Nearly one year after its 2020 season abruptly came to an end, the Nebraska softball team will open its 2021 season this weekend at the Sleepy Hollow Sports Complex in Leesburg, Fla. The Huskers will play three doubleheaders in three days in the Sunshine State, facing Indiana twice on Friday, Michigan State twice on Saturday and Ohio State twice on Sunday.

This weekend's action kicks off a 44-game conference-only schedule that has the Big Red playing multiple games against each of the other 13 Big Ten Conference teams. In addition to the games this weekend, Nebraska will play three-game series against No. 17 Michigan and Purdue in two weeks back at the Sleepy Hollow Sports Complex. The Huskers will then play four-game weekend home series against Penn State, Illinois, Wisconsin and Maryland and four-game weekend road series at Rutgers, Minnesota, Iowa and Northwestern. Each of Nebraska's 12 games in Florida will be available to subscribers of Big Ten Network+.

The Huskers are also optimistic about their season outlook. Nebraska returns its primary starter from last season at all eight defensive positions, while bringing back three of its four pitchers. The Huskers return 90 percent of their hits from last season, 88 percent of their RBIs and 82 percent of their runs. In the circle, NU brings back 70 percent of its innings from 2020.

Individually, all-region performers Tristen Edwards and Samantha Owen both chose to return for a fifth season in 2021. Eight freshmen have been added to the fold, three of whom were ranked among the top 100 recruits nationally (MJ Green, Caitlynn Neal and Abbie Squier).

QUICK HITTERS

- Friday's season opener will mark Nebraska's first game in 355 days. The Huskers last played against New Mexico State on March 8, 2020.
- Friday's season opener will also mark 659 days since Nebraska's last game against a Big Ten Conference opponent, which came against Illinois (May 9) at the 2019 Big Ten Tournament.
- The season opener with Indiana will mark the third time in program history Nebraska has opened a season against a conference opponent. NU opened the 1977 season against Big Eight foe Kansas State and the 1994 campaign against Big Eight counterpart Oklahoma.
- Nebraska's 22-player roster is the largest in school history, and the seven seniors are the most in program history.
- The Huskers have eight true freshmen on the roster, which ties for the most true freshmen in program history.
- Tristen Edwards was named the preseason Big Ten Player of the Year by D1Softball.com, while Caitlynn Neal was chosen as the preseason Big Ten Newcomer of the Year.
- Rhonda Revelle enters her 29th season at Nebraska with 998 wins as the Huskers' head coach.

HUSKERS TO WATCH

Tristen Edwards ranked second nationally in extra-base hits, third in slugging and fourth in homers in 2020, when she was the only player in the nation with 10 doubles and 10 home runs.

Cam Ybarra started all 23 games at second base in her first year at Nebraska in 2020. Ybarra ranked 15th nationally in doubles and was second among Husker regulars with a .312 average.

NEBRASKA 2021 SEASON NOTEBOOK

- Nebraska's roster features 22 players, the largest roster in school history.
- The roster features 10 Nebraska natives, the most in-state players since 1980.
- The roster features the most freshmen (8) and most seniors (7) in the 29-year tenure of Rhonda Revelle as Nebraska's head coach.
- Rhonda Revelle is in her 29th season leading her alma mater in 2021. Revelle is the second-longest serving female head coach in the history of Nebraska Athletics.
- Revelle owns 998 wins at Nebraska. She is the all-time wins leader (male or female) in the history of Nebraska Athletics.
- Associate Head Coach Lori Sippel is in her 32nd year at Nebraska. Sippel is the longest-tenured female assistant coach in the history of Nebraska Athletics.
- Revelle (1981-83) and Sippel (1985-88) also played for NU. Including their playing and coaching careers, Revelle and Sippel have been a part of 1,302 of Nebraska's 1,479 all-time victories (88 percent).
- Assistant coach Diane Miller rounds out the Husker coaching staff. In her 13th season, Miller has helped Nebraska's offense set more than 40 school records.
- NU will play a conference-only schedule for the first time in program history in 2021. The Huskers are scheduled to play 44 Big Ten Conference games, which would nearly double the previous high for most conference games played in one season (24 Big Ten games in 2013).

- Fifth-year seniors Tristen Edwards and Samantha Owen both took advantage of the NCAA waiver for an extra year of eligibility following the cancellation of the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Edwards and Owen are also the only two Huskers who have been an all-conference or all-region performer in their careers. Edwards is a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection and was a 2019 third-team all-region honoree. Owen was a first-team All-WAC pick and third-team all-region selection at Pacific in 2018.
- Tristen Edwards is already one of only five Huskers to be a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection. In 2021, Edwards will look to become the first Husker to earn three first-team All-Big Ten awards, in addition to becoming the eighth three-time first-team all-conference selection in program history.

Both Ybarra and Edwards ranked in the top 25 nationally in doubles in 2020, as Nebraska was one of only five teams in the country with two players in the top 25 nationally in doubles last season.

A LOOK AT NEBRASKA'S EIGHT FRESHMEN

In addition to its 14 returning players, Nebraska's 2021 roster features eight true freshmen, the highest number of true freshmen in school history. Below is a brief look at each freshman.

- Billie Andrews is the sister of Husker sophomore Brooke Andrews. An infielder from Gretna, Andrews was a four-time All-Nebraska selection who had a .435 career batting average with a 1.200 slugging percentage. Her 57 career home runs were only six shy of the state record.
- Camyl Armendariz is an infielder from La Verne, Calif. One of four Corona Angel products on the Huskers' 2021 roster, Armendariz batted .431 in her high school career with 23 doubles and 20 home runs, despite playing only one game as a senior due to the pandemic.
- Sydney Gray is one of two Husker freshmen from Arizona who played her travel ball for the Arizona Desert Thunder. An infielder, Gray batted .503 in her career for Bonita High School, while producing 36 doubles, 16 triples and 16 home runs and slugging .884.
- MJ Green is an infielder from Texas who was a travel ball teammate of fellow freshman Abbey Newlun with Scrap Yard International. The infielder was ranked as a top-100 recruit by FloSoftball and was also regarded as one of the top 150 recruits by Extra Inning Softball.
- Kaylin Kinney is the first Iowa native on the Husker roster since 2004. A pitcher and hitter, Kinney was the 2019 Iowa Gatorade Player of the Year. She went 67-7 with a 0.77 ERA and 527 strikeouts to just 40 walks in her prep career, while batting .501, slugging 1.054 and ranking third in state history with 55 career home runs.
- Caitlynn Neal was named the preseason Big Ten Newcomer of the Year by D1Softball. Ranked as the nation's No. 30 overall recruit by Extra Inning Softball, Neal was a member of the 2019 USA Under-17 Women's National Team and tossed a two-hit shutout in the gold medal game of the 2019 Pan American Championships. A high school All-American, Neal went 23-2 with a 0.71 ERA in her high school career with a .613 batting average.
- Abbey Newlun was a four-year varsity player for The Woodlands High School in Texas, and she was a travel ball teammate of fellow freshman MJ Green. An infielder, Newlun produced 69 hits - including 28 extra-base hits - and 49 RBIs in her prep career.
- Abbie Squier is the lone Lincoln native on Nebraska's 2021 roster. Ranked among the nation's top 100 recruits by Extra Inning Softball, Squier was also named a high school All-American as a junior, when she batted .516 with 15 homers and 65 RBIs.

EDWARDS THREATENED SCHOOL RECORDS IN 2020

Senior outfielder Tristen Edwards was in the midst of a potentially historic year in 2020 before the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In 23 games last season, Edwards hit .434 with 10 doubles, 11 home runs, 21 extra-base hits and a 1.000 slugging percentage.

- Edwards was second nationally in extra-base hits (21) during the shortened 2020 season and was third in slugging percentage (1.000), fourth in home runs (11) and 14th in doubles (10).
- Edwards was on pace to re-write the Nebraska softball season record book in 2020. With 10 doubles, 11 home runs and 21 extra-base hits through 23 games, Edwards was on pace to finish with 24 doubles, 27 home runs and 51 extra-base hits in a typical 56-game regular season. Each of those totals would have been a school record.
- Edwards was also on pace to set a Nebraska season record for slugging percentage (1.000) in addition to finishing with the third-highest average in school history (.434).

EDWARDS LEAVING HER MARK ON HUSKER RECORD BOOK

Senior outfielder Tristen Edwards has joined one elite club in Nebraska history, is nearing another and is poised to challenge several Husker career records.

- Edwards is one of only three members of Nebraska's 40-40 club, which consists of Huskers who have totaled 40 career doubles and 40 career home runs. The other two members of that group are three-time All-American Ali Viola and two-time All-American Taylor Edwards, Tristen's older sister.
- Edwards is also looking to become Nebraska's first member of the 50-50 club. No Husker has ever hit 50 career doubles and 50 career home runs, but Edwards enters the 2021 season eight shy of reaching 50 in each category.
- Edwards is nearing another elite group as she needs 10 runs and 10 RBIs to become the fourth Husker to record 150 career hits, runs and RBIs. The other three members of that group were all multi-time All-Americans (Ali Viola, Taylor Edwards and MJ Knighten).
- From a records standpoint, Edwards is on track to break Nebraska's all-time records in doubles and extra-base hits in addition to challenging several other top marks. Edwards enters the 2021 season needing seven doubles, 13 home runs and 21 extra-base hits to break the Nebraska career record in each of those categories. Edwards averaged 10.5 doubles, 10.5 home runs and 21 extra-base hits over her first four seasons, which consisted of an average of 45 games per season (NU is scheduled for 44 games in 2021).

REVELLE NEARING 1,000-WIN MILESTONE

Nebraska head coach Rhonda Revelle begins her 29th season as the Husker head coach this weekend. She enters the 2021 campaign with 998 wins at Nebraska, needing two wins for her 1,000th victory as Husker head coach.

- The all-time wins leader in the history of Nebraska Athletics, Revelle is looking to become the first Husker coach to record 1,000 wins at Nebraska.
- Only seven active Division I coaches have won 1,000 games at their current school. In her bid to become the eighth coach on that list, she would join Michigan's Carol Hutchins, which would make the Big Ten the only conference in the country with two head coaches who have won 1,000 games at their schools.
- Revelle picked up her 1,000th career victory last season, as she owns eight victories from her lone season as head coach at Nebraska Wesleyan. Revelle is one of 14 active Division I coaches and 24 Division I coaches all-time to reach 1,000 career victories.

BOWLIN STADIUM

The 2020 season marks the 20th season Nebraska has called Bowlin Stadium home. The stadium's inaugural season was in 2002.

One of the top facilities in the country, Bowlin Stadium features seating for 2,500 fans, an underground system that heats the field and a large video board. Just past the right field fence is the Alex Gordon Training Complex, a spacious indoor facility that is large enough for Nebraska to take live batting practice inside the complex. The clubhouse features a locker room, players' lounge, training room and coaches' offices.

Nebraska has won nearly 70 percent of its games at Bowlin Stadium. The Huskers have hosted four NCAA Regionals at Bowlin Stadium and ranked in the top 25 nationally in attendance 14 times, including four seasons ranked in the top 10.
