SCOUTING THE HOUSTON CHRISTIAN HUSKIES

Coach Donna Finnie is in her 10th season leading the Huskies. A native of Edinburgh, Scotland, Finnie was the first international coach in NCAA Division I men's or women's basketball history.

Finnie led the Huskies to her first winning season a year ago, guiding HCU to a 16-11 record and a 12-2 conference mark to earn the school's first Southland Conference women's basketball title.

Houston Christian must replace leading scorer and Southland Conference Player of the Year Timia Jefferson from 2021-22. Jefferson, a 5-9 guard, averaged 12.7 points per game before transferring to Texas State for the 2022-23 campaign.

Despite the departure of Jefferson, HCU has a load of experienced players. N'Denasija Collins, a 6-0 senior forward, averaged 9.6 points and 6.4 rebounds while hitting 85.7 percent (60-70) of her free throws and 34.8 percent (8-23) three-pointers.

Julija Vujakovic, a 5-11 graduate guard, added 9.1 points, 2.9 rebounds and a team-best 1.7 steals per game. One of two players from Luxembourg on HCU's roster, Vujakovic also led HCU with 50 three-pointers and was the only Husky to start all 27 games.

Senior Kennedy Wilson also returns to the starting lineup after averaging 8.2 points, 2.3 rebounds and a team-best 2.3 assists per game. The 5-6 guard hit 40.4 percent (19-47) of her threes and 86.7 percent (85-98) of her free throws.

Abbey Sutherland returns to the post after making 26 starts in 2021-22. The 6-4 senior from Hamilton, Australia, averaged 4.3 points and 4.8 rebounds while leading the team with 35 blocks. She hit 12-of-37 threes (.324) but just 28.3 percent (39-138) of her shots overall.

Enya Maguire, a junior from Belfast, Northern Ireland, averaged 5.7 points and 2.4 rebounds while making 14 starts. Overall, the 2022-23 Houston Christian roster features seven international players (Australia-3, Northern Ireland-2, Luxembourg-2), six players from the state of Texas, and Erickson, who is from Washington, Missouri.

NO. 22 HUSKERS HOST SOUTHLAND CHAMPS

Nebraska completes its two-game season-opening home stand by playing host to 2022 Southland Conference regular-season champion Houston Christian tonight at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

The Huskers are celebrating Military Appreciation Night, which include a special ball presentation at halfcourt approximately 12 minutes prior to the 8 p.m. tip-off. Tonight's late tip was scheduled to accommodate Husker fans who also wanted to attend Nebraska's home volleyball match against Iowa at the Devaney Center (6 p.m.).

Nebraska, which is ranked No. 22 in both the AP and USA Today/WBCA Top 25 preseason rankings, opened the regular season with a 100-36 win over in-state rival Omaha on Monday. Nebraska's 64-point margin of victory was the largest in a season opener in school history.

Nebraska hit 14 three-pointers against the Mavericks, with all 10 active Huskers sinking at least one three. It was the first time in NU history that every available Husker drained a three in a game.

Along with 42 points from beyond the arc, the Huskers got 50 points in the paint, led by 21 points and nine rebounds from 6-2 power forward Isabelle Bourne. Naismith Trophy and Lisa Leslie Award candidate Alexis Markowski added 13 points and eight rebounds, while Annika Stewart contributed 10 points and seven boards off the bench.

Allison Weidner led the Husker guards with 19 points and a career-high nine rebounds, while Maddie Krull added 18 points and a career-high-tying four three-pointers in her Husker debut.

Naismith Trophy and Ann Meyers Drysdale Award candidate Jaz Shelley managed five points while distributing a game-high 10 assists and snagging a game-high four steals.

Houston Christian comes to Lincoln after an 87-33 win over the University of the Southwest on Monday in Houston. The Huskies jumped to a 25-5 lead that included 5-of-7 three-point shooting.

N'Denasija Collins led HCU with 21 points, while Enya Maguire added 17 points off the bench. Six different Huskies hit at least one three in the game, including Maguire (3-5) and Julija Vujakovic (3-7), as HCU knocked down 10-of-24 threes on the night. HCU also hit 23-of-28 free throws.

Houston Christian (formerly Houston Baptist) is coming off a 16-11 season that included a 12-2 conference mark to win the Southland regular-season title in 2021-22. The Huskies also advanced to the 2022 Postseason WNIT.

Last season, Houston Christian averaged just 57.7 points but held opponents to 56.2 points per contest. They hit a sparkling 77.8 percent from the free throw line, but knocked down just 35 percent from the field, including 31.6 percent from three-point range. Despite their size, the Huskies were out-rebounded 39.5-35.8 on the year. Opponents hit just 23.9 percent of their threes against HCU's defense.

Tonight's meeting will be the first between Nebraska and Houston Christian.

FACTS & FIGURES

- Nebraska's 64-point victory margin (100-36) over Omaha was the largest in a season opener and the fifth-largest in any game in school history.
The Huskers reached the century mark for the 30th time in school history and the fourth time in the last 34 games. Last season, Nebraska opened with 108 points

THREE THINGS TO WATCH

1 Nebraska hit 14 three-pointers in its opening win over Omaha. The Huskers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 21 nationally with 8.5 made threes per game last season.

2 Although Nebraska was one of the nation's most prolific teams from three-point range last season, the Huskers still totaled 1,304 points on two-point field goals last year.

3 Tonight's game will include five Australians on the rosters of the two teams. Jaz Shelley (Moe) and Isabelle Bourne (Canberra) lead the Huskers as starters, while starting center Abbey Sutherland (Hamilton) joins Amy Cotton (Adelaide) and Lauryn Mapusua (Queensland) for the Huskies.

against Maine, before scoring 102 in Game 2 vs. Prairie View A&M. NU added a season-high 113 points in a win over North Carolina Central in Game 5 in 2021-22.

- Nebraska's 36 points allowed to Omaha were the second-fewest in a season opener in history, trailing only the 33 points scored by Alabama A&M on Nov. 14, 2019.
NU's 33 points in the third quarter tied for the most in a third quarter in school history. It was the sixth 30-point third quarter in Nebraska's last 34 games.
Nebraska's 14 made threes tied for the fourth-most in school history and were the second most in an opener, trailing only the overall school record of 17 made threes against Vermont at the Devaney Center on Nov. 13, 2010. NU's 34 attempts tied for the second most in Husker history.
Nebraska scored 100 points despite going without a free throw attempt in the game. It was the first time in Husker women's basketball history that NU did not attempt a free throw (1,462 games). It was just the third time the Huskers went without a made free throw (vs. Georgia St., Dec. 7, 1989, 0-3; at Iowa, Dec. 11, 1987, 0-2).
