Prior to the game, NU held a positive foul differential of 2.1 through 16 games this season.

- Nebraska is averaging an impressive 86.7 points per game through 12 games at Pinnacle Bank Arena this season. Rutgers, which is 0-6 in true road games this season, is averaging just 53.5 points in those contests. The Scarlet Knights are holding home teams to just 64.3 points per game.

THE AUSSIE ARMY KNIFE - JAZ SHELLEY

• Shelley was the only collegiate player for Australia at the 2021 Asia Cup in Amman, Jordan. She earned a bronze medal in early October. She joined the Huskers for the 2021-22 season, after completing the NCAA transfer process in mid-April. She spent two seasons at Oregon and has three seasons of eligibility at Nebraska.

2020-21 FRESHMEN LAY SOLID FOUNDATION

- Freshman Ruby Porter (Adelaide, Australia) started five straight games in place of Isabelle Bourne (Jan. 16-Feb. 4) before joining Bourne in the starting five for the first time against No. 9 Maryland (Feb. 14). - The 6-3 forward from Minneapolis set the Nebraska freshman three-point field goal percentage record (.446, 29-65). She buried three threes, including back-to-back threes in a one-minute span in the fourth quarter to give Nebraska the lead for good at Illinois. CAYTON RETURNED TO COURT IN 2020-21

- After 26 months away from competition, MiCole Cayton made her Husker debut memorable in Nebraska's 57-53 road win at Illinois (Jan. 25, 2021).

- Cayton, who was cleared for her first full-court, full-contact practice at Nebraska on Jan. 22, played 19 minutes off the bench and made a crucial play in crunch time to help the Huskers to victory.

- With less than 15 seconds left and NU clinging to a 54-53 lead, Cayton stole the ball at halfcourt from Illinois guard J-Naya Ephraim after she received an inbounds pass. Ephraim fouled Cayton to prevent a layup, and Cayton made 1-of-2 free throws to give NU a 55-53 lead with 10.7 seconds left.

- It was Cayton's first steal as a Husker, but she also drew a pair of offensive fouls on the Illini in the game and finished 3-of-4 at the free throw line.

- It marked Cayton's first game since playing for California against San Diego on Nov. 24, 2018.

Cayton, who hit 5-of-6 shots including a pair of three-pointers to help Nebraska build a 13-point halftime lead on its way to an 86-60 win at Winston-Salem in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, replaced starters Sam Haiby and Ashley Scoggin as they sat with first-half foul trouble.

The 6-2 wing was cleared for full participation on Jan. 21 and practiced for the first time Jan. 22, 2021.

DUAL-SPORT STAR MENDELSON SIGNS WITH BIG RED

• Nebraska women's basketball coach Amy Williams and volleyball coach John Cook announced the signing of Maggie Mendelson, the nation's top dual-sport athlete in the 2022 class to a National Letter of Intent on Nov. 22.

• The 6-5 Mendelson is the only recruit in the country who is a member of the U.S. youth national teams in both basketball and volleyball. The 16-year-old plans to graduate a year early from Fremont High School in North Ogden, Utah and join the Husker programs for the 2022-23 season.

• "I chose Nebraska because of the relationship I have built with the coaches," Mendelson said. "They believe I can play both sports, and I appreciate the tradition of those programs at Nebraska."

• On the basketball court, ESPN tabbed Mendelson the No. 32 recruit and the sixth-ranked post in the country. As a member of the U.S. U16 National Team, she averaged 10.0 points and 6.7 rebounds per game at the FIBA Americas Championship in August, helping USA Basketball to six wins en route to the gold medal.

• At Fremont High School, Mendelson played for Coach Lisa Dalebout and led the Silverwolves to the 2021 state championship with a perfect 26-0 record as a sophomore. Mendelson averaged 14.3 points, 8.9 rebounds, 1.6 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.9 blocks while starting every game. She collected 15 points and 14 rebounds in the state title game.

• As a freshman in 2019-20, Mendelson averaged 8.0 points, 5.6 rebounds, 0.7 assists, 0.3 steals and 1.6 blocks per game.

• "We are thrilled that Maggie has chosen to join our Husker family. She is an elite-level athlete in two sports and she is also a great person with a great family," Williams said. "We feel that her talents and strengths are a great fit with the way we play at Nebraska."

• As a volleyball middle blocker, Mendelson was the nation's No. 2 recruit in the 2023 class by Prep Volleyball before reclassifying. She competed with Team USA at the FIVB U18 World Championships in September. A starting middle alongside fellow NU signee Bekka Allick, Mendelson finished with nine kills, three blocks and two aces in the bronze-medal match.

• At Fremont, she lettered three years for Coach Jantzen Smith and passed the 1,000 career kills milestone in just two and a half years. In 2021, Mendelson totaled 407 kills on .294 hitting with 59 aces and has earned third-team AVCA All-America and first-team All-Region 1 honors.

• As a sophomore, Mendelson played outside hitter and helped her Fremont to a third-place finish in the state tournament and a Region 1 championship. She had 417 kills on .312 hitting and earned 6A first-team all-state recognition by the Deseret News, Region 1 Most Valuable Player and All-Area MVP by the Standard-Examiner for the second straight year.

• A standout freshman season saw Mendelson hit .387 for the Region 1 champion Silverwolves while finishing with 369 kills and 101 blocks. She was a top-20 finalist for Prep Volleyball's National Freshman of the Year and earned a spot on the publication's special mention list for high school All-Americans. In July 2020, Prep Volleyball slotted her No. 2 on its Top 150 list.

• In the classroom, Mendelson carries a 4.0 grade-point average, is a member of the honor society and is an academic all-state honoree.

• Since 2000, four student-athletes -- Greichaly Cepero, Laura Pilakowski, Alicia Ostrander and Allie Havers -- have been on the rosters for both volleyball and basketball at Nebraska. Volleyball All-Americans Cepero and Pilakowski were starters in both sports in the same season (2002-03). Havers, a two-year starter on the basketball team (2015-16, 2016-17) later played for the volleyball team in its indoor (2017) and beach (2018) seasons.

HAKE SIGNS WITH HUSKERS FOR 2022-23

• Nebraska Head Coach Amy Williams announced the signing of Collin Hake (pronounced CAL-in HAKE), one of the top players in the state of Minnesota, to join the Husker women's basketball program for the 2022-23 season.

• Hake, a senior at Chanhassen High School in 2021-22, signed her National Letter of Intent to join the Huskers on the opening day of the signing period on Nov. 10. Hake originally made her commitment to join the Huskers in July of 2020.

• "We could not be more excited to make things official today by signing Collin Hake to her Letter of Intent," Williams said. "She is going to be a versatile guard that can bring a lot of things to our team on the basketball court. I love that she is committed to playing hard on both ends of the court. Not only is Collin the perfect fit for us on the court, but she fits our family. She is not afraid to work and understands how to be a great teammate."

• Hake enters her senior season at Chanhassen within striking distance of 2,000 career points. The 5-8 guard from Victoria, Minn., has scored 1,633 points, grabbed 442 rebounds and grabbed 147 steals in her high school career.

• Chanhassen's all-time leading scorer, Hake was ranked as the No. 7 player in Minnesota and the No. 64 player in the nation by Prep Girls Hoops. She was also rated as the No. 98 player in the country by Jr. All-Star National Rankings. She was invited to the U16 Team USA tryouts in Colorado Springs.

• A three-time All-Metro West Conference selection for the Storm, Hake is also a three-time Chanhassen team most valuable player. Hake averaged 21.5 points per game during a junior season that was shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic in Minnesota. She averaged 22.2 points per game as a sophomore and 20.4 points per contest as a freshman at Class 4A Chanhassen.

• Hake has spent six years competing for the UAA Minnesota Fury, helping the team to a national runner-up finish. She was a first-team Minnesota AAU all-state selection in 2021.

• "I chose Nebraska because of the endless opportunities the University has to offer, the coaching staff and their visions and goals, and the tight bond the girls have on and off the court," Hake said.

• Hake plans to major in marketing at Nebraska. She is the DECA President at Chanhassen High School, a two-year National Honor Society member and a four-year Key Club member.

Isabelle Bourne scored 16 of her game-high 23 points in Nebraska's 25-0 first-quarter spurt that allowed the Huskers to take a 25-4 lead to the second quarter. Alabama A&M, coached by former Husker Margaret Richards, rallied in the second to outscore Nebraska 15-9 and cut NU's edge to 34-19 at the half. But an 18-0 burst by the Big Red early in the third quarter fueled a 30-10 third period to push the margin to 64-29. Nebraska's defense locked down again in the fourth quarter, outscoring the Bulldogs 20-4 to close out the win. NU's 33 points allowed tied for the ninth fewest by an opponent in Husker history and just the second time since 1977 that an opponent scored less than 35 points.

Game Highlights: Sam Haiby scored 13 of her team-high 15 points in the second half to help Nebraska hold off a fourth-quarter rally by Creighton in a 67-62 win over the Bluejays at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Haiby, who added five rebounds, five assists and three steals, sealed Nebraska's first win over Creighton under Coach Amy Williams by knocking down a pair of free throws with 5.4 seconds left for the game's final points. The Huskers, who snapped a five-game losing streak in the series with the Jays, led 33-20 at halftime and built the margin to 16 points late in the third quarter before Creighton clawed away at the lead in the fourth. The Jays turned the game into a scrum in the final 12 minutes in an effort to create more possessions and overcome Nebraska's suffocating halfcourt defense. The two teams combined for 32 fouls and two offsetting technicals during that span, and the Huskers prevailed at the free throw line, outscoring CU 22-15 at the stripe.

Game Highlights: Nebraska rallied from a 13-point deficit early in the third quarter but could not get over the hump in a 72-69 loss at Michigan State. The Huskers suffered through their coldest shooting day from the field of the season, hitting just 7-of-33 three-pointers (.212) while going 24-of-73 overall (.329). The Big Red rallied with defense, as Sam Haiby grabbed a career-high six steals and converted them into fastbreak points in the second half. Haiby, who led NU with 19, helped NU outscore the Spartans 20-11 in points off turnovers and 25-12 in fastbreak points. The Huskers also outscored MSU 17-12 on second-chance points, but a 22-14 edge for the Spartans at the free throw line was enough. Nia Clouden led Michigan State with 32 points, including 15-of-17 at the free throw line. Nebraska was called for 12 fouls against Clouden, while Michigan State was whistled for just 11 in the entire game. Despite the 20-11 foul discrepancy, Nebraska had two three-point tries from Jaz Shelley in the final 10 seconds that could have sent the game to overtime. However, Shelley missed them both and went just 2-for-12 from long range in the game. Shelley still played a dynamic game with eight points, nine rebounds, five assists and three steals.

Warnock hit her first six three-point attempts and added 10 rebounds for the Hawkeyes, who also got 20 points from Monika Czinano. Alexis Markowski scored 14 points and pulled down eight boards in her second straight start in place of an injured Bella Cravens, while Ashley Scoggin led Nebraska from long range with 13 points on a trio of three-pointers. Her final triple gave Nebraska a 79-78 lead in the fourth quarter, but the Huskers could not stop the Hawkeyes down the stretch. Nebraska won the battle of the boards and the turnover battle to attempt 23 more field goals than the Hawkeyes, but the Huskers hit just 39.8 percent (33-83) of their shots from the field, including just 9-of-34 three-pointers.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski led a furious fourth-quarter rally scoring nine straight Husker points in the final four minutes, but it was not enough to prevent No. 6 Indiana from notching a 72-65 win over Nebraska at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall. Markowski scored 11 of her team-high 17 points in the final period to help the Huskers rally from a 17-point third-quarter deficit to within three at 68-65 with 24 seconds left in the game. Jaz Shelley added 15 points and a game-high nine rebounds for the Huskers, while Sam Haiby pitched in 10 points despite missing most of the fourth quarter with a shoulder injury. Markowski made her third straight start in place of an injured Bella Cravens, while Indiana All-Big Ten forward Mackenzie Holmes missed her first game of the season with a leg injury. After Haiby exited the game, Markowski forced the fifth foul on Indiana forward Aleksa Gulbe with four minutes left and NU trailing 65-56. Without the IU starting posts on the floor, Markowski scored nine straight points for NU before fellow freshman Allison Weidner added a pair of free throws to trim IU's lead to 68-65. But the Hoosiers got a huge three-pointer and a pair of free throws from Chloe Moore-McNeil late in the game to secure their 14th straight Big Ten regular-season win. Grace Berger led IU with 22 points, while Gulbe added 17.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski erupted for a career-high 27 points including a career-best 6-of-7 three-point shooting, but Nebraska could not overcome the absence of three starters and a school-record foul disparity of minus-21 in a 93-83 loss at Iowa City. Markowski, who won her fourth Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week award following the performance, set the tone with 16 first-quarter points on 4-of-4 three-point shooting - matching her career total of made threes entering the game. Markowski outscored Iowa 16-14 in the period, shooting Nebraska to a 30-14 lead at the end of one period. But the fouls went sideways in the second quarter. At the half, the fouls were 16-1 in favor of Iowa. The Huskers still led 42-41, despite Iowa outscoring Nebraska 18-0 at the free throw line in the first half. NU led by seven midway through the third, but Iowa took a 67-66 lead to the fourth. The Huskers trailed 84-81 with 2:40 left, but the final 31-5 edge by Iowa at the free throw line was too much to overcome. The Huskers played without their starting guards and leading scorers Sam Haiby (injury) and Jaz Shelley (illness). Bella Cravens, who missed her fourth straight start did return to play two minutes in the third quarter.

She sparked a 10-0 first-quarter run at Michigan State with two points, two steals and two rebounds to help Nebraska lead for much of the game against the Spartans before falling in OT on New Year's Eve in East Lansing.

Brady scored a career-high seven points and knocked down a career-best two threes while adding two rebounds in nine minutes off the bench at Rutgers (Jan. 12).

- No. 263 Player in the Nation (All-Star Girls Report, 2021)

Tatiana Popa is expected to redshirt in her first season at Nebraska in 2021-22. She came to Lincoln as a four-star recruit despite not playing competitively as a high school senior at Brewster Academy in 2020-21 because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Popa closed her junior year at Parkersburg High School in West Virginia. She previously played at IMG Academy and Montverde Academy (2018-19) in Florida. She also competed at Quince Orchard High School in Maryland as a freshman in 2017-18. The 6-5 center/forward was ranked as the No. 263 overall player in the nation by All-Star Girls Report.

Popa's father, Constantin, was a second-round NBA Draft choice of the Los Angeles Clippers in 1995 after playing basketball collegiately at the University of Miami. He is a member of the Miami Sports Hall of Fame, and played professionally overseas in Israel.

"Our program is thrilled to be adding this hard-working, talented young lady to our Husker family," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She knows how to use her length to her advantage on defense and has expanded her versatility on offense. She is working hard to add strength to her frame and understands the benefits that Husker Power will provide her in that area."

HIGH SCHOOL

Popa played at multiple high schools and prep schools before signing with the Huskers. She completed her prep career at Brewster Academy in New Hampshire, but the school did not compete in women's basketball in 2020-21 because of the COVID-19 pandemic. She spent her junior season at Parkersburg High School in West Virginia.
