WALLACE RECEIVES WEEK ONE BIG TEN PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Senior right-hander Courtney Wallace was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week, the conference announced on Monday, Feb. 13. This marked Wallace’s first career pitcher-of-the-week honor.

Wallace was honored after posting a 3-0 record with a 0.00 ERA and three shutouts at the Houston Invitational last weekend. She opened the series with a one-hit shutout over Lamar, helping the Huskers to an 8-0 five-inning victory. Against Houston, Wallace held the Cougars to five hits while striking out five in NU’s 7-0 win. In the final game of the weekend, Wallace blanked previously unbeaten Virginia, leading the Big Red to a 2-0 victory.

Wallace only gave up 12 hits over 19.0 innings and did not allow an extra-base hit, limiting opposing hitters to a paltry .174 average. She added 14 strikeouts and only three runners advanced past second base in her three complete games. Wallace was the only pitcher in the conference to record three wins in the opening weekend of the season. She ranks first in the nation in shutout victories, wins and ERA after the first weekend of the season.

Wallace is the first Husker to be named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week in nearly seven years, as Cassie McClure was the last Husker to be the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week when she took home the honor on April 15, 2016.

BOWLIN STADIUM

The 2023 season marks the 22nd season Nebraska has called Bowlin Stadium home. The stadium's inaugural season was in 2002.

One of the top facilities in the country, Bowlin Stadium features seating for 2,530 fans, an underground system that heats the field, a large video board, FieldTurf and a padded wall. Just past the right field fence is the Alex Gordon Training Complex, a spacious indoor facility that is large enough for Nebraska to take live batting practice inside the complex. The clubhouse features a locker room, players' lounge, training room and coaches' offices.

Nebraska has won nearly 70 percent of its games at Bowlin Stadium. The Huskers have hosted four NCAA Regionals at Bowlin Stadium and ranked in the top 25 nationally in attendance 14 times, including four seasons ranked in the top 10.
