SCOUTING THE ALABAMA A&M BULLDOGS

Former Husker Margaret Richards brings her Alabama A&M Bulldogs to Pinnacle Bank Arena for the second time in the last three seasons to battle Nebraska.

Richards, who is in her sixth season as the head coach at Alabama A&M, was a four-year letterwinner at Nebraska from 2001 through 2004. The 5-9 guard from Louisville, Ky., finished her Husker career with 915 points, 518 rebounds and 216 assists while playing 117 games with 69 starts for the Big Red.

Alabama A&M comes to Lincoln with an 0-2 record after playing back-to-back games in Ohio to open the season. The Bulldogs dropped a 73-52 decision at Dayton in the opener on Nov. 9, before suffering a 73-60 setback at Cincinnati on Nov. 10. The Bearcats are coached by former Nebraska assistant Michelle Clark-Heard, who played a significant role in bringing Richards to Lincoln as a player.

The Bulldogs also feature a pair of Nebraskans in their starting five. Nigeria Jones, a 5-7 graduate student out of Lincoln Northeast High School, has averaged 9.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 2.5 steals through two games this season. Jones, who has played in 108 games with 100 starts as a Bulldog, has scored 1,036 career points.

Senior Dariauna Lewis is in her third season as a starter at Alabama A&M. The 6-1 forward out of Omaha North High School spent her first season at Missouri State. She is averaging 6.5 points and team highs of 8.0 rebounds and 4.5 blocked shots through two games this season. Last season, Lewis led the Bulldogs in scoring (17.8 ppg), rebounding 13.0 rpg) and blocks (2.1 bpg) while helping Alabama A&M to a 10-7 record. She also led the team in all three categories as a sophomore in 2019-20, when she averaged 16.8 points, 9.2 rebounds and 1.7 blocks.

In the 2019-20 season opener, Jones put up 16 points and six rebounds to lead Alabama A&M against the Huskers at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Nov. 6, 2019), while Lewis added eight points and nine rebounds in her first game as a Bulldog. Nebraska battled its way to a 68-46 win.

HUSKERS BATTLE FAMILIAR BULLDOGS

The Nebraska women's basketball team continues its five-game season-opening home stand by taking on Alabama A&M today at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

The Bulldogs, who are coached by former Husker Margaret Richards, make their second trip to Lincoln in three seasons, after opening the 2019-20 campaign with a 68-46 loss to Nebraska.

The Huskers (2-0) enter Sunday's game following the most prolific offensive start through two games in any season in Nebraska history. The Big Red opened with a 108-50 victory over defending America East Conference regular-season champion Maine (Nov. 9) before running to a 102-47 win over Prairie View A&M (Nov. 11).

It marked the first time in school history that Nebraska opened with back-to-back 100-point games and represented just the second time in Husker history that the Big Red has scored 100 points in back-to-back games at any point in a season.

Nebraska's 210 points through two games mark the highest scoring two-game start in NU history, and the Huskers need 82 points against Alabama A&M today in order to reach the highest scoring offensive start over three games to start any season.

While it is easy to get wrapped up in the numbers, the most significant statistics come from the way Nebraska has shared the scoring through two contests. Five Huskers have scored in double figures in each of the first two games, but only Isabelle Bourne has produced double-digit points in both contests.

In the game one win over Maine, Bourne led the Big Red with 17 points, while Bella Cravens contributed 13 points. Ashley Scoggin and Annika Stewart each added 12 points, while Sam Haiby scored 10.

In game two, Jaz Shelley led the Huskers with 22 points and 11 rebounds for her first career double-double, while Alexis Markowski put up 14 points off the bench. Bourne produced 13 points, including nine of NU's first 15, while Allison Weidner added 11 points, eight rebounds and five assists. Kendall Coley rounded out the Huskers in double figures with career highs of 10 points and seven rebounds.

The Huskers enter the Alabama A&M with 10 players averaging 6.0 or more points per game led by Bourne and Shelley, who are both averaging 15.0 per contest. Nebraska's two Cornhusker State freshmen, Markowski (11.0 ppg) and Weidner (10.0 ppg), give the Big Red four players averaging in double figures.

Through two games, Nebraska's bench combined to score 98 points in 205 total minutes, while Husker opponents combined for 97 points in 400 minutes.

The Huskers have hit nearly 58 percent of their shots from the floor, including 51.4 percent (19-37) of their three-pointers through two games.

Nebraska has shared the ball exceptionally well, recording 26 assists in each of the first two games, including nine assists from Haiby in Thursday's win over Prairie View A&M. Nebraska has already had four players (Haiby-9, Scoggin-6, Shelley-5, Weidner-5) record five or more assists in a game.

The Huskers also have worked hard on the glass, producing a plus-26 rebound margin against PVAMU and a plus-23 margin against Maine. Nebraska's 48 defensive rebounds against the Panthers on Thursday were just one shy of the school record of 49 set against Sam Houston State on Nov. 23, 1990.

THREE THINGS TO WATCH

1 Alabama A&M's Margaret Richards owns a 53-82 record in her sixth season as head coach of the Bulldogs. However, Alabama A&M has produced back-to-back winning seasons, and Richards' team has improved its winning percentage in each of her first five years at the Huntsville, Alabama school. Richards was a four-year letterwinner as a guard at Nebraska (2001-04).

2 Alabama A&M starters Nigeria Jones (Lincoln Northeast) and Dariauna Lewis (Omaha North) have been leaders for the Bulldogs in back-to-back winning seasons. A&M went 10-7 in an abbreviated season in 2020-21, after going 17-13 in 2019-20. Both Nebraskans started in Alabama A&M's 2019-20 season-opening loss to the Huskers, combining for 24 points and 15 rebounds in a 68-46 loss (Nov. 6, 2019).

3 The Bulldogs return their top three scorers from a year ago in Lewis (17.8 ppg), Deshawna Harper (15.2 ppg) and Jones (10.1 ppg). The trio combined for more than 65 percent (732-of-1,122) of Alabama A&M's points. The Bulldogs ranked third in the SWAC in scoring offense at 66.0 points per game in 2020-21.

FACTS & FIGURES

- Today's game is the second meeting all-time between the Huskers and Bulldogs. Nebraska fought its way to a 68-46 win over Alabama A&M on Nov. 6, 2019. Sam Haiby (8 points) and Isabelle Bourne (2 points) are the only current Huskers who played in that game. Alabama A&M returns three starters from that contest, including Nigeria Jones (16 points, 6 rebounds), Deshawna Harper (15 points, 5 rebounds) and Dariauna Lewis (8 points, 9 rebounds).
- A fourth Bulldog, Lazurea Saunders, also saw 14 minutes of action with two points and five boards.
- Overall, Alabama A&M returns 41 of its 46 points and 25 of its 45 rebounds from its first meeting with Nebraska. The Huskers return just 10 points and four rebounds of their 68 points and 50 total rebounds.
