nebraska's win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16) marked the third time this season that Nebraska has played an AP No. 15 team that also entered the game unbeaten (Northwestern, 4-0; Michigan, 7-0; Ohio State, 7-0).
- Overall, Ohio State was the fifth Nebraska opponent in the first 11 games this season to enter the contest unbeaten, joining ORU (0-0), Idaho State (1-0), No. 15 Northwestern (4-0), No. 15 Michigan (7-0) and No. 15 Ohio State (7-0).
- Nebraska's non-conference win over Idaho State is holding strong. The preseason favorite to win the Big Sky, the Bengals are 12-1 with their only loss at Nebraska (64-51). Two days after losing at Nebraska, Idaho State rolled to a 65-50 win at Kansas State. The Bengals have opened Big Sky play at 10-0 with sweeps of Northern Colorado, Weber State, Northern Arizona, Sacramento State and Portland State. Idaho State has won eight of its 12 games by double digits and all 12 wins are by at least two possessions.

KATE CAIN ON THE BLOCK: BY THE NUMBERS

- Kate Cain became just the sixth player in Big Ten history to record 300 career blocks, reaching the mark on her third of four blocks in a 65-63 win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31, 2020).
- Cain is expected to start her 105th game as a Husker on Thursday against Wisconsin.
- She set the Nebraska single-game block record while also posting the first points (22), rebounds (14) and blocked shots (11) triple-double in school history in a win over Florida Atlantic (Dec. 19, 2017).
- She became just the sixth player in Big Ten Conference history to record 11 or more blocks and just the 10th Big Ten player to notch double-digit blocks in a single game.
- Cain's 22 points against Florida Atlantic were a career high, and her three assists against the Owls also tied a career best.
- Cain nearly notched a second triple-double with a career-high-tying 22 points, 12 rebounds and nine blocks (second-highest total in Nebraska history) in a 63-55 win over previously unbeaten and No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16, 2021).
- She owns 46 double-figure scoring efforts, 19 double-figure rebounding games and one double-digit block game in the first 105 games of her career. She has made a team-leading 104 straight starts.
- Cain has 54 games (6, 2020-21; 16, 2019-20; 17, 2018-19; 15, 2017-18) with at least three blocks.

NEBRASKA STREAKS

- Kate Cain owns Nebraska's longest streak of consecutive starts (104).
- Cain grabbed a rebound in all 30 games in 2019-20 and owns a streak of 55 games with at least one board. The last time Cain went without a rebound came in a 63-57 Nebraska win over No. 23 Minnesota on Jan. 20, 2019.
- Cain had blocked at least one shot in 21 consecutive games before going without a block at Michigan (Jan. 7). She owns at least one block in 98 of 105 games in her career.
- Sam Haiby has scored in 71 of 73 games in her Husker career, including 29 of 30 games in 2019-20 and 29 of 30 games as a freshman in 2018-19. She has scored at least three points in 36 consecutive games for Nebraska, dating back to being held scoreless by USC at the South Point Shootout on Nov. 29, 2019. The Huskers won that game 67-54. She was also held scoreless in a 70-69 loss at Wisconsin on Jan. 27, 2018.
- The Huskers have knocked down at least one three in 385 straight games dating back to a loss at UTEP on Dec. 20, 2008. Nebraska has hit at least two three-pointers in 264 consecutive games.

BIG RED SIGN TOP 25 RECRUITING CLASS FOR 2021

- Nebraska women's basketball coach Amy Williams received National Letters of Intent from five talented players on Wednesday, Nov. 11, as the Huskers earned a No. 21 national ranking for its incoming class of 2021 from ESPN.
- Nebraska's impressive group includes two players ranked among the top 100 in the ESPN individual rankings, led by the versatile Kendall Coley (No. 49) and Nebraska high school standout Allison Weidner (No. 80) at the national level. Lincoln native Alexis Markowski, who will contend with Weidner for Nebraska's state high school player-of-the-year award in 2021, Illinois prep star Kendall Moriarity and Tatiana Popa fortify a strong five-player class.
- Four members of the Husker class have been ranked among the top 100 in the country by at least one ranking service, and all five have been mentioned among the top 275.
- "This 2021 recruiting class is a special group that has already been building great bonds with each other," Williams said. "We know that they are a group that can make an incredible impact on our program and the goals we have to become Big Ten Champions."

KENDALL COLEY, 6-2, F/G, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. (ST. LOUIS PARK)

- Kendall Coley became the first signee to join the Husker roster, coming to Nebraska as an early enrollee on Jan. 17. She was on the bench but not cleared to play for a home game against Minnesota (Jan. 19). She participated in her first practice as a Husker on Jan. 21.

- Coley comes to Nebraska as the top-ranked player among a top 25 recruiting class for the Huskers and Coach Amy Williams. Coley, a 6-2 wing from Minneapolis, Minn., was ranked as one of the top 50 players in the nation by All-Star Girls Report (36), Prospects Nation (39) and ESPN Hoopgurlz (49) in 2021, while adding a No. 52 ranking from Blue Star.

- Coley, who committed to Nebraska in April of 2020, averaged 15.5 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists as a junior at St. Louis Park High School.

- Kendall's older sister, Chase, was a starter at Iowa and played alongside fellow Husker Annika Stewart's older sister, Hannah, for the Hawkeyes.

- "Kendall is one of the most exciting players in the 2021 class," Williams said. "She is very versatile and can play every position on the court. She is long, athletic and skilled, which is a devastating combination. She is a special talent, and we believe she can make a great impact in the Big Ten Conference."

ALEXIS MARKOWSKI, 6-3, C/F, LINCOLN, NEB. (LINCOLN PIUS X)

- Alexis Markowski joins Allison Weidner as the top high school players in the state of Nebraska in 2021. Markowski, who was a first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State center while leading Lincoln Pius X to the 2020 Class A state title, set school single-season records for points (560) and rebounds (315) before being named the honorary captain of the Class A All-State team. The 6-3 Markowski also tied the Class A tournament scoring record with 80 points over three games, matching Nebraska Athletics Hall of Famer Maurice Ivy's record.

- Markowski was ranked No. 76 in the 2021 class by World Exposure, which also slots international players among its rankings.

- "We are so excited that Alexis is staying home," Williams said. "She had an incredible junior season capped off by a state championship and is poised for a great senior year. All summer she played against some of the best post players in the country and continued to shine. She is a winner who just keeps working to expand her game, and her skills align perfectly with our needs."

KENDALL MORIARITY, 6-1, G, WHEATON, ILL. (BENET ACADEMY)

- The first commit to Nebraska's top-25 recruiting class, Kendall Moriarity announced her decision in November of 2019. Moriarity was ranked among the top 100 players in the country by Prospects Nation (74), All-Star Girls Report (100) and Prep Girls Hoops (100) entering her senior season at Benet Academy in Lisle, Ill. She was also ranked as high as the No. 12 guard prospect in the country by Prospects Nation.

- The 6-1 Moriarity hit 43.1 percent of her three-pointers while also leading Benet Academy in steals and deflections as a junior 2019-20. She led her high school team to a No. 1 ranking in Illinois and a No. 23 team rank nationally at one point as a junior. In 2019, Moriarity was invited to the USA 16U National Team trials, advancing to the top 68.

- "Kendall was our first commit in the 2021 class, and she fits perfectly into all aspects of our program," Williams said. "She is a long, tough, gritty player with great versatility. She is a talented scorer, but her willingness to do all the dirty work on the court is what separates her. She is a great teammate and will lay it on the line for her team to win."

TATIANA POPA, 6-5, C/F, PARKERSBURG, W. VA. (BREWSTER ACADEMY)

- Tatiana Popa comes to Nebraska as a four-star recruit before entering her senior season at Brewster Academy. She closed her junior year at Parkersburg High School in West Virginia. She previously played at IMG Academy and Montverde Academy (2018-19) in Florida. She also competed at Quince Orchard High School in Maryland as a freshman in 2017-18. The 6-5 center/forward was ranked as the No. 263 overall player in the nation by All-Star Girls Report.

- Popa's father, Constantin, was a second-round NBA Draft choice of the Los Angeles Clippers in 1995 after playing basketball collegiately at the University of Miami. He is a member of the Miami Sports Hall of Fame, and played professionally overseas in Israel.

- "Our program is thrilled to be adding this hard-working, talented young lady to our Husker family," Williams said. "She knows how to use her length to her advantage on defense and has expanded her versatility on offense. She is working hard to add strength to her frame and understands the benefits that Husker Power will provide her in that area. The sky is the limit for her growth, and we can't wait to watch it happen here at Nebraska."

ALLISON WEIDNER, 5-10, G, HUMPHREY, NEB. (HUMPHREY ST. FRANCIS)

- Allison Weidner joins Alexis Markowski as two of the top basketball players the state of Nebraska has produced in recent years. Weidner was ranked as the No. 80 player on the ESPN Hoopgurlz Top 100. She was also a first-team Super-State selection and earned first-team Class D2 all-state honors in both basketball and volleyball for the Humphrey St. Francis Flyers as a junior in 2019-20. A member of the Class D2 All-Decade Team, Weidner is also a five-time gold medalist at the Nebraska state track and field meet.

- One of the top multi-sport athletes the state has produced, Weidner led the Cornhusker State in both assists and steals as a sophomore in 2018-19. As a junior, she averaged 25.2 points, 6.1 rebounds, 6.5 assists and a whopping 7.3 steals per game to power St. Francis to a Class D2 state runner-up finish.

• “We cannot wait to add Allison to our Husker program,” Williams said. “She is a crafty point guard who can score at all three levels and is very good in the open court. She has great court vision and makes those around her better. She is a Nebraska native who possesses the values and character we look for in a Husker.”

NEBRASKA'S HISTORY OF HOME SUCCESS

- Nebraska went 13-4 on its home court at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2019-20.
- The Huskers were 15-4 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2015-16 after going 12-3 (13-3 at home) in 2014-15. The Huskers are 87-35 (.713) all-time at Pinnacle Bank Arena since the building opened for the 2013-14 campaign. The Big Red went 16-2 at home in 2013-14, suffering their only Big Ten loss to Purdue, 77-75, on Jan. 19, 2014. NU's 16 home wins in 2013-14 tied the school record for single-season home victories.
- The Huskers played the first regular-season game in arena history against USA Today No. 25 UCLA (Nov. 8, 2013) and rolled to a 77-49 win over the Bruins. NU's first win over an AP Top 25 team came with a 76-56 win over No. 24 Michigan State on Feb. 8, 2014. The Huskers added their first-ever win over an AP Top 10 team at the arena with a 94-74 victory over No. 8 Penn State on Feb. 24, 2014.
- NU won its first-ever Big Ten home game at Pinnacle Bank Arena with a 66-65 thriller over Northwestern Jan. 2, 2014, before an 88-85 win over Minnesota on Jan. 16, 2014, marked the first overtime game.
- NU suffered its first loss at the arena to Washington State (76-72) on Nov. 30, 2013.
- The Huskers are 44-3 all-time in home season openers, following a 90-51 win over Oral Roberts on Dec. 4, 2020. Nebraska had its streak of 12 consecutive season-opening wins snapped with an 83-77 loss to Missouri Valley Conference champion Drake on Nov. 7, 2018.
- The Huskers are 476-165 (.743) all-time at home. The Huskers have gone 212-69 (.754) over the last 18 seasons (including 2020-21), posting double-figure home victory totals 15 times.
- Nebraska played in the Devaney Center from 1976-77 through 2012-13, and added one appearance at Devaney against Utah on Nov. 23, 2014. The Huskers own a 389-130 record at the Devaney Center, including 146-88 (.624) mark in conference play.

KISSINGER ENDS PLAYING CAREER WITH INJURY

- Nebraska guard Taylor Kissinger announced the end of her collegiate playing career on Tuesday, Sept. 15. The 6-1 shooter from Minden, Neb., redshirted because of a hip injury as a junior in 2019-20. Kissinger underwent season-ending surgery on Jan. 3, 2020, after appearing in five games with the Big Red during the fall of 2019.
- Kissinger appeared in 60 games with 31 starts over two-plus seasons with the Huskers. She averaged 10.0 points and 4.1 rebounds while appearing in 25 games with seven starts as a true freshman in 2017-18. She helped the Huskers produce the biggest turnaround in the nation and advance to the 2018 NCAA Tournament, despite missing six games in midseason with a knee injury. She also suffered an upper body sprain late in 2017-18 that limited her contributions at the end of the season.
- She produced her most consistent season as a sophomore, playing in all 30 games with 24 starts in 2018-19, while averaging 8.9 points and 3.2 rebounds. She tied the Nebraska single-season record by hitting 45.6 percent (62-136) of her three-point attempts and connected on 88.2 percent (30-34) of her free throws.
- Kissinger missed four games in the concussion protocol early last season, but returned to tie a career high with six threes and a team-high 19 points in a win over Duke (Dec. 4) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. A hip injury kept her out the rest of the season after a game with Oral Roberts (Dec. 14).
- Kissinger finished her career with 559 points, 214 rebounds, 78 assists and 36 steals. Her career .404 (122-302) three-point percentage is the best mark in Nebraska women's basketball history.

HUSKER SPORTS NETWORK COVERS WORLD

The Husker Sports Network is in its 27th season producing and marketing the live broadcasts of Nebraska women's basketball in 2020-21, as play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney and color commentator Jeff Griesch team up for their 20th season as the Husker broadcast team.

The Husker Sports Network and Nebraska women's basketball have teamed up for two decades to carry every game, home and away, around the world for free on Huskers.com.

In addition to carrying every women's basketball game free on Huskers.com, the Husker Sports Network flagship stations B107.3 FM-KBBK (Lincoln) and ESPN 590 AM-KXSP (Omaha) provide strong signals for Husker women's basketball. When a network conflict occurs in Omaha, the Huskers also could be heard on CD105.9 FM-KKCD. 880-AM-KRVN (Lexington) also provides a huge AM signal statewide in central Nebraska, while more than 20 stations carry the Husker Sports Network's women's basketball coverage across the state and the Midwest.

Inside Pinnacle Bank Arena, fans can access the direct radio call of the game at 87.7 FM.

NEBRASKA POSTS 16TH STRAIGHT PERFECT GSR

In the eyes of the NCAA's Division I Graduation Success Rate (GSR), the Husker women's basketball program has been perfect for 16 consecutive years. Nebraska is the only program among the 14 Big Ten Conference schools to accomplish the perfect score for 16 straight seasons.

The NCAA announced the release of its annual Graduation Success Rate report Nov. 17, 2020, and Nebraska was a national leader in women's basketball for the 16th straight season, dating back to the initial public tracking of the GSR since 2004-05.

The Nebraska women's basketball program joins the Husker women's tennis and volleyball programs as Husker teams that have produced perfect 100 percent rates each of the last 16 years.

Nebraska was one of just 28 teams in the 64-team field of the 2018 NCAA Tournament to also boast a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate.

Overall, the Nebraska Athletic Department produced a record-high GSR for the eighth consecutive year, reaching 94 percent. Nebraska's GSR ranked No. 2 among the 14 Big Ten Conference programs. A total of 13 Husker programs recorded perfect 100 percent GSR scores, including men's and women's basketball, volleyball, softball, soccer, men's and women's gymnastics, swimming and diving, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and rifle.

NEBRASKA OVERTIME FACTS

- Nebraska is 23-25 all-time in overtime games, including 12-12 at home, 8-10 in true road games and 3-3 on neutral courts in overtime.

- The Huskers are 1-2 in overtime games in 2019-20 following an 80-74 OT loss to Ohio State (Feb. 2). It was Nebraska's second overtime loss in Big Ten play this season, joining a 78-70 OT loss at Michigan State (Dec. 31, 2019). The Huskers opened road action this season with a 90-85 OT win at Missouri (Nov. 10, 2019).

- The 2019-20 season marks the first time that Nebraska has played three overtime games in the same season since 2011-12 - NU's first season in the Big Ten. In 2011-12, the Huskers played a total of seven OT periods in those three games.

- Nebraska has never played four overtime games in the same season.
- Nebraska's lone overtime game of 2018-19 also came in the Huskers' first road game of the season, but NU suffered an 87-84 double-overtime loss at Washington State (Nov. 16, 2019). It marked the second straight season that Nebraska played a multi-overtime game (also at Drake, Dec. 9, 2017).

- The Huskers went 1-1 in overtime in 2017-18, including a 69-64 overtime loss to No. 23 Michigan at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Jan. 13). The Huskers won their first overtime game of 2017-18 with an 89-85 double-overtime win at Drake (Dec. 9).

- Nebraska was 1-1 in overtime in 2016-17, including a 76-74 win over Michigan State at Pinnacle Bank Arena to close the regular season (Feb. 26, 2017). The Huskers lost 79-69 in OT to Minnesota at the arena (Feb. 4, 2017).

- The Huskers are 3-5 in overtime games under Coach Amy Williams.

- Nebraska is 2-3 in overtime games at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

- Nebraska is 5-2 in multi-overtime games with its most recent loss coming in the 87-84 2OT setback at Washington State (Nov. 16, 2018) in Pullman. NU's only other loss in a multi-overtime game came to Purdue in the 2012 Big Ten Championship Game, 74-70 in double-overtime.

- The Huskers defeated Minnesota 88-85 in overtime on Jan. 16, 2014. It marked the first overtime game in the history of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Nebraska's first overtime game in the history of the Bob Devaney Sports Center also came against Minnesota - a 68-67 win for the Huskers on Dec. 30, 1977.

- The Huskers have played 15 all-time overtime games against Big Ten opponents and own a 5-10 record. NU is 4-7 against Big Ten opponents in OT since joining the conference in 2011-12.

- Nebraska played its fourth OT game in 73 meetings with Missouri in a 90-85 OT win at Mizzou Arena (Nov. 10, 2019). All four OT games against the Tigers were settled in a single overtime period.

- Nebraska's next most frequent overtime opponents are Big Ten foes Purdue, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The Huskers and Purdue have played three overtime games in 14 all-time meetings. NU's six total overtimes against Purdue are the most against any team in school history.

- The Huskers also have played three overtime games against Minnesota (24 games), including two of the five overtime games in Pinnacle Bank Arena history.

- In 18 all-time games with Wisconsin the Huskers have played three overtime contests.

- Nebraska has never played back-to-back overtime games at home. The Huskers have played back-to-back overtime games only once in school history, an 83-81 loss to Texas A&M in College Station on Dec. 30, 1985, before returning to Lincoln for an 80-75 win over Eastern Kentucky at the Devaney Center on Jan. 2, 1986.

NEBRASKA ATTENDANCE ROSE IN 2019-20

- Nebraska ranked No. 20 nationally in average home attendance (4,397 fans per game) over 17 regular-season games at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2019-20. It marked an increase of 296 fans per game compared to the 2018-19 season, when the Huskers ranked No. 22 nationally (4,101).

- The Huskers have ranked among the top 25 nationally in attendance for 11 consecutive seasons.

- Nebraska has ranked among the top 25 nationally in average home attendance in each of its first seven seasons inside Pinnacle Bank Arena.

- The Huskers opened the 2019-20 season with 5,250 fans at Pinnacle Bank Arena for a Wednesday, noon tip against Alabama A&M on Nov. 6. Nebraska hosted a Life Skills Sportsmanship Pep Rally prior to the game, which included nearly 2,000 students and sponsors from 27 school districts around the Cornhusker State. It was the third-largest opening day crowd in Husker history.

- In 115 all-time home games at Pinnacle Bank Arena, the Huskers own an 81-34 record (.704 winning percentage) while averaging 5,058 fans per game (581,612 total fans/115 games).

- Nebraska attracted a Pinnacle Bank Arena non-conference record crowd of 9,750 to open its stay in the arena with a win over UCLA on Nov. 8, 2013.

- Nebraska set its all-time single-game record with a sellout crowd of 13,595 fans against Missouri at the Devaney Center on Feb. 27, 2010. NU drew 10 straight crowds of more than 10,000 fans at the Devaney Center in 2009-10.

- Nebraska produced its top attendance season in school history by ranking No. 7 nationally with a record 7,390 fans per game at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 2009-10. The Huskers went 16-0 at the Devaney Center on their way to a perfect 29-0 record, a Big 12 title and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

ASHLEY SCOGGIN 0

5-7 Redshirt Sophomore Guard Dallas, Oregon (Westview/Salt Lake City CC)

"She is a play-making guard with experience and maturity and will provide us with another consistent presence from behind the arc."

REDSHIRT FRESHMAN (SALT LAKE CITY CC, 2019-20)

Scoggin averaged 10.0 points, 5.2 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.3 steals per game as a redshirt freshman for Salt Lake City CC in 2019-20. She helped lead the 20-7 Bruins to the NJCAA Region 18 title and a share of the Scenic West Athletic Conference championship. Scoggin, who hit nearly 40 percent of her three-point attempts and almost 95 percent of her free throws on the season, earned first-team All-Region 18 honors and was a member of the Region 18 All-Tournament team.

Scoggin's strength and fitness level increased throughout 2019-20 at Salt Lake City CC. At Utah State Eastern on Feb. 22, Scoggin played 40 minutes. She was also a regular double-figure scorer down the stretch for the Bruins. Early in the year, she erupted for a season-high 22 points while knocking down 6-of-9 threes in a win over Eastern Wyoming (Nov. 29). Her performance helped her earn conference player-of-the-week honors.

Scoggin was slowed at the start of the season after undergoing a minor meniscus repair on her knee in September of 2019.

FRESHMAN (SALT LAKE CITY CC, 2018-19)

Scoggin enrolled at Salt Lake City CC prior to the 2017-18 season. She suffered a torn ACL in her right knee on July 13, 2017, and redshirted during the 2017-18 season.

In 2018-19, Scoggin continued to feel discomfort in her right knee and underwent another ACL surgery on her right knee in November of 2018.

REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE (2020-21)

Ashley Scoggin has earned starts in each of Nebraska's 13 games this season. The 22-year-old redshirt sophomore transfer is averaging 7.5 points, 2.3 rebounds and 2.1 assists in more than 31 minutes per game.

In the victory over Idaho State, Scoggin established career highs with 16 points and four three-pointers to help shoot the Huskers to victory. She matched her career best with 16 points while adding career bests with four rebounds and two steals at Purdue (Dec. 23), before getting 16 more with a four more threes against Minnesota (Jan. 19).

Scoggin added a double-digit effort with 11 points in Nebraska's win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31), before scoring 11 more and hitting three threes in a win over Rutgers (Jan. 3). She also sank two free throws with 12 seconds left to seal the win. She added eight points, including seven in the first quarter, to go along with four assists to help the Huskers win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10).

Scoggin contributed seven points and a career-high five rebounds in a win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16).

Scoggin has the potential of three years of eligibility after an outstanding redshirt freshman season at Salt Lake City Community College in 2019-20. She earned first-team All-Region 18 honors and was a member of the Region 18 All-Tournament team while helping the Bruins to the NJCAA Region 18 title.

Scoggin proved herself as a knock-down shooter, connecting on nearly 40 percent of her three-pointers and 95 percent of her free throws.

"We are excited to add Ashley to our Husker family," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said.

A talented and tough competitor, Trinity Brady is looking to make greater contributions for the Huskers in her second season at Nebraska in 2020-21.

The 5-11 guard from Indianapolis produced the best game of her young career in Nebraska's 90-61 season-opening win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 4). Brady erupted for a career-high 15 points while adding a career-best five rebounds while making the first start of her collegiate career. She hit 5-of-7 shots from the field and all three of her three-point attempts against the Golden Eagles.

She added five more rebounds while setting a career high with four steals in a win over Idaho State (Dec. 6).

Through two games as a starter, Brady averaged 8.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 2.0 steals. She missed NU's next 11 games with a lower leg injury suffered in the final minute of the Idaho State game.

Brady brought strength and versatility to Nebraska's backcourt as a freshman. One of the top high school players in Indiana in 2017-18, Brady completed her prep career at Hamilton Heights Christian Academy in Tennessee.

She missed Nebraska's first 10 games as part of the concussion protocol, before making her regular-season debut in the win over Manhattan (Dec. 22). She played in 17 consecutive games before missing the final three games with tendonitis.

Brady played strong defense while recording two points, four rebounds, an assist and a block in 16 minutes off the bench against the Jaspers. She hit the first three-pointer of her career and added two assists and her first career steal in the win over Iowa (Dec. 28). Brady's three gave Nebraska a 30-27 second-quarter lead, and the Huskers led the rest of the way.

She sparked a 10-0 first-quarter run at Michigan State with two points, two steals and two rebounds to help Nebraska lead for much of the game against the Spartans before falling in OT on New Year's Eve in East Lansing.

Brady scored a career-high seven points and knocked down a career-best two threes while adding two rebounds in nine minutes off the bench at Rutgers (Jan. 12).

She scored five points in a 10-0 second-quarter run that sparked Nebraska in a rally from a 25-point first-half deficit against No. 18 Indiana (Feb. 9). The Huskers eventually tied the game in the fourth quarter.

Brady scored eight points and had eight rebounds in an exhibition win over Rogers State (Nov. 2). An opponent fell on Brady inside the paint late in the game, contacting her head and shoulder area.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

The final piece of Nebraska's three-player recruiting class, Brady came to Nebraska after completing her senior season at Hamilton Heights Christian Academy in Chattanooga, Tenn. She was ranked as the No. 106 player overall in the 2019 class by Prospects Nation.

The Lady Hawks finished the season No. 18 in the final USA Today Super 25 rankings with a 22-3 overall record. Hamilton Heights Christian Academy fell to Riverdale Baptist in the NACA Championships.

Brady competed for Lawrence North High School in Indianapolis her first three seasons.

As a junior, Brady averaged 21.0 points, 8.5 rebounds and 4.0 assists to earn a spot on the IBCA Subway Supreme 15 Underclass All-State Team. She was also a member of the Indiana

She led Lawrence North to a 20-4 record and produced several huge individual efforts as a junior in 2017-18, including a 38-point performance against Tindley, 30 points in a win over Pike and 28 points against nationally ranked North Central.

As a sophomore, Brady averaged 15 points and 7.5 rebounds per game for Lawrence North, after averaging 7.2 points and 6.0 rebounds as a freshman.

She played her club basketball with the George Hill Lady Stars for coaches Mike Saunders and DeJuan Howard.

PERSONAL

Trinity is the daughter of Vincent and Jamie Brady, and has a younger brother, Vincent II.

Brady is majoring in criminology and criminal justice at Nebraska. She was a member of the 2020 Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

She had approximately 20 scholarship offers before ultimately choosing Nebraska over Marquette, Dayton and Illinois.

JUNIOR (2020-21)

Sam Haiby (pronounced HY-bee) continues to show growth in her all-around game, averaging team bests with 17.3 points, 7.9 rebounds, 4.2 assists and 1.2 steals. She erupted for a career-high 33 points to go along with nine rebounds and four assists in a Big Ten win over Illinois (Dec. 10). She added 27 points, nine rebounds and three assists at No. 15 Michigan (Jan. 7).

Haiby had three straight double-doubles, including 25 points and a career-high 12 rebounds vs. Minnesota (Jan. 19). It followed 11 points and a career-high 12 boards in a 68-64 win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10), before getting 11 points and a career-high 10 assists to go with eight rebounds in a 63-55 win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16).

She scored 12 of her game-high 22 points in the fourth quarter to lead NU to a road win at Illinois (Jan. 25). Her steal and two free throws in the final 10 seconds sealed the win.

Haiby had 19 points, eight rebounds and five assists, including the game-winning put-back as time expired in a 65-63 win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31). Her shot was named ESPN SportsCenter's Top Play of the day. She followed with 16 points, five rebounds and five assists in NU's win over Rutgers (Jan. 3).

Haiby ranked second among the Huskers in scoring (10.0 ppg) and assists (3.3 apg) while

FRESHMAN (2018-19)

Haiby was NU's second-leading scorer, averaging 10.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.6 assists off the bench. She produced double figures 15 times, including the final four games. Haiby had a season-high 20 points - all after halftime - at Washington State (Nov. 16). She had her best Big Ten effort with 17 points against Indiana (Feb. 3). She also had 17 at Creighton (Dec. 2). She was the Big Ten Freshman of the Week after averaging 15.0 points on 10-of-15 shooting at Purdue (Jan. 31) and Indiana (Feb. 3).

She closed the regular season with 16 points in a win at Penn State (March 2). She also had 16 points in a win over No. 23 Minnesota (Jan. 20). Haiby added 16 more to go along with a season-high three steals at Arkansas (Dec. 18).

She scored 14 points at No. 24 Miami. She led NU with 13 points in her college debut against Drake (Nov. 7). She added 13 points with a career-high three threes in a win at Purdue (Jan. 31). Haiby scored 12 points four times, including No. 5 Louisville (Nov. 29), Michigan (Dec. 28), No. 12 Iowa (Feb. 25) and at the Big Ten Tournament against Purdue (March 7). She added 11 points in a win at Northwestern (Feb. 21) and 11 at No. 7 Maryland (Feb. 14).

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Haiby was ranked as the No. 122 player in the country by Prospects Nation and the No. 125 player in the nation by Blue Star. She was also ranked as the No. 28 guard in the country by ESPN. She overcame an early season knee injury as a senior to average 25.1 points, 7.1 rebounds and 5.3 assists per game, including a monstrous 46-point performance in a 54-49 win over White Bear Lake on Dec. 10, 2017. It followed a 45-point effort in a win over Brainerd on Nov. 28. Haiby finished her high school career with more than 2,000 points. As a junior, she averaged 22.1 points, 7.6 rebounds, 4.4 assists and 4.1 steals, including a huge 44-point performance against Fargo Shanley on Jan. 17, 2017.

Haiby was also a starting outfielder and pitcher on Moorhead High School's baseball team in the spring of 2017. She was the first pitcher to ever throw a pitch in U.S. Bank Stadium in Minneapolis, taking the mound for the Spuds against the Sartell Sabres. She also became the first female in history to pitch a scoreless inning in a Minnesota High School boys baseball game in the spring of 2017.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Jay Haiby and Janet Haiby, Samantha Rae Brianna Haiby was born Sept. 25, 1999 in St. Louis, Mo. She has an older brother, Andrew. She is a nutrition and health sciences major and earned academic All-Big Ten accolades for the first time in 2020. She also claimed a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2018. She was a member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2019 and 2020.

MICOLE CAYTON

5-9 Graduate/Redshirt Junior Guard Stockton, Calif. (St. Mary's/California)

As a redshirt sophomore in 2018-19, Cayton returned to the court for eight minutes in a debut against her hometown school, Pacific (Nov. 18), before playing two minutes against Tulane (Nov. 23) and scoring her only points of the season in a win at San Diego (Nov. 24). She played three total games in her third year before undergoing surgery to repair cartilage damage in her right knee.

She opened her sophomore season with 13 points, including a career-high-tying three three-pointers in a win over Saint Mary's (Nov. 10), but missed the remainder of the year after suffering a torn ACL. Cayton did not play the rest of the season.

Cayton earned an honorable-mention selection to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team by starting 13 games for California. For the season, she averaged 5.6 points, 2.5 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.0 steal per contest for the Bears. She finished second on the team in steals (34) and third in assists (73).

Cayton started each of the last 12 games of the season for Cal, beginning with a career-high 18 points in a win over No. 13 UCLA. She had 11 of her 18 points in the first quarter against the Bruins, and tied her career high with three three-pointers.

In the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament, Cayton had 12 points, four rebounds and three steals in a win over USC (March 1). She also had nine points, including a pair of free throws with 8.8 seconds left to seal Cal's win over Oregon (Feb. 24).

She scored in double figures six times as a freshman, including 13 points against CSU Bakersfield (Nov. 20), going 5-for-7 from the field and a perfect 3-for-3 from three-point range. She notched her second double-figure scoring performance of her career with 11 points and Cayton also had 10 points against Arizona (Jan. 22) and 11 points in a career-high 37 minutes against No. 10 Stanford (Feb. 16).

She recorded career highs with six rebounds and nine assists in a win over Lehigh (Dec. 11). Cayton also notched a career-high four steals against Utah (Feb. 10).

She had four points and five assists in a first-round NCAA Tournament win over LSU, before adding two points and three rebounds in a season-ending loss at Baylor in the NCAA second round.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Michael Cayton and Karen Mercado Cayton, MiCole was born July 31, 1998. She earned her bachelor's degree in legal studies from California in May of 2020, before pursuing a master's degree in education from Nebraska.

HONORS & AWARDS

- No. 78 Player in the Nation (ESPN, 2016)
- No. 17 Guard in the Nation (ESPN, 2016)

GRADUATE/REDSHIRT JUNIOR (2020-21)

MiCole Cayton hopes to put knee injuries behind her after choosing to transfer following her graduation from California. The 5-9 guard from Stockton, Calif., originally signed with the Huskers out of high school as part of a top-15 national recruiting class in November 2015.

In the midst of a coaching change at Nebraska, Cayton chose to stay closer to home at Cal and was an All-Pac-12 Freshman honorable-mention choice in 2016-17. She started 13 games as a freshman, including the last 12 games of the season for the Bears. That stretch began with a career-high 18 points in a win over No. 13 UCLA and ended in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at Baylor.

Cayton was cleared for full-court, full-contact practice for the first time at Nebraska on Jan. 22, and made her first appearance in the Huskers' win at Illinois (Jan. 25). She played 19 minutes off the bench and made a key steal with 11 seconds left. She went 3-for-4 at the free throw line to help Nebraska seal the win against the Illini. It was Cayton's first game appearance since Nov. 24, 2018 (at San Diego).

"MiCole has an infectious competitive spirit and drive to be her very best," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "Her high energy and passion along with her experience as a collegiate athlete make her a great fit for our program."

(CALIFORNIA, 2017-20)

Cayton missed the entire 2019-20 season with a knee injury. She earned her bachelor's degree from California in May of 2020.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

As a senior at Grand Island Northwest, Brown averaged 17.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.0 steals to lead the team to the Class B state tournament.

The 5-8 guard earned second-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and second-team All-Nebraska accolades from the Omaha World-Herald. Brown was a first-team Class B pick for the second straight year.

Grand Island Northwest was eliminated with a 48-47 triple-overtime loss to Crete in the state semifinals. Brown scored 19 points and had four assists in the loss.

Brown averaged 16.9 points, 3.3 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 2.9 steals per game in leading Grand Island Northwest to the 2019 Nebraska Class B State Championship. She averaged 21.0 points per game in three state tournament wins for the Vikings, including a 23-point effort in the Class B state championship game against Crete.

Her performance as a junior earned her a spot on the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska First Team, while adding honors on the Lincoln Journal Star's Super-State Second Team in 2019. She was a first-team Class B All-State selection by both papers. She was the captain of the Grand Island Independent's All-Heartland Super Squad for Coach Russ Moerer. She played summer club basketball for the Cornhusker Shooting Stars Bison Elite.

Brown was a four-time letterwinner in both basketball and volleyball at Grand Island Northwest and was a two-time letterwinner in track. She helped the volleyball team to state tournament appearances in 2017, 2018 and 2019 and is a two-time state qualifier in the 3,200-meter run.

An academic all-state selection in both basketball and volleyball, Brown was also the president of the student council and the president of the National Honor Society.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Mick and Lori Brown, Whitney was born Dec. 31, 2001 in Grand Island. She is the youngest of six children, with sisters Jamie Hesser and McKenzie Brown, and brothers Bobby, Brock and Brook. McKenzie played basketball at Nebraska-Kearney.

Whitney chose Nebraska over Eastern Illinois, Northwest Missouri State, Fort Hays State and Nebraska-Kearney.

"It has always been my dream since I was a little kid to be a Husker, so when I was given the opportunity it was my dream come true," Brown said. "It will be an honor to represent my hometown with "Huskies" written across my chest."

FRESHMAN (2020-21)

Whitney Brown stayed in state to join the Husker program as a preferred walk-on as a freshman in 2020-21. She committed to Nebraska after an outstanding junior season at Grand Island Northwest High School in 2018-19, when she led her team to the Class B state title. As a senior, Brown averaged 17.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.0 steals.

Brown is off to a solid start for the Huskers, averaging 3.6 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.0 assist while playing in all 13 games.

She produced the best game of her young career with a career-high 14 points on a career-best 4-of-8 three-point shooting in a 63-55 win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16). Brown, who played a career-high 28 minutes while helping the Huskers overcome the absence of second-leading scorer and rebounder Isabelle Bourne, was the second-leading scorer in the game with the previously unbeaten Buckeyes.

Brown added five points and a career-high five rebounds (all offensive) against Minnesota (Jan. 19).

Brown also played a big role with six points and three rebounds in Nebraska's win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31) on her birthday. She also had six points and three boards at No. 15 Indiana (Dec. 20). She added three more rebounds at No. 15 Michigan (Jan. 7), before getting three points and a career-high three assists to help the Huskers knock off No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10). Brown scored Nebraska's final point at the

Ruby Porter, a 5-10 guard from Adelaide, Australia, was Nebraska's first signee across any sport in the fall of 2019, but the last Husker women's basketball player to arrive on campus in August of 2020 because of COVID-19 travel restrictions.

Porter is coming off a career-high 11-point performance at Illinois (Jan. 25) when she also tied her career high with three three-pointers. It marked her third straight start in place of fellow Australian Isabelle Bourne. It was also Porter's second straight road game with three three-pointers, joining a nine-point effort in a road win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10). Porter opened and closed the second quarter with three-pointers, then hit a huge three in the fourth quarter to start Nebraska's rally from a five-point fourth-quarter deficit to a 68-64 win.

Porter made her first career start in Nebraska's 63-55 win over No. 15 Ohio State (Jan. 16). She pulled down a career-high five rebounds and hit a three-pointer to give Nebraska its biggest lead of the first half at 30-19 late in the second quarter.

She added a second straight start in place of Bourne, producing seven points, four rebounds and two assists against Minnesota (Jan. 19).

Porter is averaging 7.0 points and 4.3 rebounds in three games as a starter.

Porter made her collegiate debut in NU's 90-61 win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 4). She had three points, three rebounds, an assist and a steal. She added two points, three rebounds and two assists in a win over Idaho State (Dec. 6).

She made her Big Ten Conference debut with three points on her first career three-pointer steals in helping South Australia to a silver medal at the U18 National Championships.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Sandy Porter and Gavan Porter, Ruby was born Oct. 15, 2001, in Adelaide, South Australia. She has an older sister, Holly.

Porter said she chose Nebraska over LSU because of the atmosphere in the Husker program.

"The people at Nebraska made it feel like one big family and a place where I can develop best to achieve my goals in basketball and in life."

including a clutch fourth-quarter three-pointer in NU's upset of No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31).

Through 13 games, Stewart is averaging 5.5 points and 3.4 rebounds while hitting 12 three-pointers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Stewart averaged approximately 20.0 points, 8.1 rebounds and 1.8 assists while hitting 65.6 percent of her two-point field goal attempts, 41.5 percent (39-94) of her threes and 89.5 percent (51-57) of her free throws as a senior.

She led Wayzata to a 24-5 record with three of its losses coming to national No. 1 Hopkins. In the third meeting, Stewart finished with 27 points in the 6-4A sectional championship game against Hopkins and Gatorade National High School Player of the Year Paige Bueckers.

Over the final 12 games of 2019-20, Stewart turned up her production to 25 points per contest. She opened the 4A playoffs with 27 points in a win over Armstrong, before erupting for a season-high 36 points in a sectional semifinal win over St. Louis Park and future Husker teammate Kendall Coley. Wayzata finished with a final No. 3 ranking in the state.

Stewart earned first-team Class 4A All-State honors from the Minnesota Girls Coaches Association, while also earning first-team All-Lake Conference honors. She was also an All-Metro selection.

Stewart averaged 12.2 points and 7.0 rebounds as a junior for 26-3 Wayzata, while earning All-Lake Conference and All-Metro honors. She produced 10.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per game as a sophomore for the 25-3 Trojans to earn All-Lake Conference honors in her first season at the school. She played her eighth grade and freshman seasons in North Dakota at Minot's Bishop Ryan High School, before her family moved to Minneapolis. Wayzata was the No. 2 ranked team in Class 4A in Minnesota in both 2018 and 2019.

After coming off the bench as an eighth grader, Stewart averaged 15.2 points and 7.1 rebounds as a freshman for Bishop Ryan. She earned all-region and all-conference honors while helping Bishop Ryan to a 20-5 record on the season. She totaled 1,675 points, 836 rebounds, 130 blocks and 119 three-pointers in her five high school seasons combined.

Stewart played her summer club basketball for North Tartan - the same program that produced current Husker Sam Haiby (Moorhead). In the summer of 2019, Stewart earned an all-tournament selection at the Nike Boo Williams in Hampton, Va.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Peter and Julie Stewart, Annika was born April 17, 2002, in Minot, N.D. She has an older sister, Hannah, who was a starting forward as a senior at Iowa in 2018-19. Annika also has an older brother, Elijah, who attends the U.S. Naval Academy.

Stewart chose Nebraska over Minnesota and Iowa because of the overall program.

"I really like the coaching staff and the family atmosphere," Stewart said. "I believe it is a special place with great support to thrive as a student-athlete. I'm excited to be a Husker!"

FRESHMAN (2020-21)

Annika (pronounced AH-nick-ah) Stewart, a 6-3 forward out of Wayzata High School in Plymouth, Minn., was the first commitment in Nebraska's signing class, making her intentions known on July 31, 2019.

Stewart gives the Huskers a versatile forward with a strong post game and the ability to shoot the three. Stewart enjoyed a strong senior season at Wayzata, averaging 25 points over her final 12 games of the season to earn first-team Class 4A All-State accolades.

In her collegiate debut, Stewart got off to an impressive start with 12 points, seven rebounds, an assist, a block and two steals in 16 minutes of action in a 90-61 win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 4). Stewart hit her first five shots, including a pair of three-pointers, against the Golden Eagles to help shoot Nebraska to victory.

She starred again off the bench with 15 points and two more three-pointers in just nine minutes off the bench in a 64-51 win over Idaho State (Dec. 6).

Stewart was Nebraska's nominee for Big Ten Freshman of the Week (Dec. 7) after averaging 13.5 points and 4.5 rebounds in 12.5 minutes per game to open the season.

She is coming off her fourth double-figure scoring performance of the season with 12 points including a career-high three three-pointers in the win at Illinois (Jan. 25). Stewart hit back-to-back threes in a one-minute span midway through the fourth quarter to give the Big Red the lead for good.

Stewart added double figures with 10 points, six rebounds and an assist at Creighton (Dec. 14).

She supplied seven big points off the bench,

NAILAH DILLARD

5-9 Sophomore Guard Sacramento, California (Inderkum/Texas Tech)

HIGH SCHOOL

Dillard was one of the top players in California at Inderkum High School in Sacramento. She averaged 22 points per game as a senior to earn second-team all-state honors. As a junior at Inderkum, she scored a career-high 40 points in a 68-36 win over Woodland (Jan. 10, 2018). Five days earlier, she scored 34 in a win over Yuba City. They were two of 14 games during Dillard's junior season in which she scored 25 or more points.

She competed for West Coast Premier, one of the top travel teams in California, and she led the EYBL in three-point percentage as a junior.

Dillard was an honor roll student and graduated magna cum laude from Inderkum.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Jason Dillard and Damia Dillard, Nailah was born Nov. 7, 2001. She has a twin sister, Naomi, and a younger sister, Samaya. Nailah is majoring in political science at Nebraska.

HONORS & AWARDS

- All-California (Second Team, 2019)

OUTLOOK (2020-21)

Nailah Dillard (pronounced NY-EE-luh) came to Nebraska after spending her first collegiate season at Texas Tech. The 5-9 guard from Sacramento, Calif., was expected to add an athletic presence to the Husker backcourt at both ends of the floor.

Unfortunately, Dillard was bothered by a hip injury late in the summer and was limited during the fall. She underwent season-ending surgery on Dec. 15.

"We are very excited to add Nailah to the Husker family. She brings another confident presence from behind the arc, and she is a player hungry to expand her game. She takes pride in playing on both ends of the court."

Dillard averaged 3.6 points and 1.7 rebounds in just under 10 minutes per game for the Lady Raiders. She appeared in 23 contests while making a pair of starts. She scored a career-high 10 points in a career-high 28 minutes in a win over Oklahoma (Jan. 22). Dillard added a pair of steals while knocking down a career-high-tying three threes against the Sooners.

Dillard added nine points in 27 minutes the next time out against Big 12 champion Baylor (Jan. 25). She hit a pair of threes against the Lady Bears.

Early in the season, Dillard scored nine points in just nine minutes in a win over Florida A&M (Nov. 18). She established her career high with three threes against the Rattlers. She also grabbed a career-high four rebounds and dished out a career-best two assists against FAMU.

me as a person on and off the court. I wanted to play for a program that values success, and I am looking forward to playing with teammates and for coaches who love to win as much as I do."

Kendall Coley comes to Nebraska as the top-ranked player in a top-25 recruiting class for the Huskers. Coley, a 6-2 wing from Minneapolis, Minn., was ranked as one of the top-50 players in the nation by All-Star Girls Report (36), Prospects Nation (39) and ESPN Hoopgurlz (49) in 2021, while adding a No. 52 ranking from Blue Star.

Coley, who committed to Nebraska in April of 2020, averaged 15.5 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists as a junior at St. Louis Park High School.

She chose to graduate from high school in mid-January and enroll early at Nebraska after the high school basketball season in Minnesota was delayed by the pandemic for nearly two months.

Coley joined the Nebraska roster on Jan. 19, and is immediately eligible to play. She went through her first practice on Jan. 21, and was in uniform for NU's win at Illinois (Jan. 25), but did not play in the game.

She is expected to be a freshman again for the Huskers in 2021-22.

"Kendall is one of the most exciting players in the 2021 class," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She is very versatile and can play every position on the court. She is long, athletic and skilled, which is a devastating combination. She is a special talent, and we believe she can make a great impact in the Big Ten Conference."

National Team and was the 2019 Gatorade Minnesota Volleyball Player of the Year after committing to play volleyball at Nebraska.

Coley chose Nebraska over Washington, Purdue, Minnesota, Arkansas, Ohio State, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan.

"I knew Nebraska was where I wanted to be," Coley said. "It was my No. 1 choice. It felt like the right place and everyone was so nice when I visited."

In 2017, Bourne led Australia's U17 team to gold at the Oceania Championship in Guam by averaging 19 points, 9.8 rebounds and 2.6 assists to claim a spot on the all-tournament team. She was also the MVP of the 2017 FIBA Under-18 Asia Cup 3-on-3 tournament in Mongolia, leading her team to another gold medal. Bourne was also named to the Gems squad for the 2018 FIBA Under-18 Asian Championships.

Bourne trained at the Australian Institute of Sport and Basketball Australia's Centre of Excellence under Coach Kristen Veal. She was also a developmental player in the University of Canberra Capitals program.

PERSONAL

Her older sister, Callie, is a junior guard at Idaho State, and her oldest sister, Emma, also plays in the Canberra Capitals Academy. Her father, Trent, played Australian Football, while her mother, Ann, was a basketball player.

Issie is a two-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. She was also a member of the 2020 Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

Bourne chose Nebraska over Marquette, Arizona State and Utah.

Isabelle Bourne is making big contributions in her first season as a Husker starter. The 6-2 sophomore from Canberra, Australia is averaging 14.0 points, 7.3 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.1 blocks while seeing time at power forward and on the wing. She produced career highs of 22 points and four assists to go along with seven rebounds at Purdue (Dec. 23). She opened Big Ten play with a then-career-high 21 points to go along with eight boards in Nebraska's win over Illinois (Dec. 10).

Bourne contributed 18 points, seven rebounds and three assists in Nebraska's 68-64 win at No. 23 Michigan State (Jan. 10). She began the season with 14 points and nine rebounds in a win over Oral Roberts (Dec. 4). She added three assists, three blocks and a steal against ORU. She had team highs with 16 points and six rebounds at No. 15 Indiana (Dec. 20), before notching her first career double-double with 11 points and 10 boards in a win over No. 15 Northwestern (Dec. 31). She added a second straight double-double with 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in a win over Rutgers (Jan. 3).

Bourne (aka "Issie" - sounds like IZZY) pitched in nine points, three rebounds and two assists going head-to-head against her older sister, Callie, in a 64-51 win over Idaho State (Dec. 6).

Bourne made an immediate impact as a freshman, averaging 5.9 points and 4.4 rebounds while playing in all 30 games.

Bourne closed her freshman campaign with career highs of 16 points and five blocks against Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament (March 5). She added six rebounds, an assist and a steal in Game Highlights: Kate Cain led six Huskers in double figures by producing her 13th career double-double to lead Nebraska to a 90-61 season-opening win over Oral Roberts. Cain had 10 points and five rebounds in the first quarter to help get the Huskers rolling after falling behind early. She finished with 14 points, 11 rebounds and six blocked shots. Isabelle Bourne nearly added the first double-double of her career with 14 points and a career-high nine rebounds in her first collegiate start. Fellow sophomore Trinity Brady helped the Huskers surge to a 45-35 halftime lead by burying back-to-back threes in the opening minute of the second quarter. Brady finished with career highs of 15 points, five rebounds and three threes in her starting debut. Sam Haiby pitched in 14 points, eight rebounds and seven assists, while Makenzie Helms added 10 points - all in the second half to put all five of Nebraska's returning players in double figures. They were joined by freshman Annika Stewart, who opened her career by hitting her first five shots, including a pair of threes, on her way to 12 points and seven rebounds.

Game Highlights: Ashley Scoggin scored a game-high 16 points with four three-pointers to help the Huskers work their way to a 64-51 win over Idaho State at Pinnacle Bank Arena. In a possession game through three quarters, Scoggin scored five of NU's first seven points on her way to eight points in the half but the Huskers trailed 25-24 at halftime. She opened the second half with back-to-back threes in the first minute, before Nebraska's inside game took over. Post players Kate Cain, Isabelle Bourne, Annika Stewart and Bella Cravens combined for 13 straight points, before Sam Haiby closed the quarter with a three-pointer to send the Huskers to the final period with a 46-40 lead. The Big Red continued to pound the ball inside to build a 13-point lead. Stewart pumped in 15 points in less than nine minutes off the bench for NU, while Cain contributed eight points and Cravens added six points. Isabelle Bourne finished with nine points for the Huskers, while her older sister, Callie, had nine points, 14 rebounds and seven assists for an Idaho State squad that returned its top nine scorers from an 18-win team in 2019-20.

Game Highlights: Sam Haiby scored 21 of her career-high 33 points in the second half to help Nebraska rally from a five-point fourth-quarter deficit for a 78-72 win over Illinois in the Huskers' Big Ten opener at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Haiby, who had just two points in the first quarter, produced double digits in each of the next three quarters to spark the Big Red to victory. Haiby scored six points in Nebraska's decisive 13-0 run in a span of just 2:56, that turned a 67-63 deficit with 3:34 left into the biggest lead of the game for either team at 76-67 with 38 seconds left. Haiby hit 9-of-17 shots from the field and 14-of-16 free throws, including 11-of-11 in the second half. Haiby added nine rebounds, four assists and two steals. Isabelle Bourne added a career-high 21 points, including eight of Nebraska's first 10 points in the fourth quarter. Bourne added eight boards and two steals. Bella Cravens also came up big by tying her collegiate career high with 16 rebounds while making her first start as a Husker. Cravens yanked down 12 boards in the second half alone to help the Huskers to a 47-35 rebound edge over an Illini team that entered the game with a plus-11 average rebound margin. Jada Peebles led Illinois with 16 points and five assists, while Eva Rubin and Solape Amusan each had 13 points.

Game Highlights: Creighton knocked down 13 three-pointers, including 10 in the first half, to jump to a 42-21 halftime lead on its way to a 78-62 win over Nebraska at D.J. Sokol Arena. The Bluejays sprinted to a 9-0 lead, before Nebraska closed to within 19-13 at the end of the first quarter. The Jays then hit seven second-quarter threes to outscore the Huskers 23-8 in the period. Although the Huskers began the game with just eight available players and had that number slip to seven with a first-half ankle injury to Ruby Porter, Nebraska trimmed the CU margin to 14 points on multiple occasions in the second half. Sam Haiby led Nebraska with 18 points, eight rebounds and three assists, while Kate Cain added 15 points and five boards. Annika Stewart contributed 10 points and six rebounds off the bench while Isabelle Bourne pitched in nine points and eight boards. Temi Carda and Tatum Rembao led CU with 18 points apiece, while Rachael Saunders added two points including a floater with two seconds left.

Game Highlights: Isabelle Bourne led the Huskers with 16 points and six rebounds, but No. 15 Indiana used a 15-0 run midway through the second quarter to race to an 81-45 win over the Huskers at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall. Bourne scored 14 of her points in the first half, but the Huskers still trailed 38-19 at halftime after being outscored 25-10 in the second quarter. Bella Cravens was the only other Husker to manage double figures, scoring 10 of her 12 points in the second half. Nebraska struggled offensively against a tough Indiana defense. The Huskers hit just 27.1 percent of their shots from the field, including just 4-of-20 three-pointers. Nebraska held Indiana to just 38.8 percent shooting, but the Hoosiers dominated the glass with a plus-26 rebound margin. The Hoosiers attempted 80 shots on the day, compared to just 59 by the Huskers. Aleksa Gulbe led Indiana with game highs of 18 points and 12 rebounds, while Kiandra Browne added a double-double of her own off the bench with 12 points and 10 boards. Mackenzie Holmes added 16 points inside for the Hoosiers, who won their Big Ten home opener.

Game Highlights: Isabelle Bourne scored a career-high 22 points and added a career-high four assists, but the Huskers were unable to overcome hot-shooting Purdue in an 83-72 loss at Mackey Arena. Bourne led four Huskers in double figures, including 16 points apiece from Sam Haiby and Ashley Scoggin and 12 points from Kate Cain. While Nebraska was solid on the offensive end, hitting 46.2 percent of its shots while committing just seven turnovers in the contest, the Boilermakers were even better. Kayana Traylor led the Boilers with 21 points, while two-time All-Big Ten guard Karissa McLaughlin scored 13 points in just 13 minutes off the bench, including all three of her three-point attempts. Purdue hit 10-of-22 threes in the game and 47.6 percent of its shots overall. The Boilermaker bench outscored the short-handed Husker reserves 32-0. Fatou Diagne also led the Boilers to a plus-10 (40-30) advantage on the boards by pulling down 17 rebounds while adding nine points. Diagne was one of eight Boilermakers to score six or more points in the game, while Nebraska had just seven players available to compete because of injuries.

Game Highlights: Sam Haiby's put-back of her own missed layup attempt as time expired lifted Nebraska to a 65-63 upset of No. 15 Northwestern on New Year's Eve at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Haiby's buzzer-beater banked high off the glass and found the net after she flung it skyward with her back to the basket. The shot was ESPN Sport Center's Top Play and gave Nebraska its first win over a top-15 team since beating No. 9 Duke, 60-54, in Lincoln on Dec. 3, 2014. Haiby finished with 19 points, eight rebounds and five assists, while Isabelle Bourne added her first career double-double with 11 points and 10 boards. Nebraska overcame a minus-17 turnover margin with a plus-12 rebound margin and outscored the defending Big Ten champion Wildcats 18-12 in second-chance points. Although the Huskers only had eight players available, Nebraska's three freshmen reserves combined to outscore the Northwestern bench 16-0. Annika Stewart led Nebraska's bench with seven second-half points, while Whitney Brown hit back-to-back threes in a 32-second span midway through the second quarter to turn a 34-28 deficit into a tie game. Nebraska's defense frustrated the Cats throughout the game and held Northwestern without a field goal for the first 9:51 of the second half. Kate Cain had nine defensive rebounds and blocked four shots to become just the sixth player in Big Ten history to record 300 career blocks.

Game Highlights: Isabelle Bourne notched her second straight double-double with 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds, while Sam Haiby added a team-high 16 points to help Nebraska battle its way to a 53-50 victory over Rutgers at Pinnacle Bank Arena. In addition to their offensive contributions, Bourne and Haiby led a Nebraska defense that held Rutgers 36 points below its season scoring average while nearly shutting down the Big Ten's leading scorer, Arella Guirantes. The Rutgers star entered the contest averaging nearly 25 points per game but managed just eight points on 3-of-24 shooting against the Big Red. Ashley Scoggin added 11 points, all in the second half, including a trio of huge three-pointers. Scoggin also sealed the win by sinking a pair of free throws with 12.3 seconds left. Nebraska closed defensive possessions by winning the rebound battle with Rutgers, 46-34. Bella Cravens led the Huskers on the glass with 13 rebounds, while Kate Cain added seven boards and a pair of blocked shots. Nebraska took a 24-23 lead to halftime, then built a nine-point lead midway through the third quarter after three straight three-pointers from Scoggin and Whitney Brown. But Rutgers rallied to take a 40-39 lead to the fourth quarter and built the margin to 44-40, before Scoggin nailed a three and Haiby scored six straight points to fuel a decisive 9-0 Husker run midway through the fourth quarter.

Game Highlights: Nebraska rallied from 11 points down with 4:29 left to push No. 15 Michigan to the brink in a 64-62 loss at the Crisler Center. Sam Haiby led Nebraska with 27 points and nine rebounds in an outstanding all-around effort. Kate Cain added 12 points and six boards, while Bella Cravens pitched in 10 points and six rebounds. With the Huskers trailing 60-49 in the fourth, Isabelle Bourne ignited a 9-0 run with a three-pointer and a short jumper. Haiby followed with a steal and a layup, before Cravens hit a jumper from the left elbow to make it 60-58 with a minute left. Michigan got a put-back from Naz Hillmon with 38 seconds left to extend the lead, before Haiby's layup cut the gap to 62-60 with 15 seconds left. Nebraska had to commit five quick fouls to send Akiemrah Johnson to the line with nine seconds left. She made both free throws, but Cain kept NU alive with a layup with 2.7 seconds left. Whitney Brown then deflected the Michigan inbounds pass in the front court. Bella Cravens grabbed the loose ball and heaved a half-court shot that would have counted, but it did not draw iron. Hillmon produced one of the best individual efforts by an opponent in Husker history with 35 points and 22 rebounds, including 13 offensive boards. Michigan tied an opponent record with 30 offensive rebounds in the game.

Game Highlights: Nebraska rallied from a five-point fourth-quarter deficit to take a 68-64 road win at No. 23 Michigan State at the Breslin Center. Isabelle Bourne led the Big Red with a game-high 18 points to go along with seven rebounds. Sam Haiby added 11 points and a career-high 12 rebounds for her first career double-double, and freshman Ruby Porter sparked the Huskers with a career-high nine points on three three-pointers. Bourne and Ashley Scoggin, who finished with eight points, combined for 16 first-quarter points to shoot Nebraska to a 20-16 lead at the end of the first period. Porter opened and closed the quarter with three-pointers to send the Big Red to halftime with a 39-30 lead. But Michigan State erupted on an 8-0 run to start the second half and led 49-48 heading to the fourth quarter. The Spartans took their biggest lead at 56-51 before Porter buried a three-pointer to help rally the Huskers. Bella Cravens then scored on a put-back before finding Kate Cain rolling to the basket to tie the game at 58. Bourne gave the Huskers the lead for good before Haiby finished a three-point play to cap a 9-0 run and give the Huskers a 63-58 lead. Cain added the winning basket on another put-back before free throws and defense sealed the win.

Game Highlights: Kate Cain and Sam Haiby both threatened triple-doubles and Nebraska's defense shut down a high-powered Ohio State offense in a 63-55 upset of the No. 15 Buckeyes at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Cain led the Big Red on both ends of the floor by tying her career high with 22 points to go along with 12 rebounds and the second-best individual blocked shot performance in school history with nine. Cain altered many other shots and cleared eight defensive rebounds, as Nebraska held the Buckeyes to just 27.2 percent shooting from the floor. The Huskers also held OSU 35 points below its season scoring average entering the game to hand the Buckeyes their first loss of the season. Haiby added her second straight double-double with 11 points and a career-high 10 assists while adding eight rebounds. Bella Cravens also played big with six points and 14 rebounds, while true freshman Whitney Brown scored a career-high 14 points off the bench with a career-high four three-pointers. Nebraska trailed 4-0 to open the game but answered with seven straight points and never trailed the rest of the way. The Huskers, who played without their second-leading scorer and rebounder Isabelle Bourne because of an ankle injury, held the Buckeyes to just 21 points in the first half and built a 14-point lead in the fourth quarter.

Game Highlights: Sam Haiby notched her third consecutive double-double with 25 points and 12 rebounds but it was not enough to stop hot-shooting Minnesota from escaping Pinnacle Bank Arena with a 76-71 win. The Golden Gophers connected on 15-of-32 three-pointers, including five from Gadiva Hubbard to shoot to victory. Hubbard hit three of her threes in the decisive fourth quarter, when she scored 12 of her team-high 18 points. Sara Scalia added four threes for the Gophers, including three in a 29-point second quarter to shoot Minnesota back into a possession game after trailing 20-10 at the end of the first period. Despite the hot shooting by Minnesota, Nebraska still led by nine, 51-42, early in the third quarter before going 10 minutes without a field goal in the third and fourth quarters. Even with the long field goal drought, the game was still tied at 68 before a go-ahead three by Hubbard in the final minute. Nebraska answered with a season-high nine threes, including four from Ashley Scoggin who tied her season high with 16 points. No other Husker managed double figures but all seven Nebraska players who were available contributed at least five points. Nebraska played without starter Isabelle Bourne for the second consecutive game, but Ruby Porter contributed seven points, four rebounds and two assists in her second start.

Game Highlights: Sam Haiby scored 12 of her game-high 22 points in the fourth quarter, and Nebraska produced another stellar defensive effort in a hard-fought 57-53 win at Illinois. Haiby made the game's biggest play with her steal of an Illinois inbounds pass with 10 seconds left and Nebraska clinging to a 55-53 lead. She then stepped to the line with 5.7 seconds left and sank both free throws to seal the win and give Nebraska a season sweep of the Illini. Seconds earlier, MiCole Cayton, playing in her first game as a Husker, stole the ball from J-Naya Ephraim right after an inbounds pass and sank one of two free throws to put NU up 55-53. Annika Stewart also played a big role for the Big Red, draining back-to-back three-pointers midway through the fourth quarter to give NU the lead for good at 49-46 after the Huskers trailed entering the fourth quarter. Stewart finished with 12 points and a career-high three threes. Ruby Porter also played a major role by sinking a career-high three threes on her way to a career-high 11 points. Nebraska was able to muster enough offense to win despite playing its third straight game without starter and second-leading scorer Isabelle Bourne, who had 21 points in the first meeting with Illinois.
